

Grunewald Balks Over Details In Probe By House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry W. Grunewald balked today at telling House tax fraud investigators the details of his activities for some 20 years as "confidential secretary" to a wealthy insurance broker.

He declared it "wasn't pertinent" to the inquiry of a House Ways and Means Subcommittee into political influence on tax cases in the Internal Revenue Bureau.

He also said he would cooperate with the tax investigating subcommittee. Only last month he pleaded guilty in District Court here to a charge of contempt of Congress for one of his earlier refusals to testify.

Questioned twice in closed-door sessions two weeks ago, Grunewald, through his attorney, told the committee he did not want to talk in open session.

He also said he would cooperate with the tax investigating subcommittee. Only last month he pleaded guilty in District Court here to a charge of contempt of Congress for one of his earlier refusals to testify.

Heavy Pressure Put On Reds By UN In Korea

By STAN CARTER. SEOUL, Tuesday (AP)—Allied planes, warships including the Battleship New Jersey and ground forces maintained heavy pressure on the Communists Monday despite progress toward resumption of truce talks.

The New Jersey's big guns, scoring seven direct hits in as many minutes, destroyed Chongjin's main communications building, the Navy said. Major James P. Hagerstrom of Tyler, Tex., ran his MIG destruction total to 6½ in a dogfight between four Sabres and eight MIGs.

Ammo Probe Put Off Due To Tides Debate

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON. WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate inquiry into ammunition shortages was sidetracked temporarily today by the insistence of Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) that no committee meet during the Senate debate on the submerged lands issue.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va) said in an interview, meantime, that the ammunition supply in this country is "dangerously depleted." Although current supplies in the Far East, including Korea, may be adequate, he said, "there still is not enough ammunition."

IN THE LEGISLATURE

Spending Bill Gets Okay From Senate

AUSTIN (AP)—The Senate today by voice vote adopted the conference committee report calling for state spending of 166 million dollars for general services during the next two years.

The austerity budget ran into sharp opposition in the House. Only three senators raised objections to the spending bill.

Rep. Max Smith, Sag Marcos, chairman of the House appropriations committee, replied sharply to Warden: "It was not a patched up plan. We gave some spot raises to fry and hold good men in state service."

The committee asked the legislature to accept a compromise bill for general state services, calling for expenditure of $166,569,347 for the courts, state departments, hospitals and special schools, senior and junior colleges during the next two years.

Woman Free On Bond In Killing Here

Funeral services for Gavino Montanez, 33-year-old Latin-American killed here Sunday night, will be held at 5 p. m. Tuesday. The Rev. Joseph Moore will officiate at the service, and burial will be in the Catholic section of the City Cemetery.

Montanez was shot with a pistol about 11:45 p. m. Saturday night at the home of the parents-in-law, at 618 NW 4th. Mrs. Anita Jimenez, his mother-in-law, was charged with murder.

Montanez was shot in the left side of the chest, and officers said today that the bullet passed through the heart and nearly came out the left side under the armpit.

Police Chief E. W. York filed charges against Mrs. Jimenez. Montanez, a pipe layer, was working in Midland for a construction company. He and three other men came to Big Spring Saturday night about two hours before the shooting.

Officers stated that Montanez was in a fight with Delores (Lolo) Carrillos at the time of the shooting. Carrillos lives across the street from Mrs. Jimenez's home. A .38 caliber pistol was found buried in the alley by police officers.

Joseph Ryan, Longshoremen's Leader, Is Arrested For Theft

JOSEPH RYAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Joseph P. Ryan, 68-year-old leader of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, was arrested today on a 30-count grand larceny indictment accusing him of misusing union funds.

Before he entered Hogan's office, the husky Ryan said: "I still don't know why I'm here. If it is an indictment, I don't like to be indicted at my stage of the game." Ryan had been asked to testify before the grand jury, but refused to sign a waiver of immunity that would have made him liable for prosecution on the basis of what he said. So he wasn't questioned. Asked by reporters why he wouldn't sign the waiver, Ryan said: "Well, there's so many investigations going on, my attorney advised me not to." His attorney is Louis Waldman.

