Ruby Cook Is Second Mayoral Candidate

For the first time in history, according to long-time residents of the area, McLean will have a woman candidate for the office of mayor of McLean.

Filing for the office last week prior to the deadline was Miss Ruby Cook. Miss Cook was an unsuccessful candidate for the city council one year ago.

Rules for

TV GUESTS

(Editor's Note: Television will hit the Panhandle this week-end. In line with this, we reprint from Wesley Lizzard's column in the Amarillo Daily News the following clever rules for TV guests. Mr. Lizzard picked up the article from another paper, and had it in his column last week. We suggest that you clip it from this paper, frame it, and have it on display—if you are one of the early buyers of a TV set.)

- 1. Seating: The overstuffed chairs in the front row are reserved for guests over 80, and members of the immediate family. Good seating will be found in the second row (dining room chairs), and third row (kitchen chairs), with standing room available between the piano and library table. 2. Picture quality: Guests will not tamper with brightness, clearness, focus, volume, or anything else. If the picture appears too bright or too dark, too high or too low, too this or too that, leave quietly, remembering that we prefer it that way. 3. Refreshments: Under no circumstances will the proprietor or his family be goaded, teased, or shamed into serving anything whatever in the form of food or drink. Clean glasses will be found on the kitchen sink. The faucet on the right is the cold. 4. Comparisons: We have no interest in the names, makes, or locations of the television sets that have (a) larger screens, (b) produce clearer pictures, (c) are easier on the eyes, or (d) are better in any way. Of this set, we simply say (a) it is ours, (b) it is paid for, and (c) look who's talking. 5. Exits: All doors open outward and can be used at any time. In any case, they shall be used within five minutes after program is terminated. 6. Program termination: A simple majority of the family may vote when to turn off the set. 7. Future programs: No future programs until further notice. 8. A final word: Good Night!

Morris Elected New President Local Jaycees

Jimmie Don Morris, who is employed by the Southwestern Public Service company in McLean, has been named as the new president of the McLean Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Morris, who will succeed Sammy Haynes as head of the organization, will assume the duties of the office April 1, at which time other newly-chosen officers will also take over.

Elected as first vice president was Larry Fuller; second vice president, Johnny Haynes; treasurer, Buddy Sutton; secretary, Johnnie Joe Hutchison; and reporter, C. L. Gentry.

Active directors chosen were Amos Page, Dr. J. H. Kritzer, Walter Sargent, Bill Day, and James Barker; associate directors are J. W. Meacham, Lester Campbell, S. A. Cousins, E. J. Lander, and C. P. Callahan.

Jaycees also decided not to hold a formal installation banquet this year, as has been done for the past two years. Instead, the Jaycee members and associate members will have a covered dish dinner, and officers will be installed at the dinner.

The city marshal's office, now held by J. A. Sparks, has attracted the largest number of candidates. Sparks filed for re-election, and then following behind him were three other candidates—C. L. Gentry, Luke Armstrong, and Ike Kesse. The job pays no salary.

D. A. Davis, present city secretary, is being opposed for that office by C. S. Rice. Both men are long-time residents of McLean.

Candidates have until 20 days prior to the election to withdraw from any of the races. Ballots will be printed following that deadline.

Senior Play Cast Chosen

Members of the cast of the senior class play, to be held in the McLean High School auditorium Friday night, April 10, were selected when try-outs were held last Friday.

Directing the play, entitled "Amazing Gracie," will be the class sponsors, Mrs. J. D. Coleman and Vernon Gibson.

Selected as members of the cast were Bonita Bailey, Gale Plummer, Floella Cubine, Eddie Reeves, Bethie Mantooth, Donna Stubblefield, LaJune Chilton, B. W. Duncan, Howard Birdwell, George Rallsback, and Dortha Chase.

Fogs, Sprinkle Bring .03 Inch

Two fogs and a sprinkling of rain brought only .03 of an inch in moisture to McLean during the past three days, but caused driving to be extremely hazardous.

Most of the .03 of an inch came Sunday night, when a light sprinkling of rain fell. Monday night and most of Tuesday were foggy, and the fog dropped down again Tuesday night. The .03 of an inch brought the year's total to 1.63 inches, Pete Fulbright, local weather observer, said.

