Davidson Calls Two General Elections

Preferential Ballot Major Issue Offered In Special Election

Four proposed amendments to the Student Association Constitution will be presented for student approval at a general election Monday, March 24, according to Troy Davidson, student body president. Voting booths will be set up in the Administration, Agriculture, Engineering and Home Economics buildings and will be supervised by members of the Student Council.

An amendment to provide election by majority vote will be presented to replace the present required use of preferential ballots. Section 509 of the constitution would be changed to read:

"In all elections provided for in this constitution or under the jurisdiction of the council each voter shall cast his vote for the candidate of his choice for each office. In election of representatives each voter shall vote for the same number of candidates as there are places to be filled.

"Any candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast shall be declared elected. In the event that more candidates receive a majority than there are places to be filled, the proper number of candidates with the largest number of votes shall be declared elected. In case there is no majority for any position to be filled, there shall be a run-off election one week following the general election. The run-off election shall be between the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for each place to be filled. The person receiving the most votes in the run-off shall be declared elected."

If this amendment receives student approval, general election dates will be set for the second Tuesday in April, a run-off to be held the following Tuesday if necessary.

Changes in qualifications for editors of the Toreador and La Ventana are being proposed. Elimination of the requirement that La Ventana editor have one semester's previous experience on La Ventana is suggested.

Proposed requirements for Toreador editor are nine semester hours of work in the Department of Journalism, including one semester's experience on the Toreador.

BENSON DESIGN

Don Benson, commercial artist and 1939 Tech graduate, has contributed a special design for the Engineering Show to be used on posters and program covers, according to Tom Hassel, publicity director.

Benson, who designed the five-cent air mail stamp, is a partner in the advertising agency of Wheelock and Benson in New York. The Engineering Show will have on display approximately 30 of Benson's original designs for magazine covers and advertising layouts.

File petitions for all student body offices with Troy Davidson before March 28.

Nineteen Candidates Circulating Petitions For Campus Offices

Nineteen persons have taken out petitions from the Student Council office for next year's campus offices, Troy Davidson, student body president, said Wednesday. Deadline for petitions to be turned in to the office on the second floor of the Journalism building is Tuesday, March 25. General election to fill the offices is Tuesday, April 8.

Persons circulating petitions and the position for which they intend to run, are: Student Association president: McKintley Hopper, Turner Kimball.

Student Association secretary: Martha Harris.

Student Council representatives: Tom Hassel and Hoyle Moss, Engineering; Newell Reed, Commerce; Nell Young, Commerce.

Toreador editor: John Anderson. Toreador business manager: Mary Lou Spence, Bill Sayers. La Ventana editor: Mary King, Bob Watson.

La Ventana business manager: Tom Le Mond, Sue Stockard.

Head boy cheer leader: Milton Butler, Bobby Lewis.

Head girl cheer leader: Marilyn Anderson, Alice Meading, Polly Utz.

No petitions have been requested for Student Association vice president or business manager.

Petitions for Student Council representatives must be signed by 100 students, and all other petitions must be signed by 5 per cent of the student body, or about 350 students.

All officers must have a 1.00 grade average in all college work. In addition, Student Association officers and representatives must have a 1.00 grade average for the semester preceding their election, the semester in which they are elected, and the term during which they serve.

President and vice president of the Student Association, and editors of the Toreador and La Ventana, must have completed 90 hours of work by the end of the semester in which they are elected. Secretary and business manager of the Association, and business managers of both publications, must have completed 60 hours.

The 20 representatives to the Student Council are apportioned as follows: Agriculture, 3; Arts and Sciences, 5; Commerce, 4; Engineering, 6; Home Economics, 2. Each division is allowed one representative plus one for each 350 students enrolled in the division.

Student representative to the Athletic Council is elected within the Student Council, Davidson said. Under the Constitution adopted last year, AWS no longer has a representative to the Student Council.

KAPPA MU EPSILON Membership certificates for new members of Kappa Mu Epsilon, honorary Mathematics fraternity, have arrived and will be presented at the next regular meeting, April 10, in room 310 of the building, if not called for before, Miss Lida E. May, assistant professor of mathematics announced today.

