

PLAIN TALK

By BILL PERKINS

One of the most eye-catching displays we've ever seen is the water heater in Callahan's window right next door to the News office.

The heater isn't a 1957 model and isn't the prettiest sight you ever saw but it tells a story. The heater in the plumbing and gift shop that we are talking about is one that has seen many years of service and has a large amount of matter at the bottom that appears to be rock and sand but is actually carbonate of lime, we were informed.

We learned further from our neighbor, C. P. Callahan, how the stuff got there in the first place.

He told us that 12.6 grains of carbonate of lime is found in each gallon of water and when the heat reaches 136 degrees F. it solidifies.

The particular heater on display at Callahan's came from the Homer Wilson home.

C. P. says that the age of a heater has little to do with the amount of carbonate of lime and that some heaters may last 20 years in homes of small families where little water is used. The more water that is used, the faster the solid substance appears. In homes where a vast amount of hot water is used regularly the carbonate may become several inches deep in the bottom of the heater in about two years, Callahan said.

We think it is an unusual display and an interesting one.

The Old Timer says that one reason so many children are seen on the streets at night is that they're afraid to stay at home alone.

Hershel Smith is building a new house north of the park on Commerce street.

Dave Sherrill, the irrigation specialist with the Extension Service of Texas A&M College, told this story to McLean Lions Tuesday.

The city editor had emphasized the necessity of being brief to the cub reporter. The editor always condensed the reporter's story to the barest facts so the young legman soon got the idea. He gave this account of an accident:

Julius Smith stepped into an elevator shaft to see if the elevator was coming down. It was. Age 48.

John Anders Buys Texaco Station

John Anders has purchased the service station located on the north side of Highway 66 between Puckett's food store and Cooke Chevrolet company. The station, formerly known as Moore's Texaco Station, will operate in the future as Anders Texaco Station.

In an advertisement in today's paper Anders has extended an invitation for all his friends to visit him at his new location.

Sudermans to Leave Saturday for Camp

Dr. and Mrs. Joe Suderman and daughters will leave Saturday to spend a week at the Arkansas Baptist assembly grounds near Siloam Springs, Ark. Dr. Suderman will be the camp doctor.

The Suderman clinic will be closed next week.

JAN AND CHARLES BAILEY ARE VICTIMS OF POLIO

Jan Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey of McLean, was admitted to Highland General Hospital in Pampa Saturday, the third victim of polio in the Bailey family in three weeks.

Jan was expected to be released from the hospital Wednesday. Her case was of the non-paralytic type.

Charles Bailey, the Jack Baileys' son who lives in Pampa, was admitted to the hospital Friday night, also a victim of polio.

Mrs. Charles Bailey, the former Jeanne Pharis of McLean, was stricken with polio July 18. She has been released from the hospital and has recovered since her case also was of a non-paralytic nature.

NANCY TATE IS WINNER IN SENIOR 4-H DRESS REVUE

Winner of the Gray County senior 4-H dress revue is Nancy Tate of McLean. This announcement was made by Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration agent, at the county contest held in the Lovett Memorial Library Monday morning. Nancy wore a toast colored cotton lace party dress she made this summer. She used dark brown accessories and expects to wear it this fall and winter to social school functions during her last year of high school. She will represent Gray County in the district dress revue to be held in Amarillo next Tuesday morning, August 13. Last year Nancy was one of four girls from the Pancher district to take part in the state dress revue, held during the state fair in Dallas.

Other senior group winners were Carolyn Anderwald of White Deer, Sandra Baker of McLean, and Irene Baggerman of Grandview, all winning blue ribbons. The group under fourteen years of age won according to the various garments they made. Elaine Baker of McLean won a blue ribbon with her skirt; Mary Ann Skaggs and Garzia Lewis, blue ribbons, and Mary Alice Coombes, red ribbon with skirts and blouses. Those making skirts and blouses are all members of the Cleverette 4-H Club.

Those modeling dresses were Roselle Baggerman and Arlene Wills of Grandview, blue ribbons; and Martha Pattillo, member of the Cleverette club, red ribbon.

All garments, made and modeled by both the younger and the older girls, were made of cotton material. Some were fall colors, while the lighter ones were summer shades and tints.

Judges in the county contest were Miss Lou Ella Patterson, county home demonstration agent, Perryton; Mrs. Elaine Holman, home economist for the Empire Gas Company; Mrs. J. B. Massa and Mrs. A. M. Nash, homemakers.

FORMER McLEAN RESIDENT SUBJECT OF NEWSPAPER FEATURE ARTICLE

Mrs. Murry Warner, 31, is a housewife-author who lives in Las Animas, Colo. Most of her stories do not carry a by line because she writes confessions, and these articles are supposed to be the truth so publishers shield the authors from being identified.

Mrs. Warner moved to Las Animas in February when her husband who is a driller for Wagner and Wyatt Drilling Co. was transferred here. The couple has three children, Danelle, 10; Tommy, 8; and Jeffrey, 5. They are originally from McLean, Texas.

