Funeral Rites Held Wednesday For W. J. Hurst

Juno Storekeeper Succumbs Here After Brief Illness

Funeral services were held here at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon for Walter J. Hurst, 53, Juno storekeeper, who died at 7:40 Tuesday evening at the home of a sister, Mrs. Mabel Wakefield of Ozona. Services were held from the Wakefield home with the Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor of the Ozona Baptist church, officiating. Burial followed in Cedar Hill Cemetery. Mr. Hurst, who had been in business at Juno about a year and a half, became ill about two weeks ago. He was brought to Ozona for treatment and for a time seemed on the road to recovery. He returned to his business, but late last week suffered a relapse and was brought here Sunday in an unconscious condition, from which he never rallied.

Surviving are the widow, a brother, Carl Hurst of Ozona, and the sister, Mrs. Wakefield of Ozona, his mother, Mrs. Will Boag of Alba, Texas, and a half brother, Arthur Boag, also of Alba. He was born in Roysse City, Texas, October 21, 1885.

Pallbearers were Sam Beasley, Pink Beal, L. A. Greer, Charlie Butler, Ted Doggett, Griffin Miller, J. T. Keeton, and Elbert Lucas. Joe Oberkamp was in charge of arrangements.

Moisture Covers Much Of County Wednesday Night

Inch and Half Reported To South; Range From Quarter Up

Rain, the first in this section in more than a month, covered much of Crockett county last night, ranging from showers to a quarter inch on the western edge of the county to a reported inch and a half to the south and southwest.

The early morning fall in Ozona was recorded at a half inch on the Joe Oberkamp rain gauge. A heavy rain, estimated at an inch and a half, was reported from the southwest, while other surrounding areas reported an approximate half inch. The fall was lighter farther west, the Pecos river area reporting less than a quarter inch, with a light sprinkling of hail.

Angelo Kittens Outpoint Lions In Scoring Bee

Visitors Stave Off Final Quarter Rally To Win 33-27

With the score 33 to 7 against his team, late in the third quarter, Beecher Montgomery, scoring ace and sparkplug of the Ozona Lions, was sent into the game to stem the tide. In that quarter and a piece, the diminutive Lion captain sped over the kitten goal line for a total of 20 more tallies for the home club. Lack of time prevented another touchdown and a possible win or tie.

The Kittens opened up with a passing attack early in the game that left the Lions flatfooted. Two touchdowns were scored on passes and a third resulted after the visitors had been set up in scoring position via the air route. The Lions scored in the second quarter when Jim Dudley sacked up a kickoff and returned it for a touchdown and Lemmons scooted around end for the extra point. ## District 41-B Changed To 8-B With Seven Clubs In District

Next football season, that of 1939, will find Ozona playing in a seven-club circuit and its district number changed from 41-B to 8-B, according to an announcement of reclassification of schools for football announced from the bureau of public schools, extra-curricular activities, of the University of Texas, division of extension, a copy of which was received this week by Supt. C. S. Denham.

Under the new set-up, effective in 1939, Mason high school will be added to the present 41-B district, of which Ozona high school is a member. The new circuit, to be known as District 8, B conference, will be composed of Eldorado, Junction, Mason, Menard, Ozona, Rocksprings and Sonora.

Under the new rules, larger schools of the state will be regrouped in a new classification, to be known as AA. Class AA schools will include those with enrollment of 500 or more the previous year. Conference A classification is given those schools with an enrollment less than 500 and more than 200, and conference B classification is given schools enrolling less than 200.

Ozona Host to Sixth Dist. Music Clubs Convention

Visitors From Eleven West Texas Towns To Be Here For Meet Friday-Saturday

Elaborate Program Of Entertainment Arranged By Local Committees; Dinner and Party Tonight

Ozona is host today, Friday and Saturday to music clubs of the Sixth District, composed of member clubs in eleven West Texas towns, for the twelfth annual convention of the Sixth District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs.

Delegates and visitors from the towns represented in the district are expected to begin arriving here this afternoon for the opening functions of the twelfth annual convention tonight, a dinner complimenting members of the Sixth District executive board at the home of Mrs. Lee Childress. Members of the executive board of the Ozona Music club are hostesses on this occasion.

Following the dinner there will be a party for all visitors at the home of Mrs. Hillery Phillips.

