City Will Save $43,730. Refunding Bonds

Dogs in City Must Be Tagged, or Destroyed

The mayor and city council have issued an order that the dog license law will be strictly enforced after August 10, 1941. All dogs found in the city limits after that date without properly issued city tags will be destroyed.

Tags have been ordered and may be secured at the city hall. It is expected that all who have dogs that are considered of any value will protect them with tags.

Stock owners are also cautioned that W. J. Hanner has been appointed city pound keeper and all stock running at large are subject to impounding, with the subsequent pound fee and feed bill when redeemed.

Much of the trouble from loose stock has been from stock getting loose from staves. Owners are reminded that it is against a city ordinance for stock to be staked on any street or alley.

Stock pens must be kept in a sanitary condition. Owners who do not have concrete floors in their stock pens must keep them clean and not maintain a nuisance for their neighbors.

Chickens must not be allowed to run at large in the city limits at any time of the year. They must be kept confined upon the owner's premises.

Anyone knowing of any stock violations is expected to notify the pound keeper for quick action. See advertisement on another page defining the city laws.

NAVIGATION ERROR IS 'PUNISHED'

Eight instructors at Randolph adopted an old grade school method of punishment this week after a cadet stepped from his airplane at College Station and landed at Temple, Texas.

The error was the product of carelessness, ordered a cadet pilot to write 500 times a 'dodo' for not studying maps before taking off on a cross-country navigation flight.

WHEELER BEER ELECTION

Boy Scout Camp Opens August 17

The Adobe Walls Council has announced another session of Camp Ki-O-Wah opening for one week, August 17, on the council property just north of Lake Marvin in Hemphill county.

Due to the success of the three-week term of camp held in June, and the demand created for more camping by the troops in the fifteen counties which comprise the Adobe Walls Council, the camping and activities committee has announced another term for August. Many scouts who attended in June plan to return for this "fall" camp, as well as scouts who were unable to attend during the June session.

Word from the council office in Pampa states that applications for the week opening August 17 must be in the office not later than August 1. A minimum registration of 60 scouts is needed to open the camp for this extra session. A minimum registration is necessary as there is no administration building on the camp property, and all equipment must be hauled from Pampa and other towns where it has been stored.

The staff personnel for the August camp will be practically the same as that in June, with the same junior staff serving under the direction of senior leaders. J. H. Duncan, director of the early camp, is at present serving as water-front director for a private boys' camp in Colorado, and may be unable to return in time to assist with this session of Camp Ki-O-Wah. However, adequate supervision will be given so that scouts attending either for the first time or as repeat campers, will gain the fullest enjoyment from the experience.

BAPTIST GROUPS ENTERTAINED

On Thursday evening of last week, members of the choir of the First Baptist Church enjoyed a social on the church lawn after the regular rehearsal.

MRS. ROTH GIVES CAKE DEMONSTRATION

At a meeting of Eastside Home Demonstration Club members Friday in the H. M. Roth home, Mrs. Roth gave a demonstration on baking yellow angel food cake. She used the following recipe:

- 6 eggs (separated)
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 1 1/2 cups cake flour
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- Pinch of salt
- 3/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 cup cold water

Whip egg yolks well, add cold water and whip with sugar. Sift flour and measure; add baking powder, sift together three times. Whip egg whites, add salt and whip lightly; add cream of tartar, fold whites into yellow mixture. Do not over beat at this stage. Add vanilla and cook in steam pan at 350 degrees about 45 minutes.

Mrs. Floyd Lively made an orange date cake and Mrs. Buster Stokes made red devil's food.

The cakes were cut and scored, after which they were served to the following members: Mesdames Kate Stokes, C. A. Myatt, J. H. Wade, Lively, Stokes and Roth.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Meador were Pampa visitors Monday.

City taxpayers will stand to save $43,730.00 under the plan of refunding $133,000 of McLean refunding bonds dated Nov. 1, 1935, according to recent action of the city council. The old bonds carried an interest charge of 5 and 5 1/2 percent annum. The new bonds will bear only 4 percent.

