EVERYBODY

ANYBODY
In Southern Gray County reads THE McLean News

Tom Anderson of "Farm & Ranch" tells the following story: A man didn't have food for his hungry little dog, so he took a knife and chopped the dog's tail off. Then he roasted the tail and fed it to the little dog. The dog enjoyed the roasted meat, ate it ravenously and then licked his master's hand for the kindness. That's a good example of liberalism in action.

When any one group thinks they need something and the government gives it to them, the group receiving the favor is very appreciative. But just wait a while, because it's a cinch we'll lose our tail paying for it.

An old philosopher once said that a system whereby the people elected their governmental officials could not last. The reason is simply because people are not able to elect qualified representatives.

The fact was brought home forcefully in the last election in an adjoining district. An incumbent by the name of Will Ehrle was re-elected to serve in the state legislature.

It is rather a shameful thing when people are concerned more with the trivial elements of an election than they are with the capabilities of the candidates. Ehrle was sent back to Austin with the vote of Childress, Donley and Hall counties.

It is a known fact that while Ehrle was in the race, he was under suspension from Texas University for a disciplinary measure concerning dubious help during law school tests.

He purchased a Cadillac during his first term in office, and changed the title when accosted about it. He used a technicality to deny a statement printed in a Donley County paper.

And still he was re-elected because of vague promises to his home counties, which constituted the majority of the district's votes. His voting record is as inconsistent as a piece of cheddar cheese.

Now when we get balled up again in Austin, the people of Donley, Hall and Childress counties will probably be the first to start groaning. But they'll never take the time to see how Ehrle votes or bother to do anything about it.

Former Pastor Married in Farmington, N. M.

Rev. Gerald Hill, former pastor of the McLean Presbyterian church, was married recently in Farmington, N. M., where he now holds an assistant pastorate.

Rev. Hill was married to Miss Sue Ann Teel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Teel of Texoca, Texas. Miss Teel was a home economics teacher in a school system near Farmington.

LIVESTOCK SURVEY CARDS TO GO OUT

Postmaster Bill Reeves announced this week that rural mail carriers will begin distributing June 1 livestock survey cards to patrons on their routes about May 19.

This mid-year livestock survey is the first of three which the Post Office and U. S. Agriculture departments cooperatively make each year. The June 1 survey provides basic information to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin for estimating the 1960 calf crop, what the spring pig crop actually numbered, and a preview of farrowing intentions for the fall season.

Also, poultrymen will get information on number of chickens raised during the spring. Those chickens will be the coming fall and winter laying flock.

To be sure our community is well represented in this survey, Reeves urges each patron receiving a card to fill it out and return to his mail box.

Rural mailcarrier working on this project is J. M. Hathaway, route one.

F. H. A. HONORS MOTHERS AT BANQUET

SUIT FILED BY ALANREED SCHOOL DIST.

A court injunction was filed by the Alanreed Independent School District recently against the McLean Independent School District and the Donley and Gray county school boards.

The court order asks the reinstatement of 19 sections of land that was recently transferred into the McLean district.

Owners of the land petitioned to be transferred and the decision for the change was made by the Donley and Gray county boards.

The court action by the Alanreed district is based on a law stating that not more than 10% of a district can be transferred at one time. The contention is that the 19 sections represent more than 10% of the Alanreed district.

At present, no time has been set for a hearing, which will take place at district court in Pampa.

Mrs. R. N. Ashby spent the Mother's Day week end with her son, Paul Ashby, and family in Amarillo.

IF PAUL WERE ON EARTH TODAY?

If Paul or any of the apostles were on earth today where would they attend church? Would they feel it their obligations to visit them all, and if invited to speak, teach conflicting doctrines? We can be certain that they would not do this for in 1 Cor. 1:10 we read, "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment."

We can be assured that they would teach the same thing that was taught nineteen centuries ago—"earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto saints." Jude 3. And in Gal. 1:16-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though ye, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." Any group not teaching that same doctrine would not receive their blessing. 2 John 10, 11, "If there come any unto you and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

Inasmuch as, "... we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us." (2 Cor. 4:7), men in every generation must arise to stand firmly on the truth as it is taught in God's word in order to keep the church pure. (2 Tim. 4:1-4)

If Paul and the apostles were on earth today they would attend the church whose name, doctrine and practice conformed with the teaching of the New Testament. Is there such a church on earth today? We believe that there is.

The engine is Chevy's famous Thriftmaster 6!

Chevy hums through Chicago traffic to the tune of 21 miles to the gallon!

