

The Peripatetic View by CEG

H. M. Baggary, editor of the Tullia Herald, has for many years shouted his leftist, socialist-minded doctrines to residents of Swisher County, but last week he climbed to new heights in his repulsive outpourings.

In this particular column, Baggary was ripping into all conservative Democrats and embracing such personalities as Frankie Randolph, who tried to recruit a little group to walk out of the state convention and couldn't. She was then deposed as national committee woman.

To quote Baggary: "For at least 10 years these Texas 'conservative Democrats' have employed every dishonest, insulting, illegal trick in the book against loyal Democrats back here in the state conventions. They have ignored parliamentary procedure. They have 'rigged' conventions. They have pulled 'deals' of every color but white. These political hoodlums from Texas got just what was coming to them at Los Angeles. Their tactics have been those of Fidel Castro and Nikita Khrushchev—purge the opposition, stomp them into the earth, see that they get nothing."

To read such tripe would identify Baggary as a fool in the first place. Any observation of the state convention would reveal that the only disrupting factor was "Mrs. Randolph" herself who didn't succeed in anything except further exhibiting her pitiful ambitions to amount to something more than a horse laugh in state politics. The fact that Paul Butler gave her tickets at the national convention is hardly a recommendation in that he, like Frankie, is now turned out to pasture. And because of his own actions.

For as long as I can remember, Mr. Baggary has been the staunchest supporter of the theory to "take away from the capable and give to the incapable."

A good editorial in this paper this week gives the example of taking points from the grades of high ranking students and giving it to the lower students so that all can pass their courses. This would be liberalism in the schools, and I imagine Mr. Baggary would be in favor of such a system. He advocates it for all the rest of the world.

Mr. Baggary opposes individualism. He advocates the soup-line philosophy of all ultra liberals, and then calls himself and other such thinkers "loyal Democrats."

Mr. Baggary should have concluded his column with the statement, "Let us continue to strive for a socialist America."

I wonder how many people in Swisher County realize how radical he is. And it's hard to understand why a man in business would want to barter his rights and opportunities at the federal market.

If such a calibre of humanity as Baggary would want to sell themselves into the unthinking, regimented, mass of a socialistic state, then I suppose there is nothing to stop them. If they want to trade their right to a running chance of accomplishment in this world for a paltry sure-thing hand-out from a federal source, then it's their business.

But it is sickening to see such persons as he hiding under the banners of "loyal Democrats," "Americans," "patriots," etc.

I have no use for his way of thinking, and if society continues to lean this way, then I have no use for society, and should the United States eventually embrace this way of life, then I will be ashamed to call myself a citizen.

I still believe there is more self satisfaction and honor in going broke in a struggle than in settling for a pittance from the government. Should I be bankrupt many times in my life, I believe my chance to "try" will outweigh by far a parasitic existence at the cost of the higher taxpayers who did succeed. I would not deserve their money, or want their money and I will not try to get it through government that takes it away from them.

The attitude of existing on subsidy collected from capable people is spreading. Surveys reveal fewer young men every year try a business of their own. They take the lecherous word "security" for granted and become one of the mass. I have no use for them or

Progress On Hedley Road

More progress was made recently on the project to secure a paved road from McLean to Hedley recently with the approval of the Gray County Commissioners Court to pave the section of the road within Gray County.

According to Archie Dwyer, Commissioner, Precinct 4, the court voted to use a Farm-to-Market allocation already granted to the county for the road. The pavement will cover three miles, the distance of the road that lies within the county.

Concerning the remainder of the distance, delegations from both Gray and Donley counties appeared before the Highway Commission in Austin Tuesday to further the request for allocation.

From Gray County were County Judge Bill Craig, Commissioner-elect Truitt Johnson and Evan Sitter. Included in the Donley County delegation were County Judge R. E. Drennan, Commissioners F. M. Murray and Jess Finley, C. R. Johnson, R. W. Scales, T. H. Moffitt and M. D. Shaw.

Purpose of the trip to Austin was to request an advancement of farm-to-market allocations for Donley County in order to construct a bridge spanning the river and a section of the paving.

Concurrent with the project to obtain the paved thoroughfare is a move by the Greenbelt Water Authority to construct a dam on the river near the site of the requested bridge. The delegations were told that until a definite site had been secured for the dam it would not be feasible to make

From Cecil Waggoner in Claude News: Diogenes

Thursday morning of last week I went out into the highways and by-ways in search of a Democrat, but none were to be found. I did encounter a lot of independents and a few Republicans. Whether this reaction will change between now and November will be interesting to watch.

