

Centennial Celebration planned

Organizers of the Hansford County Roundup invite everyone to come enjoy the many events planned for the event. All event tickets sell for $20 for adults and $10 for children 13 and under. These tickets include entrance to the Street Dance, Breakfast, Rodeo, B-B-Q and Saturday entertainment with Joe Mack Cherry, Kountry Kookin' and Gary P. Nunn and the Sons of the Bunkhouse. Tickets may be purchased at the Spearman Chamber of Commerce.

There will be a carnival by Kenny's Funland from May 29 to June 2. Hansford Roundup tickets are NOT good for any carnival expense.

The rodeo Friday, June 2, which is TCRA sanctioned, will include these events: bareback riding; saddle bronc; bull riding; calf roping; steer wrestling, team roping; ladies' barrel race, and ladies breakaway roping.

The Street Dance will be Friday night from 9 p.m. to midnight. It will be held at Plains Shopping Center and the Wild Country Band will be playing for the event.

The Saturday Rodeo performance begins at 6 p.m. at the Oscar Archer Arena. A Street Dance for students that have completed 6th, 7th and 8th grades will be provided at the Hide Out at no admission charge. High School and college age students are invited to a dance at Uncle Ed's Audiophile on Hwy. 207 South. There is no admission charge. An adult dance will be held at the Moose Lodge in Spearman for members of the Lodge and their guests.

Creature Features begins Library reading program

CREATURE FEATURES, the 1989 Summer reading program of the Hansford County Library, will officially begin on Thursday, June 1, with a film show from 10:30 - 11:30 at the library at 122 Main Street in Spearman.

All children enrolled in the program are invited to attend the first film show dressed as their favorite creature. If they prefer they may wear a creature mask or bring toy creatures or pictures of creatures.

CREATURE FEATURES is a six-week program sponsored by the Texas State Library and the Hansford County Library. The objective of the reading program is to encourage children to continue practicing their reading skills during the summer months and to have some fun while doing it.

377 children in grades K - 4 toured the library on Monday, May 22. Librarian Rita Curtis explained the reading program to them at that time. Although the library's reading program is geared for children in grades K - 4, all children of any age who are interested in reading are encouraged to join.

Films will be shown at the library each Thursday morning, June 1 - July 6 from 10:30 - 11:30. The films are only for those children participating in creature features.

Children are urged to sign up for CREATURE FEATURES anytime during regular library hours, which are weekdays from 10-12; 2-6 and Saturdays from 9-1.

"... AND OUR FLAG WAS STILL THERE. ..."

By Billy E. Kirby
DAV National Commander

Every time I see our flag, I see the blood of our soldiers, airmen, sailors and Marines--blood spilled for freedom yet caught within its blazing field. I see their valiant spirits reflected in its many stars. On Memorial Day, I see in our flag what I can never forget--their sacrifice.

Yet, more than a symbol of their deaths, it stands for their fighting spirit. It is the spirit of men I served with. They are men who didn't come home--a sergeant, a commanding officer, a friend--men who I'll never forget. It's a fighting spirit so valiant, so unbreakable, it inspires poetry and song.

Now, I'm no poet--but inside, I too, feel the pride which inspires a poet to write a tribute to our fighting men--a poet like Francis Scott Key.

In 1814, Francis Scott Key watched as the hopelessly out-gunned and out-numbered men of Fort McHenry, Baltimore, were bombarded by the British Fleet. The battle raged through the night. It wasn't until the morning sun broke through in the mist that the knew our men had survived the vicious attack.

There, caught in the gleam of dawn's early light--as if to mock the enemy--was the American flag still flying high and proud over the fort. Francis Scott Key was so inspired, he wrote a poem in tribute to the brave men of Fort McHenry. It's a poem in which he stated:

"... And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave..."

SHEILA LaROCHELLE

LaRochele receives lyric contest honors

As a Mother of three, Sheila LaRochele noticed that many books that she read to her children began "Once upon a time" and always ended "Happily ever after." With the title of "Happily Ever After" in mind, and with the thought that someday this would be the words to a country and western song, her lyric poem was written one afternoon.

With much praise and encouragement from her family, the poem was entered in the 1988 Music City Song Festival in Nashville, Tenn. after getting the copyright in order.

LaRochele's lyric poem received an Honorable Mention certificate, which was awarded to all entries in the top 10 percent in that category.