Working for Bumper and Auto of Illinois, Inc., ten 1960 Chevrolet pickups battle Chicago traffic day after day. Each truck averages about 2,000 miles a month in this wearing stop-and-start delivery service. Mr. Harry Haller, General Manager of S & H Truck Leasing, who leases the trucks to the bumper firm, reports: "We provide full maintenance on the trucks—gas, oil and everything else—so it pays us to know just where we stand on costs. And our records show that the '60 Chevies are giving us as much as 21 miles per gallon... with an average of better than 17 miles per gallon. Mister, these are our kind of trucks!"

Truck owners have good things to say about all Chevy engines. And when they're not talking about Chevrolet performance and economy, they're telling you how great that new Torsion-Spring Ride is. How it soaks up road shock and vibration. Protects fragile loads. Lets you run at faster, safe speeds to get more work done in a day. Drive a torsion-spring Chevy soon. We'll rest our case on that one ride.

WITH A GRAIN OF SALT

It has been forecast that farm equipment sales are to decline this year, due to reduced farm income. This particular juxtaposition of cause and effect may seem completely logical on the surface—but leaders in the equipment industry seem to be holding a much more optimistic view.

For instance, one of the leading companies in the field announces that it is planning an increase in farm machinery sales in 1960 "even in view of the reported reduction in farm income." It also says, "Our order backlog is increasing, the dealer organization is growing... and we look forward to continued improvement in all phases of our operations." Significantly, this company showed a small net profit in the three months which ended last January 29—marking the first time since 1951 that earnings were recorded in an initial quarter of its fiscal year. In the comparable quarter of the previous fiscal year it had a substantial net loss.

The point is that the size of farm income, important as it is, does not necessarily decide the farmer's attitude toward buying new equipment. His production problem is long-term. Success depends on his ability to hold production costs to the minimum. And improved farm machinery, in this day of out-of-sight farm labor costs, is the answer.

In any event, it looks as if the farm equipment people have good reason to take the forecasts of the pessimists with a grain of salt.

If some people have their way, this country will ultimately become a socialized welfare state on a scale that would make Karl Marx turn green with envy.

For instance, an editorial which appeared in the house organ of a farm organization was recently reprinted in the Congressional Record. This blueprint for America's future said, in part: "Cooperative enterprises should be used on a much wider scale than they are now being used to 'police' the whole private sector of the economy. Yardstick plants, financed by government loans, in such areas as steel manufacturer, automobile manufacturer, food processing and distribution and aluminum manufacture and fabrication, should be used to establish the standards of cost and quality. The 'yardstick' principle has worked well in the TVA and the Booneville Administration in lowering power rates and increasing enormously power consumption."

The editorial did not point out that TVA, as a "yardstick" is about 18 inches long—for the simple reason that TVA pays no federal taxes, pays only comparatively small sums in lieu of state and local taxes, does not pay the going rate for investment capital, and is given many other tax-supported privileges denied private enterprise.

That aside, the writer went on to say that we need government expansion in many other fields. These include federal health and hospital protection; federal aid in the rebuilding of cities and the solving of traffic problems; federal aid to education, and cheap federal credit to bring down interest rates.

And how would all this be paid for? The author of the editorial has the answer: "To finance such a program, we need an increasingly progressive tax system based on ability to pay. To an ever-increasing extent, we must rely on the taxing power of the federal government which alone is able to tap wealth where wealth is." It can be added that the federal progressive income tax now reaches a high of 91%—which, it seems, just isn't progressive enough for this writer.

Anyone who thinks threats to American freedoms—economic, social and individual—come solely from without is woefully in error. There's plenty to guard against within.

SUNDAY SCHOOL—A FORCE FOR FAITH

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Laymen's National Committee, Inc., an inter-faith organization dedicated to the proposition that "America was founded on man's consciousness of God, man's daily labor and the fruits therefrom." The committee sponsors National Sunday School Week, which this year was April 11-17. The theme for the year was "Sunday School—a Force for Faith."

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has said, "The 16th annual observance of National Sunday School Week should serve as a signal re-emphasizing to all responsible citizens the need for a return to religion in our standards of living."

"The Sunday schools of our nation can make a tremendous contribution to the necessary realignment of our guide for daily activity. The importance of religion as the major factor in the conduct of our lives must be instilled in our young men and women, and from there, it will assume its rightful place in the lives of every citizen, every community and every nation."

Area Observations

From Ed Eakin in Quanah Tribune-Chief:

Lying is bad enough but getting caught is a lot worse.

