City Races Climax At Polls Tuesday, April 7

SCHOOL BOARD Mayor, Council Contests ELECTION SET FOR SATURDAY

Eight candidates will be up for consideration in the McLean school board election Saturday, April 4.

There are three seats open on the board.

Those who have filed for the school board posts include Charles H. R. L. Brown, Jesse Coleman Jr., Felton K. Webb, Dr. Joe Suderman and Spencer B. Sitter.

The three seats have been held by Hess, Windom and Bill Cash, who is not running for re-election.

The three highest candidates in Saturday's election will win even if they do not have a majority vote as this is a plurality election. No runoff will be held.

Interest in this election as well as the April 7 city races has run high, and a good vote is expected.

Stir Considerable Notice

With city elections less than a week off, interest is high in McLean over the contests for mayor and city councilmen. A sizeable vote is forecast in the April 7 election.

Two candidates are running for mayor and three for the two councilmen vacancies.

John Haynes and incumbent Ed Lander are contesting for the mayorship in a race that promises to be extremely close.

Another tight race for the two councilmen positions will be between Boyd Meador, C. P. Callahan and Ruel Smith. Boyd and C. P. are presently on the council.

Judging by political ads in this issue of the News it seems that the candidates have divided into two groups—the incumbents and the challengers.

Taking one ad this week to express their views were John Haynes and Ruel Smith—the challengers—and taking the second ad to express their views were the incumbents, Mayor Ed Lander and Councilmen Meador and Callahan.

Meador, Callahan and Lander stand on the platform of their past record.

"We feel we have had a big part in securing for you your factory," the 3 candidates state.

"We worked hard to secure your clinic and library and are working now on a different type of manufacturing plant."

Haynes and Smith claim a special interest in seeing, and working for the growth of McLean since they not only have considerable money invested here, but expect to spend the rest of their lives in McLean.

They say, "McLean has the best possibility for growth of any small town in the Panhandle at very little cost to the taxpayer if properly administered."

A complete view of each set of candidates can be had by checking their separate ads in this issue.

All candidates urge the eligible voters to come out to the polls April 7 for the election.

Hopes For New Road Are Brighter

Prospects for a north-south farm-to-market highway connecting McLean with Hedley seem a little brighter, reports Hyatt Sitter after his recent conference with the Texas Highway Commission in Austin.

Sitter attended the meet with two men from Hedley.

"You can go home and tell your friends it's in the hopper," Sitter recommended that work be started on each end—at McLean and at Hedley—and that two or three miles be built each year.

The proposed 28-mile connector, US Highway 66 and US 287 would be an extension of Highway 287 which runs south from Pampa to McLean, and would be the only north-south road in the 30-mile stretch from the Shamrock-Chilcross road to one connecting Chandler to US 66. It appears, Sitter said, that one of the big obstacles to the proposed road may be eliminated.

For the past thirty years or so a bridge needed to span the Salt Fork of the Red River some 28 miles due south of McLean has held the project up.

Lions Beauty Contest To Be Held Tonight

Some 33 McLean beauties will parade before out-of-town judges tonight at the Lions Club Beauty contest.

The beauty contest is part of community night beginning at 7:30 p. m. in the Municipal Building.

Also slated for tonight is a women's basketball game between Marie Foundations and Shamrock women.

Home made pie and coffee will be sold also.

Between all the pie-eating, basketball, beauties and visiting, Lion Freeman Melton Jr. said there should be a good time in store for everybody in the community.

Winner of the beauty contest will represent the McLean Lions Club in the District 2-T 1 convention at Pahrump on April 27-29. Her expenses along with the expenses of a sponsor will be paid by the local club.

Those girls entered, along with their sponsors are: Ruth Pakan by McLean Hardware, Nancy Meacham by Callahan's Plumbing and Gift Shop, Dorothy Pakan by S. A. Cousins Agency, Wanda Stapp by Edwards Automatic Laundry, Linda Grimsley by the American National Bank, Dixie Burroughs by Derby Drive-In Theatre, Martha Cardwell by McLean News, Phyllis Hancock by Brown's Rexall Drug, Nona Ruth Beck by McLean Cafe, Sandra Burnett by Rby Campbell Lumber Co., Linda McCurley by Chevron Gas Station.

