A GREAT LEADER

It could be that I am so biased in favor of President Eisenhower that my judgement about his words and deeds is unreliable. But as I listened to his speech last Thursday before the Congress, wherein he outlined his ideas of a national program for the forthcoming session, I thought if the best Presidential address I have heard to date.

School children are familiarized with the famous Farewell Address of President Washington, Lincoln's renowned Second Inaugural and Gettysburg Addresses, and Woodrow Wilson's great speech to the League of Nations. For depth of insight, breadth of vision and intensity of feeling, these are masterpieces.

The Eisenhower address was not great in a forensic sense. But it was a very complete and competent coverage of the present state of the union. It was clear, dignified, able and scholarly.

There was no cheap ranting or breathing of threats. It had none of the shopworn political phrases so often offered by politicians as a substitute for subject-matter. It was a speech that will go down with the best, just as Eisenhower, if he holds to the present course, will go down in history as one of America's all-time greats.

For the first time since the last World War the foundation has been laid for a true bipartisan administration. Forces in both houses of the Congress are almost evenly divided between the two major parties. Ike knows that he owes his election to Democratic friends who supported him, and that if he is elected again he must have the same support.

The issues in his speech which could be the most controversial were couched in careful and delicate phraseology. They conveyed his ideas clearly without risking offense to either side. On the issue of the proposed statehood of Hawaii, a minor question which always generates heat, his words were few and tactful. "Our Hawaiian friends," he said, "are ready for statehood." And since he seems to believe that Alaska is not yet ready for statehood, he said nothing about her at all. In saying nothing he said a lot and said it well.

During the last Presidential campaign it was predicted that Ike, being a military man, would probably be a poor politician. His achievements since taking office, and his speech, seems to refute this thesis and to set him among the foremost of leaders who know how to get things done with the least possible disturbances.

It is going to be hard for congressmen on either side not to cooperate on the new Eisenhower program, a program which got the grudging endorsement even of Harry Truman. The Democrats cannot fail to notice that Ike's program is really a new version of the New Deal, a procedure they are already committed to. The Republicans cannot but see that Ike has cleaned the Welfare State idea of most of its objectionable points, and kept the best of it. Nothing but sheer political cussedness could possibly keep the new Congress from accomplishing something progressive and sound for the country in this season.

It has been said that Ike is a weak President who is failing to grab hold of his job, and letting others push him around. But the record does not support that charge. He seems to have made some headway toward the accomplishment of every promise he made, including the promise to reduce taxes. Some surplus government employes have been laid off. A balanced budget has been promised for not later than next July. The initiative in the cold war with Russia has passed from her hands to ours, the war in Korea has ended, and some of the more extreme phases of inflation are passing away. This does not

Everett Shows Grand Champion Of 4-H Club Show

Finewool Lamb Tops; Chandler Shows Reserve Crossbred

R. J. Everett showed his fine wool lamb to the grand championship of the seventh annual Crockett County 4-H Club livestock show held Saturday at the Ozona Wool & Mohair Co. The Everett lamb nosed out the crossbred shown to the championship of his heavy-weight class by Erby Chandler.

Carl Conklin copped the grand championship in the pen of three competition with his crossbred lambs.

Pierce Miller swept the ram lamb competition with the grand champion registered Rambouillet two-toothed ram of Vic and Miles Pierce breeding.

Young Everett's finewool lamb showed to the championship of his class over the reserve champion shown by Mark Baggett. In the crossbred championship competition, Erby Chandler's lamb outpointed one shown by his sister, Tommie Sue, who had the reserve champion in that division.

Mark White showed his pen of three finewool lambs to the championship of their class and to reserve champion, being nosed out by Conklin's crossbreds.

The lambs were judged by James A. Gray, sheep and goat specialist with the A & M Extension Service. At a sale of lambs following the show, Lem Jones of Junction auctioned the boys' lambs to an average of $1.18 per pound. The grand champion lamb brought $3 a pound, paid by Ozona National Bank, and the reserve champion sold for $2.75, paid by Tom Smith, grandfather of the young showman, Erby Chandler.

