Site Attack Mesquite Control Spraying

Defoliated Trees Not Dying To Herbicide Control Method

A number of ranchmen in Crockett County are undertaking the control of mesquite as a range improvement and demonstration spray project under sponsorship of the SCD. An attack on mesquite was abandoned for this year because of an unidentified parasite. Scott, work unit conservation with the Soil Conservation Service made this announcement after an investigation of the mesquite by representatives of the service engaged to make demonstration sprays in the area. The parasite attack is noted in the area of West Texas and plans for this year have been abandoned throughout the area.

In the past few days parasites have hit the mesquite trees in the area and nearly defoliated them. Mr. Scott said, "The leaf has been reduced so drastically that herbicide spraying is not only impractical. Unfortunately the damage to the mesquite parasite is negligible."

Ozona FFA Chapter Displays Year's Judging Awards

FFA Piles Up School Year Record Of Eight First Places Six Second Places, Five Thirds In Area Judging Contests

A fine record of achievements in various judging contests in the area, plus their regular classroom work in which they learned the fundamentals of ranching, grass and livestock production, was piled up by students in the Vocational Agriculture department of the Ozona schools during the past year.

In the group picture above, taken at the close of the 1957-58 school year, members of the FFA Chapter posed with the emblems of the awards they had won during the year—an impressive record of eight first places, six second places, five thirds and one fifth in junior and senior chapter conducting, grass and range judging, wool and mohair judging and livestock judging and grading.

M. A. Barber (shown in the picture third row, left) is the class instructor and coach in the judging events. Members of the group go to classes regularly each school day, taking courses of instruction which aid them in their demonstrations of accomplishments made in the various judging events and allied with the various projects undertaken each year.

Berbie Noelke and Pleas Childress display the second place banner in Junior Chapter conducting at the Concho District meet; Wayne Albers next displays the second place banner in the FFA quiz at the Concho District meet; Muggins Good shows the second place banner for livestock judging and grading at Texas Tech; Jim Williams shows the second place livestock judging and grading award for Area II; and Wayne Allen and Kenneth Deland show the second place banner in livestock judging and grading won at the Concho District meet.

In the back row is Mr. Barber, then L. C. Poindexter holding the third place junior range judging banner won at the Crockett county show; then Billy Bob Holden and Clayton Friend display the banner for fifth place won in the Texas Tech contests; Bill Black displays the Area II grass judging third place banner. Chris Hagelstein and Weldon Day share a hold on the third place wool judging banner won in Area II competition; and Leslie Deland holds the third place award in livestock judging and grading won at San Angelo College.

15-Year-Old Boy Suffers Injuries In Ranch Mishap

P. L. Childress, III, Is Found Unconscious By 6-Year-Old Brother

When 6-year-old Charles Childress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Childress of Ozona, found his 15-year-old brother, P. L., III, unconscious Monday afternoon near the Childress ranch house, his face bleeding from multiple cuts and abrasions, and being unable to rouse the older boy or to drag him into the house, did the next best thing he knew — he lay down beside him in the sun and stayed until the injured boy revived enough that the smaller lad could help him to a bed in the house.

P. L. is under treatment in the Crockett County Hospital for his injuries and was still unable to give an accurate account of just what happened.

A saddled horse stood near the ranch house and it is believed the boy fell or was thrown from the animal's back, landing on the side of his face. One cheek was peeled, with small gravel imbedded in the abrasions and the boy suffered severe cuts over his eye and across his eyelid.

He remembered saddling and mounting the horse but nothing more of what happened. The two boys were alone at the ranch, the younger one inside the house. Charles heard the older boy's moans and went outside to find him lying on the ground, unconscious. After P. L. had revived, Charles helped him into the house and to bed, again lying down beside his injured brother until help came.

Felix Rivera, employed on the Childress west ranch, happened to stop by the headquarters ranch and found the boys and brought them to town and to the hospital. Other members of the family had planned to go to the ranch later in the afternoon.

Hatley To Retire After Thirty-Five Years As Teacher

Principal Here Seven Years To Live In Rusk, Texas

After thirty-five years in the teaching profession, the last seven as Junior High and High School principal in the Ozona school system, P. O. Hatley will retire from the educational field and devote his time to the operation of a stock farm he owns near Rusk, Texas, in Cherokee county.