Normally Americans make poor liars; the case of the State Department's "confession" about the spy reconnaissance over Russia is no exception.

The fact that every country involved in today's world crisis conducts espionage operations continuously has little bearing on the case. We got caught redhanded.

Russia undoubtedly had the most efficient world-wide spy set-up in the world. The only difference is that Communism uses traitors such as the Rosenbergs and Alger Hiss to do their work for them. We must pay our own people.

Americans were more embarrassed than shocked over the pilot-spy case. We understood that the work of the Central Intelligence Agency involved some undercover activities. Most of us considered it part of being a world power. There are certainly risks involved but then there always is when a free nation tries to stay free.

We would make no apologies for this country's conduct. With Communist Russia taking the stand that she does, this is our only defense—we must fight fire with fire. The way the CIA and State Department bungled the whole affair, however, is frightening. It gives this nation the appearance of having two foreign policies and the effect of the right hand not knowing what the left hand is doing. Americans have never understood world power politics. But if we expect to survive in this war of ideologies, we had best learn quick.

H. M. Baggally of Tulsa Herald in "Thoughts for Thursday":

MIDDLE AGE is a time when we humans begin to show our mileage. Our breath shortens. We trade our reading glasses for bifocals. Our stomachs grow sensitive.

We begin to note the rugged endurance of high school youngsters with whom we can no longer compete. They seem almost impertinent at night when they take one look at our glass of milk and order a hotdog bathed in chili and wash it down with something they call a "suicide."

WE ENVY their physical make-up which has not yet succumbed to the rigors of age, their unwrinkled brows, their youthful gait—and most of them have hair!

Youth has traditionally been a treasure. Ancient explorers looked for its fountain. Heaven is pictured as a place where "we'll

A country where where flowers are so priced as to make them a luxury has yet to learn the first principles of civilization.—Chinese proverb

The essence of courage is not that your heart should not quake, but that nobody else shall know that it does.—E. F. Benson

Today we enjoy the pleasant fantasy that modern society is the first to enjoy the benefits of psychology. However, it is well to remember that the Sioux Indians, told their children that butterfly wings smeared over their hearts would enable them to run as fleetly as an antelope.

Any boy who sets out to catch a dozen butterflies without benefit of a net is going to be a middling good runner by the time summer is out.

You may not be in training to become a runner, but if you want to keep your car in top running condition, regular trips to our station is the answer. We use those good Chevron products, of course!

never grow old."

BUT WITH ALL its virtues, we must all admit—and recall—that youth is not a bed of roses.

One disadvantage of youth is its lack of maturity.

Youth is a time when people do queer things, make unwise decisions, exercise faulty judgment. Youth is impulsive, often acts—and later thinks.

WE'VE ALL WATCHED infants in trouble. They turn over their glasses of milk, miss their mouths when they try to eat, stumble and fall. They are clumsy and their equilibrium is easily upset.

Fifteen years later they have mastered most of these infantile characteristics—but they are far from maturity. Instead of being infantile, now they are juvenile. One stage is as treacherous and hazardous as the other.

JUVENILES OFTEN make ill-advised remarks, they speak at the wrong time, they make the wrong decision. They require patience and understanding.

Whenever an adult becomes over-sensitive to the strange behavior of teenagers, he needs only to review his own history.

LIFE IS LARGELY mental. Few things enrich life more than the acquisition of wisdom, experience and training. And these attributes come only with age. Some learn sooner than others, but in any event, years are required.

While we may envy a youth and his agility and health, we do not envy him the wisdom, training and experience he has not yet acquired.

All of us should be proud of our years just as the Chinese who consider youthfulness something of which to be ashamed.

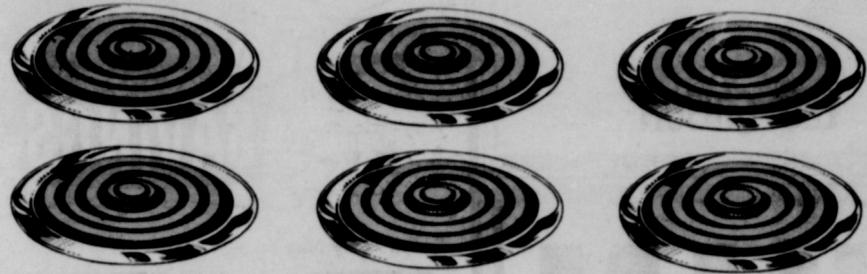

We would say that the advantages of age outweigh the disadvantages. A COMFORTABLE old age is the reward of a well-spent youth. Instead of its bringing sad and melancholy prospects of decay, it should give us hope of eternal youth.

