Temperature Drops; Low Of 30 Degrees Recorded

RAINFALL SINCE SATURDAY AT 3.22 INCHES

Blanket-grabbing weather moved into McLean Wednesday on the heels of 4 1/2 days of rain, and temperatures are expected to sink even lower before beginning to rise.

A wintry 30-degree low was recorded here this morning as fall weather took a firm grip.

A freeze warning had been issued Wednesday afternoon for the Panhandle and High Plains, areas with temperatures of 28 degrees forecast last night in some portions.

3.22 Inches of Rain

Soggy skies deposited an official 3.22 inches of rain on McLean in the period beginning last Saturday morning and ending at Wednesday noon.

Late Wednesday afternoon the skies were clear and city streets were beginning to dry out.

Last Saturday's rainfall amounted to an even half-inch, according to records of Pete Fulbright, local weather observer.

A trace was recorded Sunday, and the skies opened up again Monday to add 1.5 inches more. Tuesday the gauge showed .6 inch and before the clearing began Wednesday another .62 inch had fallen.

30.22 for Year

The 3.22 inches brought the total precipitation for 1960 to 30.22, compared with 23.99 at this same date last year.

The mercury dropped to 40 degrees at 10:35 a. m. Wednesday for the lowest reading of the season—before this morning's low mark.

Thursday and Friday shared the high temperature mark for the past week, 82 degrees.

Weather records for the week:

HOUSE BURNS IN ALANREED

Fire destroyed the home of Alanreed School Supt. James W. Waller early last Saturday morning and damaged the school gymnasium before being subdued by McLean firemen and Alanreed volunteers.

McLean firefighters were called to the scene two times during the early-morning hours—the first shortly after midnight and the second at about 4 a. m.

Fire Chief Boyd Meador said Tuesday the cause of the blaze had not been determined.

Waller, alone in the house, said he awoke about midnight and believed he heard someone. It was then that he discovered the house was afire the first time.

The superintendent and persons living nearby extinguished the blaze and McLean firemen checked to make certain the flames were out.

House in Flames

Then at about 4 a. m. Waller awoke again to find the house in flames. He was forced to crawl through a window to escape injury.

However, the superintendent went back into the house in an effort to save clothing and furniture.

He was able to grab some clothes belonging to his daughter, Becky, before being forced outside again. Miss Waller was reaching the night with Nancy Meacham in McLean.

The Alanreed school gymnasium, located near Waller's home, caught fire and damage was reported heavy.

News Erred; Board Didn't Vote Boost

The McLean News erroneously reported in a headline last week that the city commission had voted to increase garbage rates.

Actually, no vote was taken on the action, since a motion was not required. The governing board instructed City Manager B. J. Mc Cartney to put into effect an ordinance adopted in 1946.

That ordinance, which had never been enforced, set the rates as they are now in effect—residences, 50 cents; rooming houses, $1; apartment houses, $1.50; and business establishments, $2.

Green Attends Meet

Bob Green, McLean High School principal, returned Tuesday night from a meeting of the Texas Secondary School Principals Association in Dallas.

The session began last Saturday.

Fire Prevention Poster, Theme Winners Listed

McLean Grade School and Junior High students put their best fire-prevention ideas forward last week, and it was a profitable venture for many.

Forty-two of the youngsters collected cash for their efforts in a special assembly program Friday which brought to an end the annual Fire Prevention Week observance.

They received a total of $41 in prize money from the Lions Club and fire department, which jointly sponsored the yearly poster-making and theme-writing competition.

First, second and third-place winners and first-grade students also were taken on a ride around town on McLean's three firetrucks—all with sirens wailing.

Displays Judged

Judging of the posters in the first six grades and themes in the seventh and eighth was completed Friday morning by three judges—Mrs. Jack Riley, Mrs. Wheeler Carter and Jack Shelton.

