'Prince of Peace' to Be Shown at Ranch Theatre Nov. 23 & 24

Acclaimed by ministers, priests, rabbis and people of every faith for its non-sectarian presentation of its vital story of brotherly love the new $2,500,000 two-hour Hallmark production, "The Prince of Peace" in cinecolor, comes to the Ranch theatre for a two day engagement, Thursday and Friday, November 23 and 24.

The new film is the story of the Life of Jesus. It drives home the most powerful lesson on earth. Scenes in the film photographed against the breath-taking beauty of the Wichita mountains in Oklahoma, will thrill you by their unmatched grandeur. In glorious color, featuring a musical score written by Edward J. Kay and rendered by a symphony orchestra and the 80 voice Hallelujah Choir, the film will move the most hardened sinner, comfort the most troubled soul.

Directed by two topflight Hollywood directors, William Beaudine and Harold Daniels, "The Prince of Peace" is considered the most artistic production ever to come out of Hollywood. Actually, the film is two stories in one.

With a cast of 3,000, including over 100 speaking parts and a new six-year-old child sensation, Ginger Prince, the film will appeal to every member of the family. "The Prince of Peace" story is a film that God-loving people understand and God-fearing people need.

In spite of the glorious music and its grandeur, "The Prince of Peace" is a simple, human story of everyday people who seek peace of mind. If you are seeking a way to live peacefully with your fellowman, don't miss it!

Offering to Go for Support of Home for Unmarried Mothers

By J. Troy Hickman
The Methodist Church congregation will have a voluntary offering this Sunday, November 12, for the Mission Home and Training School in San Antonio, a shelter for unmarried mothers. The home is owned and operated by the Methodists of Texas and has an interesting story.

Late in the last century the keeper of a San Antonio brothel was converted at a revival meeting conducted by the Rev. Abe Mulkey. Through her influence, several girls in the house also became Christians, and the place was closed. Facing the question of the future of these girls, the woman decided that the place should become a refuge for unfortunate girls. It was offered to the Methodist Church. For a number of years, it was operated by the Methodists of San Antonio. The old building still stands on San Saba Street, near the Haymarket square.

In the middle thirties, the need for larger quarters became pressing. The abandoned plant left by a closed hospital on Ninth Street was bought by the five conferences in Texas Methodism. At this time "Mother Culbertson" was superintendent. The Rev. Robert L. Armour and his wife are now in charge.

Through the 60 years, more than 10,000 girls have found a refuge there. Through the free services of San Antonio doctors, they receive the best of care. No girl is turned away for lack of money or because of creed. A chapel service is held daily, and while in the (Continued on Last Page)

4-H Boys Plan Trip To Chicago Livestock Show

Seven Boys and Agent To Spend 4 Days at International

Seven outstanding 4-H Club boys from Ozona will leave the latter part of this month on an all-expense-paid trip to the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago, Ill.

In company with County Agent Bill Bergfeld, the boys making the trip will include Graham Childress, Charles Garlitz, Jimmie McMullan, Jodie Jones, Ronnie McMullan, Bill Schneemann and Irby Chandler. These are the boys who received the highest placings of their show stock in the 1950 county 4-H Club show held in January.

Expenses of the group will be paid out of funds realized from re-sale of livestock donated by business firms and individuals at the last county show. Such donations were made and earmarked for the Chicago trip during the auction sale following the January show.

The Chicago International Exposition is the world's largest livestock show and the Crockett county delegation has room reservations at the Stevens Hotel, which is also the world's largest hotel. The Ozonans will be in Chicago four days and three nights, beginning Saturday, November 25, through Tuesday, November 28.

While in Chicago, the 4-H Clubbers and their sponsor will observe Nathan's Jeweler's night at the Chez Paree, one of Chicago's finest restaurants and night clubs. Nathan Donsky, owner of Nathan's Jeweler's in San Angelo, and one of the staunchest backers of local 4-H Club work, has made reservations for the Ozona boys at the glamorous night club and will pay all expenses of the evening's entertainment for the boys. Mr. Donsky made reservations for the group while in Chicago recently.

