Wanda Carden Wins Third Place in State Declamation Contest

"It was certainly worth going down there for and I wouldn't have missed it for the world."

These were Wanda Carden's feelings concerning the trip to Austin.

Wanda left Friday, May 2, for Austin where she got third place in the State Senior Girls Declamation contest.

One of eight contestants, Wanda spoke fifth. They were allowed to listen to all declamations after their own — that's the trouble. She admits the last declaimer had her pretty worried — until the last. She could hardly believe her name had been called when she looked at Miss Koepf with a fleeting glance. "Does he mean me?"

Not until she had the medal secure in her fingers did she realize she'd placed. But afterward, like all contestants, she knew she could have done better, had she had a second chance.

As for next year — Wanda still hasn't decided what she'll do.

The Junior class favored an all school picnic and extended an invitation to the other three classes this week. They accepted the invitation; however, no definite plans have been made. A committee of two persons from each class will get together and make plans as they see fit.

Yell Leaders Picked By Vote of Students

By Marion Mock
"Come on ya'll and yell!" That was the cry that kept ringing out in the auditorium Monday, May 5.

Yes, tryouts for the 1952-53 cheer leaders election proved to be a "howling" success.

Out of the 10 girls trying out, the 4 that came out victorious were Betty Walley with 86 votes, Mary Beth Eatherly, 76, Alena Faye Powers, 70, and Billie Chandler, 48.

The girls tried out first by themselves, leading the student body in a yell of their choice, and then teamed up with one or two of the other contestants to lead another yell.

Besides the honored four others trying were Charlene Perks, Carolyn Stuart, Carol Friend, Ann Baggett, Vivian Trotter and Jan Jones.

In any event that any of the four girls chosen are not here next year, Charlene, the girl with the next number of votes, will take her place.

Band Mothers Sponsor Barbecue and Dance

All of the band members and their families are invited to a Bar-B-Q Friday, May 9, 1952. It will be held on the lawn between the high school and junior high at 6:30 p.m.

Music will be furnished by the high school dance band for a dance in the girls gym immediately following the picnic. All of the student body is invited to the dance, no charge.

U. T. Power Show Awes Ozona Student At State Meet

Jimmie McMullan was full of surprises when he returned this week from the Interscholastic League Meeting at the University. He was simply talking circles around everyone else. Certainly, he was speaking of the Power Show held yearly on the campus of T. U.

Jimmy and Mr. Yager spent Friday evening climbing steps, trying to make their minds believe what they saw. They saw a milk-making machine where oak leaves were turned into milk in a matter of seconds. (No more need for cows.) Next it was coffee being made with cream out of elements of the air. This, Jimmie still won't believe.

Among other things were water that would burn, miniature rotary rigs, and a cat and rat game machine that couldn't be beaten. Jimmie said if anyone did beat it, he had the privilege of throwing a pie in a girl's face. But Jimmie says he didn't see any pie on girls either.

What If?

- Marion M. could get along with Norris Pogue?
- Bill S. Passed Home Economics?
- Bill M. knew better?
- Wayne K. played football?
- The Lions beat the Exes?
- Coach Pelto taught freshman English?
- Pete C. was skinny?
- Kenneth Bledsoe were to get drafted?
- Rod W. got out of high school?
- We had no lunch hour?

Jimmie McMullan To State Typing Meet

Jimmie McMullan, regional contestant in Brownwood in typing, last week went to Austin to state. Although Jimmie didn't place at state, he did do better than the boy from Robert Lee who was one better than he in Brownwood.

According to Mrs. Cody, "That makes Jimmie a first place winner in Brownwood, and I am proud that he did that!"

We are, too, Jimmie. Congratulations to a "winner" in anyone's book.

GRADUATION

An Editorial
By Norris Pogue

The importance of Graduation is not simply the end of 12 years of school. It is a little more than that; it represents a way of life that you are leaving. Your school whether or not important in your view point, has controlled to a certain amount your way of thinking. Possibly you will realize this soon after you go your way in life. School is not simply a collection of studies, subjects, or periods.

It's meaning can be thought of more in terms of friends and living. School, as is any organization, connected with the development of mind and body, presents a society of people. The part you played in that society was simply a smaller scale of the life you will lead in the society of the world.

What kind of person, what kind of student, what kind of friend you were in high school will probably make you what you'll be in the world tomorrow.