Fire-prevention displays in each of the rooms also were checked by the judges to determine which student group would receive the trophy awarded each year by Boyd Meador, McLean fire chief.

It was decided by the panel that Mrs. Sinclair Armstrong's split first and second grade room for three months, then go to Miss Leona Forbes' third grade the next three months and finally be placed

Trailer Catches Fire

McLean volunteer firemen were summoned two miles east of town late Tuesday afternoon to extinguish a trailer blaze.

The two-wheel trailer, being pulled behind a pickup truck, had broken loose from the vehicle, overturned and caught fire, according to Fire Chief Boyd Meador.

BILL GOLDSTON FFA PRESIDENT

Bill Goldston was elected president of the McLean High School Future Farmers of America during a chapter meeting Monday night.

Vice president is Skip Willoughby; secretary, Don Woods; treasurer, Eddie Kunkel; reporter, Jim Butrum, and sentinel, Lewis Money.

Plans for participating in the Sears Foundation "Pig Circle" were announced during the meeting.

The foundation furnishes $109 to the chapter to start a "Pig Circle." Under the project, three gilts will be purchased for three chapter members.

Each of these youths will in turn give one gilt back to the chapter from the first litter of pigs, and thus each year three FFA boys will receive gilts.

Goldston and another member of the chapter, Ernie McCracken, Monday night reported on the national FFA convention they attended last week in Kansas City. They returned Saturday.

Members of the local chapter made plans to install FFA "welcome" signs on each side of town, and another sign is to be erected at the vocational agriculture building.

It was announced that the "greenhand" initiation for freshman chapter members will be held at 7:30 p. m. next Monday in the agriculture building.

Mrs. Opal L. Davis Dies in Accident

Mrs. Davis, who was 56, lived in the Abra community near Dozier and was a former McLean resident. She was pronounced dead on arrival at Shamrock General Hospital.

Her husband, Chelo A. Davis, 57, was reported in serious condition at the Shamrock hospital.

Baptist Minister Resigns

Rev. Jesse Leonard, pastor of the McLean First Baptist Church, has resigned to accept a call from the Seventh and Main Baptist Church in Bonham.

The resignation is effective on Nov. 15.

Rev. Leonard, who came to McLean from Turkey in March, 1957, announced his decision to resign before the First Baptist congregation last Sunday morning.

He will conduct a week of revival services at the Bonham church starting Sunday, and his farewell sermon at the local church is scheduled on Nov. 13.

A native of Mobeetie, Rev. Leonard has been in the ministry since September, 1951. Before coming to McLean, he was pastor of the Turkey First Baptist Church for 2 1/2 years.

Prior to that he served the Leslie Baptist Church 1 1/2 years.

He attended Wayland Baptist College in Plainview.

Rev. Leonard said he feels "it is the Lord's will that I go to Bonham at this time."

Tentative plans call for the dedication of the First Baptist Church's new sanctuary on Rev. Leonard's final Sunday as pastor.

The new building, now under construction just west of the present sanctuary on U. S. 66, was started last summer after the church voted to issue $100,000 in six per cent revenue bonds.

Remodeling of the old sanctuary is planned following completion of the new building. The present structure will be used as an educational building.

Since Rev. Leonard's arrival in McLean, the church's budget has been increased from $10,945 in 1956 to nearly $29,000 the past

BROOM SALE IS WEDNESDAY

Rainy weather forced postponement this week of the Lions Club annual broom sale to next Wednesday, according to President Sammy Haynes.

Haynes said the sale was to have been held Tuesday afternoon following the club's regular semi-monthly meeting. However, wet weather forced a postponement.

The sale will begin Wednesday at 1 p. m. The truck load of brooms and other household products from the Lions' factory in Tulsa, Okla., will be parked in the vacant lot on Main Street, between Callahan's Plumbing and Gift Shop and Williams Appliances.

At their meeting Tuesday, Lions were entertained by a McLean High School girls quartet under the direction of Jim Boyd, band and music director.