Rusty Smith of Ozona has made arrangements through Swift & Co. for attendance by the Ozonans at the American Broadcasting Co. Breakfast Club program, with Don McNeil, the morning of November 27. Tickets for the broadcast have already been received by County Agent Bergfeld and the club boys are looking forward to this feature.

Mrs. Charles Garlitz has secured tickets for the group to another radio show, "Welcome Traveler," which they will attend the same morning as the Breakfast Club program but at a later hour.

Tentative plans call for the group to leave Ozona early the morning of November 21 and return November 29. Detailed plans and points of interest to be seen on the trip will be completed at an early date.

Chairman of the Payroll Savings Committee is Col. J. W. Evans, Houston cotton man.

"This is part of the nation preparedness program," Mr. Adams said. "We must make economic as well as military preparations in order for this country to meet whatever emergencies the future holds."

E. B. Baggett, Jr., Ozona insurance man, will leave today for San Angelo where he will enter a hospital in preparation for an operation to be performed there Monday morning.

Winter's First Blast Sends Mercury to 20; New Norther Blowing

Delightful "Indian summer" weather which has prevailed in West Texas for the past several weeks came to an abrupt end last Friday when the first frigid blast of the winter swept down from the north.

After blustery north winds, which puffed through the day, had calmed, the mercury took a nose dive to bring Ozona into a tie with Lubbock for the dubious honor of being the coldest spots in the state. An official weather station report gave the night's low as 20 degrees. The freeze crumpled tree leaves and flower beds and made a sudden change in appearance of the landscape, which had remained green under the mild fall temperatures.

A new norther rode into West Texas early last night again to send the thermometer plummeting. But the new cold spell was less severe, thermometers hovering around the freezing point this morning.

Kinsler Write-In For Commissioner Fails In Prec. 4

Nominee Childress Wins 23 to 14 in General Election Vote

While most of the handful of voters who dutifully went to the polls to cast their general election ballots in Crockett county Tuesday did so partly from habit and partly from a sense of patriotism and duty, because Texas' one-party system leaves the off-year general election for the most part a rather dull affair, things were different down in Commissioner Precinct 4 in this county.

There an unheralded contest, thought settled in the two Democratic primaries the past summer, developed in the general election in which a candidate who was defeated in the August run-off primary was projected into the general election via the write-in.

James Childress was nominated in the Democratic primaries for the office of County Commissioner from Precinct 4, defeating incumbent Commissioner E. R. Kinsler in a run-off battle. A third candidate, Sid Millsbaugh, was eliminated in the first primary and Childress and Kinsler were matched in the run-off, Childress taking the nomination.

In the Tuesday general balloting, Childress won final election to the office by a vote of 23 to 14—again over Kinsler. The 14 votes for Kinsler were cast by write-in on the ballot in the Kinsler ranch voting box, while 23 votes for the Democratic nominee were cast in the Howard Well box in the same precinct.

Kinsler won re-election to the commissioner post several years ago by the same write-in method. Defeated in the Democratic primary Kinsler supporters took advantage of the general election lethargy among voters to write-in the defeated candidate's name and elect him in spite of his defeat for the party nomination in the primaries.

With one small box still out, the total vote in Crockett county was only 151. The Ozona box registered a total of 63 votes, 17 at the Rio Pecos power plant, 11 at Powell Field, 15 at Todd Field, 14 at the Kinsler box, 8 at the Owens and 23 at the Howard Well box. The Thompson ranch box had not reported to yesterday.

There were five voters who "voted 'er straight" for the state Republican ticket. Republicans had offered candidates for eleven state offices, from governor to state treasurer.

Joe Davidson Gives $500 to Buy Barracks For Girl Scout Cabin

Ozona Girl Scouts will soon have a Scout house of their own. Joe T. Davidson has given the Girl Scout Association a donation of $500 to be used for purchase of the big barracks building from the Methodist Church for use as a Girl Scout cabin.

The Association is now looking for a location for the cabin and parents and Girl Scouts are making many plans for putting the building to use. These plans include putting in partitions and installing bath rooms and a small kitchen.

All parents interested in Girl Scout work are invited to attend a meeting of the Girl Scout Association to be held Monday afternoon at 8:45 in the North Elementary school building. Mrs. Jake Young is president of the association.

