

Four to Battle For Offices In SC Run-Offs

Four candidates will battle for vacancies in the Student council in run-off elections next Wednesday from 8 to 5 in the east rotunda of the Administration building.

One opening in both Business Administration and Arts and Sciences will be filled.

The struggle in Business Administration will be between Buddy Barron, management major from Waco, and Robert Storey, marketing major from Plainview. They tallied 76 and 30 votes respectively in the election last Wednesday.

The hot contest in the Arts and Sciences division will be between Liz McCain, government major from Plainview, and Sammy Dunn, foreign language major from Lubbock. McCain received 109 votes, tops for the day, while Dunn took 63.

Those tasting defeat in the first round of the two races were Ernestine Gammill who polled 26 votes, and Dick Mitchell with 25 votes, in Business Administration. In Arts and Sciences, Robert Dickenson with 44 votes and Herman Caskey with 28 votes, lost out.

Recognition Day Slated March 19

Tech's All-College Recognition service, in which outstanding students of the 1951 spring and fall semesters will be honored, has been set for March 19, said James G. Allen, dean of Student life.

Students to be recognized will fall roughly into four classifications—those to be honored for achievement in athletics, scholarship, leadership and those in campus organizations whose members made a two-point grade average or better during the two semesters.

Any organization may request to be checked for recognition as a body for scholarship, Dean Allen said. Also the high ranking student from each division will be honored.

The registrar's office is scheduled to finish checking for eligible students March 5. They will then be notified immediately, Dean Allen announced.

Ten Foreign Tech Students Are Awarded Scholarships

Ten foreign students at Tech have received scholarships of $100 or more, according to James G. Allen, dean of student life.

Four arts and science students awarded scholarships of $100 are Parviz Parsa, Hossein Karimi and Jalil Parsa from Iran, and Gerard Koeijmans from the Netherlands. Also receiving a $100 scholarship was Heng Kern Oh, agriculture student from Korea.

Receiving scholarships of $125 were Carlos Robles, business administration student from Colombia; Edmundo Padilla, arts and science student from Mexico; Ruben Borunda, arts and science student from Mexico; Vernon Kim, engineering major from Hawaii, and Jose Delgadillo, Jr., engineering student from Mexico.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

I hereby proclaim the week of February 25 to 29 as BE KIND TO FACULTY WEEK. This week has been so designated in order that Tech students may realize professors are human.

The following rules shall be followed:

1. Students shall speak to all members of the faculty.
2. Students shall always give the faculty the right of way in order that the faculty may get to class on time.
3. Students shall not sleep during exams.
4. Students shall not take notes on a typewriter. This is terribly distracting to students trying to sleep.
5. Students shall invite faculty members to coffee in the Green room. Dutch, of course!

Proclaimed by authority vested in me by the student body,
Bob Schmidt, president
Texas Tech Student council

'Tis the Red 'n Black That Marks BKto F W

By Dick Brooks
Treador Staff Writer

For the Irish 'tis the wearing of the green, but for the faculty 'tis the red and black—the ribbons which Forum will furnish in keeping with the unveiling of Tech's number one mystery, B. K. to F. W.

Revelation of the secret initials came Friday when Bob Schmidt, student body president, officially proclaimed "Be Kind to Faculty Week."

Origin

The idea originated with Forum, a high-thinking and currently conniving bunch of senior women who thought that leap-year week, the time when things are kind of done in reverse anyway, would be a good time to jack up student-faculty relations.

Consequently, all faculty members will wear red and black ribbons throughout next week, so that busy lads and lasses will know just who they are in order to turn glistening smiles and friendly "howdies" their way.

Peggy Carter, Forum president, elaborated on Schmidt's proclamation Friday, saying, "Be nice to the old folks with the ribbons next week. It's like the old 'casting bread on the waters idea'... who knows what it will get you in the end."

Fellowship

Fellowship is the whole point in the week, say the Forum members. Students are encouraged to spend some time just batin' the fat with faculty members, or taking them out for a cup of coffee.

In fact, the last two days of B. K. to F. W. will be especially noted in the Rec hall, because no student will be served coffee unless he is with a faculty member, and vice versa.

