Pellet Pelting Of Star Grider Gives Coaches, Fans here Bad Moments

Football coaches and fans had a few bad moments this week when the report was circulated that Bobby Sutton, star halfback on the Ozona Lions football team, had been the victim of a hunting accident.

It was on the first day of the cove season Monday that young Sutton was peppered with pellets from a shotgun blast fired by a hunting companion. Ten pellets which penetrated a fraction of an inch under the skin on his right arm and neck were removed and the lad was not seriously hurt, the pellets being almost spent before striking him.

It was believed at midweek that the accident would not prevent Sutton from appearing in the lineup for the season opener here Friday night against the AA McCamey Badgers.

Ozona Teacher Again Serves On Staff Of Evangelist Graham

Miss Lola Mae Daniel, first grade teacher in the North Elementary school here, had another interesting summer as a member of the staff of Evangelist Billy Graham during his summer meetings in San Francisco and Sacramento, California and in final meeting at San Antonio, she reported on her return for the opening of schools this week.

This was the second summer Miss Daniel has served with the noted evangelist. While in California, she took a special course in primary reading at Golden Gate College in San Francisco. As a member of the Graham staff, she served as a counsellor, sang in the choir and did some special work with the Chinese Baptist Mission in San Francisco.

Miss Daniel found time to attend the National Education Assn. convention in Cleveland, Ohio, also during the past summer.

Lions In Action Here Fri. Night Against McCamey

Class AA Badgers Favored In Non-District Opener

By Ernie Boyd

The 1958 edition of the Ozona High School Lion football team will open the young season Friday night at Lion Stadium when they encounter the McCamey Badgers in a non-district clash.

The kickoff is scheduled for 8 p. m. with the double A visitors favored to take the measure of the class A Lions.

The Lions are expected to be near full strength for the clash since Bobby Sutton's injuries from a shotgun blast Monday were not as serious as first feared.

Coaches Fred Hickman and Byron Cleere have given the Lions squad a great deal of hard work and from the overall picture the team will have more game experience than any squad in recent Lion history, but unfortunately, there are places where absolutely no experienced help is available.

Senior David Sikes and Junior Bob Meinecke will probably split the quarterback duties, with both boys looking very capable in early practice sessions. Sikes, while not at quarterback, will spend most of his time at halfback where he lettered the past two years.

Johnny Jones, who was favored to be the quarterback this season, is still out with a broken foot even though the cast was removed last Friday. It does not seem likely that Jones will be ready for some time to come.

Joining the quarterback will be a halfback combination of veteran Bobby Sutton and Soph Jim Freeman or Sikes with either Freeman or Reeves at fullback.

Soph Tony Parker and senior Don Powers are expected to see plenty of action.

It was expected that the Lions would be very thin in the backfield this season but the unexpected showing of both Freeman and Parker has given coach Hickman what may be the deepest backfield talent he has had since he came to Ozona.

In the front line, squadmen Dick Flannigan and lettermen Leslie Deland, Johnny Cooper, and B. B. Ingham give the Lions a good picture at tackle. Ronnie Beall and Robert Rodriguez split time at tackle and center and offer additional depth at either position.

The guard positions are both occupied by veterans Billy Bob Holden and Kenneth Deland with Adolfo Rivera, Bill Meinecke, Tommy Porter, Wayne Albers and Joe McMullan all working at the position.

While on offense B. B. Ingham will handle the center post with help from Beall and Rodriguez. On defense no center is used.

In the defensive backfield platoon, David Sikes, Jerry Jacobs, Dizzy Reeves and Jim Williams have been getting the call most of the time but Bobby Sutton, Don Powers, Bob Meinecke and Jim Freeman all get the call from time to time.

Cave Explorers Conclude Two-Day Convention Here

Interesting Talks, Pictures Highlights Speleunkers Sessions

Speleologists from all grottos in Texas and many from other states, including Alabama, Tennessee and New Mexico were engrossed in talking about their favorite hobby, cave exploring, in a two-day convention of the Texas Region of the National Speleological Society held here Saturday and Sunday.

Presiding over the convention was Harvey Jackson of Corpus Christi, Texas Regional chairman. The convention was addressed at its opening session by County Judge Houston Smith, who welcomed the visitors and described some of the cave attractions in this region. Royce Ballinger of the Ozona Grotto described the 9-9 Water Well Cave near Ozona.

