Mountain Of Burglary Loot Found In Car Of Four Houston Youths

Lions May Face Toughest Test In Bronte Fri. Night

Big, Rugged Steers To Introduce Locals To Single Wing Attack

The Ozona Lions, with two wins under their belt this season, may be facing their toughest challenge of the season this week as they travel to Bronte to face the big, rugged Steers.

The Bronte team, which runs a single wing offense and which was a regional champion last season, opened their season, last week by crushing a not too small May team. Ozona scouts reported that the Bronte team, even though losing a number of their stars from last season, will present a big, rough, well coached eleven considerably larger than the Lions.

The meeting between the two elevens will be the first since 1953 when the two met in Ozona with the Lions eking out a 6 to 0 win.

To give the Ozona fans an idea on how strong the Steers were last year, they walloped Eldorado by a seven or eight touchdown margin.

The Bronte eleven will be the first single wing team the Lions have faced since Sonora last year. The only other single wing team faced by the Lions in recent years has been the Sanderson Eagles, who will play in Ozona later this season.

Coaches Fred Hickman and Sonny Cleere have been busy all week revising the Lions defensive tactics, since a large number of the current starters have never faced a single wing offense before.

The most successful type of defense against the single wing has been traditionally the great, hard to block, end and large, rock like tackles. The Lions have neither of these assets even though they have had in the past few years when they have been very successful in defending the single wing attack.

The Lions will have to rely on aggressive line play and alert fleet linebackers to offset the intricate reverses and strong power plays of the Bronte eleven.

The Lions emerged from the Coahoma contest with a number of bumps and bruises but only Hal Long was being held out a contact work this week. Long pulled a muscle in his thigh but it is hoped

OFF THE TRACK

We have been hearing so long and loudly that old refrain about Labor's sacred right to strike that we are in a state bordering on hypnosis where any sensible analysis of labor stoppage is concerned.

The current strike of Mike Quill's Transport Worker's Union against the Pennsylvania Railroad provides a made-to-order example in which this "right" is mere presumption. By their decision to stop working, the 15,000 TWU maintenance workers and 5,000 members of three other non-operating unions idled 52,000 non-striking workers and stalled the nation's largest railroad on its tracks.

We cannot weep over the plight of the non-striking. As union men they should accept their "furlough" as part of the game. More cogent is the charge of six governors and eleven mayors in the area served by the Pennsy — which is the most populous and highly industrialized in the nation — of injury to the public interest.

But, despite the hardships imposed on millions of innocent bystanders and thousands of businesses, the impediment of national defense operations and the movement of the US Mails, these impositions, however intolerable, are still not in contravention of established acceptance of the right to strike.

An examination of the issues on which the strike was called, however, should reveal to any thoughtful American, whether a union member or not, that the cherished right to strike has been abused, and both this labor principle and the future of our competitive economic system placed in serious jeopardy.

These unions are striking, not for more money or shorter hours or better working conditions, but for the right to tell the Pennsylvania management how to run a very important segment of its business. They want narrower job classification, so that no man's job will include different kinds of work, and more significantly, they would restrain the railroad from employing outside firms in repairing or building new rolling stock and equipment.

Thus it is high time to take a fresh look at the functions and prerogatives of labor unions and those of business management and ownership. The right to strike is the right of the worker, as exercised through his union, to protect himself against abuse, exploitation or unjust treatment by an employer with whom he can not deal directly. The right of managers and owners is the right to make and implement the policies of a business. In this area, the right to strike does not exist.

If, as and when it does, we shall have embraced anarchy and economic dissolution.

UNION MADE GOVERNMENT?

Organized labor is making a mighty effort to capture the United States government in November. COPE, the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, has amassed a huge treasury and marshalled an army of door bell ringers to push election of the union's hand-picked candidates.

Striving to put a union label on the Democratic Party, union leaders succeeded in getting an amazing number of their own legislative policies written into the party's national platform. They have loudly endorsed the party national and are now repeating the endorsement state-by-state.

