City Clean-Up Week Ordered by Council

In line with Governor O'Daniel's proclamation for a state-wide clean-up week, the McLean city council has ordered a local clean-up week beginning Monday.

The week will be observed along the lines formerly in force here. The city will furnish trucks to haul all trash and rubbish to the dump grounds, only if citizens will pile the trash on streets and alleys so that the truck can be driven alongside for loading.

There is especial reason for making a sanitary town this spring, so that epidemics of sickness may be avoided this summer, and that the city may present an orderly appearance in keeping with the street paving program.

The city trucks may not be able to haul all the rubbish away during the week, but they will continue hauling until the city is cleaned up properly. Citizens are warned not to throw trash on vacant lots, but pile it up, to be hauled away to the city dump.

EASTER COLD SPELL HITS SUNDAY MORNING

The Easter cold spell hit promptly on Easter Sunday this year. Saturday showed the temperature at 60 degrees at noon, with a cold norther striking soon after noon, sending the mercury down to 22 by Sunday morning.

Most of the fruit crop is believed to be killed, as several days of unusually warm weather preceded the freeze, causing buds and blooms to open.

Services will be held at 11 a. m.; lunch at noon in the church dining room; a musical program at 2 p. m. and sermon at 3.

The church was organized April 6, 1866, by Rev. W. A. Erwin, the present pastor, who at that time was pastor-evangelist of the Amarillo society.

The 17 charter members of the church were: J. R. Hindman, Mrs. J. R. Hindman, Mrs. Mattie (Hindman) Graham, J. L. Crabtree, Mrs. J. L. Crabtree, J. W. Davidson, Mrs. J. W. Donnell. Mrs. Mattie Graham and S. W. Brown are the only members of the above group on the roll today.

The elders were J. R. Hindman, G. A. Gamble and M. J. Brooks; the deacons, J. W. Davidson and J. L. Crabtree, and the trustees, J. L. Crabtree, G. A. Gamble and J. R. Hindman.

The meeting for the organization was held in the McLean Methodist Church and through the courtesy of this church, services were held three times each month, conducted by the pastor-evangelist.

In March, 1907, a contract was let for a church building which was equipped with good pews and other suitable furniture. The first services were held in the new building Nov. 3, 1907, and on Sunday, April 16, 1908, the church was dedicated to the worship of God, with Rev. Erwin preaching the dedicatory sermon.

In 1927, the increased membership and the growing Sunday school needed a more adequate building. The frame building was sold and under the pastorate of Rev. R. R. Rives, the present brick structure was erected. A lot was purchased and a manse built in 1913 through the efforts of the Ladies' Aid Society. In 1929, this building was sold and the present brick manse was built on the church lots.

In October, following the dedication of the church, a Sunday school was organized. D. H. Alexander was selected the first superintendent.

A Christian Endeavor Society has been maintained throughout most of the years.

Soon after the church was organized, a Ladies' Aid Society was formed, with Mrs. D. H. Alexander as the first president. During the pastorate of Rev. Rives, a missionary society was organized and united with the Ladies' Aid Society, the combined organization being known as the Auxiliary.

The following men have served the church as pastors and supplies: W. A. Erwin, A. B. Haynes, J. S. Hodges, J. G. House, I. T. Jones, J. T. Bryant, V. H. Rollins, H. M. Smith, J. H. Bone, W. P. Roberts, J. G. Pollard, J. L. Joiner, R. R. Rives.

The membership of the church has increased from 90 to about 240 under the leadership of Rev. Erwin.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS BY JOSEPH W. LaBINE

Balkans Draw Russ Attention Following Conquest in Finland; Allies Retreat From Near East

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Congress: What Both Houses Are Doing

In house and senate, U. S. legislators busied themselves during mid-March with the following subjects:

POLITICS. Debate and a threatened filibuster delayed a senate vote on amendments to the Hatch "clean politics" act. Aim: To prohibit state employees, who are paid in whole or in part with U. S. funds, from engaging in political activity.

CENSUS. Okayed 9 to 7 by the senate commerce committee was a resolution to strike personal income questions from the 1940 census. Secretary of Commerce Harry Hopkins ruled that income questions may be answered in sealed, unsigned letters.

CIVIL LIBERTIES. J. Edgar Hoover's G-men were accused in the senate commerce committee of "disgraceful" using wire-tapping and voice recorders to snoop into peoples' affairs.

GEORGE NORRIS

plained about FBI's "disgraceful and indefensible third tier degree methods" in arresting Detroiters charged with recruiting soldiers for the Spanish loyalist army.

DEFENSE. Passed by the house was a measure authorizing $654,000,000 in the next two years for 21 warships, 22 auxiliary vessels and 1,011 fighting planes.

AGRICULTURE. Certain to pass the senate and very likely to pass the house were boosts which brought the farm appropriation to more than one billion dollars.