Other speakers included Dr. O. G. Babcock of Sonora on cave insect; Dave Kysar of Houston on Longhorn Cave r'n explorations; Jamie Spence of the University of Texas grotto on speleodiving; Homer Semkens of the U. T. Grotto on cave fossils; Harvey Jackson on pit climbing techniques, with panel discussions on the subject by Bill Russell of Bryan and James Quinlan of Blacksburg, Va.; Don Widener of Dallas on a cave survey of Texas; George W. Moore on Cass Cave, and a paper by Dr. W. R. Halliday of Seattle on cave formations.

More than a hundred persons attended the Saturday evening session which was devoted to showing of movies and slides of cave explorations in Texas and elsewhere in the U. S. and in France. A highlight of the convention was the Sunday evening dinner banquet at El Sombrero Cafe at which guests heard an interesting talk by George W. Moore, vice president for administration of the National Speleological Society. His subject was the importance of earth tides and bacteria on cave formation.

The fourth convention of the Texas Regional will be held in San Antonio the second week-end in January. New officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Don Widener of Dallas, chairman; James Manning of Dickenson, vice chairman; Mills Tandy of Ozona, secretary; David Kysar of Houston, treasurer, and Marvin Koepeke of San Antonio, Board of Governors.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. West spent the past week-end in Austin.

V. H. Ratliff Sells Dry Goods Business To Brother Charles

Ozona's two Ratliff stores merged under one ownership this week. Vernon Ratliff owner of the Ratliff Store, a dry goods and clothing store, sold his stock and fixtures to his brother, Charles Ratliff, owner of the Ratliff Furniture, and the two businesses have been merged in adjoining stores at the site of the furniture store. The dry goods business had been operated for a number of years by Vernon Ratliff in the Perner building, next door to the Ozona Drug. The erstwhile furniture store location, the Joe Oberkamp building next to the Ozona National Bank, has been cleared to make room for the dry goods business and the furniture business moved next door north in the building occupied until Sept. 1 by Stan's Radio and Television Service. Stan's has moved to the Tom Allen building, the former Perdue Grocery building, now undergoing repairs after a recent fire.

Wool Research To Be Expanded By USDA At California Plant

COLLEGE STATION — A lot of Texas will be interested in a new plant being constructed in California. Construction of a new wool-processing laboratory, a unique facility in the U. S. Department of Agriculture and, in fact, in the country, has begun on the grounds of the Western Utilization Research Laboratory in Albany, Calif., the Department reports.

The new building will be two stories high and have 18,000 square feet of floor area. It will permit a large expansion of the Department's research on new wool products and processes. Pilot-scale equipment for processing raw wool into finished worsted fabric will be installed. Later, the plant also is to be equipped for production of knitted and soft woolen goods.

Research on improved methods of processing wool, new wool products, and treatments to make wool garments easy to care for will be conducted in the new building. Improved wool properties sought include resistance to yellowing and shrinkage, permanent pleats, and more rapid drying, and less need for pressing.

The plant is expected to be in operation early in 1959. It is an addition to the Wool and Mohair Laboratory, part of the Western Utilization Research and Development Division of USDA's Agricultural Research Service.

Interesting Film On Land Titles Available Thru Tex. Title Assn.

Mrs. Corlette Meinecke, manager of the Crockett County Abstract Co. and Regional Vice President of Region 5, Texas Title Association, and as such a member of the board of directors of the statewide organization, attended a meeting of the officers and directors of the Association in Austin last week.

While at the convention, Mrs. Meinecke was advised that a very interesting film, with commentary, on the history of land, land titles and ancient and modern methods of title transfers, surveys, etc. is available through the Texas Association for free showing to local groups.

The film is educational in nature in that it gives laymen an insight into the intricate records and systems under which land titles are traced from original grants to present owners, how early day mistakes of surveyors and deed writers may be finally corrected, and the procedures for such correction, or remain as a title hurdle thru hundreds of later transfers.

Civic groups, schools or clubs may secure use of the film without cost by contacting Mrs. Meinecke.

As Regional Vice President for this area, Mrs. Meinecke has a 30-county area under her jurisdiction. Ozona will be host to the regional convention in December, thereby becoming the smallest town in the area ever to entertain the annual convention.

"I knew I could depend on Ozona to help me, therefore I invited the convention here," Mrs. Meinecke said.

