Mrs. Jane Wagner, wife of Silas Wagner, will teach in the Junior High School.

In the North Elementary will be two new teachers, Mrs. Betty Green, former teacher at McCamey, and Mrs. Louis A. Martin, a graduate of the University of Iowa. Both Mrs. Green's and Mrs. Martin's husbands are engaged in the oil business here.

M., a Sul Ross graduate; Mrs. Charlie Gotcher of Rhome, Texas, a graduate of NTSTC; and Mrs. H. N. Smith of Denton, another North Texas grad. Mrs. Rusty Smith, a long time teacher in the South Elementary, who retired several years ago to become a substitute stand-by in case of emergency, will open the year as a member of the faculty as a substitute for Mrs. Lowell Littleton, whose recent illness will prevent her resuming teaching duties for some months yet.

75 Lambs On Creep Feed Preparatory To Start of 4-H Program

Some seventy fine wool and crossbred mutton lambs have been placed on creep feed in preparation for the 4-H Club lamb feeding program this winter, County Agent Pete Jacoby announced this week.

It is not known yet how many 4-H Club boys and girls plan to feed but it is anticipated that the number will exceed the 25 who fed last year, Mr. Jacoby said.

Any boy or girl nine years of age and who can make satisfactory arrangements with the county agent for feeding facilities, is eligible for the lamb feeding program. Those interested in feeding lambs this winter should contact County Agent Jacoby as soon as possible so that arrangements can be made for the selection of the lambs.

M. D. Stroble

Martin D. Stroble, District Governor of Rotary Clubs, visited the Ozona Rotary Club at its noon luncheon here Tuesday. Governor Stroble is superintendent of the public schools at Poteet, serving in that capacity there since 1939. He had taught in the Poteet system for nine years prior to taking the superintendency. An interesting history of Rotary and its goals and accomplishments was given by the district governor in a talk to local Rotarians.

Light Vote Expected In Run-Off Primary Election Here Saturday

The Democratic run-off primary slated for next Saturday, is expected to attract a small number of voters in Crockett county.

There is only one state-wide run-off race, that for the state Supreme Court, Place 1, between Spurgeon Bell of Houston and Frank P. Culver of Fort Worth. The name of Martin Dies for Congressman at Large, will appear on the ballot without opposition. Dies led the first primary ticket against a big field of candidates but failed by a small margin to win a majority. The next highest candidate, John Lee Smith of Lubbock, withdrew from the run-off to leave Dies unopposed.

Decision to hold the run-off in this county, which is required by the new election code but said unenforceable by authorities, was reached by the county Democratic committee. The election will be held in only one voting box in the county, however, at the courthouse in Ozona. Voters in any precinct in the county will be eligible to vote in the courthouse box.

Board Accepts New School Bldgs. From Contractors

Band, Shop Building N. Elementary Additions Cost $330,000

Formal acceptance of the completed structures at a called meeting of the school board last Friday marked the completion of a $330,000 addition to Ozona's public school system, one complete new building housing band and manual training department, and addition of a new classroom wing on the north side of the North Elementary school and an auditorium on the south side.

A few minor items remained to be completed and installation of equipment and furnishings as they arrive or as time permit their removal from other buildings will proceed between now and opening of schools September 2.

The new band and shop building, will provide a large band hall, properly sound-proofed and with built-in equipment for band use; two practice rooms, music library room, office, instrument storage room and an upstairs section in which will be located the band uniform storage quarters, dressing rooms and more practice rooms, plus a balcony overlooking the band hall.

The manual training department of the building includes a large shop classroom with woodworking equipment and materials, a mechanical drawing room, office, a glue room, project storage room, lumber storage, etc.

The new building was put to use Monday morning when Band Director Corbett Smith held the first band practice of the new year. Mr. Smith plans to hold rehearsals every morning, Monday thru Friday, from now until the start of school.

The other major project in the current building program, which was made possible by voter approval of a $350,000 bond issue last year, was at the North Elementary school. A new wing constructed at the north end of the building will provide five new classrooms and kindergarten quarters in the building. On the south end of the building an auditorium and playroom was constructed, all in brick harmonizing with the existing building.

New furniture and equipment for these additions have already been moved in place and the new addition will be ready for use with the opening of schools.

