Fish Day Plans Are Discussed By Frosh Class

Knapp And Langston Speak At Meeting Of Slimes; Danger Of Careless Action Cited; Committees Appointed

Fish Meet Monday

New Officers Are Named For Vacant Positions; At Least 300 Students Must Purchase Tickets For Trip

Fish Day, with the annual trip to be made to Silver Falls about five miles east of Grayton, was virtually greeted at the freshman class meeting held in the chemistry auditorium at 7:45 Monday night by Dr. Bradford Knapp. Two committees representing the freshman and sophomore classes must make an agreement on conduct.

Citing figures on damages done on previous occasions, Dr. Knapp pictured the possible effect on state legislation in connection with Tech if the activities on Fish Day were not controlled by organization.

Langston, freshman sponsor explained the meaning of Fish Day and the annual trip, outlining the potential plans for this year.

Election of officers to fill the vacancies of the vice president and the secretary and treasury were held. Lindsey Austin and Jerrile Lee Dean were unanimously elected. Elmer McCullum, Fred Grimes, and George Newton were appointed by "Hop" Halsey, class president, to serve on the freshman agreement committee.

Trip Cost Is $1.50

The proposed trip to Silver Falls, is estimated to cost $1.50 per person. This is to include railroad fare, entrance to grounds, class cuts, and lunch. The comparatively low cost necessitates at least 300 of the 800 freshmen to go on the excursion.

Lindsey Austin was appointed to select a committee of 25 to determine the number desirous of making the trip.

Next Monday evening, the freshman class will meet in the gym at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of completing plans for Fish Day. It is essential to the success of the meeting that every freshman be there.

Seniors Plan For Banquet

Annual Affair To Be Held At Hotel Lubbock; Plates To Cost $1; Transportation To Be Furnished To Girls

At a meeting of the senior class, held last Monday evening in room 202 of the administration building at 8 o'clock, definite plans for the banquet were made. It was decided that each member pay one dollar per plate. The committee for collections is: for the aggie school; Frank Hughes and Curtis Williams; engineers; Arch King and Don Wellenman; home ec; Ruth Carter; and liberal arts; Jack Flowers, Billy Bush, and Vonelle Gilkerson.

The banquet will be held in the Hotel Lubbock at 7 o'clock, May 12. Transportation will be furnished for all the girls. Members of the transportation committee are: Christina Sawyer and Effie Smith. The banquet is an annual affair.

It was voted at the meeting that the Baccalaureate sermon to be held in the Gymnasium, Sunday evening, June 4. Dr. Bradford Knapp presiding at the meeting and explained how the Commencement exercises would be carried out.

Tech Scenes To Be Shown At Abilene

Four large panels of pictures of Tech buildings and views of student activities are being sent to Abilene where the Oscar H. Cooper branch of the American Association of University Women is sponsoring a college guidance tea April 29 for high school senior girls and their mothers.

These posters which will represent events in Texas Tech life will be displayed at the Wooten hotel where the tea is to be given.

Prexy's Paragraphs

BY BRADFORD KNAPP

The Legislature Situation The situation at Austin is as follows: The Senate has passed an appropriation bill reported its committee, providing an appropriation for Texas Tech of $348,540.00 for each year of the next biennial period. Last Friday the House of Representatives passed the educational bill reported by its committee with some changes, none of which effected this institution so far as we know. The amount contained in the House Bill is $379,825.00 for each year of the biennial period. The House bill provides nothing for summer school. The Senate bill, as we understand it, does carry an appropriation for summer school. The appropriations made two years ago covering the summer school of 1933 were vetoed. The Senate passed a bill providing appropriations for the summer school of 1933, but this bill failed to pass the House of Representatives.

The Senate bill, above referred to, makes a reduction of 25 per cent in the appropriations of this institution. The state appropriation for the past fiscal year is $428,300.00. The House appropriation bill makes a reduction of 34.5 per cent. Within a few days, a Conference Committee will be appointed by the Senate and the House and a compromise bill will be reported back to each House, which will probably pass both houses.

Fees: No provision has yet passed the Legislature changing the fees in state institutions. A bill has been debated in the House, raising the fee to $50.00 for in-state students and a much higher sum for out-of-state students, but the bill has not come to a vote yet. The state colleges including this one, have been making earnest effort to show the Legislature exactly what the increase in fees would mean to the student of these institutions.

