Second Glance

By Leon Watson

Did you hear President Carter's State of the Union message the other night? If he wasn't preaching one-world government I've never heard it. He said our problems were too big for us to solve alone and we needed world help with them.

Bullfighters! If he would consider giving the farmer a fair break or get out of the farmer's business completely, we could balance the budget.

Have you noticed that the farmer's movement is getting no national news coverage. With 30 thousand tractors and 50 thousand farmers rolling toward Washington, it looks like there would be a big story for the national news media. But there is nothing. Why? Because the national TV news is controlled by one-worldists who can't stand the farmer's cause. The farmer stands in their way of controlling a hungry nation. They don't want the nation to know that there is a farm movement, and if they say or release anything it will be against the farmer. Mark my word.

Last year there were somewhere around 30 thousand and farmers in Washington and the news media reported about three thousand peaceful farmers visiting Washington.

If the farmer received good prices for his crops he wouldn't have to borrow so much money each year to operate on, and soon he could start getting out of debt. If he could do that he could start paying his bills to the local businessman, and the businessman would start to prosper, and the nation could start getting back on its feet and the one-worldist would be in a world of hurt, because they couldn't keep the average citizen wanting something. If they keep us wanting, they can control us.

Let's support the farmer, elect officials who support the farmer and keep praying. I think it's our only hope.

WILLIAM NICHOLS

William Nichols Is On Dean's List

William Nichols, senior geology major at West Texas State University, Canyon was named to the Dean's Honor Roll for the fall semester 1978. William (Pepper) is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Brandon of Roaring Springs.

The Dean's List represents students who have a semester grade point average of 3.25 to 3.84 for a completed semester load of 12 hours or more.

Ice Pleages Travelers

Motley County lawmen and volunteer firemen were kept busy Monday night as sub-freezing weather and icing conditions pleaged truckers and travelers on area highways.

At least two weather related accidents occurred within three hours of each other east of Matador. No injuries were recorded, but local officials were required to stop traffic both directions for almost three hours, letting only a few cars through at a time, as only one lane of traffic was open.

At 3 p.m. an UPS van driven by a Plainview man skidded broadside on the ice and overturned 14 miles east on Highway 70. While there was only minor damage to the 1971 Ford van, there was a gas leak and DPS Trooper Dude Speed called for a firetruck to bring dry chemical to the scene. James Gillespie and Rodney Williams responded with the chemical. Tommy Hurt also went to the scene with a wrecker and towed the van back to Matador.

As the men prepared to go back to town they came upon another accident scene 10 miles out. Here they found two trucks belonging to a New Mexico company had slid together on the roadside, blocking one lane of traffic. A third truck had slid across the path of the two New Mexico trucks, and the two tried to stop and slid together.

Sheriff Alton Marshall arrived at the scene and Alan Bigham, Ronnie Vandiver, Clay Jameson also went to help. Garland Cartwright took a truck out to the scene in order to 'salt' down the area around the trucks in order that they could be separated. The men, a bit cold and hungry, did not get back to Matador until 8:30 p.m.

Several motorists stopped in Matador to spend the night rather than fight the ice storm. However some travelers continued on, creeping along across the frozen country.

Trooper Speed extended his thanks to the volunteer fire department for assisting him and other lawmen in working the accidents.

Fines Assessed For Sign Damage

Ben Charles Grundy pled guilty in County Court Tuesday afternoon before County Judge Billy Whitaker on charges of destruction of public property. Grundy and Timmy Brooks, who will face similar charges, were in the county sheriff's custody Monday and charged with damaging highway signs in the county.

Grundy faced a Class A misdemeanor charge for damaging one sign. He was fined $50 plus a court cost of approximately $50 and agreed to pay the damages of $38.34.

Brooks, who with Grundy was accused of damaging 13 highway signs Sunday, Jan. 21, is expected to be charged with the destruction of most of the signs, according to the sheriff's office. However, the county clerk's office said Tuesday that charges were still pending against Brooks.

The signs had been hit by at least two vehicles, and Texas Highway officials and State Troopers found tire tracks, chrome, or paint fragments at each sight.

Cost of replacing or repairing the signs was not high because most of the signs could be pushed back upright, due to muddy or loose ground.