In addition to the new construction, other property of the school has been given attention during the summer. New paint jobs on some of the teacher housing units have been completed and interior redecorating at the high school and at the South Elementary have been undertaken during the summer. The high school auditorium and library are getting new paint and trim and the old section of the South Elementary has been refinished.

In addition to an interior repainting job, the high school auditorium soon will be dressed in new curtains and drapes and a new heating system. The new drapes were selected by a committee from the P. T. A. and are now on order, delivery expected within the next few weeks. Four new squirrel-cage type blowers are being installed to heat the auditorium more efficiently and with less noise than the old fan-type blowers formerly used.

As soon as the work on the auditorium and other finishing touches on old and new buildings are completed and new furnishings delivered and in place, open house will be observed by the schools and the public invited to inspect the plant. Supt. Lem Bray announced this week. The date for such public inspection has been tentatively set for Oct. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clayton and Joe, Jr. and Cheryl, are in Colorado for a visit at the summer home of Mr. Clayton's mother, Mrs. A. W. Clayton.

Damage Results From Fire At Ranch Home Of Mrs. W. P. Seahorn

Considerable damage from fire and water resulted at the ranch home of Mrs. W. P. Seahorn, about 30 miles southeast of Ozona Tuesday night.

A blaze which started in a waste basket on the back porch ate its way into the attic before it was discovered. Mrs. Seahorn's telephone was out of order and she raced to a neighboring ranch to summon the Ozona fire department, which responded, along with a number of volunteers.

However, Kay Black and Bill Seahorn, with the help of a number of ranch hands, had the blaze under control by the time the fire truck arrived.

Voters Approve Roads Bonds By Six to One Margin

Bonds Sell At Interest Rate Of 1.83 Percent

Property owning taxpaying voters of Crockett county last Saturday approved by a vote of 6 1/2 to 1 the issuance of $200,000 in bonds of the county for the purpose of constructing paved roads in the oil field area in the north-central section of the county, for right-of-way and fencing of a 17 1/2 mile stretch of connecting highway to be built by the state in the same area, and for a seal coat on Ozona paved streets.

With one box still unreported at mid-week, with a very small vote expected in the box, the tally showed 143 votes in favor of the issue and 22 opposed. The Thompson box in the far western edge of the county, had not been reported, but the total vote in the box could not change the result.

Acting on the election mandate, the county Commissioners Court received bids on the issue from eleven bond buyers Monday afternoon and sold the entire issue to the First Southwest Co., Dallas investment bankers, the low bidder of the lot at 1.83 percent interest on the bonds. The successful bidding firm was represented by Lockett Shelton. The Ozona National Bank, through Lowell Littleton as representative, was among low bidders for the bonds.

The bonds are serial bonds, dated September 1, interest payable semiannually, and are to be retired in 10 years, 20 bonds of $1,000 denomination to be retired each year. The county holds an option to retire the entire issue after five years if it so desires.

Proceeds from sale of the bonds will go toward providing the right-of-way and fencing on 17 1/2 miles of paved road to be constructed by the state from Highway 163 at a point 2 miles north of Ozona, through the Vaughan Field area, within 4 1/2 miles of Todd Field and connecting with Farm-Market road 33. The county, using bond funds, will construct a 4 1/2 mile connecting road to tie Todd Field to the new state road and another section of about the same length to connect Powell Field area with F-M 33 to the north.

On a bid already in the hands of the county at a rate below that paid by the state for similar work on highways in the area, work will proceed as soon as possible on applying a seal coat to all paved streets in Ozona. Property owners on a few streets still unpaved are understood to be getting together to make a deal with the contracting firm to pave these sections of the county equipment to be used in preparing the base as was done on the other streets.

Outdoor Parties Held By Classes Of Baptist Sunday School

An effort is being made during the month of August for each class of the First Baptist Sunday School to have an out-of-doors party. Several socials were held last week and more are slated for this week.