Who knows? If the idea works, the faculty might even relax a little and have a "Be Kind to Students Week"... say about final exam time... next May?!!

Fall Honor Roll To Include 240

Two hundred forty students are listed on Tech's fall semester honor roll, it was announced Friday by W. P. Clement, registrar. This number falls 18 short of last year's fall total.

This slight decrease is attributed to the fact that registration this fall was only 4,865, as compared with 5,475 for the 1950 fall term.

33 Make Three-Point

Thirty-three students on the honor roll had three-point averages. Listed in this classification were six seniors, seven juniors, four sophomores, six freshmen and ten graduates. Honor roll for fall 1950 also included 33 in the top bracket.

See page 5 for complete list of honor students for the fall semester.

Arts and sciences lead with 15 students making three-point averages, followed by the graduate division with 10, business administration, six; home economics, one and agriculture, one. None were listed from engineering.

Two hundred seven students hold averages of from 2.53 to 2.95. This list falls 18 short of 1950 fall figures. Included in the list of students with under a three-point average were 67 seniors, 38 juniors, 32 sophomores, 54 freshmen and 16 graduates.

Fireside Forum Is Slated Sunday

Lubbock's Barber Shop quartets will present the first Fireside Forum of the year at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Aggie auditorium.

The event is sponsored by Forum, honorary organization for senior women.

Four groups will render program selections varying from folk and some of the medleys and current popular tunes, Peggy Carter, Forum president, said.

A Departure

A departure from conventional quartets will be a S. P. E. B. S. Q. S. A. chorus of about 50 persons. The initials are the informal title of the Society of Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America which annually awards a vocal scholarship to a male freshman entering Tech.

Second on the afternoon's agenda will be the Chord Blenders, a quartet of Lubbock businessmen, who will sing a Stephen Foster melody.

Younger Generation

Stepping to the "younger generation," the concluding numbers will be furnished by the Pitch Pipers, a Lubbock High school boys quartet, and the Tech Harmonettes, a foursome of Tech women.

O. R. Wells Jr., Lubbock businessman, will act as Master of Ceremonies. The program is being arranged through the co-operation of Robert Dennis, president of the Lubbock chapter of the S. P. E. B. S. Q. S. A.

"Fireside Forum is free and open to the public," Miss Carter added. "Men are especially invited to attend because in the past there has been a feeling among campus males that the Sunday programs were only for women," she emphasized.

Tech Show Script Will Be Selected

Script for the Varsity show will be chosen by members of the Varsity show committee at 5 p.m. Monday in the student council office, according to Charles Joplin, chairman of the committee.

Scripts which have been submitted are "Playboy," by Gilbert Gallo, "I Want My Mummy," by Thomas W. Sanders; "College Daze," by Bobby Parkinson; "A Texan's View of Broadway" and "Tropical Fantasy," both by Harry Parker, author of last year's show. Shirley Sears, newly-elected director, will begin selecting talent for the show next week.

Members of the Varsity show committee are Doyle D. Jackson, professor of education; Horace Hartsell, assistant professor of education; William E. Whittington, assistant professor of accounting and finance; Saba M. Kennedy, Jr., assistant professor of government; Mary Byers Turner, Palestine; Hardy Clemons, Lubbock; Jo Simmons, Lubbock; Harold Brannon, Dimmitt, and Chairman Charles Joplin, Littlefield.

Ugly Man Entries Now Total Eight

Seven new entries have been received in the Ugly Man contest sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity.

They are Benny Bruckner, senior business administration major from Amarillo; Charles Joplin, senior BA major from Littlefield; Red Phillips, a senior arts and sciences. See Ugly Man, Page 8.

TISA Convention Starts Saturday

Approximately 1,500 representatives from Panhandle and South Plains high schools will be on the Tech campus Saturday for a meeting sponsored by District I of the Texas Inter-Collegiate Student association.

The purpose of the meeting is to show high school students of some of the opportunities in college. Talks will be made by various members of the TISA on academics, athletics, religion, social life and leadership.

State-Wide Organization

TISA is a state-wide organization. The state is divided into ten separate districts which function as the working units of the program.

