Big QA&P Train is Wedged in Ditch

GREATEST railroad wreck in the history of Motley County occurred about 9:45 Sunday night when 31 cars of east-bound Quana, Acme & Pacific Railway train No. 30 were derailed at Russellville Switch, 14 miles southeast of Matador. No one was injured.

Many of the cars of the 62-car train were crushed like tobacco cans and wedged in a cut just east of the Russellville stock loading pens.

Three diesel engines and several lead cars were not derailed and went about six miles to a telephone at Summit, where notice of the wreck was first dispatched. Back of the wreck, 21 cars and the caboose remained on the track and were later brought back to Roaring Springs. A car loaded with powdered sugar caught fire, and fire departments from Matador and Paducah finally subdued the blaze. The burning sugar car rested on top of an empty oil tanker and was close to a car loaded with highly flammable motor "tune-up" fluid. A refrigerator car of California oranges was between the sugar and motor "tune-up" fluid. Nine cars loaded with potash were in the wrecked train. A car loaded with California wine did not leave the track. Four "piggy-back" trucks on flat cars were in the train and one was derailed.

Q. A. & P. agent Dick Carpenter at Roaring Springs said yesterday that the first train passed over the wreck area (west bound at 5 miles per hour) at about 11 p.m. Tuesday.

VOICE OF THE FOOHILL COUNTRY

71ST YEAR—No. 34 MATADOR, MOTLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1965 PRICE SEVEN CENTS

NOBODY VOTES IN MY TOWN

This feature was received in the mail yesterday and this newspaper feels its worth is great enough to warrant front page space.

by B 7 7 7 6

It is election day. Much is at stake in my state. But most of my town's 4,700 inhabitants are chronic misfits who couldn't argue politics. And, because time seems longer, tempers are shorter in my town. Therefore, such arguments are more apt to end in mayhem where I live. The name of my town is Southwestern Michigan Prison.

Even as breakfast is served, a young murderer and a middle-aged burglar come close to blows in a debate on the abilities of Governor Romney. An alert guard breaks it up just in time.

The burglar is serving his fifth term in my town. I know him well. So, after he cools off I needle him a bit, saying, "I take it you voted for Romney."

"You kiddin'?" he said. "I never voted in my life. I got sense enough to know no matter who's elected, the best John Q. Public's gonna get is the worst of it. The hell with votin'!"

That's sedition, philosophy, isn't it? "The hell with votin'" means down with democracy, your country, your government and, consequently, every home where government really begins in the land.

Yet, I've voiced such sedition myself. It came out something like this: "Couldn't make it to the polls. I had other things to do on election day." The reflection lures me into deep concern and holds me down with this hard and heavy fact: I am stripped of my voting rights for many elections to come. What I feel leaves no room for self-esteem. I begin to wonder how my fellow inmates feel about not being allowed to vote. Later, I interview nearly 300 of them. Almost 90% merely shrug or otherwise indicate lack of concern. Eighty individuals admit that they'd never voted! (Could the deeds that landed us here be germane to such disregard for democracy?) Consider three responses to the question: "Did you vote regularly when you were free?"

"Gambling syndicate underling age 33, serving 5-10 years: 'The organization always saw to it that I voted; even told me who to vote for.'"

"Alcoholic (doing 1-2 for non-support): 'They'd let us off work in time to make it to the polls, all right. But I'd stop at a buddy's house to talk the election over. There'd be a bottle or two around. And somehow, before I considered all the issues and candidates and decided who'd get my vote, it was either too late or I was too loaded to care any more.'"

"Vote fraud fall-guy (age 72, serving 1 1/2-2 years): 'Election days was gray days for me. I always voted. Got five bucks a ballot. Sometimes I made fifty-five, sixty dollars.'"

As for me — well, it's occasionally difficult to face the mirror of patriotism and like what you see. Instead of voting, I've often gone hunting or fishing. Attended to selfish matters of assorted kinds. Indeed I've leaped on every lame excuse in the American voters' book. But the future will offer opportunities to prove my determination never again to skip a chance to vote.

Amendment Vote is Scheduled Tuesday

MOTLEY COUNTY voters will be extremely important and the future of the state may well be affected by Tuesday's vote. Old age benefits and veteran's loan amendments, together with students loan funds top the "for" list, according to the Tribune's opinion.