CAMPAIGN STATIC

With a $12 billion deficit for the current fiscal year and authorization to raise the temporary limit on the national debt to $288 billion staring him in the face, President Eisenhower indicated to his latest press conference that he would campaign this fall for a Republican Congress to give the nation a more nearly balanced budget and sound money to give the nation "a good, healthy, thriving, progressive economy."

In the same session, the President noted that his "greatest disappointment" had been the cut of something over $400 million in his $3.9 billion foreign aid request. He also disappointed, he said, at the failure of Congress to enact legislation to curb racketeering in the labor-management field.

On the other hand, it will be recalled that his outstanding legislative victory was probably passage of the four year extension of the Reciprocal Trade program with increased authority to cut tariffs.

Thus, any electioneering the President may undertake for his party along the lines indicated will be reminiscent of his 1952 time-for-a-change campaign promising a balanced budget, drastic reductions in the cost of Government — with a comparable shot in the arm for the national economy. While these objectives had been pretty well forgotten by 1956, no one seemed to mind and Mr. Eisenhower was returned to office very handsily, so perhaps this siren song is still good. Technically, this has been a Democratic Congress. But it has been far from hostile, and neither the Congress nor the Administration has shown any interest in reducing either our massive bureaucracy or its extravagances, or in acting to check the dizzying spiral of inflation. In fact, the appointment of a new commission or study group has been the common White House reaction to a new problem.

The peculiar theory of Reciprocal Trade — that we can pay high wages, impose little or no tariff on low-wage countries whom we have equipped for mass production, and still meet such competition; or that it doesn't matter much if some American industries go down the drain — is compounded of equal parts of New Republicanism and New Dealism. Along with aid programs and globalism in general it has come to be known as "Bipartisanship," and should make both parties look a little silly as campaign-time approaches.

As matters stand, the voters are apathetic, and doubtless have a right to be. More of the Eisenhower broken-record on budget balancing and economy will not excite them. Nor do we see any other figure on the political scene who has what-it-will-take.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

By Vern Sanford

Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Texas — Texas' 56th Legislature, though not yet sworn in, already casts a long shadow over Statehouse activities.

Its membership was settled — or virtually settled — with the counting of the Democratic second primary votes. A few will have Republican opponents in November.

Of more interest now is the 56th will lean on key issues. Political prophets already are taking pulse readings and pronounce it likely to be more liberal than its predecessor. But not predominately liberal. A big influx of newly-elected liberals from Houston is expected to be offset by Dallas conservatives, plus others from small towns.

On next session's crucial issue — finance — everyone's crystal ball seems a bit cloudy. Next Legislature will have to grapple with a financial deficit which the Legislative Budget Board has predicted may call for as much as $140,000,000 in additional tax revenue.

Winning candidates, in both their speeches and newspaper announcements, were understandably sketchy and unspecific in making specific in making specific proposals for dealing with this gigantic problem. Many came out flatly against a general sales tax or state income tax. Numerous suggestions were made to balance the budget through "economy in government, elimination of waste, duplication," etc.

Such statements are like the breeze off an iceberg to state departments, many of whom have said they'll be asking for more, not less money, next session.

When the showdown comes, decisions will be made largely by the same group who pushed the voting buttons in '57. All told, there'll be 49 new faces among the 181 lawmakers.

Replacing the three retiring senators, Ottis Lock of Lufkin, Searcy Bracewell of Houston and Charles Ashley of Llano will be Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin, Robert W. Baker of Houston and Louis Crump of San Saba.

House will have 46 freshmen, slightly less than the normal one-third turn-over of its 130 members. Changes result from the retirement of 33 representatives, defeat of 13 others.

Mangled Math — When the next speaker of the House of Representatives takes office in January, some confused arithmetic will be cleared up.

A speaker is elected at the start of each regular session by the 130 House members. Support, in the form of signed pledges, is lined up well in advance of the session's start.

This year, when the dust settled from the run-off primary, both contenders claimed victory. Rep. Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, present speaker, said he had 80 pledges. Rep. Joe Burkett of Kerrville claimed 77 pledges. In addition, Burkett said he knew of 15 House members who had made no pledges.

All the claims added to 171 representatives — 22 more than the people elected.

BIG DAY DUE — San Antonio out of the Alamo may see another busy scrap Tuesday (Sept. 8) when Texas Democrats of widely varying sentiments gather for state convention.

No one is making any grand predictions on what will happen, but pre-convention rumblings promise at least some of the usual fireworks.

