NOTHING TO BE THANKFUL FOR

When we do what comes natural, we will think more about one thing than about a thousand things. Blessings seldom get our thought, unless we do it deliberately. Thanksgiving is a time to count our blessings, and when we do, we are always surprised at their number.

We may forget to be thankful for the life, the greatest gift of all. It is easy to take for granted, but it is not easy to imagine what things would be like without it. You and I have nothing to do with being a gift bestowed upon us by God through the agency of our people.

The chance to be alive, to face the issues, have the experiences, the beauty of it, face the pains and tears, know the thrills and satisfactions of it, — is life not a wonderful blessing?

We are grateful to those through whom God was able to make this world. Our parents took the responsibility for bringing us into this world, assumed the burden of caring for our needs, made sacrifices for our growth and education, and paid the price of guiding us along as when we were not always easy to guide and love. Thank God for that "something" in the human heart that carries the human race onward through the generations, in spite of everything.

Be thankful that the universe is a wonder in which we live is not different to good or bad, but is good toward goodness. It is not a cruel world or an utterly evil one. It is a world where beauty, truth and goodness have a way of coming out, ultimately, and where mercy is always honored in the hearts of men, if not in the material world.

In our best moments we are thankful for the disciplines of life. Although we may not welcome them when they constrain us. Most of us would not amount to very much were it not for the whip of necessity. Our pride would swell an insufferable size, if it were not for the wholesome restraints of adversity and frustration. "As father chasteneth the child whom he loveth, so the Lord chasteneth His children."

Most of us consider the discipline of pain and enemy to be paid at all costs. Of that an unthankful god said, "Thank God for pain! No tear hath ever yet been shed in vain. And in the end each sorrow and heart shall find. No curse, but blessings in the end of pain; Even when He smiteth, then is it most kind."

"Thank God for pain." Americans should be thankful for their heritage. Not vainly thankful, but humbly so. Probably never in history have as many enjoyed as much of God's bounty. Centuries have flowed down the years into the veins of those who make up the American melting pot. Many of the sublimest thoughts and most dynamic ideas of the ages have survived in the writings and traditions of our kind, literature, art, and philosophy.

Our books, our buildings, our diets, our customs are rich with the strings of noble minds and hearts. Our fathers set their feet on a new continent with which they had dealt bountifully in the skies, amber waves of grain, and purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain." Our country is a derivative of one of the most and purest religious traditions ever to appear on the earth.

This is a great day in which we live. Despite the rumors of war, atomic alarms, what day has ever presented the young with more opportunities? In what age has the common man had access to more of the material goods of life? More have labored, and we have shared into their labors," so that

Lions Auction Sale Nets $1650 For Flood Fund

Barbecue Dinner In Park Saturday Is Well Attended

Both merchandise and buyers were plentiful when the Ozona Lions Club held its auction sale in the city park here Saturday following the barbecue dinner served in the park.

A net of $1,650 was realized by the club for its flood control fund and toward equipment the Powell Field park as a baseball field, particularly for the Little League and schoolboy play, as a result of the auction and dinner.

The Club will set up its flood control fund to finance the continuing campaign to bring about action which would result in the building of a dam or dams on Johnson draw to erase the threat of a flood like that of June 28 which did a total of over 12 million dollars in damage to Ozona and downstream ranch property.

The baseball park fund is to be a starter toward relighting and rebuilding of the Powell Field park for use of Ozona youth and town baseball if it is ever revived.

Ozona and San Angelo merchants and individuals donated a truck load of merchandise, everything from a bullwhip to a $100 cash donation. Byron (Mustard) Williams acted as the auctioneer and did a fine job of wheeling the extra dollars from bidders. He was saddled with the job when

Petition Seeks Bond Issue For School Additions

Cafeteria and Class Rooms at N. Elementary Proposed

A petition was being circulated for signatures this week asking the Commissioners Court to call an election to decide whether or not $100,000 in bonds shall be issued for the purpose of building a school cafeteria, and adding two new classrooms to the North Elementary school.

The petition was being circulated by the Parent-Teachers Association which organization initiated the movement to bring about the needed additions and new construction.