Seniors Sponsor All-Tech Carnival Saturday Evening

Clubs participating in the Senior Carnival to be held in the Ad Building Saturday, March 22, from 7-11 p. m. were announced Wednesday by Orville Alderson, senior class president. General admission is nine cents, to be paid at the door, he said.

Clubs and their Carnival concessions are: Aggie club, ice cream and cold drinks; APO, pop corn and hot dogs; DFD, fortune telling; Double T, basketball throw; HE club, cake walk; Ko Shari, dart throw; Chaps, Calendar Girl Pageant; Souci, Danceland; Tau Ecta Sigma, fresh show; Wranglers, "Hit the Bottle," booth.

Other organizations taking part are Centaurs, Kemas, Las Vivis, Los Cams, Petroleum Engineers, Silver Keys, Socii, and Sock and Buskin.

Prizes to be given will include men's sport shirts, ladies' nylon hose, Martha Washington candy, crystal water glasses, perfume, compact, cuff links, bracelets, and others.

Lubbock merchants donating prizes are Corcorans, Penrod's, Sanson Paint and Paper company, Anderson Brothers Jewelers, Godwin's Youth Shop, S&Q Clothiers, Bray's Campus Toggery, Allen's shoe store, J. C. Penney, Steger Dress Shop, Tech Drug, Dunlap's, Hackle's, Anne Ford's, Bowen's Drug, Wylie's Drug, Montgomery Ward, King's Jewelry, Grollman's, Hanna-Pope, Walton's, Kinney's Shoe store, Shaw's Jewelry, Varsity Bookstore, Thomas Jewelry, Lester's Credit Jewelry, Sue Helen Shop, Hackle's College Avenue store, Durham Burdine, Levine's, Martha Washington, Kuykendall Chevrolet company, Hemphill Wells, and Sears and Roebuck.

Proceeds will go for the senior class gift to the college, Alderson said. Gifts being considered are a portable public address system or an electrical score board for the gym, he said.

Chief Prosecutor Of U. S. To Make Graduation Talk

Tom C. Clark, attorney general of the United States, will address the spring graduating class of Tech. Clark who is a native Texan, will also receive an honorary doctor of laws degree "in recognition of his outstanding service to the state and nation," it was announced by W. M. Whyburn, Tech president.

Attorney General Clark will be the first member of the president's cabinet and the first person of national prominence to serve as commencement speaker at Tech. He will be the eighth person to receive an honorary degree from Texas Technological College. The Tech board of directors voted last spring to confer the honorary degree upon Attorney General Clark. The invitation to serve as commencement speaker and receive the degree was extended Clark and Dr. W. M. Whyburn has received his written acceptance.

"The coming of U. S. Attorney Clark to our campus," said Dr. Whyburn, "is a notable event in itself. When, in addition to visiting the campus, this member of the President's cabinet does us the honor of delivering our commencement address and receiving an honorary degree, the occasion becomes historic in the life of the institution."

Plans are still not complete concerning the commencement exercise which will take place June 2. A committee to complete arrangements has been partially selected and is composed of representatives of the council of deans, the convocation committee, the faculty advisory committee, the Lubbock Bar association, and the city of Lubbock. The following have already been selected to serve on the committee: Dean R. C. Goodwin and Dean O. V. Adams from the council of deans; W. C. Holden, dean of graduate studies; T. C. Root will represent the convocation committee and Dr. Whyburn, Mayor Bestwick, Charles Guy, and A. B. Davis have been selected to represent the city of Lubbock. The Lubbock Bar association will select three members to serve and the faculty advisory committee will also select three members.

Present plans are for the graduation ceremony to be held in the college stadium. Dr. Whyburn will confer the degree on Attorney General Clark.

Mr. Clark was born in Dallas in 1899. He attended Virginia Military Institute one year and served in the Texas National Guard during World War I. He graduated from the University of Texas in 1922 and was admitted to the Texas Bar association the same year. He was chosen as civil district attorney for Dallas county in 1927. Named as special assistant to U. S. Attorney General Homer S. Cummings in 1937, he served in various capacities in that office until May, 1945, when President Truman appointed him attorney general of the United States.