This newspaper, however, does not offer a ballot for voters to use. It does urge that every qualified voter go to the polls Tuesday and vote.

The future of this country can remain strong as long as the right to vote is exercised, but goes to a minority when the apathy of voters leave it in their hands.

The issues have been published four times in past publications of the Tribune. Daily newspapers and other media will review the amendments before the election date. Remember, it is more important that you vote than how you vote.

Letter to the Editor

Mr. Douglas Meador
Matador Tribune
Matador, Texas

Dear Doug:

It was good to visit with you last week at the Lions Club meeting. I appreciated the opportunity to discuss the constitutional amendments and certainly appreciate the good story in the Tribune.

Some of your readers have inquired about Proposition No. 4. The 4 year term proposal for state office holders is easily confused with the 4 year term proposal for members of the House of Representatives. I voted to submit Proposition No. 4, the proposal for 4 year terms for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and other constitutional officers, but did not vote to submit the proposal on House members.

Be sure and let me know when I can be of service to you, Matador, or Motley County.

Sincerely,
Jack Hightower

Fletcher Cowart Dies in Lubbock

Fletcher H. Cowart, 64, long-time rural mail carrier between Turkey and Matador, died at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock. He had been a resident of Turkey for 60 years, and was well-known in this area. He was a heart patient here for several months during last year.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. today (Thursday) at the First Baptist Church in Turkey. Seiger Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include the wife; a daughter, Mrs. L. V. Thrasher, Turkey; a son, Jerry, Baton Rouge, La.; five stepsons; two step-daughters; one brother, seven grandchildren and 25 step-grandchildren.

In the meantime what about you? Like many other sheer blessings in America's full-fashioned freedom, the privilege of voting is never completely appreciated until it is lost. I know. So I stated until the immigrant must agree: "You Americans don't adequately appreciate your system of government because you don't understand what it ain't don't understand."

However, our Star Spangled Banner waves best when every thread is intact. Similarly, the government it represents needs every vote.

But nobody votes in my town. Nobody may.

What could be worse, patriotically?

Only your town, where every adult may vote... and you don't.

Fame Spreads For Sourdoughs

THE SOURDOUGH SINGERS from Matador are in receipt of a card from WMIX, Mt. Vernon, Ill., stating that they think their record is "great" and that they are playing it on that station.

The recently released record of "The Sourdough Singers from Matador" continues to receive favorable comment from many radio stations in the West Texas area.

It has been "Pick Hit of the Week" on stations in Lubbock, Plainview, Littlefield, and Ralls, and is receiving special recognition from many others, including KGNC Amarillo.

Monday night they entertained at a Youth Appreciation party in Ralls, at which more than 100 young people gave their hearty approval to the talented group. The previous week, they sang at the "After the Game Party" at Floydada.

Bedbugs Perform At Gainesville

Mr. and Mrs. Algie Groves spent the week end in Gainesville with their son, Mike, an architect student at Rice University, Houston and member of the Bedbugs Band.

The combo, composed of Bob Tanner and Jerry Lawson of Gainesville, Harry Guffee of Franklin, Tenn., Mike Groves, and Ginger Bowen, soloist, of Nashville, Tenn., played for entertainment for the Gainesville Homecoming, during the week end.

James Williams Rites Set Today

Funeral services for James Williams, 82, formerly of Flomot, will be held at 10 a.m. today (Thursday) in Ford Memorial Chapel of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Williams, a resident of Lubbock since 1944, died at 8:20 a.m. Tuesday at Ray's Hospitality Home. He had been in ill health for the past two years.

He lived in Flomot from 1912 until moving to Lubbock. He taught school in Motley County for several years, and also operated a hardware and implement store in Flomot.

Survivors include his wife of the home, 2430 22nd St., two daughters, Mrs. Wilson Bourland, Lubbock, and Mrs. Melvin Robertson, Odessa; a brother, Tim Williams, Decherd, Tenn.; three sisters, Mrs. Mae McKenzie, Lubbock, and two living in Tenn., and four grandchildren.

BOY SCOUTS TO MEET

A meeting of the Boy Scouts will be held at the Roaring Springs Scout hut Thursday night at 7:30. It was announced this week. RITES HELD FOR MRS. SMALLWOOD

Funeral services for Mrs. W. A. (Aurthur) Smallwood, 60, former Matador resident were held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Church of Christ.