District I of TISA is made up of the student councils of the colleges and universities in this region. They are Abilene Christian, Hardin-Simmons, Texas Tech, Wayland and West Texas State.

Objectives Listed

The objectives of TISA are "to foster an intelligent interest in all phases of college citizenship, and to act as laboratory in which the schools may work out among

The meeting will begin with registration in the Museum which will be followed by a program in the Aggie auditorium. Bob Davidson, ACC student body president, will make the introduction, followed by talks and special entertainment during the day.

A representative from each of the schools in District I will appear on the program. Tech students on the program are Jim McGraw, Jack Alderson, Sammy Dunn, J. C. Chambers, Bob Schmidt and Harold Brannon.

Records Show General Student News Leads Toreador Coverage

By Betty Stanley
Toreador Staff Writer

How much do you know about your campus?

According to a recent survey made of news coverage in the Toreador, Tech students should know something of what goes on around them.

Students in a journalism class made an analysis of each issue printed last semester as to news, editorial and pictorial content of the student paper. Results were surprising, even to staff members, reporters and journalism instructors.

Student News Leads

According to the totals, 3,340 column inches, or almost 46 full pages, were devoted entirely to general news of student affairs. (A column inch is a space one column wide by one inch deep, or about two square inches.)

More than that, this total didn't include sports or student news from the various divisions and departments.

18 Classifications

The Toreador content was broken down into 18 different classifications, with results shown at the end of this article.

Many of the items listed under the various divisions and departments were devoted to news about students and their many activities on and off the campus. Stories and pictures from the Engineering, Home Economics and Agriculture division often told of awards made to individuals, contests and other activities of general interest to the student body.

Sports News Second

Sports followed closely behind the general classification of student affairs in regards to total space. Major sports—football and basketball—occupied a total of 1,346 column inches or almost 18 full pages of the Toreador last semester. Minor sports and intramural athletics covered 444 column inches, or almost six full pages.

A surprising heading, to some perhaps, turned up under the heading of alumni and off-campus material. Although certain students believe that much of the news in the student paper concerns persons who are no longer on the campus, only 655 column inches, or slightly less than nine pages, were devoted to news about students who have left Tech and items, many of them interesting, about other campuses.

A glance at the tabulations below will show that the Toreador prints lots of news. Do you read it?

Tabulations

General student affairs—3,430 inches (almost 46 pages).

Major sports—1,346 inches (almost 18 pages).

Minor sports, intramural athletics—444 inches (almost 6 pages).

Military science—230 inches (three pages).

Band and music—246 inches (three pages).

All other Arts and Sciences—502 inches (more than six and one-half pages).

Agriculture—335 inches (four and one-half pages).

Home Economics—161 inches

(more than two full pages). Business Administration—73 inches (almost one page).

Engineering—249 inches (three pages).

Graduate Division—29 inches.

Extension Division—three inches.

Library—44 inches (more than one-half page).

Museum—186 inches (almost two and one-half pages).

Artist Course—87 inches (more than one page).

Dean of Student Life (Men and Women)—67 inches (almost one page).

All other general college news—861 inches (11½ pages).

Alumni and off-campus news—655 inches (more than 8½ pages).

Tech Professor Publishes New Book on Texas Politics

Dr. S. S. McKay, professor of history and noted Texas political historian, has completed a new book entitled Texas Politics, 1906-1944.

Dr. McKay's new book (he has written several others on Texas politics), gives an account of Texas' first 40 years of primary elections. It is the story of the political campaigns of Bailey, Colquitt, the Fergusons, Neff, Moody, Connally, Mayfield, Sterling, Alfred, O'Daniel, Johnson, Stevenson and several other Texans who have been in the political limelight.

He gives special references concerning the "German" counties of the area surrounding Mason and Fredericksburg.

Four books previously published by the Tech professor are Making the Texas Constitution of 1876, Debates in the Texas Constitution Convention of 1875, and W. Lee O'Daniel and Texas Politics, 1938-

SPRING STYLES—Las Chaps got a view of what to wear this spring when they attended a style show given by Mrs. Almada Coe, manager of Godwin's Youth shop and charter member of the club, Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. at Godwin's Youth shop. Models for the show were Jerry Freeman, Mary Mansfield, Nancy Free and Jo Benesch.