Party Will Be Sponsored For Author, Illustrator

John McCarty and Harold D. Bugbee, author and illustrator of "Maverick Town, The Story of Old Tascosa," will be presented at an autographing party sponsored by the Varsity Bookstore Tuesday, March 25 from 1-2:30 p. m. and from 4-4:30 p. m. Mrs. Charlotte Gaylor, manager of the trade book department of the Bookstore, said that all students are invited.

Some of Bugbee's oil paintings, pen and ink drawings, and water colors are on display in the window of the Bookstore. His illustrations appear on the cover of "The Cattleman." Bugbee painted the murals for the Old Tascosa bar in Amarillo. "Bugbee is one of the most outstanding artists of the West," Mrs. Gaylor said.

Upper Five Percent Listed With 94 Percent Veterans

TWVA Loan Drive To Begin Monday

Campus-wide participation in the Veteran's Memorial Loan Fund drive will begin Monday, according to Floyd Read, TWVA commander. Featuring a contest among all campus organizations, the drive will be climaxed by an all-college sport dance Friday night in the gym.

Used books will be collected for the Fund all week in the rotunda of the Administration building. Each book given will be credited to the club or organization which the donor specifies. A progressive chart, showing the relative standing of each club, will also be kept in the Administration building. At the end of the week, the winner will be announced and will be given points in the Tech Chamber of Commerce contest to select the organization which has helped Tech most this semester.

Veteran's Memorial Loan Fund, a non-profit organization sponsored by TWVA, will allow veteran's children to borrow money while attending Tech. The Fund also will be available to veterans now in school, through application to the Coordinator of Veteran's Affairs, TWVA, making the first large contribution, voted Tuesday night to pay all the expenses of the dance Friday night, and let the Loan Fund have all the proceeds.

Each person who contributes $5 or the equivalent in books will become a voting member of the Memorial Loan Fund; less than $5 will make the donor an honorary member. Certificates will be given to all members, according to James Conely, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Fund.

"In 25 years, the Fund will have served its purpose and will be turned over to the Tech Board of Directors to be used for some permanent improvement for the school," Conely stated.

Techsans Attend Tex-Okla Region Student Meeting

Bob Click and Loy Catherine Barnett, delegates from Tech Student Council, left yesterday for Austin to attend the Texas-Oklahoma regional meeting of the newly organized National Continuation Committee for the Chicago Student Conference, March 21-22. University of Texas is host to the convocation.

Problems to be considered at the meeting are better student housing, student health and recreational facilities, higher educational standards, elimination of discrimination in educational opportunities, and student contributions to international understanding and good will, according to a letter received by Troy Davidson, president of the student body, from John Wilson, chairman of the Texas-Oklahoma regional meeting.

The United States was the only country in the world which had no national student organization, it was discovered last summer at the World Students' Congress in Prague, Czechoslovakia, Wilson said. The Prague Congress met to institute the International Union of Students, and 10 U. S. colleges and universities including the University of Texas were represented, Wilson said.

Hughs Is Officer Of Rodeo Group

Edd Hughs, Junior agriculture student, was elected vice-president of the Western Intercollegiate Rodeo Association which was held at Tucson during the seventh Annual Intercollegiate Rodeo. This was the first meeting of the association which was organized to further intercollegiate rodeo competition among the schools of the West.

Hughs, whose home is in Springfield, Colorado, is chairman of the Tech Rodeo Association which was formed last semester. Members of the Tech Association urge all students interested in the association to make plans to join as it is open to all students.

Other schools represented at the meet were: Arizona, University, University of Wyoming, New Mexico University, Arizona State at Tempe and Flagstaff, Colorado A & M, California Polytechnic, California Aggies, and Hardin-Simmons University.

Tech War Veterans made up the majority of students who made the honor roll for the fall semester, according to W. P. Clement, registrar. Of the 274 men whose names appear on the honor roll, 174 (82 per cent) are veterans.

The official honor roll of the college is made up of the names of students enrolled for 12 semester hours or more and ranking in the upper 5 per cent of the student body. For the fall semester, the list includes the names of 274 students: 211 men and 63 women.

Of the 41 students making a straight A record, 33 were men. Of the 33 men, 31 (94 per cent) were veterans. Out of 3837 men in college 33 made a straight A record.

