are honoring them with a reception, which will be held in their home at 125 E. 25th St., Littlefield, on Sunday July 6, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. The former Miss Ann Reid and John Aduddell were married July 8 in Clarendon, Texas.

Hobby Club

Meeting Held

The Muleshoe Hobby Club met at Muleshoe State Bank Community Room, June 19 with Mrs. Verna Dement as hostess. The hostess gift was drawn by Mrs. Sammie Ethridge.

The meeting was called to order by president, Mrs. Livina Pitts, roll call and treasure report given by secretary, Mrs. Mabel Caldwell. Mrs. C. E. Briscoe displayed around the world quilt; Mrs. Mae Lloyd brought a raggedy Ann doll; Mrs. Sammie Ethridge, mens ties made from double knit; Mrs. Ola Pesch, decorated fruit; Mrs. Allie Barbour, a zo-zo pillow and a woven pillow; Mrs. Mabel Caldwell, a picture made from wood of an old house and a plaque made from fish fossils.

Others present were Mrs. Ethel Julian, Mrs. Zula Carlyle, Mrs. George Chambliss, Mrs. Verna Dement, Mrs. Marvin Oswald and Mrs. Henry Bass.

The club voted to cancel the meeting July 3, but will take part in the Fourth of July Celebration. The club will have a display at the Tri-County Community Room.

What reason have atheists for saying that we cannot rise again?

-Blaise Pascal.

You Gotta Look

A man seated on a park bench watched a chap about five feet tall who appeared to be his most prized possession—a watch.

"My, what a pretty watch," said the man. "Does it tell you the time?"

"No, sir," replied the little fellow, "you gotta look at it."

Senior Recital Held In Muleshoe

Maribeth Dillman, Jana Oylar and Belinda Nickles were presented in a "Graduation Senior Recital" by Mrs. Sam McKinstry on Sunday, June 8, at 4 p.m. at the McKinstry Piano Study, 318 W. Ave. J. The three girls have studied with Mrs. McKinstry for 10 to 11 years.

Miss Nickles started piano with Mrs. McKinstry when she was only six years old and in the first grade. Both Miss Dillman and Miss Oylar began piano with Mrs. McKinstry when they were seven years old and in the second grade.

Miss Nickles began entering the "Guild National Piano Playing Auditions" when she was nine years old and each year she was a national winner with excellent grades for nine years, playing 10 memorized solos.

Miss Dillman interests were turned more to excelling in playing her flute in the Muleshoe Band, along with her continuous study of piano with Mrs. McKinstry.

Miss Oylar began entering the "Guild National Piano Playing Auditions" in 1965 and she excelled with the National and International programs.

Miss Oylar earned her high school diploma in Piano this spring in the "Guild Auditions"

YL 4-H Club Sews

The YL 4-H clothing project group met Tuesday, June 10, and again Thursday, June 12, at the home of their leader, Mrs. Butch Vandiver. The girls learned about the grain of material; labels, what to expect, how to read them and the importance of them; and how to use a needle, thread and thimble. They practiced tying a knot with one hand.

Members present Tuesday were Staci Vandiver, Beth Harmon, Rhonda Mills, and Dana Smith.

At the meeting Thursday, they discussed the parts of a sewing machine and the bobbin.

They practiced threading the machine and the bobbin and starting and stopping the machine; sewing with thread; then advanced to sewing a straight seam with the seam guide.

They had a contest to see who could tie a knot first. Dana Smith won and received a wrist pin cushion as a prize.

They discussed patterns and materials for them. They went to town and looked through the pattern books to choose a pattern.

Members present for the Thursday meeting were Staci Vandiver, Dana Smith and Rhonda Mills.

MR. AND MRS. CAMERON MORGAN

Local Couple Exchange Vows

Wedding vows solemnized for Faith Belinda Free and Cameron Morgan Saturday, June 7, at 4:00 p.m. in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby G. Free. Rev. Glenn Harlin, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Plains, Texas performed the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bobby G. Free Muleshoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Les Dudley, Farwell.

