

Two Music Clubs Present Program In Joint Session

The Junior and High School Music Clubs of Mrs. W. Boyett's class met in joint session Friday, June 18, at 5:30 o'clock, with parents and friends as guests.

Due to the overcrowded studio, some of the guests assembled in Mrs. Boyett's home, making it necessary for each player to perform for both groups, the two programs going on at the same time.

Those appearing on the program were Shirley Allison, Barbara Ruth Carter, Bobby Boyd, Beth Brooks, Betty Ruth Dickinson, Mollie Erwin, Pauline Erwin, Sue Glass, Glen Howard, Monta Jean Kennedy, Lester Sitzer, Glenda Switzer, Laura Mae Switzer, Frankie Tucker, Barbara Nelle Williams, Mary Lou Watkins, Wanda Rose Watkins, Norma Chapman, Patricia Ferguson, Billy James Rainwater, Dicky Sligar, Darlene Shadid, LaWanda Shadid, and Peggy Tindall.

Others receiving pins earlier in the year were Betty Ruth Dickinson, Sue Glass, Frankie Tucker, Billy James Rainwater, Donna Ruth Magee, and Billy Eugene Rodgers.

Recognition was given to those who played in Amarillo and Pampa festivals in April.

Gold pins were presented for ten months attendance and the required grades to Shirley Allison, Beth Brooks, Mollie Erwin, Glen Howard, Monta Jean Kennedy, Glenda Switzer, Laura Mae Switzer, Barbara Nelle Williams, Mary Lou Watkins, Wanda Rose Watkins, Norma Chapman, Patricia Ferguson, Dicky Sligar, Darlene Shadid, LaWanda Shadid, Paesy Tindall, and Peggy Tindall.

Those receiving pins for being on the honor roll for the closing month were Ticie Glenn, Barbara Ruth Carter, Lester Sitzer, Bobby Boyd, and Pauline Erwin.

Dicky Sligar, Donna Ruth Magee, and Laura Mae Switzer made the three highest grades for the year. At the close of the program, all enjoyed a picnic supper of fried chicken and all the trimmings.

On the 100-Bed Hospital Bond Issue

BECAUSE:

1. Gray County needs the 100-bed hospital.
2. By voting bonds for completing the 100-bed hospital as originally planned, the contract will be let July 1 if the bond issue carries.
3. Voting of the bond issue will eliminate the cost of revising the blueprints and plans for a smaller hospital.
4. 100 beds is more practical, as the same heating and serving facilities will be used in the 100-bed hospital as would be used in one of 70 beds.
5. Passing of the bond issue will not raise the county taxes more than 3 cents to 4 cents on the $100 valuation.
6. If the bond issue is passed, the lowest bidder on the construction has agreed that actual construction will begin on or before July 7.

WHO FEEL THE NEED OF A 100-BED HOSPITAL IN GRAY COUNTY

More Than Half Billion Spent in Disasters

The rebuilding of lives and homes as the result of 13 major disasters in 43 midwest counties during March and April has, to date, accounted for over one-half billion dollars in American Red Cross funds and the services of on-the-spot national Red Cross workers, according to a report received here this week by Cleo Meberg, local chapter chairman.

The report says that 77 persons died and were injured in floods, tornadoes, explosions, and fires that occurred in the seven-week period beginning with the Centralia, Ill., explosion of March 18 and ending with the May 3 tornadoes at McKinney, Texas, and Tishomingo, Okla. Although a total of $566,310.96 has been committed for the rehabilitation of disaster victims so far, the total will be several times that amount, the disaster chairman said, most of it going for building and repair of homes which the Red Cross does for families whom disasters leave without enough reserves to rebuild their own dwellings.

Highest commitments to date are in the seven Illinois and three Missouri counties struck by floods and tornadoes in mid-March. In Plover Hill and Gillespie, Ill., devastated by a tornado March 19, there still remain 36 persons with serious and long-term storm injuries whose medical financing the Red Cross has undertaken as part of its rebuilding job. Many of the 295 injured in the tornado area suffered fractured spines, cracked pelvises, and fractured hips, the report states. To date, the organization has committed $379,575.56 in the tornado area where the work of rebuilding and repairing scores of homes is well under way.

Other places in the Midwest where disasters recently have left long-term rebuilding tasks for the Red Cross include the North Dakota floods where over $12,000 has been spent so far for aid; the Red River, North Dakota, and Minnesota floods in six coun-

Of this amount, $8,262.29 has already been committed, $6,796.48 being spent for emergency feeding of disaster victims and volunteer workers.

Yvonne Carruth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Carruth of Pampa, became the bride of Otis McClellan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McClellan of McLean, on Sunday, June 6. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Russell G. West at 3:30 o'clock in the Church of the Brethren, Pampa.

The bridesmaids were Berdene Laycock, who was dressed in pink organdy, and Stella McClellan, sister of the bridegroom, who was also dressed in pink organdy. Each wore a braided halo hat with matching flowers and both carried old-fashioned nosegays.

Barbara Carruth, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue organdy dress and a white braided halo hat with matching flowers, and she carried an old-fashioned nosegay.