Change. We are living in a world of change. Many people are reluctant to give up old habits and old methods which they have pursued for years. Nevertheless, changes must take place and as young people, we ought to be tolerant of constructive changes. It is necessary, for example, that this institution place itself in harmony with the educational system of the state. We must, therefore, adopt a semester system for the next year. It is necessary that we eliminate small classes and reduce the cost of teaching. Therefore, we must contemplate some definite changes in the catalog for next year. Possibly curricula will be set up on a more definite required basis, especially for the freshman and sophomore years. This can be done without injury in the least to the quality of the work done by the institution. We are trying to work these changes out on the basis of their benefit both to the administration of the institution and to the standard and quality of the work done by the institution.

Freshman Day. The Freshman Class has been anxious to have a Freshman Day. I think class spirit is a fine thing to foster upon the campus. I would be very glad if we had a special day for each of the classes. Class spirit in good friendly rivalry, and in promotion of institutional spirit, is a fine thing. In the past, however, there have been some exceedingly unfortunate things happening on Freshman Day. Times have changed, and such things cannot be tolerated in the future. I hope we can perfect an agreement or arrangement voluntarily on the part of the school as a whole to conduct such an enterprise on this campus without inviting criticism and the needless bad publicity that would come if the things of the past were to be repeated. Money is too scarce for any one to tolerate injury to property and times are too hard and too difficult for student and for the school itself. To tolerate any unseemly conduct, such as has happened in the past, I hope we may work out a system which will be a Texas Technological college system, without logging in a lot of outworn and objectionable features of the older system of college education.

Track Meet. The Track Meet last Friday night was one of the finest I have ever seen. I am devoted to track athletics as one of the finest, cleanest and most wholesome of all the intercollegiate sports. It is a contest of individuals. It is a contest of the crowd and the interest displayed. I am sure every one enjoyed it and we ought all to be encouraged to believe that track athletics can be made a permanent part of our whole system of physical education and intercollegiate contests.

Elections. I have already commented upon student elections, but I have one further word I would like to say on that subject. Not only should student elections be clean, democratic and ideal in all their setting, but they ought to be good educational examples. Electioneering ought to be fair—no unfair means should be exercised. One of the chief faults of our whole system of democracy in this country lies in the effort to control the will of the majority by the use of machine methods or

Tech Delegates Attend Meeting

Texas Tech tied with Oklahoma State Teacher's college for having the largest number of delegates at the national meeting of the Athletic Federation of College Women, representing 175 colleges all over the United States, which met at the University of Texas, Austin. Nine Tech delegates attended the meeting.

The representatives were entertained by the Light Opera company of the University and other organizations on the campus.

After the convention, the Tech delegates visited in San Antonio where they saw the Battle of Flowers. They also toured the Alamo and other places of interest.

The name of the conference was changed from the Athletic Association of American College Women to the Athletic Federation of College Women.

Tech Lawyers Will Represent Draughon Students In Breach Of Promise Trial For Friday

Forest McMahon Brings Charge Against Former Suitor; To Seek $50,000 Damages; Tech Students To Attend

The High Court of Texas Tech Pre Law club will convene tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Civil District Court room at the Lubbock County Court house.

Miss Forest McMahon, student of Draughon's Business College, is suing Mr. Troy McCall, also a student of Draughon's, in a breach of promise suit for $50,000. This case is being held for Draughon's Business College.

Seeks Damage

McCall is charged with making love to Miss McMahon while they were residents of Carlstadt, New Mexico, and then he followed Miss McMahon when she came to school here in November to go to business college.

The courtship continued uninterrupted, until McCall jilted his former sweetheart for Miss Valerie Powell. Miss McMahon says her heart is broken and she means to have compensation for it.

Settle To Preside

J. Doyle Settle will preside over the court, while Sheriff Red Crawford will maintain his usual strict order in the courtroom.

Clyde James, Glynnie Coker, and Bert Hartney, members of the Tech Pre Law club will represent the plaintiff. Coker, president of the Pre Law club, was recently up for an impeachment trial.

Garland Smith and Woodrow Little will be the lawyers for the defense.

Students May Pay Expenses

Archeologists To Be Allowed To Pay "In Kind" As Plans Are Made For Annual Field Expedition

Hard times will not stop students from going on the Texas Tech Archeological Field expedition this summer. Dr. W. C. Holden, director of the field school, has announced that students can pay their expenses "in kind." One of the chief expenses of the camp is food, so students will be allowed to pay their fees in country hams, bacon, beans, eggs, canned goods, and anything else that can be used by the party. One or two students may make their entire expenses by furnishing trucks for transportation.