Several car accidents in the area were reported. The greatest damage in two weeks reported Tuesday occurred north of town when two cars sideswiped. Driver of one car was Jesse Wayne Roberts, and of the other, E. H. Kramer. Neither suffered serious injury, although Kramer's arm was injured.

In town, a packing company truck and an Illinois car collided, but no one was injured. Both of the accidents were attributed to the foggy condition.

Local Derby-Clad People to Appear In Irish Parade

The McLean Junior Chamber of Commerce will have an entry in the parade next Tuesday at the annual St. Patrick's Day celebration in Shamrock. Jaycee members decided at their regular meeting this week.

Annual Red Cross Funds Drive Gets Underway in McLean Area

Work on Paving Through City Limits Begins

Barriers to cut off traffic on the old Highway 66 route through most of town were erected late Monday afternoon, and by Tuesday afternoon half of the old pavement had been removed.

It was fast action on the part of workers of the Austin Road company and Worth Construction company, contractors for the hard-surfacing of the divided highway through this part of Gray County.

Work on ripping up the old asphalt pavement from the Cicero Smith Lumber company corner east to the city limits was begun early Tuesday morning. By night, practically all of the asphalt had been hauled away, and the road bed partially graded in preparation for the pouring of concrete.

The west half of the old highway, from Cooke Chevrolet to the Andrews Equipment company building, had not been torn out by early Wednesday morning, but work on it was to start as soon as the machinery could be switched from one side to the other.

The old brick paving on the two blocks on either side of the stop light will be left as is. Curb and gutter are to be installed through town on the new concrete.

Two Attend WT Pageant

Bethie Mantooth and Eddie Reeves, senior students of McLean High School, attended the Personality Pageant at West Texas State College, Canyon, last week-end as official representatives of the local school.

The two local seniors were chosen by the senior class as the personality king and queen in recent balloting of class members.

A total of 30 towns were represented. Miss Mantooth and Reeves were taken on a tour of the campus; were honored guests at the Branding Iron Theater's speech play, "Suppressed Desire"; given a tea at Randall Hall; and were guests at a banquet in the Blue Room of the school cafeteria and a ball in the cafeteria Friday night.

The Personality Pageant of WTSC is an annual affair of the college. At the pageant, the personality king and queen of the college are announced. This year's winners were Jerry Bolin of Canyon and Martha Ann Montgomery of Shamrock.

Leach Resigns as Head Coach

Don Leach, who has been with the coaching staff of McLean High School for the past five years and head coach for the past two and one-half years, resigned his position Tuesday, Superintendent Paul Kennedy, to whom Leach tendered his resignation, said.

Leach will continue with his duties for the remainder of this semester, Kennedy explained. In addition to his teaching duties, Leach will handle the track work now being done by the boys of the high school, and the spring football practice.

"We definitely will find Leach hard to replace as head coach," Kennedy stated. "He has, through his cooperation with all of us and his hard work at his coaching, been unexcelled by any coach I have had the pleasure of working with. The members of the school board and I realize that a successor to Don Leach, both as a coach and as a man, will be hard to find."

Kennedy said that no successor to Leach has been considered. Leach did not reveal any plans for the future. Kennedy stated, however, that he has several prospective coaching jobs in mind, but has not definitely made up his mind on any of them.

Leach, a graduate of Welling-ton High School and West Texas State College, was outstanding in both football and basketball during his high school and college days. He played both sports in college, as well as in high school. He came to McLean in the fall of 1948 as assistant to the late Al Duncan. He served under Duncan as assistant football coach, but was head basketball coach.

Schools to Close Friday; Teachers Meet in Amarillo

Local schools will be closed all day Friday to allow members of the faculty to attend the annual convention of District 9 of the Texas State Teachers Association in Amarillo, Superintendent Paul Kennedy has announced.

Practically every member of the local faculty plans to attend. The program will include a number of addresses by outstanding educators.

Students of the McLean schools will have one more Saturday session of classes, Superintendent Kennedy also stated. He reminded school patrons this week that the classes on Saturday, March 21, will be the last of the make-up time required.

Condition of Henleys Said To Be Better

Condition of both Mr. and Mrs. Luke Henley of McLean, seriously injured in a car accident near Roswell, N. M., Tuesday of last week, was reported to be improving this week. Both are in a Roswell hospital.

