LIONS PUSH MOVE

N. W. Graham In Talk To Club Urges Co. To Action

A definite movement to test the sentiment of the people of Crockett County on the question of whether or not they want paved roads over the important highways of the county will likely get under way soon as a result of an impromptu talk before the Lions Club Monday by N. W. Graham, a visitor for the day's luncheon.

A meeting of the board of directors of the club will be held in the near future, at the call of the president, for the purpose of hearing Mr. Graham more in detail on the project and to determine what steps are to be taken to get the plan before the public for an expression. At this meeting, actual figures on the tax cost of a bond issue sufficient to surface the important highways of the county, legal steps to be taken in order to bring about an election, and other details in connection with the plan will be outlined.

Mr. Graham, in opening his talk to the Lions, apologized for his attitude toward the club in its infancy, declaring that he had watched its activities and was convinced that it was performing worthwhile service for the community and that it deserved universal support.

The good roads project which Mr. Graham declared was uppermost in his mind, proposes hard surfacing of the road from Ozona to the Sutton County line and from Ozona to Barnhart, the latter road making a loop between the Petroleum Highway and the Old Spanish Trail. The fact that the Barnhart road is a connecting link between these two main highways and that it will be necessary for this county to build the road over twelve miles of tax-free University land should be sufficient ground for state and federal designation of the route and aid from these two governmental agencies in its construction.

"This county has gone along for years, satisfied with things as they are," the speaker declared, "but the time has come when the people of Crockett County must awaken to their duties, or be left behind in a rapidly progressing section of the country."

"We are comparable to Little Red Riding Hood in our unsuspecting, plodding innocence. But we are different in this respect: Little Red Riding Hood had only the wolf to fear, while we should fear our friends and neighbors who are liable to come and eat us up unless we get busy and protect ourselves."

About 25 club members present manifested a unanimous interest in the proposal as outlined by Mr. Graham for paving these two important outlets for the people of Ozona, and at the suggestion of the membership, President M. M. Fulmer announced that a meeting of the board of directors of the club would be called in the next few days at which Mr. Graham would be invited to present his plan more in detail.

Three new members were voted admission to the Lions Club Monday, two of them new members and one a transfer from Rankin, C. W. Barbee, with the local Humble Oil Company, and J. H. McClure, manager of the Smith Drug Stores here, were the new members. I. G. Rape, prescription clerk for the Ozona Drug Company, transferred his membership here from the Rankin Club. C. C. Luther, who was voted to membership in the club the previous week, was present at Monday's meeting.

President Fulmer delivered an inspiring talk on ideals, a discus-

Jake Young Buys Ozona Tailor Shop From Rice P. Lynn

The Ozona Tailor Shop changed hands again this week, Jake Young purchasing the entire lay-out from Rice P. Lynn, the consideration not being made public.

The shop passed into new hands Monday upon completion of the deal. Lamar Casbeer, who has been with the shop several months in charge of the cleaning and pressing department, will continue in that capacity. No changes in the policies of the shop will be made at this time, Mr. Young said, but an effort will be made to maintain the high quality work and service that has been rendered heretofore.

Jimmie Rodgers Here Sat. Night

Famous Victor Blues Yodeler in Person At Ozona Theatre

Jimmie Rodgers, Victor recording artist and world-famous blues yodeler, will appear in person at the Ozona Theatre next Saturday night under the auspices of Joe Oberkamp, local Victor dealer.

Mr. Rodgers is making a coast-to-coast tour of the United States presenting his blue yodels and a Victor concert orchestra in a varied and well-rounded program. In view of the fact that Mr. Rodgers' tour must necessarily be limited on account of his recording engagements with the Victor Talking Machine Company, it is considered fortunate that a town the size of Ozona should be able to have him appear in concert. The program will begin at 8 o'clock Saturday night and an admission charge of 75 cents and $1 will be made. This is the first time that a Victor artist has ever been brought to Ozona and a packed house is expected to greet the famous Jimmy Rodgers Saturday night.

tion which he presented at the recent district Lions meet in Ballinger and which was repeated to the local club at the request of members who heard the talk at Ballinger.

Miss Lois Riddle, music teacher in the local schools, entertained the club with two piano selections as the entertainment feature of the program.

Committees Named For 'Cade Plans

Western Sports To Be Given With Chuck Wagon Dinner

Plans for entertaining members of the Florida-to-California motorcade over the Old Spanish Trail who will be guests of the people of Ozona at noon October 9, are rapidly taking form, with the Lions Club in charge of arranging for receiving the visitors.

Committees to have charge of arrangements for the brief entertainment of members of the motorcade were appointed Monday by President M. M. Fulmer and these committees will have details of entertainment plans worked out in advance of the date.

Committees named by the Lion president are as follows: Feed committee: W. R. Baggett, chairman, and J. M. Baggett. Entertainment Committee: Earl White, chairman, and F. A. Gray.

Serving committee: J. T. Keeton chairman, and Fred Haifley.

Finance Committee: Scott Peters, chairman, and J. L. Littleton. A chuck wagon dinner with western sports for the entertainment of the visitors will constitute the program, according to present plans. The committees in charge will be notified in ample time of the number of persons in the motorcade and will have time to work out details of the entertainment after the motorcade starts moving.

The 'cade is slated to leave St. Augustine, Florida, on October 2, and will reach Ozona shortly after 12 o'clock on October 9th. The visitors will be here about one hour, and will spend the night in Fort Stockton.

