Miss Billie Sue Pettit, daughter of W. V. Pettit, and Chalmus Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moore, were united in marriage Saturday, January 30, at Clovis, N. M.

Rev. J. R. Bantz, minister of the Trinity Methodist Church of Clovis, read the double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gray street length dress with navy blue accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Moore is a graduate of McLean High School, and was employed by the City of McLean. Mr. Moore also attended schools in McLean.

The couple is at home in the Cubine apartments.

The annual city election, in which three members of the city council will be chosen by the voters, has been called by the present council for Tuesday, April 6.

Terms of three present councilmen expire this year. The councilmen are Jess Kemp, Guy Hibler and Odell Mantoath. Terms of Mayor E. J. Lander, Aldermen Ruel Smith and C. P. Callahan have one more year to run, as do the terms of City Secretary D. A. Davis and City Marshal J. A. Sparks.

Miss Gussie Bledsoe, member of the McLean school faculty, was honored as having served the longest as a teacher when the annual banquet for Gray and Roberts counties teachers was held in Pampa Monday night.

Miss Bledsoe was presented with an orchid by Pampa Mayor Tom Rose. She has been teaching for 32 years. Several other teachers who have been serving school students for 20 years or more, were also honored.

Mrs. Nelson Christie and new baby boy returned home from an Amarillo hospital Wednesday.

Mrs. J. S. Morse entertained a number of girls Sunday in honor of the birthday of her daughter, Miss Minnie, and Miss Lula Peters. A delicious dinner was served at noon to the following: Misses Lolene Coffey, Laura Bumpus, Verna Rice, Kathleen Copeland, Martha Stokely, Frances Noel, Sallie Campbell, Flossie Jordan, Marie Copeland, Lula Peters and Minnie Morse.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 5, the members of the Odd Fellows Lodge gave an oyster supper to their families and friends. A large crowd gathered to enjoy this good social time. Readings and music were enjoyed by all present. C. S. Rice gave a talk on the Odd Fellows Home for widows and orphans, which showed the great good that institution is doing. Rev. J. S. Huckabee likened the Odd Fellows to the Good Samaritan in their care for the sick and needy. Delightful readings were given by Misses Anna Wingo, LaEuna Holloway, Jewell Turner and Gorda Lou Haynes. Music was furnished by a number of Odd Fellows; the violin solos by Mr. Kellar were a delight to all.

After the program, the sumptuous supper was served, and at a late hour the crowd dispersed, loud in their praises of the hospitality of the Odd Fellows, and hoping that it will be repeated some time soon.

NEWS OF CONSERVATION

SEVERE WIND EROSION POSSIBLE

Although the much needed moisture was welcomed, it may have left us with a possible wind erosion hazard.

The wetting, freezing and thawing of the surface soil tends to powder and pulverize the surface soil. This pulverized soil will blow very easily where there is not sufficient cover to prevent the blowing.

Farmers and ranchers who have been practicing stubble mulch farming will not have anything to worry about the blowing.

In 1964 during one severe dust storm much of the wheat blew out. Farmers who had been practicling stubble mulch farming made from 12 to 20 bushels of wheat per acre. Wind erosion can cause a severe financial loss to farmers. This loss also affects business establishments of the area.

Stubble mulch farming not only prevents wind erosion but is our best method of getting water into the soil. The soil is the best place to store water. It will make more money and do less damage when stored in the soil.

Our soil is the greatest storage reservoir that we have. If we received a heavy rain on 640 acres of land and had a three-inch runoff, this would be enough water to fill a 20-acre lake eight feet deep.

Mrs. Colebank Is Hostess to Class

Mrs. Clara Colebank was hostess for a breakfast at her home Tuesday morning for members of the Fidelis Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church for the monthly social.

Mrs. Velma Willis was co-hostess. Those attending were Mesdames Gladys Smith, Pauline Miller, Lula Coppock, Ruby Boyd, Cuba Collie, Audie Stewart, Thelma Willis, Saphronia Pettit, Stella Gibson and the hostesses.

Mrs. Pearl Matthews visited recently in Oklahoma City with relatives.

GRASS COVER HOLDS SNOW

The recent snowstorm points out the advantage of keeping a grass cover on our grassland. On areas where all of the grass was grazed off, much of the snow blew off.

The same thing will happen this spring when we get our rains. Most of the water will run off where there is no grass cover to hold it on the land.

To be a successful farmer or rancher we need to carry out conservation practices that will get water into the soil. A few of the better practices are stubble mulch farming, contour farming, terracing and proper use of grassland.

The first people to holler about a drought are the ones that are not carrying out a sound conservation program.

FEATHERS

BY VERA FEATHERSTON BACK

Baxter Feather, or just "Pa" as he is always called, "Ma" Baxter and their large family of nine children are the subjects of this enchanting, lively and heart-warming story that takes place around the turn of the century.

Pa is a preacher, a surveyor, a teacher, farmer and pioneer. He and Ma and the children face the torrid rainstorms of the frontier, the menacing gangs of wire cutters who wish to drive them off the range, the trying effects of illnesses such as measles, ptomaine poisoning and consumption, and times of economic desolation and mental depression.

These people possess the innate stamina and fortitude which enables them to keep going through the stresses and strains of frontier life. Aside from the disastrous, "trudging" elements in the life of this family, one can also see a great deal of the light and humorous. The young children are high-spirited youths always willing to pull a prank or seek fun and adventure.

FEATHERS stems from the author's own family name, Featherston, and the book is based on the family's many experiences so typical of the "poor but proud" family of the time.