Raising children and managing household duties are no chore for Mrs. Warner; leaving a few dirty dishes in the sink never bothered her, and they never pile up too high. As for taking care of the children and writing at the same time, Mrs. Warner says, "The children seldom interrupt my train of thought, and the oldest child keeps an eye on things behavior wise."

Mrs. Warner says it usually takes her two days to write a 7,000 word confession. She may think about an idea for a while, perhaps days, but once she has it thought out the going from there on is easy. Most of the confessions she writes are taken from real experience, usually that of her friends.

Last year Mrs. Warner, whose friends call her Dixie, sold nine confessions to New York publications. She averaged between $150 to $300 for each manuscript, depending upon length, and finds selling the stories a handy way of buying "extras" she would ordinarily not buy.

Self-Made Woman
She has taken some correspondence work in writing and has always had a yen to write. Putting down some of her ideas on paper helps her keep on an even keel in everyday living. Mrs. Warner calls herself a self-made woman, because she did not complete her formal education. Anyone who reads her articles agrees that she exhibits a warmth and love for people. Mrs. Warner says a knowledge of people is an important part of writing.

Her most recent story was printed in "Personal Romances" for the month of June, and is called "My Father-in-law Hated Me." The story is about a friend of Mrs. Warner's and tells how the friend's husband tries to become independent of a domineering father.

Five Inch Rain Soaks McLean

Four and 39 hundredths inches of rainfall fell in McLean Sunday to boost the year's total moisture to 23.30. The rainfall, which fell from 10:45 a. m. to 7:00 p. m. Sunday, was believed by some to be the largest amount of rainfall ever to fall in McLean in so short a period for over 30 years.

City rain gauge records maintained by Pete Fulbright show that .64 of an inch fell Saturday night between 7:20 and 8:30 p. m.

On this same date a year ago total amount of moisture recorded was only 9.89 inches, Fulbright's records show.

The north approach to the McClellan Creek bridge located seven miles north of McLean was washed out and traffic is being detoured temporarily. No damage was done to the bridge and state highway officials indicated that the bridge would be open to traffic the end of the week.

LIONS HEAR SHERRILL TELL ADVANTAGES OF IRRIGATION

Some 60 farmers, ranchers and Lions were present Tuesday afternoon for Agriculture Day which was observed by the McLean Lions Club.

Lion Boyd Meador was in charge of the introduction of guests and had each Lion present his guest. Tail Twister Odell Mantooth was on hand to accept the one buck fines from those Lions who showed up without a farmer or rancher friend. Lion Hickman Brown had two guests but the tail twister didn't give him a dollar for the extra guest.

Lion W. C. Simpson was in charge of the program for the day and he turned the program over to County Agent Ralph Thomas who introduced Dave Sherrill, who brought a program on irrigation.

Sherrill is irrigation agent for the Extension Service of Texas A&M College and is stationed in Lubbock.

Sherrill said that water is the number one problem of all Texas and it is of particular importance to farmers and ranchers.

He said that those who make their livelihood from agriculture in these times are big business men who have large investments in land and in modern equipment. He pointed out that farmers and ranchers must stay up with the times in order to maintain a profitable operation.

Regarding irrigation, Sherrill said that Texas was second only to California in the number of acres under irrigation and that the gap is being closed rapidly. More than half the irrigation in Texas is on the high plains of Texas, he said.

There are 49 irrigation wells in Gray county.

In addition to facts pertaining to irrigation Sherrill gave some interesting pointers to dry-land farmers and showed ways of getting the most benefit from what water is available.

He pointed out that today's farmers and ranchers owe it to the generations to come to take care of their soil and leave it in better condition than they found it. He added that proper irrigation would do that.

The second portion of the program consisted of slides shown by Lion Thomas and narrated by Sherrill.

Following the program Lion Foss Amos Page dismissed the group.

FINAL RITES HELD TUESDAY FOR MRS. CRAIG

Funeral services for Mrs. Della Burnett Craig, 92, were held at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday at the McLean Methodist Church with the Rev. Paul Cooper, pastor of the Alarced Pentecostal Holiness Church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Steve Greenwood.

Mrs. Craig, who was born October 21, 1864, in Weatherford, died at 3:30 a. m. Monday in Wellington.

She moved to McLean from Elmer, Okla., in 1910, and was a member of the Pentecostal Holiness church and of the Rebekah lodge.

Interment was in Hillcrest Cemetery under the direction of Richerson-Lamb Funeral Home.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Omega Reid of Altus, Okla.; Mrs. Beatrice Cavenar of Stalon, and Mrs. R. O. Cunningham of McLean; 17 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and 15 great-great-grandchildren.

McClellan Creek Bridge Traffic Detoured Again

State highway construction crews Tuesday began rebuilding the approach to McClellan Creek bridge between McLean and Le-fors which was washed out by rain Sunday.

