TALK — GLOOM AND DOOM

There was a man who lived by the side of the road.

He sold hot dogs.

He had bad eyesight, so he read no newspapers.

He was fairly deaf, so he didn't listen to the radio.

But he sold good hot dogs. He rented signs along the highway telling people how good they were. He stood by the side of the road, crying out: "Buy a hot dog, mister."

People bought. He increased his hot dog and bun orders. He got a bigger stove. Business was so good that he called his son home from college to help him out.

One day the son said "Father, haven't you been listening to Democratic Senator so-and-so on the radio? He says we are in a recession."

The father reasoned: "Well, my boy's been in college, he reads the papers, he listens to the radio, and he ought to know."

So the father decided he couldn't afford to rent the roadside signs, he cut down on his orders, and his sales dropped off very fast indeed.

He said to his boy: "You're right son. There just isn't any business at all. That Senator you heard certainly was helpful."

GOOD START

Now and then some good news comes out of Washington D. C.

For example, during the first seven months of this fiscal year the government spent $1,600,000,000 less than in the comparable period a year before.

That is certainly a start in the right direction — the only direction that can save us from eventual national bankruptcy. May Congress and the Executive branch not only keep up the good work, but greatly accelerate it.

COMPETITION GETS KEENER

The Port Umpqua Courier of Reedsport, Oregon, recently had something significant to say about merchandising and salesmanship.

It observed, "The times are just slipping into history when all a merchant had to do was get hold of the merchandise and the customers would fight over who would get it. . . . Competition is getting keener all the time. . . . The merchants and the salesmen who earn their livelihood in the little towns will have to get on the ball to hold their friends and neighbors. They will have to give the same service, the same bargains and do the same job of selling as their big city cousins. Salesmanship is a good thing for all of us."

THE AMERICAN WAY

This view of a small-town newspaper editor, incidentally, is a pretty accurate reflection of what leaders in the merchandising business have been saying lately at industry conventions and elsewhere. In both chain and independent store groups, the consensus is that there must be better selling — a term that include both the human salesman, and such inducements as appealing advertising and displays. In most fields, a strong buyers' market exists today, and progressive retailing fully recognizes the fact.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

Bedford, Ind., Daily Times-Mail: "Newspapers (in 1953) reached new heights in circulation and advertising, giving them the largest volume in their history in both of these categories. This means that in spite of competition from television, radio and magazines for both the readers' time and the advertisers' dollars, newspapers have been given tremendous vote of confidence."

Two family cars are better than One!

Over 400,000 families own two Fords and enjoy all the practical advantages and conveniences of two quality cars at costs not too much different than those of one expensive car. Yet in feature after feature Ford duplicates these expensive cars . . . as thousands know who have already joined the 2-Ford family fold.

NEW 130-H.P. Y-BLOCK V-8

It has a new deep-block Y-design, a 5-bearing crankshaft and low-friction efficiency for longer life . . . smoother, quieter operation . . . greater economy.

NEW 115-H.P. I-BLOCK SIX

Like the new V-8, it's of overhead-valve, high-compression, low-friction design. And its deep-block design gives smooth, quiet power and long engine life!

Just think! . . . for the price you pay for just one car of some makes you can have two 1954 Fords. Whether you choose the new I-block Six or Y-block V-8, you get the last word in high-compression, low-friction power. And you get the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years—new Ball-Joint Front Suspension. In Ford you get a new Astra-Dial control panel too, Center-Fill Fueling, suspended clutch and brake pedals and a hull-tight Crestmark body, all exclusive with Ford in the low-price field. With this host of fine car features and many more, Ford offers you a car that's worth more when you buy it . . . more when you sell it.

History Of Ozona Woman's Club 1908-1954

By Mrs. Chas. Williams, Sr.

While on a fishing trip on Devil's River in the summer of 1908, the idea of the Ozona Woman's Club originated in the mind of Mrs. Frank Friend, and she and Mrs. R. Lee Black discussed the question of organizing a Woman's Study Club. They decided to call a meeting of women for that purpose at the opening of the fall term of school.

This meeting was held in the dining room of the old Ozona Hotel with Mrs. Black, Mrs. Friend, Mrs. Kate Baggett, Mrs. Minnie Olsen (later Mrs. Blake Mauldin), and Mrs. Will Baggett present. Soon Mrs. W. E. West and Mrs. A. W. Clayton joined these women in their efforts at organizing. The Thirteen Club, with a limited membership of thirteen members was organized with its purpose being the study of Shakespeare's plays. Members of the club were Mrs. Friend, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Baggett, Mrs. W. E. Spell (a music teacher in Ozona), Mrs. Olsen, Mrs. S. E. Couch, Mrs. Mrs. Olsen, Mrs. West, Mrs. Bright Clayton, Mrs. W. E. Smith, and Mrs. Will Baggett. In 1915 this club was federated with the state organization under the name of the Ozona Woman's Club and Mrs. J. R. Smith became the first president.

