Family Man Narrow Escape From Death In Gas Filled Ranch House

Mr. Gene Williams, her two children and also, Grace Chandler, were their escape from suffocation by gas fumes to the prompt action by a couple of Mexican bravo ranch hands last week.

While Mr. Williams was gone for a week-end fishing trip, Mrs. Williams and the children went for a week-end stay at the ranch, a part of the Tom Smith ranch.

All of them ill throughout the night, Mrs. Williams thought that they had suffered a virus attack or food poisoning and early Saturday morning sent the Mexican ranch hands to the Smith headquarters with instructions to phone her sister, Mrs. Earle Chandler, to come bring them to town.

Unable to get telephone connections, the men went back to the ranch and when they could not reach Mrs. Williams, entered the house and found her near unconscious and the children in similar condition. They smelled the gas and opened windows and then helped Mrs. Williams and the children out of the house. All were treated at the Crockett County hospital from effects of breathing the gas, which was escaping from an improperly adjusted gas-burning refrigerator.

Girl Scouts Cookie Sale Profits Go To New Camp Fund

All over the United States, at 4 p. m. on Friday, March 7, Girl Scouts and Brownies will be starting their annual cookie sale.

The Frontier Council, made up of ten counties, this year has a much greater incentive to sell cookies than ever before. For the first time, they have Girl Camp site in their own territory to help develop. Heretofore, arrangements have been made with Boy Scout Camps to accommodate camping groups. The new camp will be available to all counties of the council for year round camping.

Thanks to the generosity of a neighboring county ranchman, who prefers that his name not be used, 545.5 acres have been secured and approved by National Council officials. The camp site is located in Real County, and is situated on the Nueces River. Currently it is undeveloped, but a storeroom for tents and other camp supplies belonging to the Council and accessible to all camping groups, is being planned and will be ready for use in a couple of months.

Each of the ten counties in the Frontier Council have voted this year to use all of the cookie money profit, except the 8c per box given the individual troops, for camp development.

Contract To Be Let March 21 On Flood Dam No. 6

Will Be Fifth In Series of Control Dams Under Construction

Notice to bidders has been issued by the Commissioners Court of Crockett County for bids on construction of the fifth in a series of seven flood control dams on Johnson Draw and its tributaries.

Bids will be received by the court, the contracting body, March 24 for construction of the flood control dam at Site No. 6. This site is the nearest to Ozona, blocking the big draw which joins Johnson about two miles north of Ozona. The dam site is just south of the Big Lake highway. It will be one of the larger dams in the series.

Meanwhile, contracts were being prepared ready for signing with the Frank Montgomery Construction Co. of Midland, low bidder on construction of the dam at Site No. 5. Bids were received last week by the court on this project and Mr. Montgomery's bid of $76,916.55 was low of six bids submitted.

Members of the Court and the Soil Conservation Service completed an investigation of Montgomery's equipment and financial condition during the past week and found everything satisfactory, it was indicated. Contracts were to have been completed in a few days and the work put under way.

Weather Gives Lion Tracksters Extra Week Of Preparation; Entered This Week In Brady To Be In Readiness For Own Meet Next Week

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona track team continued to find the weather its main obstacle as members prepared to travel to Brady this week to open their 1955 season.

Heavy rains in the Eldorado area forced the postponement of the Eldorado meet to the 29th of this month and gave the Lions another week to get ready.

Even though Coaches Chalk Womack and Sonny Cleere have more proven performers this year than during any year recently, the task of finding more point makers is a most important one.

Junction will be top heavy favorites in the district this season, as usual but the Lions can more than match the Eagles in a number of events and if a number of third and fourth place point getters can be developed then the local team could make it hot for the Kimbell County crew.

Over fifty boys have been out for track for several weeks and more recently the addition of the basketball team has set the team in good shape as far as numbers go.

Development of 440 and mile relay teams will be of prime importance but at the moment prospects seem dim for the mile event.

Bobby Sutton, Bobby Vargas, Jerry Jacobs, Tony Parker, and Jim Doran give the Lions the speed for a fast quartet that promises to be one of the best for the Lions in years.

The same crew will run the 880 relay but that event is not included in the district meet.

The broad jump seems to be another Lion strong point with last year's district champion, Bobby Vargas getting strong competition from team mates Jerry Jacobs and Bill Holden, all three have topped 21 feet so far this year in practice.

Holden, Jacobs and Vargas are also the top Lions in high jump, an event where Junction picked up 12 points last season.