Johnson's addition to the ticket was not the hoop-la here the Democrats hoped to achieve. They doubt Johnson's strength will withstand the constant socialistic, ultra-radical elements of the north, although it was interesting to find that Kennedy e.t.a.l. suddenly realized the South was still a part of the United States.

I also noted from many of the reports that the liberals felt Kennedy had betrayed them, while Southerners felt Johnson had betrayed them. However, the Democrats are in much better position now than they were that infamous Thursday morning of last week. At least, should the ticket have won with another ultra-liberal with Kennedy we would be in serious trouble. Now the power seems balanced.

Johnson & Co.
Publisher John S. Knight remains firm on his story that a "highly dependable source" told him Sen. Lyndon Johnson and Rep. Sam Rayburn forced Kennedy to accept Johnson as a running-mate or face a floor fight. I sincerely hope the story is true.

If Johnson and Rayburn forced Kennedy to take Johnson it means they do not intend to let the pseudo-liberals and left-wing radicals take over the Democratic party of the United States government. Power politics always plays a part in our government and at the moment Johnson and Rayburn are in a position to save the country from the worst fate in its history.

Should the election go Democratic or Republican, they will still hold a staying power on the pink-heads and flutter-butts who want us to be attached to K. & Co.'s red flannels.

You will also notice Texas pseudo-liberals are pressuring Johnson to remove his name from the Texas Senate race. They are desperate to break his power one way or another. I doubt Johnson will be that big a fool and the reasonable people of Texas should back him up to keep it where it is because the Democrats are well on the way of losing again.

Forgotten men
I was winking, blinking and mad last Tuesday night after hearing the Democratic platform. It offered something to everyone except the poor weekly editor. Then a dark premonition hit me. The

RESERVE SEAT GRID TICKETS TO GO ON SALE MONDAY, AUG. 1

Reserve seat tickets for the 1960 Tiger football season will go on sale at Brown's Rexall Drug Monday, August 1st, according to Lee Welch, superintendent of schools.

Season tickets for the five home games will sell in a book for $5.00—$1.00 per game. This is the same price that general admission tickets will be at the gate.

Fans who had reserved seats last year will have the option of purchasing the same seats for this season, provided they are purchased prior to August 26th, one week before the opening game. After that date, the reserve spots will be on open sale. Any person who wishes to buy reserved seats not occupied last year may do so at any time.

The season will open this year at Shamrock on September 2nd, and the home opener will be with Wheeler the following week.

Home games for the year include Wheeler, White Deer, Wellington, Canadian and Clarendon. The season's regular slate calls for ten games.

PAMPA RODEO SET TO OPEN AUGUST 1ST

The gates for the 16th annual Top of Texas rodeo will swing open Monday, August 1, with the Kid Pony Show scheduled for that afternoon and night.

The rodeo proper will begin Tuesday, Aug. 2, at 8 p. m., preceded by a giant street parade at 3 p. m. led by the Amarillo Air Force band under the direction of Capt. E. S. Bridges. Other bands appearing in the parade line-up will be the Pampa High School band under the direction of Bill Tregoe, and the Miller Bros. western dance band of Wichita Falls. Bill Tidwell, parade marshal, has issued an invitation to the riding clubs, ranch entries, civic club entries, and commercial divisions to place entries in the parade, which will form on West Foster Street at 2:15 p. m.

Prizes totaling more than $5,000 supplemented with many handsome trophies to winners in the respective events will be the target of some 300 cowboys and cowgirls expected for the big event. An official American Quarter Horse show is scheduled for Thursday and Friday, Aug. 4 and 5, with a record number of horses from the Southwest expected to be entered.

An outstanding feature of this year's show will be the calf scramble which will be presented Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights with 4-H Club boys from the area contesting for some 20 choice calves which have been donated to the show for this thrilling event.

The colorful cowgirl's contest which is considered one of the top cowgirl's events in the nation will feature more than 40 girls from the Southwest area. A handsome hand-stamped saddle will be presented the cowgirl compiling the best average in the contest, plus cash prizes which will be split to the winners of first, second and third place.

The crack Pampa High School band under the baton of Bill Tregoe will furnish music for all rodeo performances, while the Miller Bros. Western dance band of Wichita Falls will play for dancing in the National Guard Armory building following an appearance at the rodeo.

The rodeo office is located in the lobby of the Pampa Hotel where registrations are being handled and tickets for the show may be purchased.

