NEW DAY FOR LABOR

Selection of Walter Reuther as new head of the CIO is a sign of better things to come in the relations of the American people and the organized labor movement.

Organized labor has not been popular with the public. It has made some mistakes which a better leadership probably would have avoided. At times it has seemed to be concerned with its own interests rather than the national well-being. It has been contaminated in the past by Communist influence.

Nevertheless, the labor movement is a big thing in American life and is here to stay. Step by step it has lugged its way upward from a small organization to a major force in the country. Its record shows the need of the working man to stand up against big business.

The labor movement is a natural part of the American scene. We are glad to see that it is being brought into a sort of political party which enables it to pick a leader like Walter Reuther as its leader, an effective politician and proven leader of men, is an honor. Luther was the first leader to attempt to purge the movement of Communist influence. He was almost killed for his efforts. He understands that economics and politics contain moral and spiritual principles. In a recent address he said, "The worker is primarily a part of the community. We condemn the discredited leadership of the old-line labor leadership which pretends to promote the interests of the workers by conspiring with management, as in the coal industry, to exact high prices from the public."

Speaking before the Democratic Reform Committee last July, Reuther said, "Organized labor cannot solve its problems alone. It must find solutions to our common problems to the extent that we can join with other people in finding solutions to the problems of all the people in our society."

It is a day when there is danger of our country splitting up into camps set against each other, this is a day like good talk.

Reuther is personally incorruptible, say the men who know him best. His modest manner of living is well known, as is his devotion to his family.

We are right in our optimistic view of the effect that his leadership will have on organized labor and if the federal government adopts, as we believe that the administration will, a more moderate and impartial attitude toward the labor-management conflict, there will grow up in the next few years a new and wholesome tension between the two factions of our business life. It is of this tension, which will be the result of two strong and nearly equal factors pushing against each other, will come the best possible atmosphere for the American way of life — a competitive balance.

Latin-American Youths Fined After Holiday Knife Fray

Six Latin-American youths were fined in justice court here early this week as a result of a gang fight in the Latin-American section.

America Tambungo and Hector Hoyas drew fines of $100 and $75, totalling $175 each, on the charge of carrying a knife. DeHoyas suffered a stab wound in the chest which pierced a lung. Manuel Fierro, another of the participants, suffered a slight knife wound.

Fined $14 each were Manuel Fierro, Victor Fierro, Lupe Fierro and Jesus Guerrero.

4-H Club Members Ready Lambs For Show January 10

Fine Fat Lambs to Be Exhibited by 23 Member Youths

Crockett county 4-H Club members are busy in their spare time trimming and getting their fat lambs ready for the sixth annual 4-H Club Livestock Show at the 4-H barns Saturday, January 10.

The lambs are feeding out well this year, County Agent Pete Jacoby reports, and some exceptionally good individuals and quite a number of big fat lambs will provide plenty of competition for the feeders at the coming county show.

All lambs are being ear-tagged for easy identification and will be weighed prior to the show for division into light and heavy classes. Eight classes of lambs will be judged with champions competing for honors in their breed division and then for the grand championship of the show.

An auction will be held following the judging in which each 4-H Club member will be allowed to sell one lamb.

Crockett county 4-H Club members will compete in four state shows this year. They will leave January 28 for Fort Worth with 16 lambs entered to show there on January 31. Sixty-nine lambs are entered in the Houston show and will show there on February 4, the lambs to leave Ozona on Feb. 1. Forty-three head are entered at the San Antonio show and are scheduled to leave here February 18 for showing on the 21st. Some lambs will be entered at the San Angelo show at a later date for showing there on March 5-8.

Local club workers have a total of 134 lambs on feed, 73 of them crossbreds, 41 fine wool lambs, 12 Southdowns and 8 fine wool shorn lambs. The Lions Club of Ozona is furnishing premium ribbons for all placings, rosettes to all champions and banners to Grand Champion and Reserve Champion fat lambs and pen of three. Plaques will be awarded by the Lions Club to champion and reserve champion fine wool and crossbred lambs.

Following is a list of member exhibitors, the number and kind of lambs and their breeders:

County Financial Position Strong At Year's Close

Deposits Over 6 Million; Loans Decline From Early Fall

Crockett county finished the drouth year of 1952 in strong financial position despite the drain of drouth and heavy feed bills and sharp breaks in wool and livestock markets, according to the year-end statement of condition of the Ozona National Bank issued yesterday.

