OR TAILS, WE LOSE

Those who are trying to find ways through the smog of the election and reach some sound decision between now and election day are having rough going. The noise is being made, but the light is being shed. Of course, we can be sure: heads will be lost. Whether it's Ike or Truman on November 4, we still have the same problem. The problem is not one of party, principles, or individual politics. The problem is human nature.

That one can learn from the nations and promises now flying through the air like dust before a storm, adds up to one thing — we have a government of the people. And since people are corrupted by evil, the government they make are also corrupted. The evil infects not only those who govern, but also those who are governed. Since the beginning of written history, governments have been bad because people have been bad. And governments will be bad to bad until people are bad, regardless of which candidates.

Believe that both Ike and Adlai gentlemen of a high order. One of them would stand high in a group. But the character of a man at the time of his election is an indication of how he will perform as the President of the U. S. For one thing, he has Congress to contend with. For another thing, he has himself to deal with. Humanity simply cannot stand long under the pressures of the Presidency of the United States. Power corrupts. No man can endure it very long.

The President as a man will hang from his first day in office, and since his performance will depend upon the quirks of fate and the tender mercies of fate and his party, nothing he promises now will make a difference. When the time comes to act, he will just do the possible under the circumstances, be that little or much, or wrong. Therefore, the present campaign "issues" and promises are just so much wasted.

Whether we can learn anything from the traditional positions supposed to have been occupied in the active parties, for neither parties where it used to stand by major issue. Parties change. When I was studying American history in high school, we were told that the basic difference between the Republican and Democratic parties was the tariff question. That is simply not so. The Democratic party is today a coalition of various interests and groups, so is the Republican party. It is the same bundle with interests are numerous prejudices and certain rather blind reasoning loyalties. For instance, individuals in the South do not the slightest idea why they vote Democratic, but they have a vague feeling that the Republicans were somehow responsible for the Civil War and the Reconstruction. They heard grandpa say the dam-Yankees. Not wanting to think for themselves, they follow the Democratic party like sheep following their leader. I believe that government is a necessary evil. At its worst, it is a tyranny; and at its best, it is a necessary makeshift. The only thing to be said for organized government is that it keeps from suffering a worse kind of government — the unofficial control of the weak by the strong, the rule by the clever, the gentle by the ruthless. Our best hope of saving our own government under proper control is to try for a balance of power, keep the power broken up into as small units as possible, and pass it around from hand to hand as often as possible. Make the first safeguard, the balance of power. It would be well if the administration changed every fourth year. I wish the difference between the north of the two major parties

Jury Summoned For Dist. Court Here October 20

Compensation Cases On Tap for Hearing In Fall Term

Forty-eight Crockett county men have received summons from the sheriff's department to report at 10 o'clock Monday morning, October 20, for possible service as jurors in the 112th district court.

The October meeting is a continuation of the regular September term of court which opened with the impanelling of the grand jury but the petit jury was dismissed.

Six compensation cases are set for hearing at the October 20 meeting. A murder trial, to be transferred from Sutton county, has been postponed until December, officials said.

Greater Need Than Ever Before Stressed In Coming Campaign

Mrs. Jack Wilkins will serve as director of the 1953 March of Dimes for Crockett county, it was announced by Frank James, chairman of the Crockett county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Citing the need for a more intensified March of Dimes campaign in 1953 than ever before, Mr. James stated: "With the incidence of polio far in excess of any previous year in Texas history, we must all cooperate to insure the success of this drive. Without it, we could not pay for patient care and treatment in hospitals in San Angelo, San Antonio, or at the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, which received more than $280,000.00 from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis Chapters in Texas alone."

"Polio treatment is expensive," continued Mr. James. "You may not realize it but Robert B. Green Hospital in San Antonio charges $13.92 per day per patient; the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation charges $14.00 per day and is seeking to raise this rate. The average monthly care cost exclusive of braces or other appliances is $435.00. We need money from our January March of Dimes to continue helping those polio victims who need financial and technical assistance."