Officers stated that Montanez was in a fight with Delores (Lolo) Carrillos at the time of the shooting. Carrillos lives across the street from Mrs. Jimenez's home. A .38 caliber pistol was found buried in the alley by police officers.

'See-More' Kid Captured; Glad Chase Is Over

ROCK SPRINGS, Tex. (AP)—I'm glad it's over," said the self-titled "See More Kid" when officers caught the exhausted youth sleeping in a hotel room here late last night.

Charles Sanderson Brodson, 19, said he was tired of leading bloodhounds and officers on a wild two-week chase through South Texas.

Texas Ranger L. H. Purvis and Sheriff Dor Brown of Edwards County arrested the burglary suspect in the Balentine Hotel hall an hour after he checked in at 11 p.m. Purvis said he was asleep and made no attempt to reach his gun.

The Kid, a former inmate of a boys' correctional institution at Gatesville, is handy with a gun. A week ago he stopped three bloodhounds with four hurried shots as he fled from the kitchen of a ranch house.

Purvis said felony burglary charges are on file against Brodson in Kendall, Kerr and Bandera Counties. He is suspected in about 40 burglaries mostly of isolated ranch houses and summer homes.

Ranger Purvis said he left at least four notes reading "The See More and Do Less Kid."

Shortly after the bloodhounds were shot, a posse of 20 officers chased him through a brush covered ravine, but were unable to corner him.

Rodney Balentine, 12, grandson of hotel owner A. L. Balentine, showed the youth to a room. Purvis and the Sheriff checked the hotel a short time later and young Balentine described the kid.

Purvis took the youth to Kerrville. At the height of the search several ranchers in the Kerrville area moved their wives and families to town rather than leave them overnight in lonely ranch houses.

Woman Misses Party On 100th Birthday

PINK HILL, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Dave Washburn, bedfast with several broken ribs, missed her 100th birthday party yesterday.

It is the third year Mrs. Washburn has missed a birthday celebration. Her 98th birthday party was cancelled after she fell and broke her hip. Last year she was getting back on her feet, but the family decided it would be better to wait until this year to celebrate.

She broke her ribs Thursday in a fall in her century-old homestead eight miles east of Sherman in North Texas.

Shallow Oil Well Is Completed In Okla.

HOUSTON (AP)—Glenn McCarthy announced completion of a new shallow oil well in Oklahoma County, Okla.

He said the well was turned into tanks yesterday after making a potential test of 336 barrels a day through an 18-64 inch choke.

McCarthy said it was the shallowest well he had ever drilled. A 28-foot oil sand was topped at 4,350 feet.

Gunless Hunters Round Up Over 1,000 Rattlesnakes

WAYNOKA, Okla. (AP)—An estimated 18,000 gunless hunters stalked rattlesnakes in the hills around Waynoka yesterday and brought back over a thousand alive.

The hunt, which kicks off the "rattlesnake season" in Oklahoma, will be followed next week by the famous annual Okene, Okla., rattler roundup, considered the daddy of them all.

As certain as the coming of spring, each year thrill seekers and experienced snake handlers from all over the nation pack the little Northwestern Oklahoma communities to track down rattlers. Dangerous? Yes, but not as bad as it may sound.

Rattler-wise hunters who wouldn't come within a country mile of their fangs in summer and fall know they can battle it out on even terms in April and come out ahead, alive, and usually unbiten.

The snakes are emerging from a winter-long sleep and are groggy. As Merlin Camp, secretary of the Waynoka Saddle Club, which sponsors the annual event, put it:

"How would you feel after a good, long sleep? Like pretty much of a deadhead?"

So the hunters stalk the dens with their little forked snake-bite serum and suction cups are standard equipment with every group—and catch the reptiles near the head, pinning them. The snakes are not injured, because hunt officials will pay only for the live variety—50 cents a pound.

The Waynoka group then sells the snakes for the same prices to Arthur Jones, professional handler from Sildell, La., who resells them to zoos and anti-venom plants. A few end up butchered and canned, considered rare delicacies in the "caviar set."

Camp admitted frankly his digestion and rattlesnake steak don't get along.

"It wouldn't be bad if you didn't know what you were eating," he confided. "Tastes like shrimp. But I guess I'm mentally allergic to them."