A retired nurse, Mrs. Smallwood died early Sunday morning in the Big Spring Hospital. She had been in failing health for several years, and suffered a stroke which resulted in her death.

John Bullock of Big Spring, and Minister Leonard Dennis officiated for the service. Burial was in East Mound Cemetery under direction of Seiger Funeral Home.

Mrs. Smallwood was born Nancy Vallie Lee, March 31, 1905 in Williamson County, Texas, near Granger. She died October 24, 1965 at the age of 60 years, 6 months and 23 days. She was a member of the Church of Christ.

She came to Motley County as a girl, with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Will Lee, and was married at Matador, to Arthur Smallwood on Nov. 10, 1926. They lived here for a time, then moved to Afton. In 1959 they moved to Lamesa and Mr. Smallwood died there January 8, 1960. The following year, Mrs. Smallwood moved to Big Spring to live with her daughter, Mrs. Collin Reese (Joyce).

Besides her daughter, she is survived by three grandchildren, two brothers, Jessie Lee of Tulla, and Homer Lee of Oregon; and two sisters, Mrs. George Mc Mahon of Sunray, and Mrs. Opal Moore, Plainview.

Palbearers were C. W. Smith, Arlington, Tex., Glen Williams, Lamesa, Henry Harris, McAdoo, Frank Ragland, Afton, Jesse Smallwood, Plainview, and Herbert Smallwood, Lubbock.

Carnival Is Open

A carnival sponsored by the Matador Lions Club will open here today north of the courthouse. It will include four ride attractions of Ferris wheel, air planes, swings and live ponies. In addition to the professional carnival attractions, the Lions will operate two booths.

The Lions booths will probably be located in the West Texas Gin rock building on the east side of the carnival. The Lions booths will be operated Friday and Saturday evenings only. The carnival will remain through Sunday.

Proceeds net 20% from the carnival will go to the general fund of the Lions Club.

New SCS Manager Succeeds McDaniel

Ervin Willard, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Willard of Quana, is the new Soil Conservation Service head in Matador. He succeeds Lynn McDaniel who vacated the job to accept a similar position in Pampa.

Willard graduated from Texas Tech College, Lubbock in 1962 with a B. S. Degree in Range Management. He has worked for the Soil Conservation Service in Clarendon, two and a half years, and spent 10 months in Wheeler before coming to Matador.

He is 25 years old, single, and interested in range conservation and range management work.

RECENT SURGERY

Mrs. Clint Hicks of 3711 47th St., Lubbock, former Matador resident has been a recent patient in Methodist Hospital, following an operation on Oct. 12. She is now convalescing at her home, having been dismissed from the hospital on Oct. 20.

BAKE SALE AT AFTON

A bake sale will be held in three places of business in Afton, Saturday, Oct. 30, sponsored by the Afton Cemetery Association for the purpose of paying for trees and shrubs. Sundown Blanks Matadors 24-0

by John Barnhill

Friday night the Matador Matadors bowed to the area's top-ranking team, Sundown, by a score of 24-0, here on Burleson Field.

In the first quarter the Matadors posed their most serious threat, driving to the "Neck's" 4 yard line. With first down and goal to go they drew a 15 yarder which dealt the death blow to the drive.

Scoring touchdowns for the Drillers were Jim Gray from the 5, Ronnie Popejoy from the 2, and Jim Gray from the 7. For the Matadors Larry Bynum led the rushing with 37 yards on 7 carries. He was followed by Luis Moore with 25 yards.

The Matadors' defense was led by Charles Meador, Ronnie Cox, Luis Moore, Chip Smith and John Barnhill.

The season record to date stands at 3-3-1.

This week is open for the Matadors, but it will not be a week of rest. They will be hard at work sharpening their offense and planning skullduggery with hopes of nixing any contenders for the district crown.

Matador will travel to Rochester on November the 5th for the first district bout.

Youth Conference Delegates to Speak At Legion Meeting

American Legion Fleming Post No. 377 and the Legion Auxiliary, sponsors of many youth movements, will hear reports Monday night, Nov. 1, from delegates to the Attorney General's Youth Conference on Crime held in Austin, and to the Farm Bureau's Citizenship Seminar held in Huntsville in August.