Lions Club Resumes Weekly Luncheon Meet

After summer vacation weeks during which meetings were held at night every two weeks, the Ozona Lions Club last week resumed weekly luncheon meetings each Thursday at the House of Flowers tea room.

Haskell Leath, speech instructor in the high school, spoke to the groups Thursday. Bill Mayes was elected tail twister to succeed Charlie Reed.

Max Baumgardner, San Angelo College coach, will provide the program at today's meeting.

Active Republican Campaign Planned To Carry Crockett Co.

Perhaps the most active Republican campaign in the history of Crockett county, combining with forces of Texas Democrats for Eisenhower, is being waged in an effort to carry this county for General Eisenhower in the November 4 general election. The local level campaign is being directed by Mrs. R. A. Harrell, named Crockett county Republican chairman, and is co-ordinated with a statewide effort to bring out a vote that will register Texas disapproval of Trumanism, the tide-lands steal, galloping socialism, corruption, Communists, and low morals in the national government, and "drunken sailor" spending program.

Mrs. Harrell has made her home Republican headquarters in this county and plans to distribute literature in an effort to acquaint residents of this area with the issues at stake in the presidential race as seen by Republican leadership. Mrs. Harrell has been asked to receive any contributions for the Eisenhower cause which any in this area may wish to give. All such contributions will be forwarded to state headquarters.

Baptist Brotherhood Official Holds Clinic

On Sunday afternoon, October 5, Dr. H. C. Sivele, associate secretary of the Baptist Brotherhood of Texas, conducted a clinic for officers and members of the local Brotherhood organization at the First Baptist Church. In addition to the Ozona men in attendance, there were representatives from Sheffield and Todd field.

Dr. Sivele was assisted by Ed Wittner, district missionary, and Dr. Noble Strong, head of the English department at Sul Ross College at Alpine. A highlight of the clinic, which served to indoctrinate the officers of the Brotherhood, was the message by Dr. Sivele about "Andrew, the Modern Brotherhood Member."

After the formal meeting the group adjourned to the fellowship hall for the evening meal. Officers for the Brotherhood of Ozona are: President, Ezra Trotter; first vice president, Gordon Aikman; second vice president, Charlie Butler; secretary treasurer, Dillon Merritt; choirmaster, Roy Thompson; and food committee, Paul Gibbs and Buck Moore.

The Brotherhood members will entertain their wives with a dove dinner this Thursday at 7:30 at the church. Thus the new Brotherhood year will begin.

W. E. (Bill) West, Rancher, Banker, Buried Here Wed.

Crockett Pioneer Is Laid to Rest in Cedar Hill Cemetery

Funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the First Baptist Church here for William E. (Bill) West, 90, pioneer Crockett county ranchman and banker, who died in a San Angelo hospital at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Services were conducted by the Rev. Clifton R. Tension, former pastor here, assisted by the Rev. Blake Woolbright, pastor. Burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery, with grandsons of Mr. West acting as pallbearers.

Mr. West had been in failing health for the past several months and his condition became critical last week.

Mr. West was one of the thinking ranks of true West Texas pioneers, coming to West Texas in the days when this vast expanse of territory was in truth the untamed West of the story-book description. Working as a cowboy for Sam Henderson in the Kickapoo country around San Angelo, he took his pay in cows and from that beginning based on faith in the West Texas ranch country built one of the area's largest fortunes and a vast empire of more than 100 sections of choice ranch lands.

Mr. West was born at Dresden, near Corsicana, Feb. 21, 1862. His father, Calvin West, was killed in the Civil War and his mother died when he was 10 years old. A sister, Mrs. Annie Jones died in Balingier in 1947. As a boy, he lived with an uncle and went to school at Dresden. He came west in the 80's with a friend, Pat Collins. After working for Sam Henderson in the San Angelo area, Mr. West came to Crockett county, first to work for the late J. W. Henderson while building up his own holdings.

