10 Cars Wheat Bought; Harvest Is Nearly Over

Ten carloads of wheat have been bought in McLean, and two or three more expected this week should close out the harvest for the local area.

S. R. Jones, manager of the McLean Gin who is buying wheat for the Kimbell Milling company, stated that if the fair weather continues all local wheat harvesting—except on a few small scattered patches—will be completed.

Jones was loading his tenth car of grain Tuesday, and said that two, possibly three, more cars may be bought here.

The wheat is very dry, and its weight is heavy, Jones said. On the only official government test report received on a car sent from here, the wheat tested 62-plus pounds per bushel.

Meanwhile, the hot weather and the almost-continuous winds have damaged much of the late-planted cotton and feed in this area.

The area did receive moisture last week-end, but it was insufficient to stop the wind and temperature damage.

The rain-fall came Friday night, and totaled 41 of an inch in McLean, Pete Fulbright, local weather observer, said.

Most of Saturday was cloudy, and a few drops of rain fell. By Sunday, however, the skies had cleared, and the weather returned to its near 100-degree marks Monday and Tuesday.

Clarendon Plans Three-Day Fete

Officials of the Clarendon Outdoor Entertainment Association, sponsors of the annual Clarendon Fourth of July celebration, this week are putting the final touches on what already promises to be the biggest celebration in Clarendon's history.

"Ranchers have already donated 16 beaves for the traditional free barbecue to be held on the courthouse lawn at noon on the 4th," stated James E. "Jimmy" Faulkner, secretary of the association.

Highway 66 Ceremony to Be This Afternoon

An eight-state, 2,200 mile ceremony dedicating the "Main Street of America," U. S. Highway 66, as the Will Rogers Highway in honor of America's beloved cowboy humorist, began Monday, June 23, at the Chain of Rocks Bridge, near St. Louis, Mo. Governor Forrest Smith of Missouri unveiled the first road marker for the Will Rogers Highway and accepted the first of 2,000,000 automobile windshield stickers and special commemorative leaflets.

The stickers deal with the highway and the new motion picture produced in technicolor by Warner Bros., "The Story of Will Rogers," in which Will Rogers Jr. plays his famous father and Jane Wyman portrays Mrs. Rogers.

A derby-clad delegation from McLean will be at the ceremony at the Texas-Oklahoma line this afternoon at 3 o'clock. John Ben Shepperd, former secretary of state who is now a candidate for attorney general of Texas, will make the brief acceptance speech when the plaque to be mounted at the border is presented.

The delegation from McLean will meet at Brown's Drug at 1 o'clock and leave from there in a group.

The leaflets and stickers will be distributed all along the route of the Will Rogers Highway immediately following the arrival in each city of the dedicatory caravan of official cars, which is being led by a group of brand new Ford station wagons.

In each community, leading civic officials are participating in public ceremonies marking the installation of the Will Rogers Highway commemorative marker, which reads, "Will Rogers Highway, Dedicated 1952 to Will Rogers, Humorist, World Traveler, Good Neighbor. This Main Street of America, Highway 66, was the first road he traveled in a career that led him straight to the hearts of his countrymen."

Elk City, Okla., will be today's first luncheon stop. At 3 o'clock Shepperd and Congressman Victor Wickersham of Oklahoma will dedicate Will Rogers Highway plaques at the Oklahoma-Texas border.

The caravan's Thursday overnight stopping point will be the Herring Hotel in Amarillo, with an 8 o'clock dinner at which the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce will play host.

Derbies to Play Panhandle Nine Here on Sunday

The McLean Derbies will meet the powerful Panhandle nine, featuring the home-run king, Bob Crews, on the local diamond Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The former king of the plate for the Amarillo Gold Sox, Crews tied the world's record by blasting out 69 homers in one season a few years ago. At present, he is out of the professional baseball game, and is operating a service station at Panhandle. He has signed up with the Panhandle team, and is expected to be here Sunday.

'Eight Teams to Battle for Top Honors in Meet

Six out-of-town teams and two McLean teams will be entered in the annual softball tourney, sponsored by the McLean Lions Club, at the local field this week-end.

The teams entered are the Wheeler All-Stars, the Texas company team of Lefors, the Skelly-Shafer plant team of Skellytown, the Hill's Van Lines team of Amarillo, Phillips company of Lefors, Service Drilling company of Stinnett, the Post Office team of McLean, and another team of local players.