Deposits climbed past the six million dollar mark again after a sag under that figure in the September 5 statement of the bank. Total deposits at the close of business Dec. 31 were $6,082,956.29, against $5,731,027.22 in September.

Loans, too, were improved from the customer standpoint. Total loans outstanding dropped from $1,324,251.26 in September to $1,141,512.60 at the year's end.

These apparent gains, however, may be a reflection of widespread liquidation of livestock as the result of drouth, but the figures, nevertheless, reflect at least a strong financial position for the county in the face of adversity and a capacity to recover once the rains come in sufficient quantity.

The Ozona National Bank has declared its 74th dividend, a 10 per cent slice for stockholders amounting to $10,000, payable on January 2.

Law Learns Hard Way To Play Youth's Auto Game of "Ditch 'em"

Deputy Sheriff Billy Mills is still young but a little old to learn the well known Ozona youth game of "ditch 'em" where in the trick is to out-run and out-dodge the driver of another car and "get lost." (That might not be just exactly the modus operandi nor the final objective of the youngsters, but such it seems to those of us who have watched the dangerous game in progress.)

Anyway, Deputy Mills got a lesson in how to play the game last Saturday night and flunked the test. The "leader" was a young service man home on leave. Why the chase ever got started was still a bit cloudy, but resulted when the officer decided there was something "suspicious" about the youth's movements and decided to "check" him. The youth at the same time decided against the officer's plan and the chase was on through Ozona streets.

The race started about 11 o'clock and Deputy Mills found himself thwarted at every turn, as the youngster, more adept or daring, refused to be "curbed" by the officer and out-dodged the law minion when speed would not serve.

Finally the young man abandoned his car in the southeast section of town and took to his heels. It was nearly three o'clock in the morning, and with Sheriff V. O. Earnest summoned by Deputy Mills to aid in the search, before the driver of the car was found. Turned out he didn't have a driver's license, his car was not registered and he faced charges of resisting an officer. He was fined $100 and costs, $113 total, in justice court Monday morning.

Parking in Restricted Zones at Intersection To Draw Tickets - V. O.

Most Ozonans are observing the parking restrictions in the marked zones at the intersection of Highway 290 and 163 in downtown Ozona, but a few still do not observe the restrictions and these are promised traffic tickets beginning at once, Sheriff V. O. Earnest warned this week.

The "no parking" zones were marked off as a safety measure at the intersection and must be respected, the sheriff said. Officers have been content so far to issue warnings to violators but the time has come when tickets must be issued where violations occur, the sheriff declared.

March of Dimes Campaign To Be Waged In Jan.

Workers Organized to Raise $3,000 Quota Assigned Ozona

Faced with the necessity of raising an unprecedented $3,000 quota as its part of the state's tremendous obligation in the 1953 March of Dimes campaign to combat polio, a corps of workers was poised this week to launch the January campaign in Crockett county.

The local campaign is under the direction of Mrs. Jack Wilkins. Mrs. Wilkins has scheduled a meeting of workers Friday to get the local campaign under way immediately. The drive, a nationwide effort, opens officially on January 2 and continues through the month.

A "porchlight" campaign set for the evening of January 29 will mark the culminating action of the drive. On this evening, those who have not been reached by solicitors and who wish to make a contribution to the polio fund will be asked to turn on their porch lights. Solicitors will call at every home with a burning porch light. A "LIGHTS ON" campaign, with windshield stickers for reminders, is planned by the local committee as a means of reaching every resident in this critical campaign.

Texas has led the nation the last five years in the number of polio cases. The year 1952 marked the fifth successive year in which polio cases in Texas have exceeded the epidemic rate of 20 cases per 100,000 population.

This excessive incidence of the dread disease in the state has made it necessary for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, supported by contributions from all over the nation, to allocate a disproportionate amount of funds to the state for relief. For this reason, Texans are being called upon to make sacrificial contributions this year to wipe out a deficit and to strengthen local and national funds in the unending battle against polio.

"I hope every person in Crockett county will feel a personal desire and obligation to meet this challenge," Mrs. Wilkins said in announcing plans for the coming campaign. "Ozona and Crockett county have always gone over the top in every drive that has been undertaken. This, to me, is by far the most important of all fund drives of the year and I hope that everyone else feels the same way. We have a fairly stiff quota but I am confident that we can and will meet it."