Hunting Safety Rules Outlined by Wildlife Specialist

COLLEGE STATION. — This is the time of the year when hunting accidents take their heaviest toll of lives. Most accidents could be prevented if the simple rules of safety with firearms are observed. "Trigger happy" hunters, says R. E. Callender, extension specialist in wildlife conservation of Texas A & M College, endanger the lives of every other hunter in the woods and also cause much damage to wildlife. Their wild shooting leaves many birds and animals crippled and these are lost because they are not usually found until they are dead. Practicing safety with guns in the fields or woods, then, says Callender, is just good conservation practice and it applies to both humans and wildlife. He reports that almost two-thirds of all hunting accidents result from three causes: humans in line of fire, mistaking humans for game and hunting with the safety catch off on the rifle. He points out that good sportsmanship is just good manners. It includes using the right gun for the right game, hunting only in season and not taking more game than can be used even though the bag limit may permit the hunter to take more. Bird hunters, he says, should use a trained dog to retrieve crippled birds. The careful and wise hunter puts out cigarettes and campfires, breaks matches before dropping them and leaves the area where he has hunted in good condition. Here is Callender's code of safety for the hunter. Treat every gun as if it were loaded; it is usually the empty gun, they thought it was empty, that takes the most lives. Loaded guns should never be carried in an automobile. The gun barrel and action should be checked to make sure there are no obstructions in either. The gun should be carried so that the hunter always has control of the direction of the muzzle, even if he should stumble. The good hunter never pulls the trigger until he is sure of his target and never points a gun at anything he doesn't intend to shoot. He says loaded guns should never be left unattended and that the hunter should unload his gun before climbing a tree or over a fence. Bullets fired at flat, hard surfaces, or at objects on the surface of water may ricochet and hit objects not thought to be in the line of fire. Last but very important, he says gunpowder and alcohol should never be mixed for the results can be disastrous.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

More and more, we look like Europe. But we talk loud of "freedom" — listen to speeches, coast to coast. Everybody is for freedom — it is unanimous. But as a little innocent sample, you go to work and discover a likely looking rifle in some crick and figure you are free to go about putting in a water-wheel and dynamo for turning out some kilowatts, you will learn something about freedom. Even if it is your own savings that you will spend on the crick — your very own do-re-mi — you will not proceed. You must ask the Govt., just as it is in Europe. Bird in hand that's a Beauty and a Buy! Now it can be told. This clean-lined, smart-stepping 1950 version is the most popular Buick ever built. Ever since early in the present year, a value-wise public has been taking them away from us as fast as—or faster than—the great Buick factories could roll them out. Within recent weeks, production and sales have set an all-time record. Count off the distinguished and time-tried features of this winner and you'll know why. It has a Very Exclusive Motor—Buick's own high-compression Fireball—which gets its driving power from a combustion chamber found in no other car in the world. It has the bump-smothering softness of coil springs on all four wheels and a torque-tube drive—a comfort combination that no other car provides. It has Dynaflo Drive*—which ushered in a whole new concept of effortless travel. It has a brilliant styling which sets it apart from every other car on the road. And it has prices which say "buy me" to any motorist who's looking for maximum money's worth. Salt Added to Water Supplies to Reduce Tooth Decay

City fathers in three towns by artificially adding salt to their municipal water supplies, are making the water in their towns a better tooth cavity come.

Christi and Marshall are the first towns working with this system. It has one in the process.

According to plan, these towns will be making the visits they make to their family dentist because they'll have fewer cavities.

Dr. Howard Taylor, director of dental health at the State Department, says it won't give children protection against tooth decay. It will reduce decay 47 per cent.

A range of reduction had been established in dental experiments with fluoridation in Marshall. The ratio of 1 part per million parts of fluoride has been recommended by the Public Health Service and the Association of Municipalities and Territorial Dental Societies.

Fluoridations are subject to state and local health laws which has been the case of the three towns.

Marshall began artificial fluoridation in a controlled experiment in 1946 in a controlled experiment. It was a leader in the nationally and locally. Marshall began the water fluoridation in October last year.