Judge Whitaker said he was interested in seeing that the destruction did not happen again, as he assessed the fine on Grundy. A Class A misdemeanor charge is when the damage is more than $5 and less than $200. It can carry a penalty not to exceed $2000 or not to exceed one year in jail, or both.

Between The Lines

RED CHINA-RUSSIA RIFT
There is no rift between Red China and Russia. This is presently the biggest farce produced by the Red propaganda machine. Seemingly, all our news media and citizenry are blindly going along with it.

The cover of U.S. News and World Report (12-15-75) shows President Ford and Mao shaking hands and states: "China to Ford: 'Protect Us From Russia'".

The Amarillo Globe News ran a political cartoon (10-10-72) showing the Chinese dragon defeating the Russian "knight in armor" with Uncle Sam looking on bewilderingly.

The only proof of the rift is rumors from Russia and China. This is enough proof in itself that it is not true because whatever they say is not true. They have fabricated border clashes depicting Chinese hitting Russian tanks with sticks and they state a few casualties.

The latest tactic to mislead us from the truth has been Viet Nam ("USSR backed") versus Cambodia ("China backed"). We are to assume, by propoganda trickery, that Russia is surely at odds with China, whereas it is just a mocked up thing.

The Denver Post (1-11-79) shows Teng swordfighting with Breshnef, each holding swords. Teng's is Cambodia and Breshnef's is Viet Nam. What is their purpose for this false rift? The caption should read, "Let's make them think we are against each other so they will give us millions in aid and equipment and eventually we can use it to take everything from them."

Let's not fall for this again as we did when we gave Russia Lend Lease (of which they never paid back) to beat Hitler. Russia later used the tanks, ships, etc. to use against us in Korea and Viet Nam. What we should have done then, as now, was to let both our enemies fight and destroy each other, then we could have had victory over two enemies, not just one.

Let us not fall for their genius scheme. They are close buddies both for the fall of the U.S. and world conquest and hope at least that we will give China billions, which we are about to do. Lord save us! Their penultimate goal is to take everything from us by getting us to help them. Lenin said get the enemy to defeat himself. Did we not in Viet Nam and Panama?

What we should do is encourage this battle among the monoliths of the Red World, getting them to destroy each other and then we will have peace for at least 50 years. We have two strong enemies here and we need take the offensive and make leave of our retreat we have been engaged in since 1946, the Berlin Airlift. Respectfully for the cause,
Elvin Dick

Caprock Trapper's Meet In Dickens

Caprock Trapper's Association held it's second fur sale this season, Sat., Jan. 27 in Dickens. The turn out and prices for fur were terrific. Some well handled coyote pelts went for $65.00 apiece. Green Coyote pelts averaged $30.00 and better. Some well handled coon pelts went for $35.00 and up and well handled bobcats went for $200.00 and up.

Multiple buyers were present from as far away as Houston and on up in the panhandle. I would like to point out that to my knowledge this is the only fur sale in Texas. Plans are to hold another sale in late February and we plan to hold three fur sales each season. A program is being set up where trappers can ship fur to our board of directors to sell for them. Anyone seeking information about this can contact me.

A business meeting was held also. It was voted that the headquarters of Caprock Trapper's Association be in Dickens, Texas and could not be moved without a two third vote of the members. Two new board members and new officers were elected.

We are also proud to announce our affiliation with Fur Takers of America. Anyone wishing to become a member and receive The Fur Taker monthly should send $5.00 to Dean Shaw, Dickens, Texas 79229.

Please help us in our fight to protect our National Heritage and your constitutional rights.

MUSHROOM LOVERS' SAUCE FOR PASTA

Mushroom sauces for spaghetti often consist of a few sliced mushrooms in tomato sauce. For a change, here's a sauce with real mushroom character, suggested by the American Mushroom Institute:

MUSHROOM ONION SAUCE FOR SPAGHETTI

- | | |
|-----------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1 pound fresh mushrooms | 1/2 teaspoon basil leaves, |
| or 2 cans (6 to 8 oz. each) | crushed |
| sliced mushrooms | 1/4 teaspoon ground |
| 1/4 cup butter or margarine | black pepper |
| 1/2 cup chopped onion | 1 pint half and half |
| 2 tablespoons lemon juice | 1 pound spaghetti, |
| 3 tablespoons flour | cooked, rinsed |
| 1-1/4 teaspoons salt | and drained |

Rinse, pat dry and slice fresh mushrooms (makes about 5 cups) or drain canned mushrooms. In a large skillet melt butter. Add mushrooms and onion. Cook over low heat, stirring often, until mushrooms are golden, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat. Stir in lemon juice. Blend in flour, salt, basil and black pepper. Gradually stir in half and half. Cook and stir until sauce bubbles and thickens, about 5 minutes. Spoon over hot spaghetti. Serve immediately. Yield: 6 portions.

