Matador City Council Meeting Report

Budget Is Amended For Extra Repairs

The City Council of Matador met January 13 at 7:30 a.m. to take care of city business, approving the minutes and bills, with the budget being amended due to the extra repairs and the finishing of the extra sewer pond project.

Items discussed were the following:
* Charles Keith spoke with the Council about helping the City and County with an economic development grant or trying to get any new business in this area.

Keith had an Economic Development plan put out by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, he handed out to the Council. Keith wants to work with the Council, not against any plan the City already has.

He stated he has the time and the money to go to meetings and find out if there is any way to get new businesses for rural areas and is willing to do this.

The Mayor and Council members expressed their appreciation for his effort and desire to help.

* Travis Jameson was appointed as representative to the Motley County Appraisal Board.

* Election places to be voted on in the May 7 election will be Mayor, now held by Gary Lancaster; two council places, now held by Pete Williams and Shane Jones. Sign up will be February 21 until March 23.

* Reports were given by Terry Sanders, of the Landfill inspection on January 12, citing they need to cover the old unused part of the Landfill with 6" of dirt, pick up the paper blown in weeds and against fence, and weeds shredded. The inspector also suggested they start getting ready to move the Landfill to a new location, which would require about 10-12 acres. He also reported that the waste water plant still has several violations, some will be taken care of after the new pond is finished.

* Sanders reported on the city water inspection in November, stating he needs chlorine scales to make sure the chlorine balance is kept at the well. Council elected to purchase the scales.

* Council members Brenda Perryman and Shane Jones reported on talking to James Gillespie, asking if they could apply for a grant through RC&D for the City Park, which is in the Ballard Creek boundary. Gillespie had told them they could, but that all the property in the park area will have to be deeded to the City. City Secretary, Seven Alexander, reported that about half of the lots belong to the City, the Lions Club, and the Garden Club, with individuals owning the other half. Jones and Perryman are hoping they can get the extra lots deeded to the City so they can proceed with the improvements in the park. Pete Williams had mowed it after they had the last good clean-up.

* Perryman and Jones stated they had discussed starting a drive to save aluminum cans, to help raise money for the improvements. They need to find a trailer and place to put the trailer for citizens to put their empty aluminum cans in. Meeting adjourned.

Motley County Woman To Celebrate 100th Birthday

Arrie Smith Aulick will celebrate her 100th birthday Saturday, January 22 with a party given in her honor at the Senior Citizens Building in Matador.

Mrs. Aulick was born January 24, 1894 in Arkansas to Edward Dixon and Elizabeth Pledger Smith. In 1900 her parents, her aunt and she and her three brothers and sisters left Arkansas for Hill County, Texas. They came to Matador in 1917.

Arrie married Henry Foster Aulick in 1928 and acquired three step-children.

She and her sister, Rosa Smith Spray of Whiteflat, are the only living children of their family of eight children.

Mrs. Aulick stated, "I have lived in the most wonderful century of all. I have seen us go from wagons, to automobiles, planes, rockets. From seeing real Indians and Buffalo on the plains to seeing them on T.V."

Friends are invited to help Mrs. Aulick celebrate her 100th birthday, Saturday at the Senior Citizens Building, 2:30-4:30 p.m.

Money, Personnel Woes Force SPHPO To Close Six Area Clinics

NOTE: The following article is taken from the Plainview Daily Herald. Our Motley County Clinic is a SPHPO clinic, and we should be very thankful it is still open.

SPHPO may be down but it's not out. "We've had to pull back—like a lot of corporations are doing these days," said South Plains Health Provider Organization Executive Director Henry Hawley.

According to Hawley, SPHPO closed four of its outlying clinics in December due to "cash-flow problems" brought on by a number of factors.

Those clinics were located in Olton, Littlefield, Crosbyton, and Dimmitt.

In addition, clinics were shut down in Silverton and Floydada last September. "Not because of money problems," said Hawley. "But because we couldn't get medical personnel to locate there."

Closing the six outlying offices cut the number of SPHPO clinics on the South Plains nearly in half. Seven clinics remain: two in Amarillo and one each in Panhandle, Hereford, Muleshoe, Matador and the headquarters clinic in Plainview.

Hawley said while money has been an "ongoing problem for a long time, it came to a head in 1992-93—due in large part to mandatory changes imposed by the government. We had no control over them and we didn't get any additional money to pay for them."

Hawley cited the major mandates as: Compliance with the new disabilities law; stiffer regulations on medical labs nationwide, which led to the hiring of an additional staff person at a cost of $50,000 per year; and having to double physician salaries.

