THE VOTER HAS SPOKEN

All over America Tuesday the people voted. And by their vote they decided who would be their leaders for another two years or four years. In every individual case, the voter himself decided how he would vote, decided who he wanted to be his leaders, decided for himself which candidate or party he thought was best for him, his family and his country.

An overwhelming majority of these free thinking, free voting Americans chose their leaders for the next four years at the top level and we think they made the right decision, chose the right men to guide this country in today's troubled world.

By their decision, the people chose to keep America strong and thus to buy for themselves the best insurance against war. A weak America who would abandon her mighty weapons and stop training her young men in such a world as we live in today would invite disaster, not only to herself but to all the world. Americans Tuesday voted against such a risk.

By their decision, the people pointed America more surely back into the American way of free enterprise and individual rewards for individual accomplishments. They liked the turn away from control, direction and dole from government; from bigger and bigger and costlier and costlier government; from government ownership and operation of more and more businesses, from big hydroelectric plants down even to the corner store; from government by crook and crony, and five-percent leeches; from boss control of the White House. In short, the people liked what they have had for the past four years and wanted more of it.

The people in Tuesday's election voted for the man and not for the label. Even in Texas, thank God, they did so, against the advice of Lyndon Johnson and Mr. Sam. The recalcitrant voters in the east-while "Solid South" who by their vote Tuesday repudiated the element which lately has seized control of the Democratic party have by their vote served notice to that party that its label is no longer pure, that under it are hiding men whose philosophies are too far removed from the party's original political tenets to further merit their support. They served notice that hereafter, only men, their principles, their aims and plans and their abilities will command a following, not just a name or label. And that's all to the good for a greater, healthier and stronger America, for it means that Americans can still stand on their own two feet and tell off anybody who thinks he's going to be the boss.

The electronic miracles which assembled, digested, tabulated and disseminated into every nook and cranny of this land, in the shortest time in history, the results of Tuesday's voting is an example of what can be accomplished in a land such as ours, give free men their freedom to dream and create and reap the rewards of their creation.

There are still more frontiers to conquer in America. There are still greater miracles in the making, still higher plateaus of accomplishment, do we but nurture the urge in man for advance and not stifle him under the blanket of paternalistic government, nor coddle him "from the cradle to the grave." Rugged individualism has played its part in making America the greatest nation on earth. There are signs of its rebirth. May it grow again in stature and vigor until never again will America risk one grain of freedom for a granary full of promised security.

Turned Out To Be a Good Break

We had a water main break last Thursday. Happened early in the morning—about two a.m.—and the first thing most of us knew about it was when we tried to turn on the faucets and nothing came out but a hissing noise.

Nobody was inconvenienced much though. Repair crew went right to work—and things were fixed up in jig time.

Incidentally, the water company got a flood of payments on overdue bills that day. Lots of "forgetful" folks must have figured they were being warned!

From where I sit, sometimes our obligations slip our minds. Like the responsibility we all have to our communities... to see that our neighbors enjoy the right to decide for themselves how to work, how to vote, whether or not to enjoy a bottle of beer. Any time we "forget" we owe this right to others, we take a chance on stopping the flow of tolerance that makes this country such a grand place for us to live in.

Grain Fed Steers Slow; Other Cattle, Calves Stronger

FORT WORTH — When a cattle feeder dreams these days, he usually envisions nightmares that include tidal waves of hogs, a hurricane of turkeys, and when he turns to flee he runs into a wall of broiler chickens that seems about to topple over on him.

As meat production reaches its high tide this Fall the record crop of turkeys and heavy broiler output all over the nation have put an added volume of meat before the consumer and in the near future are the holidays, Thanksgiving and Christmas, which always develop chaotic conditions in the meat trade as fowl, game and other competitive foods disrupt the regular family fare.

Despite a sharp drop in cattle receipts around the major market circle Monday, fed cattle were attracting lower bids from most national packers, and improvement in prices was limited to cows, bulls, and slaughter calves. These classes were strong to 50 cents higher at Fort Worth Monday as rains in much of the territory curtailed supplies. Stockers and feeders held steady to strong.

Comparative prices: Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings $17 to $23.50, a few prime to $25. Common and medium butcher steers and yearlings $11.00 to $16.50. Fat cows $10.00 to $13.00; canners and cutters $7.00 to $10.00; bulls $9.00 to $12.50; good and choice slaughter calves $15.00 to $19.50; Cull, common and medium $8.00 to $14.50. Stocker steer calves $19.00 down; steer yearlings $17.50 down. Stocker cows $7.00 to $10.00.

Sheep and Lambs Fully Steady To Strong

Rainy weather in a good deal of the territory held receipts to a fraction of most recent sessions at Fort Worth Monday and prices were steady to strong kinds considered in the sheep division.

Good and choice slaughter lambs sold from $18 to $20, and cull, common and medium offerings sold from $10 to $17. Stocker and feeder lambs were reported from $13 to $16, however, choice feeders were quoted to $17 and above. Slaughter ewes sold from $5 to $5.75. Other grades and classes were scarce.