The ceremony was performed before a formal arrangement of candle lighted candelabra adorned with greenery, accented with blue daisies and blue satin bows. The background of the setting was draped with greenery extending to the oval candelabra accented with blue satin bows and blue Shasta daisies.

Wedding music was played by Marilyn Black and vocalist Patti Nichols, sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father and mother, wore a formal length gown of white bridal satin styled with an empire waistline overlaid with white embroidered bridal illusion embossed with seed pearls. The gown featured a Victorian neckline with fitted sleeves of bridal illusion. The skirt swept into a chapel train and was overlaid at the hemline with a single row of Chantilly lace. Her veil of white illusion fell from a softly draped headpiece draped with silk illusion and extended over the chapel length gown and was edged with deep Chantilly lace matching the bridal gown.

She carried a spring bouquet of blue daisies interspersed with baby's breath and accented with blue satin streamers.

Hope Melinda Free, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Donna Burris of Muleshoe served as bridesmaid. The attendants were attired in identical floor length gowns of blue embroidered polyester crepe. Bouquets were nosegay arrangements of blue satin streamers.

Jessie Morgan, Farwell, brother of the groom, served as best man and Grady Lee Free, brother of the bride, served as groomsmen.

Regina Poteet, Muleshoe, registered the guests. A reception was held in the home of the bride after the wedding. The three tier wedding cake and lemon frosted punch was served by Patti Nichols and Regina Poteet from a table covered with white satin overlaid with white nylon nuno draping to the floor. A bouquet of white silk roses and blue silk illusion centered the table. The bride's and the attendants bouquets completed the table decorations carrying out the bride's chosen colors of blue and white.

For traveling the bride chose a yellow feather knit dress with the empire waist overlaid with white embroidered organza and finished with organza ruffling which was made and designed by her grandmother. She wore a white feathered carnation corsage.

After a wedding trip to Ruidoso and other points in New Mexico, the couple will make their home west of Muleshoe where the groom is engaged in farming.

MRS. JOHNNY RAY DANE

Mrs. Taylor Speaks To Jaycee-Ettes

The Muleshoe Jaycee-Ettes met for their monthly meeting, Monday, June 16, 1975 at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. Larry Goree.

The Jaycee-Ette creed was recited and then Mrs. Robin Taylor, County Extension Agent, guest speaker, was introduced. She gave a short program on canning and freezing techniques. Then a demonstration was given where all members tasted the difference in blanched and unblanched corn. All members noted a very strong difference.

The business meeting was then held with Mrs. Charles Moraw, president, presiding. Items of business discussed were: The Little Miss Firecracker Contest; tea honoring past Area I-A Vice President, Mrs. Bill Blackburn and new Area I-A Vice President, Mrs. Bill Dale, to be held at the El Centro Room of the City National Bank in Plainview, June 21, 1975. Area Council Meeting that was held June 7, 1975, in Amarillo; Area Convention to be held in Hereford, September 19, 20, 21, 1975; and the success of the Girl Scout drive. Also, the bicycle decoration contest, sponsored by the club, to be held on July 4.

Members attending were: Mrs. Bill Dale, Mrs. Butch Duncan, Mrs. Charles Moraw, Mrs. Mike Armstrong, and Mrs. Larry Goree. One guest attending, Mrs. Mac Hodges.

Ware, Dane Repeat Vows

Miss Carol Ann Ware and Johnny Ray Dane were joined in marriage at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, June 7, 1975, at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Bob Roberts officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Miss Ware is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ware of Muleshoe. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Dane of Bovina.

Vows were exchanged beneath an archway of fern with candelabras flanking each side. The traditional memory candle was also used as decorations.