The north side approach for approximately 25 feet was washed out but the bridge itself was not damaged by the weekend rains.

The bridge was damaged by spring rains earlier this year and repairs were only recently completed making it serviceable again.

Only two persons had signed the Declaration of Independence when it was proclaimed July 4, 1776.

MRS. WILLIAM NEIL QUATTLEBAUM

Miss Floella Cubine Is Married to William Neil Quattlebaum Saturday

Joseph A. Hill Memorial Chapel in Canyon was the scene Saturday morning for the marriage of Miss Floella Cubine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erey L. Cubine of McLean, to William Neil Quattlebaum, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Quattlebaum of Hereford.

The Rev. Jim Pickens, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Vega, read the double-ring ceremony. The couple knelt at an altar draped with white satin and decorated with large gold vases of white majestic daisies. Candelabra and large floor baskets of yellow gladiol and white majestic daisies flanked the arrangement.

Mrs. Glen Dowlen of Canyon, organist, played a prelude of nuptial selections, and Mrs. L. N. Bridges of Amarillo, aunt of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" by Grieg, "Because" by D'Hardelot and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

As maid of honor, Miss Cynthia Hull of Amarillo wore a dress of white silk organza over yellow taffeta enhanced by a cowl neckline of yellow chiffon which ended in long draped streamers in the back. She carried a cascade arrangement of white majestic daisies.

Charles Quattlebaum, brother of the groom, was best man. Serving as ushers were Carroll Hall of Amarillo and Bill Hunter of Dalhart.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length dress fashioned with a scoop neckline and pin-tucked bodice. Cap sleeves were of French chantilly lace, and the bouffant skirt was trimmed with silk violets. Her veil of French illusion fell from a half shell headpiece covered with white silk violets. She carried a white cattleya orchid surrounded by stephanotis and tied with white satin streamers atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Cubine, mother of the bride, wore a tucked sheath dress of ice-blue silk crepe with matching accessories, and Mrs. Quattlebaum, mother of the bridegroom, wore a rose-beige lace over taffeta with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white gardenias surrounded with white feathered carnations.

Following the wedding ceremony, the bridal party was honored with a reception in Cousins Hall parlor on the campus. The reception table was laid with white lace and centered with an arrangement of white majestic daisies tied with white bridal lace and wedding bells. The wedding cake was served by Miss Martha Sue Bridges of Anton, assisted by Mrs. Don Light of Stinnett, Miss Wylajean Quattlebaum, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Lee Presswood of Abilene registered guests. Others in the house party were Mrs. Tommy Hulsey of Amarillo, Miss Mitzi Wilson of Dimmitt, Mrs. Bryan Close of Shamrock, and Miss Monta Jean Kennedy of McLean.

For her wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., the bride traveled in an amethyst linen suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. On their return, the couple will be at home at 142 Wayside Drive, Amarillo.

Mrs. Quattlebaum is a graduate of McLean High School and West Texas State College, Canyon. At WTSC, she was a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and was affiliated with Pi Omega Sorority, Tau Beta Sigma Sorority, Gamma Theta Upsilon, the Student Senate, and the Wesley Foundation. She is a teacher in the Amarillo public schools.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Canyon High School, Clayton, N. M., and has served four years with the United States Navy. He is now a senior student at West Texas State College, where he is majoring in mathematics. While in college, he has been a member of the Student Senate and the Wesley Foundation. In September he will be employed at Blackburn Brothers.

Baptist WMS Has Business, Mission Study Meeting

The monthly business and mission study meeting of the Baptist WMS was held in the church parlor Tuesday night. The president was in charge of the business session. Various reports were made and a partial report was heard from the nominating committee. Mrs. Doyle Brown, a visitor, led in prayer.

The Royal Service program was on "Giving the Water of Life in Europe." Mrs. Howard Williams gave the devotional and led in prayer. Mrs. Gene Herron gave a review of the lesson, covering topics of "In the Land of the Blue Danube," "On the Mediterranean's Western States," "Along the Tiber," "Beside the Zurich Sea," "A Reservoir of Good Will." The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Joe Taylor.

Those present were Mesdames Jesse Leonard, Ray McDonald, Oba Kunkel, Homer Abbott, Gene Herron, Joe Taylor, Joe Suderman, Frank Simpson, Oscar Tibbets, W. N. Pharis, Howard Williams, George Colebank, Lona Jones, Morris Brown, Leslie Giesler, Frank Howard, Luther Petty, and Doyle Brown of Lubbock.

Refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee were served by the Oleta Snel circle.

All circles will meet next Tuesday afternoon.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

From SEN. LYNDON B. JOHNSON

"Juries... have been the firmest bulwarks of English liberty."—Thomas Jefferson.

