By BILL PERKINS

The McLean News has a birthday this week. Just like race horses, most newspapers become a year older January 1 each year. With this issue The News enters its 53rd year of publication. R. B. Edgel established The McLean News in 1904 and as near as we can tell ownership of the paper has changed about seven times. During the past 52 years The News has survived through good times and bad, and none of the former editors starved to death and we don't believe any of them got rich, either. Despite the headaches and work involved in getting The News out each week, we like it and wouldn't change jobs with anybody. We just hope to be around 53 years from now to see what the paper looks like then.

Television note: Those late hour movies follow the furniture trend. They are either Old English or Early American.

What'll they think of next dept.: A California super-market has installed a machine that tells the customer where to go. If the shopper is looking for baked beans, for instance, she just goes up to the machine that operates something like a juke box and punches a button labeled baked beans. A recorded voice rings out "baked beans are located in section 9 on the third shelf next to the golden corn."

Business Meet Held Tuesday by Lions In 1956 Opener

The McLean Lions Club met for its first 1956 meeting Tuesday night at the McLean Methodist Church.

Guest of the club was Lion Ralph Thomas of Pampa, and Lion Cub of the Month Tracy Cooper was introduced.

No program was presented and the Lion secretary gave a financial report of the club for the past six months.

Lion Jewel Meacham announced that a membership drive would be held in January and a minimum goal of seven new members was set.

Lion Sweetheart Donna Magee expressed her appreciation to the club for the Christmas gift presented her at the last meeting.

Lion President Hickman Brown read a letter from O. B. Schiffman of the Pampa Machine Company to Ruel Smith, asking Mr. Smith to place a check for $100 where it would do the most good. Mr. Smith deposited the check to the Lions Club youth recreation program. The club members were deeply grateful for this generous donation from the Pampa firm.

At the next regular meeting, January 17, District Governor W. T. (Dub) Nelson will visit the club. The purpose of his visit will be to advise and assist President Hickman Brown, Secretary J. C. Claborn and the officers, directors and members of the club on matters pertaining to Lions administration and the Lions' great program of humanitarian service.

Son of Former Resident Loses Arm

Clyde Cable, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brown Cable of Amarillo, lost his right arm Monday morning when a blast from a 12 gauge shotgun tore his arm almost off. The child was playing in the living room with his sisters when the gun, which was lying on the sofa, was discharged. Mrs. Cable was in another room feeding a 3-months old son, and Mr. Cable was doing the morning milking a quarter of a mile from the house when the mishap occurred. He ran to the house when he heard the dogs barking and his wife screaming. They took the child to a hospital where the arm was amputated about three inches below the shoulder.

The gun had been left on the sofa Sunday afternoon when Mr. Cable took it from the car before the family went riding. He had been quail hunting Saturday, and said he had forgotten the gun when the accident occurred.

Clyde was able to talk to his parents Monday afternoon, and is reported to be doing nicely.

Mr. Cable is a former resident of McLean.

Annual School Census Underway in McLean

The annual school census to gather information concerning children from 6-17 years old and also pre-school youngsters got underway in McLean Tuesday.

Freeman Melton Jr., superintendent of the McLean Independent School District, said that Mrs. Sherman Crockett, the local census enumerator, would conduct a house-to-house canvass throughout the month of January. State law requires the enumeration of all young people who are residents of the McLean Independent School District and in the scholastic age range of six through 16, as of September 1, 1956.

All persons born after September 1, 1938, and on or before September 1, 1950, are to be included in the count.

The census is to determine the number of eligible children in the McLean Independent School District and will be a basis of distribution of state funds appropriated on a per capita basis.

For the school year 1955-56 the state fund is apportioned on the basis of $73 per pupil appearing on the census rolls.

The school census also serves as information for planning purposes to determine the number of school children who will be enrolled in the McLean school system for the 1956-57 school year.

Parents may speed up the census by preparing in advance the following information about each child in the family with the eldest child listed first: name, exact date of birth and age as of September 1, 1956, present grade, and any physical and mental handicaps which might prevent a child from doing normal school work.

Mrs. Crockett will also need the full name of the father or step-father, full name of mother or step-mother or guardian, and the length of residence in the McLean school district.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS

By Vern Sanford Texas Press Association

Scandals, investigations, trials and political upheaval kept Texas news lively in 1955.

Most of the big '55 stories are expected to have even bigger sequels in '56. In them may be answers to now-tense questions, solutions and attempted solutions to a raft of state problems.

Some 1955 sries and topics for their 1956 chapters include:

1. Veterans land tracts were revealed, and former Land Commissioner Bascom Gill's was convicted. More trials are pending and scandals are a likely summer campaign issue.