The principal idea in the organization of the Club was to make it a study club. It was only when the community need was very urgent that the club resorted to anything for the purpose of making money. Outstanding achievement of the Club in the early years was to bring culture to Ozona by presenting the Ben Greek Shakespearean players, bringing Lyceum and Chautauqua programs, buying a piano and victrola for the school, and buying stage scenery for the school auditorium (now a classroom in the Junior High Building.)

In May 1927, all efforts of club members and townspeople were turned toward entertaining Sixth

District in its annual convention. Convention sessions were held in the First Methodist Church (now the Crockett County Hospital Building.) and special luncheons and dinners were at the Hotel Ozona. Fine Arts Evening Program was presented from the stage of the Ozona Theater. Ozona's contributions to this program were a piano solo by Mrs. Homer Adams, and a vocal solo by Miss Floy Friend. The Ozona Orchestra furnished music. Other artists from over the District completed the program.

The beautification of the Cedar Hill Cemetery first began with the cemetery committee of the Club, and likewise the annual clean-up campaigns. The curb around the Park was the result of the efforts of a committee of Club women working with County Commissioners. Club women started the movement for play ground equipment for the school grounds and at different times secured a health nurse for the school. Many beautiful and instructive art exhibits were brought to the school children and to the town as a whole. Six light posts were put in the streets of Ozona by the Club.

In 1932 the need of another club arose and the Club assisted in organizing the Junior Woman's Club (now The Woman's Forum).

As the years progressed the Club continued to be one of the leaders in the town's civic development. Highways were beautified, clean-up campaigns conducted each Spring, and as civic needs were known, the club women met the challenge. The Club won an award of $25 given by the State Chairman of War Service for having the most service men and women per capita represented in the Armed Services. Each year the Club followed the plans outlined by the GFWC for aid to foreign countries, worthy causes and special funds. Members set aside a special Christmas project of sending gifts to the State Orphanage at Corsicana, and in 1953 they added gifts for the local Negro children. One member assisted in organizing the Negro women in the Progressive Club for the development of good citizenship in their community. The club aided other organizations in buying drapes for rooms in the Crockett County Hospital. $100 in Care packages for Korea was sent.

Through the years, the Club has done its share in providing district and state officers and in being well represented at the conventions with reports and delegates.

In more recent years the Ozona Literary Club was organized to become the fourth Federated Club in Ozona and today the ranks of club women stand from the original thirteen to well over a hundred working toward the same goals of cultural advancement and with the welfare of their community at heart.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

You Might Call it a "Gravy Train"

Was reading the other day about a Maharaja in India who has a miniature electric train all made of silver. Now, maybe that's not unusual for a prince, but this fellow had it running around on an enormous dining table in the royal palace.

The twelve cars on the train are loaded with different kinds of fruits, nuts, and beverages. And the train stops automatically in front of each plate so the person sitting there can choose what he wants.

From where I sit, the Maharaja is really going to extremes to impress his guests. Around this part of the world, hospitality certainly doesn't need all those fancy trimmings.

You don't have to spend a lot of money or go to a lot of work when folks drop in. Just offer them what you have—coffee, tea, a temperate glass of beer—and let them make their own choice. They'll feel they're getting a royal welcome!

Heard From The Test Tube

By Jerry Currier

I guess you all read Phillips' column last week and he didn't under me so I guess I'll just have to apologize for what I said last week so as I said before don't believe anything you read.

If you are a Hershey eater you might as well look forward to a smaller bar. It seems that due to monopolies and a root virus have caused a shortage of chocolate in the U. S. You see monopolies in the chocolate trade on the African Gold Coast have fixed an unusually high price on the chocolate exported through them and all many chocolate plantations have been wiped out due to a root virus that attacks chocolate trees. So you had better prepare yourself to pay more for less, as usual, for this year.

Today the testtube tells me that science has made a great stride forward. It has bred a tailless cow and a tailless bull and the offspring was really remarkable thing from the standpoint of science. The offspring was gifted with trumpets and all that sort of stuff. (More trumpets) a tailless cow marches on!

The ol' testtube is back from his station in Florida but he tells me that he is going to take me back down with this summer. He tells me that he came back through Chicago and he hears that they had one of the cleanest years for long time. ONLY 53.61 TONS OF dust fell, Per Square Mile!

The testtube tells me that science has found out what makes a person cry when he peels onions. The cause is tiny drops of thialdehyde compound which contains sulphur.

Well, we don't want to bore you any longer so we'll see you next week, we hope, or do we.

DPS Head Warns Of Possible Log Jam At Inspection Centers

Austin — Some three-quarters of a million Texas motorists who are driving about the streets and highways of the State today had better take a close look at their calendars.

That's the number who have, as yet, failed to submit their autos for the annual safety inspection and there's but one remaining month to attend to it.

Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today in Austin that a "log jam" of vehicles at the inspection stations can still be averted unless a majority of the owners of the uninspected vehicles all decide to wait until the deadline before attempting to meet the provisions of the modified inspection law which was enacted by the last Legislature.