Other students making the A honor roll are: Panze Butler, Vada DeWitt, Joe Ericson, Maxine Harp, Winfred Larabee, Jean McNeill, William Marney, Anne G. Newman, Eva Ruth Turnbough, and Dorothy Mae Yrooman.

A average was made by 233 students. Of these, 178 were men and 55 were women. Of the 178 men making an A- average, 145 (81 per cent) were veterans.

Veterans with a 2.56-2.99 average are: Eric Dell Adams, Theodore Alexander, Bonnie Allen, Bobby N. Armstrong, Clifford Jean Arnold, Wesley Astrow, Harold Balfour, Glenn Bandy, Rex Baxterton, Robert Baumgardner, John J. Baylis, Henry Bedford, Arthur L. Vet Guidance Center Activated At Tech

A veterans' vocational guidance center began operations at Tech March 10, according to a joint statement issued by the President's office and the Veterans administration regional office.

The center, directed by R. L. Hooten, will aid veterans in ascertaining the vocation for which they are best suited. Mental and mechanical tests, along with counseling, will enable veterans to choose the proper field of study—a field which fits both his likes and his abilities. However, no one will be forced to accept the course recommended by the counselors.

VA has contracted with the college to provide professional counselors from the faculty. Dr. Albert Barnett, professor of education and psychology, has been chosen as chief counselor, and he will be assisted by Drs. Agnes True and Lewis B. Cooper, associate professors of education and psychology. Other members of the college staff will be employed to administer and grade the examinations.

An official statement from the VA said, "For many veterans, guidance in the selection of an occupational or educational objective may be all that will be required; others may need assistance with special problems arising out of physical disabilities, personal, social, or family problems, mental conflicts in attaining emotional stability, or in learning how to secure and hold a job. All the necessary counseling services which may be required in the case of an individual veteran are to be provided."

Present location of the guidance center, the classrooms at the east end of the Judging Pavilion, is temporary, according to Trent C. Root, assistant to the President. Surplus government buildings will be obtained later to house the present.

Veterans desiring tests and counseling should submit written requests to the guidance center in order that they may be

CE Dept. To Show Fireless Lighter

Exhibits from the Department of Chemical Engineering for the 1947 Engineering Show will be under the supervision of Will Gillett, senior chemical engineer from Lubbock and departmental superintendent.

Feature exhibits to be in the large auditorium of the chemistry building will demonstrate: the properties of liquid air; a fireless cigarette lighter; color transfer through a wire; glass distillation column showing fractional distillation of petroleum; ammonia fountain, and fluorescent chemicals of various types and properties. Several chemistry labs will be open for observation during the show.

Other exhibits to be found in the chemistry building will include: the operation of die and press in making plastic souvenir ash trays; spectrographic analysis of compounds to determine the elements present; refractometer methods of determining composition of material from its refractive index; colorimeter method of determining the relative concentration of materials in solution; electro-plating of small objects; photography exhibit showing development of negatives and printing of pictures; plastic exhibits; and a potentiometer titration, the use of electric current to determine the acidity of a solution.

scheduled at the proper times. Guidance centers in West Texas, besides the one at Tech, are located at Texas School of Mines, El Paso; Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene; and West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon. Veterans who are in need of counseling and who are not enrolled in one of these schools should go to the one nearest their home.

What with everyone on the campus talking college politics this week, we will join the ranks of those poor fools like Gallup, Pearson and Winchell who get some sort of fiendish pleasure out of being publicly wrong, and do some prognostication of our own:

Prediction No. 1: The hottest and most contested races this spring will be for these three: Head Boy Cheer Leader; Toreador Editor; and Secretary of the Student Body.

Prediction No. 2: In the elections, only 43 per cent of the student body will vote.

Prediction No. 3: Of the final winners in all races, 50 per cent will be veterans.

Prediction No. 4: Of all winners, 75 per cent will be social club members.

Prediction No. 5: More than one-fourth of all petitions being signed for all offices will be taken out the last two days before the deadline, after certain candidates find out which offices will offer the least competition.

Prediction No. 6: The men will again, as in pre-war times, take over campus politics, and fill all jobs except: Secretary of the Student Body—some Student Council positions—and Head Girl Cheer Leader.