Highway Dept. To Let Contract For Bridge March 18th

$130,767 Project To Require 90 Work Days For Completion

Texas State Highway Department will receive bids on March 18 for construction of a new, longer and wider bridge over Johnson Draw on U. S. Highway 290 in Ozona. A notice to contractors on the project is published in this week's issue of The Stockman.

Reconstruction of the Johnson Draw bridge became a necessity for completion of the channel improvement part of the Johnson Draw flood control project now in process of completion by the Soil Conservation Service. The new bridge design will conform to the new channel to be cut through the town of Ozona as a further precaution in controlling flood waters of the sometimes rampaging wash.

Included in the Highway Department's call for bids is also widening work on the Gurley draw bridge just east of the city limits on the same highway. It is presumed that this structure will merely be widened without completely rebuilding as is the plan for the Johnson draw structure.

It is estimated that about three months will be required to complete the Johnson draw bridge. The present bridge is to be wrecked and a new one installed. While the work is under way, traffic on busy Highway 290 will be re-routed to a low water crossing over the draw two blocks north of the bridge. Traffic will be turned at the Williams-Taliaferro corner and will return to the highway at the Silver Spur Motel corner.

Deferred Grazing Is Recommended Practice For Range Recovery

By R. V. Keebom, SCS

Deferred grazing can be defined as delayed grazing. Grazing is delayed in a pasture until a definite result is obtained. The length of deferment will depend upon the purpose to be accomplished. Deferred grazing is an important range practice that can be used to solve many range problems. Seed production can be increased by delaying grazing until after seed maturity and seedlings can be protected until established. The vigor of the better grasses can be increased which will result in increased production.

Deferred grazing is necessary to improve the condition of ranges in poor to fair condition and to improve the vigor of ranges in good condition. Proper use alone is insufficient to improve ranges in poor condition as the poorer grasses will increase at the expense of the better grasses. Deferment is imperative following brush eradication or reseeding operations to protect the investment.

The length of deferment necessary will depend upon several things such as the condition of the range, the climatic conditions, ranching operations, and plant associations. A range in good condition will seldom require more than a very short deferment to maintain high forage production. A poor condition range, however, may require several deferments to restore it to the original condition. The length of deferment that is necessary will depend upon the particular problem that is to be solved and the management following the deferment period.

Deferment is usually done in the spring, but the time of year that the range should be deferred will depend upon the particular kind of vegetation that the rancher wants to manage for. Some grasses set seed in the fall and others set seed in the spring. The cool season grasses need deferment in the winter. Climatic conditions affect the time of deferment as a pasture should be deferred when the optimum moisture conditions can be expected. In the Crockett Soil Conservation District, most moisture is received in the spring and in the fall. The optimum time to rest a pasture is following a good rain, if ranching operations are flexible enough to allow for such a program.

The benefits of deferment are many and may be enjoyed immediately or received in the future. The residual effects of deferment may be noticed for several years following a successful deferment. Deferment was nature's method of maintaining her lush climax vegetation before man upset the ecological balance. A pasture is capable of producing so many pounds of forage and this production may be harvested by livestock as efficiently over a six or nine months period as by year long grazing. It must be remembered that good management must follow deferment if the full benefits of the deferment are to be received.

Livestock Trade Strong At Fort Worth Monday

FORT WORTH — Cattle and calves moved in a very active trade at Fort Worth Monday as both slaughter and stocker buyers pressed for a share of the supplies. Again the supply of mature fed cattle was very small. The excellent grazing prospects developing all over the Southwest put added zest into the stocker trade, although high quality kinds were virtually lacking in the offering.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $24 to $27.50, and medium and low grades sold from $16 to $23.50. Fat cows cashed at $16.50 to $19, and canners and cutters drew $10 to $17. Bulls were reported from $14.00 to $20.50.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold from $24 to $27.50 and medium and lower grades sold from $14 to $23. Stocker calves brought $22 to $23, and heifer calves sold from $26.50 down. Stocker yearlings drew $27 down. A few stocker cows sold from $14 to $20.

Old Crop Lambs Show Some Strength Monday

Trade in the sheep yards was active and prices on old crop lambs were strong to 50 cents or more higher, some of the heavyweight lamb showing the better gains. Good and choice slaughter lambs sold from $21 to $22.50, the higher figure for No. 1 or Fall shorn lots. Some good woolled lambs drew $21.50, and some heavies up to 125 pounds also sold at $21.50, considerably better than last week on those weights. A few odd lot medium and low grade stocker lambs cashed at $18 to $30. Slaughter ewes sold around $9 to $10 and other grades and classes were scarce.