An admission charge of 25 cents for adults, and 10 cents for school students will be made at all games. Lions will be in charge of collecting admission fees as fans enter the field area.

Games will start at 8 o'clock each night, instead of the usual time of 7:30. Although this later starting time will cause the games to be played to a later hour each evening, it was believed advisable in view of the fact that some of the teams have a long distance to travel and could not get here any earlier.

Two games will be played each of four nights—Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Monday nights. The first game on Monday night will determine the third place winner, and the closing game will determine the first and second place champs.

Each team will pay an entrance fee of $25. Don Leach, who has been working out details for the tourney, said. The top winner will receive a prize of $100, the second place team $50, and the third place team $25.

The schedule for Thursday night is as follows: Wheeler vs. Texas company; Skelly-Shafer vs. McLean. For Friday night, the schedule is: Service Drilling vs. Post Office; Hill's Van Lines vs. Phillips. If a team loses its first game, it is eliminated from play.

THIS OLD BRIDGE, or at least the remains of this old bridge, is located a few miles north of Alanreed. Better known as Beaver Dam Bridge, it burned to the ground Monday of last week before the fire was ever discovered by anyone passing. Commissioner Earnest Beck, in whose precinct the bridge crossing is located, was notified late in the afternoon. The bridge, one of the few which managed to withstand the ravages of flood water last year, could not win its fight against the fire of an unknown cause, and was completely destroyed. The picture was taken from the south end of the structure. Note the stubs which remain of some of the piling, and the charred boards which formerly were the floor. Near the north end of the 990-foot structure can be seen a few head of cattle in the bed of McClellan Creek.

Shepperd to Visit McLean

John Ben Shepperd of Gladesville, Gregg County, who recently resigned as secretary of the state, will be in McLean around noon Thursday, June 26, in the interest of his candidacy, his friends here announced this week.

Shepperd will not make a public speech while here, but he will renew old acquaintances and make new friends. Shepperd has visited in this area frequently and is well-known in this section.

He is basing his candidacy for secretary general on his record as secretary of state, his administrative experience, his legal ability and his knowledge of Texas and the wants and needs of every citizen of the state.

Although Shepperd does not have a formal platform, he has repeatedly urged and personally supervised economy in government.

JOHN BEN SHEPPERD

Integrity in public office, and law enforcement equality.

Shepperd is 36 years old and has been a practicing attorney for more than 12 years. He is a former president of the bar association of his home county of Gregg and has participated in many state bar and American Legion activities. He is a veteran of World War II.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Davis are vacationing in New Mexico this week.

Married at Groom

Rev. J. T. Bryant went up to Groom Monday where he was called to perform the ceremony uniting the lives of Miss Corine Wilkerson of that place and Mr. George W. Kay of Houston. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents and was attended by about 30 guests. After the conclusion of the ceremony a three-course dinner was served.

The young couple left Tuesday for an extended honeymoon trip through Colorado and will be at home after the 15th of August at Houston.

Dr. Ballard Back to Pill Rolling

The many friends and old patrons of Dr. W. E. Ballard will be glad to know that he has at last decided to resume the practice of medicine at McLean, and has already begun work.

The doctor needs no introduction from us, he having practiced here formerly for a period of four or five years, during which time he enjoyed a large and lucrative practice. Doe has traveled around considerably, but says that the McLean country is hard to beat, and that the best people on earth live right here in the Panhandle.

His place of office will be announced later.

Woodman Banquet

We are requested to announce the local Modern Woodman Lodge will give a banquet to their members and their families on Monday night, August 12. The banquet is to be held at the two ice cream parlors just after the completion of the initiation work.

All Modern Woodmen and their families are invited, and the young men who have no families are invited to bring their lady friends.

Tabernacle Improvement
A petition was circulated this week, and in the neighborhood of one hundred dollars raised for the purpose of making some improvements on the public tabernacle.

The work planned contemplates the enclosing of the building all the way around with solid shutters which will be fastened at the top with hinges, and can be lowered or raised as the occasion demands.

This will do away with borrowing lumber and boxing up the sides of the building when the wind is so strong as to make it impossible to burn a light.

The McLean people have made a splendid investment in the public open air tabernacle and it will stand for years as a monument to their civic pride.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams and boys visited Sunday in Lela with Mrs. W. N. Pharis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cash and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cash and son Don were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cash in Amarillo.