On Friday night of last week, The Homemakers Class, taught by Mrs. Jack Brewer, enjoyed an ice cream party on the lawn of the church. Thursday night, August 21, two of the adult classes have socials scheduled. The Ruth class meeting jointly with the Young Men's class, will have a social hour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tomy Gould. A nursery will be provided for the children of the couples of these classes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Monroe, across the street from the site of the party. This party comes as the climax to a contest based on attendance of the two groups of the Ruth Class. The losing group, under the leadership of Mrs. James Gould and Mrs. Joyce Smith, will entertain the winners, headed by Mrs. Warren Taliaferro and Mrs. Jean Lynch.

Ft. Worth—Nearly 11,000 cattle and calves arrived at the Fort Worth market Monday, the largest number since June, 1947. Everyone held his breath to see whether the run would ruin the good gains made last week—but a surprisingly strong undertone prevailed and prices ranged from steady to 50 cents off most of the day. A few spots $1 lower were noted on excessively full and on plain and medium kinds on the late rounds.

Hogs gained 25 cents, topping at $22.50. Sows were steady.

Most sheep and lambs moved along steady on the slaughter kinds, but steady to 50 cents lower on stockers. Lightweight stocker lambs were the kinds encountering trouble. The sheep run was 10,000 head, unusual because it came so late in the season.

Comparative prices: Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $26 to $32 and plain and medium butcher sorts sold at $16 to $25, with culls

GMC engineering brings you this great new Model 470 high-weight tractor that hauls up to 1,195 pounds more cargo than any other vehicle in the 45,000 gross weight class.

Here are the reasons why. It will pay you to study them carefully.

Sensational new engine. Model 470 is powered by GMC's new 145 h. p. valve-in-head "302" engine—the most powerful gasoline engine for its weight in truck history.

Maximum power-to-weight ratio. The "302" engine weighs as much as 500 pounds less than other engines of comparable power, due to new high efficiency design.

Highest Compression—7.2 to 1—exceeds any other standard gasoline truck engine, accelerates faster. Delivers full power at an easy-stroking 3,200 r. p. m.

More ton-miles per gallon—low fuel weight in engine and chassis means more profit in every mile.

Highest payload capacity—upward of one-half ton greater than any other tractor of the same GCW rating.

Price—the biggest surprise of all. Compare the price you have to pay for this pace-setting GMC against the field. Nowhere else will so little buy so much in a 3- to 4½-ton tractor.

Senator Hardeman Says Texans Should Defeat Amendments

Dorsey B. Hardeman, State Senator, 25th district, in the following article, discusses the provisions of the two proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution, which Texas voters will pass on in the general election in November. The Senator concludes that both should be defeated by the voters. Here is his analysis of the two proposals:

Once again Texans are called upon to pass upon proposals to change their basic law.

One of such proposes an amendment to the Constitution creating a State Medical Education Board and establishing a fund out of which "grants, loans and scholarships to students desiring to study medicine and agreeing to practice in the rural areas of this State" may be made.

We are all interested in providing adequate medical care and facilities, at reasonable expense, for the people of Texas. While the worthy motives of this proposal are appreciated, still, it is fraught with some aspects which suggest its undesirability.

For one thing, it adds another board to the numerous boards, commissions and bureaus presently supported by the taxpayers, either by direct appropriation or from the proceeds of the sale of various and sundry licenses, permits or stickers for the privilege of simply engaging in legitimate business endeavors within the state to gain a livelihood.

The proposal would authorize "grants, loans or scholarships" out of the general revenue fund to "students desiring to go to study medicine and agreeing to practice in the rural areas." This would revoke and repeal, to that extent, a long standing constitutional provision which forbids appropriation of public funds for "private or individual purposes." (Art. 16, Sec. 6, Const. of Texas.) Also, its adoption would contravene the provision forbidding the "giving or lending of the credit of a state in aid of, or to any person," or the pledging of "the credit of the State in any manner whatsoever, for the payment of the liabilities, present or prospective, of any individual..." (Art. 3, Sec. 50, Const. of Texas.)

Sound governmental policy dictated provisions at the time of their incorporation into our Constitution and the underlying reason therefor, apparently, remains unchanged.

In addition, the proposal is discriminatory in that it is limited to a single class or group. The shortage of practitioners of the healing arts in our rural communities is an admitted fact. The question is whether the method proposed offers the solution to the problem. Frankly, I do not know the answer and will gladly await the decision of the people on the subject.

