McLean, Gray County, Texas, Thursday, October 27, 1949.

No. 43.

Fences on 66 Right-of-Way Must Be Moved

Handowners along the right-of-way recently purchased for the widening of U. S. Highway 66, through this portion of Gray County, want the fences on that right-of-way, those fences must be moved immediately.

This announcement was made by Ernest Beck, county commissioner, who stated that the highway department wants to contract for the widening of the highway in November and that the contract will be let unless the fences are moved.

Commissioner Beck stated that he was not with only one alternative; if the landowners do not move the fences in the way of their own accord, he will be forced to have his crew do the work, and the materials in the way will then become the property of the county.

Beck stated that he did not want to have to resort to such action, but that the state department, through its spokesman in this area, Guy Lott of Amarillo, had made it clear that the delay in clearing the right-of-way had been going on long enough.

Only a few of the fence observations west of McLean have been moved, Beck pointed out. The right-of-way to the east, to the Wheeler County line, is practically all moved.

Fire Department To Buy Resuscitator

The McLean Fire Department will sponsor the purchase of a resuscitator, to be kept under the supervision of the department but ready for use by anyone needing it at any time. This decision was reached at a meeting of members of the department last Thursday night.

Mrs. R. A. Young Named Head Of New P-TA

Mrs. R. A. Young was elected president, and Mrs. J. D. Coleman vice president, when officers for the newly-organized Parent-Teacher Association in McLean were chosen.

Approximately 40 people attended the meeting, held Tuesday afternoon at the school. Main purpose of the meeting was to elect officers.

A short program was held which included a humorous reading by Edward Dwyer, prior to the election of officers.

Plans were made to have a P-T. A. booth at the Hallowe'en carnival Saturday night, where memberships in the organization may be bought. Membership dues will be only 50 cents per year.

Mrs. Young stated that a community social will be held some time in November for all parents who are interested in P-T. A. work.

Burglars Outfit Themselves in New Clothing

Several burglars—at least three and perhaps as many as six—entered the Stubblefield Department Store, either Saturday or Sunday night, and made away with a complete new outfit of clothing, plus between $60 and $80 in cash.

Peculiar thing about the burglary was that the looters took time to change clothing in the store, and leave Earl Stubblefield, owner of the store, their old used clothing in exchange.

The cash was taken from the cash register, and included a number of silver dollars which Stubblefield had been saving over a period of time. He stated he was not aware of the exact number of the silver dollars and for that reason did not know exactly how much cash was taken. There was some change in the cash drawer which was taken in addition to the silver dollars.

The burglars entered the store through a window in the rear, after tearing away iron bars over the window. Apparently, Stubblefield said, the window was entered by one or more, and the remainder of the looters let in through a door.

The used clothing left at the store included a small boy's outfit, which leads officials to believe one of the looters was a boy. There was evidence that about five adults were in one burglary.

Just how much clothing was taken was not accurately determined. However, the burglars helped themselves to complete outfits, including shoes, it was reported.

Injuries Light In Two Wrecks Near McLean

Two different wrecks in the McLean area Sunday and Monday resulted in only slight injury to the occupants of the three vehicles involved, but damage to automobiles was heavy.

First of the accidents came Sunday evening at about 7 o'clock, when a 1937 Pontiac driven by Pete Montante, 24 years of age, of Culver City, Calif., overturned approximately five miles east of McLean on Highway 66.

Montante, who was going west, was uninjured. His wife suffered a slight injury, and was treated by a local physician. The car turned over at least twice, when Montante lost control as a tire blew out. The car was badly damaged.

The second accident involved two cars, about 7 of a mile east of Alanreed Monday night at 9:15. A 1947 Hudson, driven by Gerald B. Kindice, 18, of Auburn, Calif., was sideswiped by a 1934 Ford driven by a Mr. Johnson, probably of Oklahoma. The Hudson did not turn over, but the Ford went out of control, into a pasture, and turned over an undetermined number of times. The Ford was practically demolished.

Accompanying Kindice was his mother, Mrs. Kay White, also of Auburn. Neither suffered serious injuries.

Accompanying Johnson were H. W. Shanks of Weber Falls, Okla., and Cecil Cox of Broken Bow, Okla. Shanks and Cox were treated at Groom but both were released. Both men were assessed fines for drunkenness. Shanks was owner of the Ford.

