Body Of Pioneer Ozona Merchant Is Laid To Rest

Chris Meinecke, 83, Lived In Crockett Co. Since 1891

The body of Chris Meinecke, 83, retired merchant and resident of Crockett county since its organization in 1891, was laid to rest in Cedar Hill Cemetery Tuesday afternoon in the presence of hundreds of sorrowing friends and relatives. Mr. Meinecke died in a San Angelo hospital shortly before noon Monday as a result of complications which developed following a broken hip suffered in a fall on the sidewalk in the Ozona business section early in the year.

Mr. Meinecke was brought back to his home here after spending several weeks in a hospital following the fall. He was thought to be improving satisfactorily until a few days before his death when his condition became critical and he was returned to the hospital.

Funeral services were conducted from the residence at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by Clem Wesley Hoover, minister of the Ozona Church of Christ, of which Mr. Meinecke was a lifelong member. Burial followed in Cedar Hill Cemetery, with Joe Oberkamp's funeral directors in charge. Active pallbearers were Tom Smith, Lee Wilson, O. W. Smith, Hugh Childers, Max Schneemann, Floyd Henderson, Rob Miller and Clay Montgomery.

Mr. Meinecke was born in Bremen, Germany, August 26, 1866, the son of Antone and Louise Meinecke. As a small boy, he came to America with his parents, settling in Baltimore, Md., where he received his early schooling. He came to Texas as a young man.

New Window Shades To Be Installed In Hi School Building

Contract for new window shades throughout the high school building here was made by the school board, in called session early in the week, with the Practical Drawing Co. of Dallas, which firm will furnish and supervise installation of the shades under the contract.

The improvement will consist of replacement of approximately 175 window shades, originally installed when the building was constructed. These have become badly worn and faded through use and exposure to the sun. The new shades are to be of 8-ounce duck.

San Antonian Buys City Barber Shop

R. L. Roberts of San Antonio arrived here this week to take over management of the City Barber Shop, purchased recently by Mr. Roberts from Mrs. Mabel Wakefield.

Hoover Sees Europe a 'Starvation' Spot

Former President Herbert Hoover as he appeared before the house foreign affairs committee recently to tell members that the whole continent of Europe would be "a starvation spot" after the war. Hoover urged that congress make a start toward the general European relief program by appropriating $10,000,000 to $20,000,000. Rep. Sol Bloom, committee chairman, holds a paper as Hoover makes notes.

Jurors Summoned For April Term Of Dist. Court Here

Record Points To Busy Term When Court Convenes April 1

With several cases pending in justice court for attention of the grand jury and a number of civil matters on the docket, prospects are that the court will have a somewhat busier session this month than it has had in several past sessions.

The petit jury panel consists of O. D. Busby, George Bunker, W. C. Brock, S. M. Harvey, J. L. Hicks, Jake Young, Dock Lee, Howard Graves, Joe Friend, Bryan McDonald, Kirby Moore, J. C. Montgomery, S. S. Millsbaugh, Jr., W. E. Lucas, J. L. Littleton, F. O. Harrison, C. B. Hudspeth, Jr., Oscar Kost, Joe Patrick, Ury Smith, Elton Smith, W. J. Stevens, Frank Russell, M. J. Read, V. I. Pierce, B. J. Temperature Dips As Winter Makes Come-Back Gesture

After several weeks of balmy Spring weather, old man Winter made a gesture suggestive of a come-back try Tuesday night when a strong dust-laden wind from the north swooped down on the territory, reminding West Texans that possibly the most vicious winter in several years had not had its last say after all.

As a result of the new wintry visitation, temperatures in the area dipped to the freezing point for a short time during the night, the more exposed places showing ice Wednesday morning, and again Thursday morning. The weather rapidly moderated, however, and residents were hopeful again that a killing frost would be averted for a time at least.

Light moisture covered most of this area last Sunday afternoon and night. The fall amounted to little more than a sprinkle, but with the splendid seasoning already in the ground, was of some benefit to the rapidly growing weeds and grass on range lands even as light as was the fall.

Softball Followers Meet Monday to Plan Season's Campaigns

Warm weather of the past few weeks, despite the temporary interruption of this week's cool spell, has quickened the pulse of Ozona's softball enthusiasts and prospects for early action on the softball "front" loomed excellent this week.

So potent has become the enthusiasm in fact that leaders in the evening pastime have demanded a preliminary meeting of followers of the sport for the purpose of organizing for the season's campaigns. Consequently, such a meeting has been set for 5 o'clock next Monday afternoon, with the Stockman office serving as headquarters for the planners. All persons interested in the game are urged to be present for this initial organizing meeting.

Burglars Get $30 Worth Loot From Blacksmith Shop

Burglars, believed to be Mexican boys, entered the O. W. Smith blacksmith shop sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning and carried off about $30 worth of merchandise.

A door in the back of the shop had been taken from the hinges and a carton of tobacco and 12 steel welding tips were missing.

The stolen merchandise was recovered at a local junk dealer's where it was said that a Mexican boy had brought the material in to sell Monday morning. No arrests have been made.

Voters To Choose Four School Board Members On April 6

Crockett county voters will choose four members of the district school board at an election set for Saturday, April 6.