The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman, March 7, 1929

Hundreds of sorrowing friends of Ozona and surrounding sections followed the remains of Mrs. Tom Nolen, a resident of Ozona for more than thirty years, to his last resting place in Cedar Hill Cemetery where funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Nolen died Saturday in Del Rio following a stroke suffered four weeks before.

Ozona's newest business concern, the Ideal Barber Shop, operated by John Pettit, opened for business early this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Forehand are the parents of a 7 1/2 pound son born Wednesday morning. The youngster has been named Billy Joe.

Mr. and Mrs. Judge Montgomery narrowly escaped injury Tuesday when their car, a 1928 Buick coupe, turned over between Junction and Scotts and was destroyed by fire. Something went wrong with the steering gear of the car, Mr. Montgomery said.

Clarksville Tenn. — The monoplane of Carl Cromwell, wealthy San Angelo oil operator, turned over and crashed in an attempted takeoff from a farm near here today. E. H. Hunt, pilot, was unharmed. He estimated the damage at $5,000.

V. I. Pierce, Crockett county ranchman, and a director of the Guaranty State Bank of San Angelo, has been elected president of the Texas Wool & Mohair Co., recently organized at San Angelo.

Wayne West, also of Ozona, was elected vice president.

Joe Pierce, Jr., is in Temple where he will remain for a month undergoing medical treatment and visiting his father, J. S. Pierce, Sr., who is recovering from a recent operation.

Even the erstwhile barren rocks of the rugged Pecos are now luxuriantly green, and the old story that once was told of Judge Davidson is no longer apropos: A prospective homesteader asked him about applying for four sections on the Pecos. "The proposition is quite simple," said the judge affably. "The State is willing to bet you that particular tract of land against $14 that you can't live on it three years without starvin' to death."

Mrs. T. A. Kincaid, Jr., is visiting her parents in Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bailey returned to their ranch in Pecos county Friday after a few days visit in town. Miss Vivian Baggett went with them for a visit.

It's like getting back 15¢ on every gas dollar!

Here's the biggest savings story of the year! And here's why:
It all starts with Ford's new dream of a drive called Cruise-O-Matic... the newest, most versatile, most automatic of them all! Two new driving ranges let you choose your starts for the road conditions that exist. For example, in most of the driving you'll do, you can take off lively as a spring lamb if you wish. And on snow, ice or any slippery road surface, with the cruise driving range you can get sure-footed starts that are steady and silky-smooth.
Now, team this all-new automatic with Ford's new Thunderbird-powered V-8 (with up to 300 hp) and you get as much as 15% better gas mileage, too! That's because a special gas-saving rear axle ratio is used to give you all the savings of "built-in" overdrive economy.
And based on factory suggested retail delivered prices, a Cruise-O-Matic Ford is priced lowest of the low-price three with comparable equipment.
So, with Thunderbird go... down-to-earth gas savings... plus Ford's traditionally low prices and high resale return... you have the best reason in the world to make yourself a deal on a beautiful new Cruise-O-Matic Ford!

Americans, from steadfast, before us have fought for their beliefs. They were important then; they are more important today.

"THINK AND GAIN"

By Alma Ingham

Bill — I like to go to bed with the chickens and wake up with them. Don't You?

Clyde — No, I like to sleep in my own bed.

Teacher (Mr. Leath) — Johnny can you tell me where the Red Sea is?

Johnny — Yes, it's in the third line of my report card.

Carolyn — Did you hear about the explosion at Geyser's farm?

Jerry — No! What happened?

Carolyn — She fed her chicken "Lay or Bust" feed, and one of them was a rooster!

First Duck — Say do you remember that hen we had that layed colored eggs? If you held a red cloth in front of her she'd lay a red egg, if you showed her a green cloth she'd lay a green egg.

Second Duck — What happened?

First Duck — Someone held a crazy quilt in front of her, and she stripped her gears!

Daffynishion: Modern girl, one who dresses fit to kill and cooks the same way.

Roy Nell — Why are "hurricanes" named after girls?

Tommy — Did you ever hear of a "hinnicane"?

Father — Sandra why did you kick your little friend?

Sandra — I wanted her to go home.

Father — Why didn't you ask her to leave?

