Jack Back Seeks Re-election As Tax Assessor

Jack Back, Gray County tax assessor-collector for the past 23 years, announced that he will be a candidate for re-election in 1976.

"I appreciate the support the citizens have shown in the past and will continue to operate the office to the best of my ability."

Jury Grants Pair 10-year Probations

A 31st District Court jury granted two teenagers a 10-year probation term Monday after they pleaded guilty to holding a 70-year-old Alanreed man at gunpoint on Sept. 11.

Jerry Lee Weiker, 19, of Florida and Michael Eugene Johnson, 17, of Arkansas pleaded guilty to charges of attempted armed robbery in the case.

The jury deliberated about 10 minutes before returning a guilty verdict - which is necessary under state law even though defendants plead guilty.

They were represented by Robert McPherson of Pampa who was court-appointed by Judge Graininger McIlhane, who presided over the trial.

The two were still in Gray County Jail this morning because warrants for their arrest on armed robbery charges are still outstanding in Van Wert, Ohio, and in Fort Wayne, Ind., according to records in the Gray County Sheriff's Office.

The two were charged with holding J.A. Hill, 70, of Alanreed at gunpoint on Sept. 11. They allegedly used a sawed off shot gun.

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
 by Lyndell Williams
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — School superintendents and board presidents have been invited to a statewide hearing here, January 26, on Atty. Gen. John Hill's recent opinion outlawing many student fees.

The State Board of Education has upheld Texas Education Commissioner M.L. Brockette's order for local districts to stop collection of the fees immediately.

Brockette on October 10 instructed districts to abide by Hill's October 1 opinion. The Hill ruling applied to such fees as those charged for workbooks, driver education and uniform rental for band members.

If it stands, the opinion will require local districts to dig up $22 million more this school year to replace the lost fees, according to a Texas Education Agency study.

State Board of Education Chairman Joe Kelly Butler named a special committee headed by E.R. Gregg of Jacksonville to study the issue.

Butler said he hopes the panel will have an interim report in time for the board's February 14 meeting.

Allowable Set

Texas Railroad Commission set the February oil allowable—for the 47th straight month—at 100 per cent. There was one exception—the East Texas field, held to 86 per cent.

Meanwhile, oilmen expressed concern the federal government may be maneuvering to take over the oil industry. They said they will outline views on proposed Federal Energy Administration rules at a meeting of the Commission next month.

February nominations by buyers totalled more than 3.9 million barrels a day, 18,123 down from January.

Economy Studied

A new Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations will study governmental reorganization and try to come up with ideas to curtail creation of new agencies.

One proposal is to require that all legislation proposing new agencies be accompanied with an authoritative note spelling out the function and program to be performed.

Committee spokesmen also commented on lack of state control over soaring higher education expenditures.

Cutback Ordered

Texas Youth Council will reduce its community assistance grants due to Gov. Dolph Briscoe's decision to hold back $2 million in appropriated funds for the purpose.

The grants were expected to go to probationary programs. Plans were scratched for a third "halfway house" to serve youngsters returning from youth reform institutions to local communities.

Courts Speak

Texas Supreme Court held that $2.5 million worth of imported items in a warehouse at Farmers Branch are exempt from local property taxes, but it may have to reconsider. The U.S. Supreme Court, switching a 100-year-old position, said state and local governments can tax imported merchandise.

In other recent opinions, the high court concluded: —A couple hurt in a motorcycle wreck is entitled to $106,683 from the

Wintering Wildlife Needs Help

The lack of adequate cover and a chill factor below zero could drastically reduce the wintering populations of upland birds such as pheasant and quail on the plains of Texas.

The roughest time of the year for all wildlife is from December to March each year when the cold north winds blow and protection from the elements is hard to find.