FRIDA YBRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. W. E. Smith entertained the Friday Bridge Club at her home last week. Savory refreshments of sandwiches, salad with cream mayonnaise and iced tea were served. Those present were Mesdames Early Baggett, J. C. Montgomery, George Montgomery, Winnie Fox, Lee Childress, J. W. Henderson, Jr., Scott Peters, S. M. Harvick, Victor Pierce, Joe Pierce, Evert White, L. B. Adams, Tom Smith, Bryan McDonald, S. E. Couch, G. Miller, J. W. North, Joe T. Davidson, Joe Oberkamp, and Miss Hester Bunger.

10,000 MORE CROCKETT CO. LAMBS MOVED

Heavy Shipments Continue Out Of Barnhart Stock Pens

MRS DAVIDSON TOP

Wife Of County Judge Again Has Heaviest Lambs Of Year

The fall shipment of Crockett County lambs from loading pens at Barnhart continues with unabated swiftness, approximately 10,000 head moving from that station during the past week.

Mrs. Chas. E. Davidson, Sr., has so far topped the market weights again with her lambs. Mrs. Davidson, who started her flock from "doxie" lambs given her by neighbors, shipped 100 head of mutton lambs this year to the Co-operative Producers Commission Company of Chicago, receiving 11 cents a pound. The lambs weighed 77½ pounds, the heaviest lambs shipped from Barnhart this season, according to reports received by The Stockman. Bill Grimmer was a close second to his mother-in-law, his 476 head of muttons averaging 75 pounds, for which he received 11 cents from the Co-operative Producers Commission Co.

Shipments from Barnhart for the past week, reported here, are as follows:

John Fogarty to J. A. Womble, 1858 head of mutton lambs, averaging 61 pounds, sold at 10½ cents.

Frank Cargile to Newell, 1585 head of muttons, 67 pounds, at 10½ cents.

Miller Bros. to C. T. Lake & Co., 1660 head of muttons, 66½ pounds, at 10½ cents.

Earl Berry to Lee Aldwell, 509 head of muttons, 50 pounds, at 10 cents.

Earl Berry to Lee Aldwell, 540 head of ewe lambs at $7.50 a head. Hugh Childress to Drum Standish Commission Co. of Kansas City, 1500 mutton lambs, 69½ pounds, at 11 cents.

Lee Childress to Drum Standish Commission Co., 1500 mutton lambs, 70 pounds at 11 cents.

Lions Win Easily Over Eldoradoans

Score Of 40 To 0 Is Piled Up By Locals In Opener Friday

The Ozona Lions, Ozona High School's fighting gridiron squad, found a set-up in their opening game of the season on the local grid last Friday afternoon when they ran wild with the Eldorado Eagles to win by the lopsided score of 40 to 0.

The locals started the fireworks in the first few minutes of play and did not let up until the final whistle. George Bunger received Eldorado's kick-off and returned the ball about 70 yards before he was downed. On the next play, the Ozona lads fumbled and the ball was recovered by Eldorado back of her own goal line for a touchback. The ball was given to Eldorado on her own 20-yard line. On the next play, Eldorado fumbled and Ozona recovered the ball, Fatty Kyle going over on a line buck for the first touchdown.

Thereafter, the Lions marched down the field at will for touchdowns after touchdowns, time alone limiting the score. Later in the first quarter, Woodrow Wilson, playing his first game at quarter and proving himself a potential star, took Eldorado's punt on his own 40-yard-line and waltzed 60 yards for a touchdown in one of the prettiest broken-field runs seen on a local grid in years.

In the third quarter, Dock Lee and Woodrow again rang the scoring bell, Dock going over with an end run from the ten-yard line and Woodrow later bucking over after Lee Patrick in a 20-yard end run had advanced the ball to Eldorado's ten-yard line.

In the final frame, Dock Lee again got loose with the ball through center and dashed twelve yards for the sixth touchdown of the game. The point after touchdown was made after four of the touchdowns by kicks from placement, Capt. Dock Lee wielding the toe with better than 60 per cent precision.

Although the Eldorado lads could not give the locals a fair test of their strength, due to the fact that the visiting team was composed entirely of raw recruits playing their first game with the exception of one man, the Lions showed plenty of pep and fight and will no doubt make it interesting for teams in this district during the balance of the season.

The Lions will be called upon to show their stuff next Friday afternoon on the local grid when they meet a reputedly strong team from the Rankin high school. The game is called for 3:30. The following week, on Saturday afternoon, the locals will journey to Sonora for the clash with the bronchs, Coach Lewis has announced.

Young Well Makes 400 Bbls. On Pump

Production Decline Expected With Pump On Steadily

Pumping was started Sunday in Dr. J. D. Young's No. 1 J. M. Shannon estate in Crockett County. The well, which either opens a new pool or is an extension of the Powell field, pumped 400 barrels daily on the first test but the well had been standing for 10 days and it was not thought likely it would sustain this rate. It pumped from 2,556 feet, 10 feet in the pay line.

The well pumped 125 barrels the first six hours. It made clean oil the first two hours, 24 barrels of water and no oil the next three hours. The water accumulated during the shutdown. Six and five-eighths inch pipe landed at 2,501 feet had shut off the water, it was believed. Tubing was set 300 feet off bottom for pumping. No. 1 Shannon is 990 feet from

OZONA MAN IS MENTIONED FOR CONGRESS SEAT

T. A. Kincaid Among 5 Boomed To Succeed Hudspeth

R. E. THOMASON IN

Mayor Of El Paso Announces Candidacy For Post

T. A. Kincaid of Ozona, serving his sixth term as president of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas, is being mentioned as a possible candidate for representative from this district in the United States Congress following announcement from Congressman Claude E. Hudspeth that he will not be a candidate for re-election.