A group of conservatives are working on ways to bounce the militantly liberal Mrs. Frankie Randolph from her post as national committeewoman. Easing the chairman of the Democrats of Texas and leader of the opposition to state party leadership at the pro-George-Lieber national committee post a hard task.

But removing a national committeewoman offers difficulties. Mrs. Randolph's name is on the national committee members' roll. Whether a state convention could undo the national convention is not ordinarily shown.

Another possible source of friction is the selection of the State Executive Committee Chairman.

of Texarkana. Abilene Oilman Ed Connally has been mentioned as a prospect.

Liberal delegates and supporters of Sen. Ralph Yarborough are expected to fight hammer and tongs against a Connally drive. Connally was a strong supporter of William Blakely in his Senate race against Yarborough and headed Gov. Price Daniel's precinct convention fight against the DOT.

Short Snorts — State Board of Water Engineers has scheduled a hearing for Sept. 18 on the proposed Diablo Dam on the Rio Grande River. Gov. Price Daniel has proclaimed September and October as "American heritage months," a period in which people are to be encouraged to vote on an informed basis and contribute to the political parties of their choice.

Applicants For Driver Licenses Snafu D.P.S. By Lack of Information

The Texas Department of Public Safety reported today that it is returning applications and fees for renewal of Texas Driver Licenses at the rate of one thousand per week because of information insufficient to identify the applicant.

The wholesale return of DL applications brought on by the omission of a number of factors that must be included for the proper identification of the person desiring to renew his driver license. The department reported that it must have the full name of the individual, his person's birth date and current address. The number of the old license is a quick means of identification.

What if the information needed is already included on the renewal of license that is sent to the department by the motorist prior to the expiration of his license. A driver is provided for that license owner to change his address.

E. C. Smith, manager of the D.P.S. License Issuance and Driver Record section reports that most of the difficulty comes when a person applies for renewal without returning a renewal notice. In this type of renewal application the individual simply writes a letter and includes the fee.

The News Reel
 A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman, Sept. 5, 1933

Although final figures are not available from all schools in the county, a big increase in enrollment, both in Ozona schools and in the rural schools, is expected this year, Supt. John L. Bishop said. An increase of approximately 10 percent was registered in the high and grade schools here. High school registered 82 students, the grade school had 212 and 71 in the Mexican school.

W. C. Latham, 62-year-old road worker here the last six years, was married last week to Miss Wilma Rasco of Lamesa, 17.

Hitch hiking over 400 miles for a thrill or pleasure jaunt may be satisfying to the more adventurous, but hitching that distance to do a stretch in the state penitentiary shows either an unusual penitence or a desire to make the jury which convicted him feel sorry. Anyway, that's what Bill Pate did. Given a two-year sentence here for attempted murder in a knife attack on Lindsey Maynard, Pate was missing in these parts when officers sought to take him in after his time for appeal had expired. He later turned up at Huntsville where prison officials took him in.

Dock Lee, a fourth-year veteran on the Ozona High School football squad, was chosen by his teammates as captain of the 1933 Lions at a meeting of the squad Monday afternoon, the opening day of school.

Houston Smith left the first of the week for Oklahoma to bring back his mother who has been visiting relatives there.

In line with policies of the West Texas Utilities Co., rate reductions in 11 cities and towns in this territory were announced by officials of the company here this week. The reduction will mean a saving of approximately 10 percent in the average electric bill.

Miss Linora Dudley, Miss Betsy Pope and John Stuart, all of Fort Worth, Louis T. Holland and Roy Huchton of St. Joe, Texas, and Bill Littleton of Ozona, are guests of Misses Lucille and Eleanor Ingham at the Ingham home here and at the ranch on the Pecos.

Mrs. Roy Henderson is convalescing from an operation in a Temple hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Elam Dudley of Fort Worth were here over the week-end for a visit with their children.

Mrs. Kate Moore of Bay City is here to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Pierce, Jr., and family.

The old home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Deland is being torn down preparatory to erection of a new one on the same site.

Miss Marie Doty of Eldorado is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Owens and Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Owens have returned from Salt Lake City where they attended the ram sale sponsored by the National Wool Growers Assn. Mr. Owens and son bought several rams for their registered flock of Rambouillet.

THE 85TH Congress, adjourned at 4:11 a. m. on August 26, 1958, was — whatever else it might have been — a Congress of crisis.

