1986 Farm Program Given; Sign-Up Dates Are Released

With the February newsletter from the ASCS office in Muleshoe, more details of the 1986 Farm Program are available. Danny Noble, county executive director of the Bailey County

ASCS give the following information:

BASES

Cotton: The base will be the smaller of A or B.

A. The average of 1981 through 1985 planted or considered planted. (P&CP).

(1) Exclude from the average years in which the farm had a zero P&CP.

(2) Average the remaining years.

B. The average of the 1984 and 1985 P&CP, with no adjustments made for zero P&CP.

Wheat and Feed Grains: The base will be the smaller of A or B.

A. The average of 1981 through 1985 P&CP.

B. The average of 1984 and 1985 P&CP.

Noble said the total crop acreage bases cannot exceed the total cropland for the farm except for double cropping in three of the last five years.

Double cropping means that you must have planted and harvested both crops. If the total bases exceed the cropland, it will be the producer's option of what base or combination of bases that will be reduced.

YIELDS

Cotton, Wheat and Feed Grains: The 1986 program yield will be based on the effective yields for 1981 through 1985, dropping the highest and lowest yield, and averaging the three remaining yields. There will be no proven yields for 1986.

An acreage reduction requirement is in effect for 1986 wheat.

Wheat - 22.5 percent reduction, plus 2.5 percent paid land diversion. Optional: Winter wheat producers may divert an additional 10 percent of the base at a payment rate of $2 per bushel, making a total reduction of 35 percent, rather than 25 percent.

Feed Grains - A 17.5 percent reduction plus 2.5 percent paid land diversion for a total of 20 percent reduction.

Cotton - A 25 percent reduction with no paid land diversion.

Deficiency payments may be earned on acreage not planted to a program crop if at least 50 percent of the permitted acreage is planted to the program crop, by crediting nonprogram crops and conservation uses to the program crop, not to exceed 92 percent of the permitted acreage. Nonprogram crops are all crops except wheat, feed grains, cotton, rice and soy-

Farm Bureau To Celebrate Special Week

Gordon H. Green, Bailey County Judge, has signed a proclamation designating February 10-14 as "Farm Bureau Week" in Bailey County.

The week is a part of a statewide observance during which county Farm Bureaus will make a special effort to enroll new members, according to Sam Harlan, president of the Bailey County Farm Bureau.

Gary Hooten is chairman of the membership committee which is responsible for membership acquisition and maintenance. Other committee chairmen are: Curby Brantley, National Affairs; Curby Brantley Jr., Information; Jim Allison, Young Farmers and Ranchers; Lewis Dale, Economic Services; James Brown, State Affairs and Sandy Noble, Policy Development.

"The Texas Farm Bureau with more than 300,000 member families, is the largest state Farm Bureau in the nation," the proclamation reads.

"Farm Bureau is a grass-roots organization and its foundation is the county unit. There are 217 organized county Farm Bureaus in the state including the Bailey County Farm Bureau."

Gary Hooten said the local county Farm Bureau has 952 member families and is seeking to exceed that figure in 1986.

He added that the Farm Bureau is a general farm organization that seeks to improve income and living conditions of farm and ranch families. It represents the farmer and rancher at the local county courthouse, in Austin, and in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C.

After several weeks of balmy, springlike weather, winter re-entered the local weather picture, levelling a snowy, icy blast throughout the Panhandle and South Plains.

Wednesday morning, rain left .02 in moisture, followed by a heavy snowfall that deposited a couple of inches on the ground.

Virtually all the Wednesday snow melted, followed by an additional rain and snow on Friday that left icy, hazardous driving conditions and .22 in moisture.

At the same time a couple of inches of fluffy, white stuff was piling up outside, to the west and north, the snow accumulations amounted to more than a foot of snow, with winds and blizzard-like conditions.

Interstate 40 from Amarillo was closed with numerous trucks reported to be in ditches and more than a foot of snow on the ground. The airport at Amarillo was shut down and incoming flights diverted to other fields.

Rebekah Lodge

To Sponsor Trip To New York

Muleshoe's Rebekah Lodge is offering the opportunity of a lifetime to a sophomore or junior, at least 16 years of age, in the Muleshoe High School or Springlake-Earth High School.

Eligible students can enter an essay contest for a trip to New York City. Included in the 22 day trip will be a visit to the United Nations in New York, along with an extensive visit of metropolitan New York.

It is considered an Educational Bus Tour and the 22 day tour will be paid in its entirety for everything except spending money for personal items, such as souvenirs, laundry and personal shopping.

Applications are being accepted at this time and all boys and girls eligible are encouraged to try for this fabulous trip. You may contact the school principal of either school, or any member of the Muleshoe Rebekah Lodge.

Also, the trip will not interfere with regular schooling, as it will be taken in June and July.

Game Refuge

Celebrates Anniversary

Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge will host an open house on Saturday and Sunday, February 15-16, according to Rodney F. Krey, manager. The refuge office will be open from 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Saturday and 1-6 p.m. Sunday.