Othella Eustace by Master Cleaners, Pamela Mann by Butrum's Ladies and Children's Shop, Nancy Hess by Cicero Smith Lumber Co., Carol Gray by Southwestern Public Service Co., Sue Adams by Richerson-Lamb Funeral Home, Genta Seitz by the

NEW CAFE SITE—Bill Graham of Shamrock, formerly a McLean boy, plans to build a new cafe on the site above. He started clearing the land, located just east of the West Wind Motel (in background) this week. Bill says he hopes to have the building completed and opened by summer.

Tax Filing Deadline Near

Forget something? That is the question Internal Revenue Service is asking of a quarter of a million North Texans. These 250,000 taxpayers are due a refund on their 1958 taxes but have not filed their tax return.

The Internal Revenue Service is anxious to start processing these refund returns.

Incidentally, there are 350,000 other North Texans who have not filed their tax return. These taxpayers owe money, Internal Revenue says, and now is a much better time to file than on April 16 when a penalty is due.

The tax folks sum up their advice to the 600,000 who haven't filed their 1958 tax return with the following: "FILE NOW."

Methodists Set Date for VRS

Teachers and helpers for the Methodist Vacation Bible School held a meeting Tuesday. The date for this year's school was set for May 24 through 31.

Registration will be on Saturday, May 23, from 3 until 5 p. m.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY OF CITY WILL BE MARKED AT RODEO

The golden anniversary marking the fiftieth year of McLean as an incorporated city will be celebrated at the 66 Roundup, Rodeo and Horse Show Association's annual rodeo, scheduled for June 4-6.

Along with the rodeo, plans are being made to hold an old settlers reunion and an old fiddlers contest. These attractions are being added to the many events held during past performances.

New Restaurant To Be Constructed In McLean

Tentative plans, announced here this week, call for a new and modern cafe to be opened in McLean soon.

Bill Graham, former McLean resident now of Shamrock, told the News he intends to erect a $20,000 combination cafe and seriviera on Highway 66 just east of the West Wind Motel.

Work has been started this week to clear a plot of land on the proposed site.

Graham said plans are not yet complete but he hoped to open the cafe "by summer."

It will be constructed of the same type of rock as the West Wind Motel, he said.

Graham was in Amarillo Wednesday morning working on the architect's plans for the cafe.

The Shamrock man owns and presently operates the Mobil Inn at Shamrock.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Graham of McLean and a brother of Mrs. Gene Henley and Joe Graham here.

More details will be released in the News in the next few weeks.

Baptists to Give Radio Programs

Radio broadcasts will begin April 6 pertaining to the revivals being conducted throughout the North Fork Baptist Association.

Everyone is encouraged to tune in Station KEVA, Shamrock, each morning at 11:15 beginning April 6 and continuing through April 1.

Furniture Factory Branch May Locate In McLean

POCO SHEBA WINS AT SHOW

Poco Sheba, a 1958 filly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Neville Back, won first place at the Oklahoma Quarterhorse Exhibition Association's Spring Show recently.

Poco Sheba won first place in her class of 20 entries. The horse was also showed in the junior 4-H and FFA boys and girls class where she won first place ribbons and trophies. There were about 40 horses of all ages entered.

Mr. and Mrs. Back were accompanied on the trip to Stillwater, Okla., where the show was held, by their grandson, Douglas Richards.

The pony had previously won a place at the Amarillo Quarterhorse Show.

The possibility of adding another large industry to McLean loomed this week with the announcement that a furniture manufacturer from California is planning a new plant in this area.

City Manager Dan Mize said the owners of Allied Upholstery Manufacturing Company had been contacted, and would consider McLean as a possible location for the new branch.

Mize said the owners, Vincent and Carl Knowski, had planned a branch of their industry in Texas and would make a definite move toward this within the next two or three months.

One of the owners will be in Texas in two weeks and will meet with McLean officials at that time, possibly arriving at some decision concerning the branch site.

When erected, the factory will manufacture furniture from the raw lumber stage to the finished product. A beginning force of employees would be approximately 25 persons; using 90% male

The owners of Allied were contacted by phone this week, and then a letter from the city of McLean was sent. Some indication as to the decision should be given in a matter of a few weeks.