The total snake take yesterday was expected to weigh close to 1,500 pounds.

No one was bitten on the hunt—no one has been bitten for the seven years of hunts at Waynoka.

Hunters usually bring back the rattlers in tin boxes, but one hard-skinned wrangler brought in a few wrapped in the sleeves of his shirt.

"Take the snakes," he told amazed officials, "but give me back my shirt. It's my last one and I can't afford to buy a new one."

Police Break Up Mob At Red Meeting

CHICAGO (AP)—Twenty-five police squads dispersed a crowd of 1,500 protesting a "Roosevelt-Stalin memorial" meeting yesterday afternoon, sponsored by the Chicago Council of American-Soviet Friendship.

Before police reserves reached the scene, an estimated 500 persons surged into the People's Auditorium and smashed chairs, overturned tables and destroyed and scattered books and pamphlets.

Police Capt. Harry Pennin said the Friendship Council scheduled addresses by writer John Howard Lawson; William L. Patterson, secretary of the Civil Rights Congress; and Cedric Belfrage, editor of the National Guardian, New York.

A banner in the hall read, "For international friendship, a meeting between Eisenhower and Malenkov."

A spokesman for the invaders, Alex J. Zabrosky, said they were members of the American Friends of the Anti-Bolshevik Block of Nations, which supports the underground in Iron Curtain countries.

The scheduled meeting, delayed an hour and a half, was attended by about 50 persons. Pearl Hart, a Chicago woman lawyer, was the only speaker. The Friendship Council directors later adopted a resolution condemning the disorder as an example of "Fascist violence," Executive Director John Rosten reported.

Sweet Scent Suggestion

Marie Windsor, star of Warner Brothers' "So This is Love," gives some helpful tips on how to use perfume so that you will win compliments.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

By Lydia Lane

HOLLYWOOD — Marie Windsor and I were sitting beside a pool last week end, and as one person after another came over to say hello it was interesting how many complimented on her perfume.

Later I asked Marie if she always received so many compliments on her perfume.

"I think people are often inclined to neglect the importance of perfume. You can't see it when you look in the mirror and it's natural not to give it the same attention you do the more tangible accessories. But I never feel I'm through dressing until I have added a fragrance."

"Do you have many favorites, or just one?" I asked.

"I got a crush on a perfume and use it more often than another, but I don't limit myself to one. I think climate, the time of day, and what you are going to do should influence your choice of perfume. But perfume can detract as well as attract," Marie added. "I remember getting awfully sick in a car because the girl next to me had used her perfume too lavishly."

"It's too bad perfume can't receive a stamp of approval by some authoritative agency so that women would not waste their money on cheap scents," I suggested.

"Yes," Marie agreed. "You have to develop a perfume sense just as you have to learn about good clothes or even music.

"The biggest mistake is to buy perfume because of the bottle or a high pressure presentation. "Perfumes vary with different people," Marie commented. "I have found that a scent I admire on someone else does not always smell the same on me. You have to experiment. For example if I hear of a new perfume, I buy a purse size bottle first. I measure its success by the compliments I receive when I wear it."

"I think a lot of women make the mistake of using perfume too sparingly. How do you establish your aura of fragrance?" I asked.

"I like to put perfume on the pulse spots because the heat of your body tends to accentuate fragrance."

"What are the pulse spots you favor?"

Marie rattled them off. Your wrists, temples, along the throat, between your breasts and in back of the knees.

"Do you use an atomizer?"

"A small bottle with a very fine spray because perfume used otherwise is liable to stain your clothes."

If you want to receive compliments on how sweet you smell, choose a well made perfume and use it according to the tips given by Marie Windsor.

Free Korea Election Urged By Senators

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) proposed today that the United Nations test the faith of Russian peace moves with a demand for free elections that might unite Korea.

Directs Band

D. O. Wiley, dean of Texas band directors, will be on the podium at 8:15 p.m. today when the Texas Tech Band is presented in special concert. The senior high school band is sponsoring the appearance of the widely known college band at the high school auditorium. Wiley has picked three score top musicians out of twice that number in the college band to form the concert group.