Dear Friend: The words above were written in 1789 by a great man—Thomas Jefferson. He was looking back on centuries of British history to find advice to guide the United States. Out of that history, he came to the conclusion that "the opinion of 12 honest jurymen gives still a better hope of right" than any other method of determining the truth in a criminal case.

It is time to think about Thomas Jefferson. Clever lawyers have finally devised an adroit method to by-pass the jury system. They are attempting to write this method into the law under the name of "civil rights" bill would:

Enable a federal district attorney to go into federal court when he believes someone is to be deprived of a voting right.

Enable the federal judge to issue an injunction against the acts which the Attorney General suspects may happen.

Enable the federal judge to decide without a jury when the injunction has been violated.

Enable the federal judge under criminal contempt proceedings without a jury to assess fixed jail sentences and fines.

In other words, the federal judge—in each individual case—makes the law, decides when it has been violated, tries the defendants and fixes the penalties. All of this takes place without a jury.

An amendment has been drawn by three senators—O'Mahoney of Wyoming, Kefauver of Tennessee, and Church of Idaho. All three are "liberals." All three believe in voting rights. But they also believe that a man should not be branded a criminal without the opportunity to state his case before a jury.

That is the sole issue involved in the jury trial amendment. Nobody objects to the courts having full power to enforce legitimate decrees and orders. Nobody objects to adequate safeguards for the right to vote.

But many of us object to devious schemes to convict men and women under criminal contempt without trial by jury. That is why we support the O'Mahoney-Kefauver-Church amendment.

I hope you agree with me. I hope you will let me know whether you believe this is the proper course.

Gov. Price Daniel Declares Aug. 11-17 Ag Teachers Week

Austin, Aug. 8.—Governor Price Daniel has honored agriculture teachers throughout Texas by declaring the week of August 11-17 as Vocational Agriculture Teachers Week in Texas.

The governor, in the resolution, praises the agriculture teachers for encouraging the youth of Texas to devote their lives to agriculture and its improvement.

Governor Daniel also praised the great strides that have been made in agriculture in Texas in the past quarter century due to the great contribution made by the vocational agriculture teachers.

The statewide association of the agriculture teachers, the Vocational Agriculture Teachers As-

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 37 proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 51a of the Constitution of the State of Texas, shall be invested in bonds of the United States, or in bonds issued by any agency of the United States Government, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States, or in such other securities as are now or hereafter may be permitted by law as investments for the Permanent Education Fund or for the Permanent School Fund of the State, under the same limitations and restrictions imposed by the Constitution for investment of such funds and subject to such regulations as the Legislature may provide. However, a sufficient amount of said fund shall be kept on hand to meet the immediate payment of the amount likely to become due each year out of said fund, such amount of funds to be kept on hand to be determined by the agency which may be provided by law to administer said fund.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such legislation shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character."

AGAINST THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 51a of the Constitution of the State of Texas, shall be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized by Section 51a of Article III of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of the State as provided for in Article XVI, Section 52, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized by Section 51a of Article III of this Constitution, except as permitted by Section 51a of Article XVI of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of the State as provided for in Article XVI, Section 52, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized by Section 51a of Article III of this Constitution, except as permitted by Section 51a of Article XVI of this Constitution.

"The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Federal Government of the United States such financial aid for the maintenance of the State's public schools, and such aid shall be subject to the conditions and terms of the Constitution and laws of the United States."

DOVES TO START 1957 SEASON FOR TEXAS HUNTERS

Open season and bag limits in Texas for the 1957 hunting season have been pretty well established, according to the executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission. At a meeting in Austin last Friday, the commission set down the season for migratory birds. These will need final approval of the Fish and Wildlife Service, which will be forthcoming soon.

The deer season generally begins November 16 and extends through December 31. This is for white-tailed deer, especially in the hill country. Turkey season, for the most part, is open at the same time, with one gobbler permitted.

Antlerless deer permits will be available from landowners in certain areas where too many deer are present.

Drawing for permits on the management area hunts will be held in October. The mule deer season west of the Pecos has been set for November 20-27, inclusive.

There will be open dates on antelope in the Trans-Pecos country October 1-3 and October 5-7. This hunting will be by permit. The Panhandle antelope season will be October 11-16 and October 17-19. The hunt will be permitted in defined areas in Hartley and Oldham counties. Antelope hunters will be selected through a public drawing in Austin.

The Panhandle deer and turkey seasons will be November 16-25, inclusive. Quail season will be December 1 to January 16, generally through out the state.

The commission also recommended a white-wing dove season in the Valley to be held on alternate days, September 13, 15, and 17, 12 noon to sunset, with a bag limit of 10 birds in the aggregate, white-wings and mourning doves.

The regular dove season recommended will be for 47 days in the north zone, to begin September 1, and 48 days in the south zone, beginning October 1. The commission also recommended opening of the duck season this year on the first Friday in November.

"A new digest of the hunting and fishing laws of Texas now is on the presses and will be ready for delivery where licenses are sold, or they can be ordered by postcard from the Austin office," the executive secretary said.