The proposed new cafeteria will be erected on the school lot just north of the Junior High School building. It is proposed to open a street between the Junior High building and the cafeteria, with a gate at the entrance to Highway 163 so that the street will not be open except during hours the cafeteria is open and as an outlet and parking space on occasions of games in the Davidson Memorial Gymnasium.

The proposed cafeteria, a facility which practically all schools in this area now enjoy, will be well equipped and will serve noon meals for all schools in the local system. Designated by Wyatt C. Hedrick, Ft. Worth architect, the building will be of brick and will match existing school construction. It will seat 250 students at once.

Addition of two classrooms to the North Elementary school will be made necessary to take care of the sixth grade which is to be moved from the Junior High back to the elementary school. The addition will be made to existing construction and will match such construction.

Need for a cafeteria for the local school system has grown each year with more and more pupils being transported to the local schools by bus and private transportation from all field camps and ranches, to eat cold lunches or in downtown cafes. It is estimated that 125 pupils are now transported by bus or private cars to the schools each day. Operation of the cafeteria will be materially aided by grants of surplus commodities from the national lunchroom program and grants of cash aid from the federal government, all of which will aid in bringing down the cost per plate of serving patrons.

The petition asking the call of the bond election was to have been turned to County Judge Houston Smith this week and prospects were that the election could be called for a date early in December. If the issue is approved by the voters, construction will be started in time for the facilities to be used at the opening of schools next fall.

Early Christmas Mailings Urged

An appeal for early mailing of Christmas packages and cards and some suggestions that might help speed up the large volume of holiday mail has come from Postmaster Floyd Hokit.

Gift packages should be securely wrapped and adequately addressed and the words "Do Not Open Until Christmas" may be placed on the outside of the packages, thus permitting early mailing of such gifts. Patrons are also urged to mail Christmas cards as early as possible to avoid the last minute congestion in the postoffice which might result in late delivery.

Those who may have large mailings of Christmas cards and the like, should mail these if possible late in November or wait until after Christmas in the case of calendars.

In the case of large mailings of Christmas cards, if the out-of-state cards are separated it would be a help to the staff, the postmaster said. Also, patrons are asked to hand Christmas cards in large lots through the window in boxes or bundles, instead of dropping them in the mailing slots.

All this - and more miles per gallon too!

Be sure to test out the phenomenal effect of "variable pitch propellers" in Dynaflo Drive!

MAYBE—among the upcoming crop of new 1955 models—there's another car with an advance that can hold a candle to this one. But we doubt it. We doubt it because nowhere—among the rumors of what's cooking in automotive laboratories—is there anything to compare with what's actually happened at Buick.

It all started with the fact that modern air liners get two big advantages because they can change the pitch of their propellers.

First, they get off the ground hundreds of feet sooner than they used to.

Second, they can stretch their gasoline by setting popeller blades at just the right "pitch" for cruising.

MILTON BERLE STARS FOR BUICK

DRIVE A BUICK IT'S TEXAS-BUILT FOR TEXANS

So Buick engineers asked themselves—"If you can do it with air, why can't you do it with oil—the oil inside a Dynaflo Drive?"

And to make a long story short—they could, and they did.

They designed and engineered the propeller-like blades inside the "stator" of a Dynaflo Drive so they can change their pitch as much as 75 degrees.

That provides one setting for more miles-per-gallon, and another for an instant safety-surge of power when it's needed.

Allyou have to do is push the accelerator pedal down to the last half-inch beyond the full throttle position—and a-woy you go!

Of course, there's a lot more to make a visit to our showrooms the "must" of the new-car year.

There's a step-up in styling as sensational as the step-up in power.

And the step-up in horsepower is this: 236 in the ROADMASTER, SUPER and CENTURY—188 in the low-priced SPECIAL.

Pay-off on progress!

Buicks today go a lot farther on a gallon of gas, thanks to constant improvement in Dynaflo and in engine design. Even the new 236-hp ROADMASTER averages 4.8 more miles per gallon than Buicks of six years ago.