The driver of the Ford, Johnson, left the scene of the wreck, and has not been seen since by investigating highway patrolmen or other officials.

'Team of Week' Is Title Handed To McLean Tigers

"Times Team of the Week"—that's the title the McLean Tigers were given by the Amarillo Times in that paper's issue of Wednesday afternoon.

The Tigers are the third team to be designated as the "Times Team of the Week," the other two having been the Phillips Blackhaws and the Dalhart Wolves.

"It's a ball club which started out as a one-man team—namely: L. M. Watson, a brilliant back," the Times says. "Now it is a well-balanced team which might cause a lot more surprises before the season comes to a close."

Affair Saturday Will Be Held At Grade School

There's big doings planned for Saturday night, for that's the date of the annual school Hallowe'en carnival, which includes not only a night of fun for all, but also the coronation of the Harvest Queen.

There are five candidates for the coveted title in high school, and seven younger girls are in the running for the princess title from the grade school.

The carnival will be held again in the Grade School gym, and will feature all sorts of regular carnival entertainment.

Queen candidates, by classes, are as follows: senior, Etie Lou Carpenter, escorted by Charles Bailey; junior, Mary Ruth Holloway, escorted by Vic Shelton; sophomore, Lavona Davis, escorted by Lewis Robinson; freshman, Dorla Chase, escorted by Eddie Reeves; and 8th grade, Sue Cox, escorted by Don Crockett.

Candidates for princess of Grade School are as follows: 7th grade, Arlene Grisby; 6th, Barbara Ruth Carter; 5th, Mauree Miller; 4th, Deanne Clayton; 3rd, Othelia Eustace; 2nd, Anita Henley; 1st, Carol Cummings.

Each of the candidates, both in the grade and high school, were chosen by the class each represents. The winning princess will be an attendant to the high school queen. Ring bearers are to be appointed from the grade school.

The funds raised by the Grade School races, and at the carnival, will be used for room projects. Principal Haydn Bodenhamer said. Last year a film projector was bought with the money. It is probable that the money raised this year will be for improvement of the rooms, but that will depend on the decisions of the class teachers and room mothers.

The funds raised by the high school classes is divided, partly going for the class treasures, and partly to the library. In this way, Superintendent Logan Cummings said, the library has been greatly enlarged during the past two years.

There will be plenty of variety for entertainment. In addition, a free art display will be arranged downstairs, giving patrons of the schools some idea of the work the children are doing along this line.

The various booths sponsored by the classes are as follows: First grade, fish pond; 2nd, nickel pitch; 3rd, grab bag; 4th, baseball pitch; 5th, shooting gallery; 6th, cake and candy concessions; 7th, cake walk; 8th, marriage and divorce booth; 9th, kissing booth; 10th, basketball pitch; 11th, doll rack; 12th, bingo table; F. H. A., coffee and donuts.

6th, 7th Grade Gridsters Plan 2 Home Tilts

Fans will have the opportunity of seeing two additional games, possibly three, on Tiger Field within the next few days, it has been announced.

The games will be played by the McLean junior high teams versus Memphis, and then versus Lefors.

First game will be tonight (Thursday) at 7 o'clock, when the Memphis junior high team invades the local field to meet the McLean junior high squad. A similar arrangement is being worked out with Shamrock, Coach Don Leach announced, whereby our junior high team will go to Shamrock to meet the Irish youngsters the night before the two high school teams meet here.

The second of the games will be next Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, when the Lefors youngsters come here to meet the McLean junior high team. The junior high team is composed of boys in the 6th and 7th grades, and it is probable two games will be played, Leach stated.

At the game, or games, Tuesday afternoon, the grade school band will perform for the fans at the half, giving local citizens an opportunity to see the young bandmen in action.

The piccolo is the highest pitched of all musical instruments.

Wet Weather Slows Harvest Of Cotton, Feed

Two days of wet weather slowed down harvesting of the cotton and feed crops in the McLean area during the past few days, with the moisture falling bringing a total of 45 of an inch.

The moisture came slowly, however, with most of Sunday being damp and misty. From 5:00 o'clock in the morning until midnight Sunday, 32 of an inch had fallen, Pete Fulbright, local weather observer, said. Monday, up until 11:30 o'clock when the weather finally cleared, another 15 of an inch fell. The total for the year is now 25.06 inches.