Congressman Hudspeth's announcement of his decision to retire from office on account of ill health started the political pot to boiling in the district and Mayor R. E. Thomason of El Paso announced his candidacy for the office simultaneously with public announcement of Congressman Hudspeth's decision to retire. Four others besides Mr. Kincaid are mentioned as possible candidates from the east end of the district to succeed Mr. Hudspeth. They are Alex Cobias and John S. Sutton of San Angelo, C. C. Beicher of Del Rio, and Coke Stevenson of Junction.

Considerable agitation is going the rounds in this part of the district for announcement of a candidate from the east end of the district. Congressman Hudspeth's legal residence is in El Paso and political leaders in this section declare that in fairness, a representative should be chosen from the east end in the coming election.

No announcement has been forthcoming, however, from any of those mentioned for the post. Political leaders have been quoted as saying that only one candidate from the east end of the district likely will announce, the candidate to make the race against Mayor Thomason as a west end candidate.

Congressman Hudspeth, at the close of his present term, will retire from public office after having served the people of this congressional district for ten years in the legislative halls at Washington. He recently underwent a major operation in an eastern hospital and has never fully recovered his strength from that ordeal. In his announcement of his intention to retire from office, he declared that his decision came about as a result of the wrings of his family physician and members of his immediate family, declaring that his physical welfare could best be served in the role of a private citizen.

Woman's Club Meets In Regular Program Discuss Club House

A "Club House Program" was observed by the Ozona Woman's Club in its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee Childress, president, with Mrs. J. W. Henderson, Jr., as leader.

A reading entitled "A Club House Dream" was given by Mrs. W. E. Smith and Mrs. N. W. Graham presented a paper on "The Club House of the Largest Club in Texas and how it was Secured and Equipped."

A round-table discussion in the form of one-minute talks by members of the club on the subject then followed: "How can we secure a lot for our club use?" "How can we secure some funds for a club house and how we can interest someone in donating a lot or house for club use."

A Thought

WORTH REMEMBERING

He who profits by crime is guilty of it.

—Seneca.

Universal regret is being expressed in this section at the decision of Congressman Claude B. Hudspeth to retire from office at the close of his present term after having spent ten years as representative of this section of West Texas in the hall of the United States Congress.

Mr. Hudspeth has served the interests of the stock industry well in Washington and this industry will lose a faithful and astute servant when the Congressman's long term of service finally comes to an end. He has fought the battles of the ranchman in the legislative halls diligently and with an unusual measure of success. He has represented his constituency to the exclusion of party alignment where the two came in conflict. He has held no fear of the political effects of his actions; he knew the needs of his constituency without the necessity of consulting the "folks back home", and he has done his utmost at all times to serve those needs in so far as his position in Congress would permit.

When Congressman Hudspeth retires from public life at the close of his present term in office, he will do so with the comforting knowledge that he has done his task well. But in the hearts of those whom he has served so faithfully, so long and so well there can but be a lingering regret at his passing from the public stage, though out of gratitude for his service, they bid him welcome to his well-earned rest.

After having been served so well in Congress, it is but natural that the people of the section which Mr. Hudspeth served should immediately cast about for a possible successor to him immediately upon announcement of his decision to retire.

And it is also natural that the latent political ambition in the district should bloom forth with the Congressman's retirement from the race. One aspirant for the office has already announced his candidacy for the post and four others are being mentioned as possible material for the race. Mayor R. E. Thomason of El Paso has announced that he will seek election to the post which Mr. Hudspeth will abandon.

Constituents in this end of the district are manifesting a determination to put forth a winning candidate from the east end of the district in opposition to the El Pasoan. Among the possibilities mentioned from this end of the district is T. A. Kincaid of Ozona, president of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas, a man who is thoroughly conversant with the needs of the stock raising industry and who could serve this section from that angle possibly better than any other man in the area. His long term as head of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas has brought him into the public eye to such an extent that he is well known throughout the district and his record as head of that organization would stand him in good stead should he decide to make the race for Congress.

Others from the east end of the district mentioned as possible candidates are Alex Collins and John F. Sutton of San Angelo, Coke Stevenson of Junction and C. C. Belcher of Del Rio. All of these men would make excellent material for Congress and it is likely that the constituency of the eastern end of the district will select one out of the five men to make the race against the El Paso candidate.

THE WORLD SERIES

Again we are confronted with the phenomena of the World Series. No game ever before has held the undivided attention of an entire nation for so long a period. From 1884, when Providence won laurels as the World Series winner, right up to 1928, when the crown went to New York, interest has been intense in every corner of the land. And now everyone is asking: What team will bring home the bacon in 1929? Philadelphia? Chicago?

Since the inauguration of the World Series, many things have happened to captivate the fancy of a curious world. Radio, the modern miracle. The development of aviation. The epic-making flight of the Graf Zeppelin. The growth of the motion picture and the invention of the "talkies."

There are a thousand more things to do than there were in the old days. And so perhaps many of the old diversions are being forgotten.

But one thing has an eternal charm. Baseball will never lose its place in the affections of the multitude. The World Series of 1929 is looked forward to as eagerly as was the World Series of 1909. Other things may change—but the heart of the American is still the heart of a boy who knows that one of the most important things in the world is to keep right on playing.

No, Sir! Nothing's going to distract us from the World Series!