The convention proper will open formally at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the auditorium of the Baptist church. Registration will begin at 9 o'clock. At the conclusion of the morning session, a Mexican lunch will be served in the basement of the Methodist church, with an appropriate program in connection.

The convention will re-assemble at the convention headquarters for the afternoon session at 1:45, a feature of which will be the selection of the 1939 convention city.

At 5 o'clock Friday afternoon all visitors and members of the local club will be guests of the Ozona Woman's club at a tea at the home of Mrs. Ira Carson, complimenting state and district officers.

The highlight of the three-day convention will be the Fine Arts program Friday evening in the high school auditorium. This program will consist of numbers to be provided by each member club in the district, and some of West Texas' outstanding musical talent will be heard on this program, starting at 8:15 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to hear the Fine Arts program.

Following the Fine Arts program Friday evening there will be the annual Fun Frolic in the Methodist church, with the Methodist Missionary society in charge of arrangement of the program.

Saturday is Junior Day, which opens with a breakfast for Junior Workers at Hotel Ozona at 8 o'clock. Registration for the Junior convention starts at 9 o'clock at the high school auditorium, where Junior sessions will be held. Instead of holding a separate Fine Arts program, the Junior convention will intersperse Fine Arts numbers throughout the day's program, each club contributing a number as in the Senior clubs convention.

At noon Saturday, a chuck wagon lunch will be served at the Boy Scout cabin. The afternoon session will convene at 1 o'clock and continue through the afternoon to the close of the convention Saturday afternoon.

The Ozona Music club's contribution for Friday evening's Fine Arts program will be two chorus numbers by the club chorus, directed by Mrs. H. B. Tandy, with Mrs. Neal Hannah accompanying. On the Junior program the Ozona contribution will be a concert by the Ozona School band, James Nevins directing, and two chorus numbers by the Junior High Girls Glee club, with Miss Mildred Morris as director and Miss Ruth Graydon as accompanist.

Sixth District officers, all of whom likely will be here for the convention, include Mrs. R. P. Wyche of Abilene, president; Mrs. (Continued On Last Page.)

Perhaps He's Still Staying With Apples!

A prisoner, fined in justice court here recently for overloading a truck of apples, asked to spend the night with his truck to prevent theft of his fruit, instead of spending it in jail in lieu of payment of his fine. He was given permission and so far as officers know may still be with his apples.

Returning from New Mexico with a load of apples, the truck driver was arrested by highway patrolmen for 2,000 pounds overload. He entered a plea of guilty and was given permission to canvass the local stores in an effort to sell enough apples to pay the fine. Returning late in the afternoon, he reported failure, and made his request to stay with the apples.

The truck was parked in front of the jail, but the next morning, truck, driver and apples were missing. The highway patrol is still looking for the apple man.

First Half Tax Payment Must Be Made In November

Attention is called this week by W. S. Willis, Crockett county sheriff and tax collector, to the provision for payment of property taxes on the split-payment plan.

Under this provision of the law, a taxpayer who wishes to pay his taxes in two installments may do so by paying the first half of his taxes before December 1. The second half of the amount then may be paid any time up to June 30 without penalty or interest.

Unless the first half payment is made on or before November 30, however, the entire amount becomes due and must be paid on or before the last day of February or penalties accrue.

Dr. J. A. Fussell, Mrs. Charles Williams and Gene Williams returned Friday from Houston and Austin where they visited relatives.

A WISE MOTHER

Familiar figures in the story of the juvenile criminal are the sorrowing parents, inoffensive people for the most part, who sob, "He was a good boy. He couldn't have done a thing like this," although the evidence is plain that he did. To the criminologist, the dotting elder unwilling to face the bitter reality is the key to much of our youthful delinquency. In Milwaukee, a mother found in her boy's room a number of valuable articles she knew did not belong to him. She forced her son to confess that he and some companions had looted five schoolhouses. She rounded up the entire gang, made them bundle their loot in their arms, and marched them to the nearest police station. It took bravery of a sort, but it does seem obvious a showdown now will entail less tragedy than would one deferred. Environment is the most cited of the reasons for young waywardness; and home is the first and most influential environment of the child. To be conducive to crime it need not of itself be evil, if it lacks internal discipline, if there is no intelligent director of children to social points of view, if there is any indiscriminate leniency in any lapse. Children have a code and morale of their own, a discipline they enforce among themselves. Schools do what they may, and so do the church and social agencies. But the good work of all may be undone by a maudlin elder loath to concede the truth that reflects on herself. Her progeny fill the corrective institutions. One Milwaukee mother has wisely spared herself many a headache in days to come.—Ex.