Ample parking is available at the show grounds with two entrances provided. The local police and sheriff departments, working with the state highway patrol, will handle and direct traffic.

The grounds and arena have just recently been put into tip top shape awaiting what is expected to be the greatest show in the history of the organization.

A special added attraction at the Tuesday night rodeo performance will be the arrival of the Canadian wagon train to the Top of Texas show. The wagon train under the command of Wagon Boss Orval Johnson will parade before the stands with some 15 covered wagons and 50 riders. Johnson has made the remark that Ward Bond's TV Wagon Train will have nothing on his group. They will leave Canadian on Monday, August 1, at 6 a. m., and will spend the night out and will eat from an old-time chuck wagon and sleep on bed rolls. The wagon boss has invited anyone who would like to join the riders and covered wagons for the trip and asked that they be ready to go at 6 a. m. Monday, Aug. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mayfield of Long Beach, Calif., visited Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Luther Petty. Mr. Mayfield is a former McLean resident and a pupil of Mrs. Petty in 1913-14.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Petty attended the Wheeler County Singing Convention at Shamrock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Vestal Gene Bailey have returned from a trip to Midland, Austin and Dallas.

PATROLMEN APPREHEND SLAYER

McLean Highway Patrolmen R. C. Parker and Charles Henderson sighted and apprehended Sunday a Pampa negro sought in the slaying of his wife.

The negro, J. A. Sims, was being sought after the discovery of his wife, Linda Rees Sims, 36, Saturday night. She had been shot with a .32 calibre pistol and died shortly after admission to the hospital.

Sims fled the scene of the shooting on foot, and was sighted by Parker and Henderson near Dozier on Sunday. He had apparently been wandering across the country through the night.

Upon sighting Sims, the officers called to him, and the fugitive began running. Henderson fired twice in the close vicinity of the fleeing man, who then gave himself up without further resisting.

Parker and Henderson then turned Sims over to Wheeler County officers.

Reports were that an argument prompted the man to the slaying of his wife. The couple had been married for one year.

weeks, then recess for two weeks, alternately until near the end of the term. When cases are being argued sessions are held Monday through Friday. On these days precisely at 12 noon, the marshal cries the opening of court and the black-robed judges step forth from openings in the velvet drapes behind the judicial bench to assume their duties.

In the usual case each side is given one hour to present its argument. The presentation is frequently interrupted by sharp questions from the bench, and the lawyer with a weak point often finds himself seriously embarrassed by cutting remarks from some impatient justice.

Argument continues until 2 p. m., when the Chief Justice announces a recess for a half-hour lunch period. Then at 2:30 the court resumes and is finally adjourned at 4:30 p. m. With arguments concluded the court then takes the case under consideration and prepares the decision and opinion of the court.

McLean FFA Boys to Participate in Pampa Calf Scramble

Jim Weatherford, McLean FFA instructor, announced this week that four boys from McLean will participate in the Pampa rodeo calf scramble, scheduled for Aug. 6th.

Boys who will compete are Bill Gokston, Gary Clawson, Jim Kingston and Gene Bench.

Weatherford will accompany the boys to the scramble.

U. S. Supreme Court Tops Nation's Court System

The Supreme Court of the United States sits at the pinnacle of the nation's court system. Its justices, as they are properly called, have the final say as to questions concerning rights arising under the U. S. Constitution and as to matters over which the federal courts are given jurisdiction.

The Court sits at Washington, D. C. in a magnificent building located near the Capitol. At present the Chief Justice is Earl Warren while the eight Associate Justices are, in order of their service on the court: Hugo L. Black, Felix Frankfurter, William O. Douglas, Tom C. Clark, John M. Harlan, William J. Brennan Jr., Charles Evans Whittaker and Potter Stewart.

The Court holds one regular term each year, commencing on the first Monday in October. The term usually continues until some time in June. During its course the Court will hear oral arguments on well over a hundred cases and will dispose of many hundreds more without hearing argument.

Certain cases may be appealed automatically. But in most cases it is discretionary as to whether the Court will grant reviews. The seriousness of the legal question, conflicts of interpretation among the lower courts and on some occasions erroneous results will motivate the acceptance of a case for full hearing and argument.

Judy Glass and Ronay Howard Are Married

Judith Ann Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Glass, and Charles Ronay Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Howard, were united in marriage Saturday, July 23, at 8 p. m. in the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. Kenneth McCall, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Joe Bob Barnhill provided the traditional music.

The couple stood in an archway of greenery, flanked by candelabra bearing pink tapers, and baskets of pink and white gladioli.