Mr. Hatley has submitted his resignation to the school board and his final release will mark the beginning of his retirement under the Texas teacher retirement system. Mrs. Hatley, who has taught in the local system for seven years and a total of 13 years, will also retire from teaching. Mrs. Hatley taught the second grade in South Elementary school here for six years and last year taught math in Junior High.

Mr. Hatley came to Ozona as principal of the Junior High School. After one year in that post he was elevated to the post as High School principal, a position he has held for six school terms. Popular alike among students, fellow faculty members and townspeople, Mr. Hatley's long years of experience in the school administrative field has been reflected in a minimum of student disciplinary problems and a maximum of faculty harmony.

Mr. Hatley a native of the East Texas area, started his teaching career in Smith county. He served three years as a grade school principal at Mt. Pleasant. He went to the Ranger school system as a grade school principal, serving in that capacity for eleven years and then six more years as Ranger High School principal, a total of 17 years with the Ranger system. Commissioners, Oil Industry Sparring On Taxable Values

Revenue Headaches May Face County If Values Decline

A depression-plagued oil industry and a budget conscious Commissioners Court are sparring today in a meeting of members of the court as a board of equalization to fix final values on oil property in Crockett county for the 1958 tax year.

Out of the meeting, in progress at the courthouse today, will come a decision which will affect the tax revenues under which the county will function and with which the schools of the county are maintained and bond obligations satisfied. The oil industry is far and away the biggest taxpayers in this county, accounting in fact for over 80 percent of the tax revenue for county and school purposes and for remission to the state's tax coffers.

The 8-day prorated schedule, with its accompanying slump in explorations and drilling operations, plus the natural depletion of some of the producing fields in this county, has put the oil industry on the defensive against the taxing agencies and they are requesting cuts in valuations where well failures can be proved.

On the other hand, the Commissioners Court is armed with a report from its own tax evaluating engineers and hope that new production discoveries in the county during the past year may offset any losses in existing fields which may be revealed by the evaluating engineers.

But, in the event values have, in fact, slumped to such an extent that a sizable cut in taxable values faces the Commission, its members are puzzling the means of providing additional valuations to take up the slack. Meanwhile, county and school budgets have been carefully analyzed and pared wherever possible until a minimum requirement for both county and school needs for the coming year have been reached. If valuations fall below the level of supplying these needs, several avenues of possible relief must be explored, including a general raise in all property values, the formation of an independent school district to separate school and county values, and the raising of the school maintenance rate, the latter two avenues requiring prior approval by voters of the county.

But, while eyeing these possible relief avenues, members of the Court are hopeful that the report of its valuation engineers will find a balancing gain in new oil production in the county to offset some declines in fields that are being depleted.

A DESERVED RESPITE

From Ft. Stockton Pioneer

U. S. Rep. J. T. Rutherford, whose 16th Texas congressional district includes most everything west of the Pecos River and what must at times seem to him like most of what is east of it, did not draw an opponent for the approaching Democratic primary.

As a matter of principle, we are in favor of elections to public office being of the contested variety. It's in Russia that only one candidate runs.

But we must in this case offer the comment that those who had been mentioned as potential Rutherford opponents did themselves, the congressman and the electorate a favor by not running.

It's extremely doubtful that anyone could have made even a respectable showing against Rutherford, must less have defeated him. It's true, of course, that a Republican candidate may try him in the general election. But the all-out effort by Charles Gibson two years ago likely will scare off the GOP this time.

Rutherford has kept his campaign promises to the letter while in Washington. He has made known his stand on every issue, controversial or not, by having his vote recorded. He has been a true representative in that the wishes of a majority of the people in his district have been reflected in his voting record.

For those reasons, we are pleased that he was not called upon to spend a lot of time away from Washington this summer just to keep his job. Many important issues, most of them critical to West Texas, are up for decision and a congressman who knows he needs to be at home campaigning for reelection sometimes fails to study such things as carefully as he might.

As the matched greys from Fort Myer, among the very last horses left in the military establishment, pulled the caissons bearing the Unknown service men from World War II and the Korean War from the Capitol to Arlington National Cemetery, and top-ranking military and civil leaders followed them on Memorial Day, ordinary Americans must have been wondering how well or how poorly the nation has met its obligation to the three Unknowns, who will symbolize for all time the hundreds of thousands of other young Americans who shared their fate.

There was World War I, the "war to end war" — which didn't. There was World War II that destroyed Nazism — and elevated Communism from a vague threat to a towering menace.