MEN ON THE MARCH

Music for marching feet sounds in the drumlike throb of busy machines and shrills from the fife of steam whistles over factory buildings more inspiringly than from the brasses of a military band as an army of 35,000 workers prepares to answer the bugle call "Back to Work." General Motors Corporation's announcement that it will rehire thousands of workers because of the improved outlook for automobile business this fall has plenty of good reading right on the lines, but more good reading between them. For 35,000 people, earning needed money again, are only a minority of those who will benefit. These people are more than cogs in industry's production machine; they are motivating factors in society's machine of distribution. The pay checks they receive are lubrication which will smooth and hasten that part of the economic process whose tendency to bind every now and then throws out of commission practically the whole system by which mankind provides for his material wants. Butcher, baker electric-bulb maker will share in the effects of this reharnessing of erstwhile idle man-power. But, too, we may expect that this announcement will bolster confidence in other quarters, as it did in the New York stock market where traders turned from the so-called armament shares to center their attention on automobile stocks as the news began to seep out. It may well forestall lay-offs where they may have been contemplated, and—together with a simultaneous announcement by the same company of restoration of pay cuts—it may result in the postponement, which can also mean the abandonment, of contemplated pay cuts in other factories and in other lines of business. Nothing succeeds as does success, nor gives confidence as does confidence expressed. It is understandable that 35,000 men on the march are being cheered by 100 times that number along the route to better times.—Christian Science Monitor.

IRISH WRITERS

The Irish today are on the edge of a new literature, and for the first time in centuries they will be able to call it their own, because it will express the native values. Celtic civilization reveals one towering factor, a unique element, which goes back for 2,000 years, as far as historic knowledge reaches, and that is the power of great literary tradition, which came to be the national force and momentum that overshadowed and dominated all others. Properly to speak of literary traditions, there are but three peoples of the occidental world that can claim such heritage, and they are the Greeks, the Jews and the Irish. English writers have been handicapped by this lack of tradition in their national life, to the extent that many of them went far afield for inspiration. John Milton went back to the Jewish tradition, John Keats went to the Grecian, and Swinburne went loony over it, starving for beauty in the tight little isle. Lionel Johnson, of Irish descent, naturally went to the Irish tradition, as oddly enough did the pompous Tennyson, whose poetry is still required reading in colleges. The English departments of colleges should wake up. We do not think much of Alfred Lord Tennyson in Ireland.—T. F. Healy, in Coronet.

Two Fords, New Mercury Eight 1939 Ford Line

New Cars Go On Display Thruout National Friday

The two finest Ford cars in the 35 years of the company's history will be given their first public showing tomorrow in dealerships throughout the country. The cars are the 1939 Ford V-8 and the 1939 DeLuxe Ford V-8. They are individually styled. Both are of compelling beauty. Both have hydraulic brakes. The cars are being placed on display in Ozona at Stevens Motor Co., local Ford dealers.

Introduction of the new Fords climaxes a year of activity which saw the company embark on its current plant expansion program, bring out its entirely new Mercury 8, and establish the Lincoln-Zephyr still more firmly as the acknowledged style leader in the automobile industry.

The DeLuxe Ford V-8, with wholly new streamlines, has a distinctive appearance of its own. At the same time, both it and the Ford V-8 share a family likeness with the Lincoln-Zephyr and the new Mercury 8.

The DeLuxe has a deep hood with long lines unbroken by louvers, low radiator grille in bright metal, and wide-spaced headlamps set into the fenders. The words Ford DeLuxe, in script letters of chrome, are divided at the front of the hood. The hood handle is concealed in a vertical extension of the radiator ornament.

The 1939 DeLuxe is powered by an 85 horsepower V-8 engine of even more rugged construction than the 5,000,000 already in use. The Ford V-8 is offered with the same engine as the DeLuxe or with the economy 60 horsepower V-8 engine.

All Ford cars are now equipped with hydraulic brakes. Pedal action is exceptionally easy, and the brake shoes work in 12-inch cast iron drums with a total of 162 square inches of braking lining for quick stopping and long life.