LABOR. Of 17 amendments to the Wagner act suggested by a special house committee, at least one seemed destined to pass: Enlargement of the labor board from three to five members.

PAN AMERICA: Blues Song

Ever since Europe went to war last autumn, U. S. business men have hoped to capture the profitable South American trade which heretofore belonged mostly to Germany and Britain.

Six months later the experts reached a conclusion: "Until... definite action is taken on the defaulted obligations of South American countries, until... the U. S. investing public will have confidence in South American political conditions... and until... the fear of expropriation and nationalistic legislation is overcome, a large increase in our exports to and imports from South America cannot be expected."

Major difficulty was that South American imports from the U. S. far outweigh U. S. imports from the south, a situation which is robbing the little countries of their gold and silver.

AGRICULTURE: Weather and Crops

In Texas, farmers were planting cotton. Up in the Dakotas they were limbering up for spring seeding. At Washington, the U. S. weather bureau decided the time was ripe for a report and forecast.

Because soil moisture stands at low ebb, spring wheat producing states will yield under-normal supplies this year unless heavy rains or snows fall within the next few weeks.

Drouth also plagues the winter wheat belt from Nebraska south into Texas and from Colorado east into the Ohio valley. Although some sections had heavy midwinter precipitation, poor moisture conditions during the autumn germination months will cut even deeper into already small plantings.

Below-normal precipitation was also recorded along the Atlantic seaboard, but it was too early to base crop forecasts on it.

Out west, where northern California was just draining off flood waters, the bureau reported unusually heavy precipitation during the winter.

CHINA: Thin Ice

Primary topic of Far Eastern interest right now is the Russo-Finnish peace (See EUROPE), which may turn the Soviet behemoth's attention eastward once more. None could tell whether the Reds would reopen their dormant war against Japan in Outer Mongolia, meanwhile aiding Chinese Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, or whether they would work alone.

Either development seemed possible, an uncertainty which made inconsequential the manifesto issued at Shanghai by Japanese Puppet Wang Ching-wei. Said he: A new pro-Japanese government will be established in China almost immediately. Although he regretted that "now is not the time" to reveal his plans for readjusted Sino-Jap relations, Puppet Wang appealed for a renunciation of General Chiang.

At Tokyo, Premier Mitsumasa Yonai issued an abstract and high-sounding statement promising Japanese support of the Wang government. But abstractions from Tokyo and Shanghai only emphasized Japan's helplessness. Since Premier Yonai was vague, and since Puppet Wang could tell China nothing about his new government's plans, it was a safe guess that the entire peace structure was skating on thin ice.

POLITICS: Third Term in England

Most Britishers are keenly interested in a third term for Franklin Roosevelt, for they feel his foreign policy works in their favor. In mid-March readers of the London Daily Mail smacked their lips over a story by the well-informed diplomatic correspondent, Wilson Broadbent. Said he:

"It is now established beyond any doubt that the report of (Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles) on his tour of European capitals will directly affect Mr. Roosevelt's decision regarding a third term... Should no peace loophole be revealed... and the war develops into a fierce European struggle, then President Roosevelt certainly will run for a third term."

Where Mr. Broadbent got his "beyond doubt" information, Americans in London could not discover. What mystified them still more but suddenly seemed more logical was the very antithesis of this conclusion, namely, that President Roosevelt would be a cinch for re-election if he succeeded in bringing peace to Europe.

Other political news: In New Hampshire, 1940's first primary election placed a full slate of Democratic convention delegates at the disposal of Franklin Roosevelt. Republicans, who drew the biggest vote, elected an unpledged delegation as requested by Sen. H. Styles Bridges, New Hampshire's presidential hopeful. At Kokomo, Ind., Eleanor Roosevelt said she didn't know anything about a third term: "After being the wife of a public official for years, you learn to accept what life gives you."

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

Official Artist of Present War Has Experience

NEW YORK.—This war, so far, has lacked bands and banners and all other such traditional excitements and John Masefield has not even written a poem about it. In one detail, however, British traditionalism again prevails. Sir Muirhead Bone, official artist of the World War, is again officially appointed as the artist of the navy, and it is understood that he also will render the graphic records of the conflict on land as well.

Sir Muirhead, 64 years old, of Scottish birth, is one of the world's most distinguished etchers. He is also a painter, but in the years between the big wars he has turned more to etching. That is, with the trend of the times, as a modern war is decidedly an etcher's war. Skeleton trees on a blasted hillside, zig-zag trenches, the splintered chaos of peasants' huts, the angular dynamics of war machinery, all lend themselves to Sir Muirhead's superlative drypoint. There isn't much of the painter's mass and color in an up-to-date war—no gay plumes, bright uniforms and snorting black horses. There are instead the sullen monochromes of desolation, the inert black and white of sharply graven ruin.