Speakers will be Joanie Barton, Matador, and Mike Peacock, Roaring Springs, delegates to the Crime Conference, and Karen Elliott, who attended the Citizenship Seminar. Mike and Karen have previously spoken to the Legion and Auxiliary, after attending Boys State and Girls State earlier in the summer.

Mavericks to Play Last Game Tonight

The Matador Mavericks will conclude their season tonight (Thursday) when they meet the Little Turks from Turkey in their final game on Burleson Field here. It was announced this week by Coach J. E. Edwards.

The game will start at 7:30 and the public is invited and urged to support the Mavericks by attending, and is reminded that the present Mavericks are the future Matadors.

FORMER RESIDENTS ILL

"Uncle Joe" Meador, pioneer of Motley County and long-time resident of Matador, has been a patient in Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene the past week, and his condition is described as critical.

He has been residing in Abilene with a daughter, Mrs. Lola Belle Wilson 1110 Beech Street, the past two years. Two other daughters, Mrs. C. E. Woolery and Mrs. James Bryant, also live in Abilene.

Also on the critical list in Hendricks Hospital, is another former Matador resident, C. T. Heller. Mrs. Heller recently suffered a heart attack and is also a patient there.

Church and Society

WCSA Meets For Dish Luncheon

Mrs. Melvin Meason was hostess to the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, with a covered-dish luncheon Tuesday of last week.

The occasion was the annual "Call to Prayer and Quiet Day," with the hostess as leader of the program. Using the general theme, "Spiritual Renewal," four points were stressed, as follows: Renewal through Silence, Renewal through Seeking, Renewal through Discipline, and Renewal through Challenge.

Mrs. Myrtle Stubblefield led hymns interspersed through the program, and leading in prayers were Mesdames Mattie Brotherton, A. J. Daffern, W. B. Vaughn and W. F. Gaede.

Mrs. Bill Pipkin, president, conducted a short business session and reminded those present to bring their stamp books to be used in purchasing needed articles for the parsonage. All members of the church are urged to share in this, and the books may be left at the Variety Store with Mrs. W. F. Jacobs.

The president also announced that open house will be held at the new parsonage, Sunday, Oct. 31, from 2 to 5 p.m. with a cordial welcome to everyone.

Others present were Mesdames Harry Willett, Ethel Payne, Maggie Hamilton, and May Simpson, and Miss Mary Sliver.

Keith Patton is New President Of Iris Society

Keith Patton, Matador, Monday night was installed as president of the South Plains Iris Society, at a meeting of the organization in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Patton attended the meeting, held at 7:30 at the Garden and Art Center, with Mrs. E. E. Patton (no relation to the local residents) rearing president, presiding.

Mrs. Ed Jarman served as installing officer for the new slate which included Mrs. W. R. Butcher, Lubbock, Vice-president; Mrs. Finlay Herrington of Lorenzo, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Charles Benson, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. T. E. Worsham, Public Relations; and J. J. Sharnberg, Treasurer, all of Lubbock.

John Mitchell, Lubbock, gave the program on "Iris in History," and the society welcomed.

ed Mrs. Lena Phillips, Lubbock as a new member.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program, by Mesdames C. McCrummer and C. C. Taylor of Lubbock and Mrs. W. Roberts, Littlefield.

This was the final meeting for the current year, of the organization composed of 38 members from South Plains towns, including Tulia, Littlefield, Olton, Levelland, Lubbock, Lorenzo, and Matador.

Kay Dailey Named Queen Of Festival

Miss Kay Dailey, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dailey of Grapeland, recently was named queen of the 20th annual Grapeland Peanut Festival.

The pretty dark-haired high school freshman is the granddaughter of local residents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Woodruff, and has been a frequent visitor in Matador. Her mother, the former Dorothy Woodruff was reared here.

The festival, held on October 9, was attended by an estimated crowd of 2000 persons. The queen was selected on Friday night in a harvest pageant that launched the three-day tribute to Houston County's peanut producers.

Members, Guests Hear Book Review

Members of Predicta Study Club and guests from Roaring Springs, Matador and Afton attended a book review Thursday night, sponsored by the club in Roaring Springs.

Mrs. S. J. McIntosh of Floydada gave a review of the book, "One Saint and Seven Sinners," the story of an early pioneer preacher (the Saint) and his family (the seven sinners). It was a humorous story, enjoyed by all who attended the program.