He said the refuge is hosting the open house to celebrate the refuge's 50th anniversary. Muleshoe, the oldest refuge in Texas, was established October 24, 1935. The open house was delayed until February to coincide with the normal peak of the sandhill crane migration and so new exhibits could be installed.

The latest sandhill crane count was 36,000 on February 3. The peak spring migration is usually about February 14 with a population of 100,000 or more. In February, 1980 more than 250,000 cranes were counted on the refuge. This year, the number of cranes may be in the range of 40,000-60,000 due to the very mild winter.

In addition to observing the sandhill cranes, ducks, prairie dogs, and other wildlife, visitors will have an opportunity to see five of the new wayside exhibits that should be installed along refuge roads and sandhill crane display in the office/visitor center. A film on the National Wildlife Refuge System will be shown each hour on the hour.

At Clovis, schools were not held due to more than eight inches of snow, and schools at Farwell, Lazbuddie, Sudan and Muleshoe, were all turned out early.

Buses found it rough going trying to get children as near their homes as possible on the icy, slick roads.

Drivers apparently paid more than a little attention to the slick streets, as only one two vehicle accident was reported in the city. It was around 6 p.m. Friday afternoon. No injuries resulted. One truck was reported to be in a ditch west of Muleshoe, and one car to the north of Muleshoe on SH214.

Dent & Co. Open House Is Thursday

"We, at Dent & Co., would like to extend a 'Special Invitation' to you for our OPEN HOUSE, Thursday, February 13, from 9 a.m.-4 p.m.," said Tuffy and Ronnie Dent and Eddie Moudy.

Located on Highway 84 West, the new facility is ready to be toured, and shown off, said the trio, who will also be welcoming John Deere dignitaries to the open house.

Light refreshments will be served, and several prizes will be awarded all during the day, with major prizes being a riding lawn mower, barbecue grill and riding toy tractor for children.

"The Dent family has been in the John Deere dealership for over 30 years in this area," reminded the Dents and Moudy. "We understand the service and quality that must go into a business in order to give quality service."

They also said that although they know the economy is bad, they have shown by their construction of the large, new facility, how much they believe there will be a brighter future in this area.

Also, the Dents and Moudy have reminded that the open house is not "just for farmers," but the entire community will be welcomed to visit and tour their new facility.

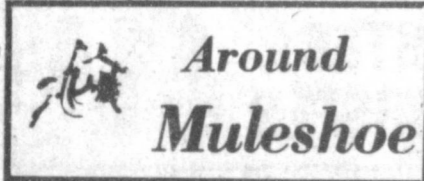

Each person in the community has a special invitation to attend the open house at Dent & Co.

Creative Living

with Sheryl Borden

Information on making the blooming vest, teaching children to use the microwave oven, and doing ethnic cooking will be presented on "Creative Living" on February 11 and 15. Leta Brazell, co-owner of The Quilt Works in Albuquerque will demonstrate making the popular blooming vests and will discuss fabric selection and the surprising method of making the vests "bloom"!

Janet Briggs is a home economist with Panasonic C in Secaucus, NJ and she has the perfect solution for children snacking habits. She advises parents to teach children to use the microwave oven and let them prepare their own snacks -- with adequate supervision at first. Janet will share some snack recipes and discuss recipes for children to experiment with.

Finally, Barbara Gonsor, manager of public relations with Pepperidge Farm in Norwalk, CT will talk about the popularity of ethnic cooking and how it manifests itself in American food. She will prepare several ethnic recipes and share many others.

On February 13 the topics include pork smittane, kitchen styles and recipes for entertaining. Joyce Meyer is a consumer specialist with the Indiana Pork Producers Assn. and she'll show how to cut butterfly pork chops for pork smittane -- a dish that can be prepared and set on the table in under 30 minutes.

Today's cooks want kitchens that are convenient, easily kept, and attractive as well as functional and a place where people like to be. Ellen Cheever is director of the Maytag Kitchen Idea Center from Sacramento, CA and she'll show kitchen styles to fit most any taste -- whether it's contemporary, traditional or country.

Speaking of food, cooking and kitchens, entertaining can be the spice of life and people do appreciate a good hostess. Parties can be a pleasure for everyone, including the hostess, if we realize how important it is to plan ahead. Barbara Gonsor of Pepperidge Farm will highlight ideas for giving a successful party, and share some of her favorite entertaining recipes.

"Creative Living" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden. The show airs on KENW-TV, Channel 3 in Portales at 12 noon on Tuesday and Thursday and at 2:00 pm on Saturday. (All times are Mountain Standard).

The following information and recipes are from a booklet called Sassy Classy, put out by the National Pork Producers Council in Des Moines, Iowa.

Advances in fresh pork merchandising will see more and more supermarkets increasingly offering the product boneless. Butterfly chops, sirloin cutlets, and wafer-thin steaks to name just three, are among the items not customarily found in meat departments that now are becoming common place. Bone-in cuts remain ever-popular, but the aim of many retailers is pork without bones.