A feature of the bodies of both cars is their silence, achieved as a result of exhaustive road and laboratory research into the cause and correction of car noises. By minor changes in design and by use of newly developed insulating materials, engine and road noises are effectively kept out of the car.

Scout Notes

By MILES PIERCE

The meeting of November 1 was opened with the Scout Oath which was followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

The list was made and each Scout was assigned his part of the food for the "chuck wagon" dinner to be held this Saturday for the Junior Music club convention. In charge of getting the goats for this dinner is Mr. George Montgomery. At the dinner there will be served barbecued goat, Spanish rice, beans, bread, potato chips, coffee and cake. The price for each plate will be 25c. The money from this dinner is to go to the band uniform fund.

We had, as our visitors last Tuesday night, Mr. Lowell Littleton, Mr. Ira Carson and Rev. Clyde Childers. From the talk made by Rev. Childers, we learned that the two most popular books in the world today are the "Bible" and the "Scout Handbook." Also we learned that the best way for a Scout to serve the world is in peace, not war.

The book case, made by Bobby Lemmons, which is to hold the merit badge books, has been completed.

The meeting was adjourned and the patrols met for their regular meetings.

The Fords Tell Their Plans for 1939

Henry and Edsel Ford, on the occasion of the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Ford Motor Company, June 16, 1938

IF WE KNEW anything better we could do for the country than make good motor cars, we would do it.

By every one doing his best in the job he thinks most useful, this country is going to regain its momentum. We have tried to do our best in our job.

When business was suddenly halted in its recovery more than a year ago, we determined that we should keep going anyway, if not at full-volume motor car production, then at getting ready for greater motor car values that would help future production.

EXPANDING FOR THE FUTURE

We began to build 34 million dollars' worth of new plants and equipment. We felt that if we could not employ all our men building motor cars, we would employ as many as we could building better production facilities.

We were told, of course, that this was no time for expansion, that a wiser business policy would be to "hold everything"—which means, stop everything. But no one ever got anywhere standing still.

Besides, we are not defeatists. We do not believe this country has seen its best days. We believe this country is yet in the infancy of its growth. We believe that every atom of faith invested in our Country and our People will be amply justified by the future. We believe America is just beginning. Never yet have our People seen real Prosperity. Never yet have we seen adequate Production. But we shall see it! That is the assurance in which we have built.

Business is not just coming back. It will have to be brought back. That is now becoming well understood in this country; for that reason 1939 will be a co-operative year. Manufacturers, sellers and buyers will co-operate to bring back the business that is waiting to be brought back.

This construction program is almost completed. It has increased activity and payrolls in a number of related industries. It has given us better facilities for building better cars and trucks, and eventually our new tractor which is being perfected.

THIS MEANS MORE VALUE

The current program has provided a new tire plant, which will turn out a part of our tire requirements . . . a new tool and die plant that will help us cut the cost of dies . . . and a steel-press plant that will enable us to make more of our own automobile bodies. These are in addition to the plants we already had for producing glass, iron, steel, plastics, and many other things.

We don't supply all our own needs, of course, and never expect to. The Ford engine is one thing that no one's hand touches but ours. Of nearly everything else we use we build some quantity ourselves, to find, if possible, better and more economical ways of doing it. The experience and knowledge we gain are freely shared with our suppliers, and with other industries.

We take no profit on anything we make for ourselves and sell to ourselves. Every operation, from the Ford ships which first bring iron ore to the Rouge, is figured at accurate cost. The only profit is on the finished result—the car or truck as it comes off the line. Some years, there is no profit for us. But we see to it that our customers always profit. A basic article of our business creed is that no sale is economically constructive unless it profits the buyer as much as or more than the seller.

Our new plants have helped us build more value into all our cars for 1939. That means more profit on the purchase to the purchaser.

We have not cut quality to reduce costs. We simply will not build anything inferior.

NEW TESTING EQUIPMENT

While we were putting up new plants to produce cars, we constructed new equipment to test them. The first weather tunnel of its kind ever built for automobile research went into operation at our laboratories this year.

It makes any kind of weather to order. The weather it delivers every day would take months to find in Nature. Our cars are weather-tested to give you good service in any climate anywhere.

In other tests, every part of the car is punished unmercifully. Then our engineers test it down to see if they can find abnormal wear or any sign of weakness.

The money we spend on tests saves you money on repairs. And your family car is safer and more dependable when we put it in your hands.