Terms of four members of the present school board expire this year and these four will be up for re-election. Members whose terms are expiring are Roy Henderson, Rob Miller, Tom Smith and Scott Peters. Other members of the board whose terms extend to next year are Paul Perner, chairman, Bascomb Cox and Ira Carson.

To Replace Soil In Front Of High School Building

Six inches of fresh, black soil is to be spread over the entire area of the lawn space in front of the high school building after the present soil has been removed to that depth, it was announced yesterday by Supt. C. S. Denham.

The present soil is so poor that it has been impossible to cultivate an attractive lawn in this space and removal of the soil and replacement with a fresh coating is an improvement that has been contemplated by the school board for several years. When the work of replacing the soil has been completed, it will be sown with Bermuda grass seed.

Contract Let For Concrete Tennis Courts

Angelo Firm Successful Bidder for Surfacing Double Courts

Contract was awarded by the school board in session this week to the contracting firm of Myers and Conner of San Angelo for surfacing of the schools' double tennis courts with concrete.

The concrete surfacing, four inches thick, is to cover an area 86x98 feet, or a total of 8,428 square feet, embracing the area now occupied by the double courts adjoining the kindergarten building and across the street east from the grade school building.

Concrete is to be reinforced with 3/8 inch steel set 18 inches on center both ways, with 3/4 inch expansion joints across the center of both courts under the nets and between courts.

The county road grader is to be used in taking off approximately five inches of soil from the courts, the soil thus removed to be leveled out on the sloping area back of the courts and prepared as a foundation for additional courts to be built in the future.

The San Angelo contractors are expected to begin unloading materials on the ground by the middle of next week and expect to have the finished concrete courts ready for play by April 1, barring interruptions by bad weather.

Holy Week Series Of Services Plan Methodist Church

Observance Climaxed By Easter Service, Cantata at Night

A revival of religious interest is the objective for the Easter observance planned by the Ozona Methodist church, which will consist of a series of Holy Week services beginning Monday night and continuing throughout the week, climaxed by Easter services the following Sunday morning and an Easter cantata to be presented at the evening hour by the choir, augmented by singers from other congregations of the city.

Services will begin at the church each evening during Holy Week at 7:45, with the pastor, Rev. Eugene Slater, leading the worship services. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed Thursday night. During the week, Rev. Slater will have a class for children at 4 o'clock each afternoon, in preparation for their entry into the church Easter Sunday morning. Infant baptismal services will also be held at the Easter morning hour.

Easter Sunday evening, the Methodist choir, with voices from the other churches, will present an Easter cantata, "The Cross Victorious," with music by Clifford Demarest and words by Richard Cecil Pond.

The text of this cantata is divided into three sections, "Accepted," "Rejected," and "Exalted," with an interlude, "The Saviour's Plea," between the second and third.

Beginning with Christ's entry into Jerusalem and the incidents relating to Palm Sunday, the story follows the dramatic trial before Pontius Pilate and the subsequent crucifixion. Easter Sunday is then introduced with the sleeping soldiers near the tomb and the visit of the women at daybreak, who find the tomb empty.

Joe Max Word, son of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Word, is suffering from a sprained ankle received Saturday afternoon while playing sandlot baseball. Joe Max will not be able to be on his feet for about three weeks.

Mrs. Lee Childers is recuperating in a Dallas hospital from a recent operation.

Church Leaders In Lectureship Series April 1-4

Prominent Speakers To Be Here For Church of Christ Program

Some of the state's outstanding leaders in the Church of Christ will appear on the program during a four-day series of lectures and teaching of the Gospel to be held here April 1 to 4 under sponsorship of the Ozona Church of Christ, it was announced this week by Clem Wesley Hoover, minister of the Ozona church.

Programs for the four-day series have been completed and members and friends of the church in this area are looking forward to an educational and inspirational series of lectures, the first program of this type ever arranged here. The series of lectures will be open to everybody at any or all of the series and a number of visitors from nearby towns are expected to take advantage of the event.

The four-day program will open at 7:15 Monday evening, April 1, with a lecture by Leonard Bankhead, minister of the church at Colorado City, on the subject, "The Grandeur of the Church." Sessions Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday will begin at 10 o'clock each morning and continue thru the day until the final evening service, beginning each evening at 7:15 o'clock. The daily programs include two lectures and a round table discussion at the morning session and two speakers and a discussion period in the afternoon, with one lecture scheduled each evening.

Tuesday morning's speakers will be Jesse P. Sewell, minister of Grove Avenue church in San Angelo and former president of Abilene Christian college, whose topic will be "Dangers Confronting the Church," and M. O. Daley, minister at Ricksprings, speaking on "Responsibility of the Church to its Leaders." Discussion periods will be led by Frank Traylor of Alpine and J. B. Nelson of (Continued on Last Page)

Bond Election Sought For New Mexican School

$30,000 Issue To Be Asked For 8-Room Structure

Members of the school board, in a called meeting here Tuesday voted to sponsor a petition to the Crockett County Commissioners Court asking that body to call an election on the question of issuing $30,000 in bonds for the purpose of constructing and equipping a new school building for Mexican children of the community.

Board officials indicated that the petition would be framed and, headed by school board members, would be circulated for the necessary number of signatures in time for presentation to the Court at its April term.

