"TWO BITS WORTH"
BY JOHNNY VALENTINE

A country editor notes that love at first sight may be alright but a second look never did hurt anybody.

The Rotary Club Turkey shoot will be held this Saturday and Sunday at the Tahoka Country Club. The shoot starts at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday and at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday. Turkeys and gift certificates will be given away so you had better go out and get in a little target practice.

Believe it or not, but there are merchants who still do not believe in advertising. For reasons of their own, they choose to think that when they pay for space, they are making a generous donation to the livelihood of the editor and his cohorts. They seem to think the home town should have a newspaper as a matter of charity.

TBW
The newspaper does not seek advertising on a charity basis. We have advertising space for sale—a commodity as market today, provided the man who purchases it has a use for it. Advertising, Mr. Merchant, is not a fairy story, or a magic wand, to wave over incompetent business management and transform it into a whooping success. Back of the advertising that the merchant pays for must be an ability to serve the public efficiently and economically. These factors, plus wise and honest advertising, will make any business grow.

TBW
Just four days after Pennsylvania Gov. William T. Cahill's inaugural address, in which he expressed alarm at the "awesome increase in the use of narcotics by our youth," his 19-year-old son was arrested and charged with possession of marijuana!

A few days later, a New York gubernatorial aspirant—Howard Samuels—disclosed that his five oldest children all had experimented with marijuana.

The point we have in mind is simple and blunt: No parent, anywhere, can afford to feel smugly that it can't happen in his family!

TBW
Since we have just observed national electrical week, it is apropos that a few words be said about Thomas Alva Edison: Young folks in the Tahoka schools should know that Edison was not as fortunate as they. He had no formal schooling. At age 12 he was a train-boy who liked to tinker. His curiosity was an insatiable thing. Folks everywhere later called him a genius. He responded: "Genius is two per cent inspiration and 98 per cent perspiration."

He gave us our electric lighting today, our phonograph and movie machines. He put his "Edison Effect" on most every item manufactured today for our comfort...plus the Remington typewriter. He was quite a guy.

We have progressed to our present high stage thanks to electrical development. Electricity, and plenty of it, will build our great smokeless industries of tomorrow.

We would do well to pause briefly in appreciation for men like Tom Edison, and to pay tribute to an industry such as the electric.

Ed Hamilton flew to Dallas to visit a sick cousin, Mrs. Jennie Gambrell. He also visited a long time childhood friend Archie Cryer whom he had not seen since 1916.

Mrs. J.O. Freeman has gone to visit her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. J.N. Freeman and family in Charleston, S.C. She plans to visit several weeks.

Craig Leslie Is Rotary Speaker

Craig Leslie gave an interesting and informative account of his experiences as a U.S. Navy Ensign aboard a minesweeper in the Pacific and off the coast of Vietnam. He had praise for the Navy and the training offered therein for young men. The young man, son of Mayor and Mrs. Meidon Leslie, recently completed his Navy service, currently is employed at First National Bank, expects to be married this spring and enter law school. Pete Hegi was in charge of the program. Dr. K.R. Durham, in one of his characteristic humorous talks, presented a "grandpa" walking cane to Dr. Skiles Thomas, who recently became a grandfather. Gerald Huffaker announced a fund-raising turkey shoot at T-Bar Country Club for Feb. 28 and March 1 to support the club's community projects.

Old Tree, Believed To Be Oldest In Tahoka

HISTORIC TREE--H.B. (Helton) Howell is shown above standing near a cottonwood tree which he believes is the oldest tree in Tahoka. Part of it has been cut away for firewood, piled in the foreground. The tree was planted by Chas. H. Doak, probably as early as 1903, and is located at the old Higginbotham-Bartlett site on South First, east of U.S. 87 freeway.

Few people give little thought to an old tree in its last stages of life, but an abused old cottonwood on South First street brings a note of sadness to H.B. (Belton) Howell, who has been around here just about ever since the town was started.

The tree on the former site of Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Co., east of U.S. 87 freeway, was planted by the late Chas. H. Doak, Lynn County's first sheriff, in 1903, Mr. Howell thinks.