There were plenty of bands playing when Sir Muirhead was appointed official war artist in 1916. He painted boldly or etched deeply his pictures for the war museum, for which he later became trustee. Much was made, not only of the importance of a minutely observed pictorial record of the war, but of the availability of so great an artist to render its full aesthetic values. This time, there is a perfunctory announcement, only a few lines, of Sir Muirhead's appointment. Not even in the graphic arts is war getting its accustomed fanfare.

This writer remembers well Sir Muirhead's masterful drawings in the "international studio" of an earlier and happier day—mellow architectural studies, or placid landscape in English byways where no air-raid siren ever sounded. He was the son of a Glasgow journalist, studying art at a night school. It was in 1901 that he went to England, to become an honorary doctor of letters at Oxford and one of the most famous artists of England. He has exhibited in New York several times and has an enthusiastic following among critics and the American art public.

IN 1937, Rep. John E. Miller of Arkansas made his campaign for the United States senatorship against the "New Deal patronage machine."

Arkansas Senator Is Ardent Foe of Revised Hatch Act. His backers charged that his opponent, Gov. Carl E. Bailey, had the active support of his "organization of 5,000 state employees," and of various members of the New Deal cabinet. Representative Miller, running as an independent against "machine politicians," achieved a sensational victory, as he won the seat of the late Joe T. Robinson. He was the first independent elected to a major political office in Arkansas since the early reconstruction days. His success was acclaimed as a triumph over patronage politics.

Today, by one of those curious reversals of political form which make news, Senator Miller is the most conspicuous opponent of the extension and strengthening of the Hatch law, directed against political job-holders mixing in politics. He would not only block its extension to cover state job-holders supported in part by federal funds, but he would repeal section nine which bars governmental employees from political activity.

The lean, bespectacled Senator Miller is somewhat professorial in appearance, and, incidentally, was graduated from Cape Girardeau Teachers' college, in Valparaiso, Ind. However, he later turned to the law and has been a practicing attorney in Searcy, Ark., since 1912. He was prosecuting attorney and county judge before his election to the house in 1930. He is a native of Stoddard County, Mo.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE CONTINUING TASK

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 28:16-20. GOLDEN TEXT—Ye shall be witnesses unto me... unto the uttermost parts of the earth.—Acts 1:8.

World conquest! The dream of dictators and of national leaders down through the ages is to be accomplished, for there is One who has the authority to claim such a place of leadership who will one day rule, for then "the kingdoms of this world" will have become "the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever" (Rev. 11:15). While we await His coming to take the throne are we to sit idly by? No indeed, for even now Christ has all authority and He has commissioned His followers to go out and to serve Him in all the world by making disciples in every nation.

I. The Obedient Disciples (vv. 16, 17).

The Lord never fails to keep His Word, but often His followers miss great blessing because they fail to keep their appointments with Him. He had told His disciples that after His resurrection He would meet them in Galilee, and we read that they met Him at the appointed place. One trembles to think of what they and we might have missed if they had failed to meet Him.

His promise to us is just as true and definite. "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (Matt. 18:20) applies to us today. If we meet Him at the appointed place, blessing will come to us and will flow out through us to all the world.

Observe that "some doubted," that is, they were perplexed and uncertain about the risen Saviour. If they persisted in their lack of faith we know that it must have shut them out of a great blessing, but at the same time it did not hinder the Lord's gracious ministry to His other disciples.

II. The All-Powerful Leader (v. 18).

Quietly and without any fanfare, Jesus announced that all power was given unto Him; or as the Revised Version more appropriately translates the word, "all authority." He does have all power, but He has more. He has the supreme authority which gives Him the right to rule over the entire creation, heaven and earth, spiritual as well as material.

No man in his right mind has ever laid claim to authority over even so much as the earth, but here is One who without hesitation or qualification declares that to Him has been given all authority in heaven as well as in earth, that is, over the entire creation. Surely it is God Himself who here speaks to us.

III. The Great Commission (vv. 19, 20a).

"It is the sublimest of all spectacles to see the risen Christ without money or army or state, charging this band of 500 men and women with world conquest and bringing them to believe it possible and to undertake it with serious passion and power. Pentecost is still to come, but dynamic faith rules on this mountain in Galilee" (Dr. A. T. Robertson).

Such faith and such a commission call for a worldwide mission. The church or individual without a worldwide missionary vision assuredly does not have the viewpoint of Christ. Observe also that it is an evangelistic mission. We are not called to entertain the world, nor primarily to improve the social order. Our business is to "make disciples," that is, true followers of Jesus Christ, which they can only become through accepting Him as Saviour and Lord.

Such a ministry will inevitably be a teaching ministry. "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God" (Rom. 10:17). How foolish is the preacher or evangelist who fails to teach the Word of God. It is His appointed method which cannot fail. Christian baptism is also a vital part of the Great Commission. It was first practiced at Pentecost (Acts 2) and later in the Church (Acts 8 and 10).