Normally, food requirements are not a major problem in the Panhandle and South Plains of Texas due to the abundance of grain and seed crops such as corn, milo and sunflowers. The presence of this food and cover such as fencerows, irrigation ditches, waste lands near playa lakes, road right-of-ways and even the few remaining corn or milo stalks are required to fill the minimum needs of both song and game birds.

"If the landowner has not burned or stripped the grain stalks, it would benefit all wildlife species on his property if he would leave a 50 foot strip or row of standing stalks near cover of some type," said Richard DeArment, extension biologist of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Wildlife receives attention from the landowner and sportsmen during the hunting season and many times, they are forgotten until next

Stretch-Sew Class To Be Taught

Registration is now underway for the Basic 8 sewing classes taught by Mrs. Helen Lemons of the Stretch and Sew Center in Amarillo. Classes will be held on four consecutive Wednesdays beginning February 18. Class time will be from 10:00-12:00 and 1:00-3:00 p.m. each Wednesday with two lessons taught each Wednesday.

In order to bring the classes to Pampa, we must have 40 participants registered by February 11. You may register at the County Extension Office at the Courthouse Annex or mail your registration fee to Mrs. Elaine Houston, County Extension Agent, Star Route 2, Box 33, Pampa, Texas, phone 669-7429. We have had eight interested in an evening session but we have to have 40 participants, so if you are interested in an evening session let us hear from you by February 11, also. For further information, contact the County Extension Office.

fall. Supplemental feeding during severe ice and snow storms is a beneficial practice but adequate cover along with food is necessary to carry wildlife through the remainder of the winter.

Even though wildlife cannot be stockpiled on that land, an increase will be noticed if a few habitat improvement practices are followed.

Many landowners are now ordering and planning to plant both wildlife cover and food plants this spring. One of the newest wildlife plants that should benefit birds is the bob white soybean. This bean has been tested for protein at 52 percent as compared to corn at 9.7 percent and wheat at 13.3 percent. It's food value is unequaled.

THE HYPOCRITE

(Read Matt. 7:1-5)

Originally, a hypocrite was a stage-actor, one who plays the part of another and dressed in his clothes. In process of time it came to mean an insincere person--an evil person pretending to be righteous. In the Master's teaching we have a seven-point description of a hypocrite. By his behavior his insincerity is revealed. But!!! What is his behavior?

1. HE IS A FAULT FINDER. (Matt. 7:3-5) He speaks of the faults of others, but is silent concerning his own. He shows greater concern in the mote (minor fault) in the eye of another than a beam (glaring sin) in his own eye. The fault-finder, by his very profession, lifts himself above others; as a matter of fact, he has no faults of his own in his own eyes.

2. HE SHUTS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN AGAINST MEN. (Matt. 23:13) He refused to enter the kingdom and hinders others from entering. When he shuts the door against others, he shuts the door against himself. His mission is purely negative.

3. HE MAKES PRAYER A CLOAK OF COVERTOUSNESS. (Matt. 23:13) He endeavors to cover his own mischief in forms of devotion. He wears a robe of deception.

4. HE MAKES PROSELYTES TO HIMSELF INSTEAD OF CONVERTS TO THE LORD. (Matt. 23:15) He is more eager to have people follow him than he is to have them follow the Savior. He is self-centered.

5. HE MISPLACES THE EMPHASIS. He substitutes small things for the great things of life, the minor for the major. Overlooking justice and mercy and faith, he lifts aloft a 24; Micah 6:8).

6. HE STRESSES THE SHOW OF THINGS, TO THE NEGLECT OF INNER RIGHTEOUSNESS. He exalts the deed above the motive, purity of outward life above purity of heart. (Matt. 23:25-28).

7. HE PRETENDS KINDNESS FOR DEPARTED PROPHETS, WHILE PERSECUTING THE LIVING PROPHETS. He has flowers for dead saints, but thorns for the living saints. (Matt. 23:29-36).