2. U. S. Supreme Court decree and follow-up action of Texas Supreme Court wiped out Texas' school segregation laws. Desegregation moves also began in public parks and transportation facilities. But many Texans in areas with large Negro populations formed citizens councils that will still be fighting in '56.

3. In an earliest-ever start, two candidates, Reuben Senterfitt and Senator Jimmy Phillips, entered the governor's race. Some half dozen others jockeyed for position.

4. Wright Morrow was replaced by Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey as national Democratic committeeman. How successful Ramsey is in uniting the feuding factions of the Texas Democratic party will bear directly on these big '56 questions: What candidate will the Texas delegation support at the national Democratic convention? What party will carry Texas in the presidential election?

5. Seven-million-dollar collapse of U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co. left thousands of depositors and policy holders with potentially heavy losses. For '56 it meant more investigations, a hot new campaign issue and possibly new laws.

6. A statewide meeting in Houston some time this month is planned by depositors in the U. S. Trust and Guaranty Company.

At separate meetings last week in Waco, Dallas and Houston several hundred of the 5,600 holders of "certified drafts" kicked off their campaign to recoup losses. They have hired legal counsel and enlisted the aid of state officials and legislators.

Depositors' chances for substantial recovery are based on hopes that: (1) they will be made "preferred creditors" and (2) assets of subsidiary companies will partially offset liabilities of the parent firm.

7. Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd has taken steps to fight Texas "right to work" law.

Shepperd petitioned the U. S. Supreme Court last week for permission to present oral argument in a case involving a similar Nebraska law.

Pending the federal judges' decision, the Texas Supreme Court has delayed action on a suit by railway workers to prevent a closed shop agreement between Santa Fe Railway and the unions.

A Texas law passed in 1947 provides that no person shall be denied employment as a result of membership or non-membership in a union.

To invalidate this law, said Shepperd, would destroy individual constitutional rights.

Short Snorts

Something new has been added in your capital city. Six "Parkaidettes" now are patrolling the parking meters, replacing six policemen, for more strenuous duties. . . . Another short wheat crop in Texas is predicted for 1956, by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. USDA estimates next year's production at 19,602,000 bushels. That is only about one-third of average, but 46 per cent better than 1955.

Homer Garrison Jr., head of the Department of Public Safety has ordered highway patrolmen to throw away warning ticket books and make arrests in every moving traffic violation. Reason for the order: 2,500 deaths on Texas highways in 1955. . . . The state is facing a suit by holders of some of the $1,000,000 in bonds issued by Texas as a Confederate state in 1862. State Auditor C. H. Cavness says that inasmuch as the bonds apparently were used to aid the rebellion, the state would be barred from paying any such debt or obligation. . . . Texas has been allocated 71,307 additional shots of Salk polio vaccine.

A reception was held in the church parlor after the ceremony. The serving table was laid with a white hand-made cloth over red. The centerpiece was an arrangement of red candles and antheriums, flown from Hawaii.

The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with red roses and topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Miss Beth Hall of Alanreed served the wedding cake, Miss Rita Jean Dye of Claude served the punch, and Miss June Stubfield of McLean registered the guests.

LIONS JOIN MARCH OF DIMES—Texas Lions Clubs will take the lead in the 1956 March of Dimes (Jan. 3-31) through participation in Blue Crutch Day. Club members in communities across the state will utilize small plastic lapel pins in the form of crutches to enlist financial support for the fight against polio. Lion District Governor W. T. Nelson, Childress, talks over Blue Crutch Day with a young Fort Worth polio patient, Elizabeth Anne Conlee, 4.

Texas Lions Continue Fight Against Polio, 'Blue Crutch' Day

Many Texas Lions Clubs kicked off the 1956 March of Dimes with a voluntary "Blue Crutch Day" on January 3. Ray Gayle of Angleton, chairman of Lions Texas Council of District Governors, has announced.

Texas Lions conducted the tag day in many communities across the state, giving the small, lapel-size plastic blue crutches in exchange for contributions to the campaign fund in the fight against infantile paralysis, Gayle said.

"The Salk vaccine has shown that it can prevent paralytic polio. However, only a small portion of the population has been vaccinated, and the program of caring for polio patients is by no means ended," the state Lions leader pointed out.

"Polio isn't licked yet, and Texas Lions are proud to be a part of the 1956 campaign to continue the fight against this crippling disease."

The Lions' Council of Governors has endorsed voluntary participation of Texas clubs in the Blue Crutch tag day and in other activities for the polio appeal, Gayle said. Many clubs will work in other campaign activities in the January polio drive.

Major General K. L. Berry of Austin, state March of Dimes chairman, said:

"We are indeed grateful for the support of the Lions of Texas in the 1956 March of Dimes. Lions have been in the forefront of the polio program for years, and their continued work in the fight against polio will help to insure ultimate victory over the disease."