Little cotton was brought in by Wednesday morning this week. Up to Wednesday morning, the two gins had ginned 920 bales, S. R. Jones of the McLean Gin and L. H. Earthman of the Paymaster Gin said. The grade and staple of the cotton is remaining about the same, the two ginners stated.

Harvesting of feed was also slowed down considerably, Jones, who is buying grain again this year, said. So far seven cars have been shipped from McLean, however. The feed contains too much moisture at the present time, Jones stated. Approximately 90 per cent of the grain is going into storage, with the government loan bringing the farmers $187 per 100. No feed with more than 13 per cent moisture content can be put in government loan, it was explained.

15 Seniors Spend Saturday Pulling Bolls for Preston

Fifteen members of the McLean High School senior class spent Saturday doing a good deed for the class, and for a farmer who was needing help in boll pulling.

The 15 seniors pulled a bale and a half of cotton for George Preston, and had fun, plenty of it, while doing the work. Preston added $5 to the till, and also treated the group to meals when the work was done for the day.

No one went home for lunch, and no one went hungry either, for two of the class mothers, Mrs. Sid Stewart and Mrs. R. A. Young brought lunch to the group of seniors.

McLean Tigers to Meet Cyclone

The McLean Tigers will seek their third District 2-A victory Friday night, when they journey to Memphis to meet the off-and-on Cyclone eleven.

The game will start at 7:30 o'clock.

A chartered bus will carry 25 fans to the game. Tickets for the trip are being sold by Roger Powers at the Powers Drug for $1.70 round-trip. The bus will leave the drug store at 5:45 o'clock Friday afternoon, and should arrive in Memphis in plenty of time for the game. The Memphis stadium has been enlarged by the construction of stands on the west side, and, in all probability, there will be a sufficiently large number of seats for all spectators.

The Cyclone, having suffered two defeats in 2-A play, one by Lefors and the other by Wellington, will be trying for a comeback, although last week's defeat by Wellington put the Memphis team out of the running for the district title.

The Wellington defeat, however, does not mean that the Cyclone is without a strong team, fans declare. The Cyclone line is big and powerful, with several of the linemen weighing more than 190 pounds.

One of the Memphis backs is the shifty, speedy Bobby Crooks, who played excellent ball last year when the two teams met. Crooks is the star runner, and is expected to be in fair shape for the McLean game. Against Wellington, he ran only a few times, having been slightly injured the week before. The other publicized back is Andy Gardenhire, who has missed the past two games with the Cyclone due to a knee injury. It was not known here this week whether he will see action against the Tigers.

Coach Chuck York has shifted Raymond Clark, big end, to the backfield, and he showed up well last week in his power runs against the Skyrockets. Another boy showing up well in his last week's running was Roddy Stargel, who handles the ball in the "T" formation.

The Tigers will be in fair condition for the Memphis battle, although minor illness has kept some of the boys from working out each day this week. Ray Middaugh, center, and Bobby Bruner, back, have had colds this week. They were able to attend classes at school, but did not work out Monday. Bruner was suffering with a cold in the Wellington game.

Big Tom Roby, tackle, did not work out Monday due to an upset stomach, but he is expected to be ready by Friday night for the game. Roby is showing much improvement in each game.

Thad Helms, who suffered a sprained ankle in the Wellington game, was taking it easy early this week, but he is expected to be ready for action by Friday.

Outside of those ailments, and barring any injuries during practice sessions this week, the team should be in good condition to meet the Cyclone.

J. M. BRUTON, of Kellerville, has a hobby which pays off. The pictures above, and the story appeared in Sunday's Amarillo News. The photos were taken by J. M. At right he demonstrates his ability with bow and arrows made in his shop, and below are skunk hides which he tanned.

J. M. Bruton's Hobby Pays Off

Soon after the beginning of World War II, all three of the Bruton children, two sons and a daughter, entered the service, and the parents suddenly found themselves alone and with time on their hands, in spite of the fact that both were holding full time jobs. Mr. Bruton as a pumper for the Texas company and Mrs. Bruton as postmaster.

Father could occupy his hands and mind with bows and arrows, but Mother needed something to keep her busy, so the bows and arrows moved over to make room for the Texas company and Mrs. Bruton as postmaster.