The big crowd which attended the show enjoyed a barbecue dinner served in the wool house by the Ozona Butane Company. Show scenes and pictures of participants and crowds, plus some Ozona scenes, were photographed in movies by a representative of Station KTXL-TV in San Angelo for television broadcast at a later date.

Only About Third Of County Voters Have Paid Poll Tax

Half the month of January is gone and only about a third of the eligible voters in Crockett county have qualified themselves to vote in this election year of 1954 by paying their poll taxes. And January 31 is the deadline for paying poll taxes and earning the right to vote.

Only 490 poll tax receipts had been issued from the office of the county tax collector to yesterday, Mrs. Gertrude Perry, deputy, reported. The probable total is somewhere from 1200 to 1500.

Nineteen fifty-four is not a presidential election year, but it is an election year, with officials from precinct constables to United States Senators to be chosen by the voters. There are just 15 days left in which to qualify yourself to vote in the 1954 elections by paying a $1.75 poll tax.

Lion Cagers Keep Unbroken Record Of 20 Dist. Wins

Sonora Bows By Lone Point In Tuesday Night Thriller

The chips were down Tuesday night and Coash Swede Pelt's Ozona Lion cagers, who hadn't won a game so far this basketball season, delivered in their first district competition, nosing out the Sonora Bronchos 47-46.

And by doing that, the Lions made it 20 district games in a row, without a loss, covering a period of nearly five years back, with four district championships, undefeated, in that period.

Charles Garlitz, Ozona's ace, racked up a dazzling record of 25 points to turn the trick, 21 of these points coming in a hectic second half. The Bronchos had enjoyed the lead from the game's opening, holding an 18-6 advantage at the end of the first quarter and still leading 27-18 at the half. But the roof fell in on them the second half when Garlitz began hitting them from in and out. Johnny Ramirez seconded Garlitz with 10 points. Bill Ratliff of Sonora accounted for 14 and Jim Skinner was a close second with 13.

The curtain-raising B team game was another thriller, Ozona edging out the Broncho B squad 44-43. The breathless Ozona fans thought they had their money's worth after that opener, but there was more to come.

The box scores:

Ozona Motorists Lag In Getting New Inspection Stickers

Highway Patrolman H. E. Moore of this district has called attention to a local lag by motorists in having their motor vehicles inspected under the safety inspection law.

Out of 2,139 vehicles, estimated from last year's registration, only 351 had been inspected as of December 31, Patrolman Moore said. All vehicles must be inspected and have the 1953 inspection stickers by April 15. Local inspection stations will be crowded in the few days before the deadline and the patrolman urged local motorists to have the inspection made as soon as possible to avoid the last minute congestion.

Hollywood Show By Lions Benefit March Of Dimes

Carl Webster Pierce To MC Auditorium Show Jan. 19

Ozona Lions Club has completed arrangements to bring an unusual show direct from Hollywood, which it will present Tuesday afternoon and night, Jan. 19, in the High School Auditorium.

Hollywood Radio - TV Party, which has toured from coast to coast, is an audience participation show which has all the features of the radio and television shows, which give everyone in the audience a chance to "get into the act" and win prizes.

Carl Webster Pierce, well-known master of ceremonies and magician, is coming from Hollywood to preside over this full evening of fun. Carl was, for years, heard on the famous "Breakfast in Hollywood" program with Tom Breneman; has been on many radio and television shows, including several seasons with Art Linkletter, and has been featured in his own shows. He is the author of many dramatic programs and stage plays including the stage version of the "Queen For a Day" radio show.

The real stars of the evening are said to be men, women and children right out of the audience, who will participate in the quizzes and interviews, exactly as they do in the radio and television studios in Hollywood. The tallest man and the shortest woman in the audience will be teamed up in the hilarious "Hollywood Butterfly Chase," four hungry people will be asked to take part in the "Mad Tea Party," a prominent citizen will shine as the Mystic Swami" who reads minds, and there are many other features which make the show a real fun-fest. Carl even makes magicians of audience members by using them as assistants in feats of magic.