Mrs. Barnhill served as her sister's matron of honor. Joe Lawrence Howard was his brother's best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length white tulle dress with an over-skirt of tulle. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white asters atop her white Bibie.

Mrs. Glass and Mrs. Howard, mothers of the couple, had corsages of pink roses, and Mrs. Barnhill's and Mrs. Dale Glass' corsages were of white daisies.

A reception was held in the Glass home immediately following the ceremony. The serving table was laid with a white and silver cloth and centered with an arrangement of white daisies. Mrs. Dale Glass poured from the crystal punch service and Mrs. Barnhill served the wedding cake.

Members of the immediate families present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bob Barnhill and Leslie of Amarillo, Mrs. R. D. Marrs, Joe Howard and John and Bob Glass.

Both the bride and groom plan to continue their studies this fall in McLean High School, where they will be seniors.

They are now at home at the Boyett apartment.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this means of expressing my thanks for the cards and notes sent me during my recent stay in the hospital. They were meaningful and were all sincerely appreciated.

CARD OF THANKS

To say that we are grateful to our friends, in and around McLean, is inadequate. We are deeply moved by your courtesies, deeds of kindness, and expressions of understanding.

Your friendship has meant no little to us, as a family, during Mrs. Longino's illness and in your thoughtful kindness and assistance in the later darker days of this sad experience.

Our heartfelt thanks to God for such friends in a time when friendship is so essential.

H. A. Longino and Family

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to say Thanks from the bottom of my heart for all of the nice cards, letters, flowers and visits I received during my recent stay in the hospital and since I have been home. May God bless each of you.

FEEDING TIPS FOR A FIRST SUMMER

A first summer is a wonderful experience for a baby. Suddenly he discovers that a breeze can be a caress instead of a blast; that his new world holds such wonders as grass and sand; that summer smells different from winter. Even before he can talk, he appreciates summer's carefree approach, with outdoor meals and fresh-air naps.

Of course, summer has its problems too, and a prolonged hot spell may take its toll in prickly heat and loss of appetite. Baby-care experts from Beech Nut point out that a mother has to be especially careful during this period, to see that her baby gets all the nutrition he needs, even though the actual volume of food may be sharply reduced from his winter time consumption.

A baby's rapid development creates a need for concentrated nourishment with emphasis on protein, and a baby requires more protein, pound for pound, than adults. Therefore, wise mothers offer foods with good protein value, such as the new Beech Nut Protein Dinners.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Black, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. R. Webb of Deport, and their son, Bob Black Jr. of Pampa, spent last week in the home of their daughter, Mrs. L. L. Edwards, in Farmington, N. M.

Thursday guests in the Harold Butrum home were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heath and grandson, Bobby, of Norman, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Butrum and Mrs. Angie Butrum of Pampa.

Mrs. Etta Hudgins of Erick, Okla., visited relatives here during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Back are vacationing in South Texas this week.

Mrs. Scotty McDonald and children of Pampa spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Odessa Gunn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cullin of Matador were Sunday guests in the home of their son, Charles Cullin.

These dinners, in tempting flavors of beef, lamb or chicken, combine proteins from meat, egg-yolk and milk, and contain an average of 24 per cent more protein than other baby dinners tested. Representing the closest approach yet to a complete food, these dinners are especially valuable during periods of reduced appetite.

Here are additional summer-feeding tips:

1. Present the food temptingly; be sure it is at the temperature he prefers; arrange it for color and appearance to perk a lagging appetite.

2. Don't urge him to eat more than he wants. A baby is a pretty good judge of the amount of food he requires.

3. Since extra liquids are recommended to replace liquids lost through perspiration, offer appealing juices, such as apple juice or vegetable juice, both available in baby forms.

With an easy, relaxed approach to summer eating, your baby will breeze through his first summer, even though the thermometer blows its top.

Children of Pampa spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Odessa Gunn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cullin of Matador were Sunday guests in the home of their son, Charles Cullin.

Baptist W. M. S. To Have Mission Program Tuesday

"Carest Thou Not?" is the theme for the August missionary program for the Baptist W. M. S.

The program will begin at 11 o'clock Tuesday, August 2, in the church parlor. An urgent invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

On August 6, 1951, our plane dropped an atomic bomb on Hiroshima; 240,000 people died and the city was totally destroyed. Japan after 15 years, women of Japan, and young people of Japan are a few of the highlights of the missionary program.

