Students Get Year's Annual Early In June

Curfman Changes System Of Distribution; Add New Features

THE 1936 La Ventana will be distributed to students June 2 or 3, Leonard Curfman, business manager of the college yearbook, said this week.

Curfman is working out a new system of distribution. He plans to eliminate hours of waiting in line by making them available at several places. Tentative distribution points include the annual offices on the third floor of the administration building, in the east rotunda of the main building where Toreadors are now handed out, and the office of R. A. Mills, professor of English and chairman of the publications committee.

The annual business manager said that it will be impossible to hand out the yearbooks earlier than usual as was previously stated in the student paper. No satisfactory arrangement could be worked out for the checking of library deposits against fines and deductions that might have been incurred by the student; however, La Ventana staff members are to receive their complimentary editions a week before the remainder of the books will be distributed, Curfman pointed out.

Dedicate Book
This year's La Ventana, dedicated to Roscoe Wilson, deceased member of the college board of directors, is bound by a padded cover in red and black, presenting a modernistic design.

Among the innovations featured in the book, other than the padded cover, are the substitution of subtle poetry throughout for a humor section, the insertion of a college calendar, cutting forth the various events of the year in an enlarged picture of the pin of each campus club with the photograph of the respective club president, and a unique presentation of the college beauties as selected by Howard Chandler Christie, famous New York artist.

List Staff Members

Society Ends Year's Work

Large Number Attends Museum Association Banquet At Dorm

Seventy-five members were present at a banquet given by the Texas Tech Art Museum association in the women's dormitory on Monday night. The banquet completed the year's program for the society. Dean James M. Gordon acted as toastmaster for the annual affair. Other program features were talks by President Bradford Knapp on "Relations of the Museum to the College" and by Dr. W. C. Holden on "History of the Museum Building for Texas Tech". F. A. Kleinschmidt, director of the museum association, discussed the 1936-37 tentative program and related activities during the past year.

Kleinschmidt announced the following speakers to appear on next year's program: Edward B. Brown, Washington, D. C., who is superintendent of painting and sculpture work for the government; George Eddle, resident of American Society Murad Painters; E. Bernard Lintott, water color artist; and Elizabeth Hawley, instructor in art at the college.

Appear On Summer Artist Course

THE second number on the artist course for the summer school sessions is Miriam Winslow and her dancers of New York. A former student at Texas Tech, she and her troupe here for evening performances at the High School Auditorium June 29. The Goodman Theater Players open the summer numbers June 15.

Stevenson Appears On June Banquet Program

Alumni, Ex-Studes Hear Speaker Next Month At Annual Affair

Coke R. Stevenson of Junction, speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, will address guests at the annual Ex-students and Alumni banquet, June 8, Mrs. J. W. Jackson, executive secretary of the association, has announced. Other speakers for the affair are Senator Tom Pollard of Tyler, member of the board of directors, and Jason Gordon of Farwell, who will give the welcoming address. Gordon is a graduate of the agricultural division.

The dinner will be held at the women's dormitory. Mrs. Jackson said. Last year about 150 graduates and ex-students attended.

To Elect Heads
President and Mrs. Bradford Knapp, Dean and Mrs. O. V. Adams, Dean and Mrs. J. M. Gordon, Dean and Mrs. A. H. Leidigh, Mrs. Mary W. Doak, and Miss Margaret Weeks, will be special guests of the association. Members of the board of directors have been invited as guests of the association.

Ince Presents Constitution At Assembly

Students Gather At Gym Thursday Morning To Consider Changes

MEETING in the college gymnasium at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, the Student Association, composed of the entire student body, will approve or reject the newly drafted constitution prepared by the Student Association in spring. Leon Ince, president of the student governing body, has called the convocation.

The new document, based upon former rules, but showing drastic changes, will be discussed. The whole student body is to vote upon its acceptance as well as upon changes which representatives desire.

Points Out Changes

Some of the major changes were pointed out by Ince in an interview with a Toreador reporter yesterday. "The new constitution contains a preamble which sets forth the purpose and function of the organized student body."

"One of the most drastic and important revisions," Ince said, "is the provision that all students will be allowed to vote in elections. The poll list will be made up from a list compiled in the registrar's office rather than from a list of those students who have purchased student activity tickets, as provided under the former governing document."