Sandra — That wouldn't have been polite!

Bobby sent Frances her first orchid with this note: "With all my love, and most of my allowance."

Red — I had the most exciting dream last night. I was up in an airplane traveling at 10,000 feet and I had to bail out. I jumped and pulled the string. Guess what happened?

Jake — What?

Red — My pajamas fell down!

Miss Powers was taking her talkative sixth period English class through a tour of a museum, and they were quite noisy. Halting them, Miss Powers said, "I want it so quiet I can hear a pin drop!"

About a minute later there was absolute silence, and then Denny piped up, "Well, let'er drop."

Mills — Doc, all this week I've had a shooting pain.

Doctor Tandy — Is that so — What caller?

Daffynishion. Love — softening of the heartery.

Linda — (saying her prayers) Bless my mother and my sweet brother and sister, and please make Montreal the capital of Canada.

Monie — Why do you want Montreal to be the capital of Canada?

Linda — Because that's what I put on my test paper.

COMIN' AND GOIN'

By Barbara Barbee
 Saturday was a rather long day for the band. They left Saturday morning about eight. And, as you probably know, didn't bring back anything but the memory of the day.

Friday and Saturday nights Alanna I. had dates with Tommy Owens of Barnhart. I heard she had a wonderful time.

Sunday afternoon the Methodist Youth had a sub-district meeting here. There were youth from Big Lake and McCombs. There weren't any from other towns because of snow and rain.

The class favorites were elected today. Those elected were: Diane P. and Jerry J., Juniors; Susie C. and Jimmy W., Sophomores; Sandra W. and Jimmy F., Freshman. As usual the Senior are late in electing theirs.

Mills Tandy, Ronald Carnes, and James Pitts, attended the first regional council meeting of the Texas Region of National Speleological Society for 1958 in San Antonio last week-end. It was decided at this meeting that the next State convention will be held in Ozona on the Labor Day weekend next (Continued on Page Six)

Small Permian Strike Recorded In Crockett

A small Permian strike was recorded Thursday in Crockett. Plugging back was scheduled at a Crockett wildcat and location scheduled for an outpost.

Crockett County gained a small unidentified Permian discovery with completion of Christo Ray Petroleum Co., Odessa, No. 1 University, 20 miles northwest of Ozona, for a daily pumping potential of 8.38 barrels of 24 gravity oil, plus two-tenths of one per cent water, with gas-oil ratio estimated to be 250-1.

Production was through perforations between 2,367-2,427 feet in 4 1/2-inch casing cemented at 2,420 feet, the total depth. Top of pay was picked at 2,389 feet on elevation of 2,620 feet.

Location is 2,351.8 feet from the south and 2,310 feet from the west lines of 7-51-University.

Report to the People

This has been "Foreign Aid Week" in the Nation's Capital. President Eisenhower, former President Harry S. Truman, Vice-President Nixon, Adlai Stevenson and others joined forces in a bi-partisan effort to put across the Administration's $3.9 billion program for fiscal 1959.

The day-long "spectacular," directed by former motion picture executive Eric Johnson, was designed to arouse public opinion in favor of foreign aid. The public is then supposed to contact their respective members of Congress and urge full support of the foreign aid program.

Polls that I have conducted throughout West Texas indicate the people will need a lot of convincing. In a four-point choice question, the people of West Texas felt the foreign aid program should, in this order: (a) be reduced; (b) be eliminated; (c) held at the present level and (d) be increased.

One of the "pry-poles" used in recent years to get the Congress to rally 'round the foreign aid flag has been the reportedly great amount of such aid given by the Russians. While it is true the papers are full of offers and counter offers by the Reds to other nations, they have given relatively little of the aid promised.

Russia's total aid granted since 1954 has totaled only $1.8 billion, a great deal less than our annual requirements for each year since that date. Egypt has received most aid from the Russians, getting $480 million of which $250 was for military aid. Yugoslavia topped the list in economic aid from Russia, receiving $465 million. Others getting Russian money: Afghanistan, Burma, Cambodia, Ceylon, India, Indonesia, Nepal, Syria and Yemen.

Of the $110 million listed as "given" to Indonesia, only $10 million has actually been accepted. The Indonesian Parliament has not yet ratified an agreement for $100 million signed with the Russians. So while Russia has talked foreign aid greatly, the Communists have in reality been miserly with their aid dollars in comparison with the United States.