HS Musicians Are Winners In Regional Tests

For the first time, so far as records reflect, Big Spring Senior High School band members won a sweepstakes award at regional contests in Andrews Saturday.

The 65 musicians under direction of J. W. King Jr. won first division rating in concert playing and sight reading. Then Saturday night they went on to capture a first division rank on marching.

Only one other school in class AAA — Kermit — won this rating across the board. Odessa got a sweepstakes award in Class IV-A, while Andrews swept the field in Class II-A.

Two Youths Hurt While Dismantling Army Bazooka Shell

BROWNWOOD (AP)—Two 14-year-old cousins were seriously wounded yesterday when they tried dismantling a World War II bazooka shell found in the former Camp Bowie maneuver area southeast of here.

Tommy Stalcup and Carroll Thomas were resting satisfactorily last night after surgery to remove the shell fragments.

The boys removed the powder from the shell and, thinking it disarmed, tossed it to one side. It hit a rock and exploded. Stalcup was knocked unconscious.

Young Thomas, bleeding from wounds in his left thigh and elbow, rode a motor scooter to a nearby road and stopped. A motorist, meanwhile, Stalcup regained consciousness and staggered toward the road. Another motorist heard his cries and rushed him to a hospital for treatment of wounds in his right thigh, side and elbow.

Joined Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Wiley (R-Wis.) in casting doubt on the Kremlin's sincerity and in cautioning against letting the free world's guard down.

Knowland flew to San Francisco today to address a meeting of the California State Dental Association. In a prepared text, made available here, he suggested the Communists may want a truce in Korea so Russia can have a year or two to stockpile atomic bombs while it hopes the free world disarms.

"It becomes greatly important that we now give the acid test to determine the good faith of these Communist proposals," he said. "A clear demonstration would be on their attitude toward the immediate holding of United Nations supervised free elections in North Korea."

"Then, with a united, free Korea, the United Nations and the great powers should guarantee the independence, the territorial integrity and the neutrality of the Republic of Korea."

Knowland suggested as further tests efforts to get an Austrian peace treaty ratified, and moves to force the holding of free elections in Poland and in Communist-dominated China.

Knowland's view about Soviet agreement to an Austrian peace treaty jibes with expressions by two foreign leaders—German Chancellor Adenauer and Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

Tito—in an interview at Belgrade April 6, published in a copyrighted article today by U. S. News and World Report—said such action, plus Soviet agreement to unify Germany, would show a true desire for peace. But Tito, the only Red ruler to have split with the Kremlin, foresaw no end now to the cold war.

Adenauer was quoted during his talks with U. S. officials last week in Washington as saying Russia could best show peaceful intent by accord on Austrian peace, German unification and withdrawal of aid to the Chinese Reds in Korea.

The question of American aid to the Far East, with a possible shift of U. S. grants from Western Europe to the Orient, was explored by Secretary of State Dulles in testimony March 18 before a House Appropriations Subcommittee.

In his testimony, made public yesterday, Dulles said:

1. The U. S. contribution to the North Atlantic Allies, to be considered this month in Paris, "could be considerably less" than now.
2. More help for Indochina, where the French have been fighting a long guerrilla war against the Communists, might permit large cutbacks there later.
3. More money may be needed to put lagging deliveries of promised goods to Formosa, the seat of Nationalist China, back on schedule.

Taft, the Senate Republican leader, and Wiley, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, voiced their skepticism of the Soviet peace overtures in week-end interviews.

Taft said he thinks "Russia is trying to fool us." He said the West must not be lulled into letting its military defenses deteriorate or agreeing to an unstable truce in Korea.

He said he doubts the Reds will agree to any truce in Korea except at the present battle line. But with such a truce, he said, "war might occur again at any time."

Wiley cautioned that Russia may be switching its aggression from Asia to the Near East "and a bridge to Africa—that's their primary objective."

"The Communist peace offers are phony," he declared.

Two student conductors from the Big Spring Senior High School band were first division winners. They were Frankie Marstrand and Kenneth Briden.

The junior high band, with 60 members, took second division in concert playing and third division in sight reading. This unit did not compete in the marching events.