There are people who profit by the other fellow's work and get by without expense by beating their honest bills and so on. There are some counties in the same boat. Situated between counties whose citizens have the vision and enterprise to build highways and pay their honest part, these slacker counties stay in mud until the Federal Government comes along and says to the State, "If that gap is not built, we will withdraw federal aid on certain building projects." Then the state is compelled to close the gap across the slacker counties and some of the residents therein have the gall to laugh and say: "See, we are getting a road and it is not costing us anything." Poor, deluded mortals it will be the most expensive road they ever built. An order will be issued on the minutes of the Highway Commission charging that county up with the rightful part it owes and not another cent will that county get for any of its roads until it has paid up what it owes. Where did the slacker county get its money, anyway? From the State? Yes, but the people in Uvalde and other counties are building that road for them or contributing to its construction. It can be depended upon that in any system of roads those counties who have done their part will use every chance to route additional highways away from a slacker county.—Uvalde Leader-News.

EDGES—

There are all kinds of edges. Sharp Edges, Dull Edges, Close Edges and Far Edges.

But we of the English tongue have adapted the word to a different meaning than that prescribed by Webster— This horse has a slight edge over that one, or this team has the edge.

So also do some stores have an edge on their competitors. It may consist of price alone, and heaven help the one that can brag only of price. It may be in service, it might be in personnel, or it could be in quality, or the way the stock is kept.

No man is infallible, and if you don't believe the clerk who waits on you has his hands full, you just haven't seen through his glasses. The best of them make mistakes, but the test comes with the correction.

We believe we have the edge over our competitors in every respect, save that of credit extension.

We KNOW we have in price. We know, on the whole, our products are the best money can buy, and we do not cater to cheap, second-class sub standard stuff you find in some places. Ours is the best refrigerating plant in town. We will do more to please you, be more pleasant about it, and get more pleasure from doing it than you will find anywhere else.

Everyone who enters the door is treated with courtesy and thanked for their business. Whether you buy or not makes no difference in the room temperature. We LIKE to have you come in. It is Your Store.

Remember Steddon, a pretty, unsophisticated daughter of a narrow-minded minister. Rev. Doctor Steddon, violently opposed to "worldly things," denounces the movies. Dr. Bretherick, an elderly physician, and a friend of the Steddon family, is astonished at Remember's condition as the result of an unfortunate affair with Elwood Farnaby, a poor boy and son of the town set. They have been in love since childhood but Doctor Steddon is opposed. Remember is persuaded by Dr. Bretherick to go West after Elwood is killed in an accident, using a bad cough as an excuse. On the train going to the West Mem meets Tom Holby and Robina Teele, movie stars. The train stops, narrowly escaping a wreck.