The organist, Nancy Ramm played "Wither Thou Goest" and "We've Only Just Begun," with the soloist, Mrs. Ernest Ramm singing "Twelfth of Never" and "Wedding Prayer". During the song "Wedding Prayer" the bride and groom knelt on a white kneeling bench. The closing song was "More" sang by the bride and groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length candlelight gown of satin covered with Chantilly lace designed with a scoop neck, fitted waist and petit point sleeves. The chapel length train flowed from the back waistline of the bell shaped skirt, with a floor length mantilla head-dress. She carried a spring bouquet with the prayerbook her grandmother received at her first communion.

Jeria Peacock, of Anton, Texas, cousin of the bride served as maid of honor. The brides maids were Teresa Hamilton and Tanya Burton both from Muleshoe. The attendants all wore long yellow gowns with empire waists, and scalloped necklines. They also wore large white brimmed hats with matching yellow bands, and each carried a long stemmed yellow rose with baby breath.

Cary Hudson, the groom's niece from Canyon, served as flower girl, dressed like the other attendants, carrying a white lace basket used by the bride's aunt at her wedding.

Duane Kelly of Texico served the groom as best man, with Roger Pace of Texico and Ben McCain both serving as groomsmen. The ushers were Jackie Dane, brother of the groom and Bennie Gene Hamilton, cousin of the bride, both of Muleshoe, Wayne and Jimmy Ware, brothers of the bride also of Muleshoe served as candlelighters, and Sidney Killingsworth, cousin of the bride of Checotah, Oklahoma served as the ring bearer.

A reception followed the ceremony at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church reception room. Those serving at the reception were Mrs. Paul Skaggs, and Mrs. Clifford Mardis registering the guests.

The bride's table was covered with a yellow cloth covered with lace. A centerpiece of yellow and white daisies flanked by candelabras, and set with silver, while the groom's table was set with a rust table runner with brass and copper.

The bride's traveling outfit for the wedding trip to Six Flags was a pant suit made out of pink crushed velvet with a white shell worn underneath the matching jacket. After June 12, 1975, the newlyweds will be making their new home at Texico, New Mexico where the groom will take up his farming.

The groom is a graduate of Texico High School, and the bride is a sophomore at Muleshoe High School.

Out of town guests were

W. E. Dane, Mrs. Anna Ware, Mrs. Wesly Bledsoe, Mrs. Jerry Killingsworth and Mrs. Ernest Turk.

MRS. PAUL TUCKER SHUE

Miss Knox, Shue Vows Recited

Miss Karen Anne Knox of Lubbock and Paul Tucker Shue of Lubbock were united in marriage May 29, 1975 at 7:30 p.m. in the Ford Memorial Chapel of the First Baptist Church in Lubbock. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Rev. I. D. Walker.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill G. Knox and Mr. and Mrs. David S. Shue, all of Lubbock. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wittner of Maple and Frank Knox of Idalou, formerly of the Goodland Community.

The couple said their vows before an arch formed of a large circular candelabra with a tree candelabra on either side. The arch was decorated with palm leaves, blue candles and large blue bows. Baskets of blue spider mums, white gladiolas, palm leaves and blue bows was placed on either side of the arch. Blue candles in hurricane lamps with blue bows lined the aisle. All candles were lighted before the guests arrived except for two that were lighted when the mother of the bride was seated.

A white kneeling bench stood before the altar and the couple knelt as the Lord's Prayer was sung. Other musical selections, "The Twelfth of Never" and "Because" were sung by the soloist, Gene Ingle. Organist was Jerry Anderson.

Given in marriage and escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white organza appliqued with heavy Venetian lace and pearls. The flowing skirt featured a deep ruffle at the hem and a chapel train. The sheer sleeves were appliqued with lace embroidered with pearls.

Her finger-tip veil was also trimmed with lace. She carried a cascade bouquet arranged with white roses and rosebuds and stephanotis.

Serving as Maid of Honor was Rhonda Colquitt of Lubbock. She was attired in a blue, green and pink floral gown of organza featuring a scoop neckline and empire waist with a pressed bow in the back. She wore a blue hat with matching accessories and carried a basket bouquet with blue and white flowers and accents of deep pink.