Couple Exchange Vows In Lamesa

Wedding vows were exchanged by Kelli Youngblood and Tom Wade Merritt, Saturday, December 30 at 7:00 p.m., in the First Presbyterian Church in Lamesa. The Rev. Raymond Smith of Austin performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess silhouette, formal gown of white chiffon knit, designed with a fitted bodice of Venise lace. The full Bishop sleeves were accented with lace motifs and edged with Valentine lace. The flowing skirt which swept into a chapel train was trimmed with the same Valentine lace. reception which followed the ceremony with members of the "Heritage Club 61" attending the tables.

The bride's circular table was covered with a white lace cloth, centered with a five tiered wedding cake decorated with garlands of brown pompoms, toffee camellia and Woburn abbey roses. A brass punch bowl with brass appointments completed the table decor.

An ecru cutwork cloth over brown covered the groom's circular table which was centered with brass candelabra encircled by Woburn abbey roses, greenery and eucalyptus with a brass coffee service. Cold cuts, cheese and crackers were served from brass appointments from another circular table.

HOME OF COURTEOUS SERVICE -- TASTIEST MEATS
WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO LIMIT
WE GIVE DOUBLE S&H GREEN STAMPS ON WED.

By Faye Steen

This has been a very busy, but good week here at the Care Center.

Monday afternoon in Arts and Crafts we made key ring holders and silk roses. Everyone had an enjoyable time.

Tuesday afternoon we had 23 residents out to play Bingo. John Callihan was our biggest winner.

Wednesday afternoon brought our Baptist ladies for singing and visiting. I spent Thursday afternoon taking residents for doctors appointments.

Then on Friday afternoon we had our Birthday Party for those having a birthday in January. Honor residents were Julia Mosley, Lydia McGennis and Mary Dobson. Games were played and refreshments of Cake and Punch were served. They were furnished by ladies of the Methodist Church. We appreciate these ladies so much. We also want to say a big thank you to the Methodist Ladies for the beautiful lap robes they made for the residents. They were really needing them.

Ruth Bartley of Cone visited her brother Alin Bartley.

Boone Nelson of Falls is a regular visitor of his mother Elmore Nelson.

Our mornings are filled with exercise class, games reality orientation, personal grooming, writing letters, reading, devotions and singing. Our reality orientation classes are going great. We feel they are really worthwhile.

Lela Black and other staff and residents were thrilled to see Joe Young take part in the exercise class last Thursday.

We were happy to welcome Raymond Michulka to our big family. I asked him how he felt about living in the Care Center and he said he liked it real well. Raymond had been living in the Calgary Community the past eleven years.

Will you help to fight heart disease, the nation's number one killer, by donating a dollar for every hour or a penny a minute that one of our residents rocks a rocking chair or rolls a wheel chair on Valentines Day. You would be helping a dear heart, maybe your own. We will have more details on this, possibly next week.

Mattie Mooneyham is a regular visitor of her brother Sherman Peak and other residents.

We are sorry to report that

Charlie Masey is still in our local hospital. Hope he will be able to return home soon.

Last week when I stated that we all had made it to work despite the ice and snow, I failed to mention one of our faithful 3-11 aides, Oma McWilliams slipped on the ice and broke her arm. We have surely been missing her too. Visitors of Joe Young were Elizabeth Young of Roaring Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coleman of Lorenzo and Rev. and Mrs. John Boyd of Lorenzo.

Visiting Ike and Vesta Dewbre were Jacky Dewbre, Vera Savage, Yvonne, Shelly and Jana Crausbay. Artie Dewbre, Amy, Christi Carolyn, Rocky and Eddie Dewbre and Vera Steele and Virtie Powell.