The postal rate increase seems unfair and uncalled for to us, and we are against it teeth and toe.

nail. In the first place we are just now getting reconciled to the last raise. To be right honest, we haven't.

We heard of the conservative old gentleman that forked over a dollar to his wayward son for spending money and when he was back for more the next week he wanted to know what happened to the other gift. The idea is not the same, but we would like to know what happened to the income from the last hike.

Sen. Olin Johnson, chairman of the senate post office committee, says that the first class letter service is already paying 25% more than the actual cost on the 4-cent basis. This amount would jump to 50% over with a 1-cent hike.

Any greater cost on a letter than the actual expense of getting it to the destination becomes a tax on the mother or the sweetheart that is writing to her boy in service. To make the letter service bear the cost of magazines, letters from congressmen, newspapers or any other part of the program could be nothing short of a tax on one segment of the people.

Our founding fathers thought that all the people should have the benefit of papers, magazines, and other sources of information. It was thought to be for our good, and became a public service to the people. If they were right then, it is still all right today, and there could be no more wrong in that than in spending public money on health.

No, it just looks like another sneak attack on the pocketbooks of we taxpayers by people who think that taxes and debts can only go one direction, and that is up. We're agin it.

Water Fun for Washington State Visitors

OLYMPIA, WASH.—"We love to ride the ferries!" goes a sprightly song—and visitors to Washington State from all over the world echo Puget Sounders' sentiments.

Where else can you have the fun of a make-believe ocean voyage on a lunch-money budget? Leave the work-a-day world behind as you breathe deep of salt air and watch the gulls soar! The charm of lush, green islands gives wings to your spirit; the ships from all over the world bound for Washington State ports carries romance of far-away places.

Seattle, the city of seven hills, is home terminal for the State-owned ferry fleet. Ferry names reflect the color of the state's past and present—Indian names like Kluckitlat, Tillicum and Kalakala. The spanking-new car ferry Coho, operating across the international boundary of old-world Victoria, is named for a salmon species for which Washington is famous.

Want a short water trip? At Bremerton, only an hour away, you can tour the giant Puget Sound Naval Shipyard—and board the battleship Missouri, Peace Treaty ship of World War II. Or Bainbridge Island—or Whidbey Island, where rhododendrons grow Paul Bunyan tall—as high as 25 feet!

Visitors can even travel abroad for the price of a ferry ticket. Only a few hours by auto ferry from Anacortes, and tourists are in picturesque Victoria, on Vancouver Island, Canada. One can browse through quaint shops, enjoy a formal English tea—and no passports are ever needed.

All of these things and many more are fully described and pictured in Washington state's new 36-page, three-color travel book. Readers of this newspaper may obtain a copy free merely by writing to the Department of Commerce, Administration Building, Olympia, Washington.

IS THIS A COMING CANDIDATE?

by Vant Neff

Frank Matula is a felon, convicted for perjury. He lied under oath to a Legislative Committee investigating a rubbish-collection scandal in California. His sentence was six months in jail and a $2,500 fine, with probation for five years. The State Supreme Court confirmed the sentence.

Then, two days before the sentence was confirmed, Frank Matula received a great honor. The president of the Teamsters, Mr. James Hoffa, appointed Frank Matula one of the three International Teamsters Trustees—one of the highest posts in union leadership!

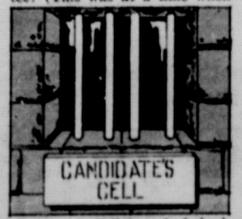

Shortly after this appointment, Frank Matula went to jail to serve his sentence.

Frank Matula's new appointment is a clear-cut example of a growing union-leader trend. Criminal conviction, or trouble with the law, seems almost to commend union benchmen to their superiors as proof of sterling qualifications for union leadership. And, from the evidence, Frank Matula's character made a good impression in other quarters.

During his jail term, the International Union Executives met in Washington, D. C. Frank Matula received a three-week vacation from jail, to attend this meeting!

This indulgence of a convicted felon lay within the power of the judge who had sentenced him. The reason given for freeing him temporarily was, that unless he could attend the Washington meeting, Frank Matula might lose his job as an International Teamsters Trustee! (This was at a time when a mother, in jail for a bad check conviction, was refused permission to attend the funeral of her murdered ten-year-old daughter!)