How these two hobbies got started, and how they more or less merged into one and grew into a business is an interesting story. Joe Bruton as a boy in Oklahoma, became interested in Indian lore, especially archery, and fashioning bows and arrows, became a hobby with him. As the years passed, his interest grew still stronger until in 1939 he began offering his wares for sale. Thus was Bruton's Hobby Shop born.

Scarlet Fever Total for Year 911 in Texas

Scarlet fever is one of the most disabling and dangerous diseases usually associated with childhood, although actually it is confined to no age limit, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer. While only six cases were reported in the state during the week ending September 24, it brought the year's total to 911 cases.

The doctor described scarlet fever as an acute infectious disease the onset of which is sudden. The first symptoms, including sore throat, vomiting, fever, and headache, may appear in three to five days after exposure. These are followed by the distinctive red rash which gives this disease its name, Dr. Cox stated.

Complications may cause prolonged disability or death. Children suffering with scarlet fever may develop sinusitis and middle ear infections which can lead to mastoiditis. As the germs spread through the child's system, the joints, kidneys, and heart may become involved, causing life-long invalidism or crippling.

A child with any kind of sore throat should be seen by the family physician promptly," Dr. Cox asserted. "If scarlet fever is present, the treatment recommended will do much to alleviate discomfort and reduce the possibility of serious complications."

Dr. Cox stated that children under ten years of age are most susceptible, and that those persons who fail to contract scarlet fever until grown stand an excellent chance of never having the disease.

Oysters Should Be Certified, State Doctor Points Out

Some people claim oysters are safe any time during months when they are in their spawning season, says the Texas state Health Department. Oysters are not safe any month, with or without the R, if the broodstock has not been cultivated, shucked, packed, and shipped under sanitary conditions.

The state health officer, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, says oysters have much to commend them as a source of food.

"They have protein of good quality, iron, and copper (important as a protection against anemia), iodine, which is essential to proper working of the thyroid gland, and a fair amount of vitamin," Cox says. But he adds emphatically, "Beware of unshucked oysters."

According to the doctor, each year power in Texas is given a certificate of approval for the oyster beds he uses, provided health department officials find the beds are free from pollution, and the shucking houses are clean and well-kept. Otherwise, no certificate.

Each shucking house (where oysters are opened) must have a certificate showing all employees free from communicable diseases, especially typhoid fever. The certificates are issued annually.

The federal government cooperates with the state by keeping a list of all certified shippers in Texas. If a shipper isn't certified by the state health Department, his oysters can't be shipped in interstate commerce. And since Texas has some fine oyster beds, Dr. Cox says the interstate commerce ruling is an incentive for oyster shippers to adhere to sanitary practices. Otherwise they miss the out-of-state market.

That's the situation on oyster sanitation from a man who knows. So don't look at the calendar when you order oysters. Ask the seller if his product is certified by the proper health officials.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

LAST WEEK we mentioned arguments for and against the proposed amendment which would provide annual state legislative sessions and an increase in the pay of legislators. This week we will point out arguments for and against two other proposed amendments, to be voted upon November 8 by the voters of Texas.

The amendment to qualify women to serve on juries: Those who are FOR say that—Thirty-seven states now have jury service for women. In Texas a woman can hold any office, preside over courts and rule on points of law and procedure, but she cannot serve as a juror. There are many exemptions for men and there would also be exemptions for women.

Those who are AGAINST say that—
Women should not have to listen to the sordid things they will hear as jurors. Court houses do not provide facilities for men and women jurors. Women are more emotional than men.

The amendment to abolish the poll tax as a requirement for voting:

Those who are FOR say that—
As a matter of principle, payment of a tax should not be a requisite for voting. If the poll tax is not abolished at the state level, it will be forced upon the state by Congress at the national level, thus creating inconsistencies in voting regulations.

Those who are AGAINST say that—
The registration law written by the Legislature in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment provides for a fee up to fifty cents as a registration fee. Every person desiring to register will be required to pay this fee, including those now exempt on account of age. The bill also provides that voters must declare their party affiliations in registering and they will not be permitted to vote in any other party primary unless they file notice of change of party a specified length of time before the election. That section of the constitution which provides that the Legislature may impose a poll tax is not affected by this amendment.

So there are the arguments for and against the proposals. You, as a voter, have the opportunity November 8 to vote as you desire. Be sure to take this opportunity.