THE IMPORTANCE OF A SCHOOL PAPER

Freedom of the press is one of the greatest things about our American way of life. Newspapers indeed play an important part in our lives. During our Junior High School days we all sometime or other write something for the paper. It's fun, isn't it? Often, though, some of the things we write are just too silly for words. Things that sound funny in class aren't always so cute in the paper to other people. Since there are just a very few weeks left in school this year, let's all try to turn out, in the next few weeks, a really good paper. — Carol Blackstone.

SEVENTH GRADE

The seventh grade is taking up letter writing in English.
In Math we are still reviewing for final exams.
In P. E. the girls are playing badminton. The boys are studying track. — Cecilia Cooke.

It Will Be in Demand When It's 10 Years Old!

Take a new Cadillac home with you—use it with common prudence and give it reasonable care——and ten years from today, there should be many, many people anxious to drive it and call it their own!
The soundness of this prediction is attested on used car lots throughout America. Every day, buyers are taking possession of Cadillacs built before the war—and are doing so with pride and anticipation.
There are many and vital reasons for this enduring value of a Cadillac car.
First, of course, is quality. Cadillacs are built to the highest standard it is practical to enforce in the production of a motor car.
The watchword and the goal of those who design and build for Cadillac are one and the same—how good and how enduring can this car be made?
Year in and year out, the search for improvement goes relentlessly ahead.
Small wonder that the car keeps its youth and its performance—far, far beyond the normal span.

And then there is its sound and enduring beauty. Cadillac styling is a development—with continuous improvement and refinement. Older Cadillacs, of course, are not to be mistaken for the current ones; but, regardless of age, they are still Cadillacs—and are distinguished and dignified in their own rights.
And then, of course, there is the wonderful Cadillac name—which never loses its significance, no matter how old the car which bears it. Year for year and age for age, a Cadillac is always aside and apart from other cars.
It is not unusual for a Cadillac to pass through four or five or even six different families—each one owning it with pride and driving it with pleasure.
Think of this when you buy your next car. If you get a Cadillac—there can be no doubt that others will be eager to own it when it has served you the normal span.
Why not come in—and see and drive this wonderful car? We'd be happy to welcome you any time.

Pastor to Interpret Methodist Conference At Evening Service

The General Conference of world-wide Methodism closed last Tuesday in San Francisco, after making many sweeping changes in the program and methods of The Methodist Church.

Among other things, new legislation affects the use of alcoholic liquors by churchmen, the official Methodist attitude toward left-wing political groups, segregation of races, conscientious objection to military draft laws, and a host of other timely and vital topics of our day.

E. B. Baggett, Jr., and his daughters, Mrs. Boyd Clayton of Ozona and Mrs. Massie West of San Angelo, left San Angelo by plane Tuesday for Dallas to be at the bedside of Becky Baggett, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baggett. The child was reported in serious condition Tuesday but improved somewhat late in the afternoon.

WSCS to Be Host At Bi-District Meet

Members of the WSCS of the Methodist Church met Wednesday morning at the church for a business meeting and program. The president, Mrs. H. B. Tandy, presided at the business session. Mrs. D. B. Pettit led the devotional.

Annual reports were heard from officers and committee chairmen. A bi-district meeting is to be held in Ozona June 26, with a school-girl lunch at the church. The society will stage a rummage sale at the Community Center on May 17.

It makes each drop of gas say uncle

ACCORDING to combustion experts, there's as much energy locked in a drop of gasoline as there is in a drop of nitroglycerine. But the problem is to put that energy to work. So Buick engineers aren't content just to mix that drop with air and touch it off. They've designed an engine that brings it catapulting into a cylinder head where it strikes a turbo-top piston—gets whipped into a churning, swirling ball of tight-packed energy.

