Two Injured when Train, Truck Collide

A GRADE crossing accident about 8:30 Saturday morning put two county residents in the hospital and "totaled" a pickup truck about two miles southwest of Roaring Springs.

Morris Burkes, 31, of Matador and his brother-in-law, James G. Allen, 15, of Roaring Springs are in Lubbock Methodist Hospital, where they are receiving treatment for serious injuries. They were first taken to Floydada Caprock Hospital by the Motley County Ambulance Service, and later transferred to Lubbock. Young Allen was placed in the intensive care unit. Burkes, who was driving, received a broken jaw (broken in three places) and a broken hand, in addition to facial lacerations and other injuries.

Young Allen received facial lacerations and a possible concussion. Reports yesterday said both were receiving further examinations. They are in room 818. The east bound Q. A. & P. 41-car freight train was reported as traveling at 38 miles per hour when the collision occurred.

Burkes and Allen were enroute to the Bill Hand farm to work on a windmill when the accident occurred, it was declared. Sheriff J. D. Spray and Highway Patrolman Neal Haralson investigated the accident.

NAZARETH SNEAKS BY MATADOR 20-19

by Lance Jameson

The Matador Matadors and the Nazareth Swifts pulled down the curtain on the 1971 football season in Nazareth Friday night with the Swifts stealing the victory in the last seconds of the game 20-19.

The first quarter was a scoreless standoff. In the second quarter, Matador grudgingly gave up a touchdown when Nazareth crossed the goal line from the 10 yard line, but blocked the P.A.T. and the half ended 6-0.

In the second period of action, Matador narrowed the score to 7-6 in the third quarter when fleet Dwayne Campbell snared quarterback Bill Barnhill's 10 yard aerial. Barnhill toed a perfect P.A.T. Barnhill kept the fireworks popping for Matador when he broke up the middle on a keeper play and outraced the secondary for 40 yards and a touchdown. The P.A.T. missed its target.

Last quarter, Nazareth raised the score, on a 15 yard run and a good P.A.T. Quarterback Barnhill pitched a perfect aerial peg to Campbell who loped for touchdown and 6 Matador points. The P.A.T. kick went wide to the left of the uprights. The game ignited with excitement when with less than a minute remaining in the game, Nazareth crossed the goal line and the sailing aerial between the goal-posts gave the Swifts the one point margin victory 20-19.

The game featured a heated defensive battle between both squads. They battled up and down the field throughout the game. The Matador Matadors have been tough competition all year for opposing teams. Matador wound up the season with a 5-5 record and a 2-3 in district play.

WARS OF DRUG HABITS

Today is the first day of the rest of your life," Mrs. Roberson told the audience of 4-H Club members, their parents and adult leaders. "Will your future be a bright one — or one dimmed by wrong decisions and drug-forming habits. Juvenile delinquency is increasing because of the lack of knowledge on the part of parents, as well as that of their children, regarding the use of drugs."

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS BRADOR

One reason to explain the general predominance of mediocrity is that it requires little attention. Once the pattern is established, no effort is needed to support a dormant ambition.

Even before prohibition days it was believed that black coffee would restore an inebriate to sobriety quicker than any other treatment. An expert avers that it is a mistake, and that you only have a wide-awake drunk on your hands.

If only two conditions, doubt and temptation, could be removed from the hearts of men the estate of religion would be great enough to endow all the world.

The amount of effort needed to keep an automatic watch activated, is of course very slight, but mine stops at times. If I could have combined the vibrations of a T Model automobile I once owned, with the watch my problem would have been solved for a couple of eons.

It requires a vivid imagination, a disregard for veracity and a polite audience to make a convincing argument in favor of old age.

We not only reap what we sow, but often a side crop of thrifty problems in case the seeds were not carefully selected.

As well as my memory serves me, during the days of the depression, the problem of weight control was not a subject of conversation. The economy of the nation apparently made it much easier to refrain from overeating.

Some children are able to pack more happiness into an hour than their parents can sift out of a year. The young ones frequently accompany their pleasure with the music of laughter.

HAS HEART ATTACK

James A. Smith is a patient in Richard's Memorial Hospital, Paducah, where he was conveyed by ambulance Sunday, after suffering a heart attack. Mrs. Smith accompanied her husband in the ambulance and they were followed by their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson. He was reported improved Tuesday.

Drug Dangers Told In 4-H Meet Address

Drug abuse was explored in an impressive manner by Mrs. Jerry Roberson of Wichita Falls, guest speaker at the annual 4-H Awards Banquet Monday night at the American Legion building.

A former president of the Motley County 4-H Clubs and a Gold Star award winner, Mrs. Roberson, the former Shirley Stafford, was introduced by Miss Kay Cooper, Mistress of Ceremonies and president of the county 4-H Clubs.