The Archeological Field School will be located at Glorieta Pass, New Mexico. The ruin to be excavated is located among the tall pines at an elevation of 7500 feet. The course will start June 6.

Graduate Club To Meet Monday; Dr. Jackson To Talk

Gordon Treadway, graduate assistant in the department of government will discuss the highlights of his Master's research material at a meeting of the Tech Graduate Students club Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in room 209 of the administration building. His subject is: "Minor party activity in the Presidential Campaign of 1932."

Dr. W. A. Jackson, head of the government department and chairman of the Graduate committee, will discuss the requirements for the Master's degree. May 10 is the final date set for candidates for Master's degrees to turn in their theses. May 23 is the final date for oral examinations to be taken.

Plans for a Graduate banquet will be announced at the meeting. Homer Roberts is the chairman of the banquet committee.

Texas Almanac Quotes Holden In Archeology

Classifies Work On Panhandle Plains Most Important Of The Texas Fields; Foreign Publicity Given

The archeology research conducted by Dr. W. C. Holden, head of the history department, has been given considerable prominence by the 1933 Texas Almanac. This is the first time that the almanac has ever taken notice of any archeology work done in the state of Texas. Four pages have been devoted to the Texas archeology work, which they value as very important.

The book classifies Dr. Holden's work on the Panhandle Pueblos as one of the most important contributions ever made to Texas archeology. The article quotes freely from Dr. Holden's report on this work.

Considerable publicity has been given to Dr. Holden and his work at Texas Tech in the Archeology magazines of France, Belgium, Germany, and the United States. Newspapers all over the United States have carried full details of the Texas archeology work under Dr. Holden.

Physics Show Plans Are Set For May 5, 6

Physics Club Offers Prize To Most Original Experiment; Eligible Students Must Be C Average In Physics

Preparations to demonstrate experiments in the Physics Show May 5 and 6, in the chemistry building that have never been presented at Tech, are being made by students in the department.

A contest in which experiments of individuals will be entered is being conducted under direction of Dr. C. C. Schmidt. The Physics club is offering $5 to the most original and best experiment. Credit for two Physics laboratory periods will be given for acceptance of any experiment in the contest. To be eligible to enter, students must be taking some physics course, must have an average of C in the course, and must have his experiment acted by a committee of examiners.

To Use Apparatus

Physics department apparatus may be used in making the experiment. The contest is conducted to interest students in physics and to obtain new features for the show not had before. Five or six freshmen students have already entered the contest and others are expected to enter soon.

On May 5 the show will open at 7 p. m. and close at 10 p. m., on May 6, the hours will be from 1 p. m. until 11 p. m. The demonstration will be in the physics department in the west end of the chemistry building. Willard Notz, physics student assistant, is manager of the show.

Junior Prom Is Scheduled For Saturday Night

Melba Watson Will Reign Over Annual Junior Dance; Court Has Eight Members; Bids Are On Sale Now

Miss Melba Watson, junior liberal arts student of Lubbock, will be crowned queen of the annual Junior Prom Saturday evening in the ball room of the Hilton hotel. Miss Watson is a member of the Sans Souci social club and is secretary of the Junior class. She was elected queen at the elections held March 25.

Others in the court will be Misses Marian Benson and Dorothy Sue Standefer, flower girls; Misses Ruth Parkhill and Betty Mae Haynes, train bearers; and Master James Crawford Allen, crown bearer.

Mr. Edgar G. Shelton is sponsor of the class.

Junior class girls are assessed seventy-five cents and boys are assessed $1.50 and are entitled to two bids. All seniors who have made application for degrees for either June or August are eligible to attend free.

"The junior class girls are urged to pay their assessment before the dance, or must bring their money the night of the dance," stated Teal, president.

IRC To Display Nations Ideas

Toothaker To Preside At The Conference; Lupton, Ayres, Barron, Harrell To Present Views Of Nations

The Attitude of National Dictators at the World Economic conference will be portrayed by the International Relations club Monday night at 7 o'clock in room 302.

The purpose of this program is to give the attitude of the four major countries, with dictators, on the World Economic Conference, for War Debts.