King, expressing pride in his musicians, said that "they worked hard for it this year. I knew they could if they worked hard enough."

Earliest Or Latest?
H. V. Crocker can't decide about his English peas. He thinks they've set some kind of record, but doesn't know whether it's for early or late production. Crocker planted the peas last August at his home, 1707 Benton. They bloomed some during the fall, but never made any peas. Crocker thought about hoeing them up, but never got around to it. The peas stayed green all winter and early in March started blooming again. By April they were really producing. Two gallons of peas were ready for harvest by Easter, and the vines are loaded again. Crocker figures there's a good half-bushel of peas in the small garden now. If they go through another season or two, he may go into the pea business.

Lawmakers Facing A Hard-Work Schedule

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Easter vacation ends for the House today, and both it and the Senate have been alerted to expect a hard work schedule from here on if they want to adjourn early in July.

Long daily sessions and frequent Saturday meetings are likely.

The House planned to skim through several noncontroversial bills today. The Senate, which had no extended Easter recess, scheduled more debate on a bill to establish state title to offshore submerged lands.

That measure, under debate for more than a week already, may keep the Senate busy all this week. Waiting behind it on the Senate docket is a controversial measure which would give the President power to freeze wages, prices and rents for as long as 90 days in a grave emergency. This bill would place the wage-price-rent control act expiring April 30.

Speaker Joseph W. Martin (R-Mass.), boss of the House, has announced that Saturday sessions will be the rule rather than the exception here from now until adjournment time.

Appropriations bills will have the right of way in the House as quickly as the appropriations committee can prepare them. Chairman Taber (R-N.Y.) of that committee plans to send the bills to the House floor at the rate of two weekly, starting with the Interior Department's budget this week.

Pressing for early consideration is a bill to extend the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, due to expire June 12. House Ways and Means Committee hearings on this bill won't start until April 22.

Meanwhile, at both ends of the Capitol, the investigations which have made most of the headlines in this Congress will continue. Among other things, they deal with communism, influence, ammunition supplies.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, said yesterday he anticipates from the Eisenhower administration "little new and far-reaching legislation."

"Judging from the statements thus far issued, this administration seems to feel we have had enough," Johnson said in a broadcast recorded for Texas stations. "Possibly they are right."

He said responsible congressional leaders will oppose any tax cuts until the budget can be brought near balance, and that appears doubtful this year.

It has been announced that the Pythian Sisters of Sterling Temple 43 will begin meeting at 8 p. m. Monday. The usual meeting time has been 7:30 p. m. Hostesses will be Mes. Lois Underwood and Mrs. Marie Hahn.

Lecturer Shoots Man Trying To Grab Daughter

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Dr. Laban Lacy Rice, 85-year-old lecturer and former university president, shot and seriously wounded a man who attempted to carry off his daughter in a week-end invasion of their home in suburban Gulfport.

Joe Cian, 46, a carpenter, is in serious condition in a hospital from bullet wounds in the chest and shoulder but he is expected to recover.

Rice, who used a 50-year-old pistol to halt Cian, also accidentally shot his daughter, Mrs. Katherine Shaw, 58, in one hand. She was treated for the wound and shock.

Sheriff Sgt. Saunders said Cian had been interested romantically in Mrs. Shaw since she hired him for some carpenter work three years ago. Several months ago, police were called when Cian went to the Gulfport home to press his attentions on Mrs. Shaw.

Saturday night he returned to the home, Saunders said, and when Rice ordered him to leave, Cian picked up Mrs. Shaw, who weighs about 120 pounds, and ran out of the house with her. The shooting followed.

Rice, after being held overnight in jail, was released Sunday. No charges have been filed.

Police said Rice told them he was anxious to "get any legal technicalities out of the way" so he could leave for a scheduled lecture tour among Northern colleges. He had planned to leave Tuesday.

Rice is an international authority on relativity and astronomy and author of the book, "The Universe, Its Destiny."

He served as professor of English language and literature at Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tenn., before becoming its chancellor in 1939 and its president in 1941.

Freezing Weather In Upper Midwest

The upper Midwest had freezing temperatures today as the entire nation experienced cooler than normal weather. There were rains in New England, showers on the Northern Pacific coast and some snow in the Northern Rocky Mountains.