Henley was believed to be in the most serious condition. He suffered a fracture in his back, and it was feared that pneumonia might develop following the accident. However, relatives of Henley have learned that the pneumonia condition was clearing this week, and that he was over the worst part of his illness.

Apparently, he had had a cold at the time of the accident, and it grew worse quickly afterward. Mrs. Henley also suffered a fracture in her back. The vertebrae injured in her back were nearer the neck than those of her husband. In addition, she suffered a fractured leg, which has been placed in a cast, and pulled ligaments in the other leg. The fracture was between the knee and the hip. However, her condition has been improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Henley were en route to Roswell to visit in the homes of two of his brothers, Pete and S/Sgt. Jud Henley, when the crash occurred. They were about ten miles from Roswell, when the car, driven by Mrs. Henley, hit a soft shoulder. Relatives reported that she apparently cut the car sharply back to the road, causing it to turn over. The car apparently overturned four times, and was a total loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Boyd visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McMahan, in Amarillo Sunday.

Van Brawley of Peryton spent the first of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brawley. They all visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sims at Shamrock Monday evening.

Workers Hope To Attain Soon Goal of $790

The annual funds campaign of the McLean chapter of the American Red Cross got underway this week under the supervision of George Saunders, local funds drive chairman.

The McLean chapter has a quota of $790 this year, Saunders said, and he hopes that the various workers will complete their work within less than a week.

National quota this year is $93 million, the largest "peace-time" quota on record. Of this amount, $7 million has been designated to aid in the blood program, in which blood will be gathered to make gamma globulin, the medicine which is believed will aid in relieving those stricken with polio.

Downtown solicitors in the drive are W. C. Simpson, who has been assigned to the northeast section of business houses; J. C. Claborn, the southeast portion; Emory Crockett, the northwest part; and J. W. Meacham, southwest section. Meacham is also chairman of the local chapter.

Working in the residential area are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sargent, Mrs. Wallace Grimsley, Mrs. George Terry, and Mrs. Sherman Crockett. Each of these workers will have assistants in their sections of town, Saunders said.

Saunders will be in charge of donations from the areas which lie outside the city limits, yet within the chapter's area.

"We are anxious to make our quota as soon as possible," Saunders said. "We all realize that such funds drives are coming fast and furious, especially during the first part of each year. But our Red Cross organization is a form of insurance, insurance for all of us in times of emergency. It's a type of insurance which we hope that we never have to collect on in our area; but it always gives us a feeling of genuine helpfulness to be able to aid those who are stricken. If a Red Cross worker fails to contact you for your donation, we hope that you will leave your money with Chairman Meacham at the McLean Hardware."

Easy Recipes to Brighten Lenten Meals

Golden pineapple with shrimp makes a delicious and satisfying salad for meatless days.

Ever thought of combining fish with fruit? This idea is particularly timely now during Lent when meatless dinners are in order and you'll find that the fresh, exciting flavor of golden pineapple will lend new and appetizing interest to your menus. Pineapple is universally popular and so versatile it is a perfect flavor-mate with any fish; fresh or frozen halibut, sole, bass or any of the canned varieties such as tuna, salmon, shrimp or crab. You can use pineapple rings or chunks as an accompaniment for broiled or fried fish, or as a stuffing for baked fish, and a colorful topping of pineapple tidbits will lend inviting flavor to fish casseroles. In main-dish salads, which are especially important during this Lenten season, the addition of pineapple will make them doubly appealing to the eye and more satisfying to eat.

PINEAPPLE SHRIMP SALAD

- 2 cups fresh or canned shrimp or crab
- 1/2 cup French dressing
- 2 cups canned tuna
- 1 cup sliced celery
- 1 cup pineapple tidbits or chunks

Marinate cleaned shrimp, crab or tuna in French dressing for 1/2 hour. If using tuna, break into bite-size pieces. Drain off dressing.

PINEAPPLE STUFFED FILLET OF SOLE

- 2 cups soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 cup drained crushed pineapple
- 2 tbsp melted butter or margarine
- 2 lb. fresh or frozen fillets of sole
- 1/2 cup white sauce
- 1/2 cup grated cheese
- 1/2 cup finely chopped celery

Combine bread crumbs, melted butter or margarine, salt, celery and pineapple. Toss lightly to blend. Place a spoonful of stuffing on each fillet, roll and secure with a toothpick. Arrange in a shallow baking pan. Add cheese to white sauce and stir until blended. Pour over fish. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 minutes. Serves 6.