NEW WRANGLER OFFICERS—Wranglers elected officers for the spring semester at their regular meeting Feb. 13. Those elected to serve the club for this semester include President George Morris; Vice-President Jim Choate; Recording Secretary Don Kennedy; Corresponding Secretary Bud Reeds; Treasurer Casey Jones; Historian-Reporter Bill Price; Pledge Trainer Buddy Maner; Rush Captain Max Zachary and Sergeant at Arms Roy K. Moore. For several months Wranglers have been attending together various Lubbock churches. They have visited five churches and plans to attend several others in the city before the project is completed. By these visits, the club intends to promote good will between Tech and the Lubbock community.

QUEENS AND ORCHIDS—Socii will present its first queen Saturday night at the annual Orchid dance. The tradition of selecting an Orchid queen will be continued by the club throughout the coming years. She will be elected by secret ballot and her identity will be known only to the president of the club until the Orchid dance.

SOCIETY

Five Rush Parties Scheduled Soon

Rush parties for men's social clubs will continue with five parties scheduled for the next two weeks.

Socii will hold its rush party Monday night in the Green room of the Recreation hall, where all of the parties are held. Other affairs scheduled are Wranglers, Feb. 27; Los Comaradas, Feb. 28; Silver Key, March 3, and Centaur, March 4.

Kemas, Adelphi, and College Club have concluded their party programs.

Ground Force Military Ball To Be Held In Tech Gym

The ROTC Ground Force Military ball will be held in the Tech gymnasium March 8, according to Maj. Victor B. Penuel, associate professor of military science.

Unit ROTC ground commanders from five colleges will attend the ball. Schools to be represented are Texas university, Texas A&M, New Mexico A&M, (Las Cruces), Arlington State, and Tarleton State, (Stephenville).

Museum Program Of Music Tuesday

A Music in the Round program will be presented at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Museum auditorium, according to Julius Hegyi, Lubbock musician.

Guest artists for the evening will be Miss Evelyn McCarty, oboe player and member of the Lubbock symphony orchestra, and Gary Garner, flute player for the orchestra.

Regular members of the Music in the Round group are Hegyi and Mitchell Zablotty, violinists; Robert Dean and Charlotte Barrier, violas; and Patsy Gibbs, senior from Lubbock, cellist. Miss Barrier also is pianist.

The group will play Haydn's "Trio for the Violin, Viola and Cello," Mozart's "Oboe Quartet," Prokofiev's "Sonata for Violin and Piano," Purcell's "Three Fantaisies" and Beethoven's "Serenade for Flute, Violin and Viola," Hegyi said.

J. J. Willingham, head of the department of dairy manufactures, will go to Fort Worth Saturday for the annual meeting of the Dairy Products Institute of Texas. Royce Jackson, manager of Tech creamery, will accompany him.

Bridge Winners To Continue Play

Winners in the first phase of a national bridge tournament were announced Thursday by Dan Pursel, Recreational hall director.

They are Cotton Faris and Sid Burleson, first place; Leon Smith and Bobby Brewer, second place; Clarence Barton and Barbara Martin, third place, and Jane Hyer and Betty Slough, fourth place.

These teams will compete this week with teams from other colleges by playing prepared hands, Pursel said. The 16 winning teams from over the nation will be awarded an all-expense paid trip to Chicago April 18 and 19 for the national finals.

Other students competing in the tournament this week were Don Brown, C. J. Smith, Jim Young, Suzette Ball, Jim Leath, Bob Price, Edward Weyman, Virgil Elliott, Lowell Slaton and John Lockerd.

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF TEXAS TECHNOLOGICAL COLLEGE — LUBBOCK, TEXAS

Red Raiders In Quest of Raider Hoopsters Fall to NM Lobos

Raiders hoopsters will play on the Sun Devils from Arizona State (Tempe) Friday at 8 p.m. on the Tech gym.

