Smallwood Sells McLean Food Store to Lee

Sale of the McLean Food Store by Lyle Smallwood to C. B. Lee was announced this week.

Lee is well known here, having made his home here for a number of years. He left last fall and moved to Oak Grove, La., where he was associated in business with a brother.

Smallwood said that he had no definite plans for the future. He will remain here for a while, it was explained, and any accounts owed to the McLean Food Store may be paid to him.

X-Ray Meet Next Tuesday

Philip W. Gauss Jr., supervisor of operations of the tuberculosis division of the Texas State Department of health, will meet in Pampa Tuesday night, August 1, with citizens of the area interested in the annual visit to Gray County of the portable X-ray machine.

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock, probably in the court house.

The X-ray machine has been set up in Gray County for a week's period of time each of the past two years.

Heavy Rainfall Brings One Inch in 25 Minutes

A rainfall of cloudburst proportions hit McLean Tuesday afternoon, and one full inch of moisture had fallen 25 minutes after the downpour started.

Total for the afternoon's rain was 1.40 inches, Pete Fulbright, local weather observer, stated, but that first inch came fast. The cloud came up quickly from the northwest, and the storm warning was sounded to let citizens know that a possible hail and wind storm was in the making.

The rain then started at 3:20 o'clock, and by 3:45 that first inch was running on the ground. The rainfall slacked off, and continued lightly until about 6:15 o'clock.

The moisture was the third to come here in a period of six days. Last Thursday's rainfall, which was still coming at the press time of The News, totaled 1.08 inches, with .96 of an inch falling after 7:30 o'clock last Thursday morning.

Friday morning still more moisture came, with .59 of an inch hitting the ground until 3:45.

The next shower came early Tuesday morning, between 2:30 o'clock and 3, and yielded .12 of an inch. Few people even realized this shower came until they awakened Tuesday morning.

Early this morning, a slow, light-falling shower brought an additional .05 of an inch in McLean.

The total moisture for the year is now 15.30 inches, Fulbright reported. Of this, 4.54 inches have fallen in July, compared to 2.47 inches at the same time last year.

The Tuesday shower was one of many which fell over the Panhandle area. Pampa received .83 of an inch, and Shamrock only .18. Amarillo got .79 of an inch, but Groom had a deluge of between 1 and 4 inches.

Meanwhile, farmers of the area are having numerous troubles. Some crops have been hauled out. Some have been washed out, and now the weeds are getting into most of the fields where crops remain intact.

Aunt of Mrs. Page Dies in Dallas

Mrs. W. E. King of Dallas, 62 years of age, aunt of Mrs. Amos Page of McLean, died Tuesday evening in Dallas.

Funeral services are to be held this morning at 11 o'clock in Dallas. Mrs. Page left early this morning to attend the services.

Coach Duncan did not outline in detail the plans for practice sessions, but it is probable that two sessions will be held daily as were last year in the early-season workouts.

Both Duncan and Leach plan to attend the Texas coaching school next week in Austin.

Tuesday a total of 45 boys were entered.

Friday night a large party will be given for the contestants. The ice cream and movie affair will be held in the Palm Room of the City Hall in Pampa, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Trial runs for the racers will be held Saturday afternoon over the ace course, at which time pairings will be made.

In addition to the grand prize of the trip to Akron given to the winner, many other prizes are given to entrants. Last year, every boy received at least one prize, and many of them received several, depending on how far they advanced in the race.

Several of the contestants were dropped out of the race, and

Powers Leaves Drug Business; Sells to Tindall

Roger (Tight-Eye) Powers is going out of the drug business in McLean.

The popular co-owner of the Powers Drug has announced that he has sold his interest in the business to his partner, Hubert Tindall of Shamrock. Powers will be out of the business after this week-end.

The store will be closed all day Sunday for inventory. Powers stated, and only emergency prescription orders will be handled. Tindall will take over the store Monday, and will serve as manager. He is a registered pharmacist, it was explained, and will be in charge of all prescription orders.

Powers said that he is still undecided about what he will do in the future. For the present, he plans to take a vacation, visit relatives, and then "rest up."

"It has been a pleasure all these years to serve you in your drug needs," Powers said, "and we hate to leave the business. We believe you will like Mr. Tindall, and invite all of you to continue your patronage with him."

Opening of the B. and R. Cafe, formerly known as the Fine Foods Cafe, on Highway 66 west of McLean will be held Saturday morning, A. L. Barham, new manager of the dining place, announced this week.