James Toothaker, president of the club will preside over the conference. Mussolini of Italy is to be represented by Kathryn Lupton, Fred Barron, as Roosevelt of the United States, will give the United States' attitude on the economic situation for war debts. Stalin of Russia is to be represented by Jean Ayres, while Frank Harrell, as Hitler, will give Germany's attitude on the question.

Engineering Society To Have Picnic At County Park Friday

The Engineering society picnic will be Friday, April 28 at the County Park. It is an annual affair held for all engineering students. Everybody attending is expected to be at the engineering building at 5 o'clock before leaving and the picnic will be over in time to reach town for the football game Friday night.

CLUBS TO PICK DELEGATES FOR TECH CARNIVAL

Invitations printed on King Cotton bond, a grade of paper made of 75 per cent cotton, will be sent to the various campus organizations, civic and commercial clubs in Lubbock, and business firms, inviting them to select a delegate to represent them in the Cotton Carnival at the Tech gym during the week of May 14-20, National Cotton week. These invitations are to be presented to the Carnival, which is being sponsored by Phi Psi, national honorary textile fraternity, and The Forum, Tech's girls' organization, by Olmstead Kieck, paper company of Dallas.

To Enter Pageant

All contestants entered in the cotton style show will take part in a pageant under the direction of Miss Ruth Pirtle, head of the speech department.

There will be a committee of judges decide on the contestant wearing the most attractive dress. No entrance fee, admission charge or age limit will be set. Each organization is allowed one representative.

The dresses may be sports, street, home, afternoon, evening, any color, ready made, fashioned at home, designed by a seamstress, but they must be of cotton. National Cotton Week is a nation wide movement to put cotton fabrics on the front line of the fashion trench.

To Fill Out Blank

All organizations who intend to take part in this carnival are asked to fill out an information blank that will be enclosed with their invitations to put cotton fabrics on the front line of the fashion trench.

Miss Pirtle is chairman of the program committee, and Miss Hannah Jo Pendleton is in charge of the stage arrangements. The style show is not to be a straight style pageant, but is to be represented in the form of a pageant. Don Maddox, president of Phi Psi, and Vonelle Gilkerson, Forum president are in charge of the general arrangements, while Miss Ruth Horn, is chairman of the invitation committee.

There is to be a special cotton edition of the Techor during that week, which will cover every phase of cotton from production to designing of cotton dresses. There is to be a special cotton society page and editorial page with a feature believe it or not on cotton.

Tech Meets Canyon Buffs Tomorrow In Spring Game

Game Governed By New Rules As Old Rivalry Is Renewed; Many New Stars Will Appear

Under The Double "T"

BY BOB TRACY
Toreador Sports Editor

The first night track ever held on the South Plains is now history. Tech won by a good margin despite the fact that coach Lowery of the Matadors was skeptical of the outcome. Either it was lights, or the fact that it was free that made the fans turn the turnstiles of Tech field a little more than three thousand times. All of which means that Tech's Athletic department heads are trying to please, and that track and field is still rated as a major sport in Lubbock. Our hats are doffed to those persons who are responsible for giving us a treat like the one provided Friday night.

Tomorrow night this same group of responsible persons will put on a different kind of sport in the form of a good old-fashioned football game. The scene will be the same as last Friday's encounter, the teams will be the same, the time at eight o'clock, and last but not least, the "admission" will only be forty cents in good American currency. The last fact should draw the town folks and the additional fact that student activity tickets are to be honored, should bring out the whole student body. This will be your chance to see Pete Cawthon's 1932 edition of the scarlet clad Matadors.

Far be it from the writer to pull the age old gag about the boys over at Matador Hall getting out and sweating away their time, only for the sake of a student body that is not particularly interested in seeing a football game. Anyway you readers get the idea. It is the same old story, but there is no other way of putting it. A large turnout for this game would inspire the boys to the point that they will be in there fighting next fall when they meet last company such as is scheduled to play them during the season. And don't forget, the players are not the only ones that are gratified by the sight of a packed stand. There are two persons out there on the field, although they may never turn their heads in the direction of the crowd, they get a real thrill out of a large attendance. A big crowd simply adds color to the situation. Well, the sermon is over.