But the thrill of the year is Buick's latest engineering "first"—and what it does for the man or woman who drives the latest and greatest Dynaflo Drive.

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Social Events

This past week has been filled with excitement and quiet. Everyone was either rushing 'round studying for tests, looking for "play-propes", or getting ready for the Thanksgiving dance. The Seniors were learning lines, Juniors (the sneaks) were looking around trying to find a way for making some cash, Sophomores worrying about tests, and Freshmen getting ready for the dance.

Friday night after the Sonora (HGH) game we all went over to the "Mac's" house to dance a little while, we all had a good time playing pool, dancing and just talking over the game. Thanks goes out to Mrs. McMullan and the Cheerleaders for giving this dance.

Saturday night was a big night for all O. H. S. The Freshman class gave a Thanksgiving dance and it seemed like everybody was ready for one. Music was furnished by the "Fireman's Five" and punch and cookies were served as refreshments. The hall was cleverly decorated with a Thanksgiving theme. After the dance everyone "shagged" over to the M&M to eat "breakfast". We had some visitors at the dance they were; Betty, Rosie, and Ben Conklin, we sure were glad to see the ol' "former Ozonans."

Sunday, dates for the show were all the social that went on.

So till next week—"Have fun kids, for there's no school Thursday and Friday."

Martha Bailey
SENIOR PLAY
Sandra Brewer

"The Whole Town's Talking" is the brilliant farce given by the Senior of 1954-55. This play was filled with laughter from beginning to end. Mr. Simmons, the old man, was played by Lynn Parker, who wanted his daughter, Ethel (Barbara Fields), to marry his partner, Chester Binney, who is played by Charles Sowders. But Chester is the kind of bachelor no woman would want. "He's such a blank," says Mrs. Simmons (Ann Ratliff). Mrs. Simmons has the theory that every woman wants a man who has sowed some wild oats and conceives a plan of inventing a few love affairs for the unromantic Chester. From a bookstore they select pictures of beautiful women, which turn out to be the Queen of England, the Mona Lisa, Julian Eltice, and Lettye, the movie star, played by Sandra Brewer. Lettye is selected to be Chester's lover, and the story begins to spread. In no time at all the whole town is talking and Sally Otis (Patty Hardesty) and Lila Wilson (Nancy Perdue) are falling for Chester. In the midst of the glory Lettye Lythe comes to town accompanied by her fiance, Donald Swift (Hugh Russell) who happens to be a prizefighter. Then the trouble really starts for Chester, but he braves the storm to win Ethel in the end. A lot of comedy is lent to the play by Roger Shield (Kent Chapman) of Chicago—and Paris, Shields is a well-bred young man who brought Ethel home from Chicago.

Other characters in this play were Leatha Brown, as the maid, Johnny Butterfield as the taxi driver, and last but not least Sadie Bloom, who is played by none other than Pat Cooper. The play was directed the one of the class sponsors, Hack Leath.

FADS AND FASHIONS

The most important item this past week was a belt, worn with red riding pants. It has "Bobbie" and "Johnnie" written in white letters with a natural background.

There have been many, many new permanently pleated skirts worn with all sorts of blouses, as Janice Spencer's rust jersey. Other unusual skirts were Carol Blackstone's white, wide waisted corduroy and Wanda Armstrong's grey felt circular decorated with a big fuzzy poodle.

Dresses are all tailored, as Glynel Wawker's white faille, very neatly fastened with big gold buttons, Martha Bailey's navy jersey with a pale blue top and dots covering the skirt.

One of our favorites is the blouse, which can be worn for any occasion. Two new jerseys were worn by Jan Jones and Ann Baggett. Jan's was lavender with a draped, collarless neck, Ann's was red with a front panel that ties. Tylene Maddoux was wearing an orange-red corduray overblouse, gathered at the waist. Some new cottons were worn by Cecilia Cook and Susie Schneemann. Susie's was aqua with a pocket on the back, and buttoned up both front and back. Cecilia's was white with all different sized dots of black covering it.