In discussing the plan with Secretary Bogan, he said: "This refunding will save the city $43,730 in interest payments, which is a nice saving for the taxpayers. Mayor Meador and the council are doing everything possible to improve conditions in our city and to make all possible savings for the benefit of everyone in McLean."

Money is cheaper now than when the bonds were issued and the new rate is more in keeping with present conditions, with the savings accruing to the city treasury.

CHURCH OF CHRIST BUILDING CAMPAIGN

Members of the Church of Christ are financing a $3,000 building campaign for a Bible school annex at the present church location on First Street.

A basement is being dug and a 12-inch thick foundation will be built, which will contain a 20-40 foot assembly hall with three large class rooms, nursery and rest rooms. The basement annex will connect with the church building with a doorway, and plans call for a brick veneer church building over the basement, to include the present 30x 65 foot auditorium, at some future time.

It is expected that the work will be finished within the next thirty days.

Johnnie R. Back, Barney Fulbright and M. W. Banta compose the building committee.

CAMPBELL-HERRING

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Campbell of Pampa have announced the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Jeanne, to Mr. Earl Reid Herring, which was solemnized Friday, June 27, in the study of the First Christian Church at Pampa, with the Rev. James Todd officiating.

The bride wore a street-length frock of hazy blue file crepe with white accessories and corsage. Attending the couple were the bride's sister, Miss Marcella Campbell, and W. C. Pendleton.

The bride attended McLean schools and Pampa high school, where she was a member of the pep squad, president of the girls' club, secretary to the leaders club, and president of the freshman class. She is a member of the Tete-a-tete social club and was chosen queen of the Texas float in the Top o' Texas Fiesta.

Mr. Herring formerly attended the Pampa high school, also. He is employed at Gunn-Hinerman Tire Co. The couple are at home in the Chapman apartments in Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Cooke visited the former's brother, Jack, and family at Amarillo Sunday.

Defense Bond Quiz

Q. What happens if I suddenly need the money I put into a Defense Savings Bond?

A. You can cash your bond at any time, after 60 days, for the full amount paid, plus any interest due you.

Q. Do many bond owners cash their bonds?

A. No. People want to help arm America against all attacks. In many cases, people are putting every cent they can spare into Defense Bonds and Stamps. Some are doing this by asking employers or banks to withhold part of their salaries in order to buy these bonds or stamps for them.

Note: To purchase Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, or bank, or write for information to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

MEETING GROUND

One of the most interesting and well edited magazines we read is, strangely, the poorest printed. If we did not know of the many fine phrase, viewpoints and observations buried in the XYZ magazine, it would go into the waste paper basket unopened.

Chances are we could call the name of this magazine and few readers would have heard of it. A newsstand wouldn't bother to rack it and a subscription campaign would fail because sample copies would be ignored. Attempting to get people interested in anything that is poorly presented, no matter how meritorious, reminds us of the wisdom of Joe's remark about Mr. X: "I know I could like Mr. X," said Joe one day, "but why should I take the trouble to look him up and try to understand him when there are so many other interesting people I already understand?"

Different, timid or radical people who feel themselves ignored by others often have only themselves to blame. People will sometimes go half way to meet a man, but beyond that point they rarely ever bother.—CAPS and lower case.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

Nazis Claim 'Break Through' Attack Against Soviet Line Is on Schedule; Knox Denies Charge of 'Shooting War' As Debate Continues on U. S. Policy

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

SENATOR WHEELER From him—a charge.

SECRETARY KNOX From him—a denial.

ICELAND: And Bases

The occupation of Iceland by U. S. troops and sailors still was an issue of highest import in Washington...

A hitherto almost silent cabinet member, Postmaster General Walker, journeyed all the way to Butte, Mont., right into Senator Wheeler's ballroom to deliver a radio address...

Walker declared that Wheeler and his associates among the isolationists were "talking Hitler's language."

Meantime Secretary Stimson was preparing to launch the congressional campaign in favor of the Reynolds bill to amend the selective service provision restricting the service of the army to the Western hemisphere...

Some of the selective service officials themselves were being quoted as saying that they felt a lengthening of the training period of draftees would be a "breach of faith."