IV. The Abiding Presence (v. 20b).

There is no other statement of fact (for it is more than a promise) anywhere or by anyone that can compare with the assurance of Christ that He is with His witnesses always, even unto the end of the age.

Consider first of all who is to be with us, namely, the Son of God, the risen Christ, the One with all authority in heaven and earth! Then note that He is to be with His disciples "always." How important that is, for as we well know, the inspiration of even the greatest human leader largely goes with him to the grave. The Lord Jesus, on the other hand, is with each one of His children always. What assurance that fact brings to every witness for Christ as He gives himself joyfully to the carrying out of the Great Commission!

EUROPE: Peace in the North

"Finland stood alone against a huge opponent. We could not win the war alone. The inevitable end would have been the destruction of our country."

Thus spoke Foreign Minister Vaino Tanner as a peace delegation winged its way homeward from Moscow. The war was over and Finland would "soon regain her vitality." Field Marshal Baron Karl Gustav Mannerheim figured Finland had lost 15,000 men to Russia's 200,000, which was proof enough that the vanquished army was far superior, man for man. But the war had left Finland a shambles, its best men dead, some of its best land lost to the invader (see map.) Ahead lay a tough job, but the kind to which generations of Finns have become inured.

Gradually the true story leaked out. First peace overtures had come from Finland two weeks earlier, via Sweden.

VAINO TANNER Tough job ahead.

Major factor had been a Scandinavian defensive alliance which Finland agreed to sign with Sweden and Norway once the war was over. And as the Finns busied themselves moving refugees from ceded areas, their foreign ministry made haste to weld that alliance. "Peace... will not again be broken," promised Vaino Tanner.

(From Paris, Chicago Daily News Edgar Ansel Mower reported he knew why Finland never appealed directly for allied aid. Reason: The German minister at Helsinki informed Finland that issuance of such an appeal would bring German troops to assist the Russians.)

Reaction in the West

That Russia's victory in Finland was a defeat for France and Britain, no observer could deny. In NAMES in the news...

GOV. LEON C. PHILLIPS of Oklahoma called national guardsmen to block completion of the $20,000,000 Grand River PWA dam. Reason: He claimed the U. S. owed Oklahoma $850,000 for land, roads and bridges to be inundated by the reservoir. Result: He got a temporary injunction.

JUAN TRIPPE, president of Pan-American Airways, told a Chicago audience that PAA plans daily "local" flights from San Francisco to Hawaii, cruising 2,400 miles in nine hours.

SEN. GERALD P. NYE (R., N. D.), was divorced by his wife at Fargo, N. D. Grounds: Cruelty.

LESTER P. BARLOW, explosives engineer, told a secret senate military affairs committee session about his new explosive so "devastating" that it "utterly destroys everything within miles." Minutes of the session were burned to prevent the formula from reaching alien hands.

DEATH VALLEY SCOTTY asked the U. S. treasury if he would be penalized for digging up the ten $10,000 gold certificates he buried in the mountains back in 1909. (U. S. went off the gold standard in 1934). If not, he promised to try and find them.

WHAT RUSSIA GETS "Finland stood alone..."

Scandinavia, where Russo-German pressure had helped bring peace, the allies had lost considerable prestige.

In the Balkans and Near East, where combined Russo-German pressure has been kept to a minimum because of the Finnish war, there sprang up overnight signs that the dictator nations had reached a working agreement. Italy, long fearful of Russian aggression in the Balkans, was reported negotiating a trade pact with Moscow under Nazi auspices. Meanwhile, Germany also worked on a Soviet-Rumanian non-aggression pact. These things left Turkey out on a limb; soon she will be forced to surrender her friendship with the allies and play ball with the Moscow-Rome-Berlin triangle.

For Germany, the biggest immediate gain was a chance to beat the British blockade. With Russia at peace, the Nazis could now expect oil, munitions and foodstuffs from Joe Stalin.

Reaction in the East

No sooner had Russia ended one war than she started another one. At least advices reaching Shanghai reported a resumption of hostilities on the Outer Mongolian frontier, where a truce ended the fighting last September. Since then border demarcation conversations have bogged down. Though Tokyo angrily denied new fighting, she also lodged a strong protest with Moscow against Russian airplane flights over Jap territory in the southern half of Sakhalin island.

MISCELLANY: Niblets in the News

At Washington, the National Broadcasting company applied for permits to build television transmitting stations at Chicago, Philadelphia and Washington.

At Hollywood, Walt Disney Productions, progenitor of Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck, became a big business enterprise by filing intention to raise $4,000,000 new capital.

At McAllen, Texas, a passenger train jammed a truck carrying 30 citrus workers, killing 25.

At Beirut, searching parties started after 500 pilgrims returning from Mecca, holy city of Islam, who were reported lost on the desert.