The cafe was closed about two weeks ago by George Graham, and Barham and J. W. and W. I. Robinson of Spearman bought the cafe from Graham last week.

The cafe will be open 24 hours a day in the future for the convenience of customers, Barham said.

"We will feature the kind of food the way you like it prepared," Barham said, "and invite you to visit with us often. We will strive to give you this good food, and also to give you friendly, courteous service at all times."

The new owners have had considerable experience in the cafe business. J. W. and W. I. Robinson are presently the owners and operators of a cafe in Spearman.

The cafe will continue to serve complete lunches and dinners, as well as steaks and other short orders.

Lightning Hits-Home Burns

The fire was started when the house was struck by lightning, it was reported. Fortunately, Mr. and Mrs. McPherson were not at home when the lightning struck, and escaped possible injury by their absence.

Nothing of value was saved from the burning house. Included in the belongings were gifts which Mrs. McPherson had only recently received when friends gave her a stork shower.

Tipton Girls Sing Before Lion Members

Twenty girls from the Tipton Orphans' Home of Tipton, Okla., presented a program of choral singing before members of the McLean Lions Club Tuesday night to appear before members of the local Church of Christ in a program of religious songs, but the principal purpose of their 135-mile trip was to sing before the Lions Club, Lion Johnnie Back, who obtained the program, explained.

Accompanying the girls were Byron and Mrs. Fullerton, Marlin Carruth, and Miss Mary Blake. Fullerton is superintendent of the school, Carruth is educational and musical director, and Miss Blake is the house mother.

Before the Lions Club, the girls, most of whom were in their early "teens," sang several popular

Loser's Lament--

FOR EX-CANDIDATES

IN EVERY POLITICAL campaign where there are two or more running for the same office, we realize that somebody has to lose. It happened in many races last Saturday, and to make the losers feel a little more cheerful about the whole matter, we are reprinting this "Loser's Lament" which appeared not long ago in a Kentucky newspaper. The article was brought to the office by Lyle Smallwood, who dedicates it, with all due respect, to all those candidates who lost in Saturday's primary. Here is the Loser's Lament:

"Lost four months and twenty days canvassing; lost 1,360 hours of sleep thinking about the election; lost 40 acres of corn and a whole lot of sweet potatoes.

"Lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal encounter with an opponent; donated one beef, four shoats, and five sheep to barbecues; gave away two pairs of suspenders, five calico dresses, five dolls, and 15 baby rattlers.

"Kissed 126 babies; kindled 14 kitchen fires; put up eight stoves; cut 14 cords of wood; carried 24 buckets of water; gathered seven wagon loads of corn; pulled 475 bundles of fodder.

"Walked 4,060 miles, shook hands 9,080 times; told 10,001 lies; talked enough to make 10,000 volumes; attended 26 revivals; was baptized four times by immersion and twice some other way.

"Contributed to foreign missions; made love to nine grass widows; got dog bit 39 times.

"And then got defeated."

he will compete with winners from all over the nation. Top winner there gets a four-year college scholarship, with second place receiving a new Chevrolet.

WE ARE A PECULIAR PEOPLE

LAST WEEK—the morning after President Truman had urged residents of this country not to hoard materials, particularly foods—a McLean man, who is incidentally a man in business here, was seen buying up commodities of food which he believed would become hard to get should actual declared-war come.

We cite this one man, although no doubt there were many others, men and women, who were doing the same thing.

At the beginning of World War II, there were many, many hoarders. We even heard the stories of some store owners who hoarded such things as cigarettes, coffee, and sugar at their homes instead of allowing their customers to have the items; and as a result of this greed, the cigarettes became molded and unfit, the coffee became stale, and the sugar got wet and was ruined.

Such actions are unpatriotic, and very unnecessary. We would not guarantee that no one at home will suffer from hunger. As far as we know, no one at home suffered from hunger during World War II unless he or she would have suffered anyway, war or no war. There may have been cases of hunger, but they were not caused by shortages of food. The same will probably be true again, should the U. S. become involved in a full-fledged conflict as a result of the Korean crisis.

Such actions are not only unpatriotic; they are selfish and greedy and un-Christianlike. Such actions are just not understandable.

Hoarding, and the rush to buy items of food, cause prices to go up. Already this hoarding practice is being reflected in your grocery bill. If hoarding of foods continues, price controls are likely to be put into effect. If hoarding continues after that, rationing is likely to find its way back into our life.

However, if we Americans would act a little less selfish, and a little more sensible, the chances are that neither price controls nor rationing would become necessary.