Other Revision Made

Besides the enlarged poll lists, other revisions have been made in election methods. Eligibility rules for all offices have been changed, and the preferential ballot has been substituted for the Australian voting plan. Only one yell leader will be elected, and the titles of freshman yell leader have been eliminated. The cheer director will appoint his assistants. Provision has been made for the election of La Ventana beauties rather than their selection by a person off the campus.

Honorary Speech Fraternity Takes In New Members

Ten new members were accepted by Alpha Psi Omega, honorary speech fraternity, in the annual ceremony Wednesday evening. Examination for membership started at 5:30 o'clock and was followed by a buffet supper in the Chalmers room of the Hilton hotel at 8:30 o'clock.

Matheson, Thompson Portray Leading Roles In "The Cradle Song"

Students Present Martinez Sierra's Two-Act Play At High School Auditorium Thursday Evening

Anita Matheson, Alpha Psi Omega member, and Clay Thompson, senior student of prominence in intercollegiate dramatics, play leading roles in "The Cradle Song," a two-act play by Martinez Sierra, to be given Thursday evening in the high school auditorium.

Clay Thompson, head professor of speech and director of dramatics, is directing the production. More than 20 college students have part in the presentation.

The setting is a Dominican convent at the present time. Teresa, played by Anita Matheson, is an abandoned child whom Rex Webster, playing the part of a doctor, adopts and sends to the convent to be reared by the nuns. The first act occurs at the time of Teresa's arrival, and the closing scenes after an interval of 18 years. Teresa falls in love with Antonio, played by Clay Thompson.

Phi Psi Stages Annual Event

Heard, Matthews Occupy Throne; Coeds Model In Cotton Pageant

King Ersel Matthews and Queen Margaret Heard reigned over the fourth annual Cotton Carnival pageant presented by Phi Psi, honorary textile fraternity, at the Palace theater last night.

The royal couple was crowned by Edward Bradley, city attorney, and K. N. Clapp, local manager of Anderson-Clayton and company, cotton buyers, officials who opened the affair with an address.

Enque Plays
During the festivities, downtown dancing classes gave performances and the Negro Choral club rendered several musical numbers.

Centaurus Name Nowlin To Head Organization

Jack Nowlin of Cleburne is to direct activities of the Centaur club next semester, having been elected president in regular meeting of the club Wednesday evening.

His successor, Ed Hutchinson of Lubbock, who resigned Hutchinson plans to attend the University of Minnesota next fall.

Kleinschmidt Speaks At Last Meeting Of Society

SPES, organization composed of honor students in the engineering division, held its last meeting of the year Thursday night in the engineering auditorium.

Luker Addresses FFA At Banquet

C. Luker, former head professor of agricultural education, was the principal speaker at the FFA college chapter's annual banquet in the women's dormitory Monday night.

Botany Head Plans Annual Field Courses

Studhalter, Voth Leave Today For Santa Fe National Forest

DR. R. A. Studhalter, head professor of biology, Dr. Paul D. Voth, instructor in botany at the University of Chicago, leave today for Santa Fe National Forest, N. M., to make final camping arrangements for the annual field courses to be conducted there June 7 to July 18.

This is the third annual group of such field courses at the college conducted by Dr. Studhalter. In addition to the two six-hour botany courses offered last year, special courses have been added to this summer's schedule. Students in junior botany courses will have an opportunity to make an eight-day trip to Colorado. The classes will visit Santa Fe and other places of interest enroute.

Describes Camp
Registration for the field course should be made by mail before June 1, Studhalter said.

Holden Plans Summer Trip

Students Leave Lubbock In June For Visit In Mexican Capital

Twenty-two persons have signed up to make the field trip to Mexico City during the summer session, conducted by Dr. W. C. Holden, acting head of the history department. The trip offers six hours credit in Anthropology 336x-7x.

The party will drive from Lubbock to Mexico City and nearby points of interest. The group will spend most of the time in Mexico City visiting museums, ruins, art galleries, and libraries. The class leaves Lubbock June 8 and returns July 13.

Socialites Oppose Independents Today In Opennig Game

By BOB CANNON
Sports Editor

A BANNER athletic year for Tech, apparent in experienced and returning lettermen in football and basketball and the sudden upturn in minor sport interest, causes the commentators to start his 1936-37 predictions early.

Between now and September 19, the opening game with TWC—a week prior to the TCU classic, the athletic office will fairly hum with typewriters, preparing advanced publicity for the Red Raider season. There won't be any suggestions as to how close Tech'll come to knocking off TCU in the thousands of news letters to be mailed, but in the minds of those workers will be more than just a twinkle of hope. We'd bet that certain parties, very satisfied with the Raider spring training stimulus, are counting the days before the first practice session starts again in September.