Then came Wheeler's charge that the navy already had done some "shooting" on the high seas, and following the session of Secretary Knox before the naval affairs committee there were published, but unverified reports on both sides of the picture.

Some senators, it was said, told friends that it had been admitted that some naval vessels had "dropped depth charges," while other senators said that Secretary Knox and Admiral Stark had made a categorical denial of the whole matter.

Then Senator Taft stepped into the picture, saying that he had information from sources he considered well informed that the United States was already creating bases in Northern Ireland and Scotland.

There were denials and partial confirmation of this, one story purporting to reveal that American citizens were being paid $60 a week and subsistence by the British for working on some sort of a base in Northern Ireland.

This work, however, was not identified positively as the creation of an air, army or naval base.

The whole picture was further confused when Britain announced that instead of leaving Iceland now that Americans were on the ground, as the original plan had been, the British troops would stay.

This brought further repercussions in Washington, some holding that it would be a menace to our marines if they were on the same island with British soldiers, as the Nazis, bombing the British, might kill marines at the same time.

NAZIS: Renew Drive

The resistance of the Russians to the fiery Nazi invasion continued to claim chief interest in the news, with the issue still considerably in doubt from a long-range viewpoint...

Competent observers still felt the final issue was whether the Reds could stand the loss of their principal cities and most vital territories on the fighting front...

Berlin: Columbia Broadcasting System resumed its broadcasts from Berlin, although the Nazi government was told there would be no change in the CBS policy.

Washington: Fifty-two D. C. motorists were arrested, charged with having "smoky" exhausts on their cars.

Washington: Fifty-two D. C. motorists were arrested, charged with having "smoky" exhausts on their cars.

British Trophy

Lord Halifax, British ambassador to the U. S., and Lady Halifax, are shown inspecting a captured German Messerschmitt fighting plane which has been placed on exhibition in Washington, D. C. The exhibition is for the benefit of the "Bundles for Britain" fund. The plane is one shot down over England during a night raid.

PERU: And Ecuador

Despite the fact that the century-old border dispute between Peru and Ecuador faded into shooting violence again even as the countries were accepting mediation offers from the United States, Brazil and Argentina, it was generally believed that the squabble would finally be submitted to arbitration.

Official dispatches from Quito seemed to show that the Ecuadorians were willing to arbitrate the difference, which covers a considerable area of land, most of it wild and undeveloped by nationals of either nation.

Word came from Buenos Aires that Peru also was willing to have the subject mediated, and Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state during an illness of Secretary Hull, suggested that in the interim both countries move their armed forces to a distance of 15 miles from the border, putting twice that distance between them.

YOO-HOO: And Army Life

This matter of soldiers "yoo-hooing" at girls in shorts on a golf-course near Memphis, for which they had to march on foot 13 miles in punishment was becoming an army joke throughout the nation.

Soldiers in one camp judged a fashion show, cheered the models to the echo, and selected their favorite daytime and evening gowns; and in another camp the soldiers challenged the punished troops to a 15-mile competitive hike just to show that they could "take it" too.

Most amusing incident, however, occurred at Olympia, Wash., where a hiking outfit, traveling past some admiring young women, tied "mash notes" to stones and tossed them among the girls. And one of them read:

"Dear Miss: How lovely you are! Won't you write to this lonely soldier? Help the National Defense! P. S.—Don't tell General Lear."

MURDER: Number One

Bermuda was shocked by its first murder mystery in the history of the islands.

The victim was a woman, member of the board of censors of the city of Hamilton.

Rewards totaling close to $5,000 were offered. The island government asked the aid of the FBI. They wanted bloodhounds, lie detectors, other scientific crime-tracking data and material.

The United States complied in one request—sending G-men there by plane to aid in the hunt for the slayer.

R. A. F.: And Planes

Perhaps the most serious controversy in commons over the R. A. F. occurred when, at the height of the heaviest bombing campaign undertaken by the British, the question was raised as to whether all was well with the plane supply.