LES

TALK BY LESTER

Can't say that I can call myself an expert on these football predictions any more. Should have quit while my record was good. This past week-end of games messed up my record considerably. I missed one, another was a tie, and got the third one right.

Here's the way it went:
Prediction: Shamrock 14, Clarendon 13; score, Shamrock 0, Clarendon 0. It's my understanding that the game went to Clarendon on penetrations. So I have to take a miss on that tie game.

Prediction: Memphis 14, Wellington 7; score, Wellington 35, Memphis 20. Boy, did I ever foul up on that one!
Prediction: Lefors 26, Tulia 7; score, Lefors 20, Tulia 12. Got the results right, but how was I to know that the Lefors coach wasn't going to suit out Friday Todd until the fourth quarter?

My score thus far is as follows: Out of 21 games played, I have predicted the winners in 17 of them; two I have missed outright (the Perryton-Clarendon game and the Memphis-Wellington game); and two were ties (Memphis-Diamond Hill and Shamrock-Clarendon). Counting the two ties as misses, that makes a total of 4 against 17. The percentage, in case you don't want to figure it out, is 80 per cent correct—which is pretty good for a country boy. Of course, I'm not bragging.

There are only two games this week involving District 2-A games. McLean plays at Memphis and Lefors at Clarendon.

My predictions on these two: McLean 20, Memphis 14. Lefors 35, Clarendon 0.

Yes, I went to Memphis last Friday night—sort of to help Coach Al Duncan scout the Memphis Cyclone. So far he hasn't asked for any advice from me. Can't say that I blame him.

By comparative scores, we should beat Memphis badly, but it isn't likely we will. Just because we beat Wellington 33-14 and Wellington beat Memphis 35-20 doesn't mean we are 35 points better. Memphis has a big team, and they were playing against Wellington without the services of one of their backfield aces, Andy Gardenhire. However, Wellington was playing without the services of their ace pass receiver, Lindell Norman (No. 30, if you remember him).

Memphis has some excellent plays, some of them very tricky. The line is heavy and powerful—but Wellington was able to pass almost at will. The fact that Memphis has a big line may hurt us on our power plays. The Cyclone also has some nice pass plays, and do very, very well on laterals. They make up a team which is liable to score on almost any play, on long break-away runs. Bobby Crooks is undoubtedly one of the fastest backs in the Panhandle.

Yes, we should win, but don't bet too heavily.

Guess you read in last week's paper about George Graham selling his hardware store to John R. Broadhurst of Amarillo. I'm sure John will be a very good asset to the town, but we will lose a good citizen when George leaves.

George was one of the first persons I met when I came to McLean three years ago this week. He is big and generally says what he thinks, but a person cannot help but like him. Underneath that large size of his and that powerful booming voice, George has a big heart.

Perhaps you never did stop to realize it, but George has done a lot of civic work in McLean. No, you don't hear much of the work that a man like George does. But he has done more than his share, and the town will miss him. He is already in business in Amarillo, and will spend most of his time there in the future. I imagine he will be back the next three Friday nights to see McLean play football, but soon he will not be coming back very often—especially when he gets his family moved to Amarillo. We will all miss George. A man like him is good for the town.

Harvest time is a good time. There are extra people in town, especially on Saturday, with extra money to spend. Most usually they spend that money, and that makes the merchants happier. And the farmer sells his cotton or feed, and pays off the bank, and that makes the farmer happy and also makes Joe Hembree and Clifford Allison happy. Then the bank has more money to loan when the old debts are paid off, and some one is always wanting to borrow some of that money, so that makes those people happy when they get the loan. And Joe Hembree and Clifford Allison are made happy again, too, for for they can then see the interest money rolling in. And if the farmer has some money left over after paying the bank, he pays his grocery bill, and that makes Lufe, and John, and Dick and Roy happy; and maybe he even pays off his dry goods bill, and that makes Stubblefield and Brooks and Mertel and Mullanax happy. And then, maybe too, he has enough money to buy the wife a new dress and that makes Corinne happy.

And perhaps he sees his way to buy a new car—or maybe one of the people he has paid off can see that way clear—and that makes Cooke and Dysart and

King and Hibler and Andrews Johnson happy.

This endless circle could go on and on, but you get the idea, don't you? Harvest is such a happy time.

