Grace Coolidge was once planning a rest cure abroad.

"Perhaps it would be better if I didn't go," Mrs. Coolidge confided in a friend who was to accompany her. "People may be inclined to make too great a fuss over a former President's wife."

"Don't give it a second thought," calmed the friend. "The tiny French village we are going to stop at is so unworldly and rustic the people or call Alma Henley. Phone 90W don't even know if the United States ever had a President."

But the friend was not exactly correct in her statement, for when they arrived at the French hotel the proprietor greeted Mrs. Coolidge by

Easy Work, Good Pay

The three-year-old son of A. M. Jones, chief editorial writer of the New Brunswick Home News, was recently taken to a Methodist church supper by his dad, where he first drew attention by putting away a man-sized meal. Presently the pastor approached. "Well," he beamed at the boy, 'are you going to be a Methodist when you grow up?"

"No, sir," was his firm response, "I'm going to be an editorial writ-

... because of Better Lighting

Better lighting does help business.

Folks like to shop in a store that's attractive, a store where they can see what they're buying. Now, with electric power cheaper than ever before, modern stores are using better lighting to serve you better.

Your Public Service Company, 22 years old, is happy that its electric power is bringing prosperity to businessmen in the Panhandle-Plains Pecos Valley Area and improved working conditions for their employees.

A pioneer in building ahead for the future, we're bringing the advantages of low cost electric power to everyone as fast as we can.

Another in a series of advertisements designed to help build this fast-growing territory in which we serve.