Prediction No. 7: There will be no campaign promises, but the largest amount of campaigning ever done at Tech.

Prediction No. 8: Someone will disagree with us.

Good Climate, Free Land Sites, Pretty Indians, Says Ecuador

Are you tired with life in general? Would you like to get away from it all? Think before you answer these questions, because here is your chance if you really feel the urge for "back to nature."

The following is a release from Republica Del Ecuador, "By Presidential Decree and Government Contract, Supervision of Ministerio De Economia, Depto. de Tierras Baldias y Colonizacion." For immediate release.

"The Republic of Ecuador, in South America, announces its bid for colonists by opening up 124,000 acres of rich land for British and American colonization. This unusual offer has been made possible by Presidential Decree and the endorsement of the Minister of Economy and Minister of Public Works.

Every settler may obtain 124 acres of potential farm land, a townsite lot in one of two villages of the land concession located upon Ecuador's new, all weather highway that links the concession with Quito, capital city of the republic, and will soon link the colony with the port city of Esmeraldas on the Pacific coast. Married men or heads of families, may have twice as much land, 248 acres.

"Although crossed by the equator this area of Ecuador enjoys a salubrious climate due to the cold arctic (their spelling) Humboldt current which sweeps close inshore as it flows north past this part of the country. The nearness of the snow-capped mountains in the central cordillera, also tends to create a climate that is ideal and with no extremes of either heat or cold in spite of the equatorial geographical location.

"Soil experts state that the earth in this land is equal to that of Java, long recognized as the richest in the world. Java and Ecuador are about the same size, yet Java supports fifty million people while Ecuador's total population is a scant three million. Among the crops that thrive to perfection upon this land are: Bananas, eleven different kinds, Oranges, Lemons, Limes, Papaya, Pineapples, Sugar Cane, Rice, Breadfruit, Coffee, Cacao, and a host of other tropical fruits, vegetables and paying crops. The land is crossed by several streams and two rivers flow nearby. Natural wild rubber trees are scattered throughout the area.

"The laws of Ecuador provide that settlers need pay no taxes on agricultural development or land for five years. And even after that, they would enjoy Ecuador's extremely moderate taxes which are famous for their low rate, especially to agriculturists. Furthermore, the American and British settlers may retain their citizenship indefinitely.

"A government owned and operated hospital is located near the British-American concession and serves the settlers. Not far distant live the picturesque tribe of peaceful Colorados Indians whose women-folk are noted for their beauty of face and grace of body.

"Settlers are allowed to bring into Ecuador, with them, all of their personal effects, household goods and agricultural equipment free of all customs duty charges.

"The language of Ecuador is Spanish, but many of the better educated Ecuadorians speak English, and most of Ecuador's schools are teaching English to the young people. During the late world war, Ecuador went all out to support the cause of the United Nations and much of the crude rubber and balsam wood, as well as vitally important quinine and other tropical crops that were desperately needed, came from Ecuador.

"Top stands of magnificent tropical woods are to be found upon the land and settlers can use this for building purposes, selling the surplus at good local prices.

"Under the same Presidential Decree that provides land in this concession for immigrant British and American settlers, a clause was included to make it possible for individuals to acquire land in the colony area as absentee owners. This clause enables business men or small syndicates to take over land here and have it operated for them, after it has been cleared and planted, as a commercial tropical crop and profit investment. The absentee owner need not move to and live upon his land but can arrange to either have one of the resident settlers look after it for him, or appoint an authorized representative to work it for him.

"Confirmation of the decree by the Ecuadorian Government may be obtained through the Ecuadorian Embassy in Washington or London, or from any Ecuadorian Consulate in North America or Great Britain.

"Interested parties may obtain a thirty-six page pamphlet giving full and complete details of the land concession and colony, with instructions on how they may obtain land either as settlers or absentee owners, by writing to the Government Co-Intermediary, Dr. J. M. Sheppard, Casilla 315, Quito, Ecuador, South America."

THE SUNNY SIDE: Every dark cloud has a silver lining or so they say. In the case of the cafeteria, it's Opal L. Wood who has worked very hard to make the students' stay in the cafeteria a pleasant one. The food and the atmosphere have been good—orchids to Miss Wood and her staff. . . . Dr. Doyle D. Jackson has a good minstrel show joke about television complete with southern drawl. Dr. Jackson spreads more good will for Tech than anyone we know.