Lion Hickman Brown announced that Christmas cards for the club's project to benefit the crippled children's camp have arrived.

Two boxes of cards will be distributed to each Lion, who may buy or sell the cards. Proceeds will be used in the operation of the crippled children's camp.

Brown discussed the importance of the camp, pointing out that 720 Texas children—either crippled, blind, deaf or mute—used the facilities last summer without charge.

Bengals Journey To Memphis Next

Clipped by a narrow 24-20 score in their first District 2-A season outing last week, the McLean High School Tigers face another conference foe Friday night when they travel to Memphis.

Game time in Memphis will be 7:30 p. m.

Tickets on Sale For P-TA Plays Friday, Oct. 28

Reserve seat tickets went on sale this week for the two P-TA plays scheduled for Oct. 28 in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Spencer Sitter, director of "Wilbur's Wild Night"—one of the one-act comedies—said tickets may be obtained from her or from any member of the casts.

Curtain time for the first play—"Murder, They Say"—will be 8 p. m. Friday, Oct. 28. "Wilbur's Wild Night" will follow after a brief intermission.

Tickets for the reserve seats, located in the front 12 rows of the auditorium, will be $1 each. General admission is to be 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children. (See PLAYS, Page 5)

D. (Sonny) Back, Mrs. Clyde Magee and Mrs. Merle Norman. The two one-act comedies—"Murder, They Say" and "Wilbur's Wild Night"—are scheduled for the high school auditorium at 8 p. m. Oct. 28. Coach Derral Davis is expected to use about the same Tiger lineup Friday against the Memphis Cyclone as he sent against the Canadian Wildcats last week.

Watson Shines

It was Watson who last week turned in the most sensational run of the night for the Tigers.

The hard-charging halfback intercepted a Canadian pass on the McLean five-yard line late in the final period and scampered all the way—95 yards—to score.

The extra points added by Willingham pushed McLean close to Canadian's score, but the locals were unable to muster up another touchdown in the remaining two minutes and 32 seconds.

The Wildcats had jumped to an early lead with a TD in each of the first two quarters before McLean could start rolling.

27-Yard Pass

Willingham passed to Woods in a play that covered 27 yards to put McLean on the scoreboard for the first time 2:02 before the half-time rest.

The extra-point try failed, and Canadian marched back to score again to take an 18-12 lead at the half.

A fired-up Tiger eleven went right to work as the third period opened.

Herron led the determined march downfield by flashing from his own 35 to Canadian's 20. Then he took a pass from Willingham and carried to the seven, and from

TIGER CUBS GET SLIM WIN, NIP CANADIAN FOR NO. 17

By DON STEWART

On Oct. 13 the McLean Junior High Cubs played Canadian. We won by a slim score of 14-6 to give us our 17th straight victory without a defeat.

We got the ball on fourth down and held it for two first downs, but we lost it on fourth down.

Dickie Crockett made our first TD, but try for extra point was unsuccessful.

We got the ball on fourth down after a punt and Crockett ran it from our 40 to their 30. Jim Parrish made our second TD, and Crockett added the extra points to make the score 14-0.

On the opening kickoff of the third quarter Parrish ran from our five to 33. We lost the ball on fourth down on a blocked punt on our 10.

Canadian then a few plays later made a TD, but try for extra points was unsuccessful.

Livestock Can Also Have Foot Trouble

COLLEGE STATION—(Special)—During the cold, wet weather ahead, farmers and ranchers should be on the lookout for limping cattle.

Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian, says that limping is one of the first signs of foot rot, a livestock disease that often develops during fall and winter.

The disease, which causes a raw condition similar to "athlete's foot," can spread rapidly through a herd. Foot rot is caused by an organism which gets its start when the feet of cattle become softened and damaged in wet, muddy lots and pastures, Dr. Patterson continues.

If treatment is begun early, the problem can usually be cleared up. The veterinarian will usually have to trim away the infected tissue before he can apply medication.