"We had to do that to recruit and retain doctors," said Hawley. "Their average salary is now $110,000 a year. When I came here six years ago, it was $55,000 to $60,000."

"In addition to upping the pay, we have to provide fringe benefits. We're in competition with everyone else in the nation when it comes to recruiting physicians."

An audit by an outside CPA firm in December was sponsored by SPHPO's regional office in Dallas. "The audit was in response to some changes we want to make to increase our efficiency and ease the cash-flow," said Hawley.

James Doss—acting regional administrator for the U.S. Public Health Service in Dallas—said the audit disclosed some "management weaknesses" and the need for "tighter (internal) auditing controls."

Doss noted, however, that no misapplication of money was found.

Hawley said that while the proposed changes have cleared the regional hurdle, he's still waiting for final approval from Washington before proceeding with them.

One proposal is to refinance the Plainview clinic and get a cash infusion of up to $500,000 in the process. "In effect, we'd be borrowing the money," said Hawley.

"Another reason for our cash-flow problems," he said, "is that we've got more than $600,000 in outstanding accounts receivable.

"That's in Medicare and Medicaid reimbursements alone. We'll get the money eventually. But Medicaid has six months to pay its bills and Medicare has a year to pay theirs."

In addition to closing six clinics, Hawley said 20 employees were laid off. They ranged from clerks and secretaries to a doctor, one nurse practitioner and four administrators: three in Plainview and one in Amarillo.

SPHPO expects to receive about $2.8 million in federal money when its new fiscal year begins June 1.

The federal funds will be applied toward the agency's projected $7 million budget for 1994 and will be supplemented by government insurance, private insurance, "private pays" and various state grants.

Despite a new budget year coming up, Hawley does not expect to rehire any of the laid-off staff or reopen any of the closed clinics.

"Not without some drastic changes in our ability to recruit doctors," he said.

"The main problem with the smaller communities is getting a physician to actually live there. Spending one or two days a week is not the answer. People need a doctor when they need a doctor. They can't control when they get sick."

Hawley said patients affected by the closures now go to other SPHPO clinics, the community health center in Lubbock "or they just drop into hospital emergency rooms."

"We had to make some tough decisions for the survival of SPHPO and the benefits of our patients. But the bottomline is—we're here and we're stronger than we were before."

Motley County School Board Meets

The Motley County ISD Board of Trustees met Wednesday, January 12, with all Board members present, with the exception of Randy Barton. Minutes were approved, expenditures and the financial statement were approved.

Items discussed are as follows:

* Superintendent George Blanch explained the update to the School Policy to be made concerning Family and Medical leave. This was accepted.

* Blanch also explained two school board training seminars.

* Blanch stated SBOE had recommended the new High School education program. He gave them a brief rundown of what to be expecting in the near future, stating there would be more math and a much harder program as well.

* The architect is coming soon to give several suggestions for adding the extra classrooms with funds from WADA.

* Sign up for the school board election on May 7 will be from February 21 - March 23. Places held at this time by Vann Francis, Marisue Potts, and Leslie Jameson, are up for election.

Meeting adjourned.

Harold Campbell Named As New Bank Director

At the January 13th meeting of the Directors of the First State Bank, Harold Campbell was voted in as a director. In December Campbell was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Billy Wason.

Campbell is a life-long resident, rancher, and businessman of Motley

County. He is the son of Harry H. Campbell, who was also on the Board of Directors of the First State Bank and a President of that Board.

Campbell and his wife, Grace, live on the Campbell ranch west of Matador.

PCA Reduces Stock Requirement

The board of Directors of Rolling Plains PCA has reduced the stock requirement for borrowing from the Association effective January 1, 1994. The stock purchase requirement, which has been 10% for a number of years, now will be reduced to 5%. This means that the borrowers' required investment in the Association will be just 50% of what it has been in the past, and the PCA will return some $3,000,000 to 730 borrowers in 19 counties of the Rolling Plains.

Rolling Plains PCA serves its borrowing members from six branch offices and a central office. Its Board of Directors is elected by the member-borrowers, and its staff of 24 employees were all raised on farms, ranches or in farming communities of the Rolling Plains.

As of the close of business December 31, 1993, the Association will enjoy a net profit after taxes of $980,000 with a loan volume of $57,000,000 and total capital accounts of $17,050,000. The entity has been selected as a Tier I PCA for the sixth consecutive year based on safety, soundness and financial strength.