Largest stockholder in the Ozona National Bank, Mr. West was active in the direction of affairs of that always strong financial institution through all the years of its existence, serving as its president at one time and for the last sixteen years as chairman of the board of directors, while his oldest son, Wayne W. West, served as its president. Another son, Massie West, who now makes his home in San Angelo, is a director. Strong belief in the soundness of the ranch industry has always been reflected in the bank's policy and while prospering itself as a financial institution, the bank has seen its Crockett county ranch customers through many trying times of drought and depression to keep the county's economic life on a sound footing.

Having no family or intimates to advise him in his youth and early manhood, Mr. West enjoyed his frequent roles as advisor to younger men, especially young men starting in the ranch business, and many found success under his guidance.

Mr. West divided his vast holdings among his children some 25 years ago to retire from active ranching. He and Mrs. West went to San Angelo to make their home in the Cactus Hotel about nine years ago, but until failing health forced him to slow down, made frequent trips here to look after business and to hob-nob with his friends. During his later years as

It's Election Day As High Schoolers Pick Student Council

By Marlon Mock
At the time this paper went to press the political war was still raging, and the closer to election time, the hotter the war. The main topic of conversation was, "Who are you going to vote for?" The remarks that were heard were, "My candidate is best suited for the job because . . ." "I promise that I will . . ." "If I am elected . . ." "Yes, a lot of excitement during OHS's student council election.

Class meetings were held Monday at sixth period. The classes nominated students from the Junior and Senior classes to run for the offices in the student council. Those nominated for president were Bill Schneemann, Wanda Carden and Charles Garlitz. Mary Beth Eatherly, Tom Piner and Graham Childress were nominated for vice president, and Scott Hickman and Shirley Kost for secretary treasurer.

There was an assembly Wednesday in which all candidates were presented. Then the election Thursday. The Lions Roar will give you a run-down on the election next week.

Juniors Make Plans For Play in January

At 6:30 last Monday night, an important conference was held by the juniors. The topic to be looked into was the annual junior play. Such early preparation is necessary in order to be ready by the new date set for sometime in January.

In previous years, the performance has been in early spring, but we decided to enhance the dreary winter month with fantasy. We have not decided on the masterpiece, however. But with our usual infallibility of choice, the help of our sponsors, Mrs. Hull and Mr. Wilkin, and our director, Mr. Haskell Leath, it will undoubtedly be superb! (If honest endeavor can be thusly rewarded.)

Fall Means Football

By Sonny Henderson
Football is as much a part of autumn in America as Hallowe'en and Thanksgiving. Friday night high school games and Saturday afternoon college spectacles thrill millions of fans all over the Nation. Modern football promises action, polish, spills, joy and heartache. After 83 years, it is here to stay.

Take a trip to a huge college stadium on a bright autumn Saturday. What do you see? You see an emerald green field, 100 yards long and a little over 50 yards wide. There are brightly uniformed bands and spirited cheerleaders.

The game begins. You gaze in awe on the delicately executed plays. You marvel at brilliant forward passes. You cheer at the sight of a punt soaring down field in perfect spiral. It is great to be alive on such a Saturday.

In the 1874's football became civilized. Players began to wear canvas suits over their street clothes. They let their hair grow for several months, so that they would be protected against head injuries. (The game was more civilized, but some players looked like cave men.)

The "flying wedge" was by this time the most popular play. Now the teams lined up several yards behind the line of scrimmage. When the play began, all 22 players started running. By the time they reached the line of scrimmage, they sounded like a herd of wild cattle. Reports are that a "flying wedge" was only slightly (Continued from Page 4)

... difficult to stop than a high-balling freight train.

Injuries became more frequent. Finally, after an especially bloody Saturday, President Theodore Roosevelt made himself heard. "Rule out rough play," he said, "or the game will be outlawed." After this players began to wear some (but not much) padding. The flying wedge was made illegal. Safety rules were devised. Football was growing up.

What would modern football be without the forward pass? A lot less exciting, that is certain. The forward pass made the modern game.