Tentative drawings and estimates on the new structure, on which the amount of the proposed bond issue to be requested was determined, provide for an 8-room building, facilities sufficient for 300 pupils. The tentative floor plan makes it possible to add additional rooms in the future should it become necessary. With a plant of this size, all grade school work and some high school work could be offered the Mexican students. The present Mexican school offers work through the seventh grade.

The school board proposes to construct the new building on the site or near the present building, which will be razed and its materials used in the new structure should the bonds be approved by the voters.

In preliminary investigation of the subject, the school board has secured estimates on several different types of construction, but final decision on the question will await outcome of the bond issue vote. Should the bonds be approved, an architect will be employed to prepare plans and estimates.

Many Additions Resulting From Baptist Meeting

Nine Received To Date Into Church; Splendid Attendance

More additions have been received into the Baptist church here since the opening of the ten-day revival meeting now in progress than have been received at the same point in any previous meeting in the past three years, Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor, who has been doing the preaching, reported the middle of the week. Nine have been received into the church since the meeting began last Thursday, the minister reported. Splendid crowds are on hand for each period of services.

Services are held twice daily, with morning services at 10 o'clock and evening periods beginning at 7:45. A Sunday school is conducted each evening at 7:15 and devotional and prayer period precedes the evening service.

Rev. Sam Cluck, music director of the North Waco Baptist church in Waco, is directing song services, and also teaches a group of youngsters in a Booster Band each evening before the night sermon. The following topics will be discussed by Rev. Childers in his remaining sermons: Thursday night, "The Confession"; Friday morning, "Faultless Christ"; Friday night, "Seven Words from the Cross"; Saturday morning, "Excuses"; Saturday night, "The Brazen Serpent"; and Sunday morning, "Tragedy of Neglect." Baptismal services will be held Sunday night at the close of the meeting.

T. A. Kincaid Jr., left yesterday for Dublin to bring back Mrs. Kincaid and Tom, who have been visiting her parents there the past two weeks.

Spare Parts

Man is like your auto because his engine will keep running after you have removed a whole carload of mudguards, hoods, body parts and spare tires, says Prof. G. H. Estabrook, of Colgate University, in Scientific American. We can get along very nicely on one lung; we can dispense with two quarts of blood; we can do without the parathyroid glands in the neck if we take frequent injections of a substance they secrete; and the stomach may be removed without causing more trouble than watching the diet. The same is true of a part of the small intestine and even of the colon. We seem to get along very nicely without the gall bladder or the spleen, and we can manage quite well on only one kidney. Even the bladder, in a pinch, can be dispensed with in an operation and the same is true of one-half of the brain. True, a man who had lost all of these spare parts would be reduced to his least common denominator and find life a burden, but many of us have surrendered some of them to our surgeons, yet live happily ever afterward. For example, one man, after six months, without a stomach, said he had been in agony for 20 years but now at 40 life had really begun; he was beaming with happiness. Man not only learns to subtract spare parts, also adds some which he finds essential. For example, take away our clothing, rob us of fire, and the wolves could have the entire United States.—Tampa Tribune.

BOOTS, BOOTS, BOOTS!

Lost: Another Hero

These are times that try men's souls. Under their lowering skies, we need such comfort and support as may be in the examples of heroes and great ones who have gone before. But even this slight boon is to be withdrawn. The days of our years are to be black as a Greek tragedy. To the horrors of war must be added the sacrifice of iconoclasm. All was not lost in Europe, we had come to believe, so long as doughty little Holland stood at the head of the small nations and dared to look a dictator in the face. The Netherlands, we felt, could always be counted on to fill the breach and to stem the tide. The Prototype of this spirit was the boy who saved his country by plugging the hole in the dike with his finger that cold night so long ago. But now Robert J. Casey, in a dispatch from The Hague, reports that the Dutch never heard of this lad, much less raised a monument in his honor. He exists only in McGuffey's Fifth Reader, beside the boy who stood on the burning deck. Will these debunkers leave us nothing?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Cheap Money Costly

"In the long run," said a small town banker recently, "it will be the government that will suffer most from its cheap money policy, for it is rapidly succeeding in killing off thrift, the real backbone of its security." Nothing can do more than excessively cheap money to destroy the incentive to save and invest in productive undertakings. And nothing can work a heavier burden on these millions of people who depend for all or part of their livelihood on a little accumulated capital invested in securities or mortgages. The "big fellow" is hit least by cheap money—if you have enough capital, even an extremely low interest return will bring you an adequate income. It is the "little fellow" with a few thousand dollars of savings, who bears the brunt of it.

Maybe Your Business Next

In discussing the order of the department of public safety of the State of Washington giving the technical representatives of government-sponsored utility districts, organized to compete with or take over private companies, "free and unobstructed access" to all the records of the Puget Sound Power and Light company, the Chewelah, (Wash.) Independent says editorially: "This is ordering a business concern to give its most active competitor access to its records—and it's done in the name of government."

"Things like that give us a jolt. We are aroused out of our complacency and smug ideas of democracy with a realization that rights of individuals and private business no longer exist. We have permitted the slimy hands of communism to creep about our throats and the wind is gradually being choked out of us. The action has been so insidious we have been caught napping."