THE LATE WATCH: Jack Brown was directing traffic for the Friendly Circle Boxing Matches Saturday night. . . . Does Glenn Bailey, of Drane Hall, have trouble sleeping nights? . . . Soci had a bespoken Saturday afternoon and made it to church en masse come Sunday morning. . . . The dietician's neighbors in Speed don't live there anymore.

THE NOW-IT-CAN-BE-TOLD DEPARTMENT: Now we know what happened to Whittier's teeth. He lost 'em when O. B. Freeman made like a horse in the lead leased cafe.

SOME OF THE PEOPLE: Johnnie Sue Hamilton was knocking them out at the Varsity dance with one bare shoulder and an ice blue formal. . . . Betty Weaver knocked herself out at Varsity Show practice last week when the back of her head connected with a concrete floor. . . . Libba Hurbut who transferred to TU was back in the home town Saturday. Jim Cannon was happy about the whole situation. (To the fuddy-duddy who sent us the unsigned letter reminding us that there were people alive other than the Kemas and their girls, we can only say, in regard to the last item, Ooops. Sorry.

SEVEN LAST WORDS: "The Seven Last Words," a musical oration by De Bussy will not be presented this year, according to Dr. Julian Paul Blitz.

Slipped. . . . Alumnus Jack Brown wearing a faint mustache had lunch on the campus Friday. . . . On the steady list this week are Camille Stevens-Bob Renner and Bobbie Childers-Jason Allen.

Spanish Students Plan Mexico Trip For This Summer

Spanish 4310-11 advanced course on Spanish civilization in Mexico will be offered this summer for the first time since 1941. Dr. T. Earle Hamilton, associate professor of foreign languages, announced today. The course will be conducted in Mexico, and is limited to an enrollment of twenty, said Hamilton.

Plans have been made to leave Lubbock from the Administration building July 22, and to return to Lubbock the evening of August 29, stated Hamilton. The trip to Mexico City will cover four days, with overnight stops in San Antonio, Monterrey and Ciudad Valles.

Six applications for enrollment in the course have been received by Dr. Hamilton. These are from Betty Lou Walker, 1945 graduate, Betty Su Frazer, Spanish major from Lubbock, Lorene Sanders, 1943 graduate, Bonnie Jean Smith, graduate major in the Foreign Language major from Lubbock, and Miriam Turrentine, 1946 graduate. Complete information concerning costs and qualifications can be obtained from Dr. Hamilton in the Administration building.

Track Men Go To Fort Worth For Fat Stock Show Meet

Texas Tech's track hopefuls will return to the cinders this weekend in the annual Fort Worth Fat Stock show track meet against some of the stiffest competition of the southwest. A squad of approximately 16 men will make the trip leaving Lubbock by bus at 8 a. m. Friday and arriving in Fort Worth in time to go through light workouts in the afternoon.

Teams Tech will compete against include Texas University, Baylor, Texas A. & M., Rice, SMU, TCU, Oklahoma A. & M., and perhaps the University of Oklahoma. Texas and Texas A. & M. are favorites to win the meet since finishing in a virtual tie in the Border Olympics.

Bad weather, including rain and snow the past week continued to handicap the Raiders and Coach Walker Nichols expressed the opinion that his team will not be in top form for the Fort Worth meet.

"We don't hope to win too many points in the meet," Nichols said, "in view of the stiff competition. We will be satisfied with a few points."

Preliminaries will be held starting at 9:30 a. m., Saturday in the 120-yard high hurdles, 220-yard low hurdles, 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, and 440-yard dash. Finals for all events will start at 1 p. m.

The Abilene Christian college track team nosed out the Texas Tech Red Raiders last Saturday in Abilene 65½ to 61½ to win the top spot in the second annual quadrangular track meet.

Other colleges competing were Hardin-Simmons, third with 25½ points and McMurry last with 8½ points. ACC also won last year's meet.

Bert Brewer, ACC speedster took top individual scoring honors with an aggregate total of 19½ points, placing first in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles and broad jump and running anchor on the 440-yard relay team. He placed second in the 120-yard high hurdles and tied for fourth in the pole vault.