The other passengers dawdled about, but Mem went farther and farther. She wanted to see what was on the other side of that butte as much as mankind has longed to see the other side of the moon. When she started back the cool of the butte's shadow made her rest awhile. The heat and the hypnosis of the shimmering sand sea put her asleep in spite of herself. She awoke with a start. The train was moving, a new locomotive dragging it and its broken engine. She ran, fell, picked herself up, limped forward. She was alone in the wilderness, and the train was already a toy running through a gap between two lofty buttes. Both mocked the girl unendurably and she stood panting in a suffocation of fright, her hands plucking at each other's finger nails. Then for the first time Mem understood what the desert meant to those who had seen the least burro drop and found the canteen full of dry air. For a trance while Mem made a perfect allegory of helplessness on a monument. She heard a voice laughing with a kind of querying exclamation: "Hello?" The word was unimportant as could be and it came from what she had decreed the most useless thing on earth, a handsome moving-picture actor. He went on: "Here we are eh?" Tom Holby laughed at fate as in his pictures. "I've nearly died of thirst in the desert half a dozen times," he said "but there was always a camera or two a few yards off and a grub wagon just outside. And the heroine usually came galloping to the rescue and picked me up in time for the final climax. I see the heroine, but the grub-wagon's late." "Wh-what are we going to do?" "Well, I'm not going to act, anyway, as long as there's no camera on the job. Let's sit down and wait." "For what?" "Oh, I guess the train will come back, or another one will come along and we can flag it in plenty of time. Sit down on this handsome red divan, won't you? I'm Mr. Holby, by the way." "Yes, I know," she said and told him her name. There was a long silence. Then he mused aloud: "Remember, eh? Great! Robina would have preferred that to the one she chose. Do you know Robina?" "I've seen her." "On the screen?" "On the train." "Oh, then you haven't seen her. That isn't the real Robina that walks about. That's just a poor, plain, frightened, anxious little thing, a Cinderella who only begins to live when she puts on her glass slippers. She has to be so infernally noble all day long that you can hardly blame her for resting her overworked virtues when she's off the lot. I used to be pretty decent fellow, too, before I began to be a hero by trade. But now—gosh! how I love my faults! When there is no camera on me I'm a mighty mean man." "Really?" "Oh, I'm a fiend. I'm thinking of playing villains for a while, so I can be respectable at my own expense outside the factory. But I am so mused up between my professional emotions and my personal ones that it's hard to keep from acting, on and off. Now look at this situation. If the camera gang were here I'd know just what to do. I'd be Sir Walter Raleigh in a Stetson and chaps. But since there's just us two here and I have you in my power—or you have me in your power—I don't know just how to act. It depends on you. Are you a heroine or an adventuress?" "I don't understand you." "Are you an onjanoo or vamp?" "I don't speak French." "Then you must be an onjanoo," he said. "In that case I suppose I really ought to play the villain and—But here comes the train. Dog-gone it! Just as we were working up a real little plot. I hope I haven't compromised you. If you're afraid I have, I'll go back and hide till the next train comes along. Or you can, for I imagine it's Robina that reversed the engine. She probably missed me and suspected that I was out here with a prettier girl than she is—pardon me! Shall I go hide?" "Oh, no! no! I couldn't think of it. Nobody knows me. It can't make any difference what they say about me." "Gosh! What an enviable position. Stick to your luck, Miss Steddon. May I help you down?" That was a chapter in Mem's life. Holby had guessed right. Robina had missed him and when the helpless conductor protested against the sacrilege of reversing the Limited, already late, she pulled the rope herself. She knew the signals, having played in a railroad serial, and she soon had the train backing at full speed. She had half suspected that Tom Holby had a companion in the desert, and when she looked out and saw him with the pretty chit whose magazine he had picked up, she was tempted to give the signal to go ahead again. But she preferred to give poor Holby her opinion of him. Mem crept back to her place, shivering with her first experience of stardom and its conspicuousness. The train made up so much of its lost time that it was only two hours late when it drew into Tucson. Tom made his adieux and left Mem in a whirl. But her faculties went around in the mad panic of a pinwheel when a strange sombre person spoke to her: "Miss Steddon?" "Yes." "I am Doctor Galbraith, pastor of the First Church here. Your father telegraphed me to meet you at the train and look after you." "Do you know papa?" "No, but he found my name in the yearbook. I have found a nice boarding house for you, and my wife and I will look after you as best we can." Mem was struck violently with the thought, "But what becomes of Mr. Woodville now?" In her desperation she caught sight again of Tom Holby, who had walked briskly to the head of the train and was striding back to his car. A frantic whim led Mem to say, very distinctly, as she passed him: "Good night, Mr. Woodville." Holby could hardly believe his ears, but he laughed to himself, "This is fame!" bowed and went on. The Reverend Galbraith paused but Mem urged him on, saying, "That's an old friend I met on the train." And now she felt, that she had established the existence of her Mr. Woodville. She was already unconsciously "planting" characters. "His face looked familiar but I guess it wasn't." The reason it looked familiar was that lithographs of it were posted up all over Tucson. Holby was to appear there in a picture. Mrs. Galbraith turned out to be a joyous Western woman raised on a ranch and of a loud and hilarious cordiality. She was distressed because she could not take Mem into her own little home, but it was spilling over with children. On her way to the boarding house she noted many of Tom Holby's portraits. He was not the star of the picture, Robina Teele was the star. Mem felt a longing to see this heroic picture, but Mrs. Galbraith would not leave her for a moment, and the night was prayer-meeting night. Mem attended the evening devotions. There was nothing strange to her in the drowsy, cozy atmosphere, the sparse company singing hymns and bowing its prayer and finding a mystical comfort in the thought of sins forgiven and in an eternal home beyond the grave. Doctor and Mrs. Galbraith took her back to her lodgings and left her. They had no objection to moving pictures and attended them often, but Mem did not know this, and she felt like a thief when her worse self compelled her better self to a dark dishonesty. Both selves went to the movies. If the cinema store had been an opium den Mem could not have sneaked more guiltily into it. When she had found a seat in the dark hall she was so illiterate in the staples of fiction that she tingled with excitement over hackneyed situations that left many a sophisticated child yawning and gave never a pause to the swaying jaws of the gum-grinding crowd. But Mem was experiencing an agitation such as she had not known since her mother told her about Little Red Riding Hood and growled like a wolf, showing long white teeth. She was astonished at the courage of Tom Holby. It wrung her heart to see him in his Alaskan picture plowing across white Saharas of snow, to see him challenge the barroom bully and beat him down and stand, torn bleeding and panting, over him. Being a woman, she was not quite convinced of Robina's supersaintly innocence in the film, but she had no doubt of Tom Holby as Galbraith. In her room she remembered her parents. She had not written to them for two days, and she had not carried Mr. Woodville forward. One thing was certain—she must free herself from the Galbraiths; she must get out of Tucson. She must become Mrs. Woodville at once. She would probably have given up trying if a bit of luck had not befallen her. Mrs. Galbraith rode over in haste and distress to explain that her husband and she had to leave Tucson for a few days to attend his father's funeral. She promised to hasten back, and begged Mem Steddon's forgiveness for deserting her. It was plainly a time for quick and decisive action. She threw caution aside and for-

Ah, yet doth beauty, like a dial hand,
Steal from his figure and no peace perceived.

—Shakespeare.

AFTER-SUMMER FIGURES

How does your figure look at the end of the summer? Have you gained—or lost—or, miracle of miracles—sustained a harmony between the two and kept the perfect weight?

Most of you have probably gained. In spite of the fact that one exercises more in the summer and that warm weather menus are invariably daintier than cold-weather ones, more women take on weight in the summer than at any other time of the year. Probably because summer is a season of laxity and self-indulgence in all sorts of vacation pleasures and comforts. Reducing diets are forgotten. Outdoor exercises create hearty appetites and you succumb to the temptation of all sorts of forbidden foods.

I shall not quote ideal figures and weights in this article. I shall merely suggest that you consider your own figure carefully and apply common sense to your habits of eating.

The new fall colors and lines will demand slim figures and healthy, clear complexions to carry them off fashionably. The right diet will take care of both of these points, to a large degree. To be sure, a winter diet may be more substantial, generally, than a summer diet. But you must not increase the amount of food you eat in the winter if you are overweight. Instead, be sensible, and cut down on calories until your weight is somewhere near normal for your height.