The disappearance of Beavercreek from the scene of plane production had been followed by serious criticism, and one critic declared that England had many warehouses full of crated American planes, unusable because somebody had omitted to purchase necessary accessories.

The new chief of aircraft production for Britain promised to remedy the "confusion" which had existed, but had little that he could answer to accusations from members of parliament, two of whom had actually fought through the Greek and Cretan campaigns, that Britain had sadly bungled in getting airplanes into the proper spots where they could have been used, perhaps, to have turned defeat into victory.

The new production head said that "steps were being perfected" to have all American bombers flown to England in fighting condition.

Enchanting Party Frocks of All-White for Evening Wear

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

DO YOU believe in the magic of fairy wands? Unless it be at the touch of a fairy wand how could such visions of loveliness as the trio pictured ever come into being?

It is just such lacy, beguiling sheer and lovely gowns as these that women who yearn for pretty clothes envision in their dreams of "what to wear," when they go dancing on a gay summer night.

Most of the new white dresses of rayon jersey (with a dull finish) or rayon crepe are made very simply. They are, however, given a look of distinction and importance by intriguing touches such as gold kid trimmings, gold or jeweled buttons, girdles with an enrichment of jewel embroidery.

Watch buttons! They promise to be as important as jewelry in the evening mode, and are used conspicuously so as to call attention to their intricate design. Huge flower buttons add infinite charm to the otherwise all-white frock.

Our merit wins the esteem of honest men, and our lucky star that of the public.—La Roche-Beaucourt.

You can bank on this simple rayon sheer striped dress no matter where you vacation, for simplicity is America's fashion this summer from coast to coast.

Chic Fur Capes Are on Fashion's New Calendar

Keep on the lookout for fur capes. They're on their way! They are available in any length from shoulder to waist depth and longer.

Linen Dresses and Suits Season's Smart Styles

Women of assured fashion intuition regard suits in black or brown, navy, or dark green linen as the best-looking costume of the season for town wear.

MEETING GROUND

One of the most interesting and well edited magazines we read is, strangely, the poorest printed. If we did not know of the many fine phrase, viewpoints and observations buried in the XYZ magazine, it would go into the waste paper basket unopened.

Chances are we could call the name of this magazine and few readers wouldn't bother to rack it and a subscription campaign would fail because sample copies would be ignored.

Attempting to get people interested in anything that is poorly presented, no matter how meritorious, reminds us of the wisdom of Joe's remark about Mr. X: "I know I could like Mr. X," said Joe one day, "but why should I take the trouble to look him up and try to 'understand' him when there are so many other interesting people I already understand?"

Different, timid or radical people who feel themselves ignored by others often have only themselves to blame. People will sometimes go half way to meet a man, but beyond that point they rarely ever bother—CAPS and lower case.

A young naval officer whose marks in navigation had not been all that might have been desired, was set to "shooting the sun" to determine the ship's position. We Can All Be EXPERT BUYERS

● In bringing us buying information, as to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising columns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year.

● It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy. It gives us the most priceless feeling in the world, the feeling of being adequately prepared.

● When we go into a store, prepared beforehand with knowledge of what is offered and at what price, we go as an expert buyer, filled with self-confidence. It is a pleasant feeling to have, the feeling of adequacy. Most of the unhappiness in the world can be traced to a lack of this feeling. This advertising shows another of its manifold facets—shows itself as an aid toward making all our business relationships more secure and pleasant.

The good old summer time seems to be definitely here.

One of the greatest Christian virtues is tolerance. The hypocrite's "holier than thou" attitude causes more grief and dissension among good people than most anything else. There are 250 religious denominations in the U. S., each of them claiming to be the right one. All of us are willing to agree that there is only one right one, but we do not agree on any one. So tolerance is needed, and let each man bolster himself with the thought that, after all, his being right depends entirely on his own actions, and not on the other fellow's opinion of him.