Our Own Export-Import Bank has loaned much U. S. money to foreign nations, and there are many who feel this program is more worthy than the outright grants to foreign nations. True, the money is for the most part Government money, but it is at least offered on an interest-bearing loan basis and the return has paid for the administration of the program, plus some surplus.

When nations apply for loans, the Export-Import Bank officials first ask private sources of capital if they want to make the loan. Often one source will handle the loan, or several private capital sources will combine to cover the loan.

During the 24-year history of the Export-Import Bank it has authorized loans totaling $9 billion. Only 1-20th of one per cent of the loans due have been lost, and any banker will tell you that's a good record. We currently have on our books loan and authorizations in 59 nations, totaling $4.4 billion.

Although our foreign aid program has sent billions overseas, our Latin-American neighbors have received little of it. Instead, they have borrowed from the Export-Import Bank to a great degree. At the present time, we have $2.25 billion on loan to our South American neighbors. One example of the good this program has done in Latin-American came to light recently in testimony before the House Banking and Currency Committee, of which I am a member.

It was reported one small community had no schools, no hospitals and no industry other than agriculture. A loan was obtained from the Export-Import Bank, and the community now thrives with most modern conveniences. In addition to having a warm feeling toward the U. S., the people of the community help our domestic economy by purchasing many items from us. Congress does not appropriate funds for the Export-Import Bank, which has always been self-supporting and has, in fact, contributed a $373 million profit to the U. S. Treasury.

Jake Young will be a heavy favorite in the shot this season and is also likely to place in the discus.

Cico Cervantez will enter the discus where he has placed third for the past two years and will be favored to improve his position this season. Jim Williams and Young will give the Lions three entries in the event.

Jerry Jacobs, the Lions versatile athlete, will currently run the high hurdles, the 440 relay and the 880 relay with the broad jump but later on will not run the 880 and will either pick up the 100 yard dash or get more rest according to how the freshman sprinters come along later in the season.

Johnny Jones, David Sikes and Ronnie Paulk are all vaulting and may enter the mile relay. Sikes and Paulk have placed in district for the past two years.

Tony Parker and Jim Doran, last year's outstanding Jr. High sprinters, are showing fine improvement and will figure in how the Lions fare this season.

Next week the Lions will hold their annual invitational meet here in Ozona with 13 teams now scheduled to be present for the meet.

Among the boys not named above, Mark White, Joe McMullan, and Alonzo Galindo seem most likely to become point winners. White and McMullan are currently running the hurdles and Galindo will join Alonzo Lopez in the mile run.

Jimmy Adams is the Lions sole entry in the 440 run and Martin Castellano and Jesus Ramos are entries in the 880.

Ambulance and funeral coach services are provided for with late-model Cadillac equipment.

The funeral home provides service for Ozona and Crockett County as well as serving the communities of Barnhart, Sheffield and Iraan.

The funeral home is owned and operated by Ken and Jane Cody. Mr. Cody is a graduate of the Dallas Institute of Mortuary Science, and served his internship with funeral homes in Dallas and Abilene. He is a licensed Embalmer and Funeral Director. Mrs. Cody, who taught commercial arts in McCamey and Ozona, acts as receptionist and office manager. Ross Hufstetler has been an assistant with Cody for several years.

The funeral home was originally established by the late Joe Oberkamp about 1926. Prior to that a stock of caskets was kept in the old Ozona Boot Shop. An embalmer from San Angelo was occasionally called to Ozona. No funeral coach service was available in those days. The late Joe North and his father, the late J. J. North, transported the casket to the cemetery in an old Cadillac touring car.

The late Mr. Oberkamp established his "undertaking parlor" in his hardware and furniture store. He employed an embalmer and provided the first complete funeral and ambulance services for Ozona and surrounding territory. Mr. Oberkamp sold the funeral home, hardware and furniture to J. L. Ratliff and Sons of Eldorado in 1946. The Ratliffs operated the funeral home until they sold it to Mr. and Mrs. Cody in 1949.

GIFTS ACCEPTED FOR DEAD DEPUTY'S FAMILY

Sheriff Billy Mills said this week that several persons had asked him about the means of making a donation to the family of Thad West, Ector county deputy sheriff, slain by a fugitive he was attempting to arrest in Odessa recently.

The sheriff talked by phone with the sheriff's department at Odessa and learned that such a fund was being raised. Anyone here wishing to donate may leave such donation with the local sheriff's department and it will be forwarded to the fund being raised in Odessa.