There was Korea — that marked the first relegation of American forces to a polyglot command, and our first defeat at arms — dictated by global considerations. But most disturbing of all, must have been the thoughts aroused by the last of these symbolic dead. For he is the representative of the Korean dead — who died in vain, and for the living dead in Red Chinese prisons.

To him, especially, and to those for whom he stands, any honors the nation can give are a mockery to the givers.

Cattle Shipment Up As Summer Arrives

FORT WORTH — Cattle receipts around the major marketing loop last Monday were over 108,000 head, up about 8% from a week ago. At Fort Worth about 6,000 cattle and calves represented about a 20% increase over a week earlier, as the calendar turned into the summer quarter of the year.

Prices held fairly well on most cattle and calves. The grainfed steers and heifers closed around 50 cents lower. Cows and bulls were steady to weak, with some spots easier. Grassy yearlings and heifers of the plainer kinds were 50 cents to $1 off. But high grade killing calves and the higher grade stockers and feeders were steady.

Pastures were beginning to cure over most of the Southwest as the June sun came down. However, the movement to market was of modest proportions since most of the farmers were busy in the fields with haying and harvesting.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $23 to $28.25. Common to medium offerings sold from $16 to $23. Fat cows cleared at $17.50 to $20.50, and canners and cutters drew $12 to $17.50. Bulls sold from $17 to $22.

Good and choice slaughter calves bulked at $24 to $27.50, and common and medium sorts sold from $17 to $23. Culls sold from $14 to $17.

Stocker steer calves of medium to good kinds sold from $25 to $31, and stocker steer yearlings bulked at $26.50 downward. A string of long aged yearling steers sold at $26 and a load of feeder heifers drew $24.25.

Sheep and Lambs Open Steady, Demand Good

Trade was fairly active and prices steady on sheep and lambs at Fort Worth Monday. About the only weak spot in the trade was on stocker and feeder wether yearlings, which were slow and weak. Good and choice spring lambs cashed at $21 to $23.50, and cull to medium spring lambs at $14 to $20. Good and choice crop lambs cashed at $18 and cull to medium old at $13 to $16. A few yearlings sold from $18 to $20.

Slaughter ewes sold from $7.50, and old wethers at $12.50 down. Two-year-olds from $14 down. Goats at $10.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

By Vern Sanford

Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas — During coming months Texans will ponder and argue the wisdom of adopting sweeping changes in election procedures.

If adopted, the changes recommended by Gov. Price Daniel would alter campaign procedures more drastically than anything since the Terrell election law became effective over a half century ago.

Governor Daniel's proposals are (1) to abolish precinct conventions and, instead, elect county convention delegates at the first primary and (2) to hold primaries in May and June instead of July and August.

Such ideas are grist for mills that grind slowly. They'll be debated, pro and con, at the party conventions this summer and, probably, again by the Legislature next year.

At the June 9 meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee, the resolutions sub-committee will recommend support of the changes. Sub-committee members announced they agreed with the governor that a direct primary vote in the precincts would insure wider participation and do away with the "ugly contests, rump delegations and bitterness" that have characterized Texas party politics all the way to the national convention.

Support from the State Committee was to be expected since a majority of its members are friendly to Governor Daniel.

Opposition is anticipated, down the line, from people who regularly participate in precinct meetings. They — or at least some of them — contend the neighborhood gatherings provide the citizenry with a sort of democratic "town hall" experience. Others object to earlier elections on the grounds they would prolong the "lame duck" period for defeated incumbents.

Defenders of the anti-precinct convention plan declare it's the next logical step in a long-range trend. Before the adoption of the Terrell election law, state officials were nominated by political parties at their state conventions. Beginning in 1907 voters were given a more direct say by the use of one primary and a convention vote if no candidate received a primary majority. In 1913 this was amended to provide the present two-primary system.

Anti-Trust Inquiry — When a city or county needing supplies or equipment gets sealed bids identical to the fraction of a cent, there's a possibility the bidders got together before hand and agreed on a jacked-up price.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson says that his office has had several reports of identical bidding. He is making an intensive investigation. Suits will be filed after evidence is complete, probably within six to eight weeks.

Contracts under study involve sales of electric transformers, chlorine for swimming pools, and lime and oyster shell for street logging.

A conspiracy among bidders to raise prices can cost taxpayers in the multi-millions, Wilson commented.

Holes in the Net — With the state facing a sizable deficit next year, the Senate general investigating committee is seeking to discover if the state is getting all the tax money due it.