City Manager Walter indicated that orders have been placed. Installation will begin as soon as possible.

The population of the three towns over 300,000 people drinking water chemically treated to retard or prevent tooth decay.

Written Reports on Homemaking Topics Replace Examinations

Written reports replaced the traditional nine weeks' examinations in the second year home economics class. Any phase of homemaking, health, grooming, personality or child care could be chosen for a subject. A synopsis of several of these will be published in the following weeks. The class selected a theme on "Personality and Etiquette" by Lois McDade for the first one to be summarized.

She tells us that etiquette and personality are not two distinctive qualities, but a sort of "do unto others" scheme that has been accepted. The nearest dividing point might be that etiquette is the right thing to do, and personality is the way it is done.

Pointers were given on some of the right things to do. It was learned that "no modern girl is going to trail down the street hanging onto a boy's arm," so linking arms in the halls or on the streets is definitely "out."

A boy or girl with a strong personality is an all-around person in work and in play. They take every opportunity to go places, see different things, find new interests and experiences.

A final warning was "never be a carbon copy of someone you admire. Take a hint from them, but never copy."

At the Movies

THE SKIPPER SURPRISED HIS WIFE. — When a young skipper (Cary Grant) is forced to take over the household duties due to his wife's broken leg, he decides to apply navy tactics and really run the house right. Naturally, this upsets the whole family and makes for a movie of pure enjoyment.

DUCHESS OF IDAHO is strictly a comedy romance, which takes place in Sun Valley. The movie is highlighted by skiing and swimming by Esther Williams and Van Johnson and John Lund stand by just to make things interesting.

THE BLACK ROSE. — Medieval pagentry in technicolor is brought to the screen when an Oxford scholar, portrayed by Tyrone Power, maintaining his Saxon beliefs and training, sets out for Cathay in search of new knowledge and adventure. Since no film is really complete without a little romance, Cecile Aubrey puts in her appearance. The film is produced on a lavish scale and is said by all to be outstanding.

Betty Grable and Dan Dailey are together again in MY BLUE HEAVEN. It seems they have everything they want except a child and they find themselves quite involved in trying to adopt one. The plot is an old one but it is unusually well told and Grable and Dailey can brighten up any story with their song and dance routines.

Student of the Week

This week we have chosen a senior girl who has always been an outstanding character through her school years.

Born in Blair, Texas, September 30, 1933, she spent her grade school days and Junior High School there before moving to Ozona at mid-term of her freshman year.

In Baird, she was cheerleader two years, played volleyball three years, as well as tennis, softball and other sports.

She has been a class officer all four years of High School, cheerleader two years, Student Council officer, lettered in volleyball four years, as well as making all-tournament last year.

Miss Student of the Week stands 5' 5" tall, has brown hair, blue eyes, and weighs all of 105 when wringing wet! Her favorite chow is Mexican food and she likes all kinds of music and sports, especially football as you could have seen when the girls played football.

By now, I imagine everyone has guessed her to be "Hardhitting" Bettye Maness. About the game Friday night, Betty says "Ozona can beat Sonora any ole time they try," and you can bet your best boots she will be out there backing the boys Friday night!

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Nine weeks tests are something new for OHS students. Heretofore, they have had six weeks tests, so our question for this week is, "Do you like nine weeks' tests better than six weeks' test?"

The majority of OHS students seem to be in favor of it. Darrene Thompson, Vivian Trotter, Jane Adams, Charles Garlitz, Graham Childress, Jeannene Thompson, Lois McDade, Shirley Kost, June Perner, Laura Walley and Rita Ballinger say "yes." They give their reason as "Time flies fast."

"When you have six weeks' tests it seems you just finish one when you must start another," and "Not as many spankings."

Bobby Womack says, "No," and Kenneth Phillips says, "Not much better." Tom Piner just states, "I don't like tests - period."

Fads and Fashions

There is a very unique fad around OHS this week. It stops at all corners. The bright hair in varying shades of pink, orange and red, of course.

The fashion at the Eldorado game last Friday was the heaviest suits everyone owned and these were covered up with all the blankets everyone could dig out of their cars.

