$1000 Cotton Fire Saturday Night

Fire broke out Saturday night about twelve o'clock in the cotton yard, north of the Fuller Gin. Four bales were totally destroyed, and three more partially destroyed. The fire originated in the last bale ginned Saturday evening. It is supposed that the bale was set afire in the process of ginning.

One of the bales destroyed belonged to H. M. Larkin. No insurance was carried on it. The other six bales were owned by Edwards Bros., who had $800 insurance on their holdings.

One hundred and twenty bales of cotton had been ginned in Tahoka up to Saturday night of last week. These figures represent about one-tenth of the number ginned last year to this date. Ginners estimate that the 1917 crop is about out. Last year's crop was near three thousand.

A meeting of the Owl Club at the stock pens Thursday night occasioned one Tahoka citizen an exciting evening. Seeing the camp fire he thought the pens were on fire, and hastened there to extinguish the flames. We reckon he did, but he didn't come back on the water wagon.

Bruce Williams, who has been employed by the City Light & Power Co., of Amarillo, for the past six months came in the last of last week for an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Williams of the St. Clair Hotel.

AN EVERYDAY BANKING SYSTEM.

The Federal Reserve Banking System is not merely an emergency system, a financial fire engine to extinguish occasional fires.

It is much more than this. It is a vast reservoir thru whose member banks its service reaches into every mill, every farm and every store in the country, supplying at all times not only the best banking protection but the best banking service the country has ever known.

Merry Wives Entertained

Mrs. Dr. King entertained the Merry Wives at her home in North Tahoka last Thursday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent playing progressive "42". Three tables were organized and Mrs. Dr. Townes held high score at the close of play.

A salad course was served to the following guests: Mesdames Baird, Callaway, Stockard, Lowery, Robinson, Larkin, Smith, Townes, Slaton, Applewhite, Stokes, and Miss Maggie King.

After the refreshments, the guests surprised their hostess with a miscellaneous shower as a farewell remembrance. Mrs. King will leave Tahoka for Fort Worth about the 15th of December. Dr. King has disposed of his holdings here and the family will make their future home in Fort Worth.

Geo. Riley has accepted a position as clerk in the J. E. Ketter store on the west side of Main street.

Report Violations
 Attendance Law

The attendance of public free school pupils coming within the terms of the compulsory school law of this State was so perfect, during last school term, that no necessity existed for an enforcement of the attendance law, and I had hoped that the same condition would attain this term, but my attention has been called to some temporary absences that are not permitted by the law.

The compulsory law of this State requires, for this term, that every child in this State who is eight years and not more than fourteen years of age shall be required to attend the public school for a period of at least eighty days. The exemptions from the law are as follows:

(a) Any child in attendance upon a private or parochial school or who is being properly instructed by a private tutor.

(b) Any child whose bodily or mental condition is such as to render attendance inadvisable, and who holds definite certificate of a reputable physician specifying this condition and covering the period of absence.

(c) Any child who is blind, deaf, dumb or feeble minded.

(d) Any child living more than two and one-half miles by direct and traveled road from the nearest public school.

Provision is made in the law for temporary absences as follows:

Any child not exempted from the provisions of this law may be excused for temporary absence due to personal sickness, sickness or death in the family, quarantine, or severe storm which has destroyed bridges and made the regular means of travel dangerous; provided that the excuses are in writing and signed by parent or guardian of the child.

The penalty of the law is as follows:

Any parent or other person standing in parental relation upon conviction for failure to comply with the provisions of this law shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined for the first offense five dollars, and for the second offense ten dollars, and for each subsequent offense twenty-five dollars. Each day that the child remains out of school shall constitute a separate offense.

I regret to have to say that it has come to my knowledge that, in a few instances, parents have requested teachers to excuse their children for temporary absences on account of needing their services at home in the ordinary affairs of the home or business, or for pleasure, and in some instances they have been absent from school on such excuses. It will be noted that these are not legal excuses, and this notice is given in the hope that parents and guardians will make due consideration of the requirements of the law and their duty, so that it will not be necessary for any steps to be taken to enforce the compulsory attendance law.

Respectfully,
 C. H. CAIN,
 County Superintendent.

A letter from Otho M. Shook to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shook, received Monday states that he is now a member of the Navy, rated as electrician third class, radio, that is, a wireless operator. He is attached to the Battleship Richmond, stationed at Norfolk, Va.