"It matters not what type of private business is being attacked—if the principle is wrong the deed is also wrong. Preservation of our liberties needs our constant vigilance...."

K'ung Fu-tze Say ...

The current rage for jokes and canny aphorisms decked out in pidgin-English and ascribed to Confucius indicates, also, no great awakening of public interest in the ideas of China's philosopher-teacher. Rather it's the response to a fad—and in America a fad can spread faster than a prairie fire in August. We're a nation of wisecrackers, and any new device for refurbishing old nifties is seized avidly and made a national habit over night. It's a case of old wine in new bottles. Some of our best, if not our most decorous jokes in the recent past have been ascribed to Dorothy Parker or hung on Mae West. The Asiatic influence in our diversions has long been apparent in our fickle fondness for yogo sticks, yogo tops, Charlie Chan and Mr. Moto. Now we pay China the dubious honor of linking our bright sallies with its sage, K'ung Fu-tze (Confucius in the Latinized name) to produce a humor which is typically American.—Minneapolis Star-Journal

Trachoma Common, Dangerous Disease

AUSTIN.—Looking out in the world with clear vision is the birthright of each and everyone, according to Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer. Texas has many hundreds of persons that are blind or with impaired vision. These figures would be more tragic if given before the law was passed making it mandatory to use prophylactic drops in the eyes of new born babies. Since then blindness caused by birth infections has been greatly reduced.

In the examination of school children other diseases of the eyes are encountered quite frequently. Chief among these is trachoma. This disease is contagious and causes a destructive inflammation characterized by the formation of trachoma granulations. These gradually form scar tissue. Trachoma, if left untreated, will impair the vision and eventually cause blindness. This happens when the proper treatment is not given or the diagnosis and treatment is not given in its early stages.

Trachoma is most prevalent where poor sanitary conditions exist. The prevention of this disease consists not only in maintaining sanitary conditions. Parents should watch closely for any indication of anything wrong in the vision of their children. Prompt treatment in their early stages, but, if allowed to develop may seriously affect the vision and not cause blindness.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, March 13.—BUSINESS.—While general indexes point to nothing more optimistic than a "leveling off" of the January-February business decline, there are bright spots in the picture, both in the foreground and on the horizon. Here are a few of them: A forecast by U. S. Gypsum officials of a 10 per cent gain in building construction this year; a 10 per cent rise in rayon yarn deliveries for the first two months this year over last; a 6.7 per cent rise in "revenue freight" carloadings for the week, over the same week of 1939. Export trade is going great guns, with metal working machinery and aircraft, of course, leading the parade.

The severe winter has depleted retailers' stocks of overcoats and heavy clothing, pointing to heavy purchasing of woolen goods by manufacturers, with mill operations expected to perk up early in April. Look for some smashing store sales early in April, too. Many stores, because of the early Easter (March 24), are planning big anniversary promotions instead of the routine post-Easter clearances.

WASHINGTON.—Since it is generally agreed that distribution of goods in this country has a long way to go before it is as efficient as our production system, business is watching with especial interest Thurman Arnold's efforts to get funds for a thorough study of distribution costs. He is understood to believe that, after a preliminary review, he can convince Congress it ought to appropriate funds for a deep-digging survey of the situation. Such a study would seek to show when distribution channels are clogged and to spotlight any use of illegal restraints of trade. Distributional problems concerning food would probably command chief interest.

ROLLING ALONG.—Probably there's no industry about whose "saturation point" the man-in-the-street worries so much as the automobile industry. Yet it keeps rolling along near the front of the whole business parade. It just had the best February since that fabulous milestone year of 1929, with an estimated 285,000 units, 37 per cent above February, 1939, and in sharp reversal of seasonal trend. This is highly encouraging to rubber, glass and steel, too.

BITS O' BUSINESS.—Airplanes and airlines still brightest stars in the business heavens. January airplane exports were valued at $25,480,817, which was 421 per cent ahead of that month in 1939—and the British and French governments are getting down to brass tacks right now with the American aircraft industry concerning one billion dollars' worth of business. . . . As for domestic

Furthermore, General Motors is expected to announce soon enlarged plans for aviation, to the extent of building complete planes of its own design—won't be long before some presidential slogan will be "an airplane in every garage." . . . Indicated cotton plantings for this year are only one-tenth of one per cent under the acreage for 1939. . . . Thriving industry is that of smoothing bent auto fenders, what this winter's heavy snows and sleets producing lots of traffic tangles—a St. Louis newspaper reporter visited 15 such shops the other day and found a total of more than 500 body repair jobs had accumulated in 24 hours.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

Why lug the Drum when you can twirl the Baton?

Above is the Buick SPECIAL 4-door touring sedan $896*

YOU never yet saw a band come down the street without someone out in front setting the tempo, while someone back in the crowd obediently thumped in time.

So you'll get what we mean when we ask, right out, why drive a car that's along just for the march—when you can pilot a Buick and show the others the way?

Maybe someday the others will have engines like velvet because they're electrically balanced after assembly; but Buick has them now.

Maybe tomorrow they will have coil springs all around that never need greasing—but Buick has them today.

Maybe sometime you'll get the five-foot front seat room and Foamtex cushions of the SUPER—maybe you'll get direction signals with automatic cut-off as standard equipment—but you can get those things and a lot besides on Buick this year.