PORK SMITTANE

Butterfly chops, so called because original loin chops are cut almost in half and then spread open or "butterflied", cook quickly and are done when the juices run clear. Prepared in under 30 minutes. Pork smittane is ideal for busy -- and small - families.

2 butterfly chops, cut 1/2 inch thick, 3 tablespoons flour, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon sliced green onion, 1/2 cup dry white wine, 1 teaspoon Dijon-style mustard, 1/4 cup cold water and 1 1/2 teaspoons flour.

Pound pork with a meat mallet to 1/4-inch thickness. Combine 3 tablespoons flour and pepper; dredge chops. In skillet melt butter; add chops and brown on both sides. Remove chops. Add green onion to drippings; cook over medium heat till crisp-tender. Stir in wine and mustard. Return chops to skillet. Cover and reduce heat to medium-low. Simmer for 15 to 18 minutes or till done. Remove chops.

Stir together water and 1 1/2 teaspoons flour; stir into drippings. Cook over medium-high heat till thickened and bubbly, stirring constantly. Return chops to skillet. Cover and cook for 2 to 3 minutes or till heated through. Garnish with tarragon and serve with pea pods, carrots, and water chestnuts, if desired. Makes 2 servings.

GRILLED PORK PAILLARDS
"Paillard" are made by cutting a single boneless loin into thick slices.

1 pound boneless pork loin roast, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/4 cup olive oil, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon chopped rosemary, 1 teaspoon chopped thyme, 1/2 teaspoon chopped sage and 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Cut pork into 4 thick slices; brush with lemon juice. In a small bowl combine oil, herbs, and pepper; mix well. Rub herb mixture on both sides of pork slices. Arrange in a baking dish; cover and refrigerate 4 hours or overnight.

Place pork on grill, about 5 inches over slow coals. Grill 40 to 50 minutes or till done, turning occasionally. Makes 4 servings.

Tim Richards

In This Week's Senior Spotlight

By Linda Wiseman
This week, the Sudan Senior Spotlight shines on Tim Richards, the green eyed, brown haired five foot four inch son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Richards.

Tim was born in Clovis, N.M. 19 years ago but now he realizes that Texas is "God's Country" since he decided to go to West Texas State University upon graduation from SHS. Tim has a large family of five brothers and three sisters and his favorite people are his parents, family and friends.

Tim stated that Mrs. Laceywell and Mrs. King and Mrs. Fisher are his favorite teachers. Typing is his favorite class, its a good place to learn and have fun at the same time, but when he isn't typing, he likes to read and work with plants.

He likes to watch TV where he can see his favorites, the Cosby Show on Thursdays; John Ritter everyday and Neil Carter on Saturdays. When he's not watching T.V., he likes to listen to the radio so he can hear Tina Turner sing his favorite song "We Don't Need Another Hero."

Everyone in a while he likes to take in a movie like his favorite, The Karate Kid. His favorite month is August, he likes to play volleyball and go out for his favorite food, Pizza.

His favorite color will always be blue in any shade. His goal in life is to be successful in whatever he does, and he hopes that every other student at SHS "Strives to reach his full potential, because the sky's the limit."

ints For Homeowners

This year more than five million homes will be burglarized. About four billion dollars in property will walk out the door. Police studies prove most burglaries are committed, not by professionals, but by juveniles who spot an open window, a faulty lock or some other "target of opportunity."

Whenever you move to a new residence, replace or rekey all locks. See that the entrance locks on all exterior doors can withstand hard, violent kicks. All the exterior doors should have deadbolt locks with at least a one-inch throw and a reinforced cylinder guard. All locks should be in good repair.

"The Burglar Doesn't Ring Twice" is a free color brochure on home security designed to assist homeowners in choosing locks best suited to their home security needs. Included is detailed information on various types and parts of locks, such as anti-saw deadbolts, dead-locking latches, pin tumblers, keyed entry locks, and decorative front door handle sets.

Deadbolts can be the surest way to stop a burglar dead in his tracks. A deadbolt is a solid metal bar that spans the gap between a door and its frame. When engaged, it cannot be pushed back by a flexible shimming device. The National Crime Prevention Institute states that "a deadbolt lock is a definite burglary deterrent."

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Don Glover of Lazbuddie and Mr. and Mrs. Carter Williams of Muleshoe.

The church was decorated with votives and mild smylex. Three center candle arches, with two candle spirals on each side, laced with smylex decorated the marriage altar. A unity candle, centered in pink miniature carnations, baby's breath and greenery, sitting on a brass stand completed the setting. Large bows of mauve ribbon marked the family pews.

Marcella and Mia Jennings played wedding music at the piano and organ as guests were seated. Soloist, David McReynolds of Lubbock sang "Truly," "The Wedding Song," and "The Lord's Prayer." A duet "To Me" was sung by Michelle Mason of Lubbock and David McReynolds. Soloist, Susan Glover, sister of the bride, sang "Surround Me With Love," and was accompanied by Laura Leal.