Baseball is still swinging along at a lively clip, and last Friday's contest provided some entertainment for the fans. Especially so for the College club's group of followers. After being trampled about for the first round in the tournament, these boys got all warmed up and plastered a licking on the Key boys that will make the rest of the teams sit up and take notice. Walton Nixon led his boys to a victory by playing almost any position on the team and by smacking a circuit blow into the neighboring diamond. His drive came in the fourth when the C. C. bunch hit everything that came in their general direction. The bases were groggy, and the homer netted exactly four tallies. It is upsets like this that makes the intramurals more interesting. A loss by the Wranglers sometime this week would make the race a money finish, if that means a thing to the homeless walls over on nineteenth street.

It looks as though this Martin Drug outfit has just about got the situation well in hand in the Independent league, but their position at the top of the ladder is not a cinch by any means with a determined flock of Shoe Shoppers and a revamped Army team being placed on the field. This is the week for anything to happen in this league if its ever going to happen at all. May the best team win.

Fights Dinosaurs; Climbs Buildings

Never has Beauty had such an amazing champion as the Beast which fights for Fey Wray in RKO-Radio Pictures "King Kong" coming attraction at the Lindsey theatre.

In this sensational film is an ape fifty feet tall—taller than the jungle trees in which he places her while he protects her, in ferocious combat, from weird and huge dinosaurs and a pterodactyl, a winged horror that tries to steal her.

But the terrors that beset the girl and Robert Armstrong and Bruce Cabot, in the jungles, are magnified when they take the great ape to New York.

Thinking the girl in danger, "King Kong" breaks his iron bonds and runs wild through the city. Traffic, elevated railways, buildings suffer from the strength of this

Fans Will Get Chance To See New And Old Stars In Play As Admission Prices Slide To The Depression Level

Under the blazing lights of Tech field, Pete Cawthon's scarlet-clad Matadors will conclude their Spring training by entertaining the Buffaloes of WTSTC tomorrow night at eight o'clock. Student tickets will be honored, and the general admission will be forty cents.

Tech's Old Rivals

The Buffs', Tech's old rivals have been pointing to the game with the Matadors because they believe they have been slighted on the regular season schedule. In the contest last spring, played at Canyon, Tech won a hard fought game 13-7, and this year the Buffs are rated to be even stronger with such football stars as Joe "College" Fortenberry, end; "Cow" Williams, fullback; Manning, tackle; and Burks, quarter, who are said to be the nucleus of a well-balanced line and a fast backfield.

Will See Stars

From the excellent material and the keen competition for each position, the regular varsity players will be hard to determine, but the fans will have an opportunity of seeing some of the following stars in action: Elva Baker, Bennie McWilliams, Clarence Young, Joe Barlow, Red Cross, centers, Toby Greer, Lacy Turner, Trust Owen, Gaines Davis, Walker, Nichols, Melvin Grigs and James May, guards; Len Curfman, Gwyn Dowell, Ted Wilson, Earl St. John and Johnny Marr, fullbacks; Johnny Walker, Larry Solis, Marion Harris, Earl Archer, Aubrey, Buitts, right half backs; Demp Cannon, W. N. Fuqua, D. M. McElroy, Lee Gaylor and Joe Powers, left-half backs; Adrian Clark and James Vance Beauchamp.

Probable starting line up:

Right end ..... Sam Jones
Right tackle ..... Joe Barlow
Right guard ..... Gaines Davis
Center ..... Laurence Priddy
Left end ..... Will Gilmore
Quarter back ..... J. V. Beauchamp
Right half ..... Earl St. John
Right tackle ..... Johnny Walker

pre-historic animal with the strength of a locomotive.

For the greatest thrill you have ever seen reserve the climax in which from a top the highest building in the world, "King Kong" battles with his first pursuers, planes that are trying to kill by pumping him full of machine gun bullets.

Tech Golfers Take Tournery From Badgers

Billy Holmes Shoots Under Par To Down Allen In A Spirited Match; Pendleton Beats Lumpkin

Billy Holmes, Tech golf, captain, shot an even par on 36 holes to defeat Manson Allen, ace of the Amarillo Junior college golf team and rated one of the best golfers in the Panhandle, who shot one over par.

Pendleton Stars

Walter Pendleton, Number 2 position for Tech, outclassed John Lumpkin of the Badger team with 16 down and 9 holes to go. C. J. Cantrell defeated Jay Wagner of Amarillo 3 and 2. John Bell, number 4 position for Tech, won an easy victory over Bob Brandenburg with 9-8. Harold Crites, Tech's number 5 man, defeated Hugh Lumpkin of Amarillo in a neck battle, clinching the match with his excellent driving.