Mr. and Mrs. R. Earl Stubblefield of McLean are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Laura June, to Bryan H. Close, son of Mrs. George Close of Shamrock and the late George Close.

Nuptial plans were revealed recently at a tea given in the home of the bride-elect. Covered with a white Maderia cloth over orchid taffeta, the refreshment table was centered with three altar steps from which extended orchid streamers with the names "Bryan and Laura June" written in gold.

A white satin slipper belonging to the honoree was placed on the first step, flanked by the wedding date, February 11, in gold. On the second step was a gold Swedish candleabra flanked by miniature pictures of the couple. An arch of white and orchid feathers formed a background on the top step.

Presiding at the punch service was Mrs. Don Light of Ralls, sister of the honoree, Mrs. Dabney Williams of Vega served individual cakes. Guests were registered by Miss Floella Cabine of W. T. S. C., Canyon.

Greeting was Mrs. C. T. Cline of Amarillo, grandmother of the honoree. Receiving were Mrs. Stubblefield, Mrs. Close, Mrs. Eugene Collingsworth, sister of the prospective bridegroom, and the honoree.

"SOLUTION FINDERS—NOT FAULT FINDERS"

Grace Tully, Sen. Lyndon Johnson's aide, in Georgetown recently told Southwestern University students and professors that the country needs "solution finders—not fault finders."

As this 1956 general election year gets underway it will be interesting to note the speeches and policies of the various candidates as they take their opponents' records and platforms apart in an effort to attain those all-important votes. If past elections are indicative of the one coming up, some bitter, stormy campaigns are in the making.

Miss Tully, former secretary to FDR, has had the advantage of observing the United States political scene from quite a different angle than the majority of us. Some of those long-winded speeches that we are due to be hearing soon would be much shorter, or eliminated entirely, if they were confined to solutions to our ills, rather than finding new ones.

Our government, despite what faults it may have, is still the best that man has been able to perfect. For the past 300 years it has provided the best solutions for all of us most of the time and apparently has pleased the majority of us all the time.

At this season the economists present their summaries of what has happened in the past and what is anticipated for the future. There are problems and maladjustments, notably in certain branches of agriculture. But the over-all picture is one of extraordinary material progress and achievement—probably the greatest in recorded history.

The Secretary of the Treasury, George Humphrey, has described "what millions of Americans have been actually making of our economy." Our total production of goods and services is not far from $400,000,000,000 a year—which works out to seven times the 1900 level after allowance is made for price rises. It is of the utmost significance that the greatest share of this goes not to the wealthy, but to the people in the lower and middle income groups. Where, early in the century, only one family in 10 earned as much as $4,000 a year in terms of today's prices, now half our families earn more than $4,000.

The fruits of this are found in statistics which are astonishing by any standard. At the turn of the century there were 14,000,000 life insurance policies in force in this country—now there are 250,000,000. In 1900 individuals had liquid savings of all types amounting to less than $10,000,000,000—now the total exceeds $235,000,000,000. More than 15,000,000 Americans have over $30,000,000,000 invested in pension and retirement trust funds which didn't even exist in 1900. Close to 10 per cent of all our families today own stock in American corporations, while 55 per cent live in homes of their own.

What all this means, in Mr. Humphrey's phrase, is that the "basic interests of the man in overalls are today the same as the basic interests of the man in the business suit." He uses inflation as an example of that mutuality of interest. Between 1939 and 1953 inflation "stole" $478 out of each $1,000 of savings—almost half. It did that by cheapening the dollar—by cutting its purchasing power.

That brings up an ever-existing danger. It is commonplace to read political programs which propose tax reduction on the one hand and, on the other, all manner of increased federal expenditures for social security, for schools and roads, for public housing, for public power development, and so on and so on. How could such programs be put into effect? In only one way—by running the government farther into debt through a series of huge deficits. Then renewed inflation would follow as day follows night, and the people would be "robbed" of their savings again. No other results could be expected from a policy of taxing less while spending more. And, along with the material losses, the individual would lose opportunity and freedom—a price always exacted by governments which are reckless with the assets of the people, and insatiable in their drive for more and more power over the lives of all.

It is far easier to build a system which gives the masses of people freedom along with material well-being than it is to maintain it. Dr. George S. Benson has pointed out that "When you look back down through the pages of history, you will find the wrecks of 19 civilizations. You will find that nowhere in the world at any one spot have people for many generations maintained a good government or a good economy." Demagogery, special privilege, successful pressure groups, a gradual wasting away of the principles of individual freedom, responsibility and obligation—these were among the seeds whose crop was disaster.