The bride chose a formal candlelight Piccione gown, with a high victorian neckline of Venice lace, a yoke of Schiffli embroidery, a shaped fitted bodice of satin crepe. Venice lace formed a ruffle about the dropped shoulders with self buttons and loops forming a closure across the shoulder. The back bodice of Schiffli embroidery molded to a very deep drop waistline. The low waistline was accented with beaded Venice lace flowers and tiny satin ribbon flowers. Venice lace formed a peplum in the back just below the waistline. The gown was completed with a satin crepe skirt hemmed in Venice lace flowers and a cathedral train. Venice lace gauntlets were worn on her hands. Her headpiece was a candlelight ascot hat, accented with embroidery and pearls, with a flowing cathedral train.

The bride carried a cascade of white sweetheart roses, some with a touch of mauve in the center, interspersed with white stephanotis, baby's breath, and greenery, tied with candlelight lace and satin steamers.

In keeping with tradition something new was her wedding gown. Something blue was the traditional blue garter. Something old was a solid gold wedding band worn by her great grandmother, Willie Duncan, and pennies with the bride's date of birth in her shoes. Something borrowed was her pearl earrings, borrowed from her mother.

Susan Glover, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Penny Miller, Sherri Bessire and Kim Gregory of Lubbock. Stacey Masten, cousin of the bride, of Evans, Colo. served as flower girl.

Jay Cage of Austin, and Jimmy Lee of Muleshoe, served as best men. Groomsmen were Jay Gleason of Lubbock, John David Agee of Austin, and Terry Steinbock of Lazbuddie. Candlelighters were Michael and Steven Smith, cousins of the groom of Lubbock.

Ushers were Brian Glover, brother of the bride, of Lazbuddie, Jeff Hamilton, Mark Jordan and Jason Scoggins of Lubbock.

Registering guests were Trestia Moore of Lubbock. Handing out scrolls and rice bags was Jarah Redwine, cousin of the bride, of Lazbuddie.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church in Muleshoe. Assisting at the reception were Darsey Randolph, K.K. Flowers, Trestia Moore of Lubbock, and Launa Treider of Farwell. Hostesses were Sandy Gregory and Shirley Steinbock of Lazbuddie, Sharon Agee, Carole Cox and Twila Albertson of Muleshoe, and Peggy Williams of Lubbock.

The couple are making their home at Stegall following a wedding trip to Angel Fire, N.M.

The bride graduated from Lazbuddie High School in 1984, and attended Texas Tech. She is presently attending American Commercial College in Lubbock.

Williams is a graduate of Muleshoe High School, attended Texas Tech and is now engaged in farming.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Friskee of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Clevinger of Canyon, Mrs. Meredith Meeker and daughter, Laura, of Panhandle, Mr. and Mrs. John Fuston and daughters of Hereford, Juanita Caldwell of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Williams of Lubbock, Wenonah Williams of Denver, Colo. and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Houlette of Friona.

Also Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Phipps of Friona, Delores and Judy Phipps of Hereford, Marie and Nina Redwine of Bovina, Michelle Chadwick of Farwell, Billy and Sue Chester of Sudan, Lanelle Tucker and Kate Beecher of Dimmitt, Rev. Louis and Leona Crenshaw of Plains, Lisa Andrews, Billie Martin, Donna Buxkemper and Victor Maldonado of Lubbock, Catherine Volding of San Antonio, Terry Graves and Timothy of Littlefield and Wendi Vineyard of Idalou.

And Faye Poynor of Lubbock, Perri Lee of Lubbock, John and Anita Marquez of Lubbock, Bob and Olga Beck of Lubbock, Raygena Hays and Sharon Tate of Clovis, N.M., Tanya Masten of Evans, Colo.

Pre-nuptial courtesies included a shower given in the home of Mrs. Jerry Harrison of Muleshoe, a bridal shower given in Lazbuddie at the Methodist fellowship hall, a lingerie shower given by Sandy and Kim Gregory in their home and a rehearsal dinner in Muleshoe Civic Center hosted by the groom's parents.

She reported that she found Memphis, a city of several thousand, to be a beautiful and friendly place to live. "It is a center of commerce and transportation, the transportation mostly being on the Mississippi River. It carries barges and steamboats with freight and passengers. She enjoyed a trip down river on the steamboat Memphis Queen. She also visited an island in mid-river called Mud Island where there were Museums, Curio Shops and fine restaurants. Then there was another trip to Graceland, home of the late Elvis Presley. On the return trip their plane was delayed 45 minutes for a landing as there had been a seven inch rain in Dallas. Miss Richards, Bales United In Marriage

Lori Elise Richards became the bride of Kem Eric Bales in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church of Bovina on Saturday, Dec. 7. The Rev. Clark Williams officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Dick Richards of Jal, N.M. and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bales of Muleshoe are the parents of the groom.

Masses of red poinsettias filled the altar area of the church. A large Christmas tree stood to one side, and pots of ivory poinsettia flanked the altar which held the traditional Advent wreath. Tall candle trees stood at either side in the background. Vine wreaths tied with large red bows and trimmed with ivory bells lined the aisle marking each pew.