Dinosaurs ranged from house cat size to monsters 90 feet long weighing 40 tons.

Seek State's Top 4-H Alumni For 1957-58 Honors

WOULD you like to nominate for special honors a former 4-H Club member who has become an outstanding citizen? This is now possible through the national 4-H Alumni Recognition program being conducted by the State Extension Service, and sponsored by Olin Matheson Chemical Corporation, Plant Food Division, Little Rock, Ark.

To be eligible, candidates should have performed some outstanding service, made a notable contribution to the community, state or nation, or displayed exceptional leadership. The person need not now reside in your state.

There are more than 21 million former 4-Hers throughout the country, and undoubtedly the beneficial influence of 4-H training and ideals has affected the lives of every one. Among them are men and women whom you know as friends and neighbors—such as farmers, housewives, the family doctor, teachers, local business men and legislators.

By sending in the name of a qualified 4-H alumnus, you may pave the way for well deserved recognition. Two winners from each county will be named for special recognition certificates. Four outstanding persons will be honored in this state, and will receive a burnished copper and walnut plaque.

Eight men and women will be honored during an impressive banquet at the national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December. Besides the expense paid trip, each one will be presented with a gold 4-H alumni key, the national award. The 1958 candidates also will be selected at this time.

So don't delay—fill out the form below, clip and mail today.

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 37 proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 51a of the Constitution of the State of Texas, shall be invested in bonds of the United States, or in bonds issued by any agency of the United States Government, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States, or in such other securities as are now or hereafter may be permitted by law as investments for the Permanent Education Fund or for the Permanent School Fund of the State, under the same limitations and restrictions imposed by the Constitution for investment of such funds and subject to such regulations as the Legislature may provide. However, a sufficient amount of said fund shall be kept on hand to meet the immediate payment of the amount likely to become due each year out of said fund, such amount of funds to be kept on hand to be determined by the agency which may be provided by law to administer said fund.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such legislation shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character."

AGAINST THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 51a of the Constitution of the State of Texas, shall be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized by Section 51a of Article III of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of the State as provided for in Article XVI, Section 52, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized by Section 51a of Article III of this Constitution, except as permitted by Section 51a of Article XVI of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of the State as provided for in Article XVI, Section 52, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized by Section 51a of Article III of this Constitution, except as permitted by Section 51a of Article XVI of this Constitution.

"The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Federal Government of the United States such financial aid for the maintenance of the State's public schools, and such aid shall be subject to the conditions and terms of the Constitution and laws of the United States."

"I take my SUPER MARKET home with me!"

SAYS
Mrs. Tom Scarborough,
5104 42ND STREET,
LUBBOCK, TEXAS

"My home freezer is wonderful! It cuts down the number of times I have to go to the store and to a woman who works, that really means time saved," says Mrs. Scarborough.

"My home freezer is my 'super market'. It's so easy to fix snacks for the family and I can always keep an adequate supply of desserts on hand. Too, we like fruit juice with every meal and the economy of a home freezer makes that and many more treats possible. Economy is one of the many reasons I use, and recommend, an electric home freezer," Mrs. Scarborough says.

FARMERS IN BUSINESS SUITS

"Farmer in a Business Suit" is the striking title of a new book by John Davis and Kenneth Hinshaw, published by Simon and Schuster. It deals with what the authors call "agri-business"—a term that succinctly indicates the vast change that has taken place in farming in, comparatively speaking, a handful of years.

In their introduction, the authors say this: "The farmer in a business suit has taken the place of the old homesteader. His horsepower is bred in factories and his stock is fed by the white-froked scientists in the laboratories that produce those fabulous substances known as antibiotics and hormones. His family farm is a costly, efficient, revved-up complex of fields, barns and equipment. . . . His productivity is a hundred, a thousand times his family's own needs."

This is what technology has done. A farmer of the old homestead days wouldn't believe his eyes if he was to see a typical modern farm of the present. Tractors and other mechanized equipment, the new seeds and fertilizers, scientific methods of soil improvement and conservation—these have almost completely revolutionized farming from grandfather to grandson.

Such a revolution inevitably brings problems as well as opportunities. There is less and less room for the inefficient marginal farmer, or the farmer who refuses to adapt himself to modern conditions. But there is plenty of room for the family farm that is run as a business by people who know their business. These are the farmers in business suits.

HOW TIMES HAVE CHANGED!

ULTIMATE BENEFICIARY

In a free country—which means an economy governed by natural law, instead of bureaucratic and dictatorial regulations—problems have a habit of solving themselves. An editorial in the Portland Oregonian provides an interesting little illustration of this truism.

Some time ago there was a great furor over so-called "bootlegging" of new automobiles. Car production was outrunning sales, and used car lots and other non-franchised outfits were offering new models at prices well under those of the regular franchised dealers. Demands were made that Congress enter the act with legislation to correct the situation.