The man responsible for the development of the pass was Knute Rockne, one of the most famous players and coaches in football history. The pass was used only rarely until Rockne and teammate, Gus Dorais, developed it into the weapon it is today.

Games in 1952 will be only vaguely similar to the first college game in 1869. The game is faster, safer and more exciting. And the nice thing about it is that a high school game in a small town can be just as exciting to watch as the most important college games. Football is truly a great game. It ought to be; it has had 83 years to get that way.

The Stoolie

By K. Phillips and R. McMullan
Now, girls, at last, here is a column that enables you to check on your steady and see what other girls he has been out with. Because we are — "The Stoolies."

Girls, there is an old maids' paradise at the McMullans' home. There are three cute boys and a bum living there now. Such as Ronnie McMullan, Don Cooper, Charles Garlitz and the bum, Jimmie. Unless you have reservations nothing can be promised after seven o'clock. Come early.

Bill Schneemann, what was that you were with after the Kittens game? No need to answer that. I can see the baton marks on your face.

Noticed after the game were these twosomes — Gary and Sandra, Jimmie and Ann, Tom and Betty, Ronnie and Rosie, Graham and Georgiana. Then up on the hill you will find Hickman and Phillips.

Dow, why does _____ think you are so lopsided you're gonna fall over on your ear?

Another question: What girl was with Charley Garlitz after the Kittens game whose initials were Sandra Brewer?

What well known sophomore chased Pussy Conklin off the field to the dressing room Friday night?

Speaking of Phillips and Hickman a while ago, I believe that they are a cute couple. Have you two ever considered going steady?

We have stoolied enough, so, see you all next week. Be sure to look for this column in Life magazine.

This is Phillips speaking. Ronnie won't be my assistant next week; I just proposed to Hickman.

Ozona Band Goes To Alpine Nov. 15

By Kent Chapman

On November 15, the Ozona High School Lions Band will be on a chartered bus (probably Sparks') headed for Alpine. We have been invited to participate in the festivities there on their band day. This is to be a gala occasion for the band since we never go on trips except to games and contests.

The band will spend the night in one of the campus dormitories. There will be a game and several bands will take part in field entertainment. It will be a good trip for we will get to go all through the college and maybe see how ex-member Pete Cisneros is getting along.

Boys playing football who are in the band will also go.

Dates and Doin's

After three weeks we're again and happy to report things have sort of picked up around OHS.

The J. U. V. Club had an election last week-end. It is being quite an organization.

What was it that Barbara upset everyone? Can Ann and Robbie, have you been watching? (Continued on Page 5)

PAY MORE? WHAT FOR?

Now FORD offers all these features at no extra cost. It's the one fine car in the low-price field. Take 10 minutes and "Test Drive" a Ford. You'll agree . . . you can pay more but you can't buy better.

YEA PURPLE! YEA GOLD!

The pep rally Friday was the best one we've had so far. The cheerleaders really gave us the yells and we really yelled 'em! With the wonderful score we got Friday night the cheerleaders will be yelling twice as hard Friday.

Congratulations, Kenny! At the rate you're going you'll become a swell coach some day! Under Coach Phillips directions, the boys presented us with several of their ways of tackling and defense work. The boys really went to town on it. Such enthusiasm! I tell you, Phillips really has a way with those boys! Brother!

We all have the school spirit, so let's all yell at the pep rally the way we did last week and we're sure to win again!

B Team Drops One To Del Rio 39 to 6

Ozona B team played Del Rio its first game of the season. Arturo Gonzales made Ozona's only touchdown. Don Taylor, a real little quarterback, who will probably be first string quarterback on the A team next year, threw some wonderful passes Saturday afternoon.

The B team's next game will be November 4, with Junction here. Let's get them winning too, because they are going to be making our A team football squad in the years to come and let's go see their games too, because they need some backing just as well as the A team.

Personality of the Week AMONG HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

By Doris West

Surely everyone has seen the new boy that the seniors have acquired from Rhome, Texas. (Too bad, Rhome.)