Presenting the traditional wedding music was Mrs. Bob Owen at the organ. She also accompanied Mrs. Clark Williams as she sang, "The Promise," "To Me," and "No-boy Loves Me Like You Do".

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attired in a bridal gown of her own design fashioned by her mother. It featured a fitted bodice of ivory rosepoint lace over taffeta embroidered with seed pearls. The high neckline was topped by a standup collar of lace. The yoke of bridal illusion was framed with scallops of lace and pearls and descended to a deep scoop in back.

The full, puffed taffeta sleeves with insertions of lace and pearls were finished by lace cuffs tapering to points at the wrists. The full skirt featured a cascade of chiffon flounces appliqued in lace and pearls down the back sweeping into a chapel-length train. A taffeta overskirt featured a scalloped hem edged in rosepoint lace and pearls over the double-flounced skirt.

The bride wore a stylized satin bowler covered with lace and pearl appliques with a veil and pouf of bridal illusion and streamers of lace. She carried an arm bouquet of ivory and red poinsettias. Tied into her bouquet was a lace handkerchief which had belonged to her paternal grandmother for her "something old". Her dress was new, and she borrowed a diamond pendant from her maternal grandmother. For something blue, she wore the traditional blue garter.

Bridal attendants were Kathi Richards of League City, Texas, maid of Honor, and Jeanna Richards of Lubbock was bridesmaid, both are sisters of the bride. Candlelighter was Nikki Axe of Garland, cousin of the bride.

Buddy Foster of Lariat served as best man. Groomsman was Keith Herrington, also of Lariat, served as groomsman. Ushers were Scott Richards of Lubbock, brother of the bride, and Burry Thatcher of Bovina. Chad Bales, son of the groom, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was hosted by the couple's parents in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride is a graduate of Ralls High School and attended Texas Tech University. She is currently assistant vice-president of First State Bank of Bovina. The groom graduated from Muleshoe High School and attended Texas A&M. He is a farmer.

Following a wedding trip to Reno, Nevada, the couple is at home near Lariat.

Local Scouts Honored At Blue, Gold Banquet

Tuesday night, Cub Scouts, their parents and special guests enjoyed the annual Scout Blue and Gold banquet at the Muleshoe High School cafeteria.

Master of ceremonies for the evening, following a meal of baked ham with all the trimmings, was Delton Wilhite, chairman of the Pack Committee.

After a call to order by Cub Master Ray Day, opening ceremonies were performed by Webelos Dens One and Two and Howard Watson gave the invocation.

Wilhite introduced special guests including Bailey County Commissioners, R.L. Scott and Roy Whitt and their wives; Elizabeth Watson; Mayor and Mrs. Darrell Turner; James Roy Jones, president of the Muleshoe Kiwanis, sponsors of Pack 620; District Committee member Mike Smith and District Scout Executive Joe Moser; as well as members of the news media at the banquet.

Special recognition was given Owen Jones, longtime Muleshoe Scoutmaster, who also served on the district and council levels and his wife, Clara Lou, who also served in many positions while helping with the Muleshoe Boy Scouts.

Special plaques of appreciation were presented West Plains Publishing, who provide programs, and other printing for the local Scouts; Five-Area Telephone for providing trophies and ribbons for the Pine Wood Derby; and to Gerald Reid, representing KMUL Radio; Gil Lamb from Channel Six and Cleta Williams from the Muleshoe/Bailey County Journals.

Wilhite also presented a gold medal to Jones, representing the Kiwanis Club, for continuing to sponsor the Scouts.

Special plaques were also presented to Cub Scout workers and den leaders, along with Webelos leaders, including Greta McCormick, Lela Villarreal, Johnny Ziegenfuss, Jim Lutz, Judy Watson and a special award of merit to Howard Watson.

Joe Moser presented the Brian T. Kishner award to the Pack, one of three such awards given in the George White District, with one each for a Pack, Troop and Explorer Troop.

Sixteen Packs qualified, and Moser said Pack 620 was Outstanding in the District; Outstanding to the community and Outstanding to the youth of the community.

"Muleshoe's Pack 620 has the best track record," said Moser, "and the Muleshoe Kiwanis does an outstanding job with the concern they show with the youth of this community."

It was announced that a "Tiger Cub" group has formed, and first graders will now be accepted as a part of the Tiger Cub Pack.

Graduation was conducted by Akela Ken LeBlanc, assisted by Howard Watson.

Graduating into Webelos were Neal Watson, Charles Villarreal, Brian Box, Ernest Perez, Justin Williams, Ruben Saldana, Kalaam Puckett and David Olivarez.

An impressive "Arrow of Light" ceremony was performed for Scouts who graduated from Pack 620.

Akela, in full Indian regalia, including long head-dress, explained the seven candles of 'virtue' as they were lighted. They symbolized wisdom, courage, self-control, justice, faith, hope and love.

Winding up the evening were Cub Scouts from Pack 620, who crossed a bridge and graduated into Troop 620. Scouts in the ceremony were Scott Miramontes, Steven Wauson, Shawn Pierce, Ryan Wilson, Dustin Wilhite and David Lutz.