Air Port Bids To Be Opened Tuesday, July 1

Bids are to be opened July 1 for the seal coating of the north-south runway, and for the construction of aprons and taxiways, or the northwest air field at Pampa.

Following completion of the work, the air facilities of Gray County will be moved to that site from the present Pampa Municipal Airport.

Bids were called for following a recent decision of the Gray County commissioners court to make the improvements. The northwest site, formerly an auxiliary field for the Pampa Air Force Base, was taken over several years ago by the county, and to hold its possession, the county must make the improvements, it was explained.

The lease on the present municipal field originally was to expire on June 30, but has been extended for 60 days to allow time for the improvement of the northwest site.

The commissioners court Saturday purchased landing lights for the one runway which is to be improved. The lights—to be spaced every 200 feet along the runway—were ordered from Arnold Greene and company, Cambridge, Mass., at a cost of $1,575. The company was the only concern to answer queries on lighting and costs sent out by the court. Money to pay for the lights will be taken from the county's permanent improvement fund.

The new lights are to be installed only on the north-south runway at the present time. Those lights now in use at the municipal field will be moved to the northwest site following closure of the field, and set up on runways to be improved at a later date.

You're Invited to the Singing Normal Church of Christ June 30 thru July 11

Tentative schedule is for classes Monday through Friday (none on Saturday and Sunday), at 9 to 11 a. m.; 1 to 3 p. m.; 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. There will be classes in the afternoon for the small children, as they need the rest for their regular classes. The school is for all who want to attend, regardless of their religious belief. The teachers will be teaching rudiments, sight singing, harmony, music appreciation, voice culture, song directing, and group singing. From 8:45 to 9:30 p. m. the students will gather in the auditorium for song directing and group singing. Everyone is invited to attend this part of the school from evening to evening and watch the students make their improvements. Our only desire is to improve each student's ability to sing better and know more about vocal music. When the school is over, we hope the people of McLean will say, "We are glad they came our way." No Tuition, no Collections taken to pay expenses. Students' expenses will be room, board, and necessary supplies.

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

THROUGHOUT THIS NATION OF ours, the summer season usually is a slack season as far as business is concerned. There are exceptions to the rule, of course, these exceptions consisting of businesses which cater to the tourist industry.

Generally speaking, however, the retail businesses in almost every locality suffer from the lack of customers.

Summer brings on vacation time, and picnicking, and fishing, etc. The weather is ordinarily a little too warm for comfort and people just aren't inclined to do a lot of work. As a result, business generally falls off.

In some localities, we can be reasonably sure that summer is a dull season. In McLean, thanks to the civic progress of some of our leaders, there is a great deal of activity.

The Lions Club, for example, has two ideal programs underway, and both of them are functioning splendidly. The summer softball league attracts from 300 to 500 people each night when games are played. Much interest is shown in the games, and the players and spectators alike enjoy them. The Lions also are sponsoring the summer youth program, which consists of varied recreation during the daylight hours for youth of all ages. Coach Don Leach, director of the program, puts in many hours each day with the young people of our area, and the program is meeting with much success.

Next week the Church of Christ is sponsoring a singing normal, and classes will be held thrice daily for a two-week period. The classes are expected to attract large crowds, and no doubt the affair will be a great success.

Each Sunday afternoon, the American Legion sponsored baseball team plays, either here or at some other town in the Caprock League set-up. Here is another form of activity which draws interest from many.

And there are other activities which bring enjoyment, pleasure, and relaxation to all of us during the months which might otherwise be dull and listless.

McLean is fortunate in having all of these activities, and each resident of our area should be cognizant of the value of these activities, especially those which provide an outlet for the energies of our young people. Our heartiest congratulations to any and all who aid in these various programs, for they are truly worthwhile.

Mrs. Lady Bryant spent the week-end in Pampa in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Roan and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bonner.

LES TALK

By LESTER

The Automobile Manufacturers Association has made a survey of the use of automobiles in the United States, and has come up with some facts which I thought very interesting. Thinking that you might also be interested in the facts brought out, here's a brief run-down:

59 million American adults use passenger cars daily.

In a year, the nation's private passenger cars travel over 316 billion miles—the typical car travels 9,340 miles annually.

68.3 per cent of the typical motorist's winter driving is for necessity use—57.1 per cent going to and from work.

Over 16 million cars are 9 years old or older, and 9 million of these are 12 years old or older. 3,700,000 cars were scrapped in 1950.

Over half of all employed persons use passenger cars for earning a living.