Health Talk—

BATH IN BED

A daily bath and grooming is a definite booster to morale by making the patient feel acceptable to others, as well as by making him more comfortable. Whether a bath is given in bed or in the bathroom, or is complete or partial, it refreshes and cleanses the skin, relaxes tired muscles, and provides mild exercise. Also depending on the temperature of the water, it can reduce fever or add warmth.

To assist a patient with a tub bath or shower, the home nurse sees that the temperature of the bathroom is right (72 degrees Fahrenheit); sets bath linen, clean nightclothes, and soap at a convenient spot; and draws a tub of lukewarm water or regulates the shower. She may need to help the patient in and out of the tub, and possibly assist with scrubbing, rinsing, and drying. If he can take his own bath, the door should be left slightly open in case he calls.

For a bed bath, she should set a basin of warm water, soap, and bath linen, at the head of the bed. If the patient can't take his own bath, she washes a small area at a time in approximately this order: around the eyes, the face, ears, neck, chest, arms, abdomen, legs, and back. Usually the patient can complete the rest of his bath. All parts of the body except the area being washed are covered with a washable blanket or bath towel to avoid chilling or embarrassing the patient. The ends of the washrag are held in the bather's hand. No soap is used around the eyes, or, if the patient requests, on the rest of the face. For the remainder of the bath, a soapy washrag is used with firm, long strokes, then rinsed and used again in the same way. Soapy or cooling water is changed. After all the soap has been removed, the area is dried and rubbing alcohol and powder used, if desired.

The hands and feet may be immersed in the bath basin. The basin (which should not be too full) should be level, and the hand or foot put into the basin. The towel is used to protect the bed.

During the bath, the skin around the nails should be pushed back with the washcloth or an orange stick. Later, they can be cleaned, cut, and, if necessary, filed.

Each day the hair should be brushed and combed. The teeth should be brushed at least twice a day. Absorbent cotton, dipped in a sodium bicarbonate or salt solution, is used to wipe the teeth and gums of the patient who can't brush his own teeth. Dentures are breakable; they may be cleaned under running water, using a brush and mild soap or the patient's special powder. If the lips tend to be dry and cracked, they should be greased with petroleum jelly, cold cream, or some other lubricant.

After the bath and grooming, the bed linen may be changed. If the patient remains in bed, he is turned on his side and moved as far as possible toward one side of the bed. If he is weak or unable to turn easily, someone should stand on each side of the bed to make it. The soiled bottom sheet is rolled up from the vacant side to the patient's back. After the mattress covering is straightened, a clean sheet is put into position, tucked at two corners and the loose side rolled on top of the soiled sheet.

The patient then is turned on his back across the rolled cover toward the opposite side so that the soiled sheet can be completely removed and the fresh one pulled smooth and tucked at the remaining corners. When the bottom sheet is put on the bed, another folded in half (a "draw sheet") can be added to fit under shoulders and hips to protect the rest of the bottom covers and use in helping to turn the patient. A clean top sheet is put on last. A box pleat made at the foot of the bed will allow the patient room to wiggle his toes.

The patient should be encouraged to move about in bed, if allowed by the doctor. If not, his position should be changed often by others. Supports like pillows or a folded blanket or towel under head, shoulders, arms, or knees, or small of the back and a back or foot rest help maintain good posture. Trouble signs to look for are redness or thinning of the skin, pitting, or the tendency of the skin to show the imprint of wrinkles or texture weave of bedclothing. Cushions under the hips, heel, or other bony areas will relieve pressure and prevent bedsores, as will rubbing with alcohol and dusting with powder at frequent intervals.

STALIN IS DEAD

THE THREE WORDS, "Stalin is Dead," were ringing around the world late last Thursday; and no one in this country of ours had a definite knowledge of what the effect of the death of Russia's leader would be.

There is little doubt that Stalin's death will have some effect on Russia, and the rest of the world. Yet that effect will not likely be felt for some time.