As far as the general outlook, it seems that everyone has put up their summer clothes and at last started to wear woools exclusively. Shirley Kost has a new pink angora sweater — Jeannene Thompson came back from San Angelo with some velvet high heels — pretty. Everyone is wearing more and more crest jewelry and next week is the wool contest.

News of Departments

The mounting tension brought on by the inevitable nine weeks' tests has come to a climax, and the normal atmosphere has been restored. Moans and groans, so common these past few days have elapsed into resigned hopelessness or a furtive drive into world history, shorthand and algebra. The elder and much more experienced upper classmen merely sigh as they look down on the lowly freshmen who are so convinced that math just wasn't meant to be passed ed with more than a 50 average.

Having discovered that everyone is expected to survive their recent experience, teachers bring out their assignment sheets to start off another nine week period.

Spanish II students are enjoying themselves while they read the Latin-American version of Cinderella, the little girl who found her prince charming.

Christmas is around the corner, down a flight of stairs, through the double doors, into the auditorium. "The Sleigh," "Carol of the Bells," and other festive and sacred selections have been selected to be sung by the high school choral club in a Yuletide program now being planned.

After discovering that every student in his freshman literature class had seen the movie, "Treasure Island," Mr. Davis scheduled the novel for study.

The Powder Bowl football game ended the season for the girls' teams. Next on the agenda, according to Miss Drake, will be basketball. The classes will be divided into two teams each with an elected captain.

CHEVROLET TRUCKS

with Chevrolet's Hypoid Rear Axle

Chevrolet trucks are engineered to "take it," in every way. Chevrolet's heavy-duty hypoid rear axles offer maximum strength . . . with single-unit housings formed into tubular steel beams, and splined axle-to-hub connections that deliver power more evenly. Gears last longer, too . . . pinion gear is ball-bearing supported at each end, with adjustable thrust pad to prevent distortion on extra heavy pulls. Add these advantages to powerful Valve-in-Head engines, Synchro-Mesh transmissions, and channel-type frames. Then you'll know why Chevrolet is the most popular truck in America. Come see these great Chevrolet trucks today!

Enlistments Forbidden After Call to Physical

AUSTIN. — "Will I be able to enlist after I'm notified to report for physical examination by my draft board?"

This is a question which a lot of men are asking Selective Service local boards in Texas.

The answer is "no," Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, said today.

General Wakefield referred to Section 15 (d) of the Selective Service Act of 1948, which prohibits acceptance of a registrant for enlistment after he has received orders to report for induction.

The state director quoted from the following regulation (Local Board Memorandum No. 11) issued by Selective Service national headquarters:

"The prohibition contained in Section 15 (d) of the Act against the acceptance of a registrant for enlistment after he has received orders to report for induction has been interpreted by the National Military Establishment to mean that no person shall be accepted for enlistment after he has been notified to report for armed forces examination by a Selective Service local board."

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

You know, most folks figure that their grandma and grandpa were skookum persons. But what I choose to pop off my bazoo about now is, that most of us are not in the same class for sturdiness and horse sense, as were our forefathers. Now, don't get mad — and quit reading — I may say something.

We must win our New War — I am for same, everybody is — regardless of cost. But while we are pouring out dinero for guns and ammunition, we should not be crippling our effort — and make the job tougher — by also pouring out other millions on unneeded left-handed experiments. As we gaze across the oceans and find how little we have in the way of equipment and weapons from our past 5 years of spending of around 60,000,000,000 on defense, what is cooking on the home front now, today. It is Socialism coming in at the back door — the Govt. is barging further into everything. When some Senator — like this Paul Douglas person of Illinois — says, as a beginning, let's cut out some fancy reclamation expenses on account our crops are already too enormous, what happens. The other senators howl him down.

It will be flimsy kind of victory to lick the communists in Korea and then find we been donating our time, and wake up with Govt. ownership and socialism ensconced in the saddle here at home.

Grandma and grandpa would not have been slickered in such fashion — not on your tintype. Yours with the low down, JO SERRA oOo

COMMUNIST AIMS

The Communists always claim that theirs was a perfectly legal party, like the Democrats and the Republicans, and that they have a constitutional right to carry on their activities.