Mayor Meador and members of the city council are to be congratulated on the refunding bonds and the decision to enforce the dog and stock ordinances. Laws are of little use unless enforced, and many people do not seem to realize that living in town is different to living in the country where there is plenty of space for animals and chickens to roam at large. Such stock must be kept in an enclosure, or people must of necessity fence their yards, and even then loose stock and chickens can cause more or less damage. The town is overrun with useless dogs and enforcing the tag law should tend to thin them down to a more reasonable number. While the saving in interest amounts to a considerable sum, it will perhaps be no more appreciated than the enforcement of the stock laws.

BOOZE ADVERTISING

We don't know how the rest of the folks feel about it, but we have gotten terribly tired of having to tune in on some beer advertising broadcast every time we want to get a news broadcast at night. If we had our way about it, we would have a law enacted refusing the use of the radio and the columns of the newspapers and magazines for the purpose of advertising intoxicating liquors of any kind. If we are not to have prohibition we should at least have this much regulation.—Lynn County News.

Is getting sick partly a habit? William Feather offers something to think about when he says that colds, flu and most epidemics rarely hit the one-man business. He tells of cigar stand owners, men and women, who never miss a day year in and year out—even though they may have an exposed or drafty location. He tells of a stock company with no substitutes or alternates giving performances year after year with not an actor or actress missing a single evening.

Pick up the box score of any ball team in any league and note the same players there morning after morning. Boomtown

Oil boomtowns exist today only in the movies. The old-time "gusher" wells are gone forever.

In the early days, as long as oil flowed, the boomtowns flourished. But soon the wells failed and the booms collapsed, carrying with them the income and security of those who had depended on them.

Today, through a sound program of conserving oil and gas, hundreds of Texas communities are enjoying a permanent type of petroleum development. Furthermore, because of conservation, we have the largest oil reserves in the world, one of our greatest assets for National Defense.

Oil now builds stable communities. It provides assured tax revenues and greater ultimate tax returns than were ever possible in boomtown days. And every citizen benefits from the income oil creates.

Conservation not only protects Texas oil resources. It also assures for many years the prosperity which oil brings to every community where it is found.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON
(Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK.—Dr. Minnie L. Maffett, who, as president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, is the leader of about 75,000 career women in America, insists on equal pay for women doing men's jobs, and she also assesses women with heavy responsibility for what lies ahead.

"Women must take leadership in insisting on a new economic world order," says Dr. Maffett.

That might seem like a lot of bother for the women, what with getting the children off to camp and this and that, but Dr. Maffett tells them sternly they must face it, "if we want women to have authority in the world of tomorrow." Her observations were addressed to the biennial meeting of the above federation at Los Angeles.

The silver-haired, blue-eyed, pink-cheeked Dr. Maffett, is, like many contenders for equality and authority for women, emphatically feminine. Pre-meditated or not, it's a good technique which the early-day suffragists knew and practiced diligently. She lives in Dallas, Texas, where she has long been a distinguished physician and surgeon, a member of the college of medicine of Baylor university, on the staff of the three biggest hospitals in Dallas, and a director of the department of health education of Southern Methodist university.

Descendant of a family which went to Texas in 1834, Dr. Maffett took her academic and medical degrees at the University of Texas. She was elected president of the federation in 1939. She rallies women to intelligent social effort under the slogan "business women in a democracy."

She is a dynamo of energy, flying everywhere—she's an aviation fan—organizing and agitating for women and their work and their readiness for a new economic and cultural show-down after the war. Women certainly do like to get things ship-shape. Perhaps they rate a trial workout, considering the general state of masculine untidiness and confusion now prevailing.

DR. ARTHUR UPHAM POPE, art connoisseur and leading world authority on Iranian art, heads the "Committee for National Morale" which now, after months of research, makes known its has discovered and identified Hitler's "secret" weapon. As Dr. Pope explains it, the device is the precise scientific mastery of impelling scientific forces by which you can make men think and act as you want them to.

One of the last books of the late Jacques Futrelle, who went down on the Titanic, was "The Thinking Machine." It was about an old professor who discovered what Dr. Pope's committee thinks it has now learned. He finally dominated the world. The theme of the book was that any man who masters certain definite psychological formulas, and employs them diligently, will own and operate mankind.

That is exactly what the Germans have been doing, according to the committee, just now issuing a 155-page brochure describing its research and its findings.