Lynn County Teachers Institute

BY PROF. J. P. HATCHETT

The Lynn County Teachers Institute held its regular annual session beginning Monday Nov. 19, and ending Friday Nov. 23, in the County Court room. The week was spent by the teachers in discussing problems of special professional interest to themselves.

Some special features of the program were the address by Hon. Marvin Jones, our future congressman, Wednesday at 3:30 p. m., and also the addresses by our fellow townsmen, Mayor D. F. Rodgers, Judge C. H. Cain, Judge Maddox, J. B. Walker, J. A. Moore.

An Interscholastic League for Lynn County was organized with Supt. H. C. Zorn of Tahoka High School as Director General, Principal A. S. Foster, of the same school Director of Debate and Declamation, Miss Eberly, principal of O'Donnell High School was elected Director of Spelling, Prof. Elanton B Street was elected Director of Athletics.

The Institute unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

Resolutions Adopted By Lynn County Institute.

Whereas, the teachers of Lynn county assembled in Institute at Tahoka, Nov. 19-23, having been received with cordial welcome and shown such hospitality by the people of Tahoka.

Be it resolved by the teachers of Lynn county that we express our heart felt thanks to the entire citizenship of Tahoka for the many courtesies shown us while in this town, and especially do we wish to express our appreciation to our Honorable County Judge for the interest he has shown in the teachers and the helpful advice he has given us, and for the invitation given us to see "The Slacker" as his guests.

Be it further resolved that we express our appreciation to Hon. Marvin Jones, Mayor D. T. Rogers, Judge B. P. Maddox, Judge C. H. Cain, Judge J. A. Moore, Mr. J. B. Walker, and Rev. R. F. Dunn for the inspiration received from their addresses.

Be it further resolved that we heartily endorse the work being done by the Red Cross and Federal Food Conservation movement.

Be it further resolved that we hand a copy of these resolutions to the Lynn County News for publication.

Committee,
 L. B. PATTERSON,
 EDWARD SIMPSON,
 EMMA BARBER.

The members of the Methodist church gave their pastor, Rev. R. F. Dunn, cause to be thankful Thursday evening. The occasion was a surprise pounding. The members gathered at the church shortly after dusk bringing their "pounds" and went from there to the parsonage in a body. A large number attended and as a result of the pounding Rev. Dunn received about $35 worth of groceries. The offerings covered everything from a bar of soap to a sack of flour.

At the union Thanksgiving services held at the Methodist church Thursday a special collection was taken for the starving Armenians. Something over $11 was contributed.

WAR TALKS

By UNCLE DAN

Number Two

Jimmie Collins Tells What He Saw—
What Military Training Does for Boys.

"Well, here we are!" exclaimed Billie, presenting his chum, Jimmie Collins.

"Very glad to see you, Mr. Collins," said Uncle Dan with a smile.

"Aw," said Billie, "Just call him Jimmie. That's the only name he knows. He's the pitcher of our baseball nine, and he's some pitcher, too. Just feel of his arm."

"Well," said Uncle Dan, feeling, "That's a mighty good arm!"

"Now, boys," said Uncle Dan, "what do you want to talk about?"

"Well," said Jimmie, "I was down to Galesburg a few months ago when the boys came home from the Mexican border. They looked fine. Everybody was surprised to see how straight they stood and how manly they were. The boys seemed proud to wear the uniform. I tell you their muscles were as hard as nails. I heard Banker Haskett say that the training and discipline the boys had had was exactly what every boy in the country ought to have, and that now these boys could get a better job at higher pay than they could have had before. Do you think that's so, Uncle Dan?"

Uncle Dan replied: "I have a friend who employs hundreds of young men. He always gives boys having had military training the preference; he says it pays to do so. He finds they are more alert, more prompt, more courteous; they know how to carry out orders; they are quicker to think and to act than those without training. He said from his experience he believed that six or eight months of intensive military training would add at least 20 per cent to a man's

AFTER FIVE MONTHS.
The two pictures are of the same young man. The first was taken the day he enlisted and the second after he had had five months' military training. His home is in North Carolina.

earning capacity, and that it was the best investment any young man could make.

"Billie, if you will go up to my room and bring my small handbag, I will let you see two photographs of the same young man, showing what only five months of intensive training on the Mexican border did for him."