The Club is going to devote the proceeds of the show to The March of Dimes, so that those buying tickets will not only have an evening of fun, but will at the same time be helping a worthy cause.

With a small fund already on hand and organization completed at a second meeting held Monday morning at the sheriff's office, the new Crockett County Local Welfare Council was ready for action this week in meeting local emergency relief needs.

Hike In County Salaries Voted By Commissioners

Opinion Of Attorney General Sought On Legality

Coet of county government in Crockett county goes up again in 1954, as it did at the beginning of 1953.

Just how much it goes up will depend on a ruling by the Attorney General of Texas, who has been asked to rule on the legality of the raise voted by the four Commissioners for themselves.

But if the unanimous action of the Commissioners in voting salary raises to county officers, with the exception of County Judge Houston Smith, who asked that his salary remain at its present figure, is upheld, it will mean an addition of at least $6,550 per year to the salary bill of the county for its elected officials over that for 1953. And county salaries were raised at the beginning of 1953 at the first meeting after election of the present Commissioners Court.

The Commissioners voted to raise their own salaries from the present $2,700 per year to $3,750. The point on which the attorney general has been asked to rule is whether or not more than a 25 percent raise can be voted. The salary of the sheriff, assessor and collector was raised by the vote a flat 25 percent, from $5,400 to $6,750. The county attorney was raised from the present $90 per month, or $1,080 a year, and fees, to a flat $3,600 per year salary. The justice of the peace was also placed on a salary, fixed at $1,500 per year. The J. P. office fees was approximately the amount set in the salary last year, according to official estimates, and the county attorney fees last year were also approximately that amount, thus effecting an approximate $1,000 raise in the attorney's annual salary.

Presumably, officers on fee basis, such as the county and district clerk, and the county treasurer, whose maximum salaries are limited by law, will not be affected. The clerk's office now is limited to $5,400 a year and the treasurer to $2,500, each from county salary plus fees of office.

The 25 percent pay raise, however, extends also to deputy help in the sheriff's department and clerk's office, bringing the total addition to the salary bill to nearly $10,000 a year.

Schools To Build Six New Teacher Housing Units

Bids To Be Received Feb. 9; 5 Homes, Dual Apartment Planned

Construction of six new teacher housing units for the Ozona Public School system is proposed by the school board if satisfactory bids for such construction can be obtained when bids are received February 9.

The new housing units, another move toward a solution to the teacher housing problem, are to be constructed on property owned by the schools north of the North Elementary school. Five of the units are to be separate houses and the sixth a dual apartment unit similar to the three such apartments built several years ago on the lot.

The new construction is to be accomplished without a bond issue, surplus funds in the local maintenance fund to be used for the purpose.

Exhibit of Ozona Artist Sponsored By Sul Ross Art Dept. By Glen Burgess

Alpine, Texas, January 8.—Sul Ross students, faculty and townspeople of Alpine and the area were guests at a tea Thursday which opened an exhibition of paintings done by Mrs. Nan Tandy West of Ozona. The exhibit is being sponsored by the Sul Ross Art Department and will hang through January 14 in the Fine Arts Gallery on the college campus.

The artist, Nan Tandy West, was present at the tea and with her were her mother, Mrs. H. B. Tandy, of Ozona and two friends from Marfa, Mrs. Frank Jones and Mrs. Ben R. Pruett. College art students poured tea and served from a table traditionally set with flowers, silver and glass.

Twenty-one paintings, including oils, water colors, temperas and casein, comprise the exhibit. There are two brush and ink drawings also. These show such a varied interest in subject matter and treatment that they might easily have been done by more than one person.

Perhaps the paintings most appreciated were those of subject matter in and around West Texas: "Dust Storms," "Land of the Cliff Dwellers-Noon," and "Pot Hole". These show an intimacy with natural surroundings that is sensitively and delicately expressed. The water colors of this group, "Summer of the Drought" and "Drought on Bluff Draw," are restrained in color and have the quality of freshness expected of this medium. The group of abstractions, done in tempera for the most part, reveal the artist's knowledge of structural design. The organic pattern of light and dark shapes is exceptionally well handled here, as well as in the brush and ink drawings and some of the oils. Here again the color, though brilliant, is restrained and used with thorough deliberation. One of the most interesting of these abstractions, "Emergence of Two Forms", was the recipient of the $5.00 Joske Award in 1952 and hung in the Creative Gallery, New York, in 1953.

