COMMENCEMENT AT MIDLAND COLLEGE

SPECIAL ADDRESSES BY DEAN W. J. WOOTEN AND REV. I. H. TEEL

Following is a further communication received, having as its subject "Commencement at Midland College:"

Thursday, May 19th, was the closing day of commencement week at Midland College. At 10:30 a. m. the final commencement program was given, at which Dean J. N. Wooten delivered a very able address to the college graduates. This address was to have been given by Rev. F. G. Jones, former president of Midland College, now at C. I. A., but as Mr. Jones was detained, Mr. Wooten kindly consented to fill his place. Known and loved by the graduating class, as well as by others present, Mr. Wooten was an especially forceful speaker.

The class of 1921 is the eleventh graduation class to finish at Midland College, which reminds us that our school is yet very young, as the age of a college is reckoned, and that as a young and growing institution it still has a great future before it. The present drive for Christian education makes us proud to know that our town already has such an institution on foot, and it should make us resolve to stand back of such a good cause.

On Wednesday evening, May 18th, the graduation exercises for the academy and the commercial department were held. Rev. I. H. Teel addressed these two classes. Mr. Teel understands and loves young people and his address on this occasion brought home to more than one young person the value of having a definite and immediate aim in life.

Those to receive diplomas this year were as follows: Lloyd Henry Rhodes, Midland, Texas, college; William Clinton Myrick, Colorado, Texas, college; Leila Francis Smith, Midland, Texas, college; Dewey Otto Wiley, Woodson, Texas, college; Ruby Lois Willis, Marathon, Texas, college; John Richard Alexander, Crosbyton, Texas, college; Jessie Morton, Gore, Texas, academy; Louise Wooten, Midland, Texas, academy; Preston Guthrie, Merkel, Texas, academy; Charles Coombes, Cisco, Texas, academy; Thelma O'Brien, Midland, Texas, academy; Velma O'Brien, Midland, Texas, academy; Annie Belle Watson, Pecos, Texas, bookkeeping; Merle Johnston, Snyder, Texas, bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting; James Carr, Rising Star, Texas, bookkeeping; Ruby Willis, Marathon, Texas, bookkeeping; Veva Rhodes, Midland, Texas, shorthand and typewriting; Mary Swimme, Midland, Texas, shorthand and typewriting; Stella Marshall, Midland, Texas, shorthand and typewriting; Phoebe Hanson, Garden City, Texas, bookkeeping.

Other programs of interest during the week were the commencement sermon Sunday evening at the Christian church by Rev. A. C. Parker, of Dallas; joint meeting of the Platonian and Philadelphian literary societies Tuesday evening in the college parlor, and senior class day on Wednesday morning in the college auditorium.

PREACHES COMMENCEMENT SERMON AT ODESSA

As announced in last issue of The Herald, Rev. O. J. Hull, pastor of the Baptist church of Midland, preached the commencement sermon, taking his scripture from the passage of the Bible where King David wept for the tragic and untimely death of the son who had been slain in the attempt to usurp the kingly authority of his father. "Bringing Back the King," he made the subject of the powerful address which he made before the two young graduates, their teachers and their friends. In forceful language he compared the chaos that reigns throughout the civilized world today, wars and threats of war; capital against labor and labor against capital; communities strife-torn because of the atmosphere that comes from the mad self-centered chase after the dollar, families that have no home life—only a place for the parents and children each to eat and sleep as do boarders; and the father scarcely knowing his son or

COMMENCEMENT AT OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

FIVE PROGRAMS MEASURE TO HIGH STANDARD AND 18 RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

The commencement exercises of our public schools this year measured up to the high standard already set by our splendid system of schools and they were witnessed by record-breaking audiences, at least 600 people being present at each program. The programs, which were five in number, appeared in full in The Reporter of last week, and it will not be necessary to speak of them in detail.

The commencement sermon was delivered in the auditorium of the Baptist church on Sunday morning by Rev. A. C. Parker, formerly of the Christian church of our city, but now of Dallas. Taking as his theme, "The Dreamer," he sustained his reputation as a thoughtful and interesting speaker. He was introduced as a friend of our schools in Midland and of education, a friend of Midland and a friend of the young. The music was furnished by the high school chorus of 160 voices, and the Midland Choral Club, accompanied by a splendid orchestra.

The next program, which should have been given Monday evening but which had to be postponed until Wednesday evening on account of rain, was the May fete, given by the primary departments of central and south wards. This was one of the prettiest programs ever given by our city schools. It consisted of folk dances, fairy drills, choruses, songs, and a May pole drill. It was given on the court house lawn and was witnessed by six or eight hundred people. Too much cannot be said in commendation of the teachers and pupils who gave this splendid program.

The grammar school graduation exercises were given in the auditorium of the Baptist church on Tuesday evening. It consisted of choruses, individual numbers, part-songs, drills, and literary readings, and was the mother her daughter—all these things and their attendant ills and crimes; to the condition of Israel in that day when its king sat in desolation mourning, not alone his material losses and disasters, but more than that the treachery and death of his son.

The King has been dethroned today in fair America, declared the Rev. Hull, has been set aside and ignored in the majority of the homes and the businesses, in social life, in commercial life and in politics, and until, "we bring the King back" things can never be better with us.

It was a most timely sermon, well delivered and one which, if heeded by any individual, community or nation would bring about a wonderful improvement very promptly—Odessa Herald.

participated in by something like 200 pupils, reflecting credit upon pupils and teachers alike, and measuring up to the high standard set by this department in the past.

The high school class day exercises were held in the Baptist church on Wednesday evening. The program consisted of individual numbers by the members of the class, choruses, part-songs, piano and vocal duets, and literary readings and big choruses by the entire school. The large choruses were accompanied by the orchestra.

The graduating exercises proper came Thursday evening in the Baptist church when 18, the largest number in the history of the public schools, received their diplomas. The music was furnished by the high school as on the former evening, the glee club of 50 or 60 boys being a feature of both programs. The literary address was given by Dr. A. S. Pegues, of Southern Methodist University. Dr. Pegues was introduced as a literary man, as one of the greatest teachers in the South, and as dean of this great institution. His address on "Life" was thoughtful, eloquent and inspiring.

In the senior dress contest, Clifford Heath won first, the award being a bracelet watch, given by Lins Bros., of Dallas. Annie Hall won second place, the award being $10, given by Mrs. O. B. Holt and Mrs. Clarence Scharbauer. Lillie B. Williams won third place, the award being $5, given by the Wednesday Club. Mary Fleenor won the R. M. Clayton medal for scholarship with an average of 96.21. Florence Manning and J. Wiley Taylor, Jr. had an average above this, but were barred from the contest because they had won this medal previously.

J. Wiley Taylor, Jr., won the school board medal for general excellence with an average of 97.22. Florence Manning had an average higher than this, but was barred, she having won this medal last year.