What that position actually means was well described recently by Judge Learned Hand of the Circuit Court of Appeals. He was speaking for a unanimous Court upholding the conviction of the 11 Communist leaders in New York last year. He said: "They claim the constitutional privilege of going on indoctrinating their pupils, preparing increasing numbers to pledge themselves to the crusade, and awaiting the moment when we may be so far extended by foreign engagements, so far divided in counsel, or so far in industrial or financial straits, that the chance (of successful revolution) seems worth trying. That position presupposes that the (First) Amendment assures them freedom for all preparatory steps and in the end the choice of the initiative, dependent upon that moment when they believe us, who must await the blow, to be worst prepared to receive it."

Communism is not a political party. It is a revolutionary movement owing total allegiance to a foreign government. Its sole aim is to destroy us.

Milestone in a Career!

We see it happen over and over again—and it's one of the greatest satisfactions we enjoy in this happy business of selling Cadillac cars.

It's when a man comes into possession of his first Cadillac—and we see the wonderful things it does for him.

We see his happiness as he places his order—not as the result of a sudden inspiration, but because he has gradually reached the conclusion that he has earned the right to enjoy the unquestioned best.

And then we see him on that happy day when his car is available for delivery—and he settles himself so proudly behind the wheel.

He's a little quizzical, we sometimes note. Could it be, he wonders, that he has been anticipating a bit too much?

And then he's out in the street—headed for home the long way 'round.

Those are thrilling days that follow.

There's the first long ride with the family . . . the first trip to the office . . . and the time he learns, in an emergency, that his car is worth its whole price in safety alone.

And then, almost before he knows it, the odometer registers a thousand miles—and he's back to tell us all about it. And, perhaps, to grumble a little bit at giving it up—even for a little while!

Yes, it's a priceless privilege to watch all this. Makes a man feel that he's doing good.

WHAT THE PEOPLE THINK OF IT

A highway patrol car beside our car and sign pull to the curb. The said, "May I see your license?" I had made a mistake which he explained, he went his own way, irritated me a bit to be out after I thought it was the officer was probably within the line.

At the time of the year warden is likely to drop for a cup of coffee. He may meet him parked on crossroads. He may see your hunting license, beside your car. What a enforcement officer is. He works for the people. You are one of the people. You find out what your people expect of him. A wise man he will not want you more enforcement. It has been said, is what the court says the court is what the people of it."

He is an officer of the law, a man of sound judgment and character and have the average amount of this is the only guarantee will not misuse his authority neglect his duty. But if you are reasonably within his law and I ought to back He is working for our us get our feelings ruf- we are involved with We always imagine that to look after the other follow. A little careful thought will show that this attitude is the result of vanity. We ought to be willing, within right limits to cooperate with any law officer.

Officers soon discover whether the people who elect them really want the law enforced, and how much, and against whom. The city cop soon learns whose wife must not get a ticket for speeding. A game warden learns what landowner will back him up, and which one will not. A sheriff learns how much order a community really wants and whose sons must not be bothered, etc. In short the officer of the law, if he lasts very long, is just a mirror of public opinion. You and I get just as much or as little law as we will accept.

The man who insists on violating any law is digging under his own house. When enough citizens have dug holes, the structure of law and order collapses.

The deer season is just around the corner. Everyone knows that there would be no deer left today if it were not for two things. One is the game law and the state enforcement agency. The other is the landowner. As long as these two can work together willingly, there will be deer in West Texas. Each should recognize the other as a necessary partner. Without the landowners' cooperation, game wardens are a waste of money. Without the alert warden, the owner finds it hard to protect his land against poachers.

A warden told me this story only last week. During the antelope season, a business man from upstate inadvertently killed a doe. He reported it to the warden in charge of that area. At the same time he lost his billfold near the spot where he killed the doe. The warden found the billfold and returned it. The warden allowed him to continue his hunt until he had killed an antelope buck, then took him to court, where he paid the minimum fine for killing the doe. On leaving for home, the hunter left the warden a twenty dollar bill. This is an unusual true story. But it shows how one man felt in his heart about an alert and fair officer of the law, even when he was the victim.