Maybe someday you'll get a car as long as Buick for the money, or with a frame as heavy without paying more; maybe sometime there'll be another eight as big and roomy and powerful that's priced like a six.

But why take a chance on those maybes when this honey's here, ready for you to take over right now?

Fact is, when you step into this Buick you take over a car others will be trying to equal for years to come.

So drop in on your Buick dealer. Drop in to talk facts and figures, or drop in to see what next year's cars will try to look like.

But drop in! Soon!

Prices Begin at $895 for Business Coupe - Sedan prices start at $955—

Frank McMullan of Big Lake came around Friday for his fourth Ranch Record book this year. He says that they provide such a satisfactory method for keeping a record of ranch operations that he has bought several for his friends. Mr. McMullan states that range conditions are good around Big Lake, although some rain would be in order.

A new 20-foot Aermotor windmill has recently been installed at the Paul Perner headquarters ranch house.

E. R. Kinser has recently completed the building of a new set of wire pens at the Big Canyon well for goat shearing. Mr. Kinser sheared his goats the first of the week.

While driving down the east highway in his pickup Monday morning, Irvin Norris, foreman on the Dee Finlay ranch, struck an eagle with his car and after dragging it several yards ran over it. The eagle had been eating a jack rabbit killed on the road. The bird had a seven-foot wing spread.

Tom Owens isn't sorry at all that he let his nephew, Horace Bolt Maddox of Junction, take three of his lambs to feed and exhibit in the 4-H club because after winning first place in the show at Junction and first place in the Dallas Fair Exposition, Horace sold the lambs in Eden for 15 cents a pound. "The only trouble is he didn't take more of them," Mr. Owens said.

Charlie Schauer of Del Rio was an Ozona visitor Tuesday.

"I haven't missed my cow a single day yet, but these cows here in Fort Worth are the saltiest and out-kickiest bunch you ever saw." So Margaret Owens wrote home Tuesday. She also says she is having the time of her life.

Concrete water troughs and several feed troughs were built this week in the Floyd Henderson pasture north of Ozona. Water was piped from the house well to the watering place.

While Mrs. Kincaid has been away from home, visiting her family in Dublin, T. A. Kincaid, Jr. has been shining up around the ranch house. Improvements consist of a new yard fence, with a concrete curbing all around, and concrete walks front and back. Mr. Kincaid has also terraced a plot of 11 acres which he plans to plant to feed this spring.

WINTER ISN'T AS DREARY SINCE WE GOT A TELEPHONE

I couldn't call it a dull winter — or lonely either, when I can talk to my friends any time on the telephone, no matter how bad the roads are!

4-Casting

4-CAST: Another "Oxford-plan" English student at the University next year. At least, H. L. is trying to increase his vocabulary. He works crossword puzzles in his study halls!

An enjoyable style show, Thursday, at assembly. However, it is believed, generally, that the high school won't attend if the program isn't free.

A senior girl is going to get too limited to boy friends—the boy's fault, of course.

4-CASTING: The essay meet, an interscholastic league activity, will not have a senior contestant. The league, this year, will depend on lower classmen, it is thought.

Attention Band Students: Last week's 4-casting column stated that the band will go to the contest at Odessa. That depends upon band members as individuals. Either they work and make the band, or they loaf and break the band. Remember, it is less than a month until contest time.

Your reporter wants to remind you that—a sassy remark is a question—it asks for a sassy reply! A kind remark is gentle and heart-soothing—it always gets a kind reply.

Several people, who expect to get on the Lion's Roar staff at the banquet this year, will be sadly disappointed. Girls, the Press club isn't all sugar—there's plenty salt.

Editor's Musings

*SPRING FOOTBALL

Spring football training is now in full swing. The training period is to cover four weeks. The teaching of the fundamentals of football is the chief purpose of spring training. One noted football player once said that practice should be started in January and end in May. This, however, is impossible because of the basketball season and this climate. The prospects for a fine team next year are very bright. Among those who promise to prove their worth are Pee-wee Smith, D. Wilson, B. Hannah, B. Lemmons, L. Wardlaw and R. L. Bland.

There are just four weeks until the Ozona band goes to Odessa, April 6, for the district contest. The band has been working very diligently on the contest pieces and marching and promises to make a fine show at the contest. The band members received some helpful hints on their contest piece, "Hero," when the El Paso College of Mines band played it last Wednesday. The going to contests is very helpful and beneficial, to those who are seriously interested in continuing their band work after high school, as it allows them to hear and see much better bands perform.

The Ozona chapter of the Future Homemakers of Texas received their charter from Austin last week. The club was organized last year with Mrs. Rex Russell acting as sponsor. The chief aim of the club is to encourage recreational and educational activities for students in homemaking education. Another excellent aim of the club is to promote mentally and physically healthful girls and women.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The seventh grade is preparing for commencement program. We do not all have parts yet, but our teacher, Miss Scott, is picking some for us.

Two of our pupils have dropped from the class, leaving 10 pupils. Basil Dunlap is now going thru a clinic.

Tennis Singles Tournaments Begin March 14

Medals Will Be Given To Two Singles Divisions

It was announced at a recent meeting that the annual tennis tournament is to begin on March 14. This year R. L. Springer will be in charge of the tournament.