Aubrey Brown won the boys' general excellence medal, given by the First National Bank, his average being 95.37. H. B. Dunagan and J. Wiley Taylor, Jr., had higher averages than this but were barred, on account of having won this medal in the past.

Florence Manning won the high school scholarship medal, given by Everts, of Dallas, her average being 97.95.

PARKER ON LIFE, WOOTEN, EDUCATION

TWO SPECIAL ADDRESSES DURING MIDLAND COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

Another successful college year was brought to a close last Thursday, May 19th, at 11 a. m. when Dean Wooten delivered an address on "The Kind of an Education that is Worth While," to the graduating class. Dean Wooten stressed the importance of getting an education that can be used, not to be shown. He also pointed out the importance of making one's education subsequent to the ideals of Christianity.

Dr. A. C. Parker delivered a great sermon to the graduating classes from all departments Sunday evening, May 15th, at the Christian church. His subject was "Life," and he stressed the importance of making our lives as useful for both God and man, as far as possible.

Monday evening, May 16th, the senior class presented "Professor Pepp," at the Rialto Theatre. A write up of this play appeared in last week's Reporter. We might mention that the receipts from this play made possible the paying of all debts on the 1921 "Sandstorm," the Midland College annual.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, the Platonian and Philadelphian societies presented a joint program in the college parlor. A good crowd was in attendance, and the program was very interesting.

Wednesday morning the seniors of the college gave their class day program in the college auditorium. Clint Myrick read a class poem that would be a credit to some of our present day poets. Dewey Wiley played two very pleasing violin numbers; Miss Leila Smith prophesied great things for the seniors, and Jno. R. Alexander made the class will. He very graciously gave the juniors their pennants that the Seniors had acquired early in the school year in a class rush.

Wednesday evening Rev. I. H. Teel delivered the commencement address to the graduates from the academy and commercial departments. Bro. Teel gave one of his forceful lectures, and exhorted the young graduates to go on and on with their educational work. Six academy and eight commercial students received diplomas at that time.

Thursday morning in the college auditorium the senior class received their diplomas. Mention of the address of Dean Wooten has been made in the first paragraph of this article.

The following received diplomas representing the first two years of regular college work: Clint Myrick, Lloyd H. Rhodes, Miss Leila Smith, Miss Ruby Willis, Jno. R. Alexander, and Dewey O. Wiley. Lloyd Rhodes and Miss Ruby Willis will teach next year; Miss Leila Smith will go to one

UPON THE DEATH OF MRS. A. B. HUTCHISON

HER FRIEND WRITES, "A NOBLE WOMAN GONE TO HER REWARD"

Editor Reporter:

Mrs. Harriett Leonora Hutchison, nee Dickinson, wife of Captain A. B. Hutchison, was born February 6th, 1848, and died May 19th, 1921, at 5:30 a. m. Captain and Mrs. Hutchison were married August 29th, 1867. This couple had walked happily together for nearly 54 years. To this union was born three children: Mrs. Minnie Patterson, of Winters, Texas; Mrs. L. C. Proctor and W. A. Hutchison, both of Midland. Mrs. Hutchison was converted and joined the Methodist church in childhood, living a consistent Christian life. Her home life was beautiful; she loved her husband and children with a devotion that was steadfast and ardent. She was respected and loved by all who came in contact with her; she was almost idolized by her husband and children. Three weeks before her death, she called the family around her bed, talking to each one, asking grandson to meet her in Heaven, saying she could not stay but they could come to her. Then requested Rev. Kilgore to sing her favorite song, "My latest sun is sinking down, My race is nearly run; My strongest trials now are past, My triumph is begun."

She was true to every trust and and faithful in the performance of every duty. She will be greatly missed and truly mourned.

Following an illness of more than three months the end was not a surprise. A cheerful heart with a certain fullness of life, her buoyant nature drank in the sunshine and repelled the shade. Life was beautiful to her. In spite of affliction her life was a benediction to her family. In the home she reigned as queen of the household.

Her calm, quiet manner and unselfish service, commanded the respect and homage of all who came within the precincts of her home. The husband and children felt a heavenly peace radiating from her devoted life. The home has lost its brightest light. Yet, naught can deprive the loved ones of the aroma of the influence and sweet memory of her many virtues. These will remain theirs to cherish forever.

At 5:30 p. m., May 19th, 1921, at the home which she loved so tenderly, brief funeral services in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends, were conducted by her former pastor, Rev. J. S. Moore, assisted by the present pastor, Rev. S. X. Swimme, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Midland Cemetery. The floral offerings from friends were numerous. By request of the aged husband, banks of flowers were cut from her own garden where she had labored so faithfully. She loved her flowers and enjoyed so much the giving of them to others. Having labored faithfully for her Master she now rests and enjoys all the good that the Heavenly home has for the faithful. Our hearts go out to the aged husband and family. May God comfort their hearts until they meet again. Sweetly trusting in her Savior, whom her heart had loved so well, she a soldier true to duty, at her post of duty fell.

Her friend,
ETHEL MOORE.

The Reporter would add only a word. Miss Moore and Mr. Gilgore frequently called upon Mrs. Hutchison to sing for her the beautiful songs of the redeemed, and it is fitting that Miss Moore should have offered the above beautiful tribute in memory of this departed. It was the first time the family tie had been broken, and we, as all of Midland, offer our deepest sympathy to these dear friends who are so grieved, but who are so beautifully reconciled to await the brief time when these ties may all be restored.

of the large State schools; Jno. R. Alexander will be in T. C. U., and Dewey Wiley will go to Simmons University next year. Clint Myrick has not decided definitely yet as to what he will do next year, but he hopes that he will be an old (?) bachelor, if not a "Button-buster" for the next few years.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: This is to certify that I strongly endorse the candidacy of Judge Joe Burkett of Eastland, Texas, for the Senatorship of the Twenty-Eighth Senatorial District of Texas.

As County Judge of Eastland County and District Judge of the old Forty-Second Judicial District of Texas, Judge Burkett at all times stood in favor of a rigid enforcement of every law on the Statute books, and especially concerning the laws against immorality and desecration of the Christian Sabbath. I want to especially endorse his positive stand, for aid for the rural schools, for a West Texas A. & M. College, and that portion of his platform in which he favors laws to restrict, if not prevent the immigrant laborers from flocking to Texas and the United States, to compete in the labor market with the American born, American-raised and American-educated citizens.

Should the people of the Twenty-eighth Senatorial District send him to the Senate, in my opinion, the District will be ably, honestly and efficiently represented.