The game will have little bearing on the conference outcome with both teams out of the running. However, Tech will be seeking revenge for the 48 to 47 defeat handed them earlier in the season on the Tempe home court.

The Raiders lost their tenth game of the season Monday night in New Mexico in a non-conference tilt in Albuquerque. The Lobos, currently in the Skyline Six conference cellar, jumped on the Raiders to hand them a 67 to 53 loss. They had beaten the Lobos 57 to 38 on New Year's eve in Lubbock.

The Lobos poured it on in the initial half to take a 38 to 24 lead which the Raiders never seemed to be able to overcome. Twice the Raiders cut the lead down to six points, but both times the Lobos rallied to regain the 14-point safety margin.

Paul Nolan looked good as he tallied 21 points but he received too little help from his teammates. Dick Alderson helped somewhat with nine points and Virgil Johnson, Verlell Turner and Jim Edwards each managed six. Jimmy Sexton sank four and Rex Hitt made good one free throw.

On the other hand, four Lobos ended up with double-digit numbers.

New Mexico's cagesters hit a varied 53 per cent the first half and followed up with 50 per cent of their shots in the final period.

It was New Mexico's fourth victory of the season.

Red Raiders to Host Sun Devils In Quest of Seventh BC Victory

Raider Hoopsters Fall to NM Lobos

Raiders hoopsters will play host to the Sun Devils from Arizona State (Tempe) Friday at 8 p.m. in the Tech gym.

The game will have little bearing on the conference outcome with both teams out of the running. However, Tech will be seeking revenge for the 48 to 47 defeat handed them earlier in the season on the Tempe home court.

The Lobos poured it on in the initial half to take a 38 to 24 lead which the Raiders never seemed to be able to overcome. Twice the Raiders cut the lead down to six points, but both times the Lobos rallied to regain the 14-point safety margin.

Paul Nolen looked good as he tallied 21 points but he received too little help from his teammates. Jack Alderson helped somewhat with nine points and Virgil Johnson, Verdell Turner and Jim Eddins each managed six. Jimmy Sexton sank four and Rex Hitt made good one free throw.

On the other hand, four Lobos ended up with double-digit numbers.

New Mexico's cagesters hit a torrid 53 per cent the first half and followed up with 50 per cent of their shots in the final period.

It was New Mexico's fourth victory of the season.

Profs To Judge Livestock

Bobby Goad Announces Schedule for Boys' Regional Basketball Tournament

Pairings in the boys' regional basketball tournament at the Texas Interscholastic league have been announced by Bobby Goad, Texas Tech coach directing the meet.

Both Class A and AA meets will be held in the Tech gym, Feb. 29.

and Mar. 1. Due to the closeness of district races, all winners have not yet been certified to Goad.

First round games will be played Friday, Feb. 29. Semi-final games are slated for Saturday, Mar. 1. Class A finals will be played at 7:30 p.m., Saturday; Class AA finals, at 9 p.m.

Class AA play begins at 11 a.m. Friday, with District 6 (probably Quanah or Iowa Park) meeting the District 6 winner (Tahoka). Other AA first-round play Feb. 29 pits District 5 (Snyder or Stamford) against District 7's Levelland at 3 p.m., District 1 (Phillips or Dumas) against District 3 (probably Childress) at 7 p.m., and District 8 (Kermit or Monahans) against District 2 (Canyon) at 9:40 p.m.

In Class A, District 2's Dimmitt will play District 6 (probably Ozona) at 9:30 a.m. Friday; District 1 (Canadian or White Deer) will meet District 7 (Clyde) at 1:30 p.m.; District 3 (probably Abertown) plays District 8 (probably Munday) at 4:30 p.m.; and District 4 (Denver City or Sundown) meets District 5 (Big Lake) at 8:20 p.m.

Roughnecks Defeat AIME In Independent Loop Play

Setting a torrid pace, the Roughnecks defeated A. I. M. E. 31 to 22 in an Independent League game played Wednesday night.

James Richards sparked the Roughnecks with 9 points. Following closely was teammate Roy Lunn with 8. Pacing the losers were Doug Rice and Naylan Vincil with 7 points each.