I say we've all seen him — six feet tall, black curly hair and brown eyes. How could we miss him? This 17-year-old senior sings and plays the guitar and his favorite sport is baseball. He played baseball on the Rhome High School team. His favorite food is steak and his favorite subject is English. (How about an A, Miss Compton?) And — eh — girls, he is rather fond of brunets.

And we're glad to have Roger Gotcher as an OHS senior.

PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK AMONG HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

By Doris West

Ever since the middle of last January we've had Mary Beth Eatherly roaming the halls of OHS and for the benefit of the new people that may not know her, she is about five feet, seven inches tall, has short brown hair and grey eyes. Mary Beth is 17 years old and she came here from Level-land and is best remembered for her role in the last year junior play.

Her favorite sports are basketball and football. She is our head cheerleader and society editor and she is doing a good job at both.

With it all summed up — Mary Beth is just a good senior to have around.

You'll discover this about a Buick:
The more you drive it, the more you like it; the longer your trip, the louder your praise.
That's what people tell us. And we'll tell you why.
You can drive a Buick three, four, five hundred miles in a single day, and feel fresh enough to keep right on going.
You can romp up high hills, cruise straightaways, ease through traffic-tangled towns, clock off hour after hour of relaxed and pleasurable driving — and be no more tired than a neighborhood jaunt would make you.
How come this comfort-rich ground-covering ability is a Buick?

There's the ease of deep, soft seats for one thing — and plenty of move-about room for arms, legs, shoulders.
There's Dynaflo Drive* taking all the chore out of driving, and giving your whole ride a satiny smoothness without trace of jerkiness or driving tension.
There's a hoodful of thrilling, tireless power from a high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball 8 Engine that whips out miles like a tarpon reels off line.
There's the soft, steady, solid, swerve-free going of a coil-spring-cushioned ride that's well worth the million-plus dollars it cost to engineer.
There's all this and more — much more — that makes your heart grow fonder of this trim and thrifty traveler.
But words can't do justice to a Buick in motion. Only you can.
When will you come sample this experience yourself?

Here and There was less than it is. I wish that the minority at any given time was so strong that the balance between it and the majority would be like the apothecary's scale. Then we would not see a regime such as we have had for the last 7 or 8 years, and as we had under the other parties in the twenties.

Second, the powers of government should be tied into small bundles, and widely distributed. Whether in business or government, concentration of power is the individual's chief enemy. In business, concentration produces such evils as cartels, monopoly, price fixing, etc. In government, it produces "executive orders," confiscations, and official arrogance of all sorts. Power is the one thing that man cannot learn to use, and I suspect never will.

Finally, the power of government ought to change hands as often as possible. How long should be the term of President, a Governor, a Congressman, a judge? I do not know, in terms of years. It should be long enough to allow the official to learn his job and serve for a reasonable time, but not long enough for his nature to be corrupted by the inevitable pressures of office and the "professional" attitudes of politics.

And so, heads of tails, whoever is elected on November 4 will make mistakes, will do the best he can with what he has, and will be changed for the worst. He will need to be replaced with a new person from a group which has been out of power.

There is only one real issue before us today, as far as the presidential election is concerned. That is the issue of conservatism vs liberalism. By and large, most of the conservatives are in the Republican Party and they believe that we have gone far enough for the present. They believe that we should pause for a while and consolidate our position before continuing on with more centralized controls, subsidies and wealth-spreading devices. By and large, the liberals today are in the Democratic Party. Their position is that what we need to do is go on with what we are doing.

Which group is right? I don't know. I hope to have an opinion strong enough by November 4 to take me to the polls. Just now, I am not sure where the truth is.

Of one thing, however, I am sure. Whichever direction we take will be temporary. Like a sailboat moving into the wind, the nation must follow a zig-zag course. We have been zigging now for a long time. Maybe we ought to zag for a spell. Who knows?

W. E. (Bill) West —

Surviving are the widow, two sons, Wayne and Massie West, and two daughters, Mrs. Ira Carson and Mrs. Alice Baker, both of Ozona, eleven grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren.