Of the two portraits shown, color and anatomy relationship seem the chief interest of one, whereas the expression of an inner feeling, or mood, dominates the other. All the paintings are interestingly and appropriately framed.

Mrs. West is a young person who looks more like a college student than a mother of two children. She is the wife of a West Texas ranchman and has the average duties of a homemaker. She is keenly interested in people and in the life about her and is unwilling to let this interest remain unexpressed. She is a serious student of art, interested in the modern expression of our times, as well as the objectivity of the Old Masters. Two former Sul Ross art teachers, Julius Woltz and Xavier Gonzales, appear in her list of instructors.

She has exhibited in various Texas shows where she has received five or six awards and honorable mentions. This is her second one-man show.

ber who has a personal or financial interest in the outcome of an issue before the Council may not vote on that issue. Relation by blood or marriage or business association constitutes "personal or financial interest."

The first report of the treasurer showed a balance of $189.50 in the Council treasury as of Jan. 11th.

Any individual citizen of the county may become a member of the Council by contributing not less than $5.00 for the year of membership. Any group, such as church, club, etc., may be a member and have a representative on the Council by contributing not less than $25 in the year. Contributions may be left at the Ozona National Bank or at the sheriff's office.

Meetings of the Council are open to the public, as are the records of its receipts and disbursements. There is no connection between the Council and the county fund or any other agency of any sort, it was pointed out.

In order that details of the Council organization and its plan may be more fully explained to the public, the Council has offered to provide speakers at meetings of civic groups to explain the Council organization and aims. J.

...backed by dollars

When you see telephone lines going up, you see proof your telephone company believes in the future of your community.

Your company backs that faith by investing millions of dollars to improve your service. Many of your neighbors share its faith, too. Some show it by investing their savings; others by investing their careers; some by doing both.

It's faith... and partnership like this... that keeps America great.

Lions Edge Sonora For First Dist. Win

By Larry Lewis

Why coaches get grey!! Why ANYBODY get grey!!! At last we finally did it—the Lions won a game. And from my predictions there'll be a lot more wins following this one. O. K., here it comes, the first time I've ever said it in my column. . . .

The OZONA LIONS defeated the Sonora Bronchos 47-46 in the Lions first district game last Tuesday. This made it 20 consecutive wins in district play in a three-year span. And believe me we're not through.

The Bronchos were out in front 12 points at the end of the first period of play. At one time the Bronchos were 13 ahead during the second quarter. Then the boom fell on Sonora—the Lions started hitting from in and out. The lead then fell, with Ozona trailing 3 points. Charles Garlitz 3 year letterman, led the Ozona comeback by getting 21 points in the second half. Within seconds to go the Lions had a few free throws on which we capitalized. The Lions stalled the ball with just 1 minute to go with Sam Martinez and Ronnie McMullan keeping it away from 3 anxious Bronchos. The game ended in a jump ball with Martinez tipping it to Ramirez who held it until the buzzer sounded.

Charles Garlitz was high for Ozona with 25 points followed by Ramirez with 10.

Bill Ratliff had 14 for the losers while Jim Skinner closely followed with 13.

You've got to give those first five boys a lot of credit in winning that one because all did well—in fact, GREAT!!

Dates and Doin's

Seems like every one is playing the field. No one is going steady. Rosie & Jody, Alena and Fred went to the roping at D. K. McMullan's Sun.

Sunday night dates were: Rosie-Jody, Charlie Black-Robbie K. Buddy - Carol, Charles- Sandra, Kenneth - Vivian, Graham - Georgiana Ronnie - Billie L.

Seen riding around Monday night were: Rosie-Jody, Ronnie-Billie Ann, Kenneth-Georgiana.