Girl Injured When Firecracker Explodes At Feet; Youths Fined

Three teenage youths were hauled into court and fined as the result of an "attack by firecracker" on an Ozona girl.

Maria Zapata suffered slight burns about her leg and a stocking was ripped off from the force of a giant firecracker which exploded at her feet on a downtown street during the Christmas holidays. The explosive was thrown from a passing car and three youths, alleged occupants of the car, were arrested in connection with the incident.

Three other youths, at first believed to have been responsible for the girl's injury, pleaded guilty to exploding firecrackers on the streets but told officers they did not think they had thrown one near any person. When additional information was secured to connect the other boys with the incident, the fines of the first three were remitted.

Bids Asked For Construction Of Oil Field Roads

Vaughan-Todd Field Project To Be Let January 14

Bids will be received by the State Highway Department on January 14 for approximately 22 miles of paved Farm-Market road construction in Crockett county.

The new highway construction will be a section of 17.329 miles from a point on Highway 163 two miles north of Ozona through Vaughan Field and connecting to FM 33 to provide a direct route to Big Lake and east and north for residents of oil fields in the area as well as a more direct and all weather road into Ozona.

Also provided for in the letting will be a 4.5 mile spur from Todd Field to the new road, this providing residents of that field an all-weather outlet.

Crockett county voters provided for construction of this 4.5 mile stretch as well as another spur from Powell Field to FM 33, plus necessary funds for purchase of right-of-way on all the new roads, in a $200,000 road bond issue recently approved. The decision by the State Highway Department to build the Todd Field spur will release funds for purchase of right-of-way and fencing of the Pandale road, provided for in a recent allocation by the Department.

Advertisements for bids on the Vaughan-Todd field roads and for another stretch of new construction which traverses a small segment of Crockett county in the northwest, a new FM road from McCamey to connect with FM 11 north of Bakersfield, appear in this issue of the Stockman. Bids on the latter project will be received January 13.

Sinclair Amends Lease On Friend Wildcat; To Test Ellenburger

Sinclair Oil & Gas Co. has filed application to amend lease description on its 1 Frank F. Friend, wildcat in extreme eastern Crockett county.

The test is to be drilled with rotary to 11,000 feet. Operator will test the Ellenburger. Elevation is 2,225 feet.

At the latest report Sinclair 1 Friend was bottomed at 10,547 feet casing to protect the hole and continue fishing.

Location is 1,838 feet from the north and 230 feet from the east lines of the northwest quarter of 6-C. Barrera Grantee, Abst. 4437. It is 20 miles southeast of Ozona.

Ralph Lowe 1 Maggie S. Neal, Crockett county wildcat in 6-10-GC&SF, was preparing to drill deeper after setting 9 5/8-inch casing at 2,500 feet with 1,000 sacks. On a drillstem test between 2,274-304 feet recovery was 90 feet of drilling mud. Tool was open for 30 minutes. Flowing pressure was 80 pounds; 15-minute shutin pressure was 80 pounds.

Lions Club To Honor All-Dist. Gridders Monday

Sammy Baugh Speaker at Annual Banquet For Players

District 6-B football players who won places on the mythical all-district eleven for the 1952 season will be honored by the Ozona Lions Club at the annual all-district banquet to be staged Monday evening at the Hi-Way Cafe here.

Some 150 guests, including besides the all-district players, their coaches and school officials, all members of the Ozona football squad, their coaches and school officials and certain other invited guests and Lions Club members.

Sammy Baugh, T. C. U. football great, all-American, a leading figure in pro football for 16 years, and possibly the greatest passer in all football history, will be guest speaker on the banquet occasion.

When Baugh ended the season with the Washington Redskins this year, his sixteenth in professional football and his 25th year in the game as a player, he announced he would retire as a professional player. He will assist on the coaching staff of Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene and live on his ranch near Rotan, Texas.

As a pro, Baugh has gained more than 23,000 yards with his passes — more than 12 miles. He has thrown the most passes, led the league the most often, completed the most passes, gained the most touchdowns passes and had the highest percentage of completions of any pro football player. Twice he has thrown six touchdown passes in a game. For versatility, he has also been the league's top punter and its leading pass interceptor.