Area Observations

In spring some columnists' fancy turns to poetry. PAT BENNETT of the CROSBYTON REVIEW contributes this piece:

"How do I know that my youth is all spent?
Well my get-up-and-go has got up and went.
But in spite of it all, I am able to grin.
When I think of all the places my get-up has been.
Old age is golden, I've heard it said.
But sometimes I wonder as I get into bed—
With my ears in a drawer, my teeth in a cup.
My eyes on the table until I wake up.
Ere sleep dims my eyes I say to myself,
Is there anything else I should leave on the shelf?"

MAX WADE of the GROOM NEWS perpetually comes up with a good crop of quickies. Speaking of money he says he saw a sign down in Florida which read: "Help Keep Florida Green—Bring Money."

Still on the money subject he says, "It's a funny thing about money. Men get their faces on it but women get their hands on it."

"The distance between failure and success is seldom as great as believed by a patron of either," says DOUGLAS MEADOR of the MATADOR TRIBUNE.

BEN EZZELL of the CANADIAN RECORD tells of a small-town druggist who was forced to close his store by bankruptcy. On the locked door he posted a sign for the guidance of old customers: "The following services, formerly available here, may be had as follows: Water at the park fountain. General information from the cop at the corner."

Change of a dollar at the bank. Matches and scratch pads at the hotel. Rest rooms at home. Magazines for browsing at the doctor's office. Bus information at the terminal. And loafing at any other location of your choosing.

"A good teacher," says HAROLD HUDSON of the OCHILTREE COUNTY HERALD, "is someone who can understand those not good at explaining and explain to those not very good at understanding."

Another tidbit he offers is: "The opening many a person needs most is one in his closed mind."

JAMES L. RUSSELL of the BELTON JOURNAL: "By the time a man can afford to lose a golf ball, he's too old to hit it that far."

Talking about the waste in bureaucracy Editor ED EAKIN of the QUANAH TRIBUNE-CHIEF says it's about time we Texans woke up to Texas bureaucracy rather than making casual remarks about the "waste in Washington."

"We might put that in a Texas brag book along with the feat that an embargo has been placed on Texas cattle by an increasing number of states, while the Lone Star State has no law preventing us from getting the cullets from the rest of these United States."

Editor Eakin also kicked the props from another illusion of ours. Hawaii, it turns out, got the jump on us Texans at our own game—cowpunchin'.

"Podner," Eakin lobs, "cowpunchers were riding the Hawaiian ranges several years before Texans began driving their steers to market along the old Chisholm Trail."

There's no doubt about it. Between these Alaskan and Hawaiian upstarts we're having a helluva time finding something to brag about.

Evelyn Steelman, Arthur Vineyard marry in Bovina

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Steelman of Bovina was the site for an informal wedding Monday afternoon when the bride, Evelyn Joyce, became the bride of Arthur Edward of McLean. He is a son of Mrs. P. M. Gibson of McLean.

Rev. Jack Jeter, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride and groom exchanged vows under an archway dividing the living and dining rooms of the Steelman home. The bride's chosen colors were white, pastel greens and pink carried out with decorations of sea roses, arrangements of wandering Jew and widow's tongue fern.

Soft background music was played on the piano by Mrs. Doris Wilson. She accompanied Miss Janice Leake who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a two-piece dacron hopsacking suit. The jacket featured full length sleeves and a deeply notched collar. The lapels crossed to form a deep "V" neckline and came to a climax in a casual tie at the waist. A harmonizing flowered silk print blouse, wheat colored shoes, pink gloves, corsage and jewelry completed the bride's costume.

Miss Alby Kuehler of Pampa was maid of honor. She wore a red linen suit with shoes and purse of the same color. Her gloves, hat and accessories were Bennie Woods of Alanreed was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Steelman chose a one-piece dress of screened print. Her accessories were beige and her corsage of pastel flowers complemented her dress. Mrs. Gibson wore a tailored dress of pongee silk print. A duster of tangerine colored linen, lined with the screened print, completed her outfit. She also wore a floral corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the dining room. The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth over pastel pink. A basket of pink carnations and white stock, highlighted with soft green fern, centered the table. Tall white tapers flanked the floral arrangement.

Refreshments of wedding cake, lime punch and assorted nuts were served by Miss Vivaleigh Steelman, sister of the bride, and Miss Pat Vineyard, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Kuehler assisted.