Farmers can help prevent the disease by keeping livestock away from pools of stagnant water and water-logged lots. Areas around water and feed troughs should also be kept clean and dry, Dr. Patterson concludes.

Properly fertilized and inoculated legumes are literally on-the-farm nitrogen factories. But if non-inoculated legumes are planted in soil that contains no nitrogen-fixing bacteria, no nitrogen will be fixed. Make sure, says R. J. Hodges, extension agronomist, the legume seed you plant are inoculated. Most seed and farm supplies have inoculants for sale, but check the container label to be sure it's the type you need.

DEAR ROMEO AND JULIET

Dear Romeo and Juliet:

I have been going with a girl for about a year now. But, since school started I have noticed a change in her personality. She never associates with any of the girls or boys she was friendly with last year. I can't imagine what is making her this way. She says she thinks they are childish. I don't think so myself because I still like them and they are the only close friends I have. I like this girl very much, but if she thinks our crowd isn't mature enough, then she must think the same of me. I still want to go with her but I don't want to lose all my friends because of her. Will you please help me with this problem.

Distressed

Dear Distressed:

I agree with you that the girl probably has the same opinion of you and if I were you, I would probably forget the girl because she seems, from what you have said, to be the kind of person who wants everything to go the way she wants it, and this kind of person is not the best kind to associate with. If you really like your friends and she thinks she cannot like them any more, take your friends instead. If she thinks this about your friends now she'll probably be that way always unless she likes you well enough to accept your friends.

Romeo

Dear Distressed:

Evidently the girl thinks she is better than your age group. The best thing you can do is to break up with her, and keep on running around with your friends. After a few weeks of separation, she will find out that she is not near as grown-up as she thought she was.

Juliet

I like most of my classes this year and most of my teachers. Do you think that it is fair for us to sit in fourth period study hall all period without saying a word? I think you should be able to talk to each other before the bell rings at least as soon as everyone is through with their lessons. So, do you think it is right for us to sit all period in total silence?

Unfair

Dear Unfair:

NO! I do not think it is fair for you to have to sit in study hall all period without saying a word. You are right that you sometimes should be able to talk, but I think that this time is when you need to get help with your lessons from other students. I personally think that your study hall teacher is being very unreasonable.

Romeo

I believe that you and your grades will greatly benefit by remaining in total silence during your study hall. In all study halls you find some students who want to study, but how can they when everyone is busy talking? I am sure that you could find something to do (other than talking) to occupy yourself for one hour.

Juliet

Dear Unfair:

I have a very good friend who always wants to do something different from what everyone else wants to do. It really doesn't always matter so much, but at times when something special is happening and he wants to do something else, I, and our other friends, will not do, he often acts like it makes him mad. What would you suggest?

Wondering

Dear Wondering:

Your friend is not what I would call a friend. If this person were really your friend he would not be the way he is. You and your other friends should tell him that you think he should give way at times and not always have to have his way. If he will not do this just ignore him and do what everyone else is doing if you want to, and if he really wants your friendship I think he will begin to conform with what you and your friends want to do. I do not think this person is your friend, or ever was if he is not willing to do what you and your other friends want to do at times, and if he is not willing to do this I think you would really be better off without his so-called friendship.

Romeo

Dear Wondering:

The dictionary defines friend as "one who cherishes kind regard to another person." Are you sure this person is your friend? Friend or not, I think he is acting very childish. Your best bet would be to do what you want to do, and let your friend do what he wants to do.

Those serving on the Republican committee are as follows: Janie Page, Mary Ann Carter, Becky Walker, Alta June Watson, Jeanene Shelton, Mary McClellan, Carole Jean Boston, Kenny Williamson, George Patton and Doug Crockett.

The Republican slogan is "NIXON, NIXON, he's our man, if he can't do it, then Lodge can, LODGE, LODGE, he's our man, if he can't do it, then nobody can."