First crisis came in the initial session (1957) when the public demanded major reduction in President Eisenhower's record — $14.1 peacetime budget of $72.3 billion. Congress responded, curbing $5.5 billion from the President's requests.

But three major crises in the second session led the people to be more concerned over immediate remedies of these situations than in economy — and the Congress acted accordingly.

The first crisis of the 1958 session came, actually, 91 days before Congress convened when Russia's Sputnik I blazed across the skies. Faced with the possibility of losing the balance of power to Russia, Congress had many defense problems with which to contend.

In the midst of this preparation came Crisis No. Two: domestic in nature, it was an economic recession that sent in April (darkest point of the economic turnaround) the unemployment figure to as high as 20% in some of 17 key industrial states which were hard hit.

Hardly had the work of this challenge begun until the third and perhaps most frightening crisis arrived: the Middle East flare-up which saw us send troops to that area and be close to war that at any time since Korea in 1950.

OTHER MAJOR problems that would themselves have been world-shattering crisis had it not been for the three examples cited earlier, included:

Shocking McClellan Committee revelations on unethical practices of some labor leaders; Adams-Goldfine inquiry leading to questions about Government ethics; the sound and the fury over major reorganization of the Defense Department; the disturbing incident in Venezuela where Vice-President and Mrs. Nixon faced possible death from an angry mob of people we had considered our friends; the between-session trouble at race-terr Little Rock High School in Arkansas.

FOR BETTER OR FOR worse, the 85th Congress may look back on this record.

DEFENSE: Enacted Military pay raise of $57 million annually; Comprehensive Defense Reorganization Bill after rejecting more stringent bill of 1957; President's $39.4 million Defense budget for fiscal 1958; Creation of first Congressional Executive bodies concerned with Outer Space.

FARM: Enacted a compromise measure late in session (after Presidential veto of another farm bill) providing lower price supports of cotton, rice, corn; allowed corn farmer to fix themselves of planting controls; prevented sharp reduction in cotton acreage allotment; extended domestic wool growing subsidies for three more years; Also extended Bracero Labor Law an additional year.

STATES RIGHTS: House passed bill to return many matters to State control but Senate killed (41 to 40) a bill to curtail Supreme Court powers.

OIL DEPLETION: Senate defeated move to reduce oil depletion allowance from present 27% percent.

TAXES: Congress upheld President's decision against major tax cuts, making exception only of small business field, hard-hit by record high bankruptcies.

EDUCATION: Defeated again a proposal for Federal Aid to school construction. Enacted $877 million bill to establish loans to needy students, improve teacher training, purchase science-teaching aids. Repealed Eisenhower proposal for out-going Federal Scholarships in scientific technical fields.

LABOR: Passed measure requiring public disclosure of welfare and pension funds. Kennedy-Ives Labor Reform Bill, to attain 17 broad objectives of the McClellan Committee, was killed (in almost straight party-line vote) by House Republicans.

NATIONAL DEBT: Granted President's requests to raise debt limit to record $268 billion; $10 billion "permanently," another $3 billion "temporarily."

POSTAGE: Voted postage rate increase bringing in $547 million annually and also pay raise for 500,000 postal workers; Enacted Emergency Housing Act of $1.8 billion early in recession period, later amended $1 billion Omnibus Housing Bill; Extended Reciprocal Trade Program for four years; Increased Social Security benefits (and taxes to finance new outlay) by 7%.

Yukon Statehood for Alaska, putting Hawaii aside until next year.

I AM PLEASSED that once again I compiled a 100% voting-attendance record this session, keeping intact my record of attendance during my service in the Congress.

Several of my bills were enacted and signed into law, two of them in the first session being listed as among the major 34 bills of that session by Congressional leaders. (These involved matters concerning the long-staple cotton industry; Deferred Grazing Plan).

More than 350 West Texans individually visited my Washington office during the 85th Congress, in addition to several large school and Scout groups. I received and answered more than 60,000 letters, telegrams, post cards and telephone calls during the 85th Congress and between the sessions made a "mobile office" tour of 10 West Texas counties in addition to visiting the other three. I also kept my El Paso office open, where I spent a great deal of time personally.

THIS CONCLUDES the Report to the People until Congress convenes next January. Thanks to all who have written so many letters of understanding and encouragement about my efforts, and my special thanks to The Ozona Stockman for using the Report to the People each week.