When you or I break a law — any law — we hurt ourselves. True some laws are better than others; some impose hardships on certain persons or groups, some represent political pressures or foolishness; some officers are not fit to be officers, etc. But, by and large, the law is man's friend. It is the cement which holds the community together.

The writer of these lines has probably broken as many laws as the average man of his type. But, regardless of that, he does believe, as most of us believe, that a man should be very sure that he is right before he breaks a law.

New Remedy for Screwworms Said Better Than '62'

COLLEGE STATION. — A new treatment for the control of the destructive livestock insect pest, the screwworm, has been developed by the USDA's Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine at their Kerrville laboratory. The new treatment is known as EQ 335 screwworm remedy.

According to J. A. Deer, assistant extension entomologist of Texas A. & M. College, the new remedy will replace the old reliable Smear 62 formula that has been used for the past 10 years. The formula for EQ 335 contains by weight 3 per cent of the powerful new insecticide, Lindane, 35 per cent pine oil, 42 per cent white mineral oil, 10 per cent emulsifier and 10 per cent silica gel. Deer says production of the new remedy is to start immediately and there will be smears of different consistencies on the market depending upon the type of emulsifier used. He says any of the smears that contain the 3 per cent lindane and the 35 per cent pine oil will be effective even though the other items in the formula very somewhat from the original.

Here are the advantages he lists for the new smear over 62. It will not deteriorate upon standing. An application usually lasts for seven days or about twice as long as an application of Smear 62. Treated wounds heal quickly and the lamp black and other coloring chemicals that stain clothing, wool or hair, are not found in the new remedy. The treatment kills maggots deep in the wounds, young maggots as they hatch from eggs and flies attracted to the wound to feed or lay eggs.

According to Deer, the new remedy has been tried on thousands of animals during the past four years and none have been injured from the treatment. He points out, however, that young animals, especially calves, might become sick if the treatment is not applied properly. The smear should be applied with a small paint brush and only the wound and a narrow strip of an inch or less about the wound should be treated.

home many girls have become Christians. The home conducts an adoption agency for the babies whose mothers do not take them. A large number of the girls, however, do take their babies, and in many cases the father of the child marries the girl.

Each girl must stay in the home at least four months, and can stay as long as necessary. They are taught to keep their own rooms, to sew and cook, and most of the housework in the home is done by the girls. Courses are offered in housekeeping, nursing, child care, and 196 beauty-parlor trade. Some of the girls attend day or night classes in local colleges. The percentage of reclaimed lives is very high.

The present facilities, which are adequate for 43 patients, will be increased to 55. The plant is soon to undergo a complete renovation and new furniture will be placed in each room.

The offering for this purpose is an annual affair in The Ozona Methodist Church.

HONEYMOON NOT ALL HONEY AND MOONLIGHT. . . If this be bliss, all the marriage manuals since Adam and Eve will have to be rewritten. Just after setting up housekeeping in Brookfield Zoo, Chicago, Kolby (left), 425-pound tiger groom, and Karl, 325-pound tigress bride, just snarled at their audience and then at each other. Maybe it was the lack of privacy that irked them. Anyway the zoo director was hoping that time would make them more compatible. The tigers, which are Siberians, were obtained in a swap for two bears. And the description, "As cross as a bear," seems to apply to them.

Are Our Texas Highways Being Destroyed by 1% of Highway Users?

This question is presented squarely for the first time by the Texas Tax Journal in its booklet, "The Case of the One Per Centers."

Every Texan who wants good highways, adequate for 99 of every 100 users, should write for a free copy of this revealing booklet.

Approximately 99% of all Texas motor vehicles are registered for a gross weight of 20,000 pounds or less.*

All Texas taxpayers, including your Texas Railroads, have reason to be concerned about the high cost of constructing and repairing our highways and the prospect of building more costly roads made necessary by the operation of highway "box cars."

No one has any desire to bar vehicles of reasonable size from our highways, so long as each pays its fair share of construction and repair costs.

Other Texas taxpayers should not be required to shoulder the burden of a roadway system for highway "box cars", representing only 1% of highway users.

Every Texan interested in good highways without increasing the growing tax burden should fill out the coupon below and get a copy of this valuable booklet.