In the United States, the most popular theory—that is, the most hoped-for result—is that a fight for leadership will develop. There are, of course, several men who may be considered in line to take over the position which Stalin has held for these many bloody years, but, regardless of whom may be chosen, a fight for leadership could be the result. U. S. leaders are hoping, although they cannot be certain, that such a fight will develop and that some type of revolution will weaken the Soviet iron rule. The naming of Malenkov as prime minister does not eliminate this possibility.

Another theory is that the death of Stalin will have only a token effect on the world as a whole. This theory is based on the fact that "good old Joe," as ex-President Truman once called the man, has been in ill health for a long period of time, and has actually turned over the reins of the government to one man. No one seems to be sure whether that is true or not. But if it should prove to be, then it is likely that Stalin's death will have the least effect on the future of the world. However, even if this is true, his successor will have a "hard row to hoe," for Stalin has been a sort of idol to members of the Communist party. The new prime minister has been considered Stalin's most likely successor.

Apparently, the high leaders in Russia fear that Stalin's death could easily lead to an uprising, a bloody revolution. They are calling for unity among the people. Of course, without this unity, the Communist party will eventually fail, for people can be enslaved for only so long a time before a leader will develop among them to take them out of their misery.

But no one, especially no one in this country, knows for sure just what will happen. We can all hope for the best; we can all pray for the best. The elimination of one man from a country built on hate, particularly the man who has led the country into its present state, will surely aid in fostering peace in the future; but the elimination of that one man does not mean the greed of the other leaders is gone. Time will be required to determine the final outcome, the final effect, of the death of Joe Stalin.

LES TALK

By LESTER

Coach Don Leach tells me that spring football practice will be delayed for a while, and track will be the sport of the high school athletes in its stead. Football practice will be held after track is completed. Don explained that the prolonged basketball season, due to the winning of the district by the Tigers, makes the postponement of grid practice necessary until after track is held.

Incidentally, the football boys have received their new jackets. Senior jackets are reversible, while lettermen from the lower classes cannot reverse their jackets. Reserves were given sweaters instead of jackets, but the sweaters also have the letter "M" on them.

It won't be long until McLean can boast of at least three brand new businesses. Three service station buildings are being erected on the newly-paved south half of Highway 66 through town.

Biggest of the trio of buildings is that of the Consumers Supply, owned by Ted Glass and Arthur Dwyer. The block building will house a car wash room, a grease room, and a large room for rest rooms, office, supplies, etc. Construction work on this building is well underway. It is located immediately behind the present location of Consumers Supply.

Next in size is the station being built by Leon Waldrop on his corner lot where the old hotel—which burned some months ago—was located. Frame work on the structure is already in place, and the building will also have a grease and wash space, etc.

Walter Kelly, who owns about the only plot of land on the south side of the highway, yet north of the railroad tracks within the city limits, already has his station building about completed. It, too, is of block construction. Kelly plans to install quite a number of pumps in front of the building, and hopes to get ready to open in the near future.

Perhaps other stations will be built along the new highway. I know of at least one more which is supposed to be put up. Then I have heard rumors of a tourist court or two which are in the contemplated stage.

Oh, yes, I did hear that Buel Watt is also starting work on a service station, and courts, too, at the east edge of town. Understand his land is also on the south side of the highway, but I do not really know whether it is inside the city limits, or just outside. Since I haven't seen Mr. Watt to ask him of his plans, I actually don't know just what all he plans to do.

Outside of the construction work on the highway, there isn't much going on in the way of building.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cooke have already moved into their fine, new home not far from the site of their former home. The Cooke home, beautifully finished both inside and outside, is probably the most modern in this entire area. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke have installed the very latest in the way of electrical equipment, heating, etc. He used his previous experience in building in utilizing every little space for a possible storage space. Even has a closet in his large den to store firewood. Even has a booth from where he can show the many films which he and Mrs. Cooke have taken in the past. The Cooke home is about the nicest, most modern home I've ever seen.

Cliff Day has just completed a home for his daughter, Mrs. June Story, over in the east part of town. The two bedroom house does not have a large floor area, but it has been constructed to utilize all space to the best advantage. Mr. Day had it open for public inspection last week, and quite a large number of people looked it over. It was modeled after some plan of economic building; yet it sacrifices little that much larger houses have here, too; houses which are low in cost but high in liveability.

Cicero Smith Lumber company has built several new homes here in the past year or so. And it seems that every time Manager Carl Jones is about ready to hold a public showing of one of them, the house is sold and the buyer wants to move in right then. So Carl hasn't been able to have one of his wanted public showings as yet.