Doug Crockett will represent Mr. Nixon, and Beck Waller will represent Mr. Lodge in the rally (which will take place before everyone votes).

NANCY, JACK PERSONALITY KING, QUEEN

Monday was a big day in MHS for all-school favorites and class favorites were elected. Nancy Meacham and Jack Back were elected Personality King and Queen.

Miss Meacham is an active senior student. Nancy boosts the morale of the Tigers each Friday night while serving as head cheerleader. This is Nancy's second year as cheerleader.

Band is another activity she is vividly interested in. This vivacious, tall, attractive brunette is always willing when needed by friends and school personnel.

Much of her time this year is spent at annual staff meetings. Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Meacham are the proud parents of this young girl.

Jack Back, fairly stout in stature, is another "Napoleon" as far as the senior class is concerned. Jack is president of the senior class, active FBLA member and a member of the band, and you can see him clicking away most any time, for he is photographer for the annual staff.

Jack is also FHA beau this year. The senior class elected Winnie Martindale and Jack Back as their most popular two; the juniors' pow-wow came up with Phyllis Flowers and Jimmy Kingston as favorites; a lengthy debate in the sophomore class ended with Jeanine Lowe and Joel Meacham on top; the freshman class selected Susan Blackwell and Ernie McCracken as their favorites.

Congratulations are in order for all of these people. Other favorites were elected, but these names will not be disclosed until the 1961 Tumbleweed is published.

Jack Back had the floor for the review, and soon all members were bagged deep down in the fundamentals of parliamentary procedure. The only ones familiar with it were the FFA members.

Barney Pool and Doyal Billingsley assisted Jack in the argument of certain points. It was suggested by Dennis Roach that the club revert to an absolute monarchy and therefore eliminate the need for voting.

FBLA Chapter Has Procedure Session

McLean chapter of FBLA found it necessary to call a special meeting Monday, Oct. 10, at 7 p. m. The meeting was called by President Gordin for the purpose of having the basics of parliamentary procedure reviewed. Only the senior members were present.

The Students Speak

By RUTH PAKAN

"Rebel—Without a Cause?" an editorial which appeared in the last edition of the Tiger Post, caused much controversy.

A few parents commented that they thought the basis was unfounded. The editorialist agrees that this is true with some parents. It was written with the hope that if the "shoe fits, wear it."

Naturally, the teenagers cherished every word concerning the "understanding that should be received from parents." However, it is hoped that the teenage readers did not misconstrue the content to imagine the editorialist assuming that the majority of the teenagers were not receiving this basic need now.

Most tragic Labor Day holiday in recent Texas history was recorded in 1951, when 46 persons died during the 72-hour holiday weekend.

Thursday, Oct. 20, 1960 Pg. 3

It is the objective of the editorial section to stimulate and motivate critical thinking on the part of its readers. If this has been done—good.

Students continually voice opinion. Let's see what they think about the expansion of words in the last edition of the Tiger Post.

I think it was very good. I believe it is good for the teenagers to express their views on the attitude of their parents toward themselves. It was very well written and truthful. Signed by ??

I thought it was very well written and very truthful. ??

I thought that last week's editorial was stated very well. It was very true to what parents are like today. I think we should have more editorials like that one. Doug Crockett.

I thought that the last week's editorial was very good. A "Teenage Rebel" is sometimes caused by exactly that type of thing. But then again it is not always true. This editorial could be easily misunderstood. I only hope that the teenagers' parents did not do this.

Bake Sale Is Held By McLean's FBLA

By FRANK YEARWOOD

Saturday, Oct. 8, the FBLA Club held a bake sale at Meacham's Hardware.

All FBLA members brought two pies, a cake or $2. Most of the pledges were present except a few who were excused because of working elsewhere.