Golf Team Candidates Start Qualifying Rounds Saturday

New Candidates Bolster Raiders

Tech's pigskin forces have been bolstered by spring semester enrollments which include six junior college transfers, six freshmen, two former lettermen and a former squadman.

One of the junior college transfers, Bobby Lambert of Nixon, was an All-American tackle at Del Mar Junior college at Corpus Christi last season and one of the freshmen, Mel Hay, was an All-American fullback at Blytheville High school in Arkansas. Guard Don Gray and tackle David Brown are the two returning lettermen. The squadman is J. J. Barlow, who attended Paris Junior college last fall.

Hillery Hayes and Morris Reeves of San Angelo Junior college and John Conally and Harold Spraggin of South Georgia college are the other junior college transfers.

Incoming freshmen are Hay, John Matlock of Dalhart, Mack Patterson of McCamey, Richard McCutchin of Mesquite and Tony Alejendio and George Thacker of San Antonio.

Golf candidates will fire opening qualifying rounds Saturday morning between 8 and 10 at the country club, according to Wade Walker.

Walker, who succeeds Morley Jennings as golf coach, has inherited from last year Joe Stoltz, No. 1, from Hobbs, N. M., along with Raylon Evans, also of Hobbs, and G. W. Warden of Levelland.

Also working out are Cash Willemon of Stamford, Bob Jennings of Ralls, R. B. Carothers of Sulphur Springs, Guy Kerbow of Pampa, George Aubach of Amarillo, Paul McCulley of Fort Worth, Charles Tyra of Borger, E. C. Basfield of McCamey, transfer from Everett (Wash.) Junior College, and Jim Dickerson of Amarillo.

Walker, varsity golfer at Oklahoma University, where he also was All-American tackle, has lined up a tentative 14-match schedule, beginning with Texas Wesleyan in Fort Worth Mar. 13. The schedule also includes:

- Mar. 14—Southern Methodist, Dallas
- Mar. 15—Southwest Recreation tournament, Fort Worth
- Mar. 28—Arizona State of Tempe, Tempe
- Mar. 29—Arizona university, Tucson
- Apr. 17—Hardin-Simmons, Abilene
- Apr. 20—Tulsa, Tulsa
- Apr. 29—Hardin-Simmons, Lubbock
- May 8, 9 and 10—Border conference tournament, Tempe

Tech Cindermen Will Hold Intersquad Meet Saturday

Raider cindermen will go through another sham meet Saturday afternoon as they conduct their second inter-squad practice. Spectators are invited to witness the preview of things to come. It will be held in the old stadium.

The team is the largest in Tech's 25-year history and is also one of the most promising.

Visit to Tech Coaches

Paul Amen, United States Military academy end coach, paid a brief visit to Tech coaches Wednesday afternoon.

Amen is on a trip through the West and had a few minutes between planes during which time he conversed hastily with the Raider mentors.

Amen helped coach the crib-shattered Black Knights through a fairly dismal season.

Editor Is Guest Speaker

Five More Company Interviews Are Set Here for May, August Tech Graduates

Five companies will be represented on the campus next week to interview May and August graduates, Mrs. Jean Jenkins, director of the placement service, announced.

The companies are The Chemstrand Corporation, Decatur, Ala., Reed Roller Bit Company, Houston; Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville, Okla., The Western company, Midland, and The Texas company, Fort Worth.

The Chemstrand Corporation has openings for chemistry, chemical engineering and textile engineering majors in the research department at Decatur, Ala. Applicants will be interviewed Feb. 27.

Two representatives of Reed Roller Bit company will be here Feb. 27 to talk to graduates of mechanical engineering, industrial engineering, and petroleum engineering for development and design positions. They also will talk to Business Administration students about selling oil field equipment.

Representatives of Phillips Petroleum company will talk to chemistry, chemical engineering, civil engineering, electrical engineering mechanical engineering, petroleum engineering and physics majors Feb 28 and 29.

J. L. Meyers will speak to graduates of electrical engineering and physics who are interested in logging services for The Western company. He is interested in chemistry, chemical engineering, industrial engineering, mechanical engineering and petroleum engineering for other operators. He will be here Feb. 26 and 27.