Unlike many towns, McLean has not had a major building addition since the war. In other words, some high-powered building agent hasn't come in here and started a brand new addition. But if you will just sit down and think for a moment, you will realize that houses have been built here by the scores since the war. I believe I could name 40 to 50 without much difficulty. This would include, of course, those houses which have been moved into town and completely re-built.

Home building costs may seem high. That's probably the reason why so many people hesitate to build, or to buy, a home. Yet those same people will spend from one-fourth to one-half as much as a home costs on a new car—and never bat an eye. People are funny, aren't we?

Privacy With Beauty For Windows

Jean Roehl applies an improved window covering to provide privacy and beauty while at the same time allowing light to penetrate into the room. Called Vitrophone, the plastic coated window decoration is especially useful for pantry windows, basement windows, transoms and garage windows where it obscures the view of "outsiders" and eliminates troublesome washings. Clear bathroom windows in particular can be made private and be beautified. Many homemakers are using Vitrophone to cover glass doors of utility and china cabinets and bookcases. The product is available in various distinctive frosted glass designs, stained glass effects and cheerful decorative designs in color. Easily applied with the use of water only, the smooth surface of the window covering is durable and dirt resistant. It is easily cleaned in seconds with the use of a damp cloth. Vitrophone is available at all variety stores and can be obtained by the yard.

'Copter Service 7,000 Feet Up & Down Lifeline to Men on Big Power Project

In the mountainous wilds of British Columbia, where the Aluminum Company of Canada (Alcan) is actually reversing rivers in their course and blasting one of two 10-mile tunnels through mountains to complete what can be the world's largest aluminum-producing center, one of a fleet of helicopters rises from a company campsite after delivering supplies and materials to construction crews. Because of the rugged terrain, great heights and limited landing space, only 'copters can be used to supply the men working on the towers and cables. At left is a view of the base camp at Kemano, hub of the multi-million dollar project. Never before in modern times has one industrial plant promised to increase so enormously the North American production of aluminum which today finds some 4,000 diversified uses ranging from sardine cans to jet planes. Aluminum Limited's Alcan project can have an ultimate capacity of 550,000 tons of the metal—equal to 53 per cent of the 1952 U. S. production.

Eggs-actly Right for Easter!

Children everywhere will love this glorious combination of the little things that make a child's Easter. Imagine a delicate white cake, made the old-fashioned way with cake flour and your own mixing skill, a billowy frosting piled high as a child's dream with drifts of snowy shredded coconut. The hide-and-seek nests of bright jelly bean "Easter eggs" will start chortles of childish delight to make your day a Happy Easter, too!

EASTER LAYER CAKE

- 2 1/2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 2 eggs, unbeaten
- *Milk (see below for amount)
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 pkg. Baker's Shredded Coconut

*With butter, margarine, or lard, use 1 cup milk. With vegetable or any other shortening, use 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons milk.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating very thoroughly after each. Then add flour mixture alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla and blend.

Turn into two round 9-inch layer pans, 1 1/2 inches deep, which have been lined on bottoms with paper. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

Frost with fluffy frosting. Sprinkle coconut thickly on tops and sides of cake. Make small individual nests of jelly beans on top of cake.

WHAT IS AN R. A.?

By Mrs. A. A. Lindsay

The officers are elected once or twice a year. The R. A.'s meet once a week, or twice monthly. Their colors are royal blue, white and gold.

Officers are: adult counselor, ambassador-in-chief, first assistant ambassador, second assistant ambassador, chapter recorder, chapter scribe, chapter steward, chapter custodian, and chapter herald.

The committees are called embassies: program embassy, recruiting embassy, knightly-deeds embassy, world alliance embassy, stewardship embassy, recreation embassy, and ranking embassy. One of the most attractive features of Royal Ambassador work is its ranking system. After a boy joins the Royal Ambassador chapter he can begin to do the things required for becoming a page. The second advancement is that of squire; the third promotion is that of knight; the fourth rank is that of an ambassador. As they fulfill the requirements for the rank of page, they are presented with a royal blue arm band with a gold shield; with the second rank the blue letters R. A. on a white bar are added to the arm band. When requirements of knight are completed, the gold crown for faithful service is added to the upper part of the arm band; and upon attainment of the rank of ambassador, a golden laurel branch, signifying victory, is added to the lower part of the shield.