The Association was originally chartered as Stamford PCA on January 10, 1934. In 1965 Stamford PCA merged with Memphis PCA to form Rolling Plains PCA. The Association celebrates its 60th anniversary this month.

FmHA Moves To Speed Up Loan Processing

Temple — "Texas farmers applying for assistance from Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) will experience a breath of fresh air this year," George Ellis, FmHA Texas State Director, said today.

"I have today taken action to delegate the full loan approval authority allowed under the Federal Regulations to FmHA County Offices in Texas," Ellis said.

This action means that FmHA Supervisors at the County level will be able to exercise loan approval authority up to the full County limit without prior reviews being required at other locations or even by FmHA officials at the same location.

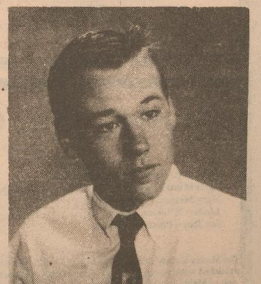

"As this new year begins, I feel this will be a real help to our farm customers, and I intend to pursue this type of change in the future, wherever I can," said Ellis.

FmHA County Supervisors were previously subject to a complicated system of reviews and re-reviews of loan applications in order to approve an FmHA loan. This system was instituted several years ago in order to insure fewer customers will have funds available to them at the time they are needed," said Ellis.

Farmers Home Administration, as an Equal Opportunity Lender, makes loans or grants to individuals or groups and guarantees to approved lenders without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, and handicap. Complaints of discrimination should be sent to: Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

El Progresso Club Members Learn of County Offices

El Progresso Club met Jan. 13, 1994 in the Senior Citizens building for an interesting program on the government in Texas. The president, Mrs. JoElla Bumgardner, welcomed the group, business carried out, and members reminded to bring El Progresso memorabilia to the next meeting to furnish a room in the Motley County museum, anything pertaining to the club. The nominating committee was announced, Mrs. JoAnn Dickson, Mrs. Pearl Patten, and Mrs. Opal Pipkin. The Yearbook Committee to select topics for programs, Mrs. Loys Campbell, Mrs. Sue Seigler, Mrs. Winifred Darsey, and Mrs. Beverly Vinson. She presented Mrs. Josephine Hamilton as leader for the afternoon.

Mrs. Hamilton introduced Mrs. Lavema Price stating she was a native of Motley County, the daughter of Clovis and Addie Murphy who lived at Whiteflat. Mrs. Price attended school at Whiteflat and later attended business school and various other institutions to improve her learning skills in whatever job she held at the time. She has worked at the PCA, First State Bank, ASCS and retired several years ago. In May 1993 she was appointed Motley County Judge and is now running for that office with the election to be held in March 1994. She also served three years as President of El Progresso Club, the first time a woman had ever done that as the local clubs were to elect officers to coincide with the State election of TFWC officers.

Mrs. Price praised the women of the club for serving President for it is a challenging position. She told the club she was going to give a summary of the county government in Texas stating the county system is modeled on the county systems of the states from which the early Texans came. It is the most universal unit of local government. In rural areas of Texas today county government is the most important unit of grassroots government available to the people. The county governments in Texas perform two basic functions: (1) they carry out the administrative and judicial responsibilities for the state and (2) they carry out local government responsibilities for county residents. All counties in Texas regardless of population or land areas have exactly the same form of government except for minor differences in some urban counties where the state has allowed for additional officers and courts.

The Commissioners Court is the most important governing body of the county. The County Judge presides over the meetings and sees that they are carried on in an orderly manner. It is really not a court but an administrative body for the county affairs. The court must meet once each month and the regular meeting is the 2nd Monday of each month. Any three members of the court may constitute a quorum.

The County Judge is the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court which is the policy determining body of the county. The County Judge has many jobs at her disposal. They are also a Notary Public and may perform marriages.

The County Commissioner: each county is divided into four commissioners precincts and each commissioner is directly elected by the voters of that precinct. That person is usually solely and directly responsible for the administration of the road and bridge program in his precinct but today that person is much more than a "road commissioner."

The District Clerk's duties revolve around the District Court and is recorder, registrar and custodian of all court pleadings, instruments and papers that are part of any District Court case. There are many other jobs this person attends to.

The County Clerk generally serves as clerk to both the Commissioners Court and the County Courts. The clerk is responsible for the filing, indexing and recording of all legal instruments affecting real property titles, such as deeds, deeds of trust, mortgages, contracts, etc. They also record births and deaths, delayed birth certificates, etc.

County Treasurer is the chief custodian of the county finances handling money in a safe and responsible manner, paying whatever needs to be done.