Freezing temperatures were reported as far south as West-Central Illinois and Central Kansas. Minot, N. D., reported 18 degrees.

A storm center off the Southern New England coast brought rain and strong winds to that area, and during the night as far west as Ohio and Southern Indiana.

Showers and thunderstorms in Georgia, Florida and the Carolinas dumped as much as 2.57 inches on Atlanta and 3 inches on Apalachicola, Fla.

Farouk Police Guard Doubled After Threat

CANNES, France (AP)—Ex-King Farouk's police guard was doubled today in the wake of an anonymous letter received at his hotel last week threatening to bomb the place unless the former Egyptian monarch left promptly.

The letter is in the hands of the police here, who regard it in the light of a grim joke, but nevertheless took precautionary measures to increase the guard. Farouk has been staying at the Majestic Hotel since Easter Monday.

Cool, Fair Weather Expected For Texas

Generally fair spring weather on the cool side was expected in Texas after a week end of roaring weather that brought snow flurries to the Texas Panhandle, blinding dust storms to West Texas and damaging hail to Northeast Texas.

The Monday minimum range was from 24 at Dalhart to 56 at Brownsville. Dallas, with a minimum of 37, had its lowest April 13 temperature since records first were begun in 1913.

Sunday's maximum range in Texas was between Brownsville's 92 and Tyler's 53 degrees.

Precipitation for the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m. Monday included Alice 1.06, Lufkin .49 and San Antonio .11.

Weather Bureau officials said at mid-morning Monday the sky was clear over all of Texas—no clouds, fog or dust anywhere.

The tomato growing belt in Cherokee County near Rush and Alto was hard hit by hail stones early Sunday. Hail the size of a half dollar damaged young plants. Farmers estimated 15 to 100 per cent destruction in a strip about 20 miles long and a mile wide.

One grower said a conservative damage estimate would be $200,000.

Greenville caught rain and hail as a cold front swept through Saturday night and Sunday. Hail as large as golf balls broke windows in houses and dented automobiles.

Near midnight Saturday a hail-storm beat a wide path across southwest Gregg County. Windows were smashed at the Gregg County airport eight miles south of Longview. County Agent O. D. Taylor said crop damage, particularly to pasture improvement projects, would amount to "hundreds" of thousands of dollars.

Winds at the Gregg County Airport reached 75 miles an hour before the operator in the glass-enclosed control tower fled. He got out fast as the blasts began, hurling large hail stones against the windows. Damage to the airport was estimated at $500.

Tides Bill Approval Seen In 2-3 Weeks

DALLAS (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson, minority party leader in the Senate, predicts it will be two or three weeks before the bill for state ownership of tidelands is passed.

In a recorded broadcast over a Texas radio network yesterday Johnson said continued lengthy debate is likely despite the fact Republican leaders have threatened night sessions to expedite a vote. The controversial issue already has been up for debate six days in the Senate.

The Senator was interviewed by T. E. Johnson, managing editor of the Amarillo Globe-Times.

He said the pending legislation—the Holland bill—would "quit claim to Texas our original historic boundaries which mean 10 1/2 miles from the low tide mark."

Johnson said the area beyond historic state boundaries probably will be affirmed under federal jurisdiction in a second bill.

"Then we can determine whether the conservation laws, the police powers and the taxing powers of the abutting states should apply," he said.

Johnson said there are three reasons why the problems of the continental shelf do not deal with the pending Senate bill.

"First, because we thought it would endanger our historic boundary," he said. "Second, we were informed it would endanger the legislation with the executive department, including the necessity for Presidential approval of the bill. Third, it would require extended hearings and make it impossible to pass a bill at this session."

Johnson said that President Eisenhower faces the possibility of Republican opposition on the military budget, reciprocal trade and taxes.

In reviewing the first 80 days under Eisenhower, Johnson said they "are quite different from the first 80 days under the late President Roosevelt."

He predicted that attempts will be made to "repeal some of the gains of the past 200 years" but they will fail.

Johnson also made these comments:

Responsible Congressional leaders will oppose any tax cuts until the budget can be brought near balance, and that appears doubtful this year.