The Royal Ambassadors is a world-wide organization. There are R. A. chapters in Korea, Africa, Australia, China, Japan, Europe, South America, and wherever Baptists carry on their missionary work.

The R. A.'s have their own magazine called "The Ambassador: Life," printed under the auspices of the W. M. U., 600 North 20th St., Birmingham 3, Ala., for $1.50 a year. They have a beautiful flag, banner, pin and arm bands. The sword is their emblem, representing the word of God. They have their own manuals explaining their work, an R. A. pennant and T-shirts with their shields and Royal Ambassadors across the front.

The R. A.'s have an impressive initiation service for new members. They have their secret password, handshake, and sign which they may use to find out if they have an ambassador brother in another town or community. These last are not given to the boys until they have completed their page rank.

This is a wonderful organization for boys. All boys age 9, 10, 11, and 12 may belong to the Junior R. A.'s. Boys age 13, 14, 15, and 16 may belong to the Intermediate R. A.'s. It is one of the greatest honors that a man or woman can be paid to be asked to lead a group of Royal Ambassadors as their counselor.

Nobody knows what a boy is worth.

A boy with a mind that's keen. A boy that whistles around the place

And lives a life that's clean.

Nobody knows what a boy is worth.

And the world must wait to see.

For every man in an honored place

Is a boy that used to be.

Who touches a boy by the Master's plan

Is shaping the course of the future man;

Father or Mother or Teacher or Priest,

Friend or Stranger or Saint or Beast,

Is dealing with one who is living ahead

And may be the man that the world shall need.

For who can measure the pride and joy

That may some day grow from a little boy?

40 Years Ago— IT HAPPENED HERE

Taken From the Files of The McLean News, 1913

Birthday Party

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hurst was the scene Monday evening of this week of the most enjoyable 42 party given by Mrs. Hurst in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. On arrival, the guests were conducted to the dining room, where delicious fruit punch was served by Mrs. Hurst, assisted by Miss Mildred Bundy. When all had arrived, the tables were arranged and two hours pleasantly spent in friendly rivalry at progressive 42, some very high scores being made.

At 10:30, delicious refreshments of peanut butter sandwiches, fruit salad, olives, etc., were served. On a whole, the affair was a most enjoyable one, and all the guests present pronounced Mrs. Hurst a master entertainer.

Two More Entries

McLean's representation in the Texas Industrial Congress offer of $10,000 in gold for the best yields of different crops in 1913 is growing, two more contestants having been added recently.

S. A. Cobb, who runs the Northfork post office, does an occasional good job of preaching and incidentally runs a farm. He has entered and will try for the premiums on two different classes, viz: four acres of corn, one of cotton, one of peas, and two of kaffir.

A. J. Mayfield is the other contestant, and he will make a strenuous effort to capture the first money on the best two acres of milo maize.

Are there any others? It costs nothing to enter and nothing to compete. You had just as well be in the race.

Missionary Notes

Our auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. Faulkner on Wednesday of this week in the study of the Missionary Voice.

On next Wednesday the home of Mrs. C. C. Cook is to be our meeting place for the lesson in our study course.

So the People May Know

The publication laws of Texas are many. Few attorneys are familiar with all of them, and public officials charged with carrying out these laws may not have a detailed knowledge of them.

This series of articles calls attention to some of the publication laws so as to attract the interest of more citizens in the governmental units that they support with their tax dollars; and to inform government officials who may be in violation of these laws through unfamiliarity with them.

One of the provisions of the law is that the tax assessor and collector must by the first of April each year prepare the delinquent tax rolls of water control and improvement district.

Directors of the water control district must publish the delinquent rolls in a newspaper. The law says:

LINES BY SOGLOW

Ever wonder where you'll be ten years from now?

Will you be living the same way as you are now? Will you have a nicer home—more room for your family... for entertaining?

Sure you will—if you save away something every time money comes in. For most folks that's payday.

Whatever way your money comes in, there's an automatic way to save. The Payroll Savings Plan where you work or the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. Either way, you'll be saving in United States Defense Bonds. And remember—Defense Bonds are now even better. Invest in them regularly.