Then it's fired. And when that happens, a drop of gasoline certainly lets loose power. This isn't something that happens in a "car of the future." It happens in a Buick Fireball 8 Engine today. It's a high-compression engine. It's a valve-in-head engine. But it's also a Fireball in performance as well as name. And it puts extra power under the hood—and extra miles in the fuel back in the gas tank. Now, power is great, but what goes with it? Mister, that's something you ought to find out—and soon. What goes with it is an automobile as sweet-handling, eager and willing as anything that ever made your pulse leap to a faster beat. It's a car that seems to know what you want it to do—true and sure in its course on a straightaway—beautifully balanced on curves. It's a car with Dynaflo Drive* to feed power with infinite smoothness—and a road-hugging levelness of ride that took a million in cold cash to perfect. And it is, with all this, a very tidy bargain. Why not price it, drive it, know it for yourself? We'll be glad to arrange a demonstration. Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. Wheel Covers standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Here and There

By J. Troy Hickman

that Truman-prosperity is false prosperity and that we are merely taking our own money out of the left pocket and putting it into the right. And the country drifts daily into a condition which is less and less like a Constitutional Democracy and more and more like a totalitarian state.

The startling decision by Federal Judge Pine, which attempted to halt the seizure of the steel industry by the President, puts on public record a fast-growing American rank-and-file conviction, namely, that the encroachment of the executive into areas of private life has already gone too far and must be stopped here and now. To save the federal face, a higher court granted a stay against the enforcement of Judge Pine's decision until some other issues could become clear or the parties to the steel dispute could agree among themselves. Nevertheless, the Pine decision was made and stands in the record.

There must be a first note in every song, and we believe that the Pine decision is but the first movement in a landslide which will eventually push back federal encroachment on every front. The President's claim, made in response to a question by a news reporter about the powers of the chief executive that "The President can do what he thinks is best for the country," reveals the inner nature of Truman and the men who think as he does.

This sweeping dictum is a complete renunciation of the whole Constitutional principle, and is a brilliant definition of dictatorship. Every dictator feels that he is a benefactor and works for the good of the country, and that he should have all power at his command. Franco could not have put it better. It just does not happen to be the American way.

We believe that at this moment the mass of rank-and-file Americans are more weary of Uncle Sam than they have ever been — more disillusioned, more angry, more determined to kick somebody out, more intent on having some sweeping change. We believe that those who see this year as only another typical election year, and who believe therefore that they can predict what will happen on the basis of what has always happened, are sadly misreading the signs of the times. For this is a powder-house year. Vast forces are loose and sweeping the country. Turbulent emotions are boiling beneath the surface of things. To put it briefly, this is a year of crisis. Anything can happen. And as sure as we live, something is going to happen. And it will be something revolutionary.

Mother-Daughter Tea In Davidson Home

Tiny tea guests, in their best frilly Spring dresses, accompanied equally dressed up mothers to the mother-daughter tea Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Joe T. Davidson. Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson, Becky, Ann and Barbara Joan Davidson were hostesses on the occasion.

Approximately 170 mothers and daughters called during the tea hours. A profusion of Spring flowers in pastel shades, blending with the crisp costumes of guests and hostesses gave the house the festive and colorful air of Spring-time.

Becky and Ann Davidson greeted the guests at the door, with Mrs. Joe T. Davidson, Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson and Barbara Joan receiving in the living room.

Mrs. Charles Womack and Miss Marie Williams were at the punch bowl and Miss Alena Faye Powers registered the guests. Others in the house party were Mrs. Ted White, Mrs. Tom Powers, Mrs. Frank McMullan, Mrs. Chas. E. Davidson, Jr., Mrs. Early Baggett and Mrs. Lovella Dudley.

The Maytime theme was accentuated by a Maypole which centered the refreshment table. Tiny doll figures danced around the Maypole and candelabra at each end of the table held white tapers in the center of which were arrangements of painted daisies in pastel shades. Painted daisies and other Spring flowers in soft pastel shades were used throughout the house.

served as deputy sheriff of that county for a number of years and was later elected sheriff, where I served continuously for eight years, after which I was elected Chief of Police of the city of Brownwood, and served in that capacity for four years.

During my tenure as an officer I was successful in catching many law violators, and believe I can do the same in Crockett county.

I have always used finger prints and other modern methods of helping to solve numerous violations of the law; and in these days of rapid transit, I believe it is necessary to use every modern method to apprehend and convict violators, and to completely coordinate the work with all other law enforcing agencies of the State.

I invite the voters to investigate my past record as an officer, and my ability to solve crimes and apprehend criminals.

If elected, I pledge myself to cooperate with all other law enforcing officers, and do my best to make you a good sheriff and Assessor-Collector.

My family and I will deeply appreciate your votes and any other help you may see fit to give us in this race.

Sincerely yours,
W. E. (Jack) Hallmark