The facts of Frank Matula's jail sentence, and his trip to Washington as a union dignitary, present a disgraceful symbol of the rising union-leader-goon. But the approval of such goons by top union leaders raises two questions of far-reaching importance: First, how long will the honest, hard-working rank-and-file union members, who are the vast majority, be satisfied with being represented by corrupt and criminal leaders? Second, Does this approval on the part of top union leaders have a future political significance for every American, in or out of unions?

Because, the top union leaders of today make no bones about their interest in the national political scene. Mr. Hoffa himself has marked no less than fifty-six Congressmen for replacement. High-powered "educational" programs have been set in motion, to educate union members in the use of the political strength. This movement toward organizing political strength, on the part of today's union leaders, is a step from seeking to run a candidate for public office. As Mr. Hoffa, President of the powerful Teamsters, has already got a massive political program in action!

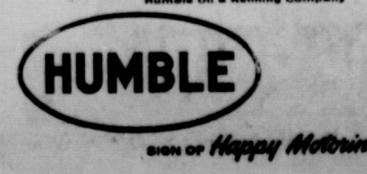

Does the rise of Frank Matula mean that American citizens can look forward to labor-sponsored jailbirds in Congress? Is America ready to think of the Free Deney as an office for a felon

WHEN JOHN LANDIS MASON FILED HIS PATENT ON A "FRUIT JAR" IN 1858, AND DESCRIBED HIS NAME THEREON, IT BECAME THE NAME MOST OFTEN FOUND IN AMERICAN KITCHENS THROUGHOUT THE NEXT 50 YEARS...

UPON EXPIRATION OF THE PATENT IN 17 YEARS, AFTER IT REVERTED TO PUBLIC DOMAIN, MANY GLASS FACTORIES MADE USE OF THE TRADE MARK UNTIL EARLY IN 1900... TODAY, THE NAME "MASON JAR" IS STILL A COMMON TERM USED IN HOME CANNING.

MASON'S BASIC PATENT IS THE ANCESTOR OF ALL GLASS CONTAINERS WITH TOPS THAT SCREW ON... HE HELD 9 PATENTS ON MASON JARS, TWO ON COVERS. HE DIED FEB. 26, 1902, AS A CHARITY PATENT IN NEW YORK CITY, AGE 70.

OVER 100 BILLION MASON JARS HAVE BEEN USED... NOW, EVERY YEAR 20 MILLION WOMEN LOOK WITH PRIDE UPON THEIR STORE OF GOOD HOME-CANNED GOODS "PUT UP" IN MASON JARS AT HARVEST TIME.

THE LATEST THING IN JARS IS THE TAPERED CAN OR FREEZE JAR. IT SEALS JAMS AND JELLIES AIRTIGHT WITH DOME LIDS, NO PARAFFIN NEEDED... AND TAPERED SIDES PREVENT BREAKING IN FREEZER.

You Are Invited To Attend this Sunday

Lord, what is the trust that I have in this life? or what is my greatest solace of all things under heaven? Is it not thou?, my Lord God, Whose mercy is without measure? Where hath it been well with me without Thee? Or when hath it not been well with me, Thou being present?

Where Thou art there is heaven and where Thou are not there is both death and hell. Thou art to me all that I desire, and therefore it behooveth me to sigh to Thee, to cry to Thee, and heartily to pray to Thee. I have no one to trust in, that may help me in my necessities, but only Thee. Thou art my hope, Thou art my trust, Thou art my comfort, and Thou art my faithful helper in every need.

Man seeketh what is his, but Thou seekest my health and profit, and turnest all things unto the best for me, for if Thou send temptations and other adversities Thou ordainest all to my profit, for Thou art wont by a thousand ways to prove Thy chosen people.

In Thee, Lord, therefore, I put my trust.

CENSUS DROPS PROTESTED BY COMMUNITIES

Census returns for the majority of communities in the Panhandle and South Plains have brought forth a hail of complaints that census figures revealing drops in population are incomplete and untrue.

Several communities have undertaken locally to determine their correct population, and others have started negotiating with the census bureau in order to determine accuracy.

One city, Groom, had the census count reported as some 300 persons under the count 10 years ago. A check by several persons locally revealed an error of such scope that the correct count numbered more than 200 persons above the last census count.

Numbered among the towns having a decrease reported from 1950 are Childress, Wellington, Dalhart, Clarendon, Memphis, Canadian, Shamrock and McLean.

Some of the complaints have rested upon the number of meter connections in the city. According to the national average, there is a fraction over three persons per meter. On this basis McLean would number near 2,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Wood and daughter, Lesa, of Pampa spent the week end with the Charlie Vineyard family.