Very truly,
CYRUS B. FROST,
Ex-County Attorney and Ex-County Judge, Eastland County, Eastland, Texas, May 21, 1921.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: It is with pleasure that I endorse the candidacy of Judge Joe Burkett for State Senator from the 28th district. Judge Burkett has been known to me for many years, and he is a man of known integrity, intellectual attainments, strong personality, and in every way especially qualified for such office.

He has, as district judge for Eastland and other counties, been for the enforcement of all laws, and has at all times advocated those policies of government which, if carried out, will be to the best interest of every class of people alike, and result in economy in the administration of the affairs of our government.

If elected to that office I feel confident that he will be faithful to the trust imposed and true to his constituents, having uppermost in his mind their best interests, and I cheerfully recommend him as worthy and in every way qualified.

Very respectfully,
EARL CONNER, Attorney, Eastland, Texas, May 23rd, 1921.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: I have known Judge Joe Burkett something like two years, and practiced before him while he was district judge of the forty-second judicial district of Texas. I was in a position to learn of his qualifications as a judge, and found him to be one of the very best district judges in the State. He possesses a keen intellect for right principles, fairness and justice between his fellowmen.

In my judgment, he is well qualified and fitted for the position of State Senator from this district, and will ably represent the people of the district if elected.

Respectfully,
JNO. D. McRAE, Attorney, Eastland, Texas, May 23, 1921.

YOUNG ODESSA BOY IS VERY ADLY BURNED

Our young townsman, Charley Ellis, happened to a very bad accident Monday night. A few of the young folks had gathered at S. R. McKinney's place, eight miles east of town to have a merry time, and when they started to leave they found that their car needed gasoline. Charley and some of the others went to draw the gasoline out of a barrel, and it being dark, Charley held a lantern above the bucket into which the gasoline was pouring, to see when the bucket was full, and the gasoline exploded, the flames catching his clothes afire. There was a ground tank a few yards away into which he jumped to extinguish the flames. His clothes on the lower part of his body were completely burned off, and the young man was burned badly. A few hours later he was reported not to be resting very well. His brother, however, reports the burns as that of not being very serious.—Odessa Herald.

MISS LYDIE G. WATSON

The following "notes" were given us this week, for us to write up a hay ride enjoyed by some of the younger set recently. It is written with all the joyous spontaneity of youth, when the heart is young, so we publish it verbatim:

On last Friday afternoon at 7 o'clock, thirteen of the merriest hay riders that ever rode in a wagon left for Cloverdale for a picnic. Our temster, Herman, was a bit awkward in giving the "engines juice," so consequently many quick starts and sudden hats were made. The arrival at Cloverdale was at a rather late hour, so beans, potted meats, etc., were viciously devoured and then we hit the water and, oh, boy! she sure was fine, too. Miss Driver was very thankful that the moon was shining, its best for it made her job as chaperon very easy. After a very jovial time and when our "peepers" began to slowly close, we were suddenly awakened by a terrible jar as we went over the T. & P. tracks and as "Klappy" called "Midland!" Then we crawled out of the hay and automatically got home. Those enjoying this merriment were Misses Annie Wall, Quennie Cordill, Jessie Hale, Marie Hoard, Lucile Lee, and Mamie Driver; Messrs. Wesley Henry, Leslie Floyd, Roy Lee, Seth Ingham, Evetts Haley, Herman Klapproth, and "Sandy" Harrison.

Book Show
Library, June 5th, from 8 to 10 o'clock. Everyone invited to come and bring a book.

This announcement should elicit a cordial response from all our Midland folk. We must all co-operate with this movement of re-opening the library. The town needs a library—a competent librarian has been engaged—and during the long, hot summer, it will be quite a solace to go and get an interesting book to help while away a few wearisome hours. So be sure to take a book and attend the shower. A pleasant evening will be spent, a good program and refreshments will be served, so you and your friends be sure and attend.

Miss Mary Melson Beautifully Honored

It has been said that the normal excuse for the social whirl is the love that makes the world go round, the love that leads to orange blossoms and the wedding march. Such a love which has beautified and made radiant the life of a very popular bride-elect was the inspiration of an unusually lovely party last Saturday afternoon when Mrs. O. J. Hull together with the young ladies of the Baptist church entertained in compliment to Miss Mary Melson at the former's attractive home. Miss Melson has only been in Midland one school term, but her winsomeness and charm of manner, her graciousness and cordiality to all whom she met has endeared her to her students and made her a favorite with our entire town. Utterly void of all affectation and studied aloofness she is one of the most popular teachers Midland has ever known. This popularity was made manifest Saturday afternoon by the large number of our folk who were present at the party and by the number and beauty of the gifts with which she was showered. And it was so typical of Midland, "Out where the hand-clasp is a little stronger, Out where the smile dwells a little longer," in Midland—where the West begins. The marriage of Miss Melson will be solemnized at her home in Denton on June 16th. The groom elect is Mr. H. A. Carter, who is in the wholesale grocery business at Stamford, where the young couple will be at home after a bridal tour through Arkansas and Louisiana.

The grocery idea was therefore cleverly developed throughout the entire afternoon. First a brief musical program was given by Misses Lydie G. Watson, Clifford Heath and Mrs. Ben Cowden. Then the guests were bidden to the dining room where gracing the table were a number of household articles such as blueing, peppercorns, etc., but so camouflaged that one could never imagine what they were in their native dress. Mrs. Homer Rowe guessed the greater number and received a cunning little kewpie bride, which she graciously presented to the honoree. Then in response to a ring of the door bell, Leola Bigham, also camouflaged almost beyond recognition, entered. Her straw hat and striped coveralls converted her into a saucy looking "grocery boy." She carried an immense and marvelously developed "cabbage" which she presented with appropriate verse to the bride-elect. This lovely work of art proved to be the receptacle for quantities of silken things, embroidered linen and a beautiful array of gifts so alluring to the heart of the sweet bride-to-be. Miss Melson's radiant face showed that she felt she had reached Paradise—her friends were angels and her own life—beatitude.

Her enthusiasm was contagious, for each one present wholeheartedly rejoiced with her. After the gifts had each been admired, a delicious ice course was daintily served. Congratulations were then cordially extended Miss Melson with the wish that the happiness of the occasion will be only an earnest of the gleaming years yet to come.

Miss Melson will also be missed for she has been faithful in all things—to her school duties, her friends, her church work, as Sunday after Sunday her sweet voice has caroled its message to the hearts of the Baptist congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norwood were summoned to Kerrville last Tuesday by a message announcing the death of his father, and soon after the first telegram came a second one was received stating his mother was critically ill. The sympathy of The Reporter are with our friends, Messrs. Frank and Andrew Norwood in their double bereavement.

Honoring Miss Marchman
A pretty hospitality in compliment to Miss Verna Marchman, who is visiting her uncle, Mr. Billie Sparks, was given last Tuesday evening by Miss Fanny Bess Taylor. Bridge was the happy diversion for the evening and at the conclusion of the games a most delicious salad course was served to the following: Misses Marchman, Mamie Moran, Cordelia Taylor and Mrs. Harry Nebliitt; Messrs. Billie Sparks, Roettger, Mims and Epley.