At Washington, a survey by the department of labor showed that in 1935-36 two-thirds of the nation's families were living on $69 a month, or $828 a year.

At New York, the national industrial conference board discovered U. S. living costs rose one-half of 1 per cent in February over January.

Just Right

By Opal Thacker

My dear, what shall we do? There are so many things to do from now until school is out, and May 24 isn't very far off. Just try to imagine what all is going to be pushed into the few remaining weeks besides our regular class work!

Which one of the three bears are you going to be? Father Bear: "My work and activities are too hard," and he left them to cool. Mother Bear: "My work and activities are too easy and I never have anything to do," and she left them for someone else. Baby Bear: "My work and activities are just right," and he stays them all up!

RUTH HUMPHREYS WINS HONOR

Ruth Humphreys won first in the second year style show which was presented by the home economics 2 class Tuesday evening, in the home economics laboratory. Twenty-one visitors were present.

Ruth wore an aqua blue tailored dress. Maudie Dale Woods won second, and Duella Wood third. Honorable mentions were presented to Ruth Bond and Hazel Smith. The judges were Miss Catherine Dotson, Mrs. Turnbow and Miss Charles Batson.

Ruth will go to Dallas to the state home economics convention, April 24-27. She will be accompanied by Violet Moore, winner in the third year division; Mary Lee Abbott, winner in the first year division; Opal Thacker, club delegate, and Miss Crossland.

The guests and girl participants were served cookies and lemonade by the girls of the third year class.

WHAT BOYS DISLIKE IN GIRLS

Girls, here are some direct quotations from the vociferous pronouncements of the boy friends:

"Women are always stressing the unimportant facts that don't matter and paying no attention to facts of importance."

"I dislike girls who ask favors all the time, then refuse to do something for you."

"I dislike girls that wear slacks to school or shorts in public places."

"Girls primp too much."

"Most girls are deceitful."

"I don't like bleached or dyed hair chatterboxes, scatter-brains, girls who throw themselves at boys, or the Grace Allen type of woman."

"I particularly hate immorality and lewdness in girls and women."

"I hate dark red lipstick that is so thick it would make good barn paint."

"I dislike girls that spend all your money and then get mad at you."

"If you have a secret that you want to keep, don't tell a girl. She always has a very close friend who won't tell."

MUSIC STUDENTS TO PRESENT OPERETTA

An operetta entitled "An Old Kentucky Garden," will be presented in the high school auditorium April 16.

MEET THE SENIORS

Juanita Hornsby

Juanita Hornsby, age 15, was born in Sayre, Okla., and has attended only McLean schools. Her best liked activity is Future Homemakers Club. Her ambition is to be a stenographer but she hasn't decided about her college career yet.

Her hobby is going to church. That is really an addition to our senior class.

Abel kusteb gere, you snoopy people, she very much dislikes people who try to find out everything.

Mary Lee Lossen

Mary Lee Lossen, age 17, who recently moved to McLean from Clarendon, has attended schools in Clarendon and McLean. Most of her grade school education was secured in McLean ward school, and her high school education in Clarendon.

Her best liked activity is basketball. Her hobby, which seems very colorful, is collecting finger nail polish. She adores swimming, dancing and football, but dislikes boxing, jurnpa, and Fred Allen. Her pet peeve is conceited people and her ambition is to be a nurse.

Other "likes" of hers are "Bala-lika," chicken fried steak, Cary Grant, Jean Arthur, Jack Benny, and "The Fighting 69th."

ASSEMBLY NOTES

Last Friday during the regular assembly, Mr. Coyer, showed the student body the trophy that will be given to the music student who has made the most progress in grade school, medals will be given to the most progressive music students in the third through the seventh grades.

Mr. Cunningham spoke about the honor that Opal Tedder won at Shamrock. The honor, according to Mr. Cunningham, does not all belong to Opal, but to the school and community as well. The big gold trophy and the traveling case filled with useful articles were brought in for the students to see. These were the awards that were presented to Miss Tedder for winning the personality contest at Shamrock.

After the announcements, the home economics girls gave a style show, the details of which are elsewhere on this page.

KWIZZ KOLUMN

- 1. Why did all the seniors go to church Sunday?
2. Why are there so many screams floating around in M. H. S. the fifth period?
3. How many characters are there in the senior play cast?
4. What three presidents' pictures hang in the study hall of M. H. S.?
5. How many buses bring students to M. H. S.?
6. How many students have study hall the first period?

ANSWERS TO LAST WEEK'S KWIZZ KOLUMN

- 1. If you were there, you saw them; if you weren't, you should have been there.
2. Our queen won, of course; whose did you think?
3. If you find out how many window panes are in M. H. S., let us know, because we wonder.
4. It shouldn't be hard to guess how many Tiger Post articles were in on time, since all the reporters were in Shamrock Monday.
5. As to how many people quietly slept in classes Tuesday, I couldn't say as to "quietly."
6. Sixty-four girls take home economics.
7. You guess how many students attended M. H. S. on St. Patrick's Day.