THE NEW CARS

We have two new Ford cars for 1939—better cars and better looking—but we also have an entirely new car.

It's called the Mercury 8. It fits into our line between the De Luxe Ford and the Lincoln-Zephyr. It is larger than the Ford, with 116-inch wheelbase, hydraulic brakes, and a new 95-horsepower V-type 8-cylinder engine.

We know that our 1939 cars are cars of good quality. We think they're fine values in their price classes.

With new cars, new plants, new equipment, the whole Ford organization is geared to go forward.

Ozonan Averts Abscess of Lung

An incipient lung abscess, resulting from a blood stream infection, suffered by Bill Littleton, deputy tax assessor under Sheriff W. S. Mr. Littleton, with Mrs. Littleton, is in Abilene where he is under the care of physicians. At first examination, attending physicians held little hope that the condition could be stopped without the formation of an abscess, but the development has been arrested and is clearing up, the report said.

Legend Rises From Suicide 98 Years Ago

NORTH BROOKFIELD, Mass.—When Austin McGrail, 18, stumbled onto a crude stone monument he revived a strange legend attempted murder, a guilty conscience, a suicide and a woman's love and devotion.

The monument read: 1840—BARTLETT, THE SUICIDE.

As the story goes, one fall afternoon in 1840, Bartlett, whose name is not known, went to Luce's home on the outskirts of the village. Planning to repay a loan, an argument ensued during which Bartlett drew a flintlock hand gun and fired at Luce's chest. Luce fell to the ground. The terror-stricken Bartlett, believing he had killed Luce, fled to the woods, piled dry brush and old cord wood on a rock and fired it. Then, climbing to the top of the pile, he shot himself through the head with the pistol.

Luce, however, had not been killed. Against his chest was a brass button, flattened by the impact of the bullet. The bullet had been deflected and Luce had merely fainted from shock.

He told his story and a posse found Bartlett's partly charred body.

Natives say that Bartlett chose his bizarre death to save the name of a Miss Eliza Abbott, his sweetheart.

Miss Abbott later had the body buried in the woods and had the name upon which he had died inscribed.

The smallest man on the Texas Christian University squad, yet the "sparkplug" of the team—that's David O'Brien, 150-pound senior quarterback from Dallas. All Davey did during the 1937 campaign was carry the ball on 209 of 375 plays run from scrimmage; throw 236 of 244 passes; and make 70 of 103 punts. With an improved frog backfield, O'Brien won't carry so much of the load this year, but he still is the outstanding triple-threat for the Christians, passing, running and kicking.

Here's one worth going after!

COMING at you, it looks like a million. Going away, it looks like good fortune you've missed. A lot of fussy care went into the way it looks from the rear—you know, that's the angle from which it's oftenest seen. Going or coming, it moves like a honey bee about its business. Better look quick if you want to see it—one sudden "two-o-o-sh!" and it's gone! How about it—is this stunning 1939 Buick really as lively as it looks? Well, just try it and see—you'll find it the car and the value of the year! Maybe a bullet gets off faster.

Maybe a rabbit can beat it on the jump or a skyliner lead it from point to point. But you'll never want a highway cruiser that answers quicker to the green light's "go"—that slips more deftly through the holes in traffic—that with keener relish eats up the miles. That bonnet houses a full complement of eight cylinders, and Dynaflex cylinders at that. All four wheels dance on BuicCoil springing of stout spiraled steel; no quiver or shiver shakes the luxurious body in its flight. You'll see the world—lots of it—for this slightly Buick now parades the passing panorama through windows with up to 413 more square inches of outlook than before.

magic yourself, first-hand. You'll find it beautiful in action as in aspect—you'll go for the way it goes for you. You'll find it obedient and willing, a car that holds its marks in crosswinds, bears sharp around curves without slide or slew. In fine—we think you'll like all of it—from its looks to the way it lives up to them. Won't you try it out—and see?

EDITOR'S MUSINGS

EMPHASIS UPON OZONA-SONORA GAME

ADDITION OF FISH POOL TO SCHOOL CAMPUS

SALUTE TO FRESHMEN BOYS

Do you remember Mr. Denham's saying at the beginning of school something about his hoping to see some sort of "pep sign" several weeks before the Sonora-Ozona game? Well, that sign has been painted and placed at the south entrance of our high school building. It reads "Beat Sonora Nov. 11." For years and years the Ozona Lions and the Sonora Bronchos have been friendly rivals. Each year both the student bodies of Sonora and Ozona put a great deal of emphasis upon the football game with Sonora. Let's make a hearty effort to turn out 100 per cent with team, band, pep squad and a big delegation of town fans. Let's give those Lions all the support they could possibly ask for or expect.