Begin your diet with plenty of water. Drinking water facilitates the digestive processes and helps the pores of the body to keep active and healthy in their function. From six to eight glasses a day are necessary. Eight to ten are better. And twelve is best of all.

Here are a few suggestions for reducing luncheons:

One egg omelet (100 calories).

One glassful of milk (80 calories).

Celery, lettuce and apple salad (25 calories).

Average serving of clear soup (15 calories); with 12 oyster crackers, (50 calories).

Two heaping tablespoonfuls baked beans (100 calories).

Five sliced pickled beets (25 calories).

One medium baked apple with one tablespoonful cream, no sugar (100 calories).

Two heaping tablespoonfuls boiled spinach or turnips (25 calories).

Average serving of boiled lean fish such as cod or halibut (about 235 calories).

Small slice corn bread or brown bread, unbuttered (100 calories).

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weaver are the parents of a boy born last Thursday. Both mother and son are reported doing well.

Mrs. J. Marshall Brown of Midland, formerly Miss Dixie Davidson of Ozona, underwent an operation in a Temple hospital recently.

Mrs. Chas. E. Davidson, Jr., and little daughter, returned Saturday from Temple where she has been visiting relatives.

L. J. Kittle, who was recently seriously injured in an accident at the ranch near here, left this week for Comanche where he will visit relatives and receive further treatment. C. C. Montgomery took him as far as Brownwood.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY CONSTABLE OF CROCKETT COUNTY—GREETING:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED To Summon Mary A. Gliddon, Amaziah Hughson, Sr., John Robert Hughson, Amaziah Hughson, William J. Hughson, Martha M. Allen and Cecil Fleming, their heirs, assigns and their unknown heirs and assigns, executors, administrators and legal representatives of each of them by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Crockett County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Ozona, Texas, on the 3rd Monday in October A. D. 1929, the same being the 21st day of October A. D. 1929, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 16th day of September A. D. 1929, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 497, wherein Chas. E. Davidson is Plaintiff, and Mary A. Gliddon, Amaziah Hughson, Sr., John Robert Hughson, Amaziah Hughson, William J. Hughson, Martha M. Allen and Cecil Fleming, their heirs, assigns and the unknown heirs and assigns, executors, administrators and legal representatives of each of them are Defendants, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action being as follows:

Plaintiff alleges that on or about September 1, 1929, he was lawfully seized and possessed of all of Crockett County abstract No. 3124, Cert. 4393, Survey 17, Block KL, G.C. & S.F.Ry. Co. Patented to Cecil Fleming, September 28th, 1882, in Patent No. 480, Volume 70, for 640 acres; that on the date last aforesaid Defendants entered on said land unlawfully and ejected Plaintiff therefrom and unlawfully withheld from him the possession thereof to his damage $5000.00; that the annual rental value of said land is $400.00; that for more than ten years last past Plaintiff has held adverse and peaceable possession of said land cultivating, using and enjoying the same continuously; that for more than five years last past Plaintiff has had and held possession of said land peaceable and adverse, using and enjoying the same, rendering and paying taxes thereon each year as they accrued, and claiming the same under deeds duly registered; that for more than three years last past Plaintiff has had and held peaceable and adverse possession of said land under title or color of title.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays judgment of the Court that Defendants be cited to appear and answer this petition and that Plaintiff have judgment for the title and possession of the above described premises and that the Writ of Requisition issue, and for rents, damages and costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity, that he may be justly entitled to.

Herein Fail Not but have before said Court, at its next regular term this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Ozona, Texas, on this 16th day of September A. D. 1929.

(SEAL) George Russell, Clerk, District Court, Crockett County, Texas.

Issued this 16th day of September A. D. 1929.

WILD DOGS SLAY LARGE BUCK ON WEST RANCH

It has been reported that there were some wild dogs in the country south of Uvalde, but real evidence of the fact was established

Monday of this week, following the rains. On the Albert West ranch, 19 miles south of Uvalde, a large buck deer with a 17-point head of horns was found by J. W. Ferris, foreman of the ranch. The hams of the animal were almost eaten away and scars were found on its shoulders and ribs made by the fangs of dogs. The deer was big and fat and weighed approximately 189 pounds. Mr. Ferris said that the deer had been chased by dogs for some time and being finally run down, the flesh of its hams was torn off. During the rain he believes the deer got away from the dogs and they lost the trail in the rain. The carcass was found Monday. He says that a wolf will always attack an animal's neck while a dog will attack it from the rear. He had heard dogs chasing something at times and knew that these dogs ranged in the country, but had never been able to see them. Mr. West and Eugene Kincaid saw the carcass of the deer and said that it carried one of the best sets of horns they had ever seen. —Uvalde Leader-News.

20 AT SCOUT MEET

Twenty members of the Ozona Boy Scout troops were present for the regular meeting at the court-house Tuesday night, according to Scoutmaster W. R. Swinney. The troops received two transfers from Rankin troops and two new applications for membership. Three applications from boys who are not yet 12 years of age, were also received. No boy under 12 years can be admitted to membership and these applications must wait until the applicants are of age.

Troop committeemen P. T. Robinson and A. W. Jones were present for the meeting. The regular meetings begin at 7:30 and end at 9 o'clock each Tuesday evening. A new bugle purchased for the troop was delivered to the bugler, Massie Ray Smith, at this week's meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Russell are the parents of a ten-pound son born Wednesday morning. The new assistant county clerk had not been named today, but George hinted that he might be known as George, Jr.