Petroleum engineering graduates will be interviewed by an engineer of The Texas company producing department. The interviews are scheduled for Feb. 27.

Students who are interested in any of these companies should schedule appointments at the placement office, Mrs. Jenkins said.

Choral Festival To Be Held Here

The formation meeting of a choral clinic festival for Panhandle and South Plains choral directors will be held in the Music building at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, according to Raymond Elliott, Tech music professor.

Dr. Gene Hemmle, head of the music department, and Elliott will conduct the meeting. The clinic will be held to discuss the organization of a choral festival for South Plains high school choral directors and choirs.

After the meeting, a tour of the new Music building will be conducted for those who attend.

Feeders To Visit Tech

A group of cattle and lamb feeders from Oklahoma will visit Tech feed lots Saturday.

The men, brought here by A. K. Mackey, vice-president of the Oklahoma National Stock Yards company, are especially interested in the beef cattle and lambs. An experiment in cattle feeding, to end sometime in April, has been going on in the feed lots.

Engineers Make Field Trip

Members of the advanced production laboratory class in petroleum engineering made a field trip to Cedar Lake field near Brownfield Tuesday. They observed some of Stanolind's new type gas-oil ratio tests. Norman Lamond, instructor, accompanied them.

Student Centers Busy with Ping Pong Tournaments, Vocational Emphasis

Two student centers have been busy this week with ping pong tournaments and vocational emphasis.

Students Enter Contest

About 30 college students are participating in the ping pong tournament this week at the Church of Christ student center, according to Mont Whitson, director of the Church of Christ Bible chair. The tournament is divided into boys' singles and doubles and girls' singles and doubles.

Finals will be held at the end of the week and awards will be made to the winners.

S. M. Kennedy Speaks

S. M. Kennedy, Jr., assistant professor of government, spoke to Church of Christ students this morning at their regular devotional period. His subject was "the Relationship of Church and State."

Harold Massey To Speak

Harold Massey, dean of student life at Wayland college, will speak to Baptist students at an after-church fellowship Sunday night at the Baptist Student center, according to Ardell Hallock, BSU student secretary

Airmen To Get Uniforms

Air force ROTC students will be wearing new uniforms when they march on the drill field next fall, according to Maj. Melvin Burnett, assistant professor of air science.

Instead of the familiar khaki, the unit will be dressed in the air force's new blue uniforms of the air force. The uniforms were ordered Thursday and are expected to arrive before the opening of school next fall.

Spechters Place In Denver Contest

The madeane Hutchins, junior journalism major from Pecos, won third place in after-dinner speaking, and Mollie Newman, freshman speech major from Shallowater, placed fourth in oral interpretation at the Rocky Mountain speech conference held Feb. 14 through 16 at Denver university, according to Dr. P. Merville Larson, head of the speech department.

Miss Hutchins was also selected as one of three contestants to speak at the final award luncheon. Other Tech students who made the trip are June Ann Morton, junior speech major from Ranger; Gail Littleton, freshman speech major from Perryton and Glenn Rainer, freshman business administration major from ILubbock.

Dr. Larson, who accompanied the students, participated in a discussion panel on "Extemporaneous Speaking" and helped with debate judging.

Dcn Hart, agriculture major from Eastland, had previously signed up.

Letters explaining the details of the contest have been sent to campus clubs which might be interested in sponsoring an "ugly man". Many more entries are expected. Faculty members also are eligible. Anyone wishing to enter must contact Lewis Jones, assistant dean of men, in Ad 163.

Voting will take place between Mar. 10 and 15. Votes will be one cent each and proceeds will be contributed to CARE.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

POOR SHEEDY was in the soup with a turtle named Myrtle. "I'm in a tortizzy," he wailed, "what shell I do?" "Well, it's your messy hare that parts you from all the girls," his roommate said. "Better get Wildroot Cream-Oil!" Non-alcoholic. Contains soothing Lanolin. Relieves dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he's out turtle-necking all the time! So don't stick your neck out... get some terrapin-money and hurry to the nearest drug or toilet goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. And ask for it on your hare at your favorite barber shop. Then you'll really be in the swim.