Being proud of our school with its beautiful buildings and lawns, we like to see improvements being made. And this week, a fine addition is being made to the beautification of our school campus, for a large and excellent fish pool is being constructed in the space at the front side of our high school building. This pool will add beauty to our school grounds.

Our "beloved Freshmen" are certainly "shining" this year. At the football games and dances the Fish are always prominent. And the boys! Ah! Such ladies' men! From what I can see and find out, there is only one woman-hater among our Freshmen gentlemen. He's that tall, blond, good-looking fellow who "wants to be alone." And the poor damsels have to suffer, for this blond hero simply won't give the girls a tumble. "Aint it turble!"

TARDIES AND ABSENTS

There were 26 tardies this six weeks in the Ozona High school. There were only nine girls tardy and 17 boys. Nine of these were among the Freshmen. Only one Freshman girl was tardy and eight boys. Three in the sophomore class were tardy. These were all boys. There were seven Juniors tardy. These were four girls and three boys. There were seven tardies in the Senior class which were four girls and three boys.

There were 22½ days missed by the Freshmen class. Fourteen were missed by girls and eight and one-half by boys. Sixteen and a half days were missed by boys and nine missed by girls, making a total of 25½ days missed by the Sophomore class. Twelve and a half days were missed by girls in the Junior class, and five and a half were missed by boys, making a total of 18 days missed.

Among the Seniors there were 20½ days missed in all. Sixteen and a half days were missed by girls and four by boys.

All four classes together total 86½ days missed, 52 missed by girls and 34½ by boys.

Mr. Nelson, principal, said that most of the tardies are due to sleeping too late and fooling around between the band house and the school house at nine o'clock. He said that the tardies could all be eliminated if the people would get up earlier and not fool around so much.

Mr. Nelson said that the per cent of absents could not be helped in most cases. However, there were 96.6 per cent of the days in the last six weeks attended, which he said is very good.

I think if every one would try real hard we could cut down the number of absents and tardies. Let's try hard this next six weeks. How about it, students?

The Arkansas Gazette has been published for 118 years.

An Orchid To You

By Billie Jo West

To you, Juniors, we dedicate this week's orchid. You will deserve it for topping the rest of the high school in A grades. Keep up the good work.

Kittens Claw Ozona With Score of 33-27

The San Angelo Kittens stayed off a last-half Ozona attack lead by Beecher Montgomery to out-score the Lions 33-27.

Passes played a large part in the first half for the Kittens as they scored two touchdowns on passes and another as a result of a pass. Bowman's kick for the extra point after the first touchdown was good, but his other two tries were low. The Lions scored in the second quarter when Dudley sacked up a kickoff and returned it for a touchdown. Lemmons scooped up a low pass from center and ran around end for the extra point.

The Kittens romped to two more touchdowns and the extra points in the third quarter. This placed the score at 33-7. Starting late in the third quarter and throughout the fourth quarter, Montgomery sparked Lion Grads that threatened a large Kitten lead. He dashed off tackle for 37 yards and a touchdown; he caught a pass over the goal line thrown by Lemmons for another; he received a lateral after an intercepted pass and returned it for a touchdown. He also kicked two extra points after touchdowns. This ended the scoring for the day as the last half ended before Ozona could get started on another drive.

HAND WILL PLAY

The band, directed by Mr. Nevin, will play a concert at chapel on November 3. It will also play at the Sixth District Music clubs convention on Saturday, November 5, at 10 o'clock. This will be the opening of the convention. The brass quartet, composed of Billy Hannah, Crystelle Carson, Miles Pierce, and Clifton Taliaferro, will play at a tea, given in honor of the new members, to be held at Mrs. Ira Carson's at 5 p. m. Lunch will be served at the Scout Cabin on Saturday for all the delegates and visitors.