Border Conference

The iron men to represent Tech in the Border Conference will be: Jack Wilson, holder of the present college golf title, Billy Holmes, twice Tech golf champion and holder of the Greenbelt Golf championship, Walter Pendleton, a mainstay of the Tech golf team, C. J. Cantrell, promising freshman golfer, John Bell, Harold Crites and Fanny Farmer, newcomer on the Tech golf team.

There are to be six or seven matches scheduled for the Border Conference tournament.

cliques in elections. College students ought to set a better example. Merit ought to win. Ability should be an important qualification for any student position. It is, likewise, important that one elected should be a representative of the student body and not of a faction. I do not know whether these things exist at this institution or not but too often college elections at all schools fail in measuring up the good principles of democracy. I hope there may be no challenge to the student election at this institution this spring. . . .

Burlesque Is Given Tonight Of Movie Stars

Pirtle Is Sponsor Of Marionette Show; "Cinderella" And "Lost Adam's Diggins" Are Features Of The Entertainment

Monro Hollywood Marionettes, "movie stars in miniature" will be presented tonight in the high school auditorium. The show is sponsored by Miss Ruth Pirtle, head of the Tech speech department. . . .

There will be a matinee and night performance, and students will be admitted for fifteen cents. Twenty-five cents is the price of general admission. . . .

As their name implies, the Hollywood Marionettes are burlesques of well known movie stars. The afternoon performance includes a presentation of "Cinderella" featuring Ann Harding, Jose Mojica, and Marie Dressler. Four vaudeville acts, a specialty by Joe E. Brown, one of Will Rogers, a saxophon number, and skit with Ann Harding and Richard Dix, form the interludes. . . .

The night show is an adventure of the "Days of '49", called "The Lost Adams Diggins." Stars of it are Janet Gaynor, Ernest Torrence, and William Powell. Other actors and actresses are given minor roles. Perfect audition is guaranteed the audience. Loud speakers and music reproducers are used so that every word is understandable. . . .

Dr. J. O. Ellsworth, head of Tech's agriculture economics department, is to deliver the Baccalaureate sermon in the New home high school on May 21. He is to . . .

Tennis Squad Is Slated To Play Simmons

Games To Be Played On May 5; Ladder Ranking Of Players Is Given; Team To Play Local All Stars

Texas Tech's racket wielders will see action for the first time this season when they meet the Simmons University team in a dual meet May 5. Men for the team have not been selected definitely for this tilt which was originally supposed to have been played in Abilene according to Homer Roberts, director of the tennis activities for this year. . . .

In the recent doubles tourney held on Tech's courts, J. B. Donaldson and Bruce Eckenman, a dark horse entry upset the dope, and came through to win by defeating the pre-tourney favorites May and Taylor, in a hard fought final match. Bickley, No. 2 singles player and H. Blvin No. 6 ranking man were expected to go far in the tournament, but were upset by the winning pair. . . .

Twenty-five Ranked Twenty-five players are participating in the ladder tournament to determine the singles players who will be used in matches. Cecil Bickley, veteran Matador artist, who was occupying the No. 1 position was dethroned by Gordon May, Former Austin college star. Donaldson, with his steady consistent brand of tennis is making a determined bid for the third position on the team. Larry Taylor of Lubbock has risen from the No. 4 position by virtue of his own win over Blvin. Any of these men, however, may be defeated for their positions before the season opener as the first ten ranking men are . . .

TURKISH TOBACCO comes to this country in bales. The leaves are small and tightly packed. Each bale contains about 40,000 leaves.

DOMESTIC TOBACCO is stored in huge wooden hogheads. Each hoghead contains about 1000 pounds of tobacco.

A flavor that neither possesses alone

Early in the 17th century, tobacco seed from America was taken to Turkey. Different soil, different climate, different temperatures night and day, and different farming methods produced an entirely new tobacco—small in size, but very rich and aromatic.

Four certain spots are famous for the quality of their Turkish tobacco — Xanthi and Cavalla in Greece; Samsoun and Smyrna in Turkey. And it is principally from these places that our buyers get the Turkish for Chesterfield.

These Turkish tobaccos are blended, in just the right amount, with Domestic tobaccos. It is this blending and cross-blending of just the right amount of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos which gives Chesterfield a flavor that neither possesses alone.