GRADS VISIT M. H. S.

Among former students of M. H. S. who have visited us recently are Larry Cunningham and Willie Louelle Cobb of Hardin Simmons University, Abilene; Hobart Moore of Clifton Junior College, Clifton; R. L. and "Bramdel" Floyd, Jack Bosan, Bill Cooke and Bennie Finley, all of Texas Tech, Lubbock; Norman Trimble and Myrtle Norman of W. T. S. C., Canyon; Clyfton Wilkerson, Georgia Colebank and Meta Bruton of Draughn's Business College, Oklahoma City; Brady McCoy, now teaching in Amarillo; Billy D. Rice, Kid McCoy, Jr. and Harold Rickard of Texas A. & M. College Station; and Norma Lee Rickard of Kellerville.

SNOOPER COLUMN

Who was the girl with Joe Cooke when he took brother Bill and Willie Louelle on a long, long ride? Was it or was it not Virginia? Juanita C. seemed to be having quite a time in Pampa Sunday. These old friends are pretty good if their name is Warner, eh, Juanita? But, but, these Kellerville high school "kiddies" seemed to be having a lot of fun hunting for the little ages the bunny left Sunday.

Bobby Criso, haven't you learned that it's bad business to trifle with a senior's boy friend? Eh, Julia Mae? Don't let James get away with it, girls, where is ye old rollin' pin?

Why was Margarette in such a hurry to get out of the S. H. when a certain Harold Rickard came to talk to her?

Have John and Junior W. changed their minds about being "bachelors" as far as McLean girls are concerned?

J. M. Montgomery seems to like hallology. (If Gwen Sparlyn takes it with him).

Why does Roy look so gum? Can it be that he is afraid his "Colleen" will get away from him?

Why do all the seniors look so thoughtful these days? Can it be that they are trying to think of some way to be nice to Dad? Oh, so you knew there was a catch to it? So did he. All of them want $10.00 to go to Carlsbad.

SPRING TRAINING TO BEGIN

The spring football training will start next month. "I am expecting some thirty boys out," said Coach Christian, "for a training period of about thirty days."

There will be four lettermen returning for the backfield, and two linemen. The letter men are Sonny Boy Back, Junior Bonner, Joe Cooke, John Kelly Lee, Robert Dwight and J. M. Montgomery.

Besides the lettermen, we have several squadmen back and a host of promising recruits," said Coach.

Due to a new rule, the spring training can last only one calendar month.

NEWS BRIEFS

The speech class, composed of juniors, seniors and sophomores, are studying choral readings. On April 16, between acts of the operetta, they are going to read "The Congo." They are coached by Virgie Hall.

Several educational slides have been shown to the chemistry, biology and general science classes by a micro-projector. The courses are instructed by Mary Lou McIlhany.

Softly Styled Suits Go Gay With Eye-Catching Accessories

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

ALL the way from suits to accessories the new fashions are flattering and prettifying. "Never saw you look so well, you are getting younger looking and prettier every day," that's the sweet music you will be hearing when you go stepping in the new spring outfit. Frilly lacy blouses, frothy white lingerie touches that give the feminine touch never fail to call forth compliments for the wearer, likewise the flowery toques and the ribbon-tied bonnets (so new this season) and the bags and the gloves and the jewelry that are so high-color bright this season, not forgetting to mention the gadget frivolities that will adorn your jacket lapel. They all spell youth and flattery for the fashion-arranged during the coming spring and summer.

The new suits especially are designed with an eye for costume allure. Soft styling with beguiling dressmaker touches keynote the entire current suit program. Having acquired a suit that "does something for you" (the new suits do just that) the next move is to plunge into a wild orgy of accessory shopping. Stop at nothing in the way of high color and daring motif for fashion bids you to glamorize the picture with a heart-smashing witchery of eye-catching furbelows and gadgets.

Note the spring costumes pictured. They were selected for illustration from among hundreds of stunning fashions shown by the Style Creators of Chicago at a recent preview which dramatized the new modes up to the 'nth degree of allure. The jacketed suit-costume shown to the right verifies the style message that tucks have become a hobby with designers. Even the new fabric or felt hats have subscribed to the present vogue for tucks. Very new and smart is the all-over-tucked dress and many frocks have fine tucked yokes and sleeves. You will see handbags that are tucked with gloves to match. It's tucks that impart unmistakable chic to the jacketed costume to the left in the picture. This charming ensemble is made of tissue wool in an entrancing lime green shade, with horizontal tucking down the front of the jacket. The dress, with fitted waist, has a 16-gored skirt. The Roman striped sailor worn with it and the handbag to match are stunning.