The Frogs (they're the Sugar Bowl champs in case you have forgotten) although they lost a bevy of veterans that were responsible for the Christian top-notch year, won't have the star stud who was of last fall. But you can bet that the Froggies won't be fooling around with Sam Baugh at the helm and L. D. Myer and Walter Roach on the receiving end. Sul Ross rained passes over the Raiders in the spring exhibition, but that didn't spell anything.

Next fall, if the same attitude is still with the squad, the TCU fans may go back to Fort Worth recalling the Froggies of Sugar Bowl fame, rather than discussing what the Raiders did to their '36 hopefuls.

Not since 1932 have the Raiders experienced a great year. Next season the charges of Coaches Cawthon and Smith are due. As in '32 when the Raiders crowned their big year by upsetting Kansas State, an opening season victory over TCU would be just as good.

Then, taking up basketball, Coach Berl Huffman's cagers have all of the furnishings and fixtures to put on a racy season. The basketball head has big plans for the Matador cagers. They should cop the Border conference on second thought, but that won't be the biggest event on the '37 schedule. Whisperings of a campaign along the Pacific Coast against the University of Southern California, UCLA, San Diego State, and perhaps Whittier or Redlands are being plucked out of open air here and there. Nothing is definite, but it's an idea to work on. Right now, the cage maestro is having a big time at the annual USC basketball and track clinic, and the boys say he took along his bathing suit. Imagine Bruno in a bathing suit at Catalina Island?

More cage mumblings say that the Raiders will trot out on the floor next campaign in flashy Scarlet outfits when they start their season campaign. Besides that, more underhand talk sends them into the Missouri Valley conference for a tour of that circuit winding up their pre-conference season against Southwest teams.

Not bad, we'd say. And with the quality of basketball that will be on Coach Berl's squad, the Matadors ought to be able to show the middle-west teams that we do play basketball in this section of the Durt country.

For track, a flickering jewel in the Raider camp, Coach Huffman has more ideas than may work out. The two main team, Case and Cowan, bolstered with three additional lettermen, Reginald Jordan, Pat Stout and Cecil Brashear, and a crop of prospects that Huffman has considerable confidence in, will be tripping around over the country like the basketball and grid teams.

The Southwest Exposition meet, Texas, Kansas and Drake Relays probably will be attended, or we miss our guess. After such a successful year with two men, the Tech coaches are aiming to make every attempt to attend all important meets throughout the middle west. Maybe, one can never tell, Coach Berl may trail off down toward Laredo early next January to enter the Border Olympics. And by the way, the Arizona officials might as well prepare to forget that they ever held the Border mile relay record, because Tech will be out early after football season next fall preparing to deal the Wildcats a few mighty blows.

Golf, the gentlemen's game that Coach Cawthon advocated for such a long time, will take up where it

Dalton Faces Carpenter In Series Opener

Clubs Agree To Play After Disputes Almost Marry Playoff Plans

LARRY Trenary put the Socialites' prestige on the chopping block Thursday night when he agreed to send his Social League All-Stars against a "picked" Independent nine in the annual campus playoff.

The opening game is slated to go nine innings this afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock. Two seven-inning games are docketed for Sunday starting at 2:30 o'clock. Although the Independents did not decide a winner of their deadlocked campaign, the toss of a coin Thursday night awarded the title to the La Fonda. But the two leading teams, Los Ratos and La Fonda combined forces to meet the improved Social-all-star nine in the campus saw-off.

Breaks Agreement
Breaking their agreement with the Social League members, made at the start of the season that the Social loop would be eligible to select an all-star nine to play the winner of the Independent league for the campus title, the Independent members were so absolutely resigned to the thought of discontinuing and destroying the Social organization that they never quite realized the strength being amassed by the Social League manager, Trenary. However, Trenary refused to play the Independent all-star team at first on grounds that "... not that we don't want to play the Independent team, but because they broke their pre-season agreement with us."

Carpenter To Start
Manager Trenary announced early in the week that he would send A. J. Carpenter, lanky Silver Key hurler, to the mound for the Socialites in the opener. Trenary will probably pitch the first game Sunday.