Mrs. Cooper and the nephew left Monday to return to Hugo.

EDITORIAL FROM SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS AND NEWS

Why It is a Mistake to Hike Rate on State Property Taxes

In a rash of proposed amendments to the Texas constitution to be voted upon Nov. 2 is one that goes directly against a long-term move toward eliminating the state from the ad valorem (real property) tax. The amendment would raise the rate from 42 cents per $100 valuation to 47 cents.

The state's participation in this tax under present rules makes it one of the least-desirable forms of revenue raising that has ever been devised. No county can raise its tax revenue without, at the same time, sending 42 cents of each new dollar of tax income to the state whether the state needs it or not.

The ad valorem tax produced only 2.49 cents of every state tax dollar in fiscal 1965. Total collected from this source was a piddling $46.1 million of total revenue of $3.96 billion.

But there's a better reason to abandon this tax at the state level. On a $10,000 piece of property in Bexar County (without a homestead exemption), the owner pays $10.45 a year. This same property in Lubbock would cost $11.59 in taxes (the state's highest) and in Yoakum County, the tax would be only $1.97 (the state's lowest).

Scores of counties collect less than $5 on this kind of property. Dallas gets only $7.77; Jefferson County (Beaumont) collects $5.41; Travis County, $8.35; and Willacy collects $4.49.

The inequity is so obvious that only custom and a rural legislator support it.

The proposed tax increase would go to help build new college buildings. This is a laudable enough cause but the new income would, at best only pay interest on loans for any kind of significant building program. By extending and increasing the property tax for this purpose, we effectively delay elimination of this state's unfair and most-inefficient and abused tax.

The amendment should be rejected.

THE WORTH OF FRIENDS...

IN 20 years of business in Matador, we have learned the worth of our friends. We know that friends are the greatest asset any firm can possess, and we want to take this opportunity of thanking our many friends for giving us an exceptional month of business during our 20th anniversary.

We also want to thank the firms and individuals for flowers and other tokens of congratulations. We are, indeed grateful for the finest friends in the world.

Parents Visit Public Schools

Thursday and Friday, October 27th and 28th, Matador schools observed Parent Visitation Day. Each year after the first six weeks, school is dismissed at 1:30 and the parents call for their children's cards. They confer with the principal and then with the teachers of their children.

Although the conferences may prove inconvenient for some of those concerned, they are beneficial for the parents, students and teachers. The parents gain a better knowledge of how the student is doing, the student learns what he needs to improve in, and the teachers gain a better understanding of the students and their parents.

Beta Club Makes Plans For Year

The Beta Club met October 26th to discuss projects and activities and to explain the purposes and requirements of the Beta Club to the ten new members.

President John Barnhill presided over a business meeting in which the club planned several of the activities for the coming year. High light of this meeting was the decision by the members to start a library of paper back books in the English room. Each member agreed to donate a book he feels is necessary.

added color to the parade.

Mrs. Gloria Davenport, Drum and Bugle Corps director, served as judge of the junior high bands and was given a pen and pencil set.

Corps Marches At Cotton Festival

Despite falling rain during the performance, the Matador Drum and Bugle Corps presented a precision performance when it marched Saturday, October 17, in the Cotton Festival Parade in Hedley.

The first of the corps' two performances was at eleven o'clock. Then after a delicious meal of barbecue, the corps marched again at 2 p.m. in the parade with several top bands, including the Air Force band. Since the Matador Corps was a special group, they were not eligible for competition but did receive a donation.

Other groups marching in the parade included the Clarion High School band, three junior high bands, and the Air Force High Band. Several floats also

Timmons Tells 'Tale Of Woe'

A special feature of the Matador — Sundown pep rally on October 22nd was a talk given by Mrs. Grace Timmons, English teacher at MHS.

The speech was presented in the form of a poem which told a sad story about the Sundown boys who came to Matador. "There was joy and laughter in Matador and talk of honor and fame; But there was no joy in Sundown, the Roughnecks had been tamed."

Other speakers were Dale Rector and Charles Meador, Junior members of the football team, and Coach Byerley.

The cheerleaders — Jana Jones, Sharlene Berryman and Olivia Campbell — led the pep club in "Who Are The Matadors?" "Battle Cry," and "Hit'em with Red." After these yells, the cheerleaders concluded the pep rally by leading the students in the school song.