It is up to all of us.

TALK

BY LESTER

Most of you can remember. I can pretty easily. The draft for what turned out to be World War II started in 1940—I believe that was the year. Yes, that was the year, and the date for registration was October 16, 1940. Service in the armed forces was to be for one year. Remember?

One of my brothers-in-law was among the first group to leave from Hall County, where I was living at the time. Seems to me he left not long after the first of the year 1941, although I am a little hazy on dates. His service was to be for one year. It was slightly more than five years later when he got out of the army.

The draft presented no particular danger or hazard, we all thought. As a matter of fact, I was one who had what we called a fairly high draft number.

Somewhere along the line something went wrong. I was working in Galveston when Germany, led by the mighty (?) Hitler, invaded Russia. We all thought that was wrong, but maybe Hitler had the right idea that one time anyway. It so happened that I was working on the Galveston News that summer in 1941, and the particular night following the invasion of Russia I was on what is commonly known as the teletype desk—had charge of looking over all wire news that came in on the A. P. teletypes.

out by saying that Hitler had a big announcement to make soon, by 9:30 or 10 o'clock, that big announcement came through, and sure enough, Hitler had taken a bigger mouthful than he could chew. He didn't realize it then, but he found out.

Some how or other we still didn't think we were in danger of going to war. The draft went on, and the construction of weapons—big and little—proceeded slowly in the U. S. But we just couldn't believe that our country would ever have to become involved in the war which everyone said concerned another continent.

When December 7, 1941, came around, I was back in Memphis. I remember the day so well. Martha and I had been married only a couple of months, and one of her friends was getting married over at Estelline that Sunday. I stayed at home—in the apartment we were renting—and was lying on the bed that afternoon about half asleep when I awakened enough to hear the announcer say that Pearl Harbor had been attacked.

It was unreal, wasn't it? We didn't believe it. Why, those sorry little so-and-so's from Japan! Who did they think they were? Why, we can wipe them off the face of the map in six weeks. We said that, didn't we? But we had no fleet left, and despite the efforts of the draft, we had only a token army, a token marine corps, a token air corps, and a broken navy.

President Roosevelt took to the air the next day, following the declaration of war by Congress. Roosevelt had such a magic voice. He told us that we could build 50,000 planes a year, and tanks, and guns, and ships, etc. We didn't believe it possible, but his magic voice and ability as a leader made it possible.

We still didn't believe it was real—our getting into a war. But we did.

All of this sounds familiar, doesn't it?

And the present crisis has a familiar ring, too. Some way or other, as Wes Izard so ably put it not so long ago, we feel that we walked into a scene which we had lived before.

The present situation is just a little different—the way we started fighting, actually firing guns, without declaring a war. But the principle is there, and it matches that scene back in 1940-41.

Now comes the 64 dollar question. What will we do this time? Will we let our boys in Korea go on fighting without building up a reserve behind them? No, it doesn't appear that we will. Congress is getting behind President Truman on his requests for money, men, and munitions. The present trend indicates that we will fully mobilize, just as if a full-fledged war had been declared, whether such a war is forthcoming or not.

The course for our future does seem fairly clear. That is, the course for our immediate future. We cannot foresee how much good will go along with the bad, or how much bad will go along with the good. But there will be some of each.

Most of our citizens are already of the opinion, or coming to the opinion, that complete mobilization is about our only solution, and we all hope that such action will be our salvation.

Perhaps the calling of Stalin's bluff will work. Perhaps it will not. It will be cheaper to do our gambling with money spent for planes, ships, tanks, etc. than with human lives and possible enslavement later.

And, as President Roosevelt, were he still living, would say, we cannot lose, we must not lose.

Iron Monster' Branded as Menace in 1910

IT HAPPENED HERE

from the Files of The McLean News, July, 1910

Fourteen head of steers dead—eight or nine wounded—were later killed—was the iron monster when it ran through a herd belonging to Mr. Yokley, and which had been driven out of the pasture into a right-of-way eight miles east of McLean Sunday night.

Mr. Yokley had just arrived with the herd on Saturday and had driven them into the new range and used to the new range and had no water the evening before the cattle began to mill and finally found their way into the right-of-way through a gulch. They had huddled up on the track and along with a heavy freight pulled along with a full head of steam. Seeing the monster about a mile ahead, which began to whistle, which frightened the cattle, but instead of running they began to mill around. When the engine struck them they went into a frenzy of fright and stampeded, half of them going south and the balance coming west towards town. They ran through the south part of town and Geo. Weaver, hearing the roar, telephoned several citizens and soon a bunch of men were after them, heading them off two miles west. The herd that went south was overtaken some time during the morning. The 14 that were killed laid alongside of the track almost in a pile and the eight or nine crippled ones drifted off some distance. One was found four miles from the railroad with both horns knocked off, a hip knocked down and one leg broken.