The bag was brought. Uncle Dan, showing the pictures, said: "Well, here they are. They tell their own story and it is a mighty interesting one. The young man, before training, has a discouraged look; he has seen but little of the world. There was very little in his surroundings to bring him out. When he joined the colors and Uncle Sam took him in charge, life for him took on a new meaning. He saw a chance to do something and he something. He woke up. His captain says he is twice the man he was when he joined the army. This may be one of the extreme cases," said Uncle Dan. "I can tell you, though, that war or no war, no one thing will do the young men of this nation so much good in so short a time as a few months of intensive military training. It fits a man to fight his own life battles in the business world as well as to defend his country and its flag."

"Nearly every civilized country gives its boys military training. It is compulsory. It is based upon the fact that it is the duty of everyone to help defend his country; and as war is now carried on, no one can do much unless he is trained. Also, the records show that the killed and wounded among untrained troops is nearly three times as great as it is with well-trained men who know how to fight and how to protect themselves. By this plan a nation has trained men to defend her and the individual is a stronger and better man for the training."

"If the Chamberlain Bill for Military Training is passed by congress, as it ought to be, the same thing would be done for millions of other young men throughout the land. Everybody ought to demand of his congressman and senators the passage of this bill."

"All right, sir, exclaimed Jimmie, we will see Judge Brownell, Mr. Haskett, and Professor Slocum, and get them busy."

French Colonial Possessions.

We appreciate too little the great magnitude of the French colonial possessions, observes the Manchester Guardian. French Indo-China alone has an area of over a quarter of a million square miles and a population of over 17,000,000, of which about 25,000 are Europeans, excluding military. In face of heavy difficulties the French have effected great improvements, trade has been organized and in some parts cotton growing is extending. And in recent years the rubber industry has been developed, more particularly in Annam and in Cochinchina. The French colonial possessions altogether (including Algeria and Tunis) have an area of about 4,000,000 square miles, with a population of well over 40,000,000.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Letter From A Tahoka Sailor

Cambridge, Mass.
Nov. 13, 1917.

Dear folks at home:

I started from Great Lakes Friday morning very early. I was indeed glad to make the move, not that that place was so bad but it was monotonous and this is something new.

We had an interesting trip. At Detroit, I believe it was, the train was run on to a boat and we were carried across the river into Canada. We traveled all night in Canada and crossed back into the States shortly after daybreak at Buffalo, having passed near Niagra Falls, but it was not close enough for us to see the falls.

We arrived at Cambridge at one o'clock in the night, where we had intended getting here at six in the evening. They had made no preparations for us for the night and we found ourselves with no supper, and no place to lay our heads. They gave us one dollar each and told us to report back at eight the next morning. We ate a lunch and began an inquiry for beds. Not finding any in Cambridge we went to Boston—the river divides the two—and met with the same fate. We returned to Cambridge and took another cup of coffee. While trying to drink enough coffee to make ourselves believe we had been to bed, the chief of police came along. He had heard of our plight and told us that if we would come along with him he would give us a comfortable lounging place. We did so and we did not regret it. He gave us some blankets and we lay on upholstered long seats in a warm room. We fared not at all badly. Don't think we were arrested. It was only courtesy on the chief's part.

This is the most charming place I have ever seen. Everything has a history. Some of them dating back to the earliest days of our country's infancy. Here Washington worshiped; there Lowell lived; at this place La Fayette was received, and so on. There is a tree near here under which Washington received Commander-in-chief of the American armies. I think of how he steered America to a glorious victory, and I wonder if Wilson will be the man of the hour; and the Washington of the present century. Here's hoping and trusting.

Harvard is a wonderful institution. I have not had time to find out much about it as yet, but you can count on my absorbing every thing that can be gotten by observation before I leave here. We are stationed in a large dormitory, but understand that we are to move by next Monday to another. The rooms are large and comfortable with steam heat, gas light, and baths on each floor.

We are supposed to stay here about four and a half months. I think I shall then go in for aviation. There is a big demand for radio men as aviators and they get big pay. If I should go in for that branch it would be eight months before I would get into service. So you see there is no danger for me for at least four months and perhaps eight.

I have not heard from Ben since I wrote you. If you have heard from tell me what he had to say and his address.