A very fashionable warmer this season is the shorty jacket. Beverly Killingsworth is wearing a pretty blue poodle clothe one, Lou Nell Bealle has a red wool with three quarter sleeves.

Fads and Fashions

By Ann Ratliff
Ann Ratliff

The high spot of the week was the Thanksgiving dance, where everyone wore their best bib and tucker. We noticed lots of file, velveteen and taffeta. Most of the dresses were low necked, but there were a few demure high collars. Jan Jones wore a black taffeta with a full, full skirt, which was very simple except the collar, which was decorated with a pearl design. Carol Friend was in black taffet, too, round necked party dress with a huge black and white bow in the back. Carolyn Stuart was in black and white checked taffeta—a strapless dress, shoulders covered with a black velveteen evening bolero. One of the few colored taffetas was worn by Barbara Fields, a low necked gold, with an interesting backview. Martha Bailey was pretty as a picture in a quilted chintz skirt of black, aqua, and white with an aqua velveteen top, sprinkled with rhinestones. Martha Flowers wore a black velveteen jumper lined with pink, with a pale pink satin blouse. Genelle Childress found a purple velveteen jumper very appropriate for the occasion. Of the faille dresses, most were a little tailored, as Gwynel Walker's red faille suit, accented with black velveteen. Sandra Brewer's faille was pale blue, and made in a princess style. Peggy Trotter wore a white faille skirt and blouse, strung with red cotton balls.

Dear Shirley,
This week ends the dateless period for a lot of the girls. Football season is over you know. Everyone sure better make hay while the sun shines, before basketball starts that is.
Last week I didn't get a letter written so I'll tell you a few of the things that happened. I guess you heard about the victory dance Carol B. and Sarah H. had after the Eden game. All the girls were really lonesome last Saturday, the football boys all went to Austin to see the Texas-TCU game.

This Tuesday two boys eager to get dates were Duckie and Johnny

S. It seems Kent C. had given them something or other. But Ann and Greenie weren't as excited as they had hoped.

Hugh felt sorry for Ann since her cnem test was Thursday and asked her to study with him Wednesday. John and Greenie boned up on English. But it was too much fun to get much studying done. Friday after our final game at Sonora Mrs. McMullan donated her house for a dance given by Susie and Wanda.

Then of course there was the Thanksgiving Dance given by the Freshman Saturday night. But (Continued on Page Seven)

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas — Attorney General John Ben Shepperd's office is engaged in another investigation. This time it's a multi-pronged one in which the state auditor, the department of public safety and Dewitt County Attorney Wiley Cheatham are also interested.

It has to do with the one hundred million dollar veteran's land program.

Managing Editor R. K. Towery of the Cuero Record unearthed the story.

He discovered that some Texas veterans in and around Cuero had signed up for what they thought was a free bonus of land, only to learn that they had purchased land with down payments they had never made.

Towery said promoters sold large tracts of land to groups of veterans, that the veterans had never seen the land, had never made a payment on it, and had no means of paying for it.

According to Cheatham, the county attorney's investigation revealed "a rotten, stinking mess that ought to be aired out before the people."

Identical Bids
Another investigation being undertaken by the Attorney General has to do with identical bids for electrical supplies for the capitol city.

Under scrutiny are identical bids for $32,122.80 which four firms gave the Austin City Council on undergoing cable.

Dope Traffic Eyed
Texas' new law providing imprisonment or hospitalization for dope addicts will get its test in Austin soon.

Charges were filed here against six men and women, following 17 arrests by city and county officers and Texas Rangers last week, in a raid on a small Congress avenue hotel.

Narcotic agents said recently that Austin is rapidly being drawn into "an alarming and expanding black market drugs problem."

Radar Roundup
Highway patrolmen, armed with radar, have already nabbed 11 central Texas speeders.

Warned were 63 others. These automatic eyes are being placed on principal highways throughout the state.

Amendments Effective Now
Proclamations declaring the recently voted amendments part of the constitution have been issued by Governor Allan Shivers and Secretary of State C. E. Fulgham. Amendments provide for women jurors, higher pay for member of the Legislature, longer terms for some public officials, and increased pensions for the aged.