Doris West and her dad Dennis Robertson played fiddle and piano, Sunday. They are so good about coming and playing for the residents and they love to hear them. Thanks Dennis and Doris.

Geneva Sims, J. H. Bell and Hattie DeMerrit of Roaring Springs visited Meldred Bell.

Kay Tinney of Floydada and John and Jewell Burrows visited John Callihan.

Nita Hagins, Rev. Norris Taylor and Don Ramsey of Spur visited Bessie Justice. Margaret Thompson, Don Moses and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Coffey visited John Johnson and George Strange.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Elliot and Stella Brints visited Vina Fawler. Lee Parker of Odessa visited Allie Earley.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleddie Scraggins of El Paso visited their Aunt Ena Blair.

Charlotte Potts and Shirley Craze visited their father, John McCuff.

Doyle Warren and Kitten visited Virgie Warren and Mary Dobson. Judy Bales took her grandmother and Aunt to Lubbock to get new glasses. They came back by to see Ruby Jewell, Stove Birgies daughter and Mary's sister.

Program Features Family Research

A program titled "Tree-Shaking" featuring family research by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. (Jake) Edwards was given by Mrs. Edwards Thursday, Jan. 25 at regular meeting of El Progreso Club at the home of Mrs. Joe Campbell.

The program followed a business session conducted by Mrs. Franklin Price, president. Program chairman, Mrs. C. D. Garrison presented Mrs. Edwards after reading the yearbook quotation: "What can be more exciting than to find one's ancestor a true pioneer -- or one hung as a horse thief!"

The public's interest in genealogy possibly was sparked by the nation's bicentennial in 1976, and accelerated by Alex Haley's "Roots," Mrs. Edwards surmised.

"We started our 'root-searching' last April, and discovered that hindsight is so much better than foresight," she said. "We could have profited so much just by listening to our elders as they reminisced."

Relating to her subject, "Fun Derived from Genealogical Study," Mrs. Edwards said that in searching old records at courthouses, they uncovered many humorous incidents on file, not all, however, relating to their own lines. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards made a number of trips to libraries in various sections of the state, and found the Clayton Library in Houston to be the best source of information for genealogical study, although the smaller libraries in area towns furnished much valuable material.

One of the frustrations in genealogical searching, Mrs. Edwards said, concerned family names. "These are often spelled different ways, and in one instance, we found that an aunt had even changed her given name... we had been searching for an entirely different person."

She cited personal records such as family Bibles, old letters, diaries, journals, business ledgers, marriage licenses, scrapbooks, old photos, school records and Masonic or other certificates as being reliable sources of information. Cemetery rec-

Mrs. Tilson died at her home on Monday, January 22, following a sudden illness. She was the daughter of a Methodist Missionary who worked with the Indians in Oklahoma, where she was born at Ft. Sill Oklahoma, October 17, 1896.

The former Stella Butterfield married Tom G. Tilson, on March 18, 1918 in Canyon, Texas. She and Mr. Tilson moved to Matador soon there after. Besides Mr. Tilson she was preceded in death by two sons, Warren Earl and W.R. Jr.

Mrs. Tilson was a lifetime member of the First United Methodist church. She was also a lifetime member of the United Methodist Women and a member and officer of the Sunshine Club.

Survivors include three sons; Tom G. Tilson, Jr. of Dallas, Raworth D. Tilson of Lithia, Florida, and Dan L. Tilson of Lexington, Oklahoma.; two daughters, Mrs. M.G. (Eugenia) Bethard OF Roaring Springs and Mrs. Ray F. (Grace) Zabielski of Roaring Springs four sisters; Mrs. Louise Kiker of White Plains, New York, Miss Ruth Butterfield of Tyler, and Miss Evelyn Butterfield of Dallas. Governor Clements made the traditional State of the State Address to a joint session of the 66th Legislature today.

There were no real big surprises in his talk but a few new items I haven't heard him mention before. One of his lead statements was: "No one can deny the role of the Legislative Branch of Texas Government in making our state the envy of the entire nation".

We were happy he recognized this fact.

The second item Governor Clements made that is worthy of mention is the following, "The Sunset Law passed during the last session of the Legislature was a major step. It was major not only in terms of how it can be used to eliminate useless state agencies, but also in the sense that it was a recognition of the fact that our Government has been drifting away from accountability."