For the singles, which will come before the doubles, there will be four divisions. First, the junior girls' division, second, the junior boys' division, third, the senior girls' division and fourth, the senior boys' division. Students under 15 years of age may enter the junior contest and students over 15 must enter the senior contest. However, if a student under 15 wishes to enter the senior contest, he may do so.

After all of the singles have been played, the players will be ranked in a ladder order, the winner first, and so on. If a person that ranks low on the ladder challenges a person above him to a game and wins, then he gets to take the person's place that he played.

There have been about forty entries in the singles contest and it seems to be the beginning of a successful season.

Everyone should be in good practice, when the singles are over, and he should know by then who he wants for his partner in the doubles contest. There will be a boys' doubles contest, and a girls' doubles contest. The winners of each gets their name engraved on the tennis championship cup. Medals will be given to the winners of the singles contest.

The doubles are scheduled for sometime in April, which will probably be after the tennis courts have been cemented, which will help the players to be at their best.

Mrs. Elmon Powell Honors Johnny Boyd With Dance at Hotel

Honoring Miss Johnnie Boyd, Mrs. Elmon Powell will entertain with a dance on Friday night at 8:30 p. m. at the Hotel Ozona.

Music will be furnished by "Nick and His Odeons." Dancing will furnish the fun and frolic for the young crowd. It seems as though "jitterbugs" are getting quite common among "our best dancers."

Members of the junior and senior classes and their usual dates are the following: Dorothy Hannah and Miles Pierce, Tincy Kirby and Shorty Colquitt, Helen Mayes and Martin "an old 1936 ex" Harvick, Jean Drake and "another ex." It seems as though our girls with a high school figure and complexion are "stepping high." But getting back to dates—Johnnie Boyd and a 1938 grad, "Dub" Robertson and Noma Miller. Date changing is something new, and I must say, everyone seems quite at ease and well satisfied, even though it is rare among dances and parties.

1939-40 Ranch Country League Winners

A more successful season than this season has not been had by the Lion's basketball team in several years. Pictured above is the competent team that won the Ranch District trophy, and also played in the district meet at Fort Stockton. They are: (left to right) "Skipper" McCulley, Byron Williams, George B. Armentrout, Ed Leatherwood, Howard Lemmons

Joe Chapman, Jim Dudley, Mervin McLaughlin, Vernon D. Wilson, Roy Coates, Billy Hannah, Bland Tandy, Bobby Lemmons and Coach Ted M. White.

Norman Heath Directs College Of Mines Band

"We shall now call on your local bandmaster to direct the College of Mines band, if he will," announced the director of this fine organization.

Walking briskly, Mr. Norman Heath reached the platform. He was given a very big hand before he reached his destination. With a smile on his face, his ears as red as ripe beets, Director Heath stood facing the large organization. "Gosh," he thought, "I wish I had a band as large and good as this one."

(Of course he was comparing the OHS band to that of the C. of M. band.)

"Say, mister," whispered a little alto-clarinete player, "Let's get started before you go to sleep!"

More embarrassed than ever, Director Heath tapped his baton lightly on the music stand in front of him. Up came the 73 instruments together. "Gosh, more fun," thought Mr. Heath.

On the nose of the "down" beat, the 73 instruments started playing, but loud.

Without knowing what he was doing, Director Hugo, pardon, please, Director Heath, held his open hand toward the band members. They immediately softened down. Just about that time he caught the "hang" of what he was doing.

The time came to end the piece of music, and with the usual "stinger," the piece did end.

Feeling very proud of himself, he walked back to his seat in the audience. He was beaten on the back (to make him know that he deserved the applause, not to kill him); he was shaking hands that were unseen by him.

"Gosh, this is swell," murmured Director Heath.

Safely in his room, he at once sat down and wrote his father and mother about the "thrill that came this afternoon."

It is easy to keep a castle that was never assaulted.

THE Prowler

By Howard Lemmons

Shorty is really getting things fixed up for Johnnie's dance. He asked George Ann to ask Johnnie to put him with George Ann. He said that he didn't want to be stuck. Funny how these Juniors act. Figure it out for yourself.

Several OHS girls got their feelings hurt when they weren't asked to be in the style show. The only two that I know who are going to be in are Helen and Dorothy.

Tincy and Johnnie were really having a swell time this past weekend. They were seen riding around with a group of Freshmen. Quite a drop for you, Johnnie.

Norma, did you have company Sunday night? "Bootchie" was missing from a crowd of boys, and we wondered if he was visiting you? Were you "Bootchie"? What's that—you say you weren't the only visitor? My! how popular you're getting, Norma.

Joe Couch went on a rampage one night this past weekend. He went to the skating rink to get Mary Frances Bean, but R. L. had beaten him there by about 10 minutes. Later that night, while Joe was chaperoning Eloise and Roy, Jr., R. L. and M. F. B. were spied out riding. This was too much for Joe; he had to go home.

OZONA JUNIOR HISTORICAL SOCIETY HAS OUTING AT FT. LANCASTER

At 12:30, Saturday, the members of the Junior Texas State Historical Association and their guests met their chaperones at the Ozona high school building.