Congress did not oblige. Yet today "bootlegging" of new cars has practically disappeared. And the reason that happened is simplicity. The franchised dealers met the competition by reducing their prices and bringing the customers back to their showrooms. Once the opportunity for a quick and easy profit vanished, the "bootleggers" went out of business.

The Oregonian points up the moral: "Thus the law of supply and demand, through its inexorable workings, created the 'bootlegger' and later abolished him. The consuming public was the ultimate beneficiary, as it generally is when human lawmakers are wise enough to resist the temptation to try to amend this natural law."

GRASSROOTS OPINION

Kansas City, Kans., Press: "It is common sense that there must be a limit to the upward price spiral, else a loaf of bread will demand a wheelbarrow of currency as it did in Germany after World War I."

40 Years Ago— IT HAPPENED HERE

Thompson-Nicholson

Last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Rev. R. F. Hamilton performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Dora Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson, and Charles Nicholson of Balco, Okla.

They left at once for Balco, where they will make their future home.

Miss Montgomery Entertains

Complimenting her guest, Miss Tresa Snyder of Denver, Miss Vida Montgomery entertained a number of friends Friday evening of last week with a conversation party. Dainty programs in patriotic colors were given the guests who filled them out according to instructions. Other games were enjoyed until a late hour after which dainty refreshments were served.

Ten couples were present. Out of town guests were Miss Marguerite Stulting of Houston and Roy Sullivan of Norman, Okla. Mrs. Montgomery assisted Miss Vida with the entertainment.

Study Club Donates

Mrs. D. B. Veatch notified the members of the McLean Study Club (which has been disbanded) that they had a balance of something over $12 to their credit and suggested it be donated to the Red Cross chapter. This was readily agreed to and the transfer was made.

Miss Harris in Chicago

The many friends of Miss Anna Lee Harris will be interested to know that she is taking special art work in Chicago this summer preparatory to entering her year's work in Texas Christian University in Fort Worth in September. She has been engaged as first assistant in the art department of that university.

Miss Harris spent last winter in McLean and her ability in this line was recognized by many capable critics.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Foster were in Amarillo last week where the latter underwent a very serious operation at St. Anthony's Sanitarium Wednesday morning. So far her condition is as well as expected. Mrs. Pearl Caldwell is also at her bedside.

Friends here will be interested to know that Carl Harbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harbin, former residents of McLeana, has joined the U. S. Signal Corps. Another son, Ralph, is a member of the California National Guard.

The American National Bank has fitted up the president's room and directors' room with a handsome grade of floor covering which adds much to the comfort and attractiveness of the interior of the building.

Frank McCombs and Mrs. Luther McCombs made a trip to Spur this week.

Geo. P. Wilson and Taylor Wilson are enjoying a visit with relatives in Arkansas. They will spend several days at Hot Springs on their return.

Mrs. H. N. Smith is enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Maybell Boucher. The young lady has been attending the summer normal at Las Vegas, N. M.

T. A. Cooke and sons have just finished laying the hardwood floors in the Morse home.

Howard Hudgins and wife returned the latter part of the week from an extended auto trip to Northern New Mexico and Southern Colorado.

Mrs. R. N. Ashby and sons are visiting relatives at Boswell, Okla. Mrs. Charlie Carpenter is entertaining this week at her pretty ranch home. Mrs. Ross Cooke of Fort Worth and Miss Sarah Helm of Jericho.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Sitter and Evan left Monday for an overland trip to Colorado.

C. L. Upham of White Deer was shaking hands with friends here yesterday.

DES Makes Donation

At the suggestion of Mrs. Scott Johnston, the ladies of the Eastern Star voted to discontinue serving refreshments at their regular meetings and each lady to give that amount in money to be donated to the Red Cross chapter. Eighteen ladies were present and as a result $9 was given to the cause.

This popular order has never been more prosperous and several new applications for membership have been received.

Eight Die in June Area Traffic Toll

Eight persons were killed and 87 injured in rural accidents investigated by Texas highway patrolmen in 26 Panhandle counties comprising district 5 during the month of June, Capt. J. W. Blackwell of Amarillo reported this week.

The report does not cover accidents in cities of over 2,500 population or those investigated by other agencies.

This compares with three killed and 80 injured in June, 1956.

Deaths during the first six months of 1957 were 43, compared with 36 for the same period a year ago. About the same number were injured each year, 356 in 1957 and 363 in 1956.

Total property damage during 1957 thus far was $457,613 and during the same six months of 1956 it was $411,848.

The 37 highway patrolmen employed in the 26-county district investigated 140 traffic accidents during June past, making 852 traffic arrests, of which 451 were for speeding and 29 were for driving while intoxicated.

Total number of warnings for hazardous violations was 3,024. The patrolmen drove a total of 95,991 miles during the month.