But the labor bosses do not balk at party lines. Individual candidates — whether Democrat or Republican — have been singled out for defeat or support on the single question of whether they will follow the labor line.

The union goal is a Congress and Administration that will enact labor's full legislative program. This is the same program that only a few years ago almost completely socialized Great Britain and threw that nation into a monumental bureaucratic and economic mess.

The labor leaders may not reach their goal, this year or any year. Union members, being Americans and individuals, do not always display the sheep-like qualities demanded by their leaders. In the privacy of the polling booth, they frequently act on their own judgment of what is good for the country, rather than on what the union bosses tell them is good for the union.

Cubs Are Game But Outmanned As Sonora B Team Cops 28 to 2

By Roy Killingsworth

Outscored, outclassed, outweighed, outran but not outought: that is the story of the game played by the Ozona Cubs in Sonora last Thursday night.

The final score was 28 to 2 in favor of Sonora but that is not the story of the game as the first downs in the game were even. The difference in the game was that most of the scoring by Sonora was done on long runs, one of which was for 98 yards and came at the end of the game with buzzer sounding as the run was in progress.

In the game against the Cubs Sonora used seven sophomores, sixteen freshmen and a 250 pound eighth grader. In fact any one of the twenty-four boys on their squad could have made many high school teams according to weight. Experience was their only weakness.

Their first team composed of four sophomores and seven freshmen could score most any time they wished but their second team was not quite so good and could be defended by the Cubs. The Cubs could move the ball against the second unit but each time they got within scoring territory the first unit would come back into the ball game.

Enough about the team from Sonora: The Cubs did themselves proud on that night. They fought from the opening kickoff until the whistle with each boy doing a good job. Each of the twenty-four boys on the Cub squad saw action on at least two or three occasions. This squad was composed of seven freshmen, eleven 8th graders and five seventh graders. We will not be able to tell you the outstanding boys from the Cub squad as they each did what was expected from them. Some did a much better job than others, but some are better equipped than others and more was expected from them. The Cub offense sputtered at times because of lack of game experience which will improve as the year progresses.

Ozona Cubs received their two points when Jimmy Semmler tackled one of the Sonora backs for a seven yard loss behind their own goal line.

These boys saw action in the Sonora game: Pon Seahorn, Milton Colquitt, Bryan Montgomery, Scott Mahon, Morgan Tolle, Billy Carson, Sammy Cervantez, Pete Garza, Paul Perner, Aaron Shackelford, David Stokes, Buddy Smith, George Kyle, Dude Melton, Len Merritt, LeRoy Cooper, Ronnie Mason, Bob Caruthers, Jimmy Semmler, Richard Vargas, Rick Hagelstein, Bobby Amthor and Joel Huff.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Tea guest cut went to Mrs. Bill Cooper. Others attending were Mrs. Bailey Post, Mrs. Nelson Long, Mrs. J. S. Pierce, III, Mrs. V. I. Pierce Mrs. T. J. ARE YOU GETTING YOUR MONEY'S WORTH?

Vicki Carroll

As we all quite realize, this is the third week of school. Have we, as the student body, accomplished anything worthwhile? Is our work satisfactory to us as well as our instructors? Our school system has supplied us with an excellent source of knowledge, and it is all for our benefit that we make the very best use of it.

Many students come to school just because they have to. How many, many times we hear the saying from some student, "Well, if it weren't for my folks, I surely wouldn't be going to school!" Do you realize really just what it would be like to quit school now and earn your own living? Most students don't know when they make such a profound statement.

During study hall, most all of us are guilty of simply wasting our time, instead of preparing our lessons for the next day. Have you ever noticed how irritated the study hall teacher becomes as some continually talk after he has stressed the fact plainly five or six times for everyone to be quiet? Let's try to be more co-operative with these teachers and at least hold the noise down to a small roar.