On Monday night the cattle again stampeded when a freight pulled ahead, and were badly scattered, but none were killed. It is the opinion of those working on the windmill at the time of the first stampede that the engineer had an abundance of time in which to stop the train before he ran into the cattle a mile away. While it was no fault of the railroad company that the gap was down, still it was no fault of Mr. Yokley, as the fence had been removed by other parties in order that their cattle could get out onto the open range.

While it has not yet been learned what course Mr. Yokley will pursue, it is considered likely he will ask for damage for running the cattle as well as for the 20-odd head that were killed.

Possibility for Another Road

The principal occasion for all Panhandle towns to make a big howl and do some tall "boosting" is when a rumor is started concerning the near approach of some monster railroad building scheme, and it seems as though McLean is destined to find itself in the throes of such a boom within a very short period of time.

A railroad is being promoted from Raton, N. M., to the Gulf of Mexico, the logical route putting it through our little city. In a letter from the president of the Commercial Club of Raton we are informed of this move but the extent of it and the probable time of commencement as yet vague. However, we give the letter in full and those who are interested in the growth of the town can take it for its worth.

Raton, N. M., July 20, 1910

To The News:
As president of the Commercial Club of our city I desire to enlist your services and those of the people of your community in the promotion of a railroad from our city to Galveston, Texas. Railroad connections with Raton would be of great value to you. The mountains in this neighborhood abound with a very high grade of steam, domestic and cooking coal. This can be mined and furnished for a. b. cars at about $1.50 per ton, and with a down hill pull can be placed in your city at a much lower rate than any coal you now receive. In addition our mines here which employ thousands of people would furnish an excellent market for your own products.

The proposed railroad cannot fail of being an instant business success. In addition to the traffic already mentioned, Raton offers unsurpassed advantages as a summer resort. It is located among some of the most magnificent mountain scenery that exists anywhere. It is cool and pleasant. Has good hotel facilities and excellent railroad communications. In addition the mountains are covered with a good quality of pine timber which will furnish a large amount of traffic.

We wish to cooperate with the people of your vicinity in the promotion of this enterprise. It is certain of being built in the near future, however, the exact line has not yet been determined. Kindly write me as to the advantages your city offers in this connection.

Trusting you will be able to cooperate with us in this regard, I am,
Yours very truly,
L. S. Wilson,
President Commercial Club.

past few weeks is serving to make the Panhandler, as well as the citizens of Texas in general, a bit blue as to the outcome of the fall crops. Texas has gone through much worse hardships in the past and we as loyal citizens should not shrink back from an outlook of financial embarrassment when we remember the bloody days, the days full of many heartaches, the days when actual want was rampant in the land, the cruel hands of oppression squeezed out the life blood and made heroes of Bonham, Crockett, Fannin, and their brave followers. Texas lived through this horror and ascended to the zenith of the heavens to place the Lone Star in the throne as queen of the constellations. Then why should we fret if our larders are not so full as they might be? Would we trade our lot for that of the laddies that were marched out after the battle of Goliad? Our fathers shed their rich blood to give us this princely heritage and we should thank our heavens that it is no worse with us than it is.

As showing the trend of the times concerning the handling of violations of law by the trusts and other monied interests, we give below the charge to a federal grand jury by Judge Landis of the United States district court at Chicago. The jury was impaneled to investigate violations of the Sherman anti-trust law by the National Packing Company and was cautioned by Judge Landis to let their actions be wholly free from the influence of the often-heard argument that law enforcement was unsettled business. "You may assume," said he, "that no legitimate enterprise needs governmental acquiescence in the commission of crime. You will treat the statute to which I have referred as being just as much in force as are the laws against stealing letters and counterfeiting coins. If your investigation discloses the use of an alias, do not indict a mere alias, but follow the trail, wherever it may lead, until you have located, identified, and pointed out the real offenders." This judge is the same gentleman that fined the Standard Oil Company in the sum of $29,000,000, which they never paid.

Vows Are Spoken For Miss Mercer And W. A. Bruner

Norma Joyce Mercer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mercer, and W. A. Bruner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bruner, were united in holy matrimony Sunday in the Church of Christ.

