Miss Williams and Ensign Watson Exchange Vows in Double Ceremony

Miss Jerry Anne Williams of Lubbock and Ensign James Preston Watson of Port Hueneme, California, were married in a double ring ceremony at 8 p. m. today, July 21, in the Afton Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Williams of Afton, and Mrs. J. A. Watson, Matador, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. Victor Crabtree officiated before a background of white and blue flowers, green palm trees and baskets of white gladioli.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was dressed in gown of cloud white silk mist tulle, designed with a portrait neckline edged in Alencon lace. Sleeves were complemented by white gloves. Stand-away inverted pleats accented the dress bodice that flowed into a bouffant skirt and swept to a chapel length train.

A tulle of miniature pearls held her waist length veil of silk tulle and she carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses.

Honor Attendant
Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Tommye Williams, Afton. She wore a street length dress of white cotton satin, fashioned with a bateau neckline that accented with a blue quarter-length sleeves. A blue numberband accented the full pleated skirt. She carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations tied with blue streamers.

Shower Honors Recent Bride

The home of Mrs. Joe Cornett of Afton was the scene for the pre-nuptial shower honoring Miss Jerry Anne Williams, bride elect of James Preston Watson, from 2 to 6 o'clock, Monday, July 17.

Others sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Cornett were Mesdames Maurice Goodwin, Ralph Bennett, Ralph Marshall, Wyde Roberts, Delbert Tension, Guy Thompson, L. C. Winkler, Frank Forbis and Skinny Yeates.

A naval motif and the bride elect's chosen colors, blue and white, were used in all decorations and table appointments.

The refreshment table was laid with a white net cloth over blue. A ship holding a miniature bridal couple and white gladioli sprayed in blue, pulled by a swan formed the center piece.

White cake squares, punch and party nuts and mints were served by Mrs. Tension and Miss Tommye Williams.

Gifts were presented the honoree in a ship fashioned from a plastic container.

Mrs. Thompson presided at the register.

Those in attendance from here were Mesdames J. A. Watson, Pat Sheridan, Clovis Murphy, Clyde Gilbert and J. D. Spray.

Missions School Attended By Four

(Delayed)

The 12th annual School of Missions of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Northwest Conference is being conducted in Lubbock this week. It is being held on the Texas Tech College campus with women and girls staying in Doak Hall and classes being carried out in St. John's Methodist Church.

"In Thee Our Life Is One" is the theme of the 5-day school which will be conducted tomorrow (Friday). It began Monday.

Daily schedule includes meditations, class sessions, officer training clinics and special evening worship hours.

Mr. Cecil Matthews, Lubbock, who recently toured the Holy Lands gave lectures at the night meetings on her and her husband's trip.

Those attending from Matador included Mesdames Roy Patterson and Harry Willett, W.S.C.S. members and Misses Glynda Lynn and Jane Hamilton, Methodist Youth Fellowship representatives.

Mrs. Goodpasture was hostess at a backyard supper on Saturday evening and breakfast Sunday morning for all conductresses of the Order of Eastern Star in Texas.

Eighty-seven guests were present from Houston, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth and other towns in the state.

Miss Linda Cooper Is Shower Honoree

Miss Linda Jane Cooper, bride elect of Lamar Bryant Taylor of Afton was honored with a pre-nuptial shower Saturday afternoon, July 29, in the home of Mrs. C. A. Matney of Whiteflat.

Mesdames Clifford Martin, Sid McFall and Skeet Jameson shared the hostess duties.

The living room was decorated with white Shasta daisies and shell pink roses.

Centerpiece for the serving table was an arrangement of blue and white daisies on an oblong mirror. The cloth was of lace over blue Punch bowl and service were of crystal and other table appointments carried out the honoree's chosen colors of blue and white. Punch, cookies, nuts and mints were served.

The flowers were given and arranged by Miss Cooper's great-aunt, Mrs. D. E. Pitts. Also present were her grandmother, Mrs. Fred Simpson, her mother, Mrs. Arthur Cooper, and three of her sisters, Misses Sandra Cooper, Abilene, Frances Cooper, Lubbock and Doris Cooper, Whiteflat.

The mother of the groom-to-be could not be present because she was in a Littlefield hospital following surgery on Tuesday of last week.

Miss Cooper was assisted in opening her gifts by her mother and Wanda Matney and Frances Martin.

Mrs. Jameson registered 35 guests who called during the hours from 3 to 5 o'clock. Many sent gifts who were unable to attend.

Courtesy is Held For Recent Bride

A bridal shower in the home of Mrs. G. E. Hamilton, Saturday, July 29, was a courtesy honoring Mrs. James Burton Marshall of Amarillo, the former Frances McMahan.

Guests were registered by Mrs. J. Don Finch during the reception hours from 7:30 until 9:00 p. m.

The hostess list included Mesdames Hamilton, Mike Hoyle, Pat Sheridan, J. R. Whitworth, Bill Waybourn, Marvin Brotherton, Harry Willett, J. S. Stanley, Curtis Graham, Luther Lancaster, Elbert Reeves, J. D. Craven, Bill Moss and Glen Brotherton.

Frosted punch was poured by Mrs. Whitworth at the refreshment table which was laid with a net cloth over blue taffeta, featuring the honoree's chosen colors of blue and white. Blue daisies in a crystal bowl, flanked by blue and white candles in crystal candelabra centered the table. Other refreshments were tea, cookies, mints and nuts.

Mrs. Marshall was reared here and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson B. McMahan.