How well is our school spirit? This spirit doesn't necessarily have to pertain to sports alone. During assembly every Wednesday morning, do we give our whole-hearted attention? Our speakers work hard to present a program to us, and they do deserve the respect of the audience. So, during assembly, instead of cramming for that next-period test, let's show our school spirit by giving our undivided attention to the program.

FOOTBALL SCRIBE TURNS POETIC

Mark Baggett

Glory! Glory! The Ozona Lions are undefeated, untied, and ill-manered. Coahoma rolled up a mighty 96 yards rushing to Ozona's 110 yards in penalties. Because of this the Lion team will probably take a course in the correct etiquette while playing football.

The team is in fabulous shape this year. They can even start calisthenics immediately after making it to the field before games, instead of waiting five minutes before proceeding with the evils of football. (Of course Ozona's taking the North end of the field instead of the south end wouldn't have anything to do with it.) There are now 29 football players (fortunately for the starters only 23 are eligible.)

There have been some under-handed remarks cast at this writer's poetic ability in recent weeks so to put Longfellow and Poe in their place here is —
"Football"

Football is indeed an exciting game (for the strong and insane!)

The rules are difficult enough, and Lord do tell how things get rough.

And if by chance you do get tired, there will always be the bench to ride.

But all in all football is grand especially if you're in the stands. With this piece of poetic excellence I will close this for this week, adios.

CAMPBELL NAMED TEACHER OF THE WEEK

Richard Sikes

Mr. Campbell, teacher of the week, was born on July 12, 1935 at Breckenridge, Texas. Mr. Campbell went to Breckenridge High School and after graduating attended McMurry College and then to North Texas State where he received his Bachelors Degree in Music. From North Texas he went to Texas Tech where he received his Master of Education.

After attending Texas Tech Mr. Campbell went to Vandercook College of Music in Chicago and from there back to the University of Texas where he worked on his Doctorate Degree. Mr. Campbell married his wife, Mary Jo, in 1956 and has two children Jimmy, 2, and Mark, 8 months. Mr. Campbell has taught at Plains 2 years and Breckenridge one year. Mr. Campbell has just started his first year at Ozona High School as its band director. Mr. Campbell and his family are members of the Methodist Church.

"THE SIGN"

Jimmie Adams

Awhile back on a trip
Out in the West
I passed a town
One of the very best.

In the town square
Was a sign covered in glass
That stated "All Dogs and Soldiers
Will kindly Keep off the Grass"

As time passed on
Along came a war
Away marched the men
By the dozen and score.

As the war went on Down came the sign
As the good people
For their dead began crying.

Now the war is over
Johnny has come marching home
In the grass grows clover,
The war is fading in time.

In the square stands
A sign covered in glass
"All Ye Dogs and Soldiers
Keep off the Grass".

JUNIORS MUST REGISTER NOW FOR N.M.S. TESTS

All 1962 graduates of Ozona School who wish to enter the 1961-62 National Merit Scholarship competition should register now at the school office, Mr. Pelto, principal, announced today. The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be given at 9 a. m., Tuesday, March 7, 1962.

To be eligible for the test, Ozona High School students must be second-semester juniors or first-semester seniors at the time of the examination. Students must pay a $1 fee on the day of the test. Any interested student who is unable to pay the fee should consult Mr. Pelto.

The tests are given each year by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation as part of the nation's largest independent scholarship program.

Awards are granted on the basis of intellectual merit, but student financial needs determine the size of individual stipends, which are renewable each year without further testing.

The NMS exam, administered by Science Research Associates of Chicago, also is valuable to students for selecting their careers or planning their courses in high school and college.

After the test, each participating student will receive an interpretive folder that reports individual test results for comparison with scores of high school students across the country. Thus, students may learn their educational strength and weakness — whether or not they plan to attend college.

In addition to the NMS grants established in 1955 by the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York, about 115 industrial corporations, foundations and individuals give scholarship agencies utilize the services of the NMSC in awarding their scholarships.