County Tax Assessor-Collector assesses and collects property taxes, issues certificate of title and license plates for motor vehicles, etc.

County Attorney is required to have alicensure to practice law. Motley County has a Special Prosecutor who is in the county one day a week to care for the duties assigned.

Justice of the Peace is elected from each Justice of the Peace precinct. This varies depending upon the population of the county. The J.P. Court has jurisdiction in criminal cases where the fine does not exceed $200 and may also serve as coroner if there is no medical examiner.

The Sheriff is the principal law enforcement officer in the county and has jurisdiction over the entire county to prevent criminal actions and to arrest offenders. In counties with a population under 10,000 and where there has been no vote to separate the two offices, the Sheriff may also be the Tax Assessor.

Mrs. Hamilton concluded the program by stating we should all recognize the Christian life and follow the Bible and our problems will be worked out. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. Loys Campbell. They served delicious cake, hot punch and coffee, nuts and mints. Mrs. Darsey gave the benediction.

Those attending and not mentioned were Mrs. Lila Meador, Mrs. Bailey Elliott, Mrs. Dorothy Day, Mrs. Callie Giesecke, Mrs. Dorothy Watson, Mrs. Lucretia Campbell, and Mrs. Lola Pohl who played the piano for the group to sing the Federated Club song.

Arts & Crafts Club Members Learn New Painting Techniques

Motley County Arts & Crafts Club met January 10 at the Senior Citizens Center, for its first meeting of the New Year, with eager anticipation.

Winifred Lee was instructor for the day bringing a new art form, "Pastel oil". This is a very interesting form of painting. The design is laid in, in pastel, oil or medium is applied, results, an oil painting, very effective and beautiful, depending on the artist, and the eye of the beholder.

A covered dish luncheon was a nice hour at noon, with good food and fun. Marion Woodruff and Lou Ann Jameson were hostesses for the day.

Club President, Joyce Meredith, presided over business at 1 p.m. Docents were appointed for museum and display at the library were discussed, also next month's meeting.

Those present were Bonnie Edmondson, Verdine Neighbors, Joyce Meredith, Elsie Thacker, Winifred Lee, Marion Woodruff, Lou Ann Jameson, Betty Simpson, Geraldine Key, Karen Cox, Pauline Hand, Joy Archer, Leola McKelvey, Una Simpson, and Winifred Darsey.

The club will have a class February 7, on plastic canvas craft, taught by Lorene Lancaster, members bring two sheets of plastic seven mesh, wool yarn scraps, and needles, and a covered dish luncheon is planned.

The vote to adjourn came about 3 p.m. reluctantly. It was a very good workshop.

Granddaughter Wins Distinguished Writers Award

NOTE: Karawynn Long is the pen name of Karen Henry, granddaughter of Juanita Henry of Floydada and Morris Stephens of Matador.

Karawynn Long, 23, a 1988 graduate of Johnston High School in Austin is the youngest winner ever of the L. Ron Hubbard Gold Award for the 1992 Writers of the Future Story of the Year.

As a science fiction writer, Karawynn attended the World Fantasy Convention in Minneapolis recently and Austin's ArmadilloCon in November and took with her an award winning reputation and a published manuscript.

Karawynn, a South Austin resident, works as a substitute teacher at the Texas School for the Deaf and as a tutor for the Austin school district. "I feel it's really good that I'm starting young and I have a long career ahead. And then there are days I feel I'm already 23 and haven't accomplished enough."

Even though she is her own worst critic, Karawynn's "Adjusting the Moon," her first science fiction story, was selected from thousands of manuscripts submitted from around the world. The story is about a woman using virtual reality to examine what went wrong in her relationship with her boyfriend.

Karawynn was awarded a trophy and a $4,000 cash prize at a ceremony Sept. 25 in Hollywood, Calif.

The Gold Award was Karawynn's second literary award. As a junior in high school she won a $1,000 scholarship in the Austin American-Statesman's short story contest.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

A man said to Mark Twain, "It's my desire to go to the mount where Moses received the 10 Commandments from God and recite them."

Mark Twain asked, "Why don't you stay home and keep them?" The Lord wants more than admiration, He demands allegiance.

There are many who say one thing with their lips, but show another thing with their lives.

The proof of your faith isn't in your language, it's in your life. Someone may say, "I'm a Christian; I'm on my way to heaven." But if he doesn't do what the Lord tells him to, he's a stranger to the truth.

Are you a doer, or just a hearer?