The traditional three-tiered cake was white, decorated with pink rosebuds, miniature green leaves and white wedding bells. Crystal serving pieces were used.

The bride is a 1955 graduate of Bovina High School. She was graduated from West Texas State College in Canyon last spring, with a major in English and a minor in Spanish. She is now teaching junior and senior English and Spanish in McLean High School.

The bridegroom was graduated from McLean High School in 1955 and is now employed by Lone Star Gas Company in Shamrock.

Following a wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple is now at home in McLean.

Out of town guests included the bridegroom's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Patton of Kirksville, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, Diane, Darrel, Mary Belle Gibson, and Pat and Adella Vineyard, all of McLean. Only relatives and close friends of the couple attended.

Learn How to Get Most From an Appliance

BY EDNA MILES

Few women know how to get the most from their appliances. That is the expert opinion of Mrs. Sylvia White, a homemaker who is also director of consumer relations for a large concern manufacturing appliances.

Take the automatic dishwasher, for instance. "It won't turn in a good performance if the water is too hard, if you use too much or too little detergent or if your water heater temperature is set too low.

"You'll get poor results, just as you would if you left the freezer door open," Mrs. King says.

For hard water, she prescribes water softener or, at times, larger doses of detergent.

But don't, she cautions, increase the detergent dose for every problem.

Detergent can cause over-sudsing and can streak the dishes.

In picking a detergent, be sure to read the label on the box.

There are a number of good ones in the market meant for use with dishwashers.

It's important to get one of those.

And make sure that your water temperature stands between 140 and 150 degrees.

A special, prewash cycle makes it possible to clean even sticky breakfast dishes in this new dishwasher. Dishes are thoroughly rinsed before actual wash cycle.

Ada Lou Brown And Oran Durham Wed at Kellerville

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown of Kellerville are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Ada Lou, to Oran John Durham, son of Mrs. Georgia Durham of McLean.

The marriage was performed Friday, March 27, at 5 o'clock in the First Baptist Church in Kellerville by Rev. J. R. Lawson, pastor.

The bride wore a pastel blue suit with white accessories. The bride's mother, Mrs. Brown, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Durham, were present for the ceremony.

The couple is at home in Jal, N. M., where Mr. Durham is employed by El Paso Natural Gas Company.

Baptist Juniors Given Egg Hunt

The junior department of the Sunday school of the First Baptist Church enjoyed an Easter egg hunt Tuesday, March 24, at the home of Mrs. F. E. Stewart, department superintendent. Assisting Mrs. Stewart were Mrs. Andy Goodwin, Mrs. James R. Thacker, Mrs. Jack Lisman, Mrs. Tey Corbin, F. E. Stewart and J. Boyd Smith.

Children attending were Linda Smith, Barbara Simpson, Judy

Candler, Regina Leonard, Judy Kingston, Glenda Turner, Janice Barker, Barbara McCurley, Sue Beck, Lee Bruton, Val Sharp, Jimmie Stevens, Troy Don Corbin, Clifford McDonald, James Adams, Clinton and Craig Corbin, Harlon Pool, Kelly Voyles, Mabel Lee, Patricia Simpson, Judy Smith, Linda Lisman, Marilyn Williams, Dora Fay Cunningham, Paula and Rhonda Stewart, Ginger Ivie, Martina Giesler, Brent and Steven Thacker, Carroll Ray Leonard, Gary Turner, Vickie

Sue Kunkel, Carolyn Keen, Sharon Kay Jones, Betty McDonald, and Jerry and Dennis Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Burdine, Mrs. Essie Glenn and Ed Peirce attended the funeral of Spurgeon Johnson in Amarillo Friday.

Little Wayne Edwards of Farmington, N. M., is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Peirce were in Shamrock Saturday.

STIFF TREATMENT

Celluloid collars and cuffs were worn as a preventive against all sorts of diseases. Of course, we know better nowadays. In recent years, medical research has exploded a whole series of such fallacies. We are now living in the healthiest era the world has ever known. Every day medical science makes advances toward preventing disease . . . alleviating suffering . . . prolonging human life. When you are ill, take advantage of these new effective treatments by seeing your physician. Then, should he recommend medication, we'll be glad to fill his prescription promptly and carefully.