Polka dots are staging a big revival. See the coat ensemble centered in the group. Here you have the new navy and white craze interpreted at its most charming. Also this costume is typical of the new print-with-plain vogue that is of tremendous importance. In this instance as is true of the majority of the print-plus-plain fashions, the coat is lined with the print matched to the dress.

The suit on the seated figure emphasizes the use of checked wool, for checks are as important as they ever were and more so. A sentimental touch is the heart-shaped bag, which goes to show that unusual handbags are exceedingly chic this season, and when in gay stripes as is this one style is multiplied. Observe that mademoiselle is wearing a sailor hat with her striped tulle, for there is nothing smarter for this spring than a peri sailor. Note the feather. Whimsical feather novelties are very much in evidence this season.

Speaking of hats, see the pretty flower-trimmed toque above to the right. The millinery picture is gay with flowers this spring. You'll adore the new flower hats. Most of them are flirtatiously veiled which but adds to their piquancy and charm.

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Gypsy Influence

The Gypsy influence is going strong this season throughout fashion design. It reflects attractively in this stunning spectator sports hat. The Breton sailor of rough white straw is tied on with a scarf of hand printed linen in yellow, black and white, with the same print making the crown and facing the brim. Wide brimmed Bretons, either black or navy straw or fabric, are listed among the most fashionable for immediate wear.

Evening Ensembles

In Spring Wardrobe
Uplined full-length wool evening coats worn with pastel chiffon evening dresses are ensembles that will find a place in many spring wardrobes. You'll wear a coat of one color and a dress of another, the coat the stronger in tone.

CHICKEN DEATHS CAN BE TRACED

Immediate Post Mortem Will Aid in Finding Disease.

By DR. F. R. BEAUDETTE

Immediate post mortem examination of all chickens and other birds that die is the only means of knowing the causes of death. Records at the New Jersey agricultural experiment station indicate that over a period of years one can learn to expect certain diseases to occur at certain seasons of the year, but occasionally a new disease appears.

In general, however, pullorum disease and bronchitis come in the spring and are followed by coccidiosis and parasite problems. In the fall paratyphoid, pox and the respiratory infections appear. In mid-winter the mortality goes down and the diseases are of a miscellaneous character.

Birds are subjected to diseases caused by viruses, bacteria, fungi, protozoa, nutritional deficiencies and various external and internal parasites. These diseases are as numerous and as complicated as are the diseases of other species of animal or man, and, for this reason, their solution is equally as difficult. In fact, there exists in chickens or birds a disease to parallel almost any disease in any other animal. Thus, chickens have malaria, tuberculosis, typhoid, tumors and pox, all of which are adapted to the bird. At the same time, they have a few diseases actually acquired from other animals such as swine erysipelas and tularemia.

However, chickens are the least source of infection for other animals or for man among all of the food-producing animals. Moreover, an egg from a healthy hen is bacteria-free which makes it the only food of animal origin of that nature.

Expert Advises Culling

All 'Counterfeit' Cows

If all the "counterfeit" cows, or animals which do not live up to high standards of efficiency, were sent to the butcher, a surprising improvement in dairy farm income would be noted, says E. J. Perry, extension dairyman at the New Jersey College of Agriculture, Rutgers university. Not only would there be no surplus milk, but there also would be more land to devote to more profitable farm commodities.

"The part that efficient cows play in building dairy farm security cannot be overemphasized," Mr. Perry points out. "It is well known that 10 good cows will yield more profit than 20 average cows, and the 10 will place less milk on the market. For instance, 10 cows averaging 8,000 pounds of milk will produce 80,000 pounds of milk in a year, while 20 cows averaging 5,000 pounds each, will have a total yield of 100,000 pounds. The feed cost for the two kinds of cows will not be very different.

"When several cows of average rating or below are mingling with efficient cows in a herd, the tendency is to keep more cows in order to obtain the income needed. The poor cows eat up some if not all of the profit which the good cows may have made.

Separator Losses

How many dollars' worth of butterfat are you losing each year in the skim milk from your separator? A sample taken to your local creamery or cream station can be tested. The cow tester is glad to render this service also. If operating efficiently, the average farm separator should not leave over 0.05 per cent butterfat in the skim milk. Better let your dealer do your separator adjusting. Some chaps professing to fix any bowl may leave your machine in such shape that as much as one-tenth of your butterfat will be lost.

Caring for Colt

A little attention given to the feet of colts and young horses may make a difference in the value of the horse when ready to work. When colts' feet are allowed to become uneven and crooked, it is almost sure to affect the feet and legs permanently. Keeping the feet trimmed and shaped up properly allows normal development of the legs and prevents defects in the feet and legs. Poorly shaped feet and crooked legs have resulted from neglect that can be corrected in some measure by proper trimming of the feet.

'Battle of Barbary' Wages in Mid-West

No one ever knows, when a species of plant or animal is introduced from one region to another, what the result will be.