Tucker-Roland
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tucker received a message Wednesday that their young daughter, Miss Mary Lou, was married to Mr. R. J. Roland, Jr., of Houston. It is naturally a grief to the father heart and the tender mother heart that their daughter, so young in her sweetness and girlish beauty should assume so serious a responsibility, but Cupid with clever artifice sends his arrow straight to the heart of the maiden while her cheeks are yet glowing, her eyes gleaming and her smiles still shedding sunshine. Mary Lou, who is especially talented in music, has been in Houston the past two years, living with her cousin, Mrs. W. J. Roland, nee Miss Roxie Tucker, studying and has so excelled in her chosen art that next year she would have graduated. Mr. Roland, the young groom, is in the wholesale grocery business in Houston where they will reside. The families are well known to each other and many friends join with these in the loving wish that the young couple, yet unspoiled by the world, but who have stepped over the threshold of youth to enter the bigger, greater kingdom, may receive as their heritage Heaven and earth's choicest blessings.

Misses Reba and Roxie Nugent are at home for the summer, Miss Reba from Dallas where she has been studying voice and expression, and Miss Roxie from Eastland, where she has been teaching.

FOUR THOUSAND FORD CARS DAILY

PRESENT PRODUCTION GREATER THAN FOR SAME PERIOD LAST YEAR

Ford is building cars at full speed. And according to an official statement from the factory at Detroit, the demand for Ford cars and trucks still exceeds the output, despite the fact that a new high level of production has been reached.

By the first of May the figures represented daily production were in the neighborhood of 4,000 a day, so the May schedule was set at 101,125 cars and trucks, not including the output of the Ford Canadian plant or any of the foreign assembling plants. The output mounted daily; May 12th brought forth 4092, the greatest number that have been produced in one day so far this year. Since the month has 25 working days, present indications point to a new high record.

A comparison of Ford production figures for 1920 and 1921 discloses the fact that for April, 1921, the output was greater by 34,514 than for the corresponding month of a year ago. The output for May, 1921, will probably overshadow May, 1920, by between fifteen and twenty thousand cars and trucks.

Approximately 43,000 men are at work in the Detroit plant of the Ford Motor Company. The factory is operating on full time, six days a week and three shifts a day.

"We were never in a better condition than we are right now," said Henry Ford recently.

ROBY PLANS ADDITION OF NEW FACTORIES

Roby, Texas, May 21.—Plans for an ice plant, to be built in the early fall, have been completed, and the building of a flour mill is now under discussion. The new electric light plant, equipped with modern machinery, was recently completed.

Washington, May 21.—Prohibition enforcement in the United States is to proceed along the line of interpretation of former Attorney General Palmer without waiting for further congressional action to tighten the Volstead Act. This was definitely determined today. It means that new regulations liberalizing beer and whiskey prescriptions by physicians are to be issued soon after Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair takes office.

Proposed amendments to the Volstead Act to stop the prescription of beer as a medicine are still under consideration by the Judiciary Committee of the House. It may be several months before they are enacted and their final form is indefinite.

Meantime, the Treasury has decided definitely to go ahead with enforcement on the basis of the original act as interpreted by the former attorney general and other authorities.

New regulations authorizing the prescription of beer have been formulated and printed. They have been approved by Secretary Mellon and, if approved by the new revenue commissioner, will be issued.

New whiskey regulations are in the same form precisely. They set aside the former ruling that only 100 prescription blanks should be issued to any one physician in a period of 90 calendar days. They provide instead limitation on prescriptions carried in the law of not more than one pint in any ten-day period to any one patient.

Both sets of regulations have been passed through the prohibition office and through that of the commissioner of internal revenue and the office of the secretary of the Treasury. Secretary Mellon is holding them largely as a matter of courtesy for the consideration of next commissioner of internal revenue. In well-informed circles here there is little doubt that he will approve them.

LABOR UNIONS RAISE FUNDS IN MEMORY OF J. S. HOGG

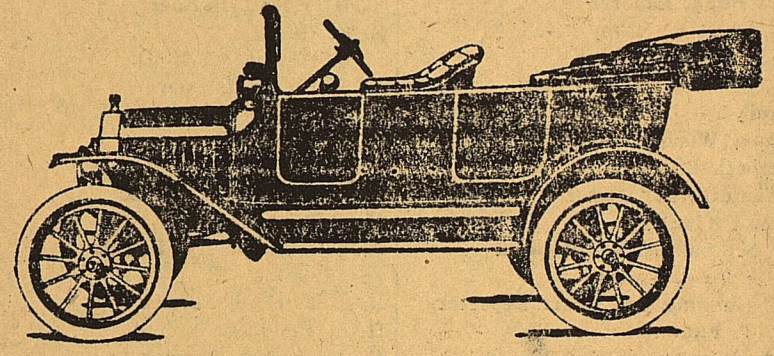

Austin, Texas, May 23.—Plans are being made by the union labor organizations of the State to raise a fund of $100,000 for the endowment of a chair at the University of Texas in memory of the late Governor James S. Hogg. At the recent annual convention of the State Federation of Labor the proposition of making this endowment was indorsed and preliminary steps taken to bring its accomplishment. Governor Hogg was a great friend of labor, it is pointed out. He was especially sympathetic towards members of the printing craft for the reason that in his early manhood he followed that vocation in a country newspaper office in East Texas. It is expected that the entire $100,000 will be raised in short order. The nature of the chair to be endowed will be left to the Board of Regents and the president of the University, it is stated.

IT PAYS ALWAYS TO CARRY A SPARE TIRE

Why spoil the pleasure of a motor trip by setting off without a spare tire? With a view to economy many drivers are carrying no spares today, but it is a form of economy that does not pay. A spare tire of good quality is one of the absolute essentials for a car—it is the tire you depend on to bring you home.

The spare ought to be covered to protect it from the effects of sunlight and heat, says the United States Tire Company. Sunlight has a bad effect on rubber even in the coldest weather, for it produces a "cracking" or "checking" on the surface which rapidly extends to the interior, causing deterioration. Heat has even more destructive effect. Spares sometimes are carried uncovered near the exhaust. This is poor practice if the heat strikes an uncovered tire directly.

AUTOMOBILE TIRES ARE GETTING BETTER

One of the noteworthy features regarding the manufacture of automobile tires in this country is the fact that during the last five years tires have improved so greatly in quality that the average number of tires used on an automobile during a year has dropped from five to considerably under four.

This drop has come, too, in the face of an increase in winter driving so large as to be a vital element in the calculation. Many cars now operate twelve months in the year but in spite of this increased period of service, the average annual consumption of tires per car has steadily fallen.