IF THERE WERE NO ADVERTISING

Some people still think that advertising represents needless economic waste. Anyone who feels this way would do well to ponder an editorial observation made by the Portland, Oreg., Journal during the recently observed Advertising Recognition Week: "Without advertisements, the cost of a single copy of a newspaper would be so high nobody could afford to buy it. And without advertising, the public would be denied the tremendous variety of entertainment, news and cultural programs offered on radio and television. It is true that the public pays for the advertising through the price of the article sold, but the mass production which advertising makes possible reduces the unit price far below what it would be without this stimulus, and advertising cost per unit is often inconsequential. For instance, advertising expenditure on a loaf of bread is less than the cost of the wrapper."

The Journal concludes that without advertising: "...the nation's economy would stutter and stop." The ads create demand—and it's from the demand for goods and services that we get our living.

ENEMIES OF THE PEOPLE!

Writing in The Freeman, E. F. Hutton has something to say about the cost of a necessity used by virtually everyone, in their homes and on their jobs—electricity.

Thirty years ago a kilowatt-hour in the home cost about 7c as compared to an average of around 3c now. In that period, the consumer price index as a whole has followed an absolutely contrary trend, rising 90%.

Mr. Hutton compares the cost of electric energy used in the average home as compared with the same amount of energy supplied by human muscle. The home consumes some 2,000 kilowatt-hours a year, for which it pays around $90. It would take 40 hard-working able-bodied house servants to provide the home with that much energy. They'd cost at least $80,000, not counting board and room or vacations.

So Mr. Hutton says: "This is what the privately-owned electric power industry, together with the manufacturers of electric appliances—from washing machines to curling irons, have done for you."

"Yet the public power socialists call them 'enemies of the people.'"

The fact is, of course, that of all the goods and services of consequence used in the home, the cost of power is one of the smallest items in the family budget. And, with a very small number of exceptions, the same thing is true of business and industry. In the average business, power costs run around 1% of the total overhead.

Why, then, has the production and distribution of electricity been the primary target of the socialists and the socialist-minded? There's one good answer. If a government monopoly could be established in this vital field, it could dictate to us all, and totally dominate our economic affairs.

THE POWER OF PRIDE

In Russia, communist leaders with confidence born of utmost faith in their system, force personal sacrifice and restraint on the people and channel their maximum energy toward achieving national goals in the race of armaments and ideas.

In this country, many leaders in business and industry, in politics and in the armed services are deeply concerned at our failure to appreciate the sort of individual dedication and citizenship responsibility which must guide this country if it is to checkmate the immense, single-minded Soviet assault on a free civilization throughout the world.

A recent Life magazine editorial has put it this way: "The U. S. grew into a great and free society precisely because the nation could always count on a widespread instinct among its citizens for translating private moral conscience into public virtue, a virtue made operational by the citizens' action in the nation's life." At the moment this instinct is dangerously weak. The resultant gulf between private conscience and public virtue cannot be bridged by easeful living, spectatoritis or a let-George-do-it indifference. The wider this gulf becomes, the narrower grows our margin of national survival.

An Accomplishment

SCRIP'S IN HIS SCRIPT—State Sen. Haskell Nichols (R), left, of Jackson, Mich., has introduced a bill in the legislature at Lansing which would permit communities to issue scrip—certificates of indebtedness, issued as currency. Purpose: to tide communities over Michigan's current money problems, should they become desperate. State Sen. Stanley Rozscki (D), right, contributed the example of substitute "money," shown in this picture. It's a certificate issued by the City of Hashtarak, Mich., during hard times more than a quarter century ago.

Complacency in our strength and preoccupation with our material advantages, coupled with ignorance of the means by which we gained these things and can keep them, has made too many Americans swallow the promises of political opportunists and become hesitant or indecisive before the hard-driving assault of world communism.

This country won a revolution against overwhelming odds and became a nation because a good percentage of its citizens felt an almost religious devotion to personal liberty and principles of government and private property ownership that make it work. The system which evolved needs no apologies—it should be known by its deeds in every category of human judgment—spiritual, cultural and material.

As never before Americans need a thorough knowledge of how a free economy and private enterprise work and of the proper role of government. Pride in these things and devotion to the principles of freedom are not old-fashioned. We are in a time when we must meet the dedication of communism with real convictions in the worth of our own institutions or go down in defeat regardless of the comparative strength of missiles, bombs and armies.