The Japanese dish-garden display will be on view before and after the meeting. There will be shown movie films on Japan, also.

W. S. C. S. Meets

The Methodist W. S. C. S. met July 19th at 2:30 for their regular joint meeting in the church parlor.

Mrs. Mary Stewart brought the meditations on "Seek and ye shall find." Mrs. J. L. Hess presided at the business session.

There were 11 members present and two visitors, Mrs. Stella Carr of Wink and Jan Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Hambricht and daughters and Oran John Durham visited with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Loftin, in Clarendon Saturday evening.

Herbie Butrum has returned from Amarillo, where he visited with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barrett, and attended a two-weeks singing normal at the North Amarillo Church of Christ.

IS THE CHURCH ESSENTIAL?

The consideration of a few scriptures should settle the question in any believer's mind concerning the essentiality of the church in salvation.

In Eph. 2:16 we read, "And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby." Thus reconciliation to God is in the body. The body is the church, Eph. 1:22-23, "And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things unto the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all." Christ is the savior of the body which is the church. Eph. 5:23, "For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body."

The church was bought by the blood of Christ, Acts 20:28, "Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and unto all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood." Hence salvation outside the church would be salvation without the blood of Christ since He purchased it with His blood.

The Lord is going to save His children, those who are citizens in His kingdom. In Col. 1:13 we read, "Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son." And in Gal. 3:26-27, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ."

Although nominal membership in the church will save no one, it is Jesus who saves, one who is saved is added to the church, Acts. 2:47. Therefore the Lord has made membership in the church essential to our salvation.

A LESSON IN ECONOMICS

As a teacher in the public schools, I find that the socialist-communist idea of taking "from each according to his ability," and giving to each according to his need" is now generally accepted without question by most of our pupils. In an effort to explain the fallacy in this theory, I sometimes try this approach with my pupils:

When one of the brighter or harder-working pupils makes a grade of 95 on a test, I suggest that I take away 20 points and give them to a student who has made only 55 points on his test. Thus each would contribute according to his ability—since both would have a passing mark—each would receive according to his needs. After I have juggled the grades of all the other pupils in this fashion, the result is usually a "common ownership" grade of between 75 and 80—the minimum needed for passing, or for survival. Then I speculate with the pupils as to the probable results if I actually used the socialistic theory for grading papers.

First, the highly productive pupils—and they are always a minority in school as well as in life—would soon lose all incentive for producing. Why strive to make a high grade if part of it is taken from you by "authority" and given to someone else?

Second, the less-productive pupils—a majority in school as elsewhere—would, for a time, be relieved of the necessity to study or to produce. This socialist-communist system would continue until the high producers had sunk—or had been driven down—to the level of the low producers. At that point, in order for anyone to survive, the "authority" would have no alternative but to begin a system of compulsory labor and punishments against even the low producers. They, of course, would then complain bitterly, but without understanding.

Finally I return the discussion to the ideas of freedom and enterprise—the market economy—where each person has freedom of choice and is responsible for his own decisions and welfare.

Gratifying enough, most of my pupils then understand what I mean when I explain that socialism—even in a democracy—will eventually result in a living-death for all except the "authorities" and a few of their favorite lackeys.

—A letter from Thomas J. Shelly, teacher of economics and history, Yonkers High School, Yonkers, N. Y.

THE BIG "BENEFIT" BINGE

by Vant Neff

Ever think how closely our high cost of living is tied to the high cost of employment? Once upon a time, the cost of employing a person was just the salary he was paid for the work he did. Not today. Hidden payroll costs now include such extras as pay for holidays and vacations, pensions, health insurance, life insurance, Social Security, taxes for unemployment benefits and workmen's compensation. About half of these "fringe benefits" don't show up in the employee's pay envelope, but they're paid for by the employer—in addition to regular wages.

Fringe benefits have shot up more than twice as fast as wages in the past ten years. They're still going up. This year, the cost of hidden benefits hit 3 billion dollars, bringing the total bill footed by employers to nearly 30 billion dollars. Present estimates indicate the bill will bounce up another 3 billion this year.

On the average, for every six dollars paid to a worker for time on the job, his employer has to pay an additional dollar for fringe benefits. In some companies, even more. A recent study by Timken Roller Bearing Company disclosed that, based on a normal year of 2,000 hours worked, the total cost per employee ran to about 97 cents an hour above his hourly wages! Maybe the reason you don't read much about this subject is because it's pure dynamite. And, in time, it could blow our economy sky-high. The more the total cost of employment (not just wages) confronting a businessman, the less his incentive to start new enterprises. Mounting fringe benefits help speed us on the road to inflation. What's more, mounting employment costs can price American products right out of the market—opening the floodgates for foreign goods. As employment costs go up, our dollar buys less and less.

