Dont Get Gay.

Young man, be as smart as you can, ofcourse; know as much as you can without blowing out the packing of your cylinder head. Shed the light of your wisdom abroad in the land, but don't dazzle people with it. Don't be too sorry for your father because he knows so much less than you do. Ofcourse your clothes fit you much better than father's do him. They cost more too. They are more stylish; your mustache is neater than pa's. But mind, young man, the old gentleman gets bigger wages, and his homely scrawling on the businss end of a check will draw more money out of a bank in five minutes than you could with your copper plate signature in six months. Young men are useful. We all like them and couldn't engineer a picnic without them. But they're no novelty my son nothing of the kind. The world has been so full of smart young men that their feet stuck out of the upper story windows. The world has great need of you, young man. Don't be too fresh so you have to be put in an ice box to keep from spoiling. Don't be afraid you won't be discovered. People all over the world are hunting you and if you are worth finding they will find you. Remember, young man, hard work is the secret of success. It does not kill. "Fun" kills men. The "good times" boys have lay them out. If you can't be a leader, be something just as useful. —Amarillo Herald.

Mass Meeting.

Quite a number of citizens collected in the Court house Saturday afternoon to discuss the Terrell Election Law.

Rev. J. R. Miller was elected chairman of the meeting and called the house to order.

Judge Perryman secured recognition and after explaining the purpose of the meeting he read a few extracts from the law. Then made a few remarks on what he had read after which followed a short season of general discussion.

The chairman called the house to order and Judge Perryman again read some extracts and at the request of several, about the manner of printing the tickets, he reread section 52. After Judge Perryman had finished reading, Judge Bartley arose and read section 53, which caused a short debate between the two judges, followed by a general discussion which was again followed by a motion to adjourn, which carried and the meeting adjourned and the discussion was transferred to the streets where it was kept up until a late hour.

Family Reunion.

One of the pleasant events of the past week, was a reunion of the friends and relatives of R. W. Lewis at his bachelor hall six miles east of town on Sunday the 10th.

Those attending from Tahoka had prepared a feast of fried chicken, cakes and pies of all description and other goodthings too numerous to mention, which they carried with them. At 11:30 an improvised arbor was made by stretching wagon sheets across from wagon to wagon and seated in the shade the merry crowd did justice to the many good things spread before them. Those present were: J. S. Well and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Milligen, W. C. Wells and family, H. M. Larkin and family, Uncle Jack Green, Mrs. Nettie Falconer and children Mr. and Mrs. Dr. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown and S. R. Bivens.

After dinner the men enjoyed a hunt for prairie dogs and rabbits.

About 4 o'clock the crowd dispersed feeling that it was good to visit, once in a while, the brechelors.

Railroad Prospects.

Never did Floydada feel so certain of a railroad as now. Messrs. McGee and Henderson will be here Saturday to confer with the citizens again. The probability is that the railroad will be built on the late survey if satisfactory arrangements for right-of-way, depot grounds etc can be made and a small bonus raised. It is generally understood that a division point and repair shops will be located here. If this can be incorporated in the contract it will be of untold value to Floydada. This is to be a trunk line and will do a large volume of through business.—Hesperian.

H. C. Crie was elected County Chairman, Mr. T. C. Leedy Secretary, Mr. Morgan Chairman Precinct No-1, W. L. Davis Chairman Precinct No. 2.