The bake sale started at 8:30 a. m. and by 11 a. m. everything was sold. Mrs. Jack Riley, the FBLA sponsor, and Dennis Roach, FBLA treasurer, were there to see that the sale ran smoothly.

According to Mrs. Riley, the bake sale netted about $60.

CROCKETT ON GRID SQUAD IN COLORADO

Billy Crockett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Crockett, McLean, showed he still has the football prowess that won him fame here a couple of years ago in a recent game in Colorado.

Crockett, a sophomore at Colorado College, played in fine form in a recent game against St. Mary's of the Plains of Dodge City, Kan. The Colorado College Tigers won that contest, 33-13, for their second victory of the season.

Crockett's best effort in that encounter—a 56-yard touchdown gallop—was nullified by a clipping penalty.

The McLean youth, who was an all-district back in 1958, powered his way through 10 of the 11 defenders and went the full 56 yards for the TD.

But the clipping penalty cancelled the action.

Films later showed, however, that the alleged clipping was a legal block and that 10 men had a shot at Crockett on his run.

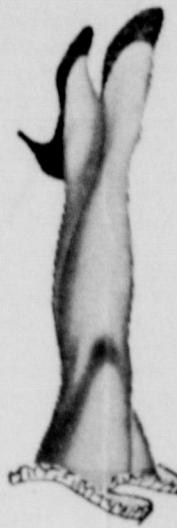

At one time, Crockett ran right out of the arms of a tackler who wouldn't stop him because of the McLeanite's powerful leg action.

Three dependables
Pharmacists, and physicians accept as part of their lives some odd working hours. That's because sickness, like fire, doesn't work a short day. We stay open longer than most stores because our important job is helping to fight sickness.
We're also pretty handy when you need a host of nonmedicinal things. But the main thing is that we're usually around when your doctor and you need pharmaceutical service.

The first bale of cotton to be ginned by the new gin was turned out Saturday for L. A. Kalka of the Sitter ranch neighborhood. The bale was bought by June Reynolds for 18 cents per pound.

Proper Dressing of Deer and Fish Told

AUSTIN—(Special)—If you don't know how to dress out a buck or fillet a fish, then you'll be interested in the October issue of the Texas Game and Fish magazine.

This is the official publication of the Game and Fish Commission and carries information about the work of the game department in all areas.

The method of dressing a deer is fully illustrated in line drawings, showing all steps to be taken in field dressing and finally cutting out the animal for the freezer. The drawings were made by Nancy McGowan, staff artist for the magazine.

Other articles in the October issue include a story by J. Frank Dobie on the paisano bird, a picture story on the total fish kill on Lake Sweetwater, and pictures from the white-wing dove hunt in the Rio Grande Valley area.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Callahan Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Williamson and Billy of Spearman.

Some tourists had been thrilled with the beauty of the giant redwoods on a trip up the coast of California, and could hardly wait to compare notes with friends who had taken the trip earlier.

"Weren't the redwood trees awesome?" they exclaimed. The friends looked blank. "Trees?" said the wife in perplexity. Then she added brightly, "That must have been the day we did 600 miles."

Whether you're doing 600 miles or six, be sure to drive in our station and let us service your car before you leave.

This Is Your Life' Program Is Feature Of P-TA Meeting

"This Is Your Life—Jack Riley" was presented to the McLean P-TA Wednesday, Oct. 12.

Champions are made at home—not in the show ring. Whether or not your animal is in good condition and performs well before the judge depends on the feed, care and training given weeks before the show. A copy of L-302 "Score Card for Fitting and Showmanship" should be in the hands of every junior making plans to exhibit dairy animals at any of the fall fairs. Ask the county agent for one.

Mrs. Guy Hester was in charge of the program, assisted by the following students who played Riley, principal of McLean Grade School, at various ages:

Hickman Brown III, at age 4; Becky Orrick, at age 5; Skipper Dwight, beginning school; Bryan Parker, football star at Lake Side High; Eddy Windom, Mrs. Riley as a bride, and Stephanie Riley as herself.