Members of the State Comptroller's Department, chief collecting agency, told the committee, in effect, that the collecting net was a little skinty for the potential catch.

They're way behind in their audits of large companies, said Houston area supervisor Harvey J. McKinzie. Reason, he said, is that low state salaries have caused the staff to dwindle from 24 in 1948 to 13 at present.

An audit, said McKinzie, sometimes results in recovery of large sums of additional tax money.

All or Nothing — A farmer or rancher cannot get a refund on state gasoline taxes if he uses his "agricultural gasoline" for any other purpose.

This opinion by the attorney general was given at the request of State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert, who said that a farmer wanted to correct a previous claim and get a partial refund for gasoline used partly for farming.

A farmer using gasoline on which he receives a tax refund may not drive the vehicle on a public road. Fewer Jobless — Texas Employment Commission's latest report on Texans out of work is cheerful.

For the second consecutive year the number claiming unemployment benefits dropped sharply — from 88,528 to 83,000.

Optimism is tempered by expectation of a new flow of seekers when the school term begins. Legions of graduates and former workers this week-

"Straight To The Point"

A Summary of Vacation News
From The Teenage Set

By Sally Baggett

The traffic going south is certainly getting thick. What I mean is that everyone has or is moving to the ranches this summer. The Davidsons, both families of the Friends, Millers, the Phillips', the Wards, the Whites, the Childresses, the Chandlers, and the Baggetts.
There are more kids out here than in town, nearly.

Nonie Conklin came from visiting her brother and sister-in-law in Austin. She is going to San Marcos sometime soon.

Miss Alice took Joe McMullan,
Johnny Cooper, David Sikes, Molly
Sue Richardson, and me fishing.
Believe it or not we did catch some fish and no one got real blistered.
We had lots of fun and got lots of sore feet.

Barbara Hatcher had company
from Eldorado this week. Friday Barbara and her little brother went to Louisiana. They went by train.

She said they were going to the Louisiana Hayride and she would holler at us but no one heard from her so she may not have made it that far.

Gwynel Walker, Jerry Jacobs,
Mark White and I went to Del Rio to a dance, Thursday. We had loads of fun. We stayed in Tommy Mayfield's new home. You need street signs to find your way around in that house. Tommy said to tell all the Ozona people hello,
so, 'Hi'.

Rod Franklin and Carolyn Mayfield; Stan Williams and Marilee Dale and Buddy Dale and Sandra were seen at the show Friday nite.

The dates seen at the show Sat-nite were: Joe and Molly Sue; Jerry and Gwynel; Bobby Sutton and Francis Childress; Tommy Stokes and Wanda McCaleb; Bill
Meinecke and Janet North; David Sikes and me.

Alleane Young and her Mom went to San Antonio to market early Saturday morning. They got back late Saturday night.
Sue Grover is planning to marry

June the 30th a boy from Iran.
Congratulations, Sue.

Tommy Stokes got his hand smashed while he was working and he has it all bandaged now. It looks real sneaky to see Tommy coming down the street with one hand all taped up. All kidding aside, Tommy, we hope your hand is better before very long.

Francis Sayles is here from Abilene visiting Mrs. Tandy.

Linda Millsbaugh went to Camp Waldemar Monday. She seemed to be real excited about going again and seeing her old friends.

Jakie Young has a new Impala.
Baby blue and white. Lucky boy!
However, I think Alleane drives it almost as much as Jake so maybe we should say "Lucky girl."

Well, that seems to be all for this week. — Bye.

Proper Use Of Range
Will Assure Growth
Of Better Grasses

By Dick Ketchum, SCS

A grass plant with a small, weak root system is like a dogie lamb, neither has the capacity or vigor to utilize the available nutrients. The manner in which a pasture is managed in the spring of the year will determine this growing season's production. Overutilization of a grass plant, especially when it is coming out of dormancy, may completely stop root development for as long as two weeks and restrict root growth for as long as a month.

F. J. Crider of the United States Department of Agriculture found by clipping 90% of the top growth of a grass plant, that root growth stopped for 17 days and there was only 60% of the top growth at the end of 33 days. He found by clipping 60% of the top growth of a grass plant, 45% of the root growth stopped for only five days and there was 192% root growth at the end of 33 days.