The flower girl, Julie Webster of Lubbock, wore a dress similar to the Maid of Honor's and wore blue ribbons of different widths in her hair. She carried a basket of lace filled with two blue spider mums and pink and white flowers.

Dale Denney of Lubbock served as best man. Ushers were Billy Denney and Stephen Keith, both of Lubbock and the ring bearer was Darren Yancy of Lubbock.

The mother of the bride wore a formal length dress of soft pink chiffon. She wore pink accessories and a gardenia corsage. The mother of the groom wore a formal length dress of shrimp chiffon with a gardenia corsage pinned to a silver evening bag.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church. Registering guests was Nancy Keith. The three-tiered snow white cake topped with wedding bells and doves and setting on a circular arrangement of English ivy and blue spider mums, was served by Von Johnson and Naomi Denny, Punch was served from crystal appointments by Sue Webster and Irene Davis. The table was laid with a white lace tablecloth and decorated with blue spider mums and white gladiolas in a gold and crystal vase and a matching candelabra with blue tapers.

For a wedding trip to Santa Fe, the bride wore a coral and white dress with jacket. The couple will be at home at 2902 Third St., Place 320, Lubbock.

The bride attended Texas Tech and is now employed as a secretary at Fikes and Associates.

The groom holds a B. S. degree in math and is now doing graduate work and is a teaching assistant at Texas Tech University.

Out of town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wittner of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ellis of Tatum, Mrs. John Richardson and son, Jack, of Lovington, and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wittner of Maple.

Mr. and Mrs. David Shue hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Hickory Inn on May 28.

Fashion

Needlework of all kinds is being revived. Many people find it relaxing as well as a delightful way of decorating the home—pillows have come back in and many foot stools and chairs are covered with needlepoint or pieces done in one of the new stitches.

Sudan Ceremony Unites Couple

The First Baptist Church of Sudan was the scene of the wedding of Doylee Poe and Tommy Wayne Seymore on Friday night, June 6, when double ring vows were read. The center aisle of the church was decorated with votive candles and yellow ribbon on pews. The altar was decorated with an archway with yellow flowers and greenery with two white doves at the top, and flanked by spiral candelabra holding yellow tapers. Yellow and white daisies in white baskets, stephanotis and baby's breath, completed the decorations.

Officiating was the pastor of the church, Rev. M. V. Summers.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Poe, and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Seymore.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a classic Spanish Baroque wedding gown of Alencon lace in petal white over white silk with accents of petal white silk organza. The moulded bodice featured a scoop neckline edged in Venise lace flowerettes and a silk organza ruffle. Long slender candlestick sleeves of the white Alencon lace fell to her wrist and were enriched with a ruffle of silk organza. The princess skirt fell to a A-shape at the front, and swept to a cathedral train at the back.

She wore a Camelot capulet of white petal silk accented in white Venise lace flowerettes. From the capulet fell her bouffant veil of imported English silk illusion. The veil was completely edged in matching Venise lace flowerettes and it swept beyond her cathedral train.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of yellow and white daisies, stephanotis, and baby's breath atop a white Bible.

For something old the bride wore a diamond necklace belonging to her grandmother; something borrowed was the white Bible belonging to the groom's sister, Mrs. Barbara Bond; and for something blue she wore a blue garter. Her wedding gown served as something new.

The maid of honor was Raylene Poe, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Sherrie Read of O'Donnell, and Bernadette May of Sudan. They were dressed in formal length gowns fashioned by the bride's mother, and featured long full sleeves, and ruffles at the neckline. They carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies and baby's breath. Their headpieces were of yellow flowers matching their dresses.

Candlelighters were Melody Poe, sister of the bride, and Linda Sue Poe, cousin of the bride from Warner, Okla.

They wore dresses in yellow similar in style to those of the other female attendants.