Although, as Mrs. Roberson pointed out, juvenile delinquency is on the increase around the nation, membership in Motley County 4-H Clubs is higher by 18 members than last year.

A total of 235 young people ranging in age from 9 to 18 years, are now enrolled in nine 4-H clubs in the county, with 85 boys and girls receiving awards (8 more than last year) at the banquet.

Top honors, the Gold Star awards were received by Miss Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cooper, Matador, and Lance Jameson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. "Skeet" Jameson.

Two new awards — 4-H Key Awards — were presented this year with Pat Peacock and Miss Peggy Marrs, last year's Gold Star 4-H girl, as recipients. Presentation was by Lyndol Black of Lockney, in behalf of Custom Farm Services, donors of the award.

Miss Marrs also received the award for the best senior record, with Will Palmeyer as winner of the best junior record.

Leadership awards went to Mrs. Sid McFall of Flomot and Lewis Bostick, Matador, with F. E. Brandon of Roaring Springs receiving a 10-year leadership pin. Mrs. Ike Reed of Flomot was recognized for having a 32-year record of 4-H leadership.

Warnings of drug habits were given by Mrs. Roberson to the audience of 4-H Club members, their parents and adult leaders. "Will your future be a bright one — or one dimmed by wrong decisions and drug-forming habits. Juvenile delinquency is increasing because of the lack of knowledge on the part of parents, as well as that of their children, regarding the use of drugs."

Mrs. Roberson admitted that the drug problem did not exist a few years ago during her youth, although marijuana has been used in this country since 1920. "There are now between 4 and 5 million users in the United States," she declared.

She explained the dangers of ordinary drugs in general use by adults, citing the fact that 300 tons of sleeping pills alone are consumed each year. "It should not be the sole responsibility of the government or law enforcement officers and other agencies to educate the public," she asserted, "parents should begin the education at home and teach their children of the dangers of even experimenting with the various forms of drugs."

County Agent Bill Palmeyer presided in the awards presentations and pointed out that the 4-H programs and projects formed an effective weapon in combating the drug problem. "4-H club work keeps the youngsters so busy they don't have much time on their hands."

Summary is Given In addition to those receiving awards, Palmeyer said that 182 will receive certificates of completion. This represents 69% of the membership and shows a 2% increase over last year. He stated that 19 had moved from the county as compared to 24 the previous year and that 39 dropped out as compared to 41 last year. Fifteen did not have any type of 4-H project this year.

The program followed a delicious barbecue supper, and County Agent Palmeyer expressed appreciation to all committees, for preparing and serving the supper, decorating the tables or helping in any way with the arrangements, with special thanks to the firms sponsoring the annual event.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Germany of Vernon were among the special guests. Mrs. Germany serves Motley County as County Demonstration Agent-at-large. Mr. Palmeyer was given a standing ovation for his work as leader of the 4-H Club work in the county.

A complete list of the award winners will be published in a subsequent issue of the Tribune.

ANNUAL HARVEST FESTIVAL was observed Sunday at the First United Methodist Church for ingathering of tithes and offerings, and a fellowship Thanksgiving dinner at the church. Offerings Sunday exceeded the goal which had been set and was cause for rejoicing among members, pastor and guests. The plan for holding a Harvest Festival was introduced here five years ago by Rev. John M. Fitzgerrel of McAdoo, (shown at left) while serving as pastor here. Rev. Douglas Gossett, center, is present pastor of the church, and at right is Dr. Weldon Butler, District Superintendent of the Plainview District of the Northwest Texas Conference of United Methodist Churches. — Tribune photo

Two Churches Join For Thanksgiving

Congregations of two local churches joined to hold a traditional union Thanksgiving service Sunday night at the United Methodist Church. The public was extended an invitation to attend and make the occasion a community worship service, commemorative of the early observances.

A message of Thanksgiving was brought by Rev. Gene Joplin, pastor of the First Baptist Church. He used as his text, Psalm 116, and emphasized verses 12 and 13, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord," and verse 17, "I will offer to thee the sacrifice of Thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord."

"There is no way we can ever repay the Lord for all his benefits," Rev. Joplin declared. "We should continually proclaim the duty of thanksgiving to the Lord... we have so much in the spiritual realm to be thankful for, although we place a premium on material things. Our concern should be for the needy about us and for mission work around the world... we have so much more than they, and so many things we should be thankful for. We should spend more time thanking God for his goodness to us."

In further admonition, Rev. Joplin cited the Thanksgiving Day Proclamation issued by George Washington in 1789: "Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection, aid and favors... Now, therefore, do I assign and recommend Thursday, the 26th day of November next... that we then unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection of the people of this country, and for all the great and various favors which He has been pleased to confer upon us."

The Methodist choir presented as a special, "O Beautiful for Spacious Skies," and congregational hymns further voiced the thanksgiving thought.