With the return to normal times and with money less plentiful, car owners are certain to watch their expense bills more closely. The exercise of only a moderate degree of care by the car owners will lift the average mileage secured from tires to a point many thousands of miles above any hitherto reached.

So far as known, the best record ever made on a set of four tires was that of a Boston merchant who got 39,152 miles on a set of United States Royal Cords. He attributed this phenomenal record to the care given to the tires by his chauffeur.

W. R. Rhodes and family left the first of the week for Pecos, where they will make their home in the future. We were hoping they would remain permanently in Midland, but we commend them highly to the people of Pecos, and wish them all good luck.

LEGION ROLLERS UNDER THEM

Ex-Service Men Promptly Halt Exploitations of Pro-German Troublemakers.

In response to the warning issued by their national commander, F. W. Galbraith, Jr., American Legion members in many parts of the country have been active in fighting against efforts of pro-Germans and other hyphenated persons to drive a wedge between America and her allies in the World war.

Twenty-five thousand patriotic citizens of New York attended the "All American Meeting for God and Country," which was held in Madison Square Garden under the auspices of the Legion, as a protest against a previous pro-German meeting, said to be for the purpose of creating sentiment against the alleged "Horrors on the Rhine."

When word was received in Philadelphia that Dr. Edmund von Mach, notorious German propagandist, was planning to hold a meeting in that city, Legion members and other patriotic citizens opposed the proposition and succeeded in blocking the scheme.

Similar action was taken by the Legion and various societies in Indianapolis. Among the organizations cooperating with the Legion was the national executive committee of the American Gymnastic union, composed of a large membership of citizens of German extraction, which insisted upon unhyphenated citizenship and scored Von Mach and George Sylvester Viereck. On the same day the Indianapolis board of public works announced it would not permit the use of its large convention hall for the proposed Von Mach meeting.

Learning that Louisville was on the proposed itinerary of Doctor Von Mach, the Kentucky department of the Legion instructed posts to use "every lawful means practicable to stop the threatened invasion of Boche propagandists." The Kentucky Legion's bulletin also warned against the activities of Viereck.

Legion posts have also opposed the hyphenates in Chicago, Cleveland, Omaha, Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

THREE VOICES AT ONE TIME

Minneapolis Legion Man Can Sing Tenor, Bass and Baritone Parts Simultaneously.

Wonder voices have been heralded the world over, at least since the inception of the press agent. But it was left for Joe Kaufman, a former army sergeant and an American Legion member in Minneapolis, Minn., to sing the first male trio simultaneously, carrying the parts alone with the same harmony and control of three singers.

Kaufman is a government music student.

The secret of Kaufman's unusual accomplishment has baffled voice experts as well as himself. Several years ago he discovered his ability to produce overtones which gave the sound of more than one part. He entered the MacPhail school at Minneapolis as a government student and, as his voice strengthened and became clearer, he developed the curious trio.

The only case remotely similar to that of Kaufman, according to his instructor in the government school, is that of a woman singer in whose voice could be distinguished one separate overtone, over which she had practically no control. The former soldier in some way has separated and controlled tenor, bass and baritone parts simultaneously.

LEGION MAN BUSY WITH B'S

Buckeye Boy Bends, Bows and Borrows Bad and Beautiful Bonus Boosting Babbie.

"Apt alliteration's artful aid" was not neglected when an Akron (O.) member of the American Legion spun the following bonus yarn:

"Burt began to bitterly berate the 'bull' about the bonus bill, bewailing the benighted bigotry of the belligerent birds, badly blocking the bonus by bombastic blusterings and brabble, and branding the busted bucks who bore the brunt of the battle as badgers and booty-burglars of billions in bonds, believed by big, bald business brow-beaters to belong buried in banks.

"Before our bewildered Burt boarded a boat to become a battle-scarred vet beyond the borders of our bright, beautiful, big country, he became a benedict; and, back from the battles, busted and barren of bullion, our benighted boy hero became beautifully bored because big bibulous bunco men breathlessly built a bunch of back-hand lies to bribe him by a bunk promise of a bonus.

"But Burt isn't badly brow-beaten by the bedraggled babbie of a bonus. Blythe, buoyant and bubbling, hiding his time, Burt, the benedict and battle buddy, and Beulah, his bride, believe the bully and bumptious idea that a beneficent bunch of birds will be brought to believe that big battles beat the Boche and busted bucks need bread; and before beaucoup belated years pass a bonus bill to bring the bacon back to our buddy, Burt.

WOULD PROBE LEGION CLAIMS

International Association of Rotary Clubs, Shocked at Reports, Orders Nation-Wide Survey.

Aroused by charges of the American Legion that the government has failed in its duty toward disabled veterans of the World war, the board of directors of the International Association of Rotary Clubs has ordered a nation-wide survey of the situation "to prove whether American Legion reports are based on hysteria or upon actual facts."

The Rotary organization has endorsed the Legion's consolidation program for the relief to the disabled and will support the Legion's efforts to obtain its enactment into law, according to Chesley H. Perry of Chicago, secretary-general of the Rotary clubs' organizations.

"The 50,000 American business and professional men who form the 800 Rotary clubs of the United States, have started out to gather the actual facts in their respective communities with regard to the manner in which the United States government is handling the cases of disabled ex-soldiers," Mr. Perry stated in a letter to F. W. Galbraith, Jr., commander of the Legion.

"The Rotarians have been shocked by the disclosures made by the American Legion regarding the circumstances surrounding the rehabilitation of Uncle Sam's disabled ex-service men. Each Rotary club is appointing a special committee to investigate conditions in its community and report to the club. Every club will then report to the headquarters office of Rotary in Chicago. The result will be that from 800 communities in every part of the United States will come evidence of business and professional men to prove to the American people whether or not the American Legion reports are based on hysteria or upon actual facts so revolting and heart-rending as to cause the whole American people to rise in their might and do justice to the men who sacrificed themselves for their country."

The Legion's national commander asserted that his organization will welcome the Rotary investigation.

"I hope its findings will be given the widest publicity," he said. "It will be found that the Legion has not overstated the case in any particular."

LEGION MAN IS LEGISLATOR

California Member of National Executive Committee Also Serves as Maker of Laws.

Although he was forty-one years old when the World war started, Charles H. Kendrick of San Francisco, Cal., member of the national executive committee of the American Legion, served with distinction in the army, and was cited by General Summerall, commander of the Fifth Army corps, "for display of exceptional devotion to duty while under bombardment to the enemy's guns" during the Meuse-Argonne offensive.

Mr. Kendrick was educated in the public schools of San Francisco and is engaged in the selling of real estate and development of agricultural lands.