Upon hypocrites the Savior pronounce a woe. While on earth, He condemned immorality in no certain terms, but His most rigid severity was turned upon those people who were clean in morals but were insincere in life. Concerning them He said, "Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and harlots go into the kingdom of God before you." This true because it is easier to lead the publicans and harlots to repentance than the self-righteous hypocrites.

"Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cleave to that which is good" (rom. 12:9).

Tony and Monta Jean Smitherman were elected co-chairmen of the Gray Co. Adult Leaders Association in a meeting of this organization in Pampa last week.

Martha Couch, area 4-H specialist presented a program on record keeping.

The entire Smitherman family is very active in 4-H work. We have known Monta Jean since she was little more than a toddler. She went with her father, the late Paul Kennedy, a lot when he would come to Pampa on trips to the ASCS office. Paul was a great guy that I always admired. I loved to visit with him in the coffee shop of McLean. Monta Jean is helping her daughter, Beth, with a 4-H demonstration in farm management. The plan to contrast a set of bad farm records with that of a set of good farm records. We suggested she use Bryan McPherson's records as the bad one. Monta Jean agreed. Monta Jean was trained by Paul, her father, on how to make out income tax returns and she followed in Paul's foot steps and makes out many farm returns.

CATTLE MARKET

Even though the fat cattle market has been running sour the last few weeks, the stocker market has actually strengthened. We think this shows confidence in the price outlook by cattle people for the next year. Cow numbers dropped this year for the first time in many years. The live beef cattle futures market has really been driven backward as a result of the sour market condition in fat cattle. The April trading month is off over five dollars from little more than a month ago.

Don't Overdo It!

by Wayman Bell
 I am a reporter for the Tiger Rag, and I have quietly sat through our last series of features in the paper, about involvement. Not anymore. The whole idea of school has been forgotten. We are not in school to play football or compete in U.I.L., we are in school to LEARN! Everything else is extra. In the past teachers have thought it was great that a student just came to school. They didn't care how he was dressed, or if he had shoes or not. Then why, all of a sudden does it become necessary to play football, be in clubs, and play in the band? In my opinion too much emphasis is put on the extras than on the academic subjects. Not once have I heard praise on the person who made the top of the honor roll. But you do hear people talking about the touchdown they made last Friday night. I think a student should get involved, but not to the point where he is tied down, or it interferes with his school work.

Students Glad To Return To Classes

by Teresa Mounce
 Last Thursday the high school students were allowed to go to the McLean Jr. High Tournament. Most everyone was excited about it because it meant few classes and less homework. The first few hours we watched the McLean teams play. The last few hours everyone or most everyone was wishing that they were back in class. Hardly anyone was sitting then because they all had sore behinds and backs. Friday, everyone was glad to get back to the old school day routine. We did get to see our McLean Jr. High girls play. It wasn't so bad sitting over there for two hours as it was Thursday, staying all day long.

Roving Reporter...

 This is your Roving Reporter behind the scenes of the upcoming Junior class play, "The Nut Factory." In watching the young director, Miss Jacque Gillespie, I get a feeling of supreme confidence and accomplishment. The lady knows what its all about. She's hoping for at least a four month run.

Seriously, a lot of practice goes into a class play. Practices have to be worked out around work schedules, other school activities, and parental consent. "The Nut Factory" is a two act farce sure to please any audience, and the cast is compiled of all your favorites.

When you see "The Nut Factory" advertised for the MHS auditorium, be sure to come and see it. By the way, it is rated G.

Seniors To Write Career Themes

by Denise Lamb
 McLean High School seniors have started writing themes on careers. This is done by each senior writing about the career he plans to go into after graduating. This paper will take about 8 to 10 weeks to write. There have been many fields chosen by the seniors. Some of the fields are in Beautician, Feed lot management, medical fields and even rodeo clowning. So there are many fields that a person could choose from. The Seniors will be interviewing a person in the field they are writing about so don't be surprised if you are asked for an interview. You might even be seeing less of the seniors in the following weeks for they will usually wait until the last minute to work on the paper and then they will be forced to stay home. So you can be looking forward to the peace and quiet of the few days the seniors will be stuck inside working on their papers.