When Lynn County was organized in April, 1903, Mr. Doak was elected the county's first sheriff. At the time he was ranching north of West Point on 13 sections, four owned and nine leased.

He moved to Tahoka and built the first residence here on what is now South First. He was a stockholder in Tahoka Townsite Co., later was in the lumber business, helped promote the Santa Fe railroad branch line and the founding of O'Donnell. He helped organize banks in both Tahoka and O'Donnell, and at time of this death owned a ranch near Cedar Lake, Gaines county.

His two daughters, Mrs. Morris (Byrdie) Sanderson of Seagraves and Mrs. Major (Jewell) Rodgers of Odessa, say Mr. Doak planted three trees back of the house near the well and watering trough.

When Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber yard was built here in 1910, some of Doak's lots were selected for the site, and the tree is doubtless one of those planted by Mr. Doak. Bartlett built a new, modern yard, and on wrecking the old yard left the old cottonwood standing.

Some of the limbs on the tree have died, and some have been sawed off for fire wood. Now 67 years old, the Tahoka landmark does not appear to have many years left.

But, many a Tahoka child in years past have played in its shadow and climbed out its now aging limbs.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

Are the so-called "childhood disease" limited only to children and do adults have an immunity to them?

Not so, says the Texas State Department of Health.

The childhood diseases are a myth. The fact is that these diseases are so contagious among children that most people have had them by adulthood and thereby have developed immunity. But adults can and do catch them, and when they do they are sometimes much sicker than children.

Two of these so-called childhood diseases--mumps and German measles (rubella)--have special dangers for the adult both adult men and women. And German measles, when occurring in the early part of pregnancy, can result in damage to the unborn child. A new vaccine may eventually lead to the eradication of German measles, but there is a danger until all women in the child-bearing years have been immunized against it.

So, if you are exposed to any "childhood" disease and believe you have never had it, ask your doctor what you can do to protect yourself.

It is extremely important that you and your children keep protection against smallpox up to date. True, the absence of smallpox in this country has led to a lack of public concern about this serious disease, and large segments of the adult population are unvaccinated or require boosters. In some parts of the world smallpox continues to be a serious problem. If just one single undetected smallpox case should be introduced into a U.S. Community, it could touch off a serious epidemic.

Is it true that a baby is protected by his "natural immunity" acquired from his mother? Some of a mother's natural or acquired immunities, if any, can be passed on to her unborn infant as her blood courses through the placenta that nourishes him, but this inherited immunity remains effective for only a short time.

In the case of whooping cough, a highly contagious disease that is especially dangerous and often fatal for small babies, there is evidence that immunity is only occasionally passed on.

Every parent, advises the State Health Department, should plan an immunization program beginning at six weeks of age against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, poliomyelitis and smallpox. Booster shots to maintain complete protection should follow at prescribed intervals throughout childhood and, in the case of certain diseases, well into adult life.

Today's Answer

THE PHILOSOPHER

Let's Make War!

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm takes a close look in a sidelong fashion at the pollution problem this week.)

Dear editor:

Generally speaking, I'm always in favor of whoever's President of our country or my bank, figuring both do the best they can with what they've got to work with, so I sat up and cheered--I figure you can cheer just as well sitting as standing--when President Nixon announced he's declaring war on pollution.

Consequently I wasn't prepared when a neighbor came by and asked me if I'd read everything he'd said about pollution.

"Mostly the headlines," I said. I didn't figure a man had to memorize all the streams and lakes and cities now polluted in order to endorse the idea of cleaning them up. A war on pollution is a war on pollution and you leave the details to the generals.

"You should have to read it all," he said, straightening up a fence post he'd been leaning against. "He said pollution is not only a national problem, it's a local problem. Said everybody ought to start with his own premises, make everything tidy and ship-shape. When you gonna re-build this fence? Is that a 1918 or 1920 car chassis grown up in weeds over there? If that barn of yours sags a few more feet to the north without falling over it's gonna become a tourist attraction."

He went on like this for several minutes when I got up and walked off, saying some people read too much.

The trouble is, he had a point, and I got no peace of mind until I ran across an article in a newspaper which I picked up in my driveway as a first step in the anti-pollution war.