Now that the girders have been put up on the new gym building, it appears that something is being accomplished. But unless someone puts a fire under the building won't be anywhere to see until basketball season is about over—or completely over. Take no offense, Mr. Stout, hurry up, will you?

Robert Shaw Concert to Be In Amarillo

The world's most outstanding choral director, Robert Shaw, will present his chorus at the municipal auditorium in Amarillo on October 31, in the season's second concert of the Amarillo Philharmonic Orchestral Association.

In connection with the concert, Shaw will conduct a choral clinic on the same date, in the high school auditorium from 4 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The high school choir will serve as the demonstration group.

The clinic is free, and is open to the public. Choruses and individual singers, music teachers and directors from over the entire area are invited to be present for the clinical work.

Single admission prices for the concert that evening are $3.00, $2.00, $2.40, and $1.50 (students). When student tickets are bought in a block of 15 or more, the price per ticket is $1.20. Ticket will be on sale beginning Monday, October 24, at the Southwestern Public Service company, 5th and Polk, Amarillo.

In the Robert Shaw chorale are 30 singers and seven string musicians. His chorus is considered the finest in the world, and Shaw himself ranks in the top bracket among musicians. His concert likely will be one of the highlights of the entire season.

News About—SOCIAL SECURITY

Q How can an employer stop the Social Security Administration from sending letters requesting correct names or social security numbers for his employees?

A Report each employee's account number and name on the quarterly tax return exactly as they appear on his card.

Q If an employee uses a different name from that on the social security card, what should an employer do?

A Request the employee to write the social security office for a new card bearing the new name and the number he has always used. Until the duplicate card is received, continue to report the employee under the old name as listed on his card. When the card bearing the new name is received the employer should change his records and report the employee under the new name and same number.

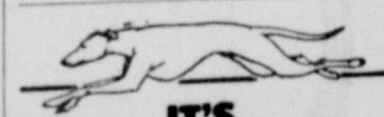

Q If an employee has lost his card, what should be done?

A Tell the employee to obtain a form from his local postmaster and request a duplicate card immediately.

For further information write the Social Security Administration field office, Amarillo.

SIX-IN-ONE GIVES DAD A BREAK

One of the most useful motor-powered farm and home implements ever developed is the "Choremaster," a six-in-one machine that serves as tractor, plow, planter, mower, paint sprayer or saw-mill, depending on the mood of the man of the house and the unit attached. Manufactured by Lodge & Shipley Co., and equipped with a General traction tread industrial pneumatic tire for easy moving about, the "Choremaster" is a special treat for the man who likes and does odd jobs about the home. The gas-fed motor does the work and Dad has only to guide the track in plowing and mowing or direct the sprayer for painting as is being done in the picture above.

Good Housing Help to Hogs

Exposure to all changes in the weather lowers the vitality of hogs, making them more susceptible to ailments and diseases cautions A. A. Heidebrecht, Oklahoma A. and M. College swine specialist.

All classes of hogs must have comfortable quarters in order to do their best. "The economic loss resulting from setbacks caused by unsuitable structures would build some excellent hog houses," Heidebrecht says.

He points out that the hog, more than any other animal on the farm, is sensitive to extremes of heat and cold. A satisfactory housing plan can be determined when the farm is producing a regular number of hogs per year. Sows farrowing in late fall or early spring must have as warm farrowing houses as possible. If portable houses are used, by grouping the houses together in the yard and banking with straw, draughts will be prevented and the sow and pigs will be warmer in the severe weather. If electricity is available, a cheap and efficient brooder may be constructed in one corner of the farrowing house.

The permanent hog-house, though more expensive than the individual colony house houses, affords the best management when certain principles are followed.

An Old Shoe—LONGER COTTON LIFE?

A tattered canvas shoe found on a Boushville beach after the bloody landing ending the 1943 Solomons campaign may prove some good can come from such terrible devastation.

For that shoe may hold a secret that will enable scientists to increase cotton fabric life by many years, Dr. Vernon L. Framp-ton, University of Texas cotton researcher, reports.

The footpiece was sent to the Army Quartermaster Corps laboratory in Philadelphia because the shoe contained powerful fungi which, excreted enzymes that were rapidly eating cotton fibers.