The average farmer's car has 41,800 miles on its speedometer, and the average farmer travels 10,020 miles yearly. Nearly 6 million passenger cars are used on farms.

The typical car in the metropolitan areas has 41,000 miles on its speedometer. The average new car in the U. S. has 733,230 miles on its speedometer.

480,000 people are employed in motor vehicle plants; 360,000 in parts plants; 565,167 in dealer establishments.

20 per cent of all retail sales in the U. S. are automotive. At least 12,000 of the industry's nation-wide suppliers and all of its 43,999 dealers are classified as small business.

These figures are somewhat astounding, aren't they? Particularly so in view of the fact that the auto business is really only about 50 years old. The information above, incidentally, was rounded up by the auto association to point out that autos are no longer things of luxury in our country, but instead are necessities.

Here are pictures of two of my pretty-close neighbors. Both are nice guys.

The top picture is that of Miro Pakan. He's in the trucking business, just in case you didn't know, and I think he hauls more cattle than anything else. However, he will haul just about anything he can get into one of his trucks. Miro is one of the family for whom the community of Pakan out here was named. There are some more Pakan's in this neck of the woods, don't know just how many, but I have heard of Sam and Dusan, and I guess there are some more. Anyway, Miro is one Pakan that I know, and as I have said above, he is a nice guy. He is one of the most faithful members of the volunteer fire department, and is ready to go help put out a fire at any time of the day or night when the siren sounds. It's kind of a race in our neighborhood between Miro and Boyd Meador as to who gets to the scene of the fire first. And I believe Miro can beat Boyd—especially if the fire alarm is at night. I have heard that siren go off in the middle of the night, and before it could hardly get to the second blast, Miro was beating his way to town. He used to always go in that Plymouth he has and it's getting up in years and the thing really would take off. Miro's got a nice family, too.

and they all make good neighbors. And he's a pretty good-looking fellow, too, isn't he?

This second feller is Gordon Wilson. Gordon is a good friend of mine, but not quite good enough. I can be doing some work around the house, and he is a good enough friend to come by and watch me work. But not quite good enough a friend to help me do the work. Can't say as I blame him, though, for he has never caught me helping him over at his house. I guess Gordon has lived in McLean for just about all of his life. Keep reading in the 40 years ago stuff about when his dad, the late W. T. Wilson, came to these parts. I don't know just how old Gordon is, but he must have been pretty small 40 years ago. The thing that I like about him is that he minds his own business and doesn't give anybody any static or trouble. Can't say that about myself, or about a lot of other people I know. But Gordon just tends to his own business. Here lately, he hasn't had much time to be down town since he has been working on the construction of the new elementary school building. And I would imagine that by the end of the day, Gordon is a tired fellow. Mighty glad I have Gordon's picture on hand to run, for I really do like to run pictures of people I like. And I like both Gordon and Miro.

A farmer told his hired hand to drive into town. The hired hand returned a full hour later than he should have. He protested to the raging farmer: "No, sir, I wasn't wastin' time at the saloon at all. It's just that I picked up the parson down the road about three miles and from then on them pesky mules couldn't understand a word I aid."

The doctor was called to look over Grandma, who had been complaining of aches and pains. He gave her a thorough going over.

After he left, Grandma seemed to perk up a bit. "What did you say was the name of that new minister?" she asked, cocking her ear trumpet.

"That wasn't the minister; that was the doctor," her son told her.

"Hmmm. I did think he was a bit familiar for a minister."

Events will include trap and skeet shooting, adult outdoor skish casting contest, indoor adult and junior boys skish casting contests.

Special thrills for spectators will be furnished in junior and senior boys rifle marksmanship contests, junior and senior boys archery contest, professional target and trick archery shooting by the Magic City Archery Club, professional demonstrations with casting and spinning rods, along with a show for gun and working dogs. With the exception of the door skish contests, all events will be held in the Commerce Building. All events will be under the sponsorship of the Shamrock Chamber of Commerce.

REVEILLE

... with the boys

Cpl. Cleo Kimbrell of Route 1, McLean, is returning to the United States from Korea under the army's rotation plan.

He was a member of the 25th Infantry Division, one of the first U. S. units to fight on the peninsula. It has recently been engaged in patrol activity near the 38th parallel.

Kimbrell, a mechanic in Battery A of the 90th Field Artillery Battalion, entered the army in January, 1951, and arrived in Korea in August.