Swenson Thrillcade To Be Featured At Texas State Fair

The Aut Swenson Thrillcade, the jumbo of all the nation's daredevil hippodrome shows, will be a featured daily attraction in front of the grandstand at the 1957 State Fair of Texas in Dallas, Oct. 5 through 20.

The program of fast-paced auto-motorcycle suicide stunts will be interspersed with acts by top entertainers of television and the circus.

Oldtime ragtime favorites will be thumped out by Johnny Maddox, foremost opponent of the "honky tonk piano" who gained renown with his recording of the "Crazy Otto Medley." Jugglers, slack wire artists, aerial ladder experts, a performing elephant and a "cavalade of clowns" will go through their paces in between the super-charged antics of the demon stunt men.

The Thrillcade will present such spine-chilling maneuvers as the "ride of death," in which a motorless juggernaut plunges down a sky-track and loops the loop three times before landing on its wheels.

Disdaining peril to life and limb, the Thrillcade daredevils will also put their high-powered cars through barrier crashes, aerial wingovers, dive-bombs, crashes and deliberate rollovers.

motorcycle maniacs will play leapfrog at high speed, and one daring cyclist will make a ramp-to-ramp jump of his motor over three convertibles.

Motor polo tournament competition, precision auto driving and steepchase racing on elevated ramps are also included on the program.

And something new under the thrill show sun will be the feminine contingent of Thrillcadettes, who prove their ain't no "weaker sex" when it comes to stunt driving.

The Aut Swenson Thrillcade will be equipped with brand new equipment, including stock model Ford cars and trucks, Daimler-Puch motorcycles made in Austria and British-made two-wheelers. The Thrillcade will have 26 performances at the fair.

 In May of this year, the National Writers Club accepted Mrs. Warner as a professional member. She also belongs to Panhandle Penwomen, a club in Texas which has quarterly meetings for women writers.

Mrs. Warner started selling stories just five years ago, but has been writing since she was seven years old. At first she hired an agent to peddle her material, but found she could sell some stories which her agent had failed to sell. One thing Mrs. Warner does is to keep 8 or 10 manuscripts in the mail all the time, so her material will always be on an editor's desk somewhere.

Mrs. Warner's advice to amateur writers is for them to have lots of patience and perseverance. —Las Animas Leader.

DONOR NAMED FOR TEXAS 4-H RANGE DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM

Texas 4-H club members, by participating in the 4-H Range Management Result Demonstration program, can greatly increase their knowledge of the what and how of good range management. The new program has been developed by Extension Range Specialists G. O. Hoffman and A. H. Walker and county, district and state awards are being provided by the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.

Officially, the program will get underway on September 1 and will run for a 12-month period. The participating 4-H member has a choice of seven different demonstrations. They are plant collecting; keeping a rainfall temperature and moisture condition record; planting, caring for and keeping records on a grass nursery; preparing a range survey for one or more pastures or the entire ranch; conducting a demonstration on one acre plots involving brush control practices versus no control; making a comparison between pastures where deferred and continuous grazing practices are followed and enrolling in the well-established range management contest which involves the planning and operation of the entire ranch.

 Completion of any one of these outlined demonstrations will make the 4-H member's record eligible for consideration for one of the awards. Medals for county winners, an engraved belt buckle for district winners and two scholarships to the annual Range Camp for the top boys in the state are provided by the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.
 The purpose of the program is to give 4-H youth an understanding and appreciation for range management; encourage closer working relationship in range management conservation between youth and adults and stimulate the use of proper range management practices by youth in the operation of their home ranch.
 Complete details are available at the offices of local county agents. Interested youth are urged by Hoffman and Walker to contact their county agent or 4-H adult leader at once so they can be enrolled by September 1.

From the State Capitol HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS

By Vern Sanford Texas Press Association AFL-CIO Merger

Labor unions in Texas are now welded into one 300,000-member organization.

The mammoth merger was accomplished at a joint AFL-CIO convention in this capital city.

Sharp internal disagreements heartened those who fear the potential political power of such a massive group.

A resolution, recommended by labor's civil rights committee, condemned the 55th Legislature for passing "immoral and undemocratic" laws concerning school segregation. Gulf coast delegates balked. Finally, the convention compromised by adopting the national AFL-CIO civil rights plank, worded in a more general language.

Delegates also criticized Texas' daily newspapers; the Texas Tech board of directors; the Republican party; and highway contractors.

Endorsed were a state income tax on corporations; an increase in individual income tax exemptions; federal aid for school construction; higher pay for teachers; and honesty among union officials.

AFLman Jerry Holleman was elected president. CIOer Fred Schmidt was chosen as secretary-treasurer.

Lobby Curb Proposed
 With legislative opposition to the special session weakening under Gov. Price Daniel's determined stand, attention now turns toward what lawmakers might enact.

Sen. Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio has drafted a strict lobby control measure. It is patterned after the federal law. It would require registration of all persons seeking to influence legislation, for pay. Also it calls for a detailed accounting of money used to influence legislation . . . where it comes from, how it is spent.