The Taft-Hartley labor-management act "has much more good than harm in it" and should not be repealed or materially altered.

The administration's "hard money" and "curb spending" programs will mean higher interest rates and probably lower farm prices.

Even if a truce is reached in Korea "we won't have peace in the world." Johnson said the Communist philosophy of trying to "dominate the world" will block any real peace.

Lehman Set For Battle Against Tidelands Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate resumes its protracted debate on the offshore submerged lands ownership question today with leaders doubtful about prospects for a vote this week.

Sen. Lehman (D-Ill.-NY) was prepared to take up the apparently hopeless battle to prevent enactment of legislation to establish state ownership of oil-rich submerged lands beneath the marginal seas within "historic state boundaries."

Lehman is one of the supporters of an amendment to provide for federal administration of all offshore minerals. Revenue would go in part to all 48 states.

The amendment was formally presented by Sen. Anderson (D-NM) on Friday in the midst of a two-day oration by Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.).

Douglas occupied the Senate floor a total of 10 hours and 40 minutes pleading with Congress to confirm the rulings of the Supreme Court that the states of California, Texas and Louisiana never had title to the submerged lands beyond low water mark on their shores.

Senate Republican leader Taft of Ohio said over the week end he would set aside more time for debate on the issue after today in an attempt to reach a vote next week.

Private Firms Set For Nuclear Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two private companies have been authorized by the Atomic Energy Commission to find out how and when nuclear power can be put into peacetime use.

The AEC said the companies—Pioneer Service and Engineering Company of Chicago and Foster Wheeler Corp. of New York—will conduct a one-year study to determine whether private industry can build an atomic reactor "in the next few years."

Drill Teams Compete In Lodge Convention

Speaker at the Wednesday evening meeting will be John D. Craig, and atomic energy enthusiast. The title of his address will be "A Layman's Approach to the Scientific Age."

Craig is not a scientist, but has gathered a wealth of material on the subject which he capable presents in the language of the layman.

Mrs. FDR Aide Dies

GOP Solons Insist On State Dept. Cleanup

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-SD) said today a group of Republican senators will insist on a sweeping shakeup of top-level policy-making officials in the State Department.

"It's not a question of loyalty or security," Mundt said in an interview. "We promised a change in the last campaign but an alarming number of the old Acheson team still hold most of the top posts."

Mundt said the demand will have the support of Senators Bridges (R-NH), McCarthy (R-Wis.), Ferguson (R-Mich.) and other members of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

A face-to-face showdown on this issue may come when Secretary of State Dulles appears before the committee to support the State Department's request for millions of dollars in funds.

In testimony before a House Appropriations Subcommittee March 18, made public yesterday, Dulles said the Eisenhower administration may shift a substantial share of American aid from Western Europe to the Far East.

Donald B. Lourie, assistant secretary of state for administration, told the subcommittee the department's operating allotment has been trimmed from 331 million to 266 million dollars.

Chairman Bridges indicated the Senate committee's hearings on State Department appropriations may not begin until later in the month.

Mundt said he and other senators have been studying telephone directories of the State Department.

"With the exception of a handful of new top officials, it's the same old lineup," he said.

"We were told there would be a sharp change in foreign policy and that we would move forward with Eisenhower."

"And yet scores, perhaps hundreds of these top officials, who are not under civil service, are the same ones who made policy for Acheson and Truman."

"It should be an interesting session with Secretary Dulles."

Bus Lines Resume As Strike Settled

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Operations of Unions Bus Lines were to resume today after week-end settlement of a strike that had curtailed South Texas commercial transportation since Jan. 1.

Drivers and mechanics voted to accept a three-year contract developed in negotiations with a federal wage mediation board in San Antonio Saturday.

Drivers were on call for duty yesterday, but Union Bus Lines officials said the full schedule would not resume at once.

The contract will give drivers a cent an hour raise at the end of three years. In the meantime, drivers go back to work for a 20th of a cent more than they were getting when the wage walkout began. There will be four more 20th of a cent raises before the full cent is added at the end of three years.