Commissioned a captain in the Remount service in August, 1917, Mr. Kendrick trained at Camp Dix, N. J., and was sent overseas in July, 1918, attached to the Twenty-sixth division as remount officer. He served with that division during the St. Mihiel drive, and at the opening of the Meuse-Argonne push was made remount officer of the Fifth Army corps. After the armistice he was promoted to major and discharged from service in February, 1919.

Mr. Kendrick's devotion to Legion affairs during the time he was a member of the state executive committee led to his selection as representative of California on the national body.

Press Women Are Interested.

The Women's Press club of New York city has become interested in American Legion welfare work and has adopted a ward at Fox Hills hospital, Staten Island, New York, containing 65 disabled veterans. The club's committee visits the hospital twice a week supplying the men with articles of clothing, tobacco and reading matter. An idea sponsored by the club of providing "gardenettes" or window boxes for the various hospitals where ex-service men are being treated has become popular with relief organizations. The school children of Leonia, N. J., collected funds and bought a window box for the hospital.

Virginia Auxiliary Convention. The first convention of the Women's Auxiliary of the Virginia Department of the American Legion will be held May 13 and 14.

AN ALL-AROUND LEGION MAN

Michigan's Newly Appointed Head of National Service Division is Equipped With Information.

A sailor, a traffic cop, a first sergeant, an assistant provost marshal and a patient in army hospitals for almost two years, Albert E. Haan of Michigan, newly appointed head of the American Legion's national service division, is well equipped to minister to the needs of ex-service men.

Mr. Haan gained the rank of captain on the battlefield and was severely wounded in action at Evigny, France, while serving with the Thirty-second division. In Walter Reed hospital, Washington, for more than a year, he found out what the government intended to do for the wounded by studying plans and legislation concerning the subject. Discharged from the hospital last fall, he was made a special representative of the branch of war risk insurance.

In army and navy camps he was instrumental, through the American Legion, in causing the reinstatement or conversion of $5,000,000 in war risk insurance. In Michigan last November, as field representative of the war risk bureau, he directed a cleanup of hospital, insurance and compensation claims that placed the state ahead of all others in welfare accomplishments.

During the campaign he investigated the condition of ex-service men in the state prison at Jackson and the insane asylum in Kalamazoo. He worked with the Legion's welfare department to cause the parole of 150 men last year to the Legion. He obtained $300,000 in funds raised during the war and used it in settling claims, relief of the disabled and their dependents and in untangling insurance difficulties and remedying hospital conditions.

Mr. Haan is twenty-eight years old. Coming out of high school, he entered the United States navy as an apprentice seaman. He served four years on the U. S. S. Idaho and was discharged as a quartermaster, second class. He then became a motor and traffic policeman in Grand Rapids, Mich. In 1916, he went to the Mexican border as a first sergeant in the Michigan Infantry. Before he entered the lines in France, he was assistant provost marshal at St. Nazaire, as a first lieutenant. Before the battle in which he was wounded, he had served in three offensives.

BOOKS FOR DISABLED HEROES

Congress Appropriates $100,000 for Reading Material for Soldiers Confined to Hospitals.

Disabled heroes of the World war are not to be without good books to read while they are fighting to regain health in the hospitals of this country. Congress has appropriated in the civil sundry bill the sum of $100,000 for the purchase of books, "with the result that each of the 23,000 disabled veterans will soon have three or four new books to read.

The American Library association, which still has charge of the libraries in the larger hospitals, has been embarrassed by a shortage of funds, and up to this time posts of the American Legion have taken over the duty of supplying books to the disabled in hundreds of the smaller hospitals. The appropriation by congress does not mean that either the services of the American Library association or the American Legion in this respect are to be dispensed with, but that they are to be greatly augmented and reinforced.

CREED OF THE DISABLED MAN

Afflicted Fellows of Washington, D. C., Post, Look on Brighter Side of Things.

Disabled veterans of the World war, nearly all of them overseas veterans and members of the Walter Reed post of the American Legion in Washington, D. C., have adopted what they term, "The Creed of the Disabled Man," which, called to the attention of President Harding upon a recent visit to the hospital, was by the President pronounced fine. The "creed" reads as follows:

Once more to be useful—to see pity in the eyes of my friends replaced with commendation—to work, produce, provide and to feel that I have a place in the world, seeking no favors and given none—a man among men in spite of this physical handicap.

Cost of Living in Paris.
The cost of living in Paris is not exorbitant for an American, who is paid in American dollars, according to a letter from a member of the Paris Post of the American Legion.

"Beware the big restaurants and duck into the side streets unfrequented by tourists," the veteran warns. "I had a fine meal today for 8.50 francs, or about fifty cents."

"The menu included: Friture de la Loire, 1.50 francs; omelette champignons, 2.25 francs; Chateaubriand (which is fried spuds and watercress), 2.50 francs; celeri braise, 75 centimes; macaroni, 75 centimes and fromage, 75 centimes.

"And after the meal, cafe cognac for 95 centimes!"

MISS LYDIE G. WATSON who has been a piano student of the most eminent instructors of Galloway, Searcy, Ark., Landon Conservatory, Dallas, and American Conservatory, Chicago, Ill., now has her studio open for the term 1920-21. The highest standards maintained. Thoroughness the slogan. Study with definite aim.

A SPECTACLE believed to be almost unique in American history and one that has given tremendous impetus to the nation-wide fight of the American Legion to obtain at least simple justice for sick and disabled heroes of the World War, was staged in the thriving little desert city of Tucson, Ariz., recently.

Led by Gov. Thomas E. Campbell and national, state and local representatives of the Legion, the entire citizenry of the community brought every business activity to a standstill for a day while more than 5,000 men and women in overalls or other appropriate working garb, drove their automobiles to Pastime park, three miles north of the town, and labored with their hands to expedite construction of an emergency public health service hospital for tubercular ex-service men.

Governor Campbell, E. J. Winslett, national vice commander of the Legion; State Commander Bert H. Olligan, Mayor O. C. Parker and hundreds of other prominent business and professional men of the city and state appeared in real working clothes and manipulated shovels, picks, hammers, saws and wheelbarrows in the greatest frenzy of activity the community had ever known. The immediate result was that the emergency institution which government engineers originally had estimated it would take three months to build, was brought to virtual completion within one week, and more than 500 tubercular derelicts of the war who had been unhospitalized and partly shelterless, suddenly found themselves with a roof over their heads.

The whole demonstration was planned and carried out within a little more than 48 hours, while Governor Campbell and State Legion Commander Olligan made flying trips from Phoenix to address a mass meeting under legion auspices at the armory on the evening preceding the park event, and to participate in the "heavy work" there next day. The chief executive of the commonwealth pushed a wheelbarrow full of rocks, drove an ex-army truck and wound up his strenuous afternoon with an impassioned plea to Tucsonians and all good Americans to get together and stand squarely behind the Legion in "the most important movement now starting here for the benefit of disabled ex-service men that has yet begun in the United States."