Born in Temple, in 1914, Baugh began playing football in junior high school and became nationally known as a passer at TCU. When the Redskin franchise was moved from Boston to Washington in 1937, a rookie's name appeared in the line-up. Name of Baugh. It has been there ever since, until he has become an institution, almost a legend.

What Baugh will have to say to young football players of high school age, he has not indicated, but the magic name of Slingin' Sammy Baugh is enough to lend an unusual importance to this year's annual all-district banquet sponsored by the Ozona Lions Club.

Among honored gridiron stars of the 1952 season will be eight players on the Ozona High School team. On the all-district offensive team from Ozona were Don Cooper, end; Bill Schneemann, center; and Charles Garlitz, backfield, all chosen by unanimous vote of the coaches.

On the all-district defensive team from Ozona were Charles Hale, safety, also by unanimous vote; and Baldomero Ramon, end.

On the all-district second team were Bill Maness, end; Ronnie McMullan, tackle; and Tom Piner, backfield.

Menard placed 10 men on the all-district teams, Junction 8; Sonora, 5; Eden 5; and Eldorado 1.

Air Rifle Owners Warned by Sheriff

If Santa brought an air rifle to your home, you'd better warn Junior that it was meant for use out in the pasture and not in town for shooting street lights, windows and the like.

Otherwise, the proud owner might have his dangerous toy confiscated by local officers. Sheriff V. O. Earnest warned this week that air rifles would be snatched if their owners are found shooting within the city limits.

Cause of the warning — street lights have been popping at an unusual rate since Christmas and pellets are reported flying in all directions in some parts of town.

SOMBRE CEREMONY—Governor Allan Shivers designates January 2-31 for the 1953 March of Dimes in a Statehouse ceremony climaxed by his official signature in the presence of General Robert J. Smith, Chairman of the MOD in Texas. Shivers noted that Texas has made "another first" but that it is ironically in the number of polio cases and in the amount of patient care funds advanced by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

By Susie Schneemann

The Ozona High School was honored with a dance Dec. 19 at the girls gym. It was given by the Student Council of OHS. Invitations were sent out to the neighboring schools.

The decorations were quite beautiful. Tall tables were placed around the room with mistletoe and candles in the shape of Santa Claus as small center pieces.
There was a large Christmas tree in the center of the gym. From the rafters in the gym there were green and red crepe paper stream-

The orchestra was placed be-

The dance lasted from 8:00 un-

NEW YEAR AROUND THE WORLD

New Year's Day is the only day that is observed everywhere on the globe. For everywhere people feel that the coming of a spick-and-span New Year, full of promise and as yet free from mistakes, is a good deal of an event.

No one knows when people first began to celebrate the first day of the year. Thousands of years ago, as far back as we can see, mankind in the dim light of the past, people were staying up at night to see the new year in. They may not always have done so on December 31, for the Egyptians began their year at the autumn equinox, on September 21, the early Greeks at the winter solstice, on the twenty-first of December, and the early Christians felt that the year began in the spring, on March 25. In fact, it was not till 1700 that Germany, Denmark and Sweden moved their New Year's Day from March 25 to January 1. England changed in 1752 — and when

OFTA Club Meetings Begin After Mid-Term

England changed the American colonies changed too.

It was the ancient Romans who first began their year on January 1 — and they celebrated it very much as we celebrate Christmas.
People send one another presents and had a fine dinner — all by way of showing they were glad that the longest winter days were past and that the sun would soon bring back the spring.

Now let us look around the world and see how the different countries celebrate New Year's Day. In China and Japan everyone must pay his debts on New Year's Day, and so have a clean slate for the coming year. People decorate their houses and put on new clothes in honor of the day. And well they may! For over there

New Year's is the birthday of everyone in the land. No matter on what day a person may have come straggling into the world, his birthday is counted at New Year's.
So a child that is born only a day before the opening of the year is said to be a year old on New Year's Day.

There used to be a great many silly ideas about New Year's, such as that if you do not then have plenty of food in your pantry, the cupboard will be bare all the year.
And there are still a great many curious New Year's customs. In a large town in Germany anyone who appears on the streets in a high silk hat on New Year's Eve may expect to have it banged down over his ears. In another German town, as soon as the great cathedral bell tolls midnight, every window is thrown open and thousands of voices call out, "Happy
New Year."