Co-Pilot Of Airliner Spots Fire From Air

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—A sharp-eyed co-pilot on a departing airliner spotted a fire yesterday on the roof of a large apartment house.

Benjamin Peters of Syracuse, outward bound for Washington on a Colonial Airlines plane, radioed the control tower at Hancock Field, which relayed the alert to firemen.

Only the roof was damaged by the blaze.

It Took 18,000 Inventions to Make This Call

THIS WAS THE FIRST TELEPHONE. Since Alexander Graham Bell built it in 1875, there have been more than 18,000 inventions and improvements in your telephone service — about 230 a year. Some were designed to improve your service, like today's convenient handset. Some were developed to hold down the cost of your service, like a recent mechanical device that ties knots in the cotton thread insulation on telephone wires.

EVERY YEAR BRINGS MORE PROGRESS in the complicated business of bringing you more and better service. For example, this versatile new construction truck is helping to push more telephone lines out into rural areas. It can dig a hole, pick up a 20-foot pole and set it in position faster than a farmer can set a fence post. Like many improvements you seldom see, it helps hold down the cost of your service — and expand its value.

Jefferson Described By Admirer As Cute

By HERB ALTSCHULL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Thomas Jefferson was born 210 years ago today, and you can take the word of Miss Millicent Sowerby that: "Jeffie was a real man, not a stuffed shirt or an ivory tower dreamer. He was vain, but never objectionably vain. He was proud of what he did and he was real cute in telling everybody how proud he was of his accomplishments."

Miss Sowerby, at the Library of Congress, has been compiling the most ambitious Jefferson collection ever attempted. She doesn't think she is disrespectful by calling the third President "Jeffie" and saying he was cute.

In the past 11 years, Miss Sowerby has read nearly 50,000 letters which Jefferson wrote or received, and as she put it today in an interview: "I'm sure I know Jeffie as well as anyone who knew him when he was alive."

Jefferson was one of the principal authors of the Declaration of Independence and of the U. S. Constitution, yet his birthday is not a legal holiday—except in Virginia, where Jefferson spent most of his life. His birthday anniversary goes all but unobserved.

Sen. Robertson, a present day Virginia Democrat, is not one to let the day pass without a kind word. Said the Senator:

"Democrats regularly celebrate the birthday of Thomas Jefferson not only because he was the founder of what is now known as the Democratic Party, but also because he was the greatest political philosopher our nation has produced."

Miss Sowerby rifled through some of the letters, written in the small, precise hand of a bookkeeper. They discussed on nearly every subject known to man, for Jefferson was interested in everything.

Jefferson wrote as many as 20 letters a day and he kept copies of every one of them filed in little pigeonholes in his revolving circular desk at Monticello. Also, he saved those he received.

Miss Sowerby showed one letter, written anonymously from Massachusetts. It began:

"You Redheaded — — —
It was neatly filed away with the rest, the data noted in Jefferson's handwriting. No comment, though.

And there was the letter Jefferson wrote in a playful vein to a friend who was to be married.

It said: "... And I'm certain she will love you very much, in spite of your teeth."

Incidentally, it was Jefferson's collection of books which formed the nucleus of the Library of Congress. The library was started in 1800, but every book was destroyed when the British burned it down in 1814.

Jefferson, a bit pressed for money, offered his collection of nearly 7,000 volumes to the library a month later. The library paid him $23,850.

How much are those books worth today? Nobody will hazard a guess, but you haven't got enough money to buy them.

Labor Leaders Meet in Mexico City On Workers In The US

EL PASO (AP)—American and Mexican labor leaders start a two-day meeting in this border city tomorrow. One of the topics they'll discuss is the use of Mexican farm hands in the U. S.

The get-together will be between representatives of the CIO and the Mexican Confederation of Workers (CTM).

Dr. Ernst Schwarz, CIO Latin American Affairs Committee director, said discussion will include "the general status of Mexican workers, discrimination against Mexicans in the U. S. and the so-called 'wetback' problem."

"Wetbacks" are Mexicans who enter the U. S. illegally to work. They are so-called because they often swim or wade the Rio Grande.

R. J. Thomas, CIO assistant director of organization, and Fidel Velasquez, CTM secretary-general, will head the groups.