Among the 2200 crewmen serving aboard the battleship USS Iowa in Korean waters is Billy Vic Shelton, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Shelton of McLean.

Since leaving "mothballs" to relieve her sister battleship, the USS Wisconsin, the Iowa has continued to bombard the Communists in round-the-clock support of United Nations ground troops.

During her first month of combat, the 45,000-ton Iowa hurled more than 1,000 rounds of one-ton 16" projectiles, and over 3,000 rounds of 5" shells on Red installations along the east coast of Korea.

The Iowa is the flagship of the commander, seventh fleet.

S/Sgt. James D. Back of San Antonio is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Back.

Pfc. Glenn Curry of Fort Sill, Okla., spent the week-end here with his grandmother, Mrs. M. D. Curry.

Pfc. Fred Smith of Fort Hood is spending a 30-day leave here in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Smith.

GROWING PAINS In Gray County By FOSTER WHALEY

Earnest Beck and employees at the county barn have been kept pretty busy here of late mixing grasshopper poison for farmers of the McLean area. The bran and poison are some that had been carried over from the 30's when assistance was given to farmers by the government in the control of hoppers.

Now the last of it is gone and, in the words of Fred Reese, bureau of entomology, grasshopper control work, "Chlordane, Aldrin, and Toxaphene are so much more effective as a spray for grasshoppers than the old standard bait mixture, that you could not afford to have the bait given to you as a method of control. Here are some of the other pointers: 1. spray infested fence rows before your crop is large enough to afford a shade for the hoppers; 2. keep the water volume down that is applied per acre to less than 7 1/2 gallons per acre; 3. use 1 1/2 to 3 pounds of either chlordane or toxaphene; 4. use two ounces of aldrin per acre.

Last week's sharp break in the cattle market was noted over the nation as well as locally. For Texas we might say it is the drought condition, but this does not explain the break on a nationwide basis. It has been pointed out in this article before that we have built up an all-time high population of cattle to 92 million head.

Have been talking to several of the old timers like M. H. Patterson and J. L. Andrews, who say the wind has blown harder and longer than they have witnessed for this area. The light showers last week did very little good with the heavy south winds which have followed.

Wheat harvest is nearing completion throughout the county. Yields have varied from 3 bushels per acre to 35 bushels, more variation than I've ever seen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dickinson and children were Amarillo visitors Thursday of last week.

Mrs. J. P. Dickinson and children, Betty and John, accompanied by their father and grandfather, H. N. Morgan of McAlester, Okla., spent last week in Lubbock with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Windom are spending this week in Wichita Falls visiting relatives.

In 1945 he accepted a direct commission in the old medical administrative corps, reverting to master sergeant in 1946.

Donley County—SOIL NEWS

Spring grass planting is about over for this year. Records kept in the Soil Conservation Service office indicate that the eight district grass drills were used on 121 different places for a total of approximately 4720 acres. In addition, Bill Cooke, who owns his own grass drill, reported drilling about 280 acres, and Bill Harris used Cooke's drill on about 100 acres, bringing the total acres of grass drilled in the district to at least 5100 acres. Beside the grass drilled, there were approximately 1500 acres of sand lovegrass seeded by airplane, making a total of 6600 acres planted to grass this spring in the Donley County Soil Conservation District.

More sand lovegrass was planted than any other one kind—a total of 2055 acres. Sand lovegrass was also popular in mixtures of various grasses. Sand lovegrass and Indian grass were the most used of the mixtures—totaling 1102 acres.

Weeping lovegrass was second in choice of grasses, being planted on 1736 acres. It and Madrid sweet clover were planted as a mixture on 494 acres. In general, weeping lovegrass was not planted in mixtures with other grasses because of the fact that it is not as palatable to livestock during the growing season. Although it has not been tried for a long enough period to be proven, it is thought that weeping lovegrass and Madrid sweet clover will prove to be an excellent spring pasture, since both start their growth early.

Various other grasses, such as King Ranch bluestem, Blackwell switchgrass, blue panic, side oats grama, blue grama, sand and little bluestem, or mixtures of these grasses with sand love, weeping love, or Indian, were planted on about 1100 acres. Over 118 acres of pure Madrid clover were planted. Buffel grass—the wonder grass according to the publicity it is receiving—has been planted in a number of individuals on a large basis. It will be interesting to learn what buffel grass will do in this district.

So far plantings observed indicate that in most cases fair good stands of grass are being obtained. The final results will depend largely on the amount of rainfall received this summer.