It would bring a heavy sword over the head of any lawmaker or lobbyist found guilty of a bribe arrangement. Penalty up to a $25,000 fine and 10 years imprisonment. Corporations involved would lose the right to do business in Texas.

Sales Surge Seen
 Experts foresee a "slow but strong upturn" of production and marketing in Texas for the last quarter of the year.

It might even break last year's record, despite the restrictions on credit. So states the UT Bureau of Business Research.

June retail sales dropped 5% from May. But totals for January-June were 2% above 1956.

Home modernization has done "surprisingly well." But completion of new homes in 1957 is expected to fall some 10 to 20% below last year.

Employment to Climb
 More jobs, better pay, is the outlook for Texas workers.

Texas Employment Commission forecasts a small rise in job-holders during August, followed by the usual steep jump from increased activities in September.

Early summer brought the customary glut of workers at schools poured out thousands of graduates and vacation job seekers. In addition, factory jobs dropped somewhat as automobile assembly plants and aircraft companies cut back.

However, the same period brought good news to factory workers as average weekly wages jumped some $2. In the higher brackets were workers in coal and petroleum products, up $4.76 to $113.16 per week, and those in chemicals, up $2.49 to $103.34 per week. Less fortunate were those in apparel and fabric products, up 37 cents to $43.92.

No Magic Expected
 Rebuilding public confidence in Texas insurance cannot be done "by any magic touch or wave of a wand, nor overnight nor within a few months."

It will take "painstaking planning, organized effort and consistent performance," said Joe P. Gibbs, member of the newly organized Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Board members are reconciled to operating in a "show window," said Gibbs, recalling the recurrent troubles that resulted in a wholesale legislative overhaul of the department.

"We recognize that the public has a right to look in on us to see what we are doing to remove the cloud of doubt," Gibbs stated.

Construction Up
 Construction authorized in Texas for the first half of 1957 is 5% higher than for 1956, according to the UT Bureau of Business Research.

Foremost among the cities making gains were Midland, Houston, Amarillo, Lubbock, Fort Worth, El Paso and Odessa.

Dallas, San Antonio and Austin showed declines.

Farm Outlook
 Where rain has not fallen recently, outlook for grass and feed crops is poor, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Timely showers helped pasturage and late crops in some areas. But were too late for corn and feed.

Dry Loss
 Anti-prohibitionists still are riding high in local option elections. So reports the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Orange and Culberson counties favored continued sale of alcoholic beverages by one-sided margins.

Voluntary Cuts
 Texans seem to have adopted a dubious "wait and see" attitude toward Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower's request for a voluntary 10% cut in oil imports.

For months Texas officials and industry leaders have sought White House help to restrict the flow of foreign oil into the country. They blamed "excessive imports" for the dwindling demand for Texas oil.

State oil allowances slipped month by month to an all-time low. State revenue estimates, heavily dependent on oil taxes, were dragged down correspondingly.

After study by a cabinet committee, the President's advisory asked importing companies east of the Rockies to reduce crude oil imports to 10% below the 1954-56 average. Implied was the suggestion that mandatory quotas would be imposed if the voluntary program doesn't work out.

Gov. Price Daniel called it "a step in the right direction." But, he said, the step "does not go as far as is necessary to meet the emergency." He suggested there should be no waiting period before applying positive government controls and that 10% was not a "realistic reduction."

SHORT COURSE PLANNED FOR BEEF PRODUCERS

Texas beef producers are reminded that the annual beef cattle short course will be held at Texas A & M College August 12-14. Major emphasis during the meeting will be placed on reproductive performance, fertility of beef bulls and estimating carcass characteristics of live cattle. Other items of great value to the state's beef cattle industry will also be discussed.

Interested cattlemen are invited.

DONOR NAMED FOR TEXAS 4-H RANGE DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM

Texas 4-H club members, by participating in the 4-H Range Management Result Demonstration program, can greatly increase their knowledge of the what and how of good range management. The new program has been developed by Extension Range Specialists G. O. Hoffman and A. H. Walker and county, district and state awards are being provided by the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.

Officially, the program will get underway on September 1 and will run for a 12-month period. The participating 4-H member has a choice of seven different demonstrations. They are plant collecting; keeping a rainfall temperature and moisture condition record; planting, caring for and keeping records on a grass nursery; preparing a range survey for one or more pastures or the entire ranch; conducting a demonstration on one acre plots involving brush control practices versus no control; making a comparison between pastures where deferred and continuous grazing practices are followed and enrolling in the well-established range management contest which involves the planning and operation of the entire ranch.

Completion of any one of these outlined demonstrations will make the 4-H member's record eligible for consideration for one of the awards. Medals for county winners, an engraved belt buckle for district winners and two scholarships to the annual Range Camp for the top boys in the state are provided by the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.