If elected, Bill said he feels that he would merely be the spokesman for the people of this county, and would be accountable in all matters to those he represents.

Bill Vinson would greatly appreciate your vote, influence and support in the Democratic primary in May.

Friday night, at Lubbock, drivers were discouraged from travel when and if possible, and were asked, especially, to avoid travel on Loop 289.

Although the sun peeped out for awhile on Friday afternoon, and the temperature dropped to a low 8 degrees, clouds moved in and the temperature was around 18 degrees at daybreak on Saturday.

National Weather Service predicted another cold front would move through the area on Saturday night, depositing an additional one to two inches of snow.

NWS said the snow and cold would linger through the weekend and begin the new week, before any noticeable melting of snow and ice would take place.

In New Mexico, Tucumcari was virtually 'shut down' from snow that reached a depth of more than 14 inches.

Tucumcari was paralyzed, with only a few four-wheel drive vehicles traversing the streets, and highways, mostly in rescue attempts for stranded motorists.

School Election Set April 5

The local school trustee election will be held on Saturday, April 5, from 7 a.m.-7 p.m. for two regular terms and one unexpired term.

Julie Cage and Ronnie Holt's regular terms expire this year, and both of the regular terms are for three years. The unexpired term is a two year term for the position formerly held by Sam Harlan.

As required by law, Harlan resigned last fall when his sister, Connie Kenmore, was employed by the school district.

Applications for candidacy are available in the school business office and interested individuals are encouraged to go by the business office and file for candidacy prior to the March 5 deadline.

As of Friday morning, February 7, one incumbent, Julie Cage, has filed for re-election.

TEAMS Tests Will Be Given During Month

H. John Fuller, superintendent of Muleshoe Schools, has announced that the Texas Educational Assessment of Minimum Skills (TEAMS) tests will be given to student of Muleshoe ISD in grades three, five, seven and nine on February 18-20.

"The TEAMS tests have been instituted to measure minimum basic skills in mathematics, reading and writing," said the superintendent. "This program was mandated by House Bill 72, passed by the Second Called Session of the 68th Texas Legislature in July 1984."

He explained that TEAMS testing is a relatively new concept that school officials now have to assist in program and staff evaluation. The results are being closely monitored by the Accreditation Division of the Texas Education Agency, Fuller added. Although students placement is not directly connected to the individual student results, the failure to master the TEAMS objective at any grade level indicates a need for remediation and or special assistance, continued the superintendent.

"The Muleshoe School District is committed in providing quality instruction and strong remediation for students needing additional help in achieving mastery," he said.

Exit level tests are administered twice a year, in October and May, and requires mastery before a diploma can be awarded by any accredited school in Texas.

"Parents of students in these specific grades can really cooperate by encouraging students to be in attendance at school on these dates and to see that students get the proper rest before and during this testing period," Fuller suggests.

Firefighter's

Report

by Wayne Peterson

The February business meeting was called to order by H.E. Reeder. Bill Kinard read the January minutes, which were approved as read.

There was a motion to establish an office for Sergeant-Of-Arms. This will be voted on next meeting. We do have a few members that get out of hand every now and then.

Assistant Chief Donald Harrison made a statement on the driving conduct of the firemen. A reminder of lawful and courteous behavior behind the wheel. We might also ask that when you are approached by an emergency vehicle pull to the right land as soon as possible, but do so safely.

Two rookie firemen were voted into regular membership. These men are Raul Torres and Mickey Tosh. Charles Eowrance also rejoined the department by majority vote. Raul and Mickey had to serve six months as rookies before being eligible for regular membership.

The department received donations from the Ronald Scott and Bill Millen families. We also want to congratulate Brian Rudd and his wife on their family addition of a new daughter.

Chief Jack Dunham received the state fire insurance report. All fires affecting the key rates were in the city limits, with losses in the amount of $34,560 reported.

It was announced that a defensive driving course will be conducted soon for firemen and wives.

The January 29 chili supper and family social was attended by almost all firemen and families. Hats off to Gary Toombs and his helpers.

Angels Of Mercy of West Plains Medical Center

Do you remember the flood Sudan endured a few months ago, when the water went as high as the hoods of cars in some places? Sharon Tamplin, Ward Secretary remembers. She drove through that mess trying to get to work. Sharon lives in the country near Sudan with her husband Richard and their three children Ronda, age 9, Keevin, age 5, and Renda, 19 months. She has worked at WPMC for 3½ years in two different departments: Business Office and Nursing Service where she is currently employed as a rotating Ward Secretary. "Rotating" means that each week Sharon works a few days on 7-3 shift then rotates and works a few days on 3-11 shift. The transition from 7-3 to 3-11 is not an easy one. The two different shifts have two different sets of communication procedures which Sharon must readjust to each week. One day, not long ago, someone was heard to say at the Nurses Station, "The number one attribute in the job description of the rotating Ward Secretary is that she be equipped with split personality!" Well, Sharon doesn't have a split personality but she is able to make the transition easily. Sharon says that the things she likes most about her job are meeting the public, and working with the doctors and other hospital employees. She says she is never bored on the job because this job "really keeps you perking right along." Her job is most difficult when everyone has nine things to do at once and personnel are running around like little ants in a colony--she is the person who must get the right information to the right person at the right time. I asked Sharon if she had the power to change one thing about her job what would it be and she replied, "It would be nice to have a clerk just for the Intercept Program. Seems like the paper work for the incoming Intercept Program patients is monumental!" Monumental or not, Sharon handles the high stress situations because she is a special lady. She is an Angel of Mercy. T. Wilson RN DON WPMC.