After a short delay, the party left for Fort Lancaster, where the historical minded group found many interesting facts. The drivers of the cars, after letting the passengers out, resumed their trip to their destination. The others, enjoying the beautiful mountain scenery and exploring some caves, hiked to the fort along the Old Spanish Trail. This trail, which was used by the old stage coaches, freight wagons, and forty-niners, was first surveyed in 1847 and first became frequently used in 1849. Although it has been nearly a century since the road was constructed, it is easily found and followed.

After reaching the fort the observers, guided by a plan of Fort Lancaster, which was taken from a Texas history book, looked over the ruins, finding old chimneys, fireplaces, walls of the sleeping quarters, and several graves which were marked by small tombstones. The State of Texas erected a large granite monument near the center of the fort.

The explorers then went to Live Oak creek for a picnic supper. While the chaperones laid out the food, the other members of the party had a frolic on the creek.

The shoes of the boys who were wading were swiped and hidden by the mischievous girls. The boys, trying to get even with the "evil-doers", removed the girls' shoes and socks and floated them down the stream in boat-fashion.

In the middle of the skirmish, the sound of car horns were heard reminding the picnicers that it was time to eat. The bare-footed girls, overcoming their fear of stickers, rushed to the food, leaving the boys creeping slowly up the bank. Shorty Colquitt, having recovered his shoes at the expense of a freshman, Charles McDonald, carried Roy Henderson "piggy-back," while Joe Couch wore one of Mary Frances Bean's shoes and one of Gladys Wills'. Charles McDonald wore the other unmatched shoes.

When the party had satisfied its appetite with generous servings of barbecued beef, beans, potato salad, fruits, cookies, candy, coffee and iced tea, the member of party continued the frolic by throwing the tea and water at each other. This water fight was ended by putting Tincy Kirby, Noma Miller, Roy Henderson, Joe Couch, and Shorty Colquitt in the creek. Much to Joe's sorrow, the well planned markings on his favorite deck of cards were smudged. Some girls were also grieved, for these cards had furnished their entertainment on the trip to Sheffield hill. Joe, having a remedy for everything, spread his cards out "poker-style" so that they would dry.

The girls returned to the car, while Roy crawled across the gravel bar in the opposite direction to find a place to dry his clothes. Joe and Shorty soon followed his example.

Being weary from the day's excitement, the pleasure-seekers began their homeward journey, led by Wayne West, but he was stopped by a gate tightly wired by some mischief-seeking boys. When he got through, the gate was required to stop the rest of the party. After a car full of girls had succeeded in opening the gate, they were surprised to see coming behind them Roy's car, artfully decorated by the occupants' wet clothes. Shirts were tied to the radio aerial and door handles, while trousers were tied to the taillight and bumpers.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Denham, Mr. and Mrs. Will Baggett, Mrs. Hudson Mayes, and Miss Connor Maddox, Billy Jo West, Eloise Carson, Mary Frances Bean, Johnny Boyd, Noma Miller, Dorothy Hannah, Gladys Wills, Roy Henderson, Jr., Joe Couch, Shorty Colquitt, Wayne West, Charles McDonald, Dick McDonald, Florence Luther, Mildred Luther, Mary Perner, Priscilla Baker, Ethyl Mayes, Tincy Kirby.

Dorothy and Johnnie getting a sun tan on the "Old Spanish Trail" . . . Shorty and Joe having a water fight in the Pecos river . . . The Historical club got "kinda" mad on the way back to town. The water was unexpectedly turned on and the laboratory became a swimming pool . . . Several people being mystified at J. K.'s ability to tell what a card was before he turned it over. "I have eyes to see with!" The cards were extra-special . . . Matches flying. The blackjack players didn't expect Director Caruthers to walk up . . . Very damp (with tea) some people just have to throw things! . . . Suntanned and blistered. It is rumored that some went to Ft. Lancaster in search of knowledge while others went in search of a suntan . . . Very sore: Dorothy took a very graceful (?) fall on the tennis courts. She got the point, though . . . Sore: The spring football trainers have been complaining of sore muscles . . . Wet: Joe and Shorty got a nice bath in the Liveoak creek. Wayne helped Joe dump Shorty. Then he helped Shorty dump Joe. Nice headwork . . . Sore feet: Shoes did a swift disappearing act from the creek . . . Injured: Dorothy "tripped down the hill" into a cactus plant . . . Hit: A tennis ball floated around rather freely in Ec. class Monday.

TASTED—

A ranch style picnic that was de-licious. Especially after the five-mile hike . . . Candy and still more candy. The play practices made a habit of eating candy every day (during the practice) . . . Cookies: Gladys changed the diet one afternoon by furnishing cookies . . . Stolen fruit tastes sweetest: All the fruit, bread and candy mysteriously disappeared from the picnic grounds.

Odessa Show Set For March 21-23 In New Quarters

ODESSA, March 13.—The Sand Hills Hereford Show will open its seventh annual Hereford, sheep, poultry and range type saddle horse show in Odessa on Thursday, March 21, and will continue throughout Friday and Saturday, March 22 and 23. More entries are actually in hand two weeks before the opening of this event than have ever been received previously—and shown during any preceding show.