ENGLISH CLASS STUDYING ESSAYS

The English IV class has been studying the "Essay Of Studies" by Francis Bacon from which they have gained the pleasure of studies Bacon says that (1) Studies serve for delight, for ornament, and for ability; (2) To spend too much time in studies is sloth, to use them too much for ornament is affectation; to make judgment wholly by their rules is the humor of a scholar. (3) Read not to contradict and confute; nor to believe and take for granted; nor to find talk and discourse, but weigh and consider. (4) Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed and some few to be chewed and digested; that is, some books are to be read only in parts; others to be read, but not curiously; and some few to be read wholly, and with diligence and attention. (5) Reading maketh a full man; conference a ready man; and writing an exact man. (6) Histories make men wise; poets witty, the mathematics subtilty naturer philosophy deep; moral grave; logic and rhetoric able to contend.

ROY HENDERSON MAKING THE GRADE

I think that I shall never see
 A "D" as lovely as a "B"—
 A "B" whose rounded form is pressed
 Upon the records of the blessed
 "A" comes easily—and yet,
 It isn't easy to forget.
 "D's" are made by fools like me,
 But only Jim Dudley could make a "B".

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

FIFTH GRADE

The fifth grade started a writing contest yesterday. We have two captains; they are Ruth Townsend and Barbara White. Ruth's color is gold and Barbara's is red-gold. We see how many points we can get on Barbara's side and how many papers on Ruth's side. The boys and girls getting the most points and papers will win a prize. The contest will last three weeks.

SIXTH GRADE

The Sixth grade is making masks for Halloween. We are going to have a party Monday night. Our masks are very funny looking, so I imagine we will have lots of fun. We are also painting Halloween pictures.

Builders Of Small Homes May Profit By Employing Architect

Many operative builders as well as individuals are of the opinion that in erecting a small, low-cost home they cannot afford the additional cost of a competent architect's service. In many cases there would be no "extra cost" but, on the contrary, an actual saving as well as an increase in the functional efficiency of the home, according to Howard Leland Smith, chief of the architectural section of the Federal Housing Administration.

Small-order house plans are not always complete, and they cannot be taken into consideration problems peculiar to a particular lot, says Smith. Moreover, specifications are standardized without giving into consideration the condition of local material prices. When an architect is employed he takes over the worries that are attendant on building a house. Being familiar with local conditions, he can effect any possible savings. His plans and specifications that furnish are made especially for the individual house, and no makeshift changes are necessary. By merely eliminating unnecessary features and correctly planning the interior, the architect frequently manages to save a considerable amount of money than his services will call for, and his supervision and inspection of construction will assure the owner of getting what he pays for from the contractor.

HOME OWNERS ADVISED TO CHECK FOUNDATION

Neglect of essential and fundamental repairs in a home finally results in far greater expense than checked in time. The home itself may not be as solid and sound as it should be. Perhaps floors need reinforcing with new posts and piers. Plaster on the underside, with metal lath on similar base, will make them more resisting.

PLUMBING SYSTEM COSTS

The cost of a complete plumbing system for a small single family home should be approximately 10 per cent of the total cost of the dwelling. Owners are cautioned against installing fixtures that are too expensive in proportion to the total cost of the dwelling.

From Makeshift to Modern

The top picture shows just another attic being used as a combination storage room and sleeping quarters for junior and his brother. Crowded, cluttered with dangerously exposed wiring, it has nothing of distinction about it. With only a small expenditure for linoleum, wallboard, a new lighting system and fixtures, the room has been transformed into a dignified and neat bedroom of which its inmates may well be proud.

WELL PLANNED FIREPLACE AIDS IN HEATING ROOMS

A well constructed fireplace is not only decorative and picturesque but valuable as an accessory heating unit, particularly in a small house.

One of the most efficient types of fireplaces has a hollow steel unit which is bricked in when the fireplace is built and which acts as a warm-air heating chamber. The steel unit takes cold air from the floor of the room or from the outside, by means of a grilled opening, heats this air in the manner of a warm-air furnace, and discharges the heated air through through openings into the room.

NEW WALLPAPERS HELP DECORATIONS

The growing use of Swedish modern furniture by decorators has induced wallpaper manufacturers to develop a number of new patterns which complement the blond woods and pastel upholstery typical of the new scheme of decoration.

TURNS IN STAIRWAYS REQUIRE WIDE TREADS

The plan of a house may call for a stairway with a corner. Such a feature may be made safe if the owner insists that no more than two steps be set in a 90-degree turn, and that these allow for ample foot space. To divide the turn into three steps makes for unsafe footing and constitutes a safety hazard.