So this is HOUSEKEEPING

When a usually well-behaved husband suddenly goes amuck and clutches at his bank amuck and frenziedly of despair, it's a pretty good sign he's run into the news that a fashion fad is enveloping the ladies. Sometimes, I admit, the poor lads are justified in their behavior but it's come to the point where they automatically run a temperature when the mere word "fashion" is mentioned. Take the other night, for instance.

I had been happily busy with the latest craze to come on the scene and displayed the results of my efforts for my favorite husband to view.

In came Jeff with a "Hey! What goes on? It looks like the Rose Bowl parade!"

"A mere nothing," I replied coyly. "All nylon flowers... wear in my hair, corsages for my dresses, centerpiece for our table, gift-package decorations. It's the latest fashion!"

Jeff blinched and went into a raving about fads and the deplorable state of our budget.

"Hold on a minute," I demanded. "First of all, I made this 'Rose Bowl parade' as you call it and had a lot of fun doing it. Second, I just used discarded nylon hose, followed some simple instructions which I got free, and all it cost out was the price of some dye remover and a few packages of all-fabric dye. And if you want to make a big thing out of it... why... go ahead!"

A much-chagrined husband asked how it was done and I explained the simple process of first removing the color from old nylons, next tinting in any of 50 colors, and finally cutting the nylon and shaping it over wire into petal or leaf shapes. It ended with Jeff enthusiastically giving me ideas on using more of the nylon bouquets, "since," as he grinned, "they're fashionable!"

P.S. The Tintex Home Economics Bureau has the free instruction leaflet with complete directions for making nylon flowers. You can have it for the asking at all-fabric dye counters or by mail from the bureau at 455 Fifth Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

Specially Shrimp

Shrimp, that zesty crustacean, nationally enjoyed as America's favorite first course, also rates high as a main dish food, and excellent food value to any menu which it graces. Carried shrimp, seafood medley, shrimp souffle, and probably the most popular—French fried shrimp, all help to take the monotony out of Lenten meals. Fresh or canned shrimp may be used, and for extra good color—crumbs made from corn flakes. For 6 servings, allow 3 cups canned shrimp, two 12-ounce packages of frozen shrimp or 2 pounds of fresh shrimp.

French Fried Shrimp
 4 cups Corn Flakes
 4 cups cleaned jumbo shrimp
 2 eggs, slightly beaten
 Crush Corn Flakes into fine crumbs. Dip shrimp in egg then in Corn Flakes crumbs. Fry in deep fat (365° F.) until golden brown or brown in small amount of fat, drain on absorbent paper. Serve with chili sauce or tartar sauce.

"It is very important that every person working on jobs covered by the Social Security Act make a special effort to show his social security card to his employer so that he can report the worker's correct name and number just as it is shown on the card." John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo social security office, stated.

"By checking with your employer, you can be sure you are getting full benefit of your insurance which you are paying for in the form of social security taxes. The wages your employer reports for you are used to determine the amount of your monthly benefit when you retire at 65 or later, or the benefits paid to your survivors in the case of your death," Sanderson said.

Women workers should be particularly careful to see that they have a social security card bearing the same name as the one they are using at work, he cautioned. Too often, women workers whose names have been changed for any reason, such as marriage, divorce, etc., continue to work under their new name without changing the name on their card. In such cases, the worker should immediately contact the nearest social security office to change her name on her social security record.

To make doubly sure your social security account is correct, every worker should ask the Social Security Administration each year or so for a statement of wages credited to his account, the manager said.

Good Start for a Good Day

The average American family shown above is illustrating how to avoid jangled nerves, lowered efficiency, lack of energy and dull wits.

They are doing it simply enough by eating a good breakfast. For, according to nutrition experts, all those symptoms can result if you skip or skimp breakfast.

Speaking to his board of governors, Curtis H. Scott, of Louisville, Ky., chairman of the American Bakers Association, recently related numerous findings on what happens when you start omitting the first meal of the day, or cutting it down to a minimum.

Studies have shown that people who omit breakfast lose efficiency around mid-morning. They make more mistakes in their work, slow up generally. Children show less response in school than do those who eat a complete breakfast.

Scott figured that a loss of ten minutes per day per person as a result of poor breakfast habits can account for 43,000 lost man hours per year in a company employing 1,000 persons, as one ex-