Nothing is binding, beyond the mere moral obligation of the person receiving such benefits to practice in a designated area, which obligation is legally unenforceable. It does not appear that a definite term for such practice in a particular area ever could be fixed and any effort to do so by law might amount to, more or less, "involuntary servitude" which the law of the land forbids.

Then there comes the question of determining whether there should be uniform requirements, such as the length of time each practitioner should be required to spend in the area; who should select the area and prescribe its territorial limits; the type of service and the extent of the care and facilities and equipment offered or to be provided; the charges that might be made; the duty hours that should be maintained, etc. Many factors, necessarily, would have to be considered in a determination of this matter. Suffice it to say that the proposal dangerously approaches socialized medicine in designated areas while excluding other areas therefrom.

The state now maintains, at considerable expense to the taxpayer, two fine medical schools which are filled to capacity and have waiting lists for admission. Unless institutional facilities are greatly expanded, there seems to be little justification for the establishment of a fund of tax money to send additional personnel to already over-crowded schools of medicine. These and other reasons might be assigned for the rejection of this proposal at the polls.

Another proposal would authorize Workmen's Compensation Insurance for municipal employees.

This type insurance has long been recognized in industry. It has afforded the worker protection, as well as allowed industry to limit its liability.

The proposed amendment would extend this policy to public employees of cities, towns and villages, and at the same time authorize such municipalities to provide for or set up its own insurance risk for all employees. Naturally, if this latter procedure is adopted, a new bureau or board for the administration thereof will inevitably follow.

It would seem better, and in accord with our oft-expressed views of free enterprise, that such insurance be obtained from private sources, in any event.

Respectfully submitted, Dorsey B. Hardeman, State Senator, 25th Dist., San Angelo, Texas.

"All my life I've wanted to own a Buick"

Power Steering on the Roadmaster and Super

Power Steering now available on Super as well as Roadmaster—optional at extra cost.

IT seems that owning a Buick is something that a lot of folks dream about—plan for—and finally do.

We say that because, so many times, they say so in words like those above.

Those words make us happy, of course—happy to know we sell a car which means so much to those who own it.

But they make us feel just a little bit sad as well—sad to realize all the years of fun such folks have been missing for no good reason at all.

For the fact is this: If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick. You can afford the thrill of bossing around that big Fireball 8 Engine that purrs forth a mighty flow of power.

You can afford the gas bills—as any owner of a 1952 Buick will tell you—because that high-compression, valve-in-head marvel gets a lot of miles from a gallon of fuel.

You can afford the extra luxury of a real, million dollar ride—the silken smoothness of Dynaflo Drive*—the extra room and comfort and style that have put Buick popularity right up at the top of the list, next to the "low-priced three."

So if you want to own a Buick—there's just one thing to do: Come in—pick the one of your choice—and let us show you how close the figure that goes on the bill of sale comes to what you'd pay elsewhere.

As we've said before, your first car can be a Buick. Why not take the Big Step right away—today?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

which one can have a magnificent view of the bay, the city, and the vast military installations in the area. Slightly inland, and on another high point, is the site of the old Presidio and Mission. The latter was established in 1769 by Father Junipero Serra, an heroic and untiring Franciscan priest who is credited with the founding of the entire chain of West Coast missions. Scribbled with a red crayola on the base of a cross raised to his memory was this enlightening commentary, — "Pete loves Suzy."

Here grows the gnarled old palm, said to be the oldest planted tree in California, and here is one terminal of El Camino Real. San Diego's Balboa Park, named after the first European ever to sight the Pacific, has a magnificent group of large public buildings done in Spanish Renaissance style, some of which were held over from the Pan American Pacific Exposition in 1915.

We are spending this last free day of our vacation in a trailer park at Imperial Bay, just south of the city. About 76 trailers are parked here, some semi-permanently and some, like ourselves, here for only a few days. The beach and small shopping district are within easy walking distance. The owners, Mr. and Mrs. Q. T. Arney, are very genial people. He stands ready at any time to take his customers fishing into the deep waters where the bass and tuna abound. To his kindness we owe a very enjoyable afternoon of angling. He says to tell the Ozona people he will be glad to accommodate anyone who will take the trouble to look him up. I have his address.