SUNFLOWER CLUB

Mrs. Hillery Phillips entertained the Sunflower Club and a number of guests at the home of Mrs. Lella Phillips Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. A. A. Perry, Jr., was awarded a floor pillow for high score Miss Louise Coates a piece of Italian pottery for low and Miss Hester Bunger a shoe tree for cut prize. The color scheme of yellow wa scaried out in the decorations and the covers and napkins. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, congealed salad, individual pies and iced tea were served. Small baskets of perfumed candies decorated the tables.

Those present were Mesdames Tom Smith, Roy Parker, Fred Deaton, Sherman Taylor, Marbury Morrison, Welton Bunger, Chas. E. Davidson, Jr., T. A. Kincaid, Jr., Leta Hawkins, Evert White, G. Miller, Rusty Smith, George Montgomery, Winnie Fox, J. W. North, A. A. Perry, Jr., Massie West, and Misses Vivian Baggett, Pauline Perner, Hester Bunger, Louise Coates, Mary Augustine, Mary Kincaid, Elizabeth Fussell, Wanda Watson, Gussie Watson and Carolyn Fox.

Mrs. W. H. Rogers returned Sunday from Christoval where she has been recuperating from a recent illness.

Miss Rachel Graham is attending the University of Texas in Austin.

Harry Matthews, formerly connected with the Ozona Stockman, is in Austin where he is attending the University of Texas.

THINKING

"If you think you are beaten you, If you think you dare not you don't. If you'd like to win, but you think you can't, It's almost a cinch you won't. If you think you'll lose, you're lost. For out of the world we find, Success begins with a fellow's will, It's all in the state of mind. If you think you're outclassed, you are: You've got to think high to rise, You've got to be sure of yourself before You can ever win a prize. Life's battles don't always go To the stronger or faster man; But soon or late the man who wins, Is the man who thinks he can." —William D. Wintle.

"Recently I spent fifty-four dollars in a clinic getting X-rayed for what I was told was chronic gall bladder and intestinal trouble, but I am now convinced that Sargon was all I needed. If I had known what a wonderful treatment it was I could have saved lots of money and suffering. "About two years ago I began to decline into a general weak and run-down condition that steadily grew worse. My stomach was upset and I had awful pains in my back, in the region of my kidneys and gall bladder. My appetite was poor and it seemed I couldn't eat anything without pain afterwards. I lost strength and energy and was very much discouraged.

"Before I had finished the first bottle of Sargon I had a splendid appetite and could eat what I wanted without any discomfort. The pains in my back began to ease up and now are gone entirely. Sargon Soft Mass Pills stimulated my liver and relieved my constipation. I just can't find words to express my gratitude for this marvelous treatment."—Mrs. Ollie Hengy, 4805 Maple Ave., Dallas. THINGS THAT MAKE YOU GROW OLD

Everybody hates to grow old. Yet, because the march of time leaves its inevitable traces on the face and form of man, most people are resigned to that fact. But we should not blame Time if we grow old in thought and spirit. That is our own fault.

Age is, for the most part, a state of mind. With the approach of middle-age most people think it is time to "settle down." They fear to do anything that might be called undignified and so they give up everything in the nature of exercise or sports. They take a back seat and watch the world go by. They lose their interest in other people. They become careless of personal appearance. They coddle themselves if the weather is inclement or take to their beds with every twinge of pain or digestive disturbance. They refuse to accept any new or radical idea, believing that "the old way is best." They often give up lifelong ambition, saying, "It's too late now—I'm getting old." Then they begin to indulge in self-pity.

Ad those are the things that make people grow old before their time. Those things also bring on many of the ailments associated with age. The minute a man or woman begins to let up, deterioration sets in. Our bodies are wonderful machines, and as such they must be cared for, properly fueled and kept in first class running condition.

The way to stay young in spirit and thought is to regard life as a thrilling adventure with who-knows-what just around the corner.

If you have children, try to see their point of view and make them glad to have you around instead of waiting until your back is turned to really enjoy themselves. Let them help you stay young.

Read the new books, listen to new ideas and don't hesitate to do something simply because you have never done such a thing before.

Make a hobby of some sport or exercise—whether it be golf or pitching horseshoes or just walking. Do anything and think anything that will exhilarate you and make you glad to be alive. Make up your mind to get the most out of life until the day you die.

If you have cared for your health and kept your body up to par during your youth, many of these things will come naturally to you. But even if you have committed some of the follies of youth it is never too late to start building again.

You may not look young until the day you die, but it is certainly within your power to keep young and vital in spirit.

ARE EDITORS POPULAR

It is likely editors are the most unpopular people in the world. If they try to please one group they offend another. If they express honest convictions which they usually do—narrow critics to the contrary notwithstanding—they are by many misjudged and discredited. If perchance, at rare intervals an editor hears of no error that has crept in or feels no assault on his idea of what should or should not be published, he is profoundly relieved—almost happy. He does not need commendation for any meritorious thing he has written or done to make him measurably satisfied with life. All he needs is freedom from the sharp stabs of those who are looking for imperfections or grounds for disagreement. There is no closed season and often he is lambasted without knowing it, but if he does not know it, he is not hurt, and he may even imagine he has escaped by unanimous consent. We would counsel the young who contemplate journalistic careers to develop thick and tough hides as a preliminary step, and leave behind all desire to run for office or to win in any other form of contest. —Wyoming Press.