Edward Clepper led Tech point-makers with 8½ points, followed by Seth Murphy with 8, Ralph Earhart 7½, James Crusier and Willie Florence 7 each.

The Raiders placed first in seven events, second in four and third in seven. The well-balanced Tech team placed in every event but

Tech's Golf Team Plays First Game

Texas Tech golfers had trouble on the frozen greens of Abilene country club last week end, but tied Abilene Christian college and defeated Hardin-Simmons and McMurry. The Techsans, in their first tournament after a war lapse, posted a 4-man team medal score of 318 on the wind-swept course.

Jerry Stoltz, of Hobbs, N. M., led all golfers with a 75 on the par 70 course. Jack Walker, Memphis, carded an 81, Bill Baxter, Dallas, 85, and E. H. McKinney, Brownfield, 87, for Tech. These men had posted low medal scores in a team elimination contest at Lubbock Country Club early last week.

The linksmen leave next Friday for El Paso to compete in 36 cup medal play. Four Border conference teams will oppose them: Texas Mines, Arizona University, New Mexico University and New Mexico A. and M.

The golfers who played at Abilene will defend their team positions April 1 at the country club. Four men will be selected from the squad of 18 during the 36 holes of medal play.

FENCING

The round-robin epee tournament that is in progress between members of the Tech fencing squad has advanced into the last stages. At this time according to coach George Beakley, Mark Smith, Sammy Self, Jimmy Kilpatrick, Jack Carnell, and Keith Wells are all in position to win the tournament.

WHITE TO ADDRESS CLASS

C. A. White, President of the Texas Association of Public Accountants, will speak at the next regular meeting of the Tech Accounting Society, April 5, 7-15, Ad 206A. White will discuss all practical problems in the public accounting field and give details of the accounting law recently passed and the legislation pending in the Texas legislature at present, according to Rayford Moody, President.

was disqualified in the 440-yard relay when Seth Murphy crossed into the wrong lane down the stretch.

Fencers To Meet Baylor, UT Teams Saturday In Gym

Tech fencers will meet Baylor and Texas U. this Saturday afternoon in Tech gym. The matches will start at 3 o'clock. There will be matches in all three weapons, epee, sabre, and foil.

This is the only scheduled match that will be fought here this season, and George Beakley, fencing instructor, said that any student or townspeople are welcome to watch the matches. There will be no admission charge.

These matches are not on a collegiate eligibility basis, but more like the AAU. Therefore post-graduate students are also eligible. George Beakley is in this category. And Alvin Adelman, Baylor fencing instructor who will fight Saturday is also. Adelman is the only man in Southwest Conference history to hold all three individual championships at the same time. He also won a second place in the international tournament held during the Mardi Gras at New Orleans before the war. Twenty-eight foreign nations were represented in this tournament. Hal Lattimore, Texas U. will also fight Saturday. He is one of the best sabre men in the country, and also advanced to the semi-finals in all three weapons in the international tournament.

Tech defeated both Baylor and Texas in previous matches this year, but at that time only eligible men fought in the matches.

The next match for the Tech fencers will be in Dallas on April 12, with Texas A&M and the Galveston Fencing club. April 26 they return to Dallas and fight the Dallas YMCA and Houston Fencing Club. The team will also go to Austin, May 12, for the Individual Championship matches of the Southwest.

The Tech team will consist of George Beakley, Sammy Self, Jack Carnell, Mark Smith, Tom Gardner, Bill Stevens, Marvin Quaid, Keith Wells, Jack Drain, John Harvey, L. B. Holly, John Beakley, Harry Gunn, White, and Lewis Kaufman, and Jimmy Kilpatrick.

After the word had circulated about the Notre Dame campus that Bob Feller had signed for $90,000 this season and that Ted Williams was to receive $75,000, when baseball practice was called the coach found himself surrounded by 323 pitchers and 175 left-handers.

Former Quintet Performer On 38th Regimental Team

Former Techsian Leonard Steger, Raider Quintet performer in 1945 and '46, has been one of the main sparkplugs of the 38th Regimental combat team basketball team all season at Camp Carson, Colorado. Long one of the most talented players on the 38th Regimental combat squad, Steger recently worked himself into a first-string guard position. He has to date occupied secondary roles on the 38th team, but nevertheless has tallied 39 points.