Jane, What's so funny about pink peonies? ? ? ?

The seniors are all ready beginning to get excited about their trip. Seems that every time there are any senior in the crowd, the conversation is always plans about the trip and the parties that precede it.

With the basketball tournament coming the 21-22-23, the cheerleaders and twirlers are really busy getting rooms for so many boys.

Shirley and Larvin are planning on a hay-day with 150 loose boys. Mike and Wanda are still "steadily going". Quite a difference from "going steady."

District basketball has started, so everyone try to attend all the games and back the boys from the start.

Dear Mae:

Well, I guess "Lizabeth" is sure happy! She's going steady with a boy named Ray M. in Angelo. Sorry boys, but its true. Brock, will you please quit bawling on my shoulder — there's other girls! Poor boy! "Liz" is so happy that I expect her to try to jump the O.H.S. pretty soon. I guess she decided that she couldn't get to first base with Cheesy.

Poor Wanda, she wanted so much to get her "John Henr!" in the paper. I guess I'll have to disappoint her. I won't put WANDA ARMSTRONG'S name in the paper. Well, to get to the serious side of (Ha-Ha) life, Wanda is still going with Mike. (lucky boy)

Notice! If anyone wants to see that hair-brained idiot Liz P. in her true self, just go to Mr. Brent's tank in the Gen. Science room. There she is.

The most gorgeous thing I've seen on wheels in all my life was driven by Wanda C. Monday evening. Boy, Its Real Gone!

Well, I have to go and finish my algebra now! Mid-Term tests coming up, you know so everyone is playing "dead" for a couple of days.

Lots of love
"Lizzie"

Fads and Fooie

By Kenneth Phillips

This week I would like to get away from my "Fooie" a little bit. I have read seven little sayings that I have written down that I think would be good for everybody to think about a little. So here it comes, I hope it makes as much sense to you as it did to me, I believe that it would be a good way to start off the New Year! Lets call it, Just For Today:

Just For Today: I'll try to live through this day only, and not try to tackle my whole life at once—If I can do something for the rest of the day that pleases me, I feel like I can do it for lifetime.

Just For Today: I will be happy. "Most folks are about as happy as they make up their minds to be"

Just For Today: I will try to strengthen my mind—I will read something that requires thought, and concentration.

Just For Today: I will exercise myself in three ways, I will do someone a good turn, and do at least two things I don't want to do. And if my feelings are hurt, I won't show it, and go crying on somebody else's shoulders.

Just For Today: I will look as well as I can, I will talk without trying to make the people downtown hear me, I won't criticize anyone not unduly, and not try to improve or regulate anyone's ways except my own.

And Just For Today: I will not be afraid. Especially will I not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful, and believe that, what I give to the world, so will the world give to me.

Well my puzzled friends, as you can see by now that I am completely my un-natural self, but now, and then I can't think of anything else but something kinda serious. So I guess this is the end of the old column till next week. So till then, and then I will return as my natural ugly self, I have a bit of news for you. Instead of beating Garlitz eighteen licks, I'll help you hold him down, and we'll drive straight pins under his finger-nails! Bye now.

OFTA CLUB

By Soveida Machado

The OFTA Club met on Monday, January 11, 1954. The president called the meeting to order. Our dues were discussed and everyone is to bring their dues.

The monthly social was discussed and Susie S. and Jan J. volunteered to plan the social.

The program chairman gave us a talk on foreign language in the Elementary schools. She also gave us some points on "How to Study".

Fads and Fashions

By Jane Adams

Boys: Graham's black corduroy jacket; Kent Chapman's grey suit worn with a pink shirt and an aqua tie. Sounds too bright but it isn't because all the colors are very pale and subtle; Charles' red and blue and white belt; Buddy's pullover purple shirt.

Girls: Sandra's new short and smooth haircut; Wanda's fabulous new car; the way Barbara's black hair and eyes look when she wears that gold shirt with a black straight skirt; Carol's unusual, pretty western shirts; Jeannene's huge white sweater pulled over tight blue treader pants.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Becoming dissatisfied with long hours and apparently little appreciation, the punctuation marks decided to strike. The period and the question mark were the leaders.