POLIO — A NEEDLESS RISK

Americans love to take a chance. That's why we have peanut vendors and multibillion dollar industrial giants and a way of life that makes us the most fortunate people in the world.

But Americans neither love nor respect the fellow who takes the "you-can't-win" kind of chance. He is the reason for most of our automobile accidents, our suckers lists, for much of our avoidable loss of life, health and fortune. Until only last year the crippling disease called polio was pretty much like lightning in the sense that we never knew where it would strike and if it happened to it one of our own, there was little we could do but call the doctor, pray, and turn to the March of Dimes to help us face up to the cruel blow.

That isn't so today. With the backing of that same March of Dimes, science has taken better than 80 per cent of the chance out of polio. We have the Salk vaccine. By that high percentage, we can protect ourselves and our children. And those of us who don't take advantage of this tremendous discovery are now taking the "you-can't-win" kind of chance. Yes, your young child or your teenager or — if you are a young adult — you yourself, may go through life and get by without the Salk vaccine. But when we didn't have that vaccine, a certain number of thousands of human beings in America were crippled each year by polio. To those who don't get the vaccine injections, it can still happen.

THE OLD-FASHIONED HAYRIDE

The Senior Intermediate Girls' Sunday School class of the First Baptist church was hostess of a "cut-out type of party" last Thursday night. About thirty boys and girls gathered at the church and "cut a-top a hunk of hay" on their way to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baggett's ranch. The first thing that happened was a weiner roast and then the eating round the campfire. We especially enjoyed the entertainment — a group of songs sung and accompanied, by Joe Pierce. That Joe really has a fine ear for music, and how we wished for much more! The whole group also joined in, after eating all of the hot dogs and beans, and sang a large variety of songs.
Thanks you, girls, for a fine party. Also, our thanks go to the Baggett's for the picnic grounds.

Rail Freight Rate Cut To Drouth Areas Saving To Ranchers

AUSTIN, Texas — Farmers and ranchers in the 233 drought-stricken counties of Texas will save several million dollars as the result of drastic freight rate reductions put into effect by the railroads on shipments of cattle and on carload lots of hay.

This is the third time in four years Texas railroads have slashed rates as their contribution to hard-hit ranchers and farmers. The two previous rate reductions resulted in a saving of more than $22,000,000 to Texas agriculturists.

The freight rate reductions were made at the request of President Eisenhower. A 50 per cent cut in rates for hay in carload lots was immediately put into effect.

Rates were also established for outbound movement of livestock from the drought-stricken areas to western feeding grounds which will permit free return transportation to originating points.

President Eisenhower recognized the fast action by saying: "I know that I speak for our people, especially those in the areas affected, in saying that all of us are deeply grateful to our railroads for this public spirited and prompt action."

Well, in the case of the 1957 Buicks it's true—gospel true.

We mean these 1957 Buicks are new in the precise and literal sense.

We mean new from the ground up, and from gleaming grille to sassy taillights.

Our landscape architect's resources are more varied than they have ever been. He has the benefits of the best of man's efforts in horticulture, architecture and fine arts. He has the materials and resources of civilization and the natural world at his disposal.

We borrow from the past but we make changes to suit our needs. Our gardens are the better for it.

Joseph A. Bertj wrote: "Once upon a time the human problem was: How to achieve leisure and plenty."

"Today the problem is: What to do with the leisure and plenty we have achieved."

So let us all try to work toward more beauty in our gardens.

Lost Child

His dog, a half grown shepherd, was trotting along beside the wandering child. The pair had crawled under a sheep proof fence. Aside from being a bit footsore, the baby was in good condition. Bill Childers, who was in a car with Joe Pierce, walked nearly a mile into the adjoining pasture to get the boy after being signaled by the plane.

"Please say a great big 'thank you' for us to all the good people who helped in finding the boy," said Mr. Allen. "We are deeply grateful to everyone of them, because without their help we might not have found him in time."

While searchers were in short wave radio contact, messages were picked up in Big Lake, Sonora and Eldorado and offers of help were pouring in from these towns.

put the state back in the land dealing business with veterans to the tune of a statewide $100,000.00 bond issue, was approved here 220 to 236. This amendment was approved in the statewide voting in spite of the recent veterans land scandals.

The other three amendments, revising the oath of office for appointed employees of the state, providing for waiver of trial by jury of insanity cases and denial of bail to persons twice convicted of a felony, also carried by about the same margins, as they did in the statewide vote.

A ninth amendment, which authorizes the state legislature to give aid, with federal assistance, to citizens permanently and totally disabled by a mental or physical handicap, will be voted on next Tuesday, November 13, thanks to a muddled clerk or legislator who used the wrong date in the resolution submitting the proposed amendment.

Ballots have been prepared for this one-amendment election here and voting will be at the courthouse in Ozona only. No election on this one amendment will be held in any of the other precinct voting places in town or the outlying county. All voters, whatever their usual voting place, will be eligible to vote at the courthouse box in this instance.