Senator Bill Sarpalius

Reports

AGRICULTURE SOLUTION LIES IN TEAMWORK

AUSTIN — Every year, we receive one of the toughest assignments associated with being senator for the 31st District. We are asked to address the annual convention of the Texas Corn Growers Association.

That organization, so ably directed by Dimmitt's Carl King, is one of the foremost commodity associations in the nation. Its leadership is among the best that can be found, and the member farmers always are on the cutting edge of agricultural technology. In short, the audience is not to be taken lightly.

Keeping that in mind, we decided to use the convention to take a hard look at agriculture in today's Texas. Such a speech obviously requires a thorough review of the agriculture puzzle, a review that reminded us just what precarious shape agriculture is in.

In our review, we saw the huge commodity surpluses, the poor international market and a farm bill hardly equipped to deal with those problems.

At the same time we saw the subtle problems that also conspire to hurt agriculture. We saw how much our society has changed, and what those changes have meant to agriculture.

Our nation has become nutrition conscious, and rightly or wrongly some foods are considered taboo for "healthy" diets. Among the foods suffering most is the traditional American standby — beef.

Families have changed as well. Both husband and wife find it necessary to work, and that means less time for meal preparation. The consumer simply is looking for different products.

And, of course, there is our aging population. As the "baby boom" dissipated, we as a nation slowly began to age. More and more people are being placed on low-fat, low-red meat diets.

These changes came upon agriculture fairly quickly, hitting us when our sector wasn't quite ready to cope. Beef consumption dropped, and the market for related products such as feed grains obviously softened as well.

Slowly, we've been using our ingenuity to bounce back. The beef industry has begun to market cuts of meat that are easier to prepare and are lower in fats and cholesterol. Our agricultural researchers always are searching for cheaper, more efficient ways to produce feed grains that themselves will provide more efficient gain for cattle.

Battles such as these are far from over. Our livestock industry still has a ways to go before it can be considered robust. Certainly, our feed-grain markets remain soft. But there is no question we are making some progress. It is that progress that brought home to us the amazing nature of the American farmer. Never in the history of the world has there been a better farmer than the American farmer. Never before has one person been able by himself to feed hundreds of other people.

Our audience in Dimmitt indeed was world class, and we knew just what we were going to tell them.

We acknowledged that there unquestionably would be more bad facing farmers before things got better. We expressed frustration that the state's ability to help agriculture is limited by the massive and often harmful federal involvement. We pledged to help cut any unnecessary costs the state might impose on its farmers.

But, we knew the most important thing we could tell them was that in many ways the American farmer still controls his own destiny.

Farmers have tried in every conceivable way to convince government of the seriousness of their plight. Farmers have marched on Washington and have lobbied diligently through the system. We have discovered painfully the limits of Congressional and administrative action.

Where then does the rest of the answer lie? For now, until we can change the imperfect farm bill, the answer lies within ourselves.

Don't misunderstand us. We still need to lobby our policymakers in Washington and Austin. But, for every hour we spend working with them, we need to spend an equal amount of time evaluating ourselves. We must continue our long-standing tradition of using the best management practices and the latest production techniques.

We must ask ourselves the hard questions. Are we doing the very best thing for our farms? Do we need to participate in this year's government program? Are we doing every single thing possible to increase sales, reduce surpluses and improve the overall farm economy?

Questions like these have been asked of farmers, by farmers, for our nation's entire history. The answers haven't always come easily, but farmers have found them.

A&M research funding increased $16 million

COLLEGE STATION — Research funding at Texas A&M University soared to a record $138.6 million during the 1985 academic year, an increase of more than $16 million over the previous year.

Figures for the fiscal year ended Aug. 31 were announced by Texas A&M President Frank E. Vandiver. Last year the university conducted research valued at $121.7 million, making it the leading research institution in Texas and among the top 20 in the nation.

"We feel strongly about our commitment to research as it applies to and complements the teaching function, contributes to our basic knowledge and helps solve problems of a technological, scientific, economic or social nature," Vandiver said. "We are proud of our role and its contribution to the vitality of the state and nation in these areas."

A special expression of gratitude is given to our local media, the Muleshoe Journal, KMUL Radio Station, and Channel 6, for their outstanding publicity efforts for the festival and for taking part in the evening's activities. We were also delighted to have so many people from the community at the civic center that night. Your support keeps the Boosters going and benefits the students in fine arts.