"We carry the heaviest responsibility," said the period. "Look what a mess these sentences would be in if we should stop work, even for one day."

"No one can question that," agreed the question mark.

"I don't care to be quoted," said the quotation mark, "but I'm with you."

"You may be important, Mr. Period," said the comma; "but pray tell me who would look after the many details that fall to my lot? The cities, the states, the series of things, the person spoken to, and even the dates look to me to keep things straight."

"Granted that's true, Miss Comma; but you have an able helper in me," retorted the semicolon. "Don't forget that I'm not afraid to express my true feelings!" called the exclamation mark.

"Let's quit all of this wrangling and do something," the dash broke in.

The English I class rubbed their eyes, yawned, and stretched, then hurriedly picked up the book he had been reading. There the punctuation marks were, every one in its place.

MID-TERM TESTS OR HOW TO PASS!

About all you can hear around school these days are the different methods of studying. Sandra is going home and lock herself in her room with her bop records. Pretty good way if you can do it. And then of course there are the different methods of passing algebra II. Kenneth's by always managing to grin at least at most of Mr. Peito's jokes and Carl's plan to mention his plan of attending "ole" Minnesota. University. Shir- Continued On Page Seven

Announcing The New Packard CLIPPER

America's Newest Medium-Priced Car! Luxury at a lot less...because Packard builds it

- A year ago the Packard CLIPPER was introduced as America's newest medium-priced car.
- And men who know were quick to say: "That's a lot of car for the money!"
- And it was a lot of car for the money. And it is a lot of car for the money. Because Packard builds it.
- power, fine-car ride... (the high-price features everybody wants)... and yet at a popular, medium price!
- We have built a finer car for '54 because experience in '53 proved that there are many thousands of Americans who want a true luxury car in the medium-price range.
- Most cars in the medium-price field are simply big brothers of smaller cars made by the same company. These cars may offer the modern gadgets and the smooth look of the big car, but in most cases their basic engineering is still influenced by small-car engineering.
- "Packard-built" makes the difference
- No feature or claim will ever give you a more powerful reason for buying a CLIPPER than the name Packard.
- You'll find the reason when you take command of a Packard CLIPPER and put it through its paces over a road of your own choosing. Make that date with "Packard-built quality at a popular, medium price" very soon... won't you?
- You'll get luxury for a lot less in a Packard CLIPPER.

If you plan to spend as much as $2500 for a car—be sure to see and drive the '54 Packard CLIPPER—America's newest medium-priced car.

Betty's "I can't wait until Mid-Term because Tom will be home." I guess Martha has been pretty busy studying as I haven't seen her riding very much, not in her car anyway. Anyway, I guess everyone is studying. Nobody say they're not, anyway.

With its trend-setting advances... Ford's worth even more for '54

STYLE DIVIDEND

3 New Body Styles... 28 models

Ford offers you three brand new body styles in its line of newly created models. There's a new transparent-roofed Crestline Skyliner... a sparkling new Crestline Fordor... and a smart new Customline Ranch Wagon. There are 28 models in all, for each of Ford's 14 body styles is available with the new Y-block V-8 or the new I-block Six engine.

New Astra-Dial Control Panel

It's designed both for beauty and practicality. The speedometer is placed high on the panel where you can quickly spot the figures almost without taking your eyes off the road. Like the '54 Ford's beautiful new upholstery and trim, the Astra-Dial Control Panel is color-harmonized with the sparkling new outside body color of your choice.

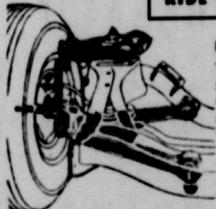

It's the Dividends that make it Worth More

RIDE DIVIDEND

New Ball-Joint Front Suspension

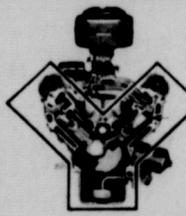

This revolutionary new suspension is the greatest chassis advance in 20 years... and it's exclusive to Ford in its field. It gives front wheels greater up and down travel to smooth out the going on rough roads. And it helps keep the wheels in true alignment for consistently easy handling. Movement of the wheels is on ball joints whether up and down, as wheels travel over rough spots, or in steering as wheels turn right or left. Ball joints are sealed against dirt and water.