Only by properly using a grass plant, can a plant be maintained at its peak efficiency and the maximum amount of forage be produced. Properly using a grass plant means to stop utilization at the fifty percent level. Taking half and leaving half of the better range plants may mean leaving some of the poorer plants ungrazed. Livestock will usually graze the higher producing, more palatable grasses heavily so the better grasses are more dependable indicators of range use. Sideots, grama and vine-mesquite are good grasses to observe as range use indicators on a deep soil site. Buffalograss and cane bluestem are dependable range use indicators to observe on a shallow upland range. Green sprangletop and sideots grama are range use indicators that will reflect range use on the stony hill sites.

Seek Wool Cinderella National Title; Pick Texas Miss Wool July 4

San Angelo — The wool industry is offering some beauty from the thirteen western wool producing states an opportunity to become a wool Cinderella. This Cinderella will not be determined by a glass slipper as in the fairy tale, but by the size of her dress. One of the qualifications is that she must wear a size 12 dress and be not more than 5 feet, 8 inches or less than 5 feet, 4 inches tall. She must have attended at least one year at a fully accredited college or university and possess a talent that may be presented during the National Miss Wool Pageant.

Thirteen lovely lasses representing the western wool states will be flown to San Angelo for a week-long program of entertainment which will be highlighted by the National Miss Wool Pageant on Friday, August 30th. During their entire stay the finalists will be the guests of the National Wool Committee and will receive upon their arrival a beautiful coronation gown styled by Mary Carter of Dallas. The winner of the Pageant and Contest will serve as the representative of the wool industry during her year long reign and will visit fashion centers throughout the nation and possibly in foreign countries. In addition she will also receive an all wool wardrobe styled by the nation's leading designers and valued at approximately $5,000. A beautiful new Chevrolet hardtop convertible will be presented for her use during her reign.

The Texas representative will be chosen at the Texas Miss Wool Contest that will be held in San Angelo on Friday, July 4th. Entry forms and further information may be secured on this activity by writing the National Miss Wool Pageant, P. O. Box 712, San Angelo, Texas.

Jimmy Carroll, a student at Sul Ross State College, is here to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carroll. Another son of the Carrolls, Herman Carroll of the United States Navy, is here to spend a 15-day leave. He has just completed training in the Navy pharmacy school in San Diego. At the end of his leave he will return to the San Diego Naval base as a pharmacy technician.

Gilbert M. Couch—

Junior High School principal at Rusk for three years.

During his long career as a teacher and administrator, Mr. Hatley took time out on two occasions to go into other work. During World War II, he spent two years in defense work, serving in an airplane factory in Fort Worth during 1943 and 1944. Earlier, he had served in an administrative capacity with a pipeline company for a few years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatley own a stock farm near Rusk and a home in Rusk at 317 Crockett Street where they will live. He has owned the farm for several years and has had the acreage leased out. He plans to stock the place and operate it from his home in Rusk.

"It was a tough decision for us to make," Mr. Hatley said of his resignation and retirement.

"Our seven years in Ozona have been the happiest years of our lives and we hate to give it up. But I want to retire from teaching while I am still able to do something else and to enjoy some leisure."

"Both Mrs. Hatley and I have enjoyed our years in Ozona to the fullest. We have had wonderful treatment from the people and from the school administration. We have many fine friends here that we will miss sorely, but we will never forget Ozona. All of the people have been wonderful to us and we will always cherish the memory of our seven years in Ozona."

Mr. Hatley's resignation will be acted upon at a regular meeting of the school board here Friday night of this week. The board at that time will also take up the matter of a replacement for the High School principalship.

WCS In First Meet Of New Year; Mrs. Joe Pierce New President

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Wednesday morning at the Methodist church for the first meeting of the new church year. The prayer group met just before the regular meeting. Mrs. R. A. Harrell led the group. Mrs. Joe Pierce, Jr., presided at the meeting.

Mrs. S. M. Harvick, retiring president, was honored by the Society with a Thanks Gift to the district and a red corsage was pinned on her, in appreciation of her service to the society the past three years as president.

Mrs. H. B. Tandy was elected treasurer to succeed Mrs. Leroy Russell. Mrs. Harvick and Mrs. Tandy gave reports on the officers training day held recently in Sonora. Mrs. Harrell closed the meeting with a devotional.

Those attending were Mrs. Stephen Perner, Mrs. Charles Williams, Sr., Mrs. W. D. Cooper, Mrs. Floyd Henderson, Mrs. Evert White, Mrs. H. B. Tandy, Mrs. Bailey Post, Mrs. J. W.