No nation has any natural right to freedom. Freedom must be worked for and earned—and everlastingly protected. Material gain is a by-product, so to speak, which comes to those who place the greatest value on the free society in which he lives and works.

C. L. Upham for Sheriff

We are authorized to place among the announcements this week the name of C. L. Upham as an aspirant for the office of sheriff and tax collector of Gray County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July. Mr. Upham is now serving his third term as county clerk and has filled the office with honor to himself and satisfaction to his client. He has acquired an intimate knowledge of the details of the office to which he aspires and has striven in every way to fit himself to discharge the duties it will encumber on him in an efficient and satisfactory manner.

He earnestly solicits the support and influence of his friends and the voting public in general. Francis-Stockton

Mr. Roger Francis and Miss Edith Mae Stockton were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, December 29, 1915, at 3:30 p. m. Rev. Fred Stockton, brother of the bride, officiating. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white silk with lace trimmings. The groom wore a suit of conventional black.

Mr. Francis is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Francis. He is a worthy, upright young man popular in both church and social circles. Mrs. Francis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stockton, a quiet, modest young woman and is beloved by her many friends for her splendid Christian character. There is a courtship of several years' standing, having become acquainted six years ago when the groom moved here from Missouri. Many beautiful presents were received. After the ceremony the bridal couple received congratulations and the wedding party passed into the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was served. Mrs. Luther Petty, Miss Grace Francis and Miss Ethel Stockton assisted the bride's mother in serving the repast.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis will make their home near Ochiltree in Ochiltree County, where the groom has a nice place.

S. A. Cousins enjoyed a visit from his son, Oscar Cousins, and family of Amarillo during the holidays.

It looks high priced

...but it's the '56 Chevrolet!

THE NEW BEL AIR SPORT COUPE—one of 19 high-priced-looking Chevrolet models.

Who wouldn't mistake this handsome new Chevrolet for a high-priced car!

It looks strictly "upper bracket" with its bold new Motoramic styling . . . its longer, lower hood . . . its proud new grille that spans the full front end.

Even the details would do credit to an expensive car . . . like the sleek, high-fashion taillights (the left one hides the gas cap!).

But, even beyond the costly appearance of its Fisher Body, Chevy gives the high-priced cars a run for their money. For it's one of the few great road cars built today!

It brings you the added security of nailed-down stability on turns and lightning acceleration for safer passing. Horsepower now ranges all the way up to 205! All engines now have hydraulic-hushed valve lifters.

Of course, Chevrolet has safety door latches in all models. In addition, you can have seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost.

There's a new Chevrolet just made for you. So come in and highway-test it.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to Mrs. Olen Davis, Mrs. Wallace Rainwater, Mrs. Roy McCracken, and Mrs. Walter Bailey.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. McCracken Tuesday, January 17. The club welcomes new members.

Visitors in the B. E. Glass home during the holidays were W. T. Henry of Roswell, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Alexander of Amarillo, Mrs. H. R. Glass and children of Borger, and M/Sgt. and Mrs. P. D. Powers and children of Gairfield, Calif.

"No family should have less than three children, so there will be two to support the genius!"

Alice Cole dismissed the meeting with prayer. A quilt was put in and partly quilted.

Plentiful Foods List

Pork, beef and grapefruit top the list of plentiful foods for January.

Mae Belle Smith, extension specialist in consumer education, says shoppers will find a wide variety of kinds and cuts of pork and beef to suit the taste and family budget. Fresh and cured pork will continue to be a good buy and all kinds of beef will be plentiful, especially the higher grades.

Grapefruit is important in the daily diet for it is rich in vitamin C, a vitamin that everyone needs each day. Shoppers are also reminded by Miss Smith that tangerines are a good buy as are winter pears, oranges, potatoes, pinto beans and peanuts.

Eggs are on the plentiful list for the first time in several months and are an excellent source of several needed food elements.

If more calcium is needed in the diet, milk and other dairy products should be considered.

Rounding out the January list are canned tuna and the vegetable fats and oils. Food prices, says the specialist, will stay high in 1956. This means that homemakers will have to buy wisely and plan carefully to keep within the family food budget.

As dew never falls on a stormy night, so the dews of His grace never come to the restless soul. —A. B. Stimpson.

There is no such way to attain greater measure of grace as for a man to live up the little grace he has.—James Gordon Brooks.

A "hope-chest" in England is known as a "bottom drawer."

And now abideth faith, hope, charity; but the greatest of these is charity. —(1 Corinthians 13:13.)

It well may be that charity is the greatest because it alone of the three is outside of ourselves—outgoing, outgiving, of ourselves to others, flowing out from us to our fellowmen, in love and understanding, in sympathy and tolerance, in kindness and helpfulness, unselfishly.