In Belgium the children try to get hold of every key in the house, and if a grown person is so unlucky as to be locked in by them, he cannot hope to get out until he makes them a promise.

Our own country is too young to have developed any quaint customs of its own, but every where New Year's Eve is a time for jollification. In a good many places people make New Year's calls, and in a town in California there is a beautiful floral parade on every New Year's Day.

We have inherited New Year's Day from our forefathers who lived centuries ago. To observe it has become a kind of habit with the human race. But I'm sure that everyone will agree that it is a good habit.

She is a native Ozonan since she to read and lead an exciting life!

probably guessed by now.

BOY PERSONALITY

Our boy personality stands five black hair and brown eyes. Born November 5, 1936, he has been go-

His favorite food is rare steaks with oodles of catsup and fried taters. His favorite pastimes seem to be listening to the radio (especially the disc jockeys). Also he likes to read Mickey Spillane mystery books and loves to be in plays.
His hobby is trying to gain a few pounds.
I imagine you've guessed who this character is but in case you haven't, it is Kent Chapman, better known as L. K. V. C.

Whom did you vote for? In the opening election it could have been almost anyone. In the first run-off it could have been Alena
Faye Powers, Mary Beth Eatherly,
Marion Mock or Vivian Trotter.
Then in the second run-off it could have been Alena Faye, Marion or Vivian, but evidently in the last run-off between Alena and Vivian, you must have voted for Alena Faye.

Alena Faye was voted Miss Per-

La Von Henderson was elected
Mr. Personality.

Congratulations, Alena and Von!

GUESS WHO

By La Von Henderson

Ozona being a small town, lots of people think they know the school students pretty well. Well, just to find out whether you do or not, see if you can Guess Who.
My eyeballs had a hard time staying in their sockets when I first saw this little gal. She is a cute little chick with blonde hair and brown eyes. She was born in San Angelo, but has always lived in Ozona. She's not very long, I'd say 5 foot 1 and tilts the scales at 105 pounds! She told me that H.

E. was her favorite subject. I guess everyone has their favorite hour.
Mine is from 12 to 1 o'clock. I'm not going to tell her classification but she is not a senior, junior or sophomore. P. S. I wish she wasn't going steady.

Another fine specimen in our
"dear ole high school" says he was born in a house. He's 18 years old and about as tall as they grow.
He weighs 190 pounds and says it is muscle, but looking at him from behind I got other ideas. He has brown hair and blue eyes. His favorite subjects are English and football. His favorite pastime is girls. He's also quite a Romeo with the girls.

There is one boy in our school who is the most handsome one in school. He was born in ——. Oh, well, you can already guess this
one. It's me.

ARE NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS
MADE TO BREAK?

As the Old Year is making its final bow and the New Year is nervously waiting off stage to make its first starring appearing, people start thinking of all the mistakes that have been made during the old year that are going to be changed with the arrival of the New.

It seems the natural trend for people to turn over a clean page in their life's book and get ready

Billie Chandler Is Spotlited in San Antonio Round-Up

It was Saturday night, December 27, and everyone at the Round-Up in San Antonio had been enjoying listening to the music of Curly Williams and His Texas Top Hands. It was now intermission time for the band and Curly Williams stepped to the microphone to make an announcement.

"Ladies and gentlemen, we are honored to have a celebrity with us tonight; a young lady from Ozona. Will Miss Billie Chandler step up here, please."

Amid the applause, a surprised but happy girl stepped up to the microphone. Billie had been introduced to Curly Williams earlier by her father. Mr. Chandler had told Curly about Billie's auditioning for the Horace Heidt show Tuesday, December 23. Curly Williams then called upon Billie to play for them.

Shakily Billie seated herself at the piano, and as the spotlight was turned upon her, she began to play.

Billie had been in San Angelo the previous Tuesday for the auditions for the Horace Heidt show. There were 30 contestants from which only 2 were to be picked to appear on the show. Billie played "Boogie," which she herself had composed, and a medley of "Stardust" and "Lazy River," of her own arrangement. Although Billie wasn't one of the two chosen to be on the show, OHS is still proud of this "Senior in the Spotlight."

Kuykendall led the way for the Lions, Cooper having 8 and Kuykendall 7 points. Hale of Iraan ramrodded the Braves with 13. Friday, Jan. 2, the Lions meet the Reagan Owls on the home court and Saturday go to Rankin.