The flower girls, Lora Ester Alexander, cousin of the bride, and Sara Lou Harnley, were dressed in white organdy with white floral halos and carried white baskets filled with pink rose petals.

Misses Bunnie Shelton and Nina Ruth Spearman were candlelighters. Miss Shelton wore a yellow dress and Miss Spearman a blue dress. Both wore floral halos. The guest register was presided over by Misses Mary Lou Mazy, who wore blue, and Miss Carmelita Dunaway, who wore yellow. Both wore white flowers.

Bill Bird was best man and Charles Beard, brother-in-law of the bride, and James McClellan, brother of the groom, were ushers.

The decorative setting for the wedding consisted of large baskets of white, pink, and blue daisies surrounded by palms and accented with four large candelabra. The family pews were marked with large white satin bows and white candles.

Mrs. H. D. Yoder, pianist, played "Will You Remember," "Claire de Lune," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and the traditional wedding marches.

Mrs. Charles Beard, sister of the bride, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," preceding the entrance of the bridal party.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown designed with fitted bodice and tight fitting sleeves pointed at the wrists. Her three-tiered veil of illusion was caught at the sides with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed, and blue, and with the sixpence in her shoe.

The bride's mother wore a brown dress and hat with brown accessories, and her corsage was pink. The groom's mother wore a gray dress with white accessories and a pink corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lottie Turcotte. A color scheme of pink, blue, yellow, and white was used in decorations which featured large baskets of daisies.

The three-tiered wedding cake was encircled with daisies and the server was tied with a white satin bow. Napkins were inscribed with the names, "Otis Lee and Yvonne." Mrs. Vernon Alexander, aunt of the bride, served the cake and Miss Margie Taylor, cousin of the bride, poured the punch.

Mrs. McClellan chose a two-piece white eyelet dress with white accessories for travel.

The bride attended Pampa High School and was a member of the high school band. She is a member of a pioneer Gray County family and a member of the Church of the Brethren.

Bicycles Can Be Dangerous

Bicycles, which furnish a means of transportation to many school children, resulted in seven persons being killed and 67 persons injured last year in Oklahoma, reports Dr. DeWitt Hunt, Oklahoma A. and M. College safety specialist.

Of the non-fatal accidents, 47 were caused by falls while riding in the 9 to 14 year age groups. A few small children were injured by falls from tricycles. Twenty-three of the 47—almost 50 per cent—resulted in broken bones. Another five received brain concussions, while the remaining 19 escaped with only lacerations and bruises.

Bicycle accidents, Dr. Hunt says, seem to fall into three classes: (1) faulty mechanism, such as bad brakes; (2) improper riding, such as riding on the handle bars or too close to another bicycle, and (3) riding in improper places such as on sidewalks, porches, and similar places. Practically all fatal bicycle accidents were caused by collision with motor

Like everything else, oil rushes these days are "streamlined."

One of the "hottest spots" on the oil map of Texas today centers around Eastland.

You can walk out of the Connelley Hotel lobby, step into a car and, in a few minutes, glide over a paved road to the northwest part of the county where old wells of the boom of 30 years ago are being deepened to a new pay or you can drive over a modern road in the other direction to the southeastern part of the county where they are some two dozen wells in the new Kirk pool.

How different to the travel conditions in the Eastland County rush of 1918-20! Roads were blinding with dust or deep in mud and traffic moved along at a snail's pace much of the time because of the long line of wagons loaded with pipe.

In those days Jess Willard was the world's heavyweight champion. He and Frank Day, who is still active in the oil business in Eastland, were partners. They set out to drive to one of their wells and met a wagon that would not pull over and give them part of the road, so Day, who was driving the car, slightly side-swiped a mule.

With a bellow, the teamster and his two husky companions piled off the wagon. Willard and Day also alighted. Day was a powerful man—200 pounds of brawn and sinew—but the gigantle Willard waved him back and advanced to fight all three, single-handed. Willard was "much of a man"—six feet, four, and 240 pounds.

Suddenly, the leader of the trio stopped and asked, "Ain't you Jess Willard?"

"Yes."

The other exclaimed, "Good heavens, boys, it's the world's champion!" And they jumped back on the wagon and pulled clear over into the ditch.

Gone now are the alternate mud and dust, when it sometimes took eight hours to travel 30 miles. The oil rush in Eastland County today is streamlined.

Summer Brings Athlete's Foot

"Few, if any, people have escaped the inconvenience and the annoyance of athlete's foot. It is said to be the third most common skin disease of the summer, and, contrary to popular opinion, the fifth most prevalent disorder in the winter."

So says Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, in a recent press release. Dr. Cox explains that athlete's foot is due to a small, mold-like growth or fungus which thrives on moist, warm parts of the body such as the feet.

"The infection of athlete's foot is usually gotten directly or indirectly from someone else," Dr. Cox says, cautioning that the most likely places to contract the infection are around bath houses, locker rooms, and other public places where people go barefoot.

"It is probable that at least one-half of all adults suffer from the infection at some time."