The church was decorated with a white trelis covered with white gladioli and fern.

The lovely bride, attired in a white organdy street-length dress, navy hat and shoes, was escorted down the aisle by her father, Jack Mercer. Following were the matron-of-honor and best man, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens. Mrs. Stevens, before her marriage, was Betty Bruner, sister of the groom. She wore a navy crepe dress with white accessories. The groom and best man wore matching gray suits.

As the foursome started down the aisle, "Indian Love Call" was sung by Norma Watson, Jane Williams, Darlene Shaddid, and Jeanne Pharis. These girls were attired in pastel shades of green, orchid, blue, and yellow organdy.

The vows were given by the minister, Thomas Allen Robertson. After the vows had been made and the bride and groom were leaving the church, the quartet sang "Sweetheart of All My Dreams."

The reception following the wedding was held in the bride's home. White and pink gladioli decorated the table where the wedding cake was served by Mrs. Harold Butrum, and the punch by Mrs. Joe Mercer.

Relatives of the bride attending the wedding and reception from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Faulkner and daughter Peggy Jean of Anson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Newson and Mrs. Nona Russell and daughter of Pampa, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mercer and son of Shamrock. McLean relatives attending were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. M. E. After the reception, Norma and W. A. left on their honeymoon for Carlsbad, N. M., with their car dragging tin cans and old shoes, and crepe paper flying to the four winds. They will make their home in McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Duncan and son Danny and Mrs. Josie Duncan of Blythe, Calif., were Tuesday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Sutton.

By Mary Anne Duke
County Home Demonstration Agent

Demonstrators Visited Recently

The Gus Greens, garden demonstrators, who live north of Pampa, have one of the best and best cultivated gardens the agent has seen, in spite of catching hail three different times. By the way, Mrs. Green also bakes mighty good honest-to-goodness butter cakes—we sampled one while visiting.

The whole Green family, which includes Mr. and Mrs. Green and the three children, are all at work remodeling their home. The basement playroom seemed to be the family's favorite spot, and you wouldn't wonder after seeing the room. The Greens will receive much pleasure as they work together on the remodeling job.

The Roland Dauer family south of Pampa has lots of yellow squash and beans from their garden—also good looking tomatoes coming along. The row of flowers in their garden adds much to the beauty of the garden, and it means cut flowers for the home.

All the garden demonstrators have had to exercise patience and do much extra work because of no rain, then too much rain at times and hail.

You should see how the John Brandons' living room is progressing—and the Vern Savages' living room is almost completed and how livable!

We're sorry Betty Joyce Greer of McLean will be unable to make the district 1-4-H club camp after winning the right to go. She's just had mumps.

The 4-H club girls scheduled to make this trip July 31 to August 3 include Johnnie Mae Dauer, Jacquelin Robertson, Billie Mae Osborne, and Shirley Keel. The girls have earned their trips by doing outstanding 4-H club work which includes keeping records of work done.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Dyer recently returned from visiting with their sons, S. J. Jr. and Charles, in Levelland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cash visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lisle in Shamrock Sunday.

Mrs. Ann Poling, 609 Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron, and Niacin, smiles as she pours herself another cup of coffee. Mrs. Poling says life lately is like it used to be years ago... "that is, of course, since I've been taking HADACOL." She can't get over what a difference HADACOL has made in her outlook on life.

Mrs. Poling says: "Three months ago a good friend of mine told me about HADACOL—she knew how much stomach distress I have had. Any type of food that was fried or that had acid in it I just couldn't eat. It affected my sleep, too. In fact, I couldn't have been in a worse condition. When I ate what I wanted to I felt miserable and when I didn't eat these things—I didn't have a proper diet and still felt bad. Then, when I started taking HADACOL, I felt better immediately. I've got a bottle in the house now—and will continue to keep HADACOL from now on. I have told many folks about HADACOL—and they all thank me for telling them about HADACOL. They all have gotten wonderful results from HADACOL like I have. Now I eat anything I want and get a good night's sleep. I can't praise HADACOL enough."

HADACOL Can Help You, Too!... as it has helped thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin. Yes, even hundreds of doctors have recommended HADACOL to their patients. The HADACOL formula is so effective for stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and pains of neuritis, and a general run-down condition caused by such deficiencies.

Make Up Your Mind... to give HADACOL a chance to help you, as it has helped countless thousands of others. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or hospital size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you your money will be refunded.