A special committee made up of 4 Senators and 4 Representatives did a bang up job on reviewing agencies affected by the Sunset Legislation over the last several months. They did an indepth study of some 26, mainly State Regulatory Agencies, over the past several months. I was highly pleased that a new standing committee was formed in the House of Representatives called Government Organization. I was also happy that Speaker Bill Clayton appointed me to this Committee which will be looking at some 176 separate agencies over the next few years. The special Sunset Committee recommended that 6 agencies be abolished and drastic changes be made in the structure of the others.

The Governor also called for a Constitutional Amendment that would give the Governor budget execution powers to carry out the will of the Legislature. Many students of Texas Government have recommended this change for years. Texas Government is presently run by the Legislature going into session every two years to approve a budget for the various state agencies and then turn the agencies loose to run themselves without answering to anyone.

The Governor called on the Legislature to develop a plan for a single appraisal office within each county. In my opinion, this won't get off the ground. We need to devote our attention to new types of taxation to replace the ad valorem tax as it affects schools instead of more sternly applying an unfair type of tax.

The Governor will get part of his program but will fail on many of the things he is calling for.

Should you want to contact me at Austin, please call 512-475-3883 or write to me at P. O. Box 2910, Austin, Texas 78769.

was the widow of the late W. W. Garner, a cousin of the Keith brothers and their sister. The Keith and Garner families were pioneers of Dickens and Motley counties.

The service was at 2:30 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church with the pastor, Rev. Archie Echols, officiating and Rev. John May, associate pastor, assisting.

Survivors include two daughters, three sons, 10 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Texans Push For 1979 Tax Relief

There won't be any "property tax relief" for Texans in 1979 unless the Legislature acts quickly to implement and fund the provisions of The Tax Relief Amendment according to spokesman for Texans for Equitable Taxation, the statewide organization of property taxpayers.

In a recent report to TET members, Michael Moeller, the group's Executive Director, explained why he felt that implementation and funding of the Tax Relief Amendment should be TET's top legislative priority in 1979. According to Moeller early legislative action and full reimbursement to local governments for revenues lost due to the new exemptions are essential if there is to be any property tax relief this year.

"Implementing legislation," says Moeller, "Must be adopted and signed by the Governor by no later than March 1st. Most school districts won't accept renditions and exemption requests after April 30. The new exemptions for the elderly and disabled as well as the new valuation process for agricultural land will undoubtedly require some sort of application by the property owner. If taxpayers are to receive the benefit of any new exemptions this year, the Legislature must complete the process of providing implementing legislation in time to allow for the preparation and distribution of the new applications and the education of the public and the tax assessors regarding the new exemptions.

"Perhaps even more important is the need for full reimbursement of all local revenues lost under the new exemptions. Unless local governments are completely compensated for these losses, local governments will have to make up the losses on their own and the only mechanism they have to do this is by increasing their ad valorem tax by adjustment of the rate or ratio or by expensive reappraisal. Failure to fully reimburse would have the effect of generating state wide property tax increases.

Obviously, this is contrary to what the voters were asking for in November.

"Reimbursement won't be cheap, either. The $450 million set aside by the Legislature for this purpose is about half the amount that will be needed in the coming biennium to make up the losses caused by the home stead and agricultural exemptions. If the Legislature opts to exempt family-owned vehicles and various intangible properties, even more reimbursement funding will be necessary. The total required for the next biennium will greatly exceed $1 billion if the Legislature exercises all the exemption options provided under the new law."

In addition, Moeller listed TET's other top priorities for the 1979 Legislative Session. He said that TET WOULD OPPOSE ANY INCREASE IN THE State-mandated local share of the cost of the Foundation School Program and that TET would support continued progress toward full State funding of an adequate Foundation Program. He said that TET would increase emphasis on alternative revenue sources for funding public schools such as the refinery tax, mineral severance taxes, and the State sales tax.

Inflation and a mild recession are several of the roadblocks facing farmers and ranchers in 1979, says a marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Carl Anderson expects overall economic growth to slow to 2 percent or less in 1979, down from nearly 4 percent in 1978. "This will bring on a mild recession during mid-year. The economic slowdown will likely curtail buying of higher priced cuts of red meats and will encourage the use of ground beef, meat substitutes and poultry," he contends. "Mill use of cotton may also decline.