In suggesting some effective measures to be taken to prevent initial cases and avoid recurrent attacks of the disease, Dr. Cox emphasized drying carefully between the toes; use of a mild alcoholic solution on these areas after drying; liberal applications of talcum powder in the socks and the shoes; and wearing socks that are absorbent but not coarse.

"Ill fitting shoes are often the source of athlete's foot," Dr. Cox warns. "Shoes that rub and chafe should be corrected or discarded."

Telephone service isn't a 9 to 5 service. It is one of the few services in the world that are always available to the public... twenty-four hours a day, Sundays and holidays.

In an emergency, one's first thought is of the telephone as this is one service that can never let down. The sense of security your telephone affords is based on the confidence you have in the integrity and dependability of the company and its employees. To maintain the service you expect, it is necessary that we continually improve and expand the existing facilities.

Improvements and Expansion Cost Money!

The Policy of The Southwestern States Telephone Company is to render the highest type of telephone service at the lowest possible cost. Increased costs of living has necessitated payroll boosts of more than 200% during the past decade. Almost all materials used in telephone maintenance and for extensions have increased from 25% to 100% since the war. With the urgent demands now prevailing for telephones, it is imperative to make tremendous cash outlays for plant expansions. We are making plant expansions as rapidly as equipment and material delivery schedules will permit.

Because of increased operating costs and the wide plant expansion program now in progress, telephone rates are not sufficient to adequately cover these costs. It is absolutely essential that nothing should hinder telephone service you have a right to expect, and telephone service depends entirely upon revenues.

FIESTA!

The small fry enjoy fiesta time every bit as much as the older generation, says this young lady who shakes her maracas and indulges in a bit of fiesta frivolity. For her playtime frolic the little girl wears a gaily printed fin-wale cotton piñata play-suit by Juniors of California with a ruffle for a make-believe skirt.

Texas Schools Classrooms Over-Crowded

Conditions improved slightly this year, but nearly half of the 1,500,000 public school children in Texas are still being taught in badly over-crowded classrooms. A survey announced last week by the Texas State Teachers Association indicates that 46.7 per cent of the children are getting inadequate educations due to a shortage of teachers and buildings.

Many schools, among them larger cities such as Amarillo, Corpus Christi and Galveston, are on a half-day schedule so acute is the situation, according to Joe Humphrey of Abilene, vice president of the Teachers Association.

Thirty pupils is the maximum class for efficient teaching, the National Education Association and other organizations agree.

Classes with as many as 65 pupils were found in a survey which was conducted by Miss Willie Mae Floyd of Abilene, representative on the NEA advisory committee on tax education and school finance.

Elementary schools are more badly in need of additional space and teachers than are junior and senior high schools, the Floyd survey disclosed.

A total of 56.7 per cent of the grade school pupils included in the survey are in classes of more than 30 pupils. Exactly half of the junior high pupils are over-crowded. The senior high schools have 32.9 of their students in over-sized classes.

"Texas needs a minimum of 2,500 additional teachers and thousands of additional classrooms to relieve the heavy congestion in our public schools," said

Humphrey. "It is a very grave problem which, somehow, must be solved."

"All educators recognize the fact that it is impossible for pupils to get the attention they need and adequate instruction in classes of more than 30 students."

Mrs. Bill Day and daughter Karen left Friday for Wellington, from where they accompanied Mrs. Day's mother, Mrs. Walter Franks, to Glen Rose for a few days.

Gordon Wilson of Hereford visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson, Sunday.

WHY We Should Support the Additional Hospital Bonds June 30th

Without a question, a 100-bed hospital is needed to properly take care of our citizenship. Why should your family or mine have to secure medical aid in a corridor? You have already voted the major part of the funds for this hospital. The additional funds needed are small. The added tax for this extra money will run the average taxpayer such as the undersigned about 20 or 25 cents per YEAR. Can you afford NOT to go ahead and get something suitable?

This is added protection for our loved ones at a very low additional cost to each of us. Let's all vote YES.

than cut the size of the hospital to 70 beds, a number of citizens circulated the petitions requesting the additional bond issue.

When the original bond issue was voted, citizens of the McLean area balloted strongly against the bonds, but the sentiment here at present seems much more favorable than at that time.

Plan Terraces Before Starting

Before you start terracing a lower forty it is highly advisable to make a plan covering the entire farm, explains H. M. Haws, Oklahoma A. and M. College agricultural engineer.

Quite often when a terrace system is built on a field without considering the other areas of the farm it complicates matters when an over-all plan of the farm is desired. It is sometimes necessary to tear down and rebuild the old system in order that it fit into a complete plan for the entire farm.

The first step in preparing such an over-all plan is the securing of a workable size map of the farm. Assistance in preparing such a map and in planning the over-all program can be secured from the local Soil Conservation district, PMA administrators, or the vocational agriculture teacher.

If these services are unavailable, the plan is not a hard one to make. By use of a level and rod determine by contour lines the general direction in which the terrace lines will run in all fields before any portion of the system is built. Draw the fields of the farm on the map to scale and locate the contour lines.