SEASON OPENS ON SENIOR RINGS

The Senior rings arrived Thursday after a long wait by the Seniors. The measurements for them were taken at the end of last year, but it is a policy of the school to wait to see how many of the Juniors will become Seniors.

The rings are the standard ones that have been received for the last few years. They have a heavy gold setting with an oval purple stone. They have the school name and the year on them. On the inside, the Senior's initials are engraved.

STARTLING THINGS MIGHT HAPPEN IF . . .

Judy Black

This poll was taken from a group of very intelligent students. I thought up half of a sentence, and without their knowing what it was they thought up the other half. My half was, "If Mr. Pelto resigned." Their half was:

- 1 I'd eat all the lilly pads in the fish pond — Janet
- 2 I'd stay in school another four years — Mary Lou
- 3 I'd get the queen to solve the troubles. — Bob
- 4 W'd win all the football games — Tony
- 5 I wouldn't have to take chemistry — Sandra
- 6 I'd be sick for a month — Randy
- 7 Maybe we'd get a new flag — Student Council
- 8 I'd throw a party! — Mark
- 9 I'd give more gun club announcements. — Phillip
- 10 I would apply for the job as principal — Henry
- 11 I'd read all the books in the library — Frank
- 12 I'd sell my little red car — Betty
- 13 I'd let the football boys stay out past 10:30 — Jayne
- 14 I'd write up a petition to get an air-conditioning system — Sandy
- 15 I'd abolish noon duty — Miss Powers

COMMUNISM COSTS SIXTEEN DOLLARS

Mike Stiles

Have Communists taken over Ozona High School?

When the Ozona School held their first assembly, could not say the flag because it had been (stolen). The Student Body pressed their wishes for a new flag. It was a good deal after fifty star flag. It is a new flag would have been chased even though they had not occurred.

The new flag cost money which goes to above the cost of combating communism.

FISH PARADE IN PARIS FASHION

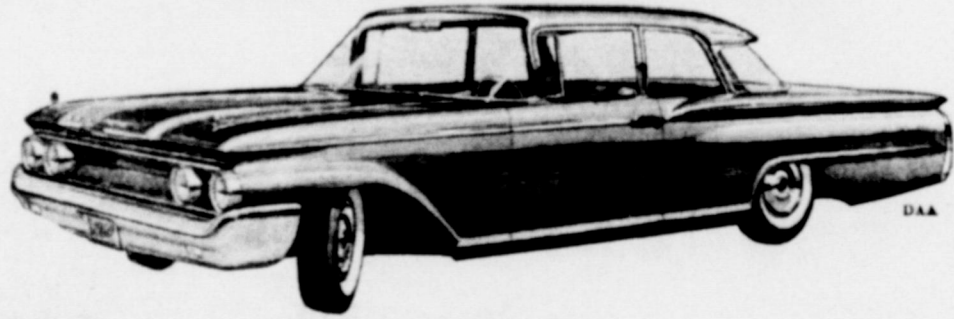

Sandy Smith

"Satellite" That was a similar cry yesterday. When came the familiar sight of men frozen in odd positions, the sky for falling. Freshman day was held on September 14, with the freshmen by student representatives. All freshmen dressed in feminine clothes, waddled around school in hose, hats, earrings, etc. The girls came dressed with ties, hats and long long freshmen could be going along after making loads of books and papers.

The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman, Sept. 17, 1931

Enrollment records for many years past were smashed when the 1931-32 term of Ozona schools got under way Monday morning. Both the grades and high school showed a substantial gain over last year's enrollment. The high school enrolled 100, a gain of 14 over last year and the grades showed a gain of 28. A record 1932 graduating class of 25 was counted at school opening.

The Ozona Tailor Shop changed hands this week when Tommy Hunter acquired the interest of Jake Young in the establishment.

Facing one of the brightest gridiron prospects in years, the Ozona High School Lions, under a new coach, Ted White, will launch the new season Saturday afternoon in a practice game with a raw team from Sherwood High School.