There is talk here of a suit by some members of the Legislature to test the attorney general's ruling made prior to the election, that the public officials' amendment did not extend Legislator's terms to four years.

DWI Penalties
Three days in jail is the minimum penalty for drunk driving and the judge may not reduce the sentence.

That was the decision of the court of Criminal Appeals in the case of an El Paso man.

Held unconstitutional by the decision was that part of the Texas law which authorized the judge to commute the jail sentence in drunk driving cases.

Oil Increase
A 64,374-barrel daily increase in Texas oil production for December has been authorized by the Texas Railroad Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. David Seweitzer are here from Lovington, N. M. to spend the Thanksgiving week-end with Mrs. Schweitzer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Augustine.

Champion Sonora Bronchos Tounce Ozona 54 To 19

Lions Only A Team to Score 2 TDs On Sonora First String

The powerful Sonora Bronchos, district 6-A champs, handed the Ozona Lions a 54 to 19 loss to end the regular season for both ball clubs last Friday night in Sonora.

The victory gave Coach Joe Turner's well drilled crew the 6-A title for the second year was left them only a narrow loss to AA Ballinger to mar their season.

For the Lions it was actually one of their better games for 1954 as they became the only A club to score twice on Sonora's A team this season. As usual, George Wright and George Johnson ably assisted by Tracey Crites led the way for the victorious Bronchos.

Actually the score could have been worse but Turner used his second and sometimes third string freely. It may have been that the Lion's hard hitting actually contributed to the size of the score since unlike other district opponents, the Sonora second team improved no match for Ozona. The game opened with a Sonora rush. Johnson capped a 53 yd. drive with a 12 yard end sweep for the first score. Minutes later Crites raced 53 yards for the second score. With only 7 minutes gone, Johnson scored on a pitchout from seven yards out and near the end of the first quarter Johnson again went over on a pitchout from 12 yards out. That explosion left the score 27 to 0 at the quarter.

The Sonora second string started a drive that carried to the Ozona 12 but the hard hitting Lions began to jolt the Sonora youngsters too sharply and a fumble stopped the drive. After one first down with Mike Clayton picking up good yardage, Ronnie McMullan exploded through Sonora's line and raced 75 yards to score. Sonora quickly got that TD back as Wright sparked a drive that ended with him carrying over from the five.

Coming back after the half trailing 33 to 6, the Lions went to work on Sonora's second team and pushed 63 yards for the second tally with Mike Clayton and Ronnie McMullan showing the way. McMullan plowed over from the two. Sonora's A team returned to the contest and an unintentional on-sides kick gave Ozona the ball once again. This time the Lions were moving and McMullan and Clayton launched savage rips into the Sonora line that finally climaxed when Clayton went over from the one. The Lions then capitalized on some heads up running by Charles Hale and a tremendous block by McMullan to run over the extra point.

The Bronchos rushed all horses back into the fray and soon had the contest safely tucked away. Wright scored from the four and then threw two beautiful strikes to Johnson and Crites for the final two scores.

For the losing Lions Longoria and Jones played well in the line while in the backfield Clayton and McMullan were the main pligs.

Ronnie McMullan emerged as the game's leading ball carrier by racking up 184 yards on 22 efforts but George Wright had the best average with 174 on just fourteen carries.

In all, the Bronchos racked up their 54 points on 375 yards rushing and 109 passing for 15 first downs while limiting the Lions to 279 rushing and a mere 15 passing for 10 first downs.

The entire game was marked by hard but very clean play and only six penalties were assessed during the contest, the yardage being almost even with Ozona drawing 35 yards to 30 for Sonora.

THAT DID IT! When Dinah (you'd hardly recognize Mrs. John Coates in blackface costume) told the bedpatient, Mrs. Gordon (Mrs. Marshall Montgomery), who was preparing to have an operation for a conversation piece, about what happened to her daughter Pearl and her operation, that did it and Mrs. Gordon was out and on her way to the luncheon the other girls were having. It's a scene from the Woman's Forum guest day playlet presented Thursday in the North Elementary auditorium.