Union leaders know these facts of life. But does this knowledge stop many of them from pressuring employers for more benefits? No! Why? Because too often union bosses stay in power only as long as they put on a show for their following. And the show that makes the biggest political hit is agitating for higher and higher wages and more and more benefits, regardless of the effect on employment.

Let's look at some of these extras. Pensions. Life Insurance. Health Insurance. Severance Pay. Holiday Pay. Vacation Pay. Sick Pay. They don't show up in pay envelopes. They do show up on the employer's balance sheet... and, sooner or later, they come out of everybody's pocketbook. Take an extreme. In certain cases, union leaders have even succeeded in getting fringe benefits for employees after retirement! They've gotten pension increases, company-paid premiums on life insurance, and, occasionally, payments for medical care. Now the latest agitation is for continuance wages over long periods of time for workers who are permanently laid off.

The cycle never ends. The circle gets more vicious. Costs of employment—direct and indirect—in their uncontrolled upward spiral lash out at every single one of us. A worker gets a raise, extra days off with pay, more insurance. His employer pays. The employer then has to raise the price of his product. Then you and I and the worker himself have to pay more for what we buy.

Fringe benefits can get out-of-hand. The lure of "something for nothing" is an irresistible one to many, but, in today's world, nothing is really free. In one way or another, you pay! More fringe benefits pave the way for more price increases. Eventually, all of us pay for what can become a "benefit binge." And whoever heard of going on a "binge" without a miserable hangover soon after!

When that "hangover" is allowed to price us out of a sensible economic structure, American economy will need more than a Bromo!

Still, Congress will not have unlimited time to pass the judgment of the American people on these various legislative measures. For soon we must all begin the compelling task of choosing the next President of the United States, and as so many convention speeches indicate, it will certainly be one of the most important elections in our history. The fact that this importance has been recognized countless times by party orators does not make it any less true.

WALTER ROGERS REPORTS

REFLECTION AND VISION

With Congress in recess until next month, national attention has shifted from legislative activity to the Democratic and Republican conventions. Nevertheless, when the Senate convenes on August 8 and the House follows it into session one week later, some of the most important bills of the session will demand a decision.

The leadership has indicated that among these measures will be the controversial proposals to increase and extend the minimum wage, to provide some medical care for the aged, to offer federal aid for school construction, and to encourage housing assistance and urban renewal. Several appropriation bills, including foreign aid and public works, also remain to be dealt with and it is likely that another farm bill will be introduced.

The helium bill, which is of particular importance to the people of the Panhandle, has been reported from committee in the Senate, and will presumably come before that body during the coming deliberations. The bill was, of course, passed in the House of Representatives last May. It will prevent much of the present waste of a most vital resource.

Although the number of bills is quite large, I am glad that the Congress did not make an effort to rush them through in a frenzied attempt to dispose of all legislation and adjourn before the conventions. The last minute push has occurred before, and doubtless will occur again, but almost always as a lia-

One of the questions in the extensive questionnaire he was required to fill out before initiation was, "Where did you spend the past summer?"

His reply: "Cruising to Hawaii on my uncle's yacht."

ply and demand, that our present military strategy has largely been grafted onto World War II concepts, and that too often our diplomacy lives in the faded dream world of an atomic monopoly we no longer possess.

So I think that whether we are actively working in the Congress or waiting to participate in the forthcoming campaign, we all have the opportunity to think over the future's demands. Tough-mindedness, obviously, will have its usual and important place. But we owe it to ourselves and to our children not to get stamped into positions that are merely comfortable or viewpoints that are merely stuffy. Our high and unchanging principles of government have stood with us through good times and bad, and they have certainly demonstrated that we need not fear enthusiasm or be intolerant of fresh air. Our lives and our position in the world today demonstrate the same thing.

Not a single cracked egg since Chevy took over the route

That '60 Fleetside pickup you see takes whatever kind of road comes along, and makes about 250 stops a day delivering eggs house to house for Mr. Harry Hansen of Missoula, Montana. "With my previous truck," Mr. Hansen writes, "I always had some cracked eggs. Cargo damage always cut into my profits. But the new Chevy eliminated that problem completely. I haven't had one cracked egg with my new truck and I've had up to a ton of eggs in it without any difficulty. . . . I didn't know a truck could ride so nice."