In the morning we expect to pull up the stakes and take the shortest route home, which from here is via Highway 80, through El Centro, Yuma and Tucson. Having seen this region several times and knowing that it is a very hot drive in the summer, we dread it. The one good thing about it is that at the other end is home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hufstедler had as guests last week Mr. Hufstедler's mother, Mrs. John G. Hufstедler of Lubbock; his sister, Mrs. J. E. Maxwell of El Paso, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joe Ross Hufstедler of Uvalde.

Shirley Kost of Ozona was one of only 14 in a class of 175 to win first class rating in twirling at the band and twirling school held at the Texas Lutheran College in Seguin. Shirley has been a twirler in the Ozona school band for the past three years. Other twirlers who will perform this year with the Ozona band are Ann Ratliff, who attended twirling school at T. C. U. and Jeannene Thompson, with Marion Mock as drum major. Marion attended the band school in Abilene.

Mrs. J. H. Wilson Celebrates 100th Birthday Monday; West Texan For Fifty-One Years

Mrs. J. H. Wilson, who was a teenage girl at the outbreak of the Civil War, Monday celebrated her 100th birthday.

Mrs. Wilson, born Alice Jones on August 18, 1852, arose at the usual hour Monday, made up her own bed and did other customary chores about the house and then got into the swing of an enjoyable day visiting with relatives, attending a family reunion and dinner at the Dick Henderson ranch, and emerged at day's end "fresh as a daisy."

Monday was a double birthday occasion, with 183 birthday candles a potential as Mrs. Wilson observed her 100th and her son-in-law, W. E. (Ned) Friend of San Angelo and Ozona, his 83rd. Mr. Friend was honored at the dinner at the home of his grandson-in-law and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Henderson by his six children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Friend of Fort Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Mayes of Ozona, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Owens of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Woods of Fort Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Friend, Jr., of Ozona and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Friend of Big Lake.

Mrs. Wilson is the mother of two children, Mrs. J. W. Young of Ozona, with whom she has made her home for the past several years, and Mrs. W. E. Friend of San Angelo. She has seven grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and six great great grandchildren. The daughters honored her at an open house on the important birthday occasion, when many friends called to wish her "many happy returns."

The seven grandchildren are Walter Young of San Angelo; Warren Friend of Fort Davis; Mrs. Hudson Mayes, Ozona; Mrs. Alfred Owens, San Angelo; Mrs. W. S. Woods, Fort Stockton; W. E. Friend, Jr., Ozona, and Bill Friend, Big Lake. All were present for the double birthday celebration and family reunion.

Mrs. Wilson's family settled in Collin county when she was a young girl, later moving to Pilot Point where she married J. H. Wilson in 1873. Mr. Wilson died in a San Angelo hospital in 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson moved to Wise county and in 1901 to West Texas, settling on the ranch now operated by Max Schneemann, 11 miles south of Big Lake. They later bought a ranch 4 miles south of Big Lake, which Mrs. Wilson still owns.

Reagan county's oldest citizen, Mrs. Wilson, with Mr. Wilson, rode the first train into that city. Mrs. Wilson is in good health, has an active mind and an excellent memory of events in her life. She often delights her grandchildren with exciting stories of Civil War days and of Indian fights in the early days in Texas. But her interests also embrace the present, she is alert to happenings of the day, interested in home and garden, and spends some time daily in putting around in her daughter's flower garden.

Among the out-of-town relatives and friends here to help Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Friend celebrate the joint birthday were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Caldwell of McAllen, Mrs. Elsie Swearingen of Harlingen, Elby Jones of Santa Anna, Calif., Miss Addie Marie Young of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young, Mrs. Jack Buster and son, Walter Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Owens, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Friend, Sr., all of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Friend of Fort Davis, Mrs. W. S. Woods of Fort Stockton, Mrs. Max Wilson and sons, Bobby and Charles of Pampa, Mrs. Joe McWhorter and Mrs. Ray Fitzgerald and Mary Lynn of Fort Davis, and Mrs. Alma Peters of Artesia, N. M.

Mr. Friend was born in Gateville in 1869. He was married to Miss Minnie Wilson in Ozona in 1896. Mr. and Mrs. Friend made their home in Ozona until he retired from the ranching business in 1941 when they moved to San Angelo. They live at 2710 Colorado in that city.