BACK IN THE FOLD—Lin Yutang, an avowed pagan for some 30 years, has re-embraced Christianity. Reason given by the 64-year-old world-renowned scholar—author: he believes that Christianity is the only civilizing influence that can save the world.

OUT OF THIS WORLD—Dr. James A. Van Allen, above, head of Iowa State University's physics department, was in charge of the recently revealed "Project Argus." Under that program, three atomic explosions were set off last fall, some 300 miles above the earth. Modified Polaris missiles carried the nuclear charges aloft for the information-seeking experiment.

Mr and Mrs. Woody Wilkerson and Donna spent the week end in Laibcock visiting in the George Graham home.

SNOOPING ON VENUS—History-making first contacts with any celestial body beyond the moon was made with the radar pictured, above. The two electronic contacts with Venus were made in February of 1958, and only recently revealed. Signals broadcast from Massachusetts Institute of Technology's Lincoln Laboratory at Westford, Mass., made the 56-million-mile round trip. Months were required to sift the sounds from a jumble of recorded space static, and to make certain that the signals were, in truth, received.

Mrs. Johnnie Cubine and children of Ft. Stockton visited during the week end with Mrs. Lavada Cash and Mrs. Ella Cubine.

BAPTISTS BELIEVE...
CHRIST IS THE ONLY WAY TO HEAVEN

Have you ever lived at the end of the road? From such a place there is only one way out. The man who has sinned is at the end of the road in his personal life. For him there is only one way out. Repentance is the only road to peace and forgiveness from sin; it is the only escape from eternal punishment for sin. Christ warned that "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish" (Luke 13:3).

How can we "repent and believe" as Christ demands? To repent, we must change our minds toward sin, toward ourselves, and toward God. We must turn from sin, and trust in Christ to bring forgiveness for our sins. When any sinner responds in repentance and faith to God's offer of salvation through Christ, God works a miracle in his heart. This miracle the Bible calls a "new birth" (John 1:12-13 and John 3:7). This transformation makes an individual a "new creation in Christ." The Apostle Paul wrote, "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold all things are become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Do you want to be saved from the ruin that sin brings? Then turn to Jesus, who said of himself, "The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10).

"God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life," (John 3:16). Man becomes a Christian when he puts sin out and puts Christ in at the very center of his life.

There is no other road to take. When we see how much God loves us we begin to see our sins and realize how much we need God's forgiveness. Our own experience confirms Paul's statement that "all have sinned" (Romans 3:23).

The prophet Isaiah who lived many years before Jesus, told us not only that all have sinned, but foretold the good news that God would provide his Son, Jesus, to bear for us the penalty of our sins. "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him (Jesus) the iniquity of us all," (Isaiah 53:6).

Jesus offers you this salvation from sin as his free gift and as an expression of divine love. You may accept it today.

Are you refusing God's cure for sin that destroys spiritual life? He offers you eternal life on the simple conditions of repentance from sin and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Begin now with the prayer which Jesus promised God will understand, "God be merciful to me a sinner" (Luke 18:13). Believe, "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:13).

PUZZLE PICTURE — U.S. Navy's icebreaker Staten Island had visitors while caught in an antarctic situation "for the birds." The photographer counted six penguins who came to see the ship, trapped temporarily by pressure ice in the Ross Sea. We count seven. There's an eighth bird in the picture, however. A whirlybird, its rotor and cab are unobtrusively visible behind ice ridge, background.

THESE CHURCHES INVITE YOUR ATTENDANCE

TAKE UP YOUR CROSS
By G. L. Cowart
Pastor Assembly of God Church

Then said Jesus unto His disciples, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. Matthew 16:24.

This present, modern age brings easy living. The past half century has brought about a revolution in our every-day living. The automobile, train, airplane and the ocean liner have made travel convenient and fast; our household appliances, our forty hour weeks, our pre-cooked foods have made us a leisurely, easy going people. There seems to be a quick and easy way to do anything we like.

Even in the realm of religion we have settled back and taken some things for granted. Here in this great and wonderful, free country of ours we can identify ourselves with the religious ranks and still keep our head upon our shoulders. We can have full fellowship with the church and never experience the new birth. We can partake of sacraments and ordinances and never dedicate our heart unto the Lord. Our life does not change, our language does not change, our habits do not change. We are in the modern, easy-going age, and becoming a Christian, so called, has become an easy thing also.