Shelley Performs With Fire Baton

Shelley Stevens, a Drum and Bugle Corps majorette, gave a thrilling half time performance during the Sundown-Matador game with her fire baton.

Shelley, a MHS junior serving her third consecutive year as a majorette, has been twirling the fire baton for only two years. Wearing a multicolored sequined suit, she and her fire baton flashed through a routine to "Hey, look Me Over," in the center of a spiral formed by the Drum and Bugle Corps on the center of the field, lighted only by flashlights held by the corps members.

The Round Up

While most schools are troubled with surfer hair cuts, or no cuts, Matador has reason to be proud of six of its students who have, with the help of the local barber, shed almost all of their hair. Terry Keltz, Max Barton, Joey Meador, Charles Meador, David Garrison, and Dickie Gar-

Maverick Corral

The SECOND grade again welcomed new students last week, bringing their enrollment to thirty-two pupils. New students were Ramira and Dale Senoria from Grandview, Washington.

The FOURTH grade also welcomed some new pupils who were Eva, Gloria, and Earnest Gonzales and Jimmie Garcia, all from South Texas. The fourth grade Best Citizens of last week were Darla Cruse and Billy Osborn.

Newcomers to the FIFTH grade were Horacio Cruse and Johnnie Garcia. Elected as best girl citizen last week for the second straight time was Renae Welch. Sharing the best boy citizenship were Hal Martin and Lance Jameson.

Honor Roll For First Six Weeks

According to Principal Wayland Moore, those on the high school honor roll for the first six weeks period are as follows: Seniors, John Barnhill, Joanie Barton, Pat Day, Karen Elliott, Janie Killingsworth, Wanda Lapham, Sharon Martin, Carolyn Perkins, and Sandra Sandefer; Juniors, Larry Elliott, Coy Franks, Gary Markham, Luis Moore, Dick Moss, Sharlene Berryman, Olivia Campbell, Marva Dake, Patsy Green, Judy Gwinn, Jana Jones, Karol King, Leadell Luckett, Teresa Marshall, Frances Martin, Judy Pitts,

Correction

The editor wishes to correct a mistake made in the report of the Matador-Ropesville pep rally. The speakers were Dick Moss and Max Barton instead of Dick and Luis Moore.

MHS 4H Club Sees Slides

The Matador High School 4H Club held its second meeting in the science room October 17. County Agent W. C. Pallmeyer, 4H leader, showed the group slides of historical places such as the Alamo, the Statue of Liberty, the Washington Monument, and the Liberty Bell arranged to depict the importance of citizenship.

Honored at the meeting was Judy Marrs, a freshman at MHS in her fourth year of 4H club work. Judy was presented a first place ribbon for her record book in district competition.

Presiding over the meeting was Joanie Barton, who was elected president at the last 4H meeting. Other officers elected for the coming year were: Shar-

Shelley Stevens, and Melba Spray

Sophomores, Doyce Edwards, Ann Marshall, Carol Martin and Billie Smith.

Freshmen, Don Cox, Stephen Gwinn, Mark Hill, Aaron Timmons, Elaine Dixon, Judy Marrs, Brenda Moore, Sue Robbins, Barbara Slover and Billie Stockton.

Grade School Principal J. E. Edwards, announces that the following students were on the first six weeks honor roll: Eighth, Patty Edwards, Gail Lynn Debra Stockton, and Brenda Wason; Seventh, Mike Moore, Arleta Meyer, and Debbie Smallwood; Sixth, Bill Barnhill, Paul Don Cruse, Andy Green, Rickey Lawrence, Peggy Marrs, Krista Price, Ann Timmons, and Charla Wason.

Fifth, Nancy Higginbotham, Lance Jameson, Gina Killingsworth, Billy Mc Kelvey, Cynthia Moore, Lee Ann Thompson, and Lou Ann Woodruff.

BATTLEFIELD REPORT

DEATHS

- World War I.....53,402
- Korean War.....33,629
- U. S. Highways in 1964.....48,000

According to the latest estimate of the National Safety Council, 1964 was the worst year in history for highway fatalities. The personal and financial repercussions will last for years.

One word of advice. Inadequate automobile insurance placed in companies of which you know little, can add only to the misery and hardship in case of accident. Just buy the best. It pays!