The third quarterly clean-up campaign, sponsored by the Ozona Woman's Club, will get under way in Ozona Monday of next week. The Club's civic committee, composed of Mrs. Lee Childress, Mrs. Evert White and Mrs. Albert Kay, is in charge of the campaign.

In the event a satisfactory report results from a final checkup of representations made to the company, actual construction work on a modern sanitary sewer system for Ozona will start within the next 10 to 15 days, it was announced here this week by J. S. Barlow, independent engineer, representing Crockett County in negotiations with the Southwest Sewer Co. of Dallas.

A Texas raised registered Hereford bull, Beau Gwen 14th, bred and raised by Joe T. Davidson of Ozona, was senior champion at the Nebraska State Fair in Lincoln last week. The bull won the championship at the 1931 Crockett Co. Show.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Squires left church Sunday night to take a nap in the family car. When the Squires came out of church they found their car empty and the boy missing. A frantic search went on until about 11 p. m. when the child was discovered, still sleeping peacefully in the back seat of the R. J. Cooke car which was parked in the family garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Taylor are waiting until completion of a new house under construction to move to the ranch they have leased near Juno.

By unanimous vote of the commissioners Court Monday it was ordered that Crockett county operate under Chapter 3, Title 116, revised statute of 1925, and that all male persons between the ages of 21 and 45 be required to work not more than five days each year on the public roads of the county or be subject to fines and penalties as provided by law. Road overseers named by the court are Fernin Aguirre, George Brown, J. H. McMichaels, Louis Hersey and S. W. Westfall.

Notes From The County Agent's Office

By Pete W. Jacoby

If your mulberry tree turns yellow and loses its leaves it could be certain leaf spot diseases causing the trouble, according to Harlan E. Smith, Extension Plant Pathologist.

The leaf diseases first appear in the spring. With above average rain throughout the season, the leaf spots continue to build up and cause more damage.

These fungal leaf spots may be of different sizes and colors. They lower the aesthetic value and vigor of the tree. Mulberries damaged by leaf spots are more subject to damage by drought, winter injury and other pests.

If the value of the shade tree is enough to justify the cost, a preventive spray program is effective in reducing the damage by leaf spots. Use 2 tablespoons of zineb or 2 tablespoons of captan per gallon of water. Add a spreader-sticker to the spray. A combination of zineb and captan may be more effective. Zineb or captan may be used with safety during any part of the year. It is more important to have plants protected during times of above average rainfall or high humidity.

With bacterial leaf spot it may be necessary to spray with streptomycin or fixed copper. A combination of streptomycin and fixed copper may be more effective. The use of spreader-sticker and avoiding hot weather will tend to lessen fixed copper spray damage.

Fertilization and watering in 1961 will help improve health of mulberry trees. Avoid wetting foliage while watering as this tends to spread leaf spots.

Rats are one of the most destructive and dangerous pests to have around a farm, ranch or home. They contaminate stored grain and exposed food and feed, they kill poultry and young livestock, they start fires, diseases such as leptospirosis, contagious abortion, trichinosis, distemper, atrophic rhinitis, plague, typhus, salmonella, food poisoning and rabite fever are carried from place to place by these pests.

The rat population on your place can be controlled, however, if you will put forth a little time and effort. An extensive sanitation program, coupled with the use of anticoagulant baits, will effectively control the rat population. Once the rats have been eliminated, a small number of permanent baits and continued sanitation will help prevent reinfestation.

As long as there are rats in the area, however, your farm or ranch is in constant danger of becoming infested. The local county agent can help by contacting rodent control specialists of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. These specialists, working with the county agent and you and your neighbors, will help institute a county-wide control program. Such programs are far more effective than localized, one-farm operations.

The visitors seemed stunned at the second Lion score and promptly set about correcting the situation. Little Royce Aberegg set things in motion as he rolled out for ten yards and then picked up six and then five yards for a second first down before turning the tables on the Lions with their own maneuver.