FEATHERS, if it is amusing, it is amusing in a realistic manner, and if it is serious, it is serious in a sincere manner.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Vera F. Back (Mrs. Jim Back) of McLean is one of the region's most popular school teachers, and sponsors THE LITTLE TIGER'S GROWL, written and edited by the Eighth Grade English Club. During World War II, when there was a need for trained teachers who could learn the subject matter and method of teaching sooner than the men in uniform who knew only the subject matter, Mrs. Back taught airplane mechanics at Amarillo Air Force Base.

Mrs. Back received her B.A. from Hardin-Simmons University, where she graduated Magna Cum Laude, and did graduate work at West Texas State University and Colorado State University. She is a member of the Order of Eastern Star, charter member of the Pioneer Study Club of McLean, and her special interests and hobbies are Texas history and folklore.

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
By Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—(Special)—Twenty-eight Democratic and 15 Republican candidates banded through the starting gate before last week's filing deadline in a dramatic beginning to a political year that opened with relative calm.

A rukus over the would-be U. S. Senate candidacy of McAllen Congressman Joe Kilgore, and Gov. John Connally's last-minute hesitancy about running for re-election, highlighted the filing-deadline spectacular.

Kilgore decided not to run against U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Connally, acknowledging that he had considered retirement, went ahead and filed for a second term.

Conservative Democrats boiled over the Kilgore incident, and said it might result in a second Republican senator from Texas.

Jack Cox, the GOP's candidate for governor against Connally, was a surprise entry in the Republican senate contest—at five minutes before deadline.

The Republicans fielded a complete slate for state offices (except judicial) and congressional races.

Connally ended up with opposition from liberal Don Yarborough of Houston, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Hackworth of Brenham and Rev. M. T. Banks of Beaumont, a Negro, Republican candidates for governor are Jack Crichton of Dallas and Harry Diehl of Houston.

Yarborough is opposed by Democrats John Van Cronkhite and Gordon McLendon, both of Dallas. George Bush of Houston and Dr. Milton V. Davis and Robert Morris, both of Dallas, are the GOP senatorial candidates.

Here is the complete lineup for other statewide offices:

Lieutenant governor — Preston Smith of Lubbock (incumbent) and Albert Fuentes Jr. of San Antonio, Democrats; and Horace Houston of Dallas, Republican.

Congressman-at-large—Incumbent Joe Pool of Dallas, Bill Elkins of Greenville, Robert W. Baker and Bob Looney, both of Houston, Democrats; and Bill Hays of Temple, Republican.

Attorney general — Incumbent Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, Democrat; and John Price, Waco, Republican.

Commissioner of agriculture — Incumbent John White of Wichita Falls and Millard Shivers, Waco, Democrats; and John B. Armstrong, Kingsville, GOP.

Land commissioner — Incumbent Jerry Sadler of Grapeland and Fred H. Williams of Dallas, Democrats, and John A. Matthews of Abilene, GOP.

Comptroller — Incumbent Robert S. Calvert of Austin, Democrat, and Dallas Calmes Jr., Houston, GOP.

Treasurer — Incumbent Jesse James, Austin, Democrat, and Fred S. Neumann, Beaumont, Republican.

Railroad commissioner (full term) — Incumbent Ben Ramsey, San Augustine, Democrat.

Railroad commissioner (unexpired term)—Incumbent Jim C. Langdon of Austin and Jesse Owens of Vernon, Democrats, and Don Flanagan, Richardson, GOP.

Supreme Court, Place 1—Sears McGee of Houston and Jack Pope of San Antonio, Democrats, and T. E. Kennerly, Houston, GOP.

Supreme Court, Place 2—Ruel C. Walker, Cleburne, incumbent, Democrat.

Supreme Court, Place 3—Incumbent Robert W. Hamilton, Midland, Democrat.

Court of Criminal Appeals—Incumbent K. K. Woodley of Austin, Democrat.

Thirteen of Texas' 23 congressmen escaped opposition in their own primaries, but for the first time in history there will be a Republican to deal with in every district, come November.

index of Texas business activity was up 5.4 per cent on the average monthly level over the previous year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Austin, Amarillo and Beaumont showed highest gains. They were followed closely by Corpus Christi, Houston, Fort Worth, Galveston and Waco.

No city showed a percentage decline.

Bureau predicted that 1964 will be another good year as far as personal income and business activity is concerned if the federal income tax bill now in the Senate is passed.

SHORT SPORTS

The Texas Tourist Development Agency awarded its $250,000 advertising contract to McCann-Erickson, Inc., Houston advertising agency.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler ordered a full investigation when he learned that seven oil wells on a state lease in Gregg County had been plugged without his approval.

Texas State Teachers Association president, Mrs. Elizabeth Little of Corpus Christi, said public school teachers in the state this year will receive a salary almost $600 below the national average; teachers group has voted to fight for a salary increase when the 59th Legislature meets.

Gov. Connally authorized removal of the three remaining Confederate widows now housed in the Confederate Home for Women in Austin to a "first-class" nursing home, where he said they would receive better treatment and at less expense to the state.

Gov. Connally got a new lighter cast on his damaged right arm, was pronounced in pretty good physical shape, but doctors said it will be six or eight months before he regains full strength.

Excise taxes collected on cigarettes in Texas last month came to $7,200,000, up from $7,200,000 a year ago, despite U. S. Health Service warnings about evils of smoking.

Texas schools have been urged by the governor to give special emphasis to the state song, "Texas, Our Texas," during Public Schools Week, March 2-6, and Texas Historical Period, March 2-April 21. Speed, drinking and wrong-side driving are three main factors in fatal traffic accidents, Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison Jr. told a traffic courts conference.