Registering guests was Terry Chester at a table in the foyer which was covered with a floor length white net cloth and centered with the guest book, yellow flowers, and a yellow feathered pen.

Ushers were Brett Poe, brother of the bride, and Mark Hanna.

Terry Graves was best man. Groomsmen were Robby Lynn and Craig West. They wore black tuxedos with yellow ruffled shirts trimmed in black.

The groom wore a yellow tuxedo with the yellow ruffled shirt trimmed in black.

Musical selections, chosen by the bride, were played by pianist Kathy Jahay, cousin of the groom, from Muleshoe, and Mrs. Dale Thurmon, Sudan, organist. Mrs. Waymon Bellar sang "Twelfth of Never", "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The groom's mother wore an apricot polyester formal length gown with a bodice of lace and the long sleeves flaring at the wrist were enhanced with ecru lace. She wore a white orchid corsage. The bride's mother wore a floor length gown of mint green crepe with a sheer overlay of mint and white, and a corsage of green tipped orchids. White accessories completed her ensemble.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church, with Mrs. Jahay playing musical selections at the piano. Standing on either side of the doorway into the reception hall were two miniature white rose topiaries displaying the rice bags in the form of yellow and white rose buds.

The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow flowers and topped with a miniature bride and groom. A basket of yellow and white daisies and baby's breath decorated the table which was covered with a floor length white net cloth over white. Pam Davison, Ann Nix and Vicki Marshall of Whitesface served the cake and yellow punch, nuts and yellow mints. Crystal and silver appointments were used. The mints were made by Mrs. Yvonne Pierce. Members of the houseparty were Madge Beauchamp, Sue Whiteaker, Carrol Summers and Evelyn Ritchie.

Out of town guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Maggie Reed and two aunts, Mrs. Rita Cox and Mrs. Diane Turner, all of Conroe, her grandfather, B. F. Poe of Amherst, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Poe and family of Warner, Okla., Mr. and Mrs.

WELCOME TO MULESHOE

REV. & MRS. FLOYD DUNN

We would like to welcome to Muleshoe Rev. and Mrs. Dunn who comes to us from Stanton, Tx. where Rev. Dunn was the Pastor of the First United Methodist Church there. Rev. Dunn has been a minister for 38 years and has served churches around the Lubbock area during that time. He will now be the Pastor here in Muleshoe for The First United Methodist Church. Rev. Dunn received his education from McMurry College in Abilene, Tx.

The Dunn's have five children, four girls and one boy. One of their daughters and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Taylor and 3 children, live here in Muleshoe. Rev. Dunn's hobby is golf. Mrs. Dunn, Ruby, enjoys child painting, sewing, and all kinds of hand work.

FOR EVERY PROBLEM, THERE IS A SOLUTION

Such a predicament! Stuck in mud a foot deep! What to do? Just sit in despair? Wring your hands? Of course not! There is a solution. Obviously, this is a simple predicament. But what about the enormity of some of life's problems? There is an answer. There is help. God is "a very present help in time of trouble," the scriptures say. Try Him - try Jesus. Feel His presence and let Him speak to you in church

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

TRUCK OVERTURNS . . . Mrs. Bruce Little of Route 2, Muleshoe, received slight injuries Tuesday afternoon when the truck she was driving overturned as she was driving north on FM 1760. The accident was apparently caused from a blow-out on one of the tires. She was treated and released at West Plains Medical Center.

Services Held Monday For Mrs. Parham

Mrs. Florence Edna Parham died Saturday afternoon, June 14, in Highland Hospital in Lubbock after a week's illness. Born Sept. 9, 1894, in Jack County. Moved to DeLeon in 1969.

Leon and was married to W. M. Parham on Oct. 1912. She lived in Jones County all their married life until both were moved to Muleshoe Nursing Home in 1969. He preceded her death in November of 1969.

One son remaining, E. A. Parham of Lazbuddie, two grandchildren, Terry Parham and Mrs. John Neil Agee. Four great grandchildren.