The committee, which began work last July, includes many of the leading social scientists and psychologists of the United States. It delivers not only a detailed description of the German psychological mass-pressure techniques, but it concludes that we have abundant knowledge and skills with which to meet it. But it will be no hit-or-miss job of agitating. It will be a campaign of psychological warfare as carefully contrived as an air battle.

Mr. Pope, a native of Phoenix, Ariz., was graduated from Brown university. He has long been a distinguished figure in the world of art and philosophy—but always in John Ruskin's terms: "Fine art is that in which the hand, the heart and the head go together."

We saw Dr. Pope occasionally when he was professor of philosophy at the University of California, and again at the Foyot restaurant in Paris in 1923, fired up with Persian art, and headed toward Teheran, to work many years and much brilliant scholarship in that area. After a long-trip to about 3000 B. C., he died in London in 1930 with the best exhibition of Persian art ever assembled.

Last year, with his collection fully augmented, he staged a memorable exhibition in New York, at the old Union League club.

Strategic Outposts for U. S. Defense

Placing U. S. troops in Iceland in occupation of strategic Atlantic outposts were taken "in order to forestall any pincer movement undertaken by Germany against the Western hemisphere," according to a statement by President Roosevelt. Above map indicates how this works. (1) Iceland occupation nullifies any Nazi threat from the north and occupation of Trinidad, and British Guiana (2 and 3) take care of the southern jaw of the pincer hinged on Vichy-French Dakar in Africa. Some sources contend taking over of Azores and Cape Verde Islands (shown in large type) would further greatly strengthen hemisphere defense.

Birthday Party for Sis

Birthday parties given by modern young misses call for a great deal of planning as well as diplomacy. For little ladies of eight can be just as temperamental and jealous as movie stars. Games should be scheduled as precisely as a railroad time table, and refreshments planned down to the last cookie.

Right: Dorothy Edith Sasse, eight, whose dad took the pictorial record of this affair, welcomes the arriving guests.

Weather Note: Clear Today; Drive Safely

Accident analysts have about decided that "making hay while the sun shines" applies as much to garage repairmen as it does to farmers, since fine weather always produces a bumper crop of smashups.

Maybe it's because drivers make too much "hey-hey" when the sun shines!

At any rate, almost 86% of all fatal motor crashes in 1940 occurred when the weather was clear. Only 2.1% occurred during snow and 8.7% when it was raining.

These pertinent facts are revealed in a booklet entitled "Here Today—" just published as the eleventh in an annual series of analytical bulletins issued in the interest of street and highway safety.

The figures indicate that clear weather encourages speeding and recklessness. When snowy, rainy or foggy conditions cut visibility to a low point, drivers recognize the danger and drive accordingly.

These conditions produce numerous minor mishaps, but fatalities and serious injuries are relatively infrequent.

UNUSUAL NEST SITE

A pair of ruby-throated hummingbirds picked an unusual place in which to nest, according to the Dallas Morning News. The nest is suspended upon a loop of wire three feet above a concrete patio between the News office and an adjoining building. Workers in the surrounding offices are gravely concerned over the birds.

Apparently oblivious to their surroundings, the birds are going about their business of hatching babies in a nest the size of a golf ball. No mistakes must be made by the tiny birds when they try their first flights. Under them is a drop of three stories to hard concrete.

Hummingbirds, especially brave during the nesting season, will rob spider webs and will attack birds much larger than themselves, including hawks and crows, and are practically always victorious, due to their speed.

A complete pattern of shelterbelts planted approximately one-half mile apart will do much to stabilize agriculture in any community subject to wind erosion.

Around the campfires in the Canadian wilderness men began muttering over the mysterious disappearance of six frontiersmen who had hit the Chibougamau Trail and never returned. They were in terror of Jules Isadore and his right-hand man, Tete Blanche.

But Garry Finlay, brother of one of the missing men, marched into the forbidden country with two others and Flame, his giant airdale. Neither bullets nor poison could hold them back. At last, scorched by the leaping flames of a forest fire, they solved the mystery of the missing men and brought retribution upon the murderers.