Despite heavy and unprecedented entry lists, the management announces that they are in prime position to adequately take care of a 100 per cent increase in the number of entries for 1940. This is due to the fact that the annual show in Odessa will occupy its new $75,000 show grounds, which include modern and sanitary stock show barns of structural steel and the most commodious brick auditorium-show ring west of Fort Worth in Texas. Size of the show barns are 70x200 feet, and the brick structure that houses the sales arena and show ring is 90x150 feet, with the show ring itself 60x90 feet. The arena is surrounded upon all sides by elevated and permanent seats of a very comfortable type capable of seating 1750 spectators.

Texas Health, Safety Clean-Up Week Is Set For March 31-April 7

AUSTIN.—The state fire insurance department, in cooperation with the state health department and the state department of public safety, will observe the week of March 31 to April 7 as Texas Health, Clean-Up and Safety Week, Marvin Hall, fire insurance commissioner, announced today.

"This campaign can be conducted in each Texas community at a small cost and a great saving, and the Governor has said in his proclamation that it is in the interest of public health, fire prevention and safety on the highways," Hall stated. The objects of the campaign are as follows: (1) to protect community health, (2) to safeguard lives of Texas motorists, (3) to create a better home life (4) to build up pride of ownership, (5) to increase property values, and (6) to beautify communities.

Model Railway Helps Make Cleveland 'Safest City'

A model railway, in use for the past 10 years, is used to test all applicants for motormen's jobs on the Cleveland, Ohio, street railway. The model railway is an exact replica of conditions the men will face on the city's streets. Left: A test is made of Applicant William Murray's reaction. Right: According to the scoreboard, Murray used "poor judgment" in permitting this "crash." Authorities claim the job test has made Cleveland's streets the safest in the country.

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

AUSTIN.—Practically all of the 20,000 quail which the Texas game, fish and oyster commission will distribute this year have been planted in practically every section of the state, it is announced by the executive secretary of the game department. The birds are obtained from Mexico where they are trapped and are shipped to sportsmen and other persons interested enough in restocking their places with quail to pay half of the cost of the birds.

The policy of distributing quail on this basis has been followed by the Texas department for several years. In addition, the department is planting several thousand birds this year on quail restoration areas which are being set up in various parts of the state with the aid of federal Pittman-Robertson funds. More than fifty of these areas have already been established by the division of wildlife restoration of the state game department and as many more will be completed by the end of the year.

Many of the quail demonstration areas need not be restocked due to the fact there are a small number of birds there. Improving of the cover and food supply is expected to produce sufficient birds on these areas to stock considerable country-side.

MANY QUAIL SHIPPED

Mexican quail, which are used by several states for restocking purposes, are moving through Texas now. It is estimated by the Uvalde Leader-News that more than 100,000 will be sent through the ports of Laredo, Del Rio and Eagle Pass. Of this number the Texas game department gets 20,000 and was able to purchase them, by obtaining bids, at the lowest price in history of game distribution. The birds were purchased for 69 cents each by Texas. Other state are paying as much as $1.30 per bird.

Trapping quail in Mexico is an interesting process. A V-shaped brush fence not over a foot high is constructed, with the point running into a woven wire funnel some ten feet long. Quail herders, upon discovering birds, walk slowly toward them, herding the birds inside the brush enclosures. The birds follow the brush until they come to the narrow opening in the wire trap and walk in. They are then caught and placed in crates to be transported to the United States. It is a simple process, but tens of thousands of quail are captured in Mexico each year.

S. L. Davidson of Bay City, Texas, didn't catch a flying fish recently, but probably thought he did when he got a vicious strike when his artificial lure was in mid-air. Investigating the cause of bait being taken in the middle of his cast the fisherman discovered he had caught a jacksnipe as it sped by. Sims McDonald, his fishing partner, witnessed the unusual catch.

Mickey Hart's new motor car is only a little worse for the experience, but the Texan is wondering how much the bill of a certain cardinal suffered. Mr. Hart parked his car under a live oak tree near Bay City recently and it was not long until a male cardinal, upon seeing his reflection in the side of the automobile started battling it viciously. The "fight" continued all day. It was resumed the following day and it was finally necessary for Mr. Hart to scare the bird which had illusions away by shooting a gun into the air every-time it returned to the running board.

Seniors Score With Ghostly Production Of 'Valley of Ghosts'

Ghosts were on the prowl, lunatics were at large, blood-curdling screams rent the eerie night's air, chills, thrills and spills were provided in abundance when an able cast from the 1940 senior class of Ozona high school presented the annual play, "The Valley of Ghosts" in the auditorium Thursday evening.

As evidence that the audience enjoyed the performance, most of those present went home with ears ringing from the screams that emanated both from the stage and from the audience as the ghostly goings-on unfolded. The class realized approximately $70 from the evening's entertainment for its fund with which to purchase a parting gift for the school.

Members of the cast included Gladys Jean Wills, Dorothy Hannah, George Ann Kirby, Bess Parker, Eloise Carson, Naomi Collard, Howard Lemmons, W. B. Robertson, Miles Pierce, J. K. Colquitt, Joe Couch and Jim Dudley. The management and business staff included Roy Henderson, Jr., W. C. Brock, Harold Keeton, Gene Drake, Johnny Boyd, Mertis Luther and Billy Jo West. The play was directed by Miss Bess Terry and Guinn Caruthers.