'Killer' Highway Sealcoat Slated For This Summer

A 15.6 mile section of U.S. 84 from Muleshoe to Sudan will be resurfaced soon under a contract approved last week by the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission.

The work is part of a $3.7 million project to improve 190 miles of highway in the highway department's 17-county Lubbock district, and is a result of improved state highway funding, according to department officials.

"A few years ago, the amount of this type of resurfacing work was next to nothing due to lack of funds," said William M. Pope, highway department district engineer. "Now, we hope to be able to resurface 264 miles in our district during 1986."

The resurfacing, known as a seal coat, protects the road from water and ice damage, and also improves skid resistance. The work on U.S. 84 is scheduled for sometime this summer, and will be done by High Plains Pavers Inc. of Plainview.

PIONEER BRAND CORN

High performance hybrids to make the most of your irrigation program!

Water isn't cheap. So naturally, you need corn hybrids with the genetic potential to come along with you and yield the highest level your management can reach. That's why 3377 and 3186 make the perfect combination on the Plains. Plant full-season 3186 on your best land where it can express its full potential. Then round out your irrigated corn program with earlier maturing 3377. As companions, they give you a powerful combination of high yield and performance characteristics you need.

3377 Superior yielder. Outstanding heat and drought tolerance. Excellent for delayed plantings. Tall wide-leaved hybrid with good ground shading. Large, girthy ears.

3186 What a yielder! Excellent heat and drought tolerance. Tall, semi-upright leaved hybrid. Superior standability. Excellent late season plant health plus MDMV and heat smut resistance.

EATING OUT

By Rose Hughes

THIS is the time of year to think of dining, vacationing and sight-seeing in more southerly states. One can begin in Florida in January and drive north in February and March.

IT is March when the

"In" Words

Every so often a new word or phrase seems to capture the imagination of writers. Readers are then inundated with a deluge of "in" writers trying to be up with the latest.

The current fad expression, suddenly, is deja vu. Everywhere one turns, this in phrase appears.

A year ago the in word was keister. One can go back several decades and remember when the State Department's new word suddenly became periphery. Everyone was instantly talking about the periphery of this or that. Counter-productive came next.

Not to worry, came in big as a phrase a few years back, and the latest is: enough already. That says it!

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

By Edward Thorlund

The magazine "U.S. News" has just published an issue largely devoted to business conditions expected in 1986.

The gist of the presentation, quite lengthy, is that 1986 will be a good year. The danger, according to the majority of experts queried, is that Congress will not have the courage to follow through on its deficit reducing law of 1985 and actually reduce spending.

By the end of the year (and the 99th Congress) if this comes to pass, then inflation might reappear and a recession could follow in 1987--according to the majority of economic experts polled.

The investor, then, should be encouraged by this outlook-of a growth rate between 3 and 4 percent. (Martin Feldstein is among those who expect this.)

And as oil prices come down, beginning two months from now, probably, the growth rate might accelerate--depending on how much prices come down and how much this affects car-buying, building and the transportation industry.

The Red Cross

During the month of March, the American Red Cross makes its annual appeal for funds to serve the nation in time of emergency.

Everyone is familiar with the many services of the Red Cross during war and when disaster strikes.

Emergency medical and nursing care is annually provided thousands of victims. In many instances, financial assistance is a part of the relief extended. We should remember the important contribution made by volunteer Red Cross workers. March is also the month for recruiting workers.

famous gardens around Charleston, South Carolina, reach their peak in beauty. CHARLESTON itself has become one of the nation's leading tourist attractions. For its size, it offers a surprising number of restaurants and inns--the big thing in the last decade--which offer European-like service and cuisine.

ONE can now stay at one of the famous gardens, Middleton, at Middleton Inn. There are also many renovated old inns--many done over in the last few years, which offer breakfast free, special service and very good food--in the old downtown district.

TWO which some have praised are Planters Inn and Vendue Inn. If one stays in the old city, rates may be between $65 and $100 a night. One can stay in other inns, motels or hotels at lesser rates.

Texas A&M architects refurbish skydome to study natural lighting

COLLEGE STATION — Renewed interest by architects in the use of natural light has prompted Texas A&M University's Department of Architecture to refurbish one of the nation's largest skydome research facilities.

When completed, the 28-foot diameter skydome, located atop the architecture building here, will offer researchers a controlled laboratory for simulating sky conditions ranging from clear to overcast, said Dr. Lester Boyer, project director for the Southwest Regional Daylighting Center located at Texas A&M. The university is one of 10 schools designated as regional centers for research and education by the Daylighting Network of North America.

Under a grant from the National Science Foundation, Boyer and Professor Larry Degelman will monitor buildings in Houston, Dallas, Austin and San Antonio that use natural light through atriums and light shelf systems. Light measurements will be taken in those buildings and models will be tested under artificial "sky" conditions in Texas A&M's skydome.

For years, many architects disregarded the usefulness of daylighting, Boyer said, but increasing utility bills have prompted a renewed interest in free energy from the sun.