According to it, the government is furnishing the money in some cases to plant shrubbery around unsightly junk yards along the main highways. If you can't get rid of the old cars, hide them.

I have reviewed the situation on this Johnson grass farm from one end to the other and have decided it would be easier and cheaper to comply with the anti-pollution drive by just planting shrubbery around it.

This way me and the government could both go about our way in peace. Please advise where you apply for funds for this. We've got to get this country in shape.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Past Days In Lynn County

Copied from July 27, 1968

Our new barber and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Honea, late of Temple, Texas arrived in Tahoka Monday noon on the hack from Gail. We are a little behind the times out here in some things, but we don't have to apologize for our barber, no, not in any city in the state. Mr. Honea has worked in one of the best shops in Temple for the last 12 years and the people here should try and keep him here and custom in all it will take.

Mr. Ray has finished the fencing around his half section south of town. While working on the fence the wire stretcher slipped and a post struck W.C. Axson on the forehead cutting a deep gash and knocking him senseless for some little time. Dr. McCoy was summoned and the wound promptly dressed and is doing nicely. If the post had not struck Paul Ray on the shoulder first, the blow might have proved fatal.

Mr. Downing, finished a 60 barrel cistern Thursday for Mr. McGlaun who lives 16 miles south east of town.

Mr. M.J. Thornton, of Gail was attending county court in Tahoka the first part of the week.

Dr. Woods and wife, both Dentists will be at Tahoka from July the 23rd until August the 4th, have your teeth examined.

Mr. Doak is having added to his house the swellest porch in town.

Mr. Callum moved in to the Davis house last Saturday.

We are authorized this week to announce Mr. B. Humphries of the south part of the county as a candidate for the office of Tax Assessor of Lynn County, Texas.

Mr. Humphries was here when the county was organized and has faithfully served the county as a commissioner all of this time. He is well known to all of the old settlers and many of those who have lately arrived in the county. If elected he promises the same faithful and efficient service as assessor that he has given as commissioner.

The fifth Sunday Meeting of the South Plains Baptist Association which was held at the New Home Church, was a success in every particular. There were seven confessions of faith and the same number of accessions to the church.

Messrs. Rufus Lane and Edgar Mills of South East attended Sunday school and singing at Draw Sunday. Mr. Redwine's folks also attended the singing.

The W.O.W. unweiling ceremonies at the R.A. Milliken monument near Tahoka was attended by several Lynn people last Sunday afternoon. W.H. May and family, H.S. Gardenhire and family, L.H. Faw and children, Don Hatchett, W.P. Wylly, Tollye Marchbanks, Misses Gertie and Lillian Matthews, J.E. Ketner and children were among those who were present.

Very much of the cotton and some feed stuff had to be replanted last week on account of the heavy rain washing lister furrows nearly full of soil and covering the crops up. Oats and corn are looking well. Sorghum feed stuffs where not covered up are growing nicely.

Mrs. Walter Pinnell gave a dining Sunday to a number of her friends, one of the nicest dinners we have attended in a long while was served in a way to make us glad we were one of the chosen ones. Mrs. Pinnell is a charming young matron and is to be congratulated upon her success as hostess.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Crie, Mrs. Shed Weathers, Misses Julia Crie, Messrs. LeMond, Wilcox and Smith. Seven members of the juvenile set were in attendance and did full justice to the ample repast.

Tahoka has always been in the lead, the neighboring towns are going to celebrate on the 4th and it is up to us to keep in the lead. Get busy, now, and boost for the committee hunt up some good horses, challenge a "crack" ball team and prepare to entertain the county

Highlights AND Sidelights

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Homeowners throughout Texas apparently are in for a substantial increase in their insurance payments.

State Insurance Board's Staff has recommended these average hikes:

- Statewide extended coverage, 6.9 per cent.
- Fire insurance, 1.7 per cent.
- "Homeowners" policies, 18 per cent.

Recommendations were made as the insurance board held its annual hearing preparatory to promulgating new rates and possibly some new changes in its rules concerning these forms of insurance.

Board will set new rates around the end of next month, making the effective date early July.

Rates actually will vary according to location, building use and construction.