Now, in the middle western and north central states, war is being waged on a plant, introduced from New England by the earlier settlers. The barbary bush is ornamental, its seeds attract birds, and only in recent years has it been discovered that fungus causes stem rust of wheat, oats and barley.

HOW TO SEW

by Ruth Wyeth Spears

THAT lace curtains are in fashion again is news! This easy-to-make and easy-to-hang valance is something that many of you have been wanting. All the dimensions for cutting it are given here. The glass curtains are hung on the lower rod; the side drapes on the upper rod; and the valance is draped over knob holders screwed into the extreme upper corners of the window frames.

The color plan for this window began with the glazed chintz drapery material in tones of green, beige and golden yellow. The darkest green—a soft olive tone, was used in sateen to line the valance and make the tie-backs. The brass holders for the valance repeated the golden yellow. The cream glass curtains toned into the drapery background, and a plain olive green window shade was used.

SOCIALISM BEGINS TO HURT

Down in the TVA area they are finding out that the socialists' gayly painted word pictures of what happens when government goes into business don't exactly jibe with the facts produced by hard experience.

Every time TVA, a government business venture, takes over private property, that property is removed from the tax rolls. And the TVA pays next to nothing in taxes itself, by comparison with what was paid by the private power companies it has absorbed. The result is that state and local units of government have been trying, unsuccessfully, to make both ends meet without soaking the remaining taxpayers.

A considerable number of public officials in Tennessee are now demanding that Congress pass a law removing TVA's tax immunity. And the Georgia Legislature has passed two bills attempting to give taxing bodies the right to tax Federal property engaged in "proprietary" business in competition with private enterprise.

Now it appears, according to eminent lawyers, that these efforts are likely to prove all in vain. There is no precedent whereby Congress could give states the right to tax Federal property—and even if Congress did pass such a law there are grave doubts as to its constitutionality. And the same legal experts are convinced that Georgia's laws will never survive attack in the Federal courts.

So the Southeast is learning that it can't have its cake and eat it, too. This same problem is faced by every section where tax-exempt government projects compete with heavily-taxed private enterprise. All citizens are because of the "blessing" of a few having to pay more dollars in taxes cents reduction in electric bills, occurred privileged sections through tax subsidization.—The Railroad Journal

WHITE QUAIL

The second covey of quail in Texas, containing rare white quail discovered during the last two years has been reported by the game warden at Roby, who found five of the bobwhites, one pure white and four streaked with brown, near Abilene recently. One other white quail was reported in Northwest Texas recently and a covey was found in East Texas nearly two years ago.

White quail are the result of the lack of pigments in the feathers of the birds, but white quail, or any other species of birds or animals is not considered albino, the term most commonly applied to them, unless they have pink eyes.

ADAPTABLE ASPHALT

Asphalt's adaptability is seen in its recent uses with other materials notably cotton and sulphur. New outlets for surplus cotton have been found in cotton interlinings for asphalt pavings, said to prevent cracking and erosion. "Temperature-proof" highways are being built from asphalt mixed with plain sulphur. After the mixture is laid down the surface is set on fire, causing a chemical reaction between the elemental sulphur and the asphalt which produces a surface unaffected by thermomechanical changes.

According to a poll of young men and women conducted by the Y. M. C. A., 80% of youth thinks this ability is no longer the chief asset in getting along in the world. If this is a true reflection, it is nothing less than shocking. Because the notion is just as fallacious as it would have been 30 or 100 years ago.

This feeling that it's more important to know the right people than to know how to do something well, has been growing all too fast. The psychology of achievement narrows down to the technique of winning friends and influencing people. Social clubs debate the question: "What should government do for youth?" In our palmy days the question would have been, "What should youth do for government?" That is the contrasting spirit of two ages.—Nation's Business.

NO COME-BACK

A well-known editor received the following letter from a not so well-known writer:

"In the future I shall have no use for you or your publication. The manuscript I submitted to you recently was sent as a test. Pages 8 and 9 were fastened together at the edges. My story was returned with those pages unopened, which proves that you didn't take the trouble to read the story through."

The editor replied: "Dear Madam: When I am served an egg at breakfast, I do not have to eat the whole egg to find out that it is bad."

Do Texas people love to be kidded and receive impossible promises that no reasonable person can ever expect to be fulfilled? If we take the last campaign, as well as some others we could mention, that is a fact. And Texas people are not alone in this. For twelve long (Huey Long) years the people of Louisiana took such bait, hook, line and sinker, and have just waked up that they are not in Utopia.—Terry County Herald.

The Best for Less

The most violent scandal mongers are those who profess to be a little better than the average run of citizens. The average citizen does not set himself as an example of godliness, and does not expect others to follow his example. He knows that he is human, and that he errs too often. The scandal monger thinks that he is holy because he does not indulge in the common sins, but at the same time does not hesitate to dynamite the character of every person with whom he does not agree.—Canyan News.