PERFORMANCE DIVIDEND

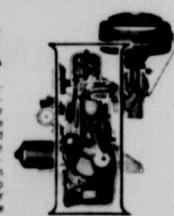

New 130-h.p. Y-BLOCK V-8

An extra-deep skirt extending below crankshaft gives greater rigidity for smoother, quieter operation, longer engine life. Free turning overhead valves, low friction design, Double-Deck intake Manifold and high-turbulence combustion chambers give brilliant new responsiveness... 18% more power, greater economy.

New 115-h.p. I-BLOCK SIX

This new Six has an extra-deep block for greater rigidity, smoother, quieter performance, longer engine life. Free turning overhead valves, high-turbulence combustion chambers, low friction design and Ford's Automatic Power Piston help produce 14% more power... with finer performance on even less gas.

DIVIDEND IN DRIVING EASE

Ford offers five optional power assists* you might expect to find only in America's costliest cars

Master-Guide power steering does up to 75% of your steering work, yet leaves you with natural steering "feel" on the straightaways. Swift Sure Power Brakes do up to one-third of the work in stopping. Fordomatic Drive gives torque converter smoothness and the "Go" of automatic mechanical gears. And only Ford in its field offers Power-Lift Windows, both front and rear, that open or close at a button's touch... and a 4-Way Power Seat that adjusts up and down, as well as front and back, at a touch of the controls. They're all worth-while optional extras available in the 1954 Ford!

NO CAR in the low-price field has ever offered so many "Worth More" features as the '54 Ford. In addition to all the features that have already established Ford as the "Worth More" car, you now get a host of brand new dividends. These include a choice of two new deep-block engines... the most modern engines in the industry. You also get Ford's new Ball-Joint Front Suspension... beautiful new interiors... and styling that will make your heart beat faster.

And, remember, Ford also makes available to you all the optional power assists... features you might expect to find only in the costliest cars.

If you have not yet seen the new Ford models for 1954, come in and inspect them today. Then Test Drive a '54 Ford... and once you do, you'll want to drive it home!

imply that Ike did all this by himself, but he did have a hand in it.

In big industrial centers of the east, north and midwest the talk is of depression. Several thousands of workers in the auto, steel and related industries have been paid off. Here again we are getting what we asked for when we went to the polls at the last election. Ike promised to deflate the worst parts of the inflation. He promised sound dollars. The market is passing from a seller's market to a buyer's market. The dollar is buying a little more than it did, and will probably be worth even more in the future. Most of us will have fewer dollars than we had, but what we have will buy as much.

Ike said that he does not believe that continued prosperity in this country depends on a war economy. That has needed to be said for a long time. Most of us feel that if the only way we can be prosperous in the United States is periodically to send men to war, then we'd rather be poor.

At the close of his speech Eisenhower said that everything gets back finally to the spiritual, that unless we seek and deserve the favor of God, we can never be free or prosperous. Nothing better has ever been said from pulpit or political platform.

It was said of Ike's speech that it dealt in generalities and specified nothing. That was precisely its strong point. The pilot of a plane does not try to be the whole crew. He keeps the craft on its course and leaves it to the rest of the crew to perform the details of flight. It is not the President's business to tell the Congress how to do a thing. Congress was elected to find a way. It is the President's function to point out what should be done. And Ike has done it in a magnificent way.

For some strange reason human nature seems disposed to stone live prophets and memorialize dead ones. Lincoln was made fun of and Christ was unrecognized in his home town. It may be that we see more clearly when the smoke of battle has blown away. But I, for one, want to go on record now as believing that in President Eisenhower America has been able to achieve greatness a great leader, and that we ought to thank God for him. He is one of the few who has more complex processes of peace.