Preceding the program, Mrs. Guy Beasley, president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Troy Corbin, secretary, read the minutes, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Jim Hathaway.

It was announced by the publications chairman, Mrs. Richard Back, that the Parent-Teacher magazine had been placed on the magazine shelf at Lovett Memorial Library to be used by anyone who may need material.

Mrs. Spencer Sitter announced that two one-act plays will be presented Oct. 28 as the P-TA money-raising project for this year. The membership chairman, Mrs. George Saunders, reported that 128 memberships had been sold this year.

Mrs. Bob Ayres gave a report on the workshop held in Wheeler Oct. 11.

Mrs. Vera Back's room won the room count.

CITY COUNCIL HAS MEETING

Guests included Gene Barber and Don Lane of Pampa, Toby Williams, Mmes. John Hatfield and O. O. Bishop.

Mrs. Bishop was present to clarify with Toby Williams the location of the city park and to turn the deed of the property over to the city.

Don Lane, attorney from Pampa, was engaged to handle the legal work of taking the property by the city council for the city.

The council agreed to cut out all summer rates on water in the future, which will be only a slight increase in individual citizens' water bills in the summer months.

The law firm of Barber and Jones, Pampa, was engaged by the city council to equalize tax evaluation. Gene Barber represented the firm at the meeting and explained the procedure.

Rental on alleys for the power, gas and water companies is to be increased by the city from two per cent to three and one-half per cent.

Fire Prevention Week was climaxed with open house held at the fire station Saturday and Sunday, with approximately 75 persons calling to inspect the fire equipment, fire prevention displays and fire posters drawn by students.

the displays, but did not hamper the spirit of the firemen in showing them off.

PROBLEM IS 'AGREEABLE' FOR THE SCD

Increasing interest in the Great Plains Conservation Program is creating a problem described as "agreeable" by the Gray County Soil Conservation District.

The rise in interest is attributed to two things, according to the district:

1. The increase in the number of Great Plains Program plans.
2. The number of mechanical practices now being installed under the program.

John B. Rapsine, who operates three-quarters of a section six miles northeast of Groom, has just completed some diversion terraces under the program.

The land is owned by Dr. R. E. Mohler of Kansas.

Dr. Mohler signed a three-year plan under GPCP last July. The three miles of diversion terraces recently finished will stop erosion on 400 acres of cropland.

Under the GPCP, personnel of the Soil Conservation Service assist Gray County SCD supervisors in working out a complete conservation plan for a farm or ranch.

This is done either with the owner or operator who has legal control for the period covered by the plan.

After the complete plan has been worked out, SCS personnel discuss it with the farmer or rancher, who decided which portions he would like to undertake each year.

A plan is worked out in such a manner that the farmer or rancher will have no trouble in getting the conservation job completed in the time specified.

A GPCP plan can be signed for not less than three years nor more than 10.

Gray County SCD supervisors report they have found the program to be a most beneficial one that the average farmer and rancher can easily comply with.

There are 24 items covered under the program, any of which may be included in any one plan. Some of the most important items include:

Terraces, ponds, water wells, fencing, brush control, grass seeding and irrigation systems.

Cost share up to 80 per cent can be obtained under the program without affecting the acreage allotments or regular operations of a farm.

Farmers and ranchers interested in further information about the Great Plains Conservation Program were invited to contact the SCS, county agent or members of the county SCD board of supervisors.

Attending the Fall Presbyterial at Clarendon at the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday were Mesdames T. A. Massay, Kenneth McCall, Dale Glass, C. O. Goodman, Raymond Glass, T. E. Crisp, E. J. Windom Jr., John B. Rice, Claude Powell, Jess Kemp, F. E. Hambricht, all of McLean, and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bourland of Newburg, Ore.

SPEAKING OF CARDS

"ON A DAY LIKE THIS, THESE CLUBS ARE MORE RELAXING."