About a furlough; I think I can probably get a furlough when I get through this course, but what use would it be to me. It would take at least a hundred dollars to make the trip there and back, and it is going to take every dollar I can rake and scrape to get by here.

I must write some more letters tonight so I will continue this story in the next issue. I am glad that Nelya and the kiddies are there with you. Give them my love. I must say good night. With heaps of love for all.
Your son and brother,
CARL.

Bruce Williams, who has been employed by the City Light & Power Co., of Amarillo, for the past six months came it the last of last week for an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Williams of the St. Clair Hotel.

LET'S GET THIS THING STRAIGHT

"Why don't the Government arrange short term Loans? People don't care to tie up their money for ten, twenty, or thirty years."

How often do you hear these words. Sometimes people say these things because they really do not understand the situation, and sometimes they say them because they think it forms a good excuse for not subscribing to the Liberty Loan.

In either case, they are wrong. It is just as easy to get at the money invested in Liberty Bonds, when the term for repayment is thirty years, as when it is ten years.

Very few of the Bonds sold today will be held by the original purchaser when the Bonds are redeemed by the Government. Many purchasers will die, many will deed away their Bonds, many will sell, and probably sell at a profit, if only they will hold the Bonds until the war is over.

When you buy a bond you do it with the idea of lending the money to your Government for just as long as you can conveniently, without hurting yourself or your business. When you cannot lend this money any longer, then sell your Bond to some one else.

Remember just two things—as long as you hold the Bond and the Government has the use of the money, you are doing a sensible, patriotic act, and drawing 4% interest. When you pass the Bond to some one else, you have ceased to help your Country, you have placed your responsibilities as an American citizen upon somebody else's shoulders, and have given up the safest investment in the world.

Your banker still has some Liberty Bonds on hand which he can sell you. Go and talk it over with him. He will tell you that you could not possibly do as well with your money, as by purchasing these Bonds.

Failure by registrant to properly fill out his questionnaire automatically places him in class one, which will be called to fill the next quota. The members of the advisory board heretofore named will be able to give registrants all necessary information as to the answers he should make to his questionnaire, and those registered men who avail themselves of the assistance of these advisors will not run any risk of filling out their questionnaires improperly.

All exemptions heretofore granted are cancelled by these questionnaires, and all men discharged on physical examinations will be recalled and examined before the district board.

Every registered man should make arrangements to receive mail from his local board promptly and should be on the alert until he receives his questionnaire.

False statements by registered men (or by supporting affiliates) in these questionnaires, constitute misdemeanors punishable by one years imprisonment.

New Classification of Registered Men

The machinery for the new classification of registered men liable for military service is rapidly being assembled, and the classification will begin December 15th, as per schedule of the provost marshal general's office.

Gov. Hobby has appointed, County Judge C. H. Cain, District Attorney G. E. Lockhart and M. M. Herring as the legal advisory board for Lynn county. These gentlemen will act in the capacity of advisors to the registered men when they fill out the questionnaires. Their services will be without cost to the registrants.

As now planned, the local board will mail the questionnaires to five percent of the remaining registrants each day beginning with the 15th day of December and continuing until the 3rd day of January, 1918. The registrant has ten days in which to fill out and return to the local board his questionnaire. On this schedule, all questionnaires will be returned to the local board by the 13th of January, when they will commence classifying the registrants into one of five classes as provided by the new classification.

Failure by registrant to properly fill out his questionnaire automatically places him in class one, which will be called to fill the next quota. The members of the advisory board heretofore named will be able to give registrants all necessary information as to the answers he should make to his questionnaire, and those registered men who avail themselves of the assistance of these advisors will not run any risk of filling out their questionnaires improperly.

Thousands of voluntary letters from women, telling of the good Cardui has done them. This is the best proof of the value of Cardui. It proves that Cardui is a good medicine for women.

There are no harmful or habit-forming drugs in Cardui. It is composed only of mild, medicinal ingredients, with no bad after-effects.

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help.

"I was taken sick, seemed to be . . .," writes Mrs. Mary E. Vestie, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk . . . just staggered around.

. . . I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite all, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it in the spring when run-down. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

BADLY RUN DOWN.
"I had become greatly run down and my nerves were in terrible condition. I had frequent headaches and became very weak and was unable to do anything. I bought a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. I soon began to feel better, my nerves were quieted, I recovered my strength, and have since recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to many of my friends who have used it with satisfactory results."