In many modernization projects, old stairways are replaced and in some cases redesigned. Care should likewise be exercised to see that the new stairs are easy to ascend and descend and that curves and corners have sufficient foot space.

Wall Or Fence Along Lot Lines Adds To Privacy

The privacy as well as the appearance of a house may be enhanced by building a wall or fence along the lot lines or by planting a hedge. Such improvements are relatively inexpensive.

The kind of enclosure used can be determined by the type of architecture of the house. Colonial cottages and frame houses in general call for a white picket fence or a neatly clipped hedge. The fences may be selected from many styles ranging from the least expensive type with plain flat palings to the more ornate variety with rounded pickets and fanlight gate.

Brick dwellings of Georgian architecture are best framed by masonry walls. These may be any height desired, according to conditions. If the house is situated on a busy street, and complete privacy is desired, a high wall that completely shuts out the view from the street is suggested. Under other conditions a lower wall is usually desirable.

Spanish or Mediterranean architecture is best complemented by a stucco wall, although hedges of various types are also used effectively.

When a home owner contemplates the planning of a hedge he should consult a nurseryman before making his plant selections, as the expert can tell him what variety will thrive best in his soil.

STORE FRONTS

Colored translucent glass tile for store fronts, with a high degree of luminosity, is being employed by many store owners in modernizing the places of business. This material is said to give a maximum of display both day and night.

Chevrolet Takes Big Strides Ahead for 1939

New Aero-stream styled bodies combine with major mechanical improvements to provide new beauty, safety, comfort and operating ease, in the 1939 Chevrolets, presented October 22, and featured at the big auto shows this month. The new models are offered on two chassis, the Master De Luxe and the Master 85, both of which are powered with Chevrolet's famous six-cylinder valve-in-head engine.

A new vacuum gear shift mechanism with steering column control, optional on all models at small extra cost, does 80 per cent of the work of shifting gears. The Master De Luxe series features a new riding system, in which a brand new Chevrolet Knee-Action mechanism is scientifically co-ordinated with new ride stabilizer and double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers to furnish a smooth, soft ride.

GOP Candidate Says Demos Not Bound To Vote For O'Daniel

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 2.—Democrats are morally free to scratch the name of W. Lee O'Daniel and elect Alexander Boynton their governor in the general election next Tuesday, the Republican nominee declared here today.

"My opponent was repudiated by the Democrats of Texas at the Beaumont state convention and justly so," Boynton said. "Mr. O'Daniel has no moral right to head the Democratic party in Texas and no Democrat has a moral al right to vote for him.

"Mr. O'Daniel has perpetrated a fraud on the Democrats of Texas and on every man and woman who has any hope of receiving the pension he has promised them. He either knew he could not pay the pension when he promised it or he is too stupid to be our governor."

Boynton declared that he repeatedly voted the Democratic ticket in Texas while O'Daniel was voting the Republican ticket in Kansas and reiterated his offer to quit the race if O'Daniel can refute his statement.

"Who ever heard of a good Democrat urging the abolishment of the poll tax, the return of race track gambling and the open saloon?" Boynton asked. "Mr. O'Daniel is running for governor of an agricultural state and talks only of industrialization. We have more farmers than industrialists in Texas and it is the farmer who is suffering, not the industrialist."

Boynton also pointed out that O'Daniel is continually talking of more taxes and added that what the state needs is more economy and less taxes. Boynton is campaigning on the platform of "Better Government, Less Government and Less Taxes."

September Shipments Of Cattle Increase; Other Livestock Off

AUSTIN, Nov. 2.—During September total shipments of livestock from Texas to Fort Worth stockyards and interstate points were only slightly below those of the corresponding month last year, according to the University of Texas bureau of business research. Shipments of cattle increased, while forwardings of calves, sheep and hogs declined in comparison with a year ago.

Reports from about 1,500 Texas shipping points show total shipments of 7,678 cars, compared with 7,718 cars during September last year, a decline of less than 1 per cent. Cattle shipments, 4,328 cars, were up 8 per cent from last year; shipments of calves, 1,694 cars, declined 8 per cent; hog shipments, 589 cars, also were down 8 per cent, and shipments of sheep, 1,067 cars, were off 13 per cent.

Receipts of Texas cattle, calves and hogs at the Fort Worth market were substantially below September last year, but receipts of sheep at this market increased sharply.