The title, name of author, city and state will be listed in the 1989 edition of SoundMakers magazine this summer.

Among the Neighbors

by Helen Fisher

Despite the sad reason, it was a pleasure to again greet the children of Marjorie Collard. One reflects that all the hours, days and weeks spent with activities that involved the nurture and training of three active children—all the Day Scout Camps, the overnight camps, the week long camps, the P.T.A., Bible Schools, Sunday Schools, Rainbow girls which resulted in such responsible, intelligent, and handsome young people as Carolyn, Helen and Thomas. Certainly they are Marjorie's legacy.

The sympathy of all the neighbors in extended to John R. and all the family on her passing.

That proud "look what I did" expression on Ray Robertson is the result of his and Sylvia's attendance at the Nazareth Athletic Banquet last Monday night.

Their grandson, Howie, was awarded the football Fighting Heart Award. During the football season Howie suffered a knee injury and after surgery was side-lined for the balance of the season. He is a senior and will enter Texas Tech for the summer and is enrolled at the University of Texas at Arlington for the fall term.

The Robertson's other grandson, Jon Mac, was awarded the football Most Promising Freshman. He had already played in some varsity games.

For Mary and Henry Cornelius it is back to seeking a tree when in need of shade. They have just returned from a restful and scenic trip where there were trees on every side, front and behind.

They flew to Knoxville, Tenn., then drove to Townsend, Tenn., then to Gatlinburg, and on to Pigeon Forge. All these were picturesque little villages nestled in the trees of the Smoky Mountain Range. They went on to Cherokee, N.C. and spent one night at the Cherokee Indian Reservation. Returning to Knoxville for the return flight, they feasted on the beauty of the laurel blossoms and other colorful shrubs and flowers, and more trees.

Russell and Imogene Pogue of Valley Mills, Tx. stopped in Spearman this week to visit old friends. He was a former pastor of the First Baptist Church here and they were enroute to Wichita, Kan. where their son lives.

WEIGHT LOSS BREAKTHROUGH ANNOUNCED

Researchers have discovered that a cultivated spirulina (algae) which was developed to improve the diets of people in developing countries, also helps overweight people shed extra pounds.

Grown under USDA requirements in a controlled laboratory environment, the Spirulina is sold in this country under the name, "The Vital 18" and actually comes in flavors-chocolate, butternut and chocolate mint.

"The Vital 18" represents the 18 of 22 amino acids found in this product, along with 72 vitamins and minerals, including K, D, E, C, B12, the B Complex vitamins, and beta carotene. When taken with milk, "The Vital 18" provides all 22 amino acids.

Studies show that dieters often decrease their nutritional intake while reducing calories. This, in turn, reduces energy available for the brain and body. To protect itself, the brain sends strong hunger signals to the body AND slows down the metabolism to keep from starving. Frequent dieting slows the metabolic rate more each time and the dieter often gains back all the weight lost - plus more.

"The Vital 18," unlike regular diets, actually provides fuel for the body and brain in a form that is quickly absorbed into the blood stream. The brain has no reason to signal the body to eat, and the metabolism is actually stimulated by amino acids.

"The Vital 18" can be used with a diet including fiber, fruits and vegetables to promote weight loss. Or, it can be used along with a full balanced diet to promote stamina and energy.

Available only through exclusive health food stores and distributors.

ANSWER: Yes, see your agent for details.

GOLDEN ACRES . . . recommends the following varieties for ghost acres in the Texas-Oklahoma Panhandle.

- T-E 35 Red, medium early with maximum drought resistance for dryland. Short, uniform, excellent standability. Good yield potential for maturity.
- T-E EMPIRE Medium maturing Biotype E resistant, hetero yellow recommended for dryland or limited irrigation. Slightly shorter than T-E Y-101-R with comparable head exertion.
- T-E Y-60 Yellow-white cross, extremely droughty. Medium maturing with good seedling vigor and emergence. High yields under favorable conditions. Not recommended for full irrigation and intensive farming practices due to above average height under these conditions.
- T-E Y-75 Biotype E resistant medium red. Stay green strong stalk. Big yield potential under limited or full irrigation.
- T-E Y-101-G Biotype C resistant, medium late. A popular choice because it combines a short, strong stalk with record yields under favorable conditions. Recommended for irrigation.