But let us go to the word of God. Let us not depend upon our own finite thinking or the logic of this world. Our Lord has the way of eternal life. He declares, "if any man"; not just the church of the first century, not just our fathers of early America, but "any man." Religion has not become an easy thing. If others had to fight for it and separate themselves from the world, we need to do the same. Then He gives us three things that we must do.

Deny ourselves . . .
Take up our cross . . .
And then, follow after Him.

Mister, according to HIS standards, are you a Christian?

FOR THE BIRDIES, STRICTLY—Only creatures other than golfers and spectators allowed on the grounds of the Augusta, Ga., country club during tournament play are "birdies," one-under-par scores for any particular hole. Joyce Ziska, of Waterford, Wis., explains all this to a nongolfer who is fond of birdies of another feather.

Mrs. Joe Van Zandt and Mrs. J. P. Dickinson were in Amarillo Friday.

Bible Comment: Joy Is the Keynote of The Psalms

"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go unto the house of the Lord."

So writes the Psalmist, and that note of joy in praise and worship is expressed in many Psalms, and is typical of them all. The Psalmist knew how to emphasize duty, fortitude in the face of danger and distress, and sadness in the realization of enemies.

They knew well the grim strength of faith under suffering and the certainty of death.

But, beneath all those, deep-down, religion to the Psalmist was a matter of joy.

This joy was in the certainty concerning God and the spiritual foundations of the world and of life.

To the Psalmist, there was no doubt that God was a refuge, a "very present help in trouble."

That faith existed even "though the earth were removed, and the mountains carried into the midst of the sea."

With the glory of Easter fresh in our minds, we may well reflect that the devout Christian has, in addition to the triumphant joy and strong faith of the Psalmist, the advantage of the example of the Master, Jesus Christ, and the faith in the Resurrection in His triumph over death and the cross. Those who do not know the Psalms have a trove of spiritual riches ready for the discovering.

Today's hit records are made by the teen-agers, and if you are out of your teens you probably do not "dig" the songs or the singers' styles. However, the stars you have always liked are still recording the type of music you understand and enjoy, for your listening pleasure.

Remember when you followed the "bouncing ball" at the movies? You'll re-live those days listening to the album, "Let's All Sing With Red Foley," an infectious rendition by Red and the Anita Kerr Singers of some of the best-loved of those old songs.

And, in "My Keepsake Album," Red recites, with musical accompaniment, many of the poems that have become such a popular part of his TV show (both Decca).

RCA has released two albums giving contrasting approaches to life's problems. "When Tragedy Struck" features Hank Snow's plaintive singing of old, tragic ballads, such as "The Letter Edged in Black," and "The Convict and the Rose."

In "Life Can Be Miserable," Homer and Jethro present parodies and funny songs of non-humorous situations.

For old-time country music, the album, "Country Pickin'" and "Hillside Singin'" by the Osborne Bros. and Red Allen is borne tops, and "The Unforgettable Hank Williams" offers some of the best of both the sad and happy songs of the late Hank Williams (both MGM).

"Wine of Gaul" is a charming collection of folk songs of many lands, and the deft handling of harmonies and nuances by Marais and Miranda makes thrilling listening (Decca).

Among folk music singles, Joe and Eddie put new zest in the song, "The Fox," and the Kingston Trio's "Oh, Cindy" is a real toe-tapper (both Capitol).

For lovers of Hawaiian music, Alfred Apaka's "Blue Hawaiian Moonlight" is a delightful album of haunting melodies (Decca).

FINE SINGLES: "Home" (Jim Reeves, RCA); "A Thousand Miles Ago" (Webb Pierce, Decca); "I'll Get Even With You" (Melvin Endsley, MGM); "That's the Way It's Gotta Be" (Faron Young, Capitol); "How Can I Think of Tomorrow" (James O'Gwynn, Mercury); "Yes, I Understand" (Patsy Cline, Decca); "Foreign Car" (Hank Locklin, RCA); "Am I That Easy to Forget?" (Carl Belew, Decca); "What a Lonesome Life It's Been" (Skeets McDonald, Capitol) and "I Wonder If You Know" (Johnny and Jack, RCA).