Because of the expanding population, it has become almost impossible to find public land to hunt on. If you are refused permission to hunt on someone's farm or ranch, it is probably because of discourteous or irresponsible actions of some hunter before you.

Ed Cooper, extension wildlife specialist, says that courtesy and responsibility on the part of the hunter is the best way to keep available hunting areas open.

14 Rural Accidents Occur in September

A total of 14 rural accidents were investigated in Gray County in the month of September, according to a report from Sgt. E. G. Albers, Highway Patrol supervisor for this area.

No one was killed in the mishaps, but 20 persons were injured and property damaged amounted to $8,540.

Thus far in 1960 one person has met death in Gray County auto accidents, while 108 others have been injured. Property damage for the year is estimated at $100,770.

Sgt. Albers pointed out that traffic accidents increase during October's shorter days and longer nights. He urged motorists to make a habit of turning on their driving lights at the first hint of dusk and always use them properly.

FARMERS' 'BILL OF RIGHTS' PREPARED BY DEM CANDIDATE

AUSTIN—(Special)—A real farm program to guarantee farmers their fair share of the national income is the goal of Democratic candidates and the Democratic Party, a Texas farm leader and public official declared this week.

"And we will reach that goal once we get a Democratic administration led by John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson to work with a Democratic Congress after Jan. 1,"

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, assistant Texas Democratic campaign director, emphasized.

Sen. Kennedy's farm program calls for "parity of income which gives average producers a return on their invested capital, labor and management equal to that for comparable resources in non-farm employment."

White, who also serves as chairman of the Texas Farmers for Kennedy-Johnson Committee, pointed out following the Kennedy farm statement that "for the first time in eight long years farmers will have an administration in Washington that offers whole-hearted support and sympathetic understanding instead of adroit opposition to the farmer and his problems."

"For the first time in eight long years, our Texas farmers and others over the nation will be able to look to an administration in Washington determined to use all resources of government to preserve the small, family-type farm which has been the foundation of our agricultural economy," White continued.

"I am convinced that Sen. Kennedy is dedicated to his bill of rights for American farmers. This bill of rights carries 10 points which get right down to the root-plant issues, in Sen. Kennedy's own words:

1. A fair share of the national income is the right of every farmer.
2. The family farm, preserved and promoted, is the right of every farmer.
3. Local farmer responsibility for farm policy decisions is the right of every farmer.
4. Farmer bargaining power through protective price supports, loans, commodity agreements and marketing orders is the right of every farmer.
5. Conservation assistance to help him save land, water and forest resources is the right of every farmer.
6. Low cost credit is the right of every farmer.
7. Scientific protection against plant disease and pestilence is the right of every farmer.
8. An expanded cooperative movement to help farmers escape the cost-price squeeze is the right of every farmer.
9. An expanded REA, with low rates, is the right of every farmer.

COMMEMORATIVE STAMPS: Celebrating the centennial of the ratification of the first Treaty of Amity and Commerce between the United States and Japan, both countries have issued commemorative stamps for public sale. The 10-yen Japanese stamp (upper left) depicts the "Kanrin Maru" which accompanied the USS "Powhattan" bearing the first Japanese diplomatic mission to the United States. The 30-yen stamp (lower left) depicts the embassy being greeted by President James Buchanan at the White House on May 17, 1860. The four-cent U. S. stamp shows the famous Japanese cherry blossoms in Washington, D. C., with the Washington Monument in the background. It is engraved in pink and blue and was designed by Miss Gyo Fujikawa of New York, an American citizen of Japanese parentage.

Not once in 14 years has the Texas Labor Day traffic death list dropped below 23. The only other year in which the Labor Day toll was less than 27 was 1949, when the total was 23.

Deadliest single day among all three-day Labor Day holidays in Texas traffic since 1945 was Sunday, Sept. 3, 1950, when 23 persons were killed in 17 fatal crashes that day alone.