The offering taken was designated for the Community Chest.

THANKSGIVING TURKEY RALLY FOR MATADORS

by Cindy Carpenter

Thanksgiving came early for the Matador Matadors because they were to go out to hunt Turkey Turks but not as "Matadors" but as "Hunters." Before they could "Go Get a Turkey", the pep club girls had to get the spirit stew on the fire so that it would be ready for the "turkey". So, the Matador vs. Turkey pep rally or fire was started Friday, November 12.

The ingredients needed for the spirit brew just included the basics. "many yells and chants from the backers, plus large quantities of encouraging words". The pep club girls provided the first two ingredients by yelling: "Whop-um Up Aside of the Head", "Onward", and "Go Go Gettum Gettum Go Go", plus many others just to spice it up a bit more. Hunters Kelly Keltz and Morris Timmons told of the ammunition the boys had ready to out-smart the Turks with. Their means of ammunition was from good, hard workouts, up-to-date plays, and teamwork.

Mrs. Jake Edwards, master cook for the spirit brew, added the encouraging words for the hunters. In her recipe for spirit brews and also life, she felt that sometimes too many over-spiced ingredients can be added; all one needs is a few good plays and a few good boys doing their best that would in turn help make the most tempting spirit brew not only for conquering turkeys but also in conquering the turmoils of life.

So, with the fire crackling, the spirit brew stewing, and the hunters impatient, all was ready for the most important part to make it a delicious feast, a big, plump turkey. After the singing of the school song, the Matadors or "hunters" were turned loose to the cries of, "Beat the Turkeys, Beat the Turkeys, Beat Em Black and Blue."

Maverick Corral

FIFTH: Mrs. Dean Turner's fifth graders have been studying the lives of famous men in our history. They have been enjoying acting out plays about kings in reading class.

FOURTH: Everyone is getting in the mood for Thanksgiving, including Mrs. Keith's students, who have made pictures of turkeys with colored chalk and construction paper. The class is also busy preparing for a Christmas play they are going to present soon.

THIRD: The third grade students are starting a new reading unit in which they will learn about Pilgrims and the purpose of Thanksgiving. They are practicing the use of suffixes in spelling.

SECOND: The second graders have made placemats which resemble Indian paintings on bark. To further their study of Indians and Pilgrims, they have hung pictures around the room.

Mr. Billington gave a program to the second grade class on "Sharing our land with the wild-life." He showed colored slides that were both interesting and very informative. For example, the children learned that a bob-white quail eats 1700 seeds in one meal.

Tribute

TO RANDALL WHITWORTH

Although "Rat" Whitworth Day is over, and I was unable to be present, due to health conditions, I wish to add my tribute to those of other friends of his and Margaret's.

I am not a Matador "Ex," but I served on the School Board and was president for about 10 years. Matador is my home, and that is where my heart is.

Randall Whitworth is the most Christ-like person in Matador and Motley County. There has never been his equal, and I can think of only one other person, Brother Vaughn, who is now deceased, who possessed the same Christ-like qualities.

I hope it will be many years before God calls Rat home. But when He does, I know there will not be enough flowers or a building large enough or a preacher great enough for Randall's memorial service.

I am glad that so many friends from all over the country have been eulogizing Randall and Margaret. It was wonderful and they are very deserving, as it is said, "behind every great man there is a great woman."

It is certainly better to be praised while alive than after one is gone and I know that Rat should feel this way also. I also know that praises to Rat will last many years after he is gone.

This is not an emotional tribute on my part. I am just relating facts, and as a friend, I will probably "take him to task," the next time I see him. And, as a friend, he will accept and understand, because he knows me for what I am.

The Easy, Practical Way To Extra Range-Feeding Dividends!

TE Liquid Feed Supplement

... saves time and work ... reduces labor costs drastically. One trip to fill the T-E feeder takes care of 75 to 100 head up to 10 days. No need to run to the pasture every day with cake or cubes. T-E Liquid Feed eliminates loss from waste or spillage ... cows can't tromp it into the ground.

T-E Liquid Feed provides the supplement cattle and sheep need and helps them utilize the available forage. It contains urea, molasses, high grade phosphoric acid, vitamins, trace minerals and other additives. Only the formula from which T-E Liquid Feed is made inhibits urea to slow down and pace its conversion into protein so that animals get maximum benefit from it.

You can depend on T-E Liquid Feed to give your herd an extra measure of good health at substantial savings. You'll see clearer eyes, better hair coat, more bloom that buyers like. You'll see more consistent estrus, better conception, easier calving, fewer abortions and stillborns and larger calves dropped and weaned.

Talk to your T-E Liquid Feed dealer. Let him show you how T-E Liquid Feed can MAKE MORE MONEY FOR YOU!