Aberegg, facing third and short yardage, rolled to his left as the Lions pulled up in an eight man front, a slight opening occurred just inside end and Aberegg headed for it and just as he was hit pitched wide to Doc Reeves who was in the open for the next forty yards and the score. The point try was squelched.

A standoff appeared in the making following the Bulldog kickoff as the visitors stopped the Lions cold and forced a kick.

Carl Montgomery responded with a 42 yard boot that was killed deep in Coahoma territory.

The red and white clad visitors failed to gain on first down as Wayne Albers broke through but on the next two downs Richters got five and two to bring up fourth and three. The Bulldogs either felt time was running out, as it was, or had a lot of confidence in their running game as they tried for the yards and the Lions held to take over the ball on the Coahoma 25. It took the Lions just three downs to cover the needed yards with Freeman cracking into the end zone with less than a minute remaining. Tony Parker got the two extra points to bring the score to 22 to 6.

The Lions kicked off and this time Dwayne Richters lost the ball when hit and the Lions pounced on the free ball on the twenty-seven. A two yard dive set the stage for the next Lion score as Freeman dropped straight back and hit Carl Montgomery perfectly amid several defenders for the touchdown.

The Montgomery catch was his best thus far and paid off with six points. Freeman once again ran over the points and the Lions led 30 to 6 as the half ended seconds later.

The Ozona High School band and the Coahoma band both entertained during the half and the wind, if anything, got stronger. The Lions came back from the half in a fairly relaxed state of mind apparently and when officials consistently overlooked a little rough stuff being carried out by both sides, things nearly got out of hand with the Lions seemingly not getting any the best of the calling.

The only score that was produced in the third period came on a rather unusual play when Coahoma attempted to pass from deep in its own territory and was thrown for a two point safety by the Lions Mike Stiles.

The Lions, by the end of the third period, had put everyone in the game that coach Pete Hickman felt could be used safely.

Early in the fourth period the Bulldogs found themselves deep in their own end of the field and once again decided to go airborne. Brent Moore who had just come into the contest neatly picked off the Coahoma aerial and raced untouched into the end zone. Phillip Carnes, who did a neat job on offense as well as defense, crashed into the end zone for the two points.

With time fast running out the Bulldogs went into a spread and even though not panicking the Lions by any means did manage a score on a pass from Aberegg to Reeves which covered the last twenty yards of a fifty yard drive.

The visitors got into position to launch the drive when the Lions did not kick on fourth down. The game, of course, was safely won and the decision was of no real consequence.

Defensively the Lions got stellar play from tackle. Butch Albers and end Hal Long both of whom roamed all over the field to make that we keep a "little black book?"

No, it doesn't contain those secret telephone numbers, but it does hold a world of information. Sometimes we have a lady in the store who spots something she would really love to have for Christmas or birthday, and we make a note of it so that when a member of the family or friend comes by to look for that special gift we can tell him discreetly, what we overheard the little lady say! This goes for the ladies, too. She is often puzzled about the right gift for the man in her life — who knows, we may have a little notation in our book about his preferences! So — whisper in my ear — we'll do the rest!

We even will enter items we do not sell, just to help you get what you like. Our little book has worked so well in Marfa, thought you would like to hear about it.

key tackles. Deeny Holden as usual was the spark plug along the line with Jim Freeman getting in on too many stops for the line play to have been above average.

The visitors had great play from Weldon Self and got good tackle play most of the night but the Lions had their moments to howl.

Statistics showed a rather accurate picture of the game, the Lions had 12 first downs to Coahomas 5, 209 yards rushing to the Bulldogs 94 and 54 yards passing to the visitors 46.

Ozona's air defense once again was a thorn in the side of the opponents as it picked off two of the visitor's eight throws with another interception being rubbed out by a penalty.

not look tough enough to win over McCamey last week, but may come along.

Sonora made it two straight by winning over a lightly regarded team, and Junction continued its string of several years of looking horrible in early season play only to jell before they meet the Lions.