The army sent a culture of the fungi to the university's cotton research laboratory for study. Scientists here will try to find a way to counteract deterioration in cotton fabrics caused by fungi and bacteria by studying this particularly destructive culture, and developing a resistance to it in the cotton fiber.

Another laboratory project is the study of the sun's part in degrading cotton materials. Old Sol's ultraviolet rays break up the molecular chain, or polymer, making up the cotton fiber, into grape sugar molecules.

University of Texas researchers are experimenting to determine just how, when, and why that degradation takes place. Then they will try to develop resistance in the cotton fiber to such action.

If they succeed in their experiments to thwart fungi, bacteria, and sun destructiveness to cotton, Texans will find their cotton shirt or blouse will not rip with an elbow bend after three years—or six years—of wear.

A Few ?'s to Ask
The Printing Peddler

When the peddler selling stationery and printing supplies solicits your business, there are a few questions which he should be willing to answer to your satisfaction.

tribute to the fund as much as they possibly can. Individuals are invited to make free-will contributions in any amount. We will try several fund-raising methods, if necessary, but we do not want to make personal solicitations unless we are forced to do so. However, we believe we will receive enough freewill offerings to buy the machine and equipment."

The contributions may be turned in to either Meador or Gibson.

The city of Clarendon bought one of the machines last March, and has used it a number of times. Three lives have been saved by the use of the machine, it was explained.

The three functions of the machine are explained as follows: The resuscitator provides artificial respiration during complete respiratory failure.

The inhalator delivers a flow of oxygen to a breathing patient who needs a higher concentration of oxygen than is available in atmospheric air.

The aspirator removes fluid obstructions from the upper air passages and allows oxygen to enter the patient's lungs.

The machine is not complicated, and is easy to operate. Unlike the old pullmotor breathing machine which, unless operated exactly correct, was likely to damage the lungs, the resuscitator is controlled within itself, and manufacturers state it is impossible to harm a patient with the machine.

All equipment and the machine is portable, and is carried in a small trunk-size case. The tanks of oxygen will last approximately one hour, it was pointed out, giving sufficient time to get the patient to a hospital.

Fences—

lically clear, but to the west a number of fences are still in the way.

If the county has to take down the fences to clear the right-of-way, the fences will become the property of the county. It is believed, the commissioner explained, that most landowners will want the fencing materials, although only one landowner has told Beck that he is planning to move his own fences.

"Action must be taken immediately," Beck stated. The commissioner's court has been told that if something isn't done immediately, the county will suffer in the future when asking for farm-to-market allocations.

The highway is to be widened into a divided road, similar to that now running through Wheeler County. The right-of-way has all been obtained to the point where the highway dips into Donley County. From there on to the Carson County line, the right-of-way will be obtained at a later date.

Hunters Get Two Large Elk

Ruel Smith and Don Alexander returned Thursday night of last week from an elk hunt west of Denver, and came back with two large elk to prove their hunting ability.

Each of the two elk dressed out about 400 pounds, the hunters said.

The two men brought one elk back with them Thursday, but had to return to Colorado Sunday for the second, due to the fact that the combined weight of two animals was too great for one load on their car.

Bruton—

for a new hobby—that of making hand-tooled leather goods.

That was the beginning—just hobbies. But today Bruton's leather goods may be found all over the United States and in many foreign countries. At times as many as five helpers have been employed to help supply the demand. Likewise, Bruton's archery supplies have been used in practically every state in the Union.

Mrs. Tracy Stoker of Flint, Mich., United States champion archer, carries her arrows in a Bruton quiver.

Not only does Mr. Bruton know how to make bows and arrows—he can use them as well. In 1946 he participated in the National Field Archery Tournament in the national forest near Two Rivers, Wis., one of 400 contestants. Bruton placed 93th in the contest. He is equally good with a hunting arrow and does quite a bit of this type of shooting.

Bruton has been employed by the Texas Company for 22 years and Mrs. Bruton has been postmaster at Kellerville for seven years.

Two Hunters Bag Elk, Deer

Two McLean hunters—Ross Collic and Arthur Dwyer—returned last Thursday from a hunting trip to Colorado which netted them an elk and a deer.

The men hunted north of Gunnison, Colo.

Highlight of the hunt was the shooting of the large elk. The animal weighed 450 pounds after being dressed, and was an 11-point elk. The deer shot was a doe. Collic stated that getting the elk out of the mountains was the major job—a task which cost the hunters $25 to get the animal out.