At the conclusion of his address, the overalls the governor had worn during the afternoon, and which figured conspicuously in several hundred feet of "movie" film unwound by a Pathe News camera man, were auctioned off to the highest bidder, the Morgan McDermott post of the legion at Tucson. Approximately $200 for the benefit of a welfare fund for patients at the hospital was realized from the auction, each bidder being obliged to hand over the sum offered, irrespective of whether it was high enough to get the clothes. The bid of the Legion Post was $70.

The attention of F. W. Galbraith, Jr., the legion's national commander, was first attracted to the Tucson situation after H. D. MacArtan, the public health service physician in charge of the hospital, had gone to Washington and reported that more than half of the 128 patients then in the institution were sleeping in condemned army tents, and that there were approximately 450 other tubercular ex-service men entirely unhospitalized in the community as a result of the congestion which followed the usual influx of "white plague" victims at this season of the year. These 450 men in dire need of the care and treatment they were not receiving, were distributed through the community with such limited housing facilities and shelter from the extreme cold of the desert nights as their weary wanderings happened to bring them.

Commander Galbraith sent E. J. Winslett, national vice commander of the legion, and a representative of the American Legion News Service to Tucson to see what could be done to remedy the situation. Their instructions were to do all possible to speed up construction work, co-ordinate the efforts of all community interests and visualize the local situation as an object lesson to thrust "under the nose of congress" in the legion's national fight for justice for the nation's heroes of two years ago and the legion's comrades then, now and always.

Governor Campbell was in the East at the time and assisted Dr. MacArtan in inducing Director Chomely Jones of the bureau of war risk insurance and other government officials to bring about the cutting of a vast amount of red tape. Dr. MacArtan finally returned to Tucson with authorization to spend approximately $300,000 for the erection of an emergency hospital, and he brought with him George E. Kirk, a federal engineer to whom with his assistants much of the credit for the record-breaking completion of the project is due. Governor Campbell placed state workmen, materials, trucks and tools at the disposal of the government and there was from the beginning a hearty and enthusiastic co-operation on the part of the business and professional men of Tucson, as well as the citizens generally.

Arriving at Tucson, Mr. Winslett surveyed the situation and then called a conference of legionnaires and state and municipal public officials and business men.

At the conference he told of the legion's nation-wide fight, just beginning, to obtain justice for the derelicts coming back from the war and appealed to all organizations and agencies to make a united stand for a square deal for those who offered their all to their country in time of need and have become victims of neglect, inefficiency, red tape and dereliction of duty as their reward.

The following evening a mass meeting was held in the Tucson armory, with Governor Campbell, National Vice Commander Winslett, State Commander Olligan and James R. Dunseath, a prominent Tucson lawyer and business man, as the principal speakers. An informal dance under the auspices of the legion post followed the meeting and Governor and Mrs. Campbell led the grand march.

The following day was proclaimed a holiday by Mayor Parker and every store, factory and business establishment of every description closed its doors.

Women and girls of the community took an active part in the demonstration, and members of various women's clubs and civic organizations entered wholeheartedly into the spirit of the event and backed it one hundred per cent.

In every sense, it was a red letter day in the history of Tucson, Arizona, and America, and an exemplification of the unity and unselfish co-operation which animated the whole nation during the war and which rarely, if ever, has been so conspicuously displayed in this country since the signing of the armistice.

Reverse English
Business Language prints the following amusing advertisement from an Oriental paper with a section printed in English:

"The news of English we tell the latest. Writ in perfectly style and most earliest. Do a murder commit, we hear of and tell it. Do a mighty chief die, we publish it in borders sombre. Staff has each one been collected and write like the Kipling and the Dickens. We circle every town and extortionate not for advertisements."

Getting His Trousers Ready

The squire of the neighborhood was just leaving after a call on Mrs. Maguire. "And your son, Mrs. Maguire?" said he as he reached for his hat. "I hope he is well. Busy, I suppose, getting ready for his wedding night?"

"Well, it isn't him that is busy; it's me, squire," answered the beaming mother. "He's upstairs in bed while I'm washing out his trousseau."

PRECAUTION AGAINST FLIES AND MOSQUITOES

The Texas Public Health Association has issued a warning to the citizens of Texas against the menace of the house fly and the mosquito.

The common fly is sometimes called the typhoid fly, as it causes much typhoid fever. It also helps spread cholera infantum, tuberculosis and many other diseases. To eliminate this menace we must destroy the breeding places of the fly, among which the most important are cess pools and filthy stables.

It takes the eggs a week to hatch, so the rubbish and other breeding places of the common fly should be removed or disinfected at least every five or six days.

The ordinary mosquito is called the malarial mosquito, because by its bite the larger portion of malaria is transmitted. The mosquito is also capable of carrying a number of other diseases. The breeding places of the mosquito are stagnant water, slops, dirty troughs, outhouses, spittoons, etc.

To combat this evil no water should be allowed to become stagnant. If it is necessary to have a standing body of water, it should be covered with oil. Other breeding places should be kept in a sanitary condition. When throwing away old tin cans, a hole punched in the bottom will prevent water collecting.

It has been definitely shown that a mosquito can fly only 1-2 miles. After all precautions have been taken the home should be securely screened so that no fly or mosquito can gain entrance, and thus expose the family to disease.

Under the leadership of Sidney the University throughout the session. Under the leadership of Sidney P. R. R. MAIL CLERKS PRACTICE SHOOTING

San Antonio, Texas, May 21.—Railway mail clerks here are following the example of local bank employees and others who might have to use a gun in the pinch, and Friday ten of them began practicing on the municipal range with the revolver. E. Arnold was in charge of the practice and some rather good shooting was done for the first time out.

"OVER THE TOP" FOR "THE SANDSTORM"

Students of Midland College are grateful to the people of Midland who so loyally supported the school activities through the year. It might be of interest to them to know that "The Sandstorm," the college annual, was successfully financed and that a nice little sum left over was applied on last year's annual debt. This annual chronicles one of the most successful years of M. C.'s history and that it should go "over the top" in such grand style is only fitting.

"Before we were married," said the young wife, "you always engaged a taxi when you took me anywhere. Now you think the street car is good enough for me."

"No, my darling," was the careful reply, "I don't think the street car is good enough for you; it's because I'm so proud of you. In a taxi you would be seen by nobody, while I can show you off to so many people by taking you in a street car."

Are you weak, nervous, depressed? Feel dull, shaky, tired? Are your kidneys working right? Nervousness often hints at kidney weakness—

Kidneys that fail to filter the blood. Poisons gather and harm the nerves. Kidney weakness causes many ills. Backache, dizziness, headaches, lack of flesh.