Chevy rides nice, all right; takes good care of fragile cargoes. But that's not even the half of it. Torston-spring suspension also means longer life for the truck, extra thousands of working miles, because the sheet metal and body components take less of a beating. You can run off-road or over back trails at faster safe speeds, too; get in more trips a day, make more money. Those facts are as true of the big Chevrolet heavyweights as they are of the pickups. Any model you name. Get one on your job and you've got the world's most efficient, most economical way to haul any load over any road. Your dealer will be happy to prove that statement any day you say.

"I'm getting close to 20 miles to the gallon," Mr. Hansen states, "and that's on stop-and-go delivery."

Democrats may be secretly planning to make the weekly editors pay for their shiny, new world. Unhappy Democrat

J. Claude Wells of the Memphis Democrat had the following to say about the convention:

Another death that should be of much concern all over America and in various countries of the world occurred at Los Angeles last night. The death victim was the Democratic party, the principles of which were enunciated by Thomas Jefferson. In its stead an element headed by radical ultra-liberals bullheadedly ran roughshod and now we are all helpless orphans.

tically everything, including freedoms, in federal control and doing away with rights of states and individuals, and surely would give Walter Reuther free rein.

Where does it leave the millions of Americans who have always looked upon the Democrat party as protector of human rights and states rights? Where does it leave the Southern states after being overrun with civil rights planks that take away all our freedoms? The Republicans would also take away all Southern states rights, and now we are all helpless orphans.

BELL MONUMENT

Sam Houston was converted and baptized in Rocky Creek in 1854, 18 years before they built the old Baptist church that now stands at Independence, in Central Texas.

A monument stone on the bell tower by the church reads, "She sleeps within its sound." Reference is to Mrs. Nancy Lea, mother of Houston's wife. She donated her silver service to be melted into the bell.

The tower was erected with stones from the ruins of the original Baylor building. Judge Baylor's heartstone is said to be included in the tower.

Some of the late model automobiles contain more than 100 parts made of Butyl rubber, a synthetic product which won widespread acceptance in the manufacture of inner tubes because of its ability to hold air 16 times better than natural rubber.

The oil industry uses some nine and one-half tons of steel for every 1,000 feet of hole drilled.

Founded in 1775, the U. S. Marine Corps was developed to serve on land or sea.

Self-made men should be more careful in selecting the materials they use.

LARGE METEORITE
 One of the world's largest meteorites lies about two miles west and six miles south of Odessa, in the far western portion of Texas. The great meteor, a mass of iron, nickel and various other metals, rests 170 feet deep in a 10-acre pit.

This great visitors from outer space is estimated to have fallen to earth thousands of years ago.

BLOWIN' Out the CORNERS In Uncle Zeb

Thank you, Mr. K., for the introduction to the Real You. Of course we had met you before, even way back in the days when you were only a director in the divide, disrupt and destroy dynasty of the late dictator Stalin.

We met you again as you took over the ruling whip and proceeded with the Communist idea of selling its brand of slavery to the rest of the world.

We saw you first-hand when you visited our country recently. For several days you were in the middle of our television screens and upon the pages of our newspaper as you smiled and bowed your way across our land. Your eagerness to see our countryside, and your expressions of friendship seemed to be in conflict with the You we had met earlier and some of our people were made to wonder if deep down on the inside there might be some traits in your make-up that were worth cultivating. We Americans are peculiar in that we always want to give everyone the benefit of the doubt.

But, at the summit meeting you introduced us to the Real You. We are sorry that you are like that, but we are thankful for your showing us your true colors before we were any deeper involved in your little game of hiding behind the olive branch.

You showed up plain that in your world there are only two ways: your way and the right way. You made us dead sure that we want to stick closer to that right way. You caused us to value as more precious than ever the friendship of those who have proved that they are on the right side. You have drawn us closer to our friends. Thank you again for shocking us into opening our eyes and seeing the Real You.

ARE YOU MR. AVERAGE?

The danger of being average.

By J. L. Mayhall
Pastor, Church of the Nazarene

"Everybody is doing it" becomes a universal cloak for choking and murdering one's conscience. "Can everybody be wrong?" is a question that cuts the vital nerve of moral action. Because everybody drinks, smokes, desecrates the Sabbath, lies, steals and violates the seventh commandment, does that make it right? It does not. A chameleon adjusts to any environment—it conforms to the color and atmosphere of its surroundings. Immoral and non-spiritual chameleons have no place in the kingdom of Christ.