Another jolt would be Texas Insurance Advisory Association's recommendation of mandatory $250 deductibles statewide on all windstorm, hurricane and hail coverage. Mandatory deductible now applies only to seacoast territory for this type coverage, and that is limited to $100.

TIAA further suggested one-year optional "homeowners" policies by permitted. Present policies now run for three years.

DRINKS LAW TO BE ENFORCED—Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission served notice it still intends to enforce the law against sale of liquor by the drink despite the court's invalidating its private club "guest" rule.

Case involving the rule is on appeal to the State Supreme Court. Meanwhile, ABC said club owners are mistaken in interpreting the Court of Civil Appeals' decision as giving them the go-ahead for mixed-drink sales to walk-in guests.

ABC also predicted an early court test of the law under which distribution of Coors Beer has been restricted in Texas. Court already has held invalid a 1966 directive which said that Coors' requirement of warehouse refrigeration was termed a forbidden "inducement."

BUSING REFERENDUM CONSIDERED—Gov. Preston Smith asked the State Democratic Executive Committee to consider putting the question of school busing to achieve racial balance on the May 2, Democratic primary ballot as a referendum issue.

While not stating his own position, Smith argued that Texas voters should have a chance to express their opinions. He noted that the problem is a federal and local issue, "and called on federal officials to "assist us at the state and local level to upgrade our neighborhoods and our schools."

Meanwhile, the busing issue came in for attention from Democratic Senatorial candidate Lloyd Bentsen, who called compulsory busing "the most disruptive threat facing public education in America."

Smith sent a telegram to Sen. John Tower in Washington, urging him to "use your influence with the Republican administration" to obtain "more realistic, impartial and reasonable" treatment of Texas school districts by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. He cited his meeting with 150 citizens from East Texas school districts (particular Tyler and Longview) as motivating his request.

COURTS SPEAK—Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the new state anti-riot law which permits prosecution of a participant in a disturbance even though there is no evidence he committed acts of destruction.

Supreme Court backed the San Antonio Court of Civil Appeals in ruling that a juvenile can be sentenced for as much as five years in a reformatory for an act punishable by no more than a year in prison if committed by an adult.

High Court reversed the Third Court of Civil Appeals and concluded that a two-way radio service in McAllen is not a telephone service subject to state gross receipts taxes.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES Parks and Wildlife Department can use either special game and fish money or general revenue to build a proposed water-exchange pass across Mustang Island. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held. However, he said, if it is built with game-and-fish fund money, it will be a "fish pass" and it will be illegal for boats to go through it.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

- New family code prohibiting remarriage for six months after divorce applies only to divorce proceedings commenced after Jan. 1, 1970.
- County clerks have no discretion to refuse to record declarations of informal marriage where all required information is given on the form.
- Board dealing with uncollectible judgments for the state cannot sell or transfer them for less than full value.
- Sen. Criss Cole of Houston, who was recently appointed judge of the new Harris County Juvenile Court, will remain as a member of the Senate Study Committee on Environmental Control until the next legislature convenes.
- Operator of a vehicle transporting liquid asphalt is exempt from the statutory lease provisions and filing requirements.
- New owner of a store can operate under its current occupation license until it expires if transferred to the purchaser along with the business.
- Texas Employment Commission can pay insurance premiums on its buildings with federal funds from grants by the U.S. Department of Labor.
- Foreign cooperative marketing association whose charter provisions meet those of Texas Law is not required to deposit $500 to do business in this state.
- Texas State Department of Health does not have authority under renderer's licensing act to prorogue required fees regardless of dates licenses are issued.
- Commissioner's Court of Hunt County does not have authority to establish financial procedures in handling of cash by each county officer.
- Texas Highway Department may participate in group premium for insurance on employees (health, hospital, accident, disability etc.) but may not enter into contract where it would become a shareholder in a mutual insurance concern.

CRIME INCREASING—Major crime in Texas increased 15.9 per cent last year—to a rate of one major crime every one and a quarter minutes—Department of Public Safety Director Wilson E. Speir reports.