The Social league, boasting a better ball club than the Independents have yet to play, are well manned in the outfield with Gene Alderson, Silver Key; Trenary, Kemas; and Sheehan, Kemas; patrolling the gardens. The infield includes Dick Sullins, College Club, at third; Glenn Stevenson, Kemas, short stop; Sam Hergert, Silver Key, second base; Leroy Moseley, Kemas, first base; and Deane Hutton, Kemas, behind the plate.

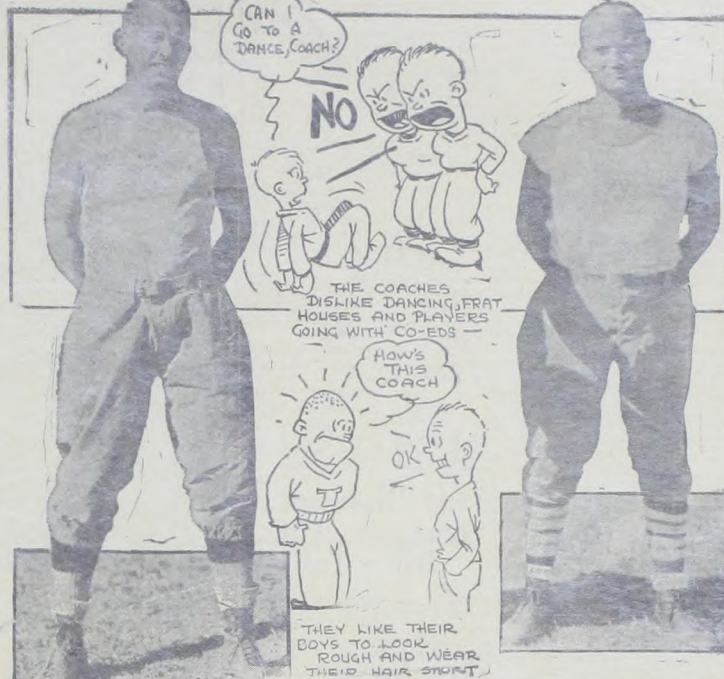

Association Okays Plans For Museum Building At College; Estimate Costs

The Museum association this week approved plans for the Tech museum. The completed structure would cost $75,000. "However, three alternate plans are being considered that would involve expenditures of from $25,000 to $75,000 for the finished building," President Bradford Knapp stated yesterday. "The $25,000 plan would only allow the basement to be constructed," he explained. Another plan is to build the completed rotunda and basement at a cost of $45,000, Knapp said.

Plans to raise additional funds for the erection of the museum are being carefully considered by the association, the college head stated. left off this spring by Tech linksters entering at least a half dozen meets with Southwest and Border entrants next fall. Panny Farmer, Manson Allen, Hollis Blackwell, and Robert Hale, all lettermen and Border champs, aided by Red Doherty, present City champ, and Rufus Ryan will carry the Tech golf cause a long way. We predict an undefeated season.

But not so with tennis. Several weeks ago we missed our guess about Professor J. G. Allen's racket wielders. Without Marshall Gordon next fall, the Border conference singles title may go back to Arizona. The tennis situation is cloudy, and we won't be far wrong in saying that they may not repeat next year. But one never knows. We've been surprised so many times this spring that tennis may be the dark horse.

And by the way, wouldn't it be a sad, sad story if the Socialites up and play the waddin' out of the Independents today and tomorrow. For once we guessed right, the only reason the Independents combined was because they were afraid they would get licked in the play off. La Fonda knew it, but the Ratos were too hard-headed to admit it.

If credit is placed where credit is due, the two men who have pasted the name TEXAS TECH in every section of the nation during the last six years, making a rapid step in the college's growth, have been Pete W. Cawthon, director of athletics, and Russell T. Smith, varsity line coach. With their famed Red Raiders, Coaches Cawthon and

Smith have played such eleven men as Kansas State, Baylor, DePaul, Loyola of Los Angeles, Detroit, Arizona, Texas, Texas A&M, SMU, Colorado State, Oklahoma A&M, TCU, and North Dakota State. Next fall, Centenary, Oklahoma A&M, TCU, DePaul, Arizona, Loyola of the West and Loyola of the South, and OCU head the schedule.

Besides their winning grid teams, the Raider coaches conduct the nation's largest coaching school during the summer. Aspiring students from every section of the country have attended the school tutored by the country's leading coaches. The school will not be held this year because of the Olympics.