Dwyer Gives Lions Program

Edward Dwyer, cub Lion for the month of October, gave a clever reading, "I Ain't A-Gonna Cry No More, No More," at the regular meeting of the Lions Club Tuesday noon.

Dwyer actually made tears come to his eyes in giving the reading, and was given a loud applause by the Lions when he ended the reading.

Also appearing on the program was W. L. (Scotty) Scott of Wellington, representative of Lions International, who spoke on the code of ethics of Lions and also on the origin of the 4-H Club of America.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carpenter of Sundown visited relatives here Thursday and Friday. Mrs. E. L. Minix accompanied them home for a visit.

By the Way—

BY HELEN BLACK

Just who grows any bigger turkeys than C. M. Carpenter? He brought a mammoth purple top in the office Friday that weighed 5 1/2 pounds. He said that folks might think that he didn't work very much, but that it took a heap o' work to grow turkeys that big! The thing about it is, just how many do you have that big, Mr. C.? No kiddin', though, it took less than half of that one turp for the Black folks' supper that night. Thanks a lot!

Those who attended the concert in Shamrock last Thursday evening were enthusiastic in their reports of the type of program presented and are looking forward to the ones to follow. Attending were Mesdames Willie Boyett, J. B. Hombree, Harris King, Byrd Guill, Jess Kemp, H. E. Franks, Roger Powers, Bob Thomas, Carl Jones, and Boyd Meador, and Jackie King and Dicky Sligar.

Noted some new folks among the clerks about town: James Cliett is now pressing pants at Cliett's Cleaners; Charlene Roach is selling car accessories at Barr's; Mrs. Jimmy Sanders is dishing out china and jewels at Shedrick's; Emory Crockett has switched from selling soft drinks to hardware—and is now employed at the McLean Hardware; Alma Turman is a furniture saleslady for Harris King; Mrs. Frank Harlan is dealing in notions at the variety store; and Keith Myatt is scrambling type here at the News office.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper and Mrs. George Colebank visited Joe Cooper in a Plainview hospital Wednesday.

Mrs. I. D. Shaw Jr. and daughters of Grady, N. M., spent Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morse.

Joe Cooper Recuperating

Joe Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cooper, who is undergoing treatment for a mild case of polio in the Plainview Hospital and Clinic, is recuperating as rapidly as can be expected, it was reported this week.

Young Cooper, the first polio victim here in about three years, was taken to the clinic last week. He is suffering from the non-paralytic type of the disease. It is probable, if he continues to improve, that he will be released within a week or 10 days.

Week of Prayer Program Held By Methodists

The women of the Methodist Church met Tuesday in the church for an all-day program in observance of "Week of Prayer." The theme of the program was "The Work That I Do, Shall Ye Do Also."

Mrs. W. B. Hicks was the leader of the program for the day. The morning devotional was given by Mrs. Bill Day. Mrs. Frank Rodgers, Mrs. Clyde Magee, Mrs. Jesse Coleman, and Mrs. Victor Cliett gave special piano and vocal selections. The topic, "The Maynard MacDougal Hos-

SOUTHWEST FARM MARKET

Southwest farm products move largely in steady to active markets during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Less cattle and sheep arrived at southwest and midwest markets last week than the week before, and more hogs and calves. Most changes were not large.

Cattle and calves sold unchanged to $1 higher for the week-end. Texas markets, and unchanged 50 cents higher at Oklahoma City and Denver. However, cattle gained around $1.50 at Denver, where choice steers reached $32, highest of the year.

Most markets paid around 20 cents more for hogs than a week ago. However, some and pig closed unchanged at Fort Worth as did all hog classes at San Antonio. Top hogs sold for $18.50 to $18.75 at Texas market and at $19.25 at Denver.

Dressed beef advanced $1.00 at Eastern wholesale market, but veal and calf sold weak to lower. Other meats were steady to strong except Boston butta. Spring chickens sold a little higher than a week earlier, but other poultry and eggs held about unchanged. Northwest Arkansas growers received mostly 28 cents a pound at the farm for 2 1/2 to 3 pound broilers. Best fryers brought 28 to 30 cents at Dallas, 27 to 30 at Fort Worth, 25 to 33 at New Orleans, and 22 to 23 at Denver.
