Coffee Honors Mrs. Hambright

Mrs. Frank Hambright was honored with a birthday coffee in the home of Mrs. Kinneth Hambright, Friday morning, Feb. 18.

Refreshments of cake, mints, nuts and coffee were served to Mesdames Iona Glass, Viola Glass, Alma Glass, Judy Howard, Lela Sherrod, Lucy Goldston, Billie Sue Moore, Sarah Cunningham, Marjorie Fish, Safrona Pettit, Donna Vineyard, the honoree and the hostess.

Many lovely gifts were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinneth Hambright and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hambright and Gene attended a school pageant and beauty contest at Clerendon recently. Annis Windom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milllard Windom, was selected as Good Citizen of the Year at Clarendon High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyal Billingsley and Missy and J. W. Meacham visited in Turkey Sunday with Mrs. Ollie Meacham.

Rev. and Mrs. Dan Beltz attended a regional Sunday School clinic at Trinity Baptist Church in Amarillo

I announced earlier that I would be a candidate for County Commissioner. It has been said that it is the duty of the opposition to oppose, and that is what I intend to do.

My platform will be presented from time to time in this paper in order to familiarize the public with my intentions. Some planks of which are:

1. Equality of treatment for all individuals.

2. Help place the precinct and county on the soundest business program possible.

3. Financial apportionment in accordance with representation, locally as well as county wide.

In one qualification I am like the farmer's cow. President Eisenhower asked the farmer how many pounds of milk his cow gave. The farmer replied he didn't know. He then asked what percent butterfat the cow's milk was, and the farmer said, "Well, Mr. President, ! don't know, but I will tell you this she is an honest ole cow, and she will give you all she's