Double T Club Selects Duval As President

Gridiron Star Succeeds Beauchamp; Baze Is Vice-President

Charley Duval of Sherman was elected president of the Double T association Wednesday at a meeting of the organization at La Fonda, football dormitory. Duval succeeds J. V. Beauchamp, Greenville senior. For two years a regular quarterback on the Matador team, Duval is considered one of the finest blocking backs to play with a Raider eleven in several years. Duval's shoulders most of the teams punting duties, and is an apt field general.

Baze Is Vice-Proxy
Winford Baze, stellar fullback from Robert Lee during the past two seasons, was named vice president of the lettermen's society. Baze succeeds Sam Jones, Abilene. Ed Smith, sophomore halfback from Del Rio, was named secretary, succeeding Walker Nichols, 1935 grid captain from San Angelo. Hugh Snodgrass, Lubbock, junior All-Border conference basketball player, succeeds Leroy Crews, Monroe, as treasurer. Leslie "Broadway" Browning, Ft. Yvanna product was elected sheriff, replacing Bert Williams.

VISIT ON CAMPUS
Sammie Marie Hitt, Mrs. J. P. McAlister, Vera Ferlin and Ruth Hearrell, Tech graduates, are teaching home economics at Idaho, Lorenzo, Kress, and Post, respectively, visited on the campus Saturday.

Society Installs New Officers At Final Gathering

New officers were installed and reports from students attending a recent district AIEE convention held in Fayetteville, Ark., were program features at the last meeting of the year for the electrical engineering society Tuesday night.

Joe Caldwell, senior engineer from Abilene, was in charge of the meeting. He is president next year. Other officers are: Frank Fellows, vice-president; H. A. Leslie, secretary-treasurer, and Prof. C. V. Bullen, head of the electrical engineering department, sponsor.

Fourteen members attended the meeting Tuesday night. A brief business session followed the program.

Coach Huffman Attends Track, Basketball School At Southern California

Berl Huffman, freshman football coach and varsity basketball and track coach, left early this week for Los Angeles to attend the annual spring basketball and track clinic sponsored by Sam Berry, famed coach at the University of Southern California.

Representing the Tech athletic department, Huffman left his spring basketball coaching duties to attend the session. He plans to stay away at least ten days.

GETS POSITION
Hazel Phipps, Vernon, who will graduate from the home economics division in June, has secured a position as vocational home economics teacher at Tahoka for next year. Dean Margaret W. Weeks of the home economics division, announces.

For Digestion's sake...smoke Camels

SPRING FEVER makes digging into studies all the harder—mental tension increases. But Camels help. They add much to the enjoyment of life. Camels give you a "lift"—and never get on your nerves.

One of life's most enjoyable experiences is the pleasure Camels add to eating

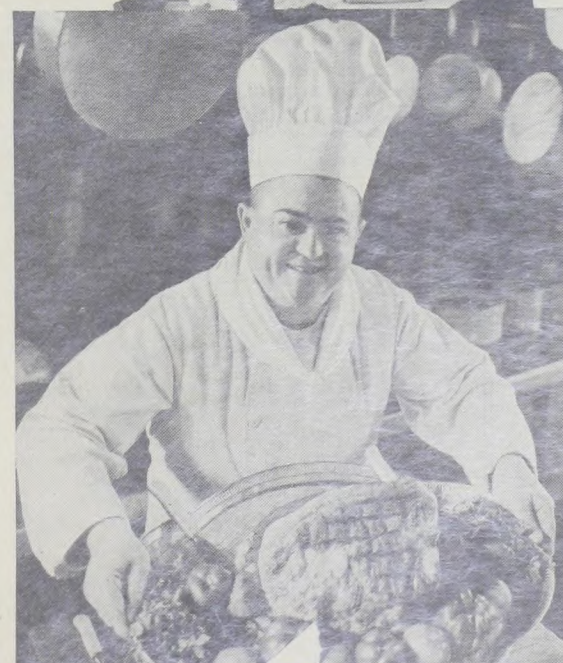

You have surely noticed how much more you enjoy eating when your mind is free from care. No mental strain or hurry slows down the natural flow of digestive fluids.

Much of this same enjoyment is yours when you smoke Camels. Smoking Camels increases the supply of alkaline digestive fluids... so necessary for zest while you eat and for digestive well-being afterward.

In Camels, you find tobacco at once rich, mild, and perfect in taste. Camels set you right! They give you a cheery "lift." And never jangle your nerves or tire your taste.