Statistics show 432,251 major criminal offenses in Texas during 1969 as compared to 372,912 in 1968. Of the total, 389,969 occurred in urban areas and 42,282 in rural sections. Murder and homicide rate was up 1.5 per cent, rape up 33.2 per cent, robbery 53.1 per cent, burglary 17.1 per cent, aggravated assault 22.7 per cent, theft 12.5 per cent and auto theft 22.8 per cent.

APPOINTMENTS—Governor Smith appointed Mrs. Homer Garrison of Austin to the State Board of Canvassers and State Committee Count Election returns.

Smith also made these recent appointments:

- Occupational Safety Board—E.C. McFadden Dallas.
- Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education—Dewey Presley of Dallas, R.T. Runyan of Corpus Christi and Walter C. Suttle of Vernon.
- Research Associate on governor's staff—Alvin A. Burger, recently retired director of Texas Research League.
- Board of Directors, Upper Neches River Municipal Water Authority—John B. McDonald, Palestine (reappointment).
- State Board of Examiners in Basic Sciences—Dr. Sidney W. Edwards of San Marcos and Dr. Everett Dale Wilson of Huntsville.
- State Advisory Council for Technical-Vocational Education—Franklin D. Clarke of Dallas.
- Board of Directors, Lavaca-Navidad River Authority—Dr. Charles M. Dugger of Edna, Chester Franklin Spencer of Ganado and Carroll Sheppard Traylor of Port Lavaca.
- Texas Water Well Drillers Board—Forrest Cecil Gill of El Paso and W.D. Jones of Dumas.
- Smith himself was designated honorary chairman for Texas in support of the Everett Dirksen Congressional Leadership Research Center. Goal is $2 million to build and maintain the center.

HALL APPEALS ELECTION RULING—Frustrated in his State Supreme Court effort to get on the Democratic ballot as a candidate for governor, Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall went to Washington to try to get an appeal before the U.S. Supreme Court.

State Court ruled that the constitutional provision on prohibiting a lawmaker from holding an office for which the pay was raised during his elective term makes Hall ineligible. Governor's pay was raised last year. Hall's senate term runs until 1973. He claims the provision was not intended to apply to the governor's office and discriminates against 15 senators.

Hall hopes to get before the U.S. top court on the contention that the restriction violates due process and equal protection under the law guaranteed by the federal constitution.

SHORT SNORTS—Texas Department of Public Safety has been awarded by the National Highway Safety Bureau a $335,500 grant—to be matched with State funds—for training of highway patrol recruits.

John C. White, Agriculture Commissioner, has set March 6 for a hearing in Robstown to consider quarantine measures against St. Augustine decline, a virus grass disease which has been found in several Texas areas.

State has reached agreement with the federal government to acquire Amarillo Air Base for technical manpower training facilities under Texas State Technical Institute.

Texas Aeronautics Commission approved a $15,000 grant for Stephenville and a $16,000 grant for Beeville to build airport taxiways and apron.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

WHY BUILD TERRACES? The other day a man asked me why do people in Lynn County build so many terraces. I could not answer him right away because I had not thought of this before. But the thing that comes to mind first is farmers in Lynn County are in business to make money and parallel terraces pay for themselves in a short time and make money. People in Lynn County are progressive and do a good job farming.

All of the soil in Lynn County has erosion hazards and parallel terraces are the best way to prevent and control this erosion. These are the major reasons that over five million, five hundred thousand feet of parallel terraces have been built in Lynn County. Another very important benefit not previously mentioned is the fact that water distribution on more than 32,000 acres in Lynn County is much better as a result of this conservation practice.

Many people believe that terraces are not needed on flat ground. This is not true. It is easy to understand by looking at it in this way. If you take a garden sprinkler can, which is like rain, and pour water on a level table top what happens to the water?

It will spread out and run off. But if you will pour the same amount of water in the same manner in a loaf pan or ice tray, something with dividers and sides on it, you can hold the water where it falls.