Jr. High Honor Roll

Attitude AT M. H. S. Shows Improvement

by Betty Holmes
 Attitude is to some extent reflected by environment. Surroundings for MHS students have certainly changed with the remodeling of the high school auditorium and addition of a Student Lounge. How then, has that dramatic change in McLean High School's physical appearance during the last twelve months affected the attitude of its student body and faculty members?

M.H.S. students, when asked if they thought there had been a change in attitude replied in different ways: "I'd say it helped them a little bit, it made them feel like they had a place to go." "I like it. It made us feel better. It made us proud. We couldn't be proud of that place down there... and I like our Student Lounge." "I don't know they usually keep it pretty clean though." "I like it, it makes me feel better. The old one really bothered me. Now I'm in a good mood. If they'd build a whole new one, I'd be in a fantastic mood." "Yeah, it made them proud that they can finally have something nice."

The MHS faculty also had its opinion on the effects the change in attitude, too: Mrs. Johnson, "As far as the auditorium, I think we're proud to have someone come in and visit us, see it, and have programs. I think the students take pride in knowing they have a place to call their own." Mrs. Holwick: "I definitely think that it has improved because we have a little pride now and we want to take care of it." Mr. Smith: "I think that the attitudes of both (the faculty and the student body) have changed considerably since it has been remodeled and redone. And I think they have a little more pride about their Student Lounge than they did the old auditorium."

90 or above in all of their classes for the last six weeks.

Junior High Tournament

The McLean Jr. High Invitational Tournament, a contest between nine area basketball teams, took place in the local gym Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Jan. 15, 16, and 17.

The Saturday night awards ceremony saw Miami girls and boys recognized as the two top notch teams with a duo of first place trophies. McLean girls after losing to the little Warriorettes in the finals, claimed second along with Shamrock's boys. Hedley's girls and Estelline's boys took home third place awards while Clarendon's girls and the McLean Cubs received fourth place honors. The consolation recognition went to Wellington's girls and the Hedley boys.

An individual honor given to six outstanding girl players and five outstanding boy players for their performance throughout the three day tournament was given with the naming of All-Tournament teams.

Boys' All-Tournament standouts were Andrew Brown of Estelline, Lonnie Gilliland of Miami, Jeff Hill of Hedley, Randy Stone of Miami, and Gary Cogburn of Shamrock.

The Girls' All-Tournament favorites consisted of guards: Judy Trew of McLean, Lynn Gilliland of Miami, and Sherrie Hill of Hedley; and forwards: Deb Bass of Miami, Susie Chandler of Wellington, and Janice Barkman of Shamrock.

Each All-Tournament player received an individual trophy for their ability on the court.

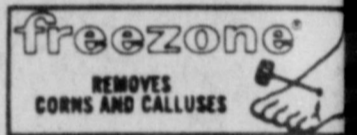

Coach Robert Mears expressed his appreciation to the McLean businesses for donating the trophies.

Some of our students have returned books with their favorite pages taken out. Each student has his own way such as those mentioned above of remembering the book that such an influence on his life.

Most Common Income Tax Error

Officials of the Internal Revenue Service's Dallas District office say that, so far in the 1976 filing season, the most common errors showing up on tax returns are those caused by a misunderstanding of the $30 tax credit for each personal exemption.

"Apparently, many taxpayers are confusing the $30 tax credit with the $750 personal exemption deduction," A. W. McCannless, district director of the IRS for North Texas, said today. "They wind up thinking each personal exemption is worth one deduction of $780."

The two are not related, however, Mr. McCannless said that taxpayers should compute their tax liability in the normal manner before dealing with the $30 tax credit. When the normal tax is computed, the taxpayer is then entitled to subtract $30 from the total tax liability for each personal exemption claimed on the return. For example, a married couple with two children would claim four personal exemptions on a joint return and come up with a certain amount of tax due. They would then subtract $120, or $30 for each exemption, from the tax due.