Mrs. J. W. Barber says: "I had a bad spell of kidney trouble about two years ago. Whenever I stooped over to pick up anything, it certainly was hard for me to straighten up as the pains would shoot through my kidneys. I had pretty bad headaches at times and my nerves were unstrung. The least noise would make me irritable. The action of my kidneys was too frequent and distressed me, too. Judge J. D. Barker of Cisco, Texas, Announces His Candidacy for Senator of the 28th, Senatorial District

"To the Voters of the 28th Senatorial District: "I take this method of soliciting your support in the coming election on June 4th, at which time the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Jno. A. Russell will be filled.

"To those who do not know me, I will state that I am a native Texan, born in Collin County, forty-four years ago. In 1899 I made my home in Fisher County. For the last three years I have resided in Cisco, Eastland County.

"I know the needs of West Texas; I know the people of the West—their hopes and aspirations. The time has come when the West should assert herself, when she should demand justice in the solution of her pressing social, economic and industrial problems; when she should demand less of politics and more of plain business and common sense; when she should demand leaders who know her needs and are capable of giving her adequate representation.

MY OPPONENT

"What can West Texas gain by electing my opponent to the office of senator? He is now representative from this district, and has the same opportunity to serve the people in the house as in the senate. He has refused to resign from his present office. Should one man try to hog all the offices in the district at one time?

"If he should be elected, he would have to resign from the office of representative. The special session is called for July. After June 4th, it will be almost impossible to elect a man to fill such a vacancy and West Texas will be minus a representative during that important session. And, God knows, she will need every vote she can get at that critical time, when so many issues will arise that will vitally concern her interests.

SOME PROPOSALS FAVORED

All measures designed to advance the rural free schools and of the entire public school system.

Immediate re-districting of the representative and senatorial districts of Texas.

A well equipped West Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, with all political appendages removed.

An amendment to the suspended sentence law, with the aim of restricting its use and preventing its abuse.

Protection of our citizenship from criminality by more rigorous enforcement of the present law, rather than by multiplying the number of laws.

Economy in state government by the elimination of unnecessary officials and by the consolidation of duplicating departments.

In view of the fact that West Texas practically donated the capitol building to the state and built the asylum for the blind, by contributing its fertile prairies, and that she has given thousands of acres to the railroads of the state, at the same time, she has borne an unequal share of the burden of taxation, I THEREFORE FAVOR A MORE UNIFORM TAX LAW THAT WILL RELIEVE WEST TEXAS FROM THE PRESENT UNEQUAL BURDEN.

Immediate and substantial relief for all soldiers wounded or otherwise incapacitated during the World War.

If elected I will concentrate my untiring efforts to the policy of less politics and more business in the administration of government and strive sincerely to forward the interests of the farmer, laborer, stockman and business man, to the end that all classes may have a part in developing the unlimited resources of the West and of the entire state.

Sincerely yours, J. D. BARKER.

Judge Baker is Endorsed by Bar

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 28TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT OF TEXAS:

We, the undersigned attorneys of the Cisco Bar, take this method of expressing our approval and endorsement of the candidacy of Judge J. D. Barker, of Cisco, as the logical man to fill the responsible position of state senator of our district. He is an upright and exemplary citizen, a sound lawyer of broad judicial experience, and is a man qualified in every respect to represent the people of West Texas in the senate. Having resided in this district since 1899, he is thoroughly conversant with the industrial and economic problems of the West, and will be a fearless advocate of her legitimate legislative requirements, yet sane and conservative in procuring and presenting those measures which will best subserve the demands of our section and of the entire state.

CITY CAFE UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

J. F. Caudle, of Ballinger, recently sold the City Cafe to K. C. Stallings, of Midland. The new management plans to make a modern cafe of Midland standard and has already made some unique changes. Special attention is given to ladies at all times and your patronage will be appreciated.

Thus scared, he earns his release by promising to reform.

DECIDED REDUCTION IN COTTON ACREAGE

Reports received from correspondents of the Texas Industrial Congress indicate a decided reduction in the cotton acreage ranging from 20 to 50 per cent, and probably averaging 30 per cent for the State. Cool nights and unfavorable weather have retarded the growth and planting of cotton and the crop is now from a week to ten days late.

Prospects for a good yield of wheat and oats have been improved by recent rains. Wheat in the Panhandle is looking especially good. Corn is making fair progress, and is up to a good stand in most sections. Some damage to both corn and cotton from cut-worms is reported. Potatoes in South Texas are now being harvested. The acreage in rice has been cut 50 per cent it is estimated, and the progress of the crop has been delayed by unfavorable weather conditions. The truck crop in South Texas is reported good, and moving freely; some shipments have been made to New York by water via Galveston. The east Texas tomato crop, though retarded by unfavorable weather, promises a good yield. There will be a greatly increased production of watermelons.

With the exception of apples, of which there will be a 50 per cent yield, fruit in West Texas has been killed by cold weather; in North Texas the fruit crop has sustained some damage, while in East Texas it is reported safe.

Recent rains in East and South Texas, and in some portions of West Texas, have greatly improved the ranges; and livestock generally is said to be in good condition. A greatly increased production of hogs, lambs and calves is noted.

HEALTHGRAMS BY OUR STATE HEALTH OFFICER

Vaccination is without doubt one of the greatest blessings which ever came to the human race. For the sake of humanity do not oppose vaccination to prevent smallpox, but endeavor to make it compulsory.

Faulty cooking is one of the greatest evils under which our race lives. Flies are not only a nuisance but are one of the means of disseminating typhoid fever, cholera, and diarrhoea among human beings, and surra and anthrax among horses and cattle.

The perfumes of Araby and the laces of Spain cannot give to a baby the charm to be found in a tub of soft water and a cake of bland soap. The food we eat, the liquid we drink, the air we breathe are, and always will be, fundamental factors in maintenance of health.

Any one having venereal disease, knowing that he has it, and communicating that disease to another is a potential destroyer of life and therefore, in fact, a murderer.

The functions of the health officer are not only to look after sanitation of the water, milk, food, and air, but should also include an interest in reducing the mortality by co-operating with the medical profession in securing proper hospital and home facilities for the care of the sick.

The nurse at the bedside has become a necessity in present day civilization. There was a time not so long ago when practically every woman was not only a housekeeper for the well but a housekeeper for the sick.

It is my prediction that the future statesmen will be that group of men whose thoughts are given to measures for the attainment of healthy citizens. They will regard the child, even before it is born, as worthy of their best thought and constructive legislation and will attempt to make true in fact that oft-used statement that all men are born equal, at least insofar as this can be done by making it possible for all citizens to have proper food, clothing, housing and other environmental conditions.

The season of the year for typhoid fever is soon to begin. Why not avoid this dreadful disease by cleaning up, excluding the flies or by vaccination.