Even though he's only weeks old, this calf has a lot of power behind him. And a lot of green pastures ahead.

Meeting the electricity needs of Texans today is a real challenge. While maintaining respect for the environment, we must balance cost and reliability without becoming dependent on any one fuel.

That's why in the early 1980s, a group of electric cooperatives got together to build a power plant that uses a local fuel resource, lignite coal. Today, this efficient scrubber-equipped plant provides 400 megawatts of low-cost power to homes and businesses served by cooperatives in 91 Texas counties.

Keeping our commitment to the environment in mind, we are also making sure that we put things back better than the way we found them.

The land reclamation program at this plant's mine is turning what was once a cactus and mesquite patch into a grassy, productive home for livestock and wildlife.

Obituaries

Jim D. "Pete" Knight

Graveside services were held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, January 17, 1994 for Jim D. "Pete" Knight, 88, of Carlsbad, New Mexico, at Aztec Cemetery in Aztec, New Mexico, with Pastor Robert Schlauger officiating.

He was born on May 15, 1907 in Roosevelt, New Mexico. He and his family settled in Matador, Texas in the early 1920's. As a young man he went to work for the Matador Land and Cattle Co. as a working cowboy. He then moved to Oregon where he also worked as a cowboy. He served with the U.S. Army during WWII. He had lived in Ruidoso, NM and Stratford, TX before coming to Carlsbad in April, 1991.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Edward Knight and Pete Knight. Survivors include one daughter Mary Henson of Carlsbad, NM; one brother, Bill Knight of Mesilla Park, NM; two sisters, Leatrice Dickerson of Alpine, Alabama, and Irene Brochers of Prescott, Arizona.

Mary Clay

Services for Mary Edith Clay, 92, of Flomot were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, January 18, in First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Les Hall, pastor, and Stewart Smith, minister of Turkey Church of Christ, officiating.

Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery under direction of Myers-Long Funeral Directors.

Mrs. Clay died at 10:55 a.m. Sunday, Jan. 16, 1994, in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital.

She was born on Aug. 14, 1901, in Montague County and married Henry Clay in Belcher in 1915. He died in 1945. Two sons, Jackie and Bill, also preceded her in death.

Survivors include five sons, League, Joe and Ronald, all of Flomot, Mark of Rockwall and Bobby of Ringling, Okla.; a daughter, Margaret Lane of Turkey; a sister, Bessie Johns of El Paso; 17 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

Zora (Tose) Day

Graveside rites for Zora (Tose) Day, 95, of Matador were held at 3:00 p.m. Sunday, January 15, 1994, at East Mound Cemetery at Matador. Officiating was Rev. Gaylon Cox, pastor of First Baptist Church of Matador. Interment was in East Mound Cemetery under the direction of Seigler Funeral Home of Matador.

Mrs. Day died at 9:15 p.m. Friday at Carillon's Medical Center in Lubbock.

Mrs. Day was born February 3, 1898, at Guthrie, Texas, and moved to Motley County as a small child. She was married to Riley A. Day on February 10, 1916, at Matador. Mrs. Day and her husband operated a tailor shop in Matador for many years, until Mr. Day's death on June 10, 1964. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Matador, and had made her home at what is now Carillon in Lubbock since 1977.

She is survived by one son, E.A. Day of Matador; one daughter, Sylvia Fogerson of Silvertown; one sister, Oda Birchfield of Floydada; four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

THANK YOU

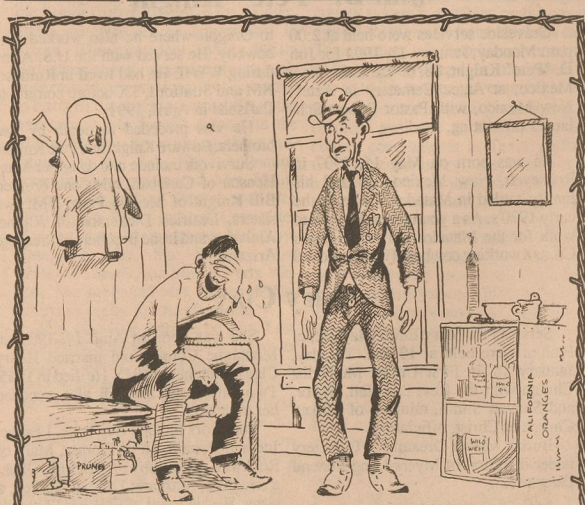

We want to thank everyone for your prayers, visits, cards, flowers, and calls while Richard was in the hospital and since he returned home. A special thanks for your prayers.