"A deduction, such as the personal exemption, is a reduction of the income on which tax is figured," the tax official said. "A tax credit, on the other hand, is a dollar for dollar reduction of the actual amount of tax due."

He also pointed out that, while extra exemptions are allowed for blind taxpayers and those over 65, these people do not receive extra tax credits.

AG Opinions

Attorney General Hill found the Coordinating Board Texas College and University System cannot turn down campus construction projects on the basis of cost per square foot.

In other recent opinions, Hill decided:

—There is no minimum World War II length of service requirement to qualify for a college tuition exemption.

—Presentation of a driver's license in court is an absolute defense to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without having a license in one's immediate possession.

—Firemen's relief and retirement funds in affected cities are eligible to receive an annual apportionment from the state appropriation.

Rebound Reported

Texas Industrial Commission's Executive Director Jim Harwell reports a significant rebound in industrial development during the last quarter of 1975.

Harwell told TEC the increase in economic activity may be proof of the recessionary trend is at an end in Texas.

A record number of 16 industrial prospect visits were made during the September - December period, compared to only nine the same quarter last year. The number of current active prospects increased to 478 from 333 during the last quarter of 1974.

John C. White, Commissioner

The Lowest in 29 Years... Farm Numbers Continue To Decline... Commercial Vegetable Production Keeps Texas Third.

Cotton production in Texas during 1975 will be remembered as one of the lowest in recent history. The crop of 2,400,000 bales is the smallest since 1946. The turn-out compares with 2,462,000 bales in 1974, a year which was plagued by drought.

Both reduction in acres plus a freak weather condition on the High Plains were responsible for the 1975 poor production record. Acres harvested were 4,000,000, down 10 per cent from a year ago. Yield is expected to average 288 pounds per acre, which is only a slight improvement over 1974.

Meanwhile, cotton planting for the 1976 season gets underway officially on Feb. 1 in the Rio Grande Valley. The economic outlook for cotton this year is believed by most economists to be greatly improved over 1975.

TWO THOUSAND FARMS AND RANCHES disappeared from Texas during 1975, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes.

The preliminary estimate for the number of farms and ranches in Texas for 1976 represents a decline of 1 per cent from a year ago.

And even though the farm numbers did decline a small amount, the number of acres in farms and ranches stayed the same, thus the decline in total numbers was brought about by addition to other farms and ranches. Total land in farms and ranches is set at 141,800,000 acres.

The average size farm and ranch in Texas is now 692 acres compared to 685 acres a year ago.

The recent decline is a departure from the stabilization of farm numbers in the state during 1972 to 1974. Nationwide, farm numbers also declined 1 per cent and total farmland, estimated at slightly more than one billion acres, is down slightly from 1975.

TEXAS CONTINUES TO BE A MAJOR SUPPLIER of commercial vegetables for the nation.

The state ranks third in harvested acreage, production and value of fresh market vegetables. California and Florida are ahead of Texas. This state had 9.9 per cent of the harvested acreage, 8.1 per cent of the production and 9 per cent of the total value of fresh market vegetables produced in the nation.

Texas ranks first in the nation in acreage for fresh market of these crops: onions, spinach and watermelons.

It ranks second in harvested acreage of cabbage, cantaloups, carrots, cucumbers and honeydew melons.

Estimated Texas production of the 14 principal fresh market vegetables and melons for 1975 is down 7 per cent from 1974.

The 14 principal vegetables and melon crops had a total value of $189,000,000. This was up 36 per cent from a year ago.

Leading the crops in order of value were onions, carrots, cantaloups, watermelons and cabbage. In acreage harvested, watermelons led. That was followed by onions, carrots, cabbage and cantaloups.

Nationwide, estimated 1975 production is 1 per cent less than 1974.