BAPTIST W.M.S. MEET

The Baptist W.M.S. met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. S. L. Butler. A very instructive and interesting program on "Woman's Responsibilities in the World" was given. A social hour followed the program, during which time delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Watts, Moore, McClure, Pettit, Deland, Dunlap, Word, Patrick, Willis, Rogers and Kay.

"RECOMPENSE"

"Ever since the beginning of time, it has been an axiom in the minds of men that we reap as we have sown. We get what is coming to us. If we abuse our bodies, we pay the penalty in suffering. If we are considerate of other people, we receive consideration. If we dare greatly, the rewards are in proportion. If we sow hatred we receive hatred in return. The old materialistic law in physics that "Action is equal to reaction" is true to the intangibles of life. If you want to be loved, be loving."

"Why Should I Buy a GOODYEAR TIRE?"

Come into our store and ask this question, man to man, "Why should I buy your tire?" You won't need to ask another.

All we want, whether you guy or not, is an opportunity to explain why the Goodyear is called The World's Greatest Tire.

Here's Why:

- 1 Its sturdy carcass is made of Supertwist, which means fewer fabric failures and less tire changes on the road.
- 2 Its new design of tread gives the best traction and car control ever afforded by an automobile tire.
- 3 Its tenacious ability to grip the road gives the greatest possible degree of safety.
- 4 Increased area of road contact and added All-Weather blocks insure slow, even tread wear and greater satisfaction to the user.
- 5 Quietness and smooth running are also made certain by the new design of tread.
- 6 This new Goodyear is admittedly the World's Most Beautiful Tire.

Sheep Scab Ban On Two Counties

Val Verde And Tyler Under Quarantine By Commission

Tyler and Val Verde counties are being held under blanket quarantine pending improvement of sheep scabies conditions now current, according to the August Live Stock Sanitary Commission report. In the former county nine inspections were made, 31 infections revealed, a total of 253 sheep found exposed to the trouble while 216 were found free, the sheep of both totals being dipped.

In Val Verde county 6,000 were found free from the disease with only 1,263 exposed and dipped, and no positive infections. Two hundred and thirty-six inspections were made, according to the report.

No infections were reported outside of Tyler and Hardin counties. Eight inspections were made in Concho county, with no exposures and dipping. Creckett county had 25 inspections, finding 213 exposures, these being dipped. Gillespie drew 11 inspections, and 37 exposures and dippings. Irion had only two needless inspections. Kerr had three of a like sort. Kimble showed an exposure and a dipping out of two inspections. Lampasas' total of inspections was seven, with 11 found exposed and dipped.

Menard county had seven inspections, and four exposures and dippings. San Saba, Schleicher and Sterling counties were given a clean slate after 4, 11 and 2 inspections were made, respectively, in the trio of counties. Tom Green needed 15 inspections, 163 exposures were found, and the 163 sheep dipped. Upton and Uvalde had two and three investigations respectively, with no trouble being found in either.

A total of four quarantines were issued and 45 left in force in the sheep districts over the state. Three hundred and twelve form A certificates were issued. Two herds were held pending further dipping, and seven counties contained quarantined premises.

Goat scabies is responsible for 16 premises being held in quarantine over the state, a like number of herds was held pending further dipping, reveals the statement issued by J. H. Rasco, chief inspector. The only county in which dipping was found necessary was in Mills county, where 3,750 goats were dipped. No infections and exposures were found in other counties.

Kincaid Helps To Arrange Program For Wool Growers

The tentative program for the entertainment of the National Wool Growers Association in session in San Angelo November 20 to 22 is being forwarded to the National Wool Growers Association at Salt Lake City, Utah, and final program plans will be completed with the cooperation of the National Association at the executive committee meeting of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas at Fort Stockton on October 10.

T. A. Kincaid of Ozona, president of the Texas association and C. A. Broome, former president, have been at work on the program in cooperation with the local committee composed of Charles Hobbs, Abe Mayer, Robert Massie and Roy Hudspeth.

Speakers of note in Texas, as well as a member of the Federal Farm Board are to be here. One of the principal points of discussion will be the formation of a nationwide marketing organization under the provisions of the Federal Farm Board.

This will be the first time that the National Association has been in Texas for a convention and the meeting will draw the leading sheepmen of the nation. President J. F. Hagenbarth will be here from Spencer, Idaho, and F. E. Marshall the secretary, from Salt Lake City.

Marshall is a ranchman as well as the secretary of the association.

12-Hour Shrinkage In Lambs Found To Be 2.9 Pct. In Test

Recent tests conducted at Barnhart to determine the exact percentage of shrinkage in lambs in loading pens showed the actual shrinkage to be 2.9 per cent, according to Vic Pierce.

The tests were conducted over a period of twelve hours, two separate tests being made. The tests were made following demands of buyers that producers allow a 4 per cent shrinkage instead of 3 per cent as has been the previous custom when lambs are delivered full. In some cases, four per cent shrinkage has been allowed. Mr.

Pierce said.

Music Club To Give Operatic Program At Meeting Thurs.

"Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni will be the operatic selection to be studied by the Ozona Music Club at its regular meeting Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. M. Dudley and Mrs. R. R. Dudley will be hostesses to the club on this occasion.

The story of the opera will be given by Mrs. John Bailey. Mrs. G. Miller will play a piano solo from the opera and Miss Wada Watson will speak on the "Life of Mascagni." A vocal solo, "Ave Maria," by Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., a Victrola selection, "Gems from Cavalleria Rusticana", choral practice and a social hour will complete the program.