The expenses of parallel terraces are slight when you realize that they will entirely pay for themselves in 12 years from the money saved in the cost of operation alone. This cost is offset more by the insurance that you will miss a crop less often if you hold all the water that falls on the land. In this country we get enough water each year to make a crop. Bill Hays has been farming parallel terraces and is building some more terraces that are parallel. Hays says a man is foolish not to build parallel terraces if he can see his way clear to do so. The difference in farming parallel terraces and

These S.W.C.D. cooperatives are building parallel terraces this year: Sam Edwards, Sherrill, Jim Bob Porters, Bill Hays, Sonny Roberts, Cecil Hammond, L.A. Farris, Welch Flippin, Walton, Johnny Ray Ash, H.W. Edwards, V.O. Caswell, R.W. Barton, B. Mason, Wayne Clayton, McLaurin, R.L. Pirtle, Gill Raymond Crain, L.W. Eaton, and Jackie Bishop.

Now is the time to plan to build terraces next 2 or 3 years.

New Camaro. Feb. 26th.

We've never announced a car at this time before. But then nobody's ever announced a car like this before.

Super Hugger

If it were an ordinary sportster, we'd have introduced it at the ordinary time. Instead, we took the time to build a whole new Camaro.

We started with a sleek new shape and a low road-hugging stance.

And added more hood. A faster fastback. Wider doors. And new deeply contoured bucket seats.

The instrument panel wraps around you. With enough dials to make you think you're piloting a 747.

There are four transmissions. And six power plants up to the Turbo-Jet 396 V8 that you can order.

Pick the one that best suits your driving. Then go pick on an open road.

And make it one with plenty of twisting turns. Because Camaro has a remarkable new suspension. And standard front disc brakes for a leech-like grip on the road.

New Camaro. The Super Hugger. Other sportsters always feared it might come to this.

And they were right. Only their timing was wrong.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

See it. At your Chevrolet Sports Dept.

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated five accidents on rural highways in Lynn County during the month of January, according to Sergeant Hal E. Pirtle, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area. These crashes resulted in three persons injured and an estimated property damage of $7,345.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock DPS Region for January, 1970 shows a total of 460 accidents resulting in 15 persons killed, 188 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $648,408 as compared to January, 1969 of 447 accidents resulting in 26 persons killed, 260 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $424,881.

Colors affect emotions and thus affect interior decorating. For example, some wall colors in eating rooms decrease the appetite; other colors increase it.

While individuals like and dislike for colors vary, emotional reactions to colors are quite consistent.

For example, lavender interiors actually reduce eating time and the size of the meals ordered in a recent color conditioning study. In airplanes, air sickness was common where the interiors were painted in unappetizing colors.

These conditions were alleviated when proper colors were selected.

The most appetizing light colors are peach, orange, read-orange, clear yellow and pale green. Blue was found to be fairly satisfying, but variations of yellow were very distasteful.

Goldenrod yellow seemed rancid while lemon yellow seemed acid. Deep yellow with a mustard or olive case were decidedly distasteful.

Of other deep colors, brown and tan seemed most compatible with foods. Deep green and blue were more appealing, although dark colors were generally not as appetizing as light ones.

Are you conscious of what fibers make up the clothes you buy? A garment which needs special care may not be worth it.

Some garments consist of fibers which change drastically under normal cleaning processes. One such fiber is vinyon, a heat sensitive fiber which will stiffen and shrink when exposed to even moderate heat.

Garments containing vinyon must be cleaned in a special "Cold" process. Before you buy, decide if the excess trouble caused by the special cleaning process is worth the garment. You may pay for the garment several times over if the garment needs special care.

Remember, to find a real bargain, examine the clothing care and content label. If the garment isn't labeled or tagged for fiber content or care, you are taking a chance in buying it.

Jimmy weighs a full ten pounds only when he's full of formula. But to his daddy, he's the weight of the whole world when its time for that 2 A.M. feeding. What a chore it is, but it allows plenty of time for thinking:

What kind of man will Jimmy grow up to be? What kind of father will I be to him? How can I keep him from following the wrong crowd? How can I help him to value the worthwhile things? How can I give him a solid foundation for life?

The responsibility that parenthood places on people is a heavy weight. A sensible man can't take it lightly. But the Church can help him bear it wisely. In church he will discover those enduring values, something against which to measure his own standards—and, as he finds these things for himself, he will pass them on to his son.

The church can't rear your children for you, but it can help you as you do the job. It's a champion weight-lifter.