Jesus said, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: because strait is the gate and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." Matt. 7:13, 14

"Mercy Mission"

General Alfred M. Gruenther (U.S.A. Ret.), President of the American Red Cross, watches truck and delivery to Chilean Red Cross for earthquake relief work there. Truck, gift of Volkswagen dealers of the United States, will be used to move emergency shelter materials into quake-ravaged areas which now are being hit by winter weather. Presentation of the vehicle at Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland, was made to General Gruenther in behalf of VW dealers. Standing next to General Gruenther is Roy R. Rubottom, Jr., Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs (foreground) and Walter Mueller, Chilean ambassador to the United States (behind Mr. Rubottom). Vehicle's 1,850-pound payload and ability to travel over rugged terrain earned it top priority for Air Force mercy mission to Chile.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 3, 1960.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 8 proposing an Amendment to Section 11, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to give the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest, fix maximum rates of interest, and provide for a maximum rate of interest of ten per centum (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation setting maximum rates of interest; providing that the rate of interest shall not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum in contracts where no interest rate is agreed upon; providing for the right of appeal and trial de novo in the event any regulatory agency cancels or refuses to grant any permit; providing for the necessary legislation and the form of the bill; and providing for the necessary proclamation and publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 11, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 11. The Legislature shall have authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and fix maximum rates of interest; provided, however, in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest all contracts for a greater rate of interest than ten per centum (10%) per annum shall be deemed usurious; provided, further, that in contracts where no rate of interest is agreed upon, the rate shall not exceed six per centum (6%) per annum. Should any regulatory agency, acting under the provisions of this Section, cancel or refuse to grant any permit under any law passed by the Legislature, then such applicant or holder shall have the right of appeal to the courts and granted a trial de novo as that term is used in appealing from the Justice of Peace court to the county court."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1960, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment giving the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and fix maximum rates of interest; and providing for a maximum rate of interest of ten per centum (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment giving the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and fix maximum rates of interest; and providing for a maximum rate of interest of ten per centum (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

IT HAPPENED HERE

40 Years Ago—

Baby Drowns in Tub
Little Andrew Charles, eight months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stokes of four miles northwest of town, was drowned in a tub of water early Sunday morning.

A tub almost full of water had been left in one of the bedrooms, and while the mother was cooking breakfast and Mr. Stokes was at the barn feeding the stock, the little one, who was just learning to walk, made his way to the tub, fell into the water and was drowned. He was found within a few minutes, but all efforts to revive him were without success.

Go as Missionaries
Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Moore and children of Hartwell, Ga., came in Monday to visit the lady's mother, Mrs. J. T. Foster. They will sail the 7th of August for China to do missionary work. Rev. Moore preached at the Baptist church Wednesday evening.

Amarillo Fire Puts McLean Man Out of Business
Sunday morning there was a fire in the plant of the City Light and Water Co. at Amarillo which made them shut for several hours, and when service was resumed it was on a restricted basis.

S. Bowen, local ice dealer, has been temporarily out of business all this week, as he had been depending on the Amarillo concern to supply his trade, and was unable to secure any from any other places.

The damage done by the fire has been repaired well enough that work can be resumed and Mr. Bowen hopes to have another car of ice in a day or two.

Sims-Bullock
At the home of the bride's uncle, Arthur Erwin, on Tuesday evening, Miss Eunice Bullock and Mr. Leslie Sims were united in marriage. Rev. Bones, Presbyterian pastor, officiated.

Miss Floye Glass and Mr. Erwin Rice preceded the bride and groom, Miss Glass going to the piano and playing that favorite wedding march composed by Mendelssohn. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Mabel Watkins, and the best man, Mr. Hanson of Clarendon, followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Hanson of Clarendon, escorted by Mr. Robert Turner.

Each girl was beautifully dressed and carried a large bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Eunice is the daughter of Mrs. C. C. Bullock of Cisco. She came here when a small girl and attended McLean High School, from which institution she was graduated.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dab Sims of south of town. He served overseas during the late war, and for gallantry in action was decorated with the Distinguished Service Cross, French Croix de Guerre with palm, and the Medal Militaire, which latter is the highest decoration the French government confers on an enlisted man.

After the ceremony was over, the guests were invited into the dining room, where an ice course was served.

Mrs. Boyett Entertains
On Friday evening of last week Mrs. S. E. Boyett entertained her Sunday school class very pleasantly with a social at her home in the northwest part of town. About 30 young people were present, as each member of the class was per-