"There is no apparent possibility of an extension beyond the April 15th deadline, the Safety Director stated, "but long waiting lines will not be encountered if the owners of cars which have not yet been inspected will visit their inspection stations right away and not put it off until the last minute"

MRS. TERRY HONORED

Mrs. Wayne E. West and Mrs. Jim Ad Harvick were hostesses at a party last week in the West home to honor Mrs. Bit Terry. A color scheme of pink and green was used.

A miniature "good luck" scene, featuring a tiny cowboy at the edge of a grassy pasture, centered the buffet. Prizes were won by Mrs. Max Schneemann, Jr., Mrs. Bob Scott, Mrs. M. A. Lemmons and Mrs. L. B. Cox, III. Twenty-five persons attended.

LADIES GOLF ASSN.

The Ladies Golf Assn. met Tuesday for regular play. Low net was won by Velma Marley, Bonnie Thomas and Marge Ramsey. Hostesses for the coke party were Dorothy Pierce and Gladys Pierce. Others attending were Pauline Montgomery, Eileen Childress, Katy Jones, Wilma Friend, Jonezy Williams, Charlotte Phillips, Jean Scheuber, Donna Beth Davidson, Alice McMullan, Jeanie Williams, Lois Hicks and Rachel Childress.

CONGRESSMAN REGAN REPORTS —

Consumer Spending Gets Huge Boost In Tax Savings Under New Law In Addition To $3 Billion Cut In Income Tax Effective Jan. 1

Congressman Ken Regan of Midland, representing the 16th Texas district, has submitted the following discussion highlighting provisions of the new Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Congressman's letter follows:

"Since this is the first comprehensive revision of the internal-revenue laws for more than fifty years and the enactment of the income tax, I thought your readers would be interested in some of the details, which I give you below.

"It includes a rearrangement of the provisions to place them in more logical sequence, the deletion of obsolete material, and an attempt to express the internal-revenue laws in a more understandable manner. Many changes have been made, the purpose of which was to remove inequities, and to reduce tax barriers to future expansion of production and employment.

"Slightly over half of the revenue loss represents amounts which will be available to individuals and not corporations. $778 million out of a total revenue loss of $1.4 billion will go to individuals.

"The Congress has already allowed an individual income tax reduction of approximately 10 per cent, which went into effect the first of the year. This represents a saving to individuals of over $3 billion a year, which will be available for consumption expenditures.

"Excise taxes have been reduced by approximately $1 billion, also available for consumer spending.

"Reductions going to individuals amount to $778 million; those to corporations amount to $619 million. However, corporations reductions are more than offset by the increased revenue of $1.2 billion, arising from the extension of the present 52 per cent corporation income tax rate, which was due to drop to 47 per cent on April 1, 1954. Thus corporations are to be taxed an additional $81 million for the year 1954.

"Other benefits accruing to small income taxpayers are: expanded social security provisions; broader system of unemployment insurance; write off of medical expenses in excess of 3 per cent instead of 5 per cent; special deduction for cost of child care for widows compelled to work; fairer tax treatment for widows of policemen, and firemen and others who have fraternal or private pension plans; fairer tax consideration for those in retirement; re-defining tax status of 700,000 widowed, separated, divorced, or single "heads of families" and cut their taxes about $50 million annually.

"The most controversial revision is aimed at wiping out double taxation on corporation income. It is taxed now as corporation earnings, then again as personal income when it is distributed as dividends to stockholders. The revision would enable individuals to exclude from taxable income $50 of dividends received in calendar 1954 and $100 of dividends received in 1955 and each year thereafter. A taxpayer would get a tax credit on remaining dividends included in taxable income up to 10 per cent.

"The tax bill was passed in the House March 18th by a vote of 339 to 80.

Ozonan In K. C. Gets Robbery News Fast

Home towners away from home got the news fast — about the abortive bank robbery here last week.

First Lieutenant J. Max Word, in the U. S. Army Veterinary Corps, pins a clipping from the Kansas City Star, Ozona dateline, headlined in the Star's typical conservative style. "Angry Citizens Foul Holdup — Scared Bank Robbers Are Unable To Run Fast Enough."

Says Joe Max in a note: "Thought you might be interested in the fast coverage supplied by 'The Biggest Little Town in the World.' It was good to hear that Ozona citizens handled the situation in such heroic manner."

Girl Scouts Make $300 In Cookie Sale

The Girl Scouts Cookie Sale, concluded Saturday, brought a total of $300.85 into the Scout and Brownie troop fund, it was reported this week.

Five girls won '54 pins, three of them winning half camperships for summer camp. Selling 100 boxes of cookies to win the half campership were Hazel Maples, Sandra Ratliff and Lyndia Merritt. Becky Cullins and Janet North each won '54 pins. All will receive Girl Scout uniform caps in addition to the pins.

Mrs. Taylor Deaton, local Girl Scout chairman, expressed appreciation on behalf of the girl salesmen for the liberal response of Ozona people to the sale.