Services were held Monday, June 16, at the Church of Christ at Anson. Grave-side rites and burial was at DeLeon June 16.

Card Of Thanks

My family and I wish to express to you the people of Muleshoe, Lazbuddie, and the surrounding areas, our deep feelings of gratitude and appreciation for all of the many kindnesses shown to us since our arrival here. We had been told Texans were very kind. We know this is true. We are proud and happy to make Muleshoe our new hometown.

Thal and Khanh Ha and Family, Vu, Van, and Vannie

May we add our sincere thanks to all who have helped in welcoming Thal, Khanh, Vu, Van, and Vannie Ha to our community. We can thank God we have the privilege of living in a free America. May we always be mindful of those who do not share that privilege. Howard, Judy and Troy Watson

Bula News
By Mrs. John Blackman

Several boys of the scout troop 676, with their scout master Jerry Cox, returned Saturday from a weeks camping at Camp Post. Approximately 200 scouts were in attendance for this annual camping. Boys from troop 676 going were Danny Hogue, Jeff Kester, Jimmie Cox, Steve Jacobs and Dale Demel.

WMU met Tuesday at 2:30 for their study, with Mrs. Williams in charge of the study. All present read and participated in the lesson, which was taken from their Mission study book, "Mission in the Mosaic". The prayer calendar was read by Mrs. Richardson, prayer chairman, and the prayer for the missionaries and opening prayer was given by Mrs. Fred Locker. Mrs. Richardson closed the meeting in prayer. Others attending were Mrs. E. W. Black, Mrs. C. A. Williams, Mrs. E. O. Battles and Miss Vina Tugman.

Mickey Rudd and daughter Misty of Seminole visited Sunday with the J. R. Teaffs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbard attended the closing program for the encounter '75' which was held Thursday evening in the Moody auditorium at Lubbock Christian college. Their granddaughter Kim Oldfield, from Grants, N. M. was among a group of young people coming from the Church of Christ in Grants.

Following services Sunday evening, at the Church of Christ, a hot dog supper was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Harlan. This was the last Sunday for the minister Pat Casey and wife Sandi to be with them. The Casseys were presented with a money tree, as a love token from the group of friends.

Visitors to be in attendance for the evening services and to enjoy the supper with them Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith and children Diane and Jason of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Adams, accompanied by her sister-in-law Mrs. Herb

Harris, of Lubbock, attended the funeral Thursday at the Coffee Funeral Home in Antlers, Okla. for Ray Foreman, brother in law of Mr. Adams. Adams assisted the baptist minister there in performing the funeral service. Both Foreman and Adams were inducted together in the artillery branch of World War I, 61, years ago. Adams gave the life history of his brother-in-law.

Debbie Clawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Clawson of Lovington, is spending two weeks with her aunt and uncle, the J. D. Rowlands.

We were very sorry to hear of Howard Wright of Lubbock, being in a motorcycle accident Saturday afternoon, June 14. He is still confined to the Lubbock Methodist Hospital, very ill. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Weaver.

Miss Alma Lou Pierce of Lubbock is spending this week with her parents the P. R. Pierce. Also a grandson is with them Joey Carpenter of Muleshoe.

Outdoors in Texas
BY HAL BYNUM

Welcome to Outdoors in Texas. This is our first week, and I guess we had better take this opportunity to explain a little about what you will be reading each week. Outdoors in Texas will be covering topics of interest to everyone who enjoys the great outdoors. Not only will we talk about hunting and fishing, but other wide ranging topics for our readers. It's our hope that you will find our column interesting and informative... and from time to time we will have some "how to" tips for everyone who enjoys the outdoors... sandhill crane hunts, float trips on the Rio Grande, fishing off the coast, or in a stump filled East Texas lake... Just some of the items we'll talk about from week to week. Stick with us... and if you have a tip or suggestion, send it along. See you next week, when we get down to business with Outdoors in Texas.