"Inflation and the high cost of energy will continue to hamper economic growth in the United States and will especially keep agricultural producers in an economic bind," believes Anderson. "The President's wage and price standards are not expected to be effective unless they are bolstered by considerable economic restraints by monetary authorities and in government spending.

"Effects of a high rate of inflation are particularly severe on agriculture," emphasizes the economist.

"It aggravates the cost-price squeeze by increasing production costs but not necessarily farm prices. The result is lower incomes and a risky financial environment. At the same time, farmers and ranchers are faced with rising costs of living such as higher bills for utilities, pickup trucks, housing, clothing, fuel and medical costs just like other businessmen and wage earners."

Anderson expects sagging productivity, deficit federal government spending and cumbersome federal regulations to fuel inflation. A sizeable trade deficit will also contribute to economic instability. With limited petroleum resources and slow progress in developing alternate sources of energy, the U.S. is becoming increasingly dependent upon expensive oil imports.

"Prospects for holding the rate of inflation below about 8 percent in 1979 is bleak," contends the economist. "There is no easy answer nor quick solution to controlling inflation without a number of undesirable short-term side effects such as high interest rates and increasing unemployment."

As the demand for farm and ranch loans continues to increase, rural banks will need additional funds. This issue will be one of the highlights of the upcoming 27th Farm and Ranch Credit School for Commercial Bankers at Texas A&M University Feb. 12-13.

Correspondent banking between rural banks and city banks is one way for rural banks to obtain needed loan funds, and Jack Vanderburg, vice president of the Bank of Oklahoma in Tulsa, will address this issue. In addition, Ken Burgess, chairman of the board and president of Security State Bank, Littlefield, will discuss other sources of loan funds for small agricultural banks. Dr. Dick Trimble, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the school's general chairman, says this session is especially important for all bankers.

Rounding out the school will be sessions on loan documentation for various types of agricultural enterprises, current policy issues in agriculture, new concepts in marketing agricultural products, commodity outlook information, and the banker and his commitment to tomorrow.

The school is planned for bankers by the Agricultural and Rural Affairs Section of the Texas Bankers Association. It is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Texas Bankers Association.

In conjunction with the school there will be an in-depth Agricultural Credit Analysis Workshop. It will begin the morning of Feb. 14 and end the morning of Feb. 16. The workshop will use steps to better living A Cleaner Environment Through TV

Television—once accused of creating a vast wasteland—has been building a better reputation for itself at the Airkem Division of Airwick Industries, where it is helping promote a cleaner environment. The New Jersey-based CIBA-GEIGY Company, a leading manufacturer of cleaners, disinfectants, and odor counteractants, produces an innovative series of videotape programs specifically designed to teach custodians and housekeeping personnel proper cleaning methods.

Made in Airkem's own videotape and film studio, the programs offer procedural instruction in cleaning and disinfecting operating rooms, prison cell blocks, food preparation areas, schoolrooms and other facilities where sanitation is crucial. Maintenance personnel can view the TV programs on-the-job by portable video cartridge, thus reducing the cost of training for their organizations while at the same time achieving greater results. Because janitorial service is a high-turnover business in the U.S., the Airkem TV method has gained wide acceptance among health care, educational, correctional, industrial and food service facilities.

Keeping our environment clean is just one way scientists at CIBA-GEIGY Corporation help make life healthier and more pleasant. They also create and manufacture a wide variety of dyestuffs, pharmaceuticals, plastics and additives, agricultural and consumer products.

Questions
When questions arise over the title to a residence, they must be resolved if the property is to be sold. A buyer and his lender will not be interested in real estate made financially hazardous by a title problem. A related example occurred in an eastern state when a mortgage fell seriously behind on payment and the lender found it necessary to foreclose. In related investigation, it was found that a Howlett signature on the mortgage bearing the names of the husband and wife in default was not that of the wife. Eventually, it was determined that a divorce was pending between the couple — and that the husband had persuaded another woman to forge the wife's signature on the mortgage. This situation presented serious difficulty because it remained legally possible for the wife to claim a financial interest in the property. The chance of a claim by the wife clouded title for the foreclosing lender and any future home buyer who might wish to purchase the real estate. In this instance, the problem was resolved be-