Steger has the highest rank on the squad. He attracted wide attention here in 1945 and '46 with his excellent cage tactics before he was inducted into the Army one year ago. Before entering into college competition, he saw considerable action with Dumas High School, where he participated in four years of basketball and two years of football play. He took his basic training at Fort McClellan,

Centaur Is Undefeated In Basketball Tourney

Centaur took the lead last week in intramural play with four wins and no defeats. Wranglers have lost no games, but have garnered only three victories. The two teams meet March 25 in the game that will likely determine the social club winner.

Next weeks schedule:
March 24, Kemas-Wranglers, Socii-Centaur, Los Coms-Silver Keys.

March 25, College Club-Silver Keys, Kemas-Socii, Wranglers-Centaur.

March 27, Kemas-Silver Keys, Los Coms-College Club, Wranglers-Socii.

Silver Keys defeated Socii 30-17, a week ago last night. Kemas lost 17-24 to College Club, and Centaur eked out 19-18 over Los Coms.

Up from the Ranks

These are presidents of operating telephone companies of the Bell System. They all started at the bottom of the ladder . . . Nine years ago the Bell System first published an advertisement like this, except that there are now thirteen new faces in the pictures. These new presidents also started at the bottom.

The Bell System aims to keep the opportunity for advancement open to all.

One of its traditions is that its executives come up from the ranks. That has been true of the business for many years and nowhere is it better illustrated than in the careers of the men who now serve as presidents of Bell Telephone Companies.

As a group, they have put in 611 years of telephone service, an average of 36 years each.

And Suddenly It's Spring

By WINIFRED LARABEE
Toreador Staff Writer

"It's spring again, the birds on the wing again," according to popular song, the calendar, and Dr. Lack's Almanac. March 21: First Day of Spring, it says here.

All of which reminds us that poets aren't so smart, however poetic they may be. So it's spring again—but do apple blossoms fill the air? And what about this "rustling shade"? We didn't know about a shade rustle, but we've heard a lot about Jane Russell.

It's spring again, and we've been looking to see a young man's fancy lightly turn to thoughts of what a young girl has been thinking of all winter. We saw one young man turn, and he turned to us, and he said, "When are we going to have that Spanish quiz?"

It's spring again. Well, it might as well be spring because we have a rendezvous with death at some disputed barricade called Operation Midsemester Exams. And we are slightly discontented.

It's spring again. Tell the snow to stop falling. Tell the first meadow flower to appear. Tell the sparrows in the gym to go back to Capistrano—they're two days late already.

It's spring!

Restrictions Lifted On GI Insurance

GI insurance has been liberalized and many restrictions have been lifted, George A. Sessums, Insurance officer of the Regional VA office, told TWVA members Tuesday night.

"Veterans, whether they had insurance in the service or not, are now eligible for National Service Life insurance, unless they are totally disabled," Sessums said. He added that August 1, 1947, is the final date for reinstatement of policies that have lapsed.

Any beneficiary can now be named, changing the war-time stipulation that only near relatives could serve as beneficiaries.

"Another important change is in the payment of settlements to beneficiaries. Payments may be made in a lump sum if the insured so desires; he may choose that payments be made in 36 or 120 equal monthly installments, or monthly installments for the life of the beneficiary," Sessums continued.

Conversion of GI insurance to civilian-type policies is not automatic, according to the VA officer. The veteran must apply in person in order to convert his insurance. The veteran may convert into regular life insurance, 20-year or 30-year pay, endowment at 60, or endowment at 65 policies.

"Insurance may be converted into any number of policies, in multiples of $1,000, and the effective date of conversion may be any date the veteran chooses, so long as that date was not before he entered the service," he said.

Premiums are payable on a monthly basis, or may be paid in advance, in which case 3 per cent is deducted from the amount. Terminal leave bonds, which cannot be cashed now, can be used to pay premiums on government insurance.

Sessums pointed out that 250,000 veterans reinstated their insurance during the past year, and that the VA is now making payments to 372,000 beneficiaries each month.