Forum Entertains Guest Day Crowd With Two Playlets

Approximately 100 members and guests of the Ozona Woman's Forum were entertained with the almost professional presentation of two comic playlets by a member-cast as the guest day program of the club when it met Thursday in the North Elementary auditorium.

The two hilarious plays were "Have You Had Your Operation?" and "A Meeting of the Better City Campaign Committee." Members of the cast in the hospital room farce were Mrs. Marshall Montgomery, the patient; Mrs. Bill Clegg and Mrs. Jack Williams, nurses; and Mrs. P. C. Perner, Mrs. Jim Ad Harvick, Mrs. Chas. Black, Jr., and Mrs. John Coates, the disturbing callers.

In the speech-making orgy, the meeting of the ladies Better City Committee, were Mrs. Hugh Childress, Jr., the chairman, and her speech-making lieutenants Mrs. Ele Hagelstein, Mrs. Jess Marley, Mrs. Martin Harvick, Mrs. W. H. Whitaker and Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson.

Mrs. Chas. Black presided at a business meeting preceding the program. Mrs. W. T. Stokes, vice president, greeted guests. Mrs. Boyd Baker was program director and introduced the plays.

Hostesses were Mrs. Pete Jacoby, Mrs. Jess Odom, Mrs. Austin Millsbaugh, Mrs. W. T. Stokes and Mrs. Jim Ad Harvick.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Tandy and Mills will be hosts at a family reunion this Thanksgiving week, and guests in the Tandy home during the period will be Mr. and Mrs. Bland Tandy and children, Cathy and Duncan, from Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. West and children, Wesley, Bobby and Wilda Mae, of Ozona; Kerry Tandy from the University of Texas; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bland of Abilene; Mrs. Tandy's father and step-mother; Mrs. C. M. Tandy, Dr. Tandy's mother, of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bland, Jr., and children, Rex Diltzie, John and Becky, from Marcus, S. D.; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sayles and children, Frances and John of Abilene, the latter Mrs. Tandy's brother-in-law and sister.

Here and There

By J. Troy Hickman

How much of our work is done by pressing buttons, and the leisure we enjoy is built upon the toils of others who discovered and shared with us.

"Not for battleship and fortress,

Not for conquests of the sword,

But for conquests of the spirit Give we thanks to Thee, O Lord!

For the heritage of freedom, For the home, the church, the school,

For the open door to manhood In a land where people rule."

There are many things in and about us that we do not like, nor should we. But we are thankful for the essential nobility of the human soul that, however submerged, however mangled, never despairs and never dies. It is our guarantee of the ultimate triumph of the good, despite all delay, and we are grateful to the God who buried it deep within us. One can never tell where or in whom the next example of nobility will appear, for sometimes it bypasses the great and animates the least.

We are grateful that God is the sort of God He is. We see Him shining in the face of Jesus Christ. When you and I were yet far away from Him in sin, when we were dead to the true and the good, following the natural instincts of a corrupted nature, pushed off course by the winds of an evil world, He saw us, loved us, claimed us for His own, and came to us. And because He first loved us, we love Him.

Religion and gratitude always go together. True religion abides in a thankful heart, and true thankfulness always draws us closer to God. Religion and Thanksgiving cannot be separated.

A young but troubled minister of the gospel long ago was seeking to find the secret of peace and joy. He saw it in a group of humble people of the Moravian faith. He sought an interview with the leader of that Christian group. The leader asked him, "Have you faith in Christ?"

"I think I have," replied. "I gave my life to God in service. I have crossed the ocean and lived among strangers in His service. I have sought him from dawn to dark. My zeal has never flagged."

"But do you have His peace in your heart?" the Moravian pastor insisted.

"I'm afraid I don't have that kind of faith," the young man confessed. "But is there anything I can get it?"

"Yes, there is," the older man said. "You are a preacher. Preach faith until you have it."

The young man did just that and one night in a little prayer, he found what he sought all his life. Today a wide denomination numbering millions of people honor him as a leader.

Am I thankful? If not, I think about it and try to do it. I have it. Let me say it, and feel it deep in my heart.
